A list of the Rebels, 72 in all, who were sent to Barbadoes in 1680 in the Ship BETTY because they refused to take the Oath of Allegiance, included:

Capt. James May, ROBERT EARLE, Capt. John Sutton, Jn. Collins, Andrew Hawkins; 1685:- James Cochrane, John Cochrane, Thos. and Enoch Gould, Emanuel Ward, Thomas and Henry Priest , Thomas Austin, etc. William Potts with Robert Earle. Records do not say where they were sent from. Sound like our names here.

Could it be possible it was our Robert, after birth of daughter Elizabeth in 1680?
