Poor said that Reuben (5), (who I take it, was son of Ephraim (4) and nephew of Sarah, who married Furbush) had a son Ephraim, who lived in the house where Naomi Stickney lived in 1866; and that he was there at the birth of a child in 1780. He died in 1815. His wife, a Thorndike of Tewksbury, died about the same time. He was a farmer. Their children were: Mary, who m. Elwell, of Salem, Mass., Sally, who m. a Crosby Hannah, m. a Thayer of Braintree; Oliver, died at sea; unm.
The Stickneys moved in after Coreys left.
