BALLARDOVALE
FRYE VILLAGE
SOUTH PARISH
WEST PARISH

COMPILED BY
CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT
This village was named for Timothy Ballard, 6th in descent from William (1) Ballard, one of the original grantees of the town of Andover. Timothy held all the privileges along the Shawshin River, and for years, his was the only estate in this section. His land was rented for cattle grazing. He owned a blacksmith shop and a cider mill, and at his home, summer boarders from the city were accommodated. He built the mill house in 1790. In 1803, his was one of the two homes in the village.

In 1836, the building boom started, for in that year a woolen manufacturing company was incorporated at Andover, under the name of the Ballard Vale Company. Mr. John Harland was treasurer and agent and he and his brother, William S. Harland, withdrew from the Harland Mfg. Co. of South Parish. They bought the property and mill rights formerly owned by Timothy Ballard, and for him, they named the company and the village, Abraham J. Gould, who had married a niece of Timothy's, Mark Newman, and others, were connected with the new organization. They manufactured cotton and woolen goods and experimented with silk, introducing mulberry trees into the Vale for the cultivation of silk worms.

The early employees of the mill were mainly of Scotch, English and Irish origin, skilled in their crafts. Thrifty, industrious and ambitious, they were soon owners of their homes and striving to educate their children.

This brief compilation will merely serve as a genealogical link between the "old country" and the new.
BECKET, ALEXANDER, and wife, lived awhile in the Pierson home (Henry Flint's). Becket went to England to buy cattle for John Marland, and Mrs. Becket went to Henry Haywood's as tenant in his absence. Later moved to Marland's to care for the greenhouse, and then to Lowell. They were Scotch.

John William

Barbara Ellen; Josephine.
WORTHLY, LUKE... was born in Antrim, N.H., 1809. He married Elizabeth Poor, daughter of Stephen Poor of Andover and wife, Ruth Davis. Elizabeth was b. in Hancock, N.H., 1810, after her father has sold his fulling mill, at the mouth of the Shawshin, and moved to N.H.

The Worthlys made their home on Elm street, the Lovejoy farm, where the Richardson stables now stand. They were members of South Church, where Mrs. Worthly's broken but fervent hymn singing is still remembered. She had a family Bible and told me many good tales of the Poors, which were set forth in its annals.

Luke and Elizabeth had:

Daniel, b. in Hinsdale, N.H., April 1, 1836; enlisted 1861 in Co. L, 26th Rgt. Credited to Lawrence in 2nd enlistment, 1864. Dis. 1865.

Mark, b. in Antrim, 1845; was a shoe dealer and manufacturer in Lynn, 37 years. Was in the Lowell mills awhile and when his parents came to Andover, about 1858 he went to Lynn, where he lived 45 years. He was a member of the Oxford Club and several Shoe trade organizations; helped found Lynn's Bank and Lynn Safe Deposit and Trust Co. Res. on Prescott Road; d. March 3, 1915; left a widow and three sons, Howard, Herbert and Everett, and a daughter, Pauline.

Luke, b. in Nashua, 1848; d. at Medfield, Apr. 1, 1901.

Franklin, ; was in hardware store in Boston, near Cornhill.

Abby, b. in N.H., Feb. 5, 1844; taught in Abbott Village school. She was so rigid a disciplinarian and used the strap so much, it took the children a year to get accustomed to my method, when I succeeded her as teacher. She d. Apr. 19, 1901, widow of a Mr. Davis of Acton, who d. 1891. She lived with her sister, Phebe.

Phebe, b. 1838; was a dressmaker here many years. After I gave up teaching as too arduous, I began my work under Phebe, following her from house to house as a seamstress, until I also took up the work of fitting. She was the most successful, if not the first, downtown dressmaker we had.

Luke Worthly and my brother Henry were out gunning on Carmel, and Hen brought down a young eagle. As Luke had put in one shot after it fell they couldn't agree who should have it. The pig got the remains while they arbitrated. I got a wing and claw. The eagle measured 4 ft.

PASHO, HENRY F. was born in Andover, Oct. 10, 1822, the son of Henry F. Pasho. His mother was Nancy Abbott, who was b. March 15, 1801, daughter of Enoch Abbott and wife, Nancy. Henry went to school here, and when old enough to work, entered the woolen mill in Ballardvale, then owned by John Marland. A few years later he went to work on the farm owned by David Baker, where he remained until the B. and M. R.R. began to put their road through Andover. He got work on the construction and rose until he became one of the most trusted engineers on the line. It is said that he ran the first train over the line from Manchester to Lawrence.

He married Frances Richardson, and after his retirement from the B. & M., he lived with his wife and family on his farm on Summer street. Mrs. Pasho was an ardent member of Free Church, and although Mr. Pasho was not connected with any church, he was interested in his wife's affiliations. When an engineer, he brought a young maple tree on his engine and planted it on Free Church land, where it flourished.

Mr. Pasho d. July 24, 1890. His wife died previously, at the age of 69. They had:

Wm. Albert, b. July 26, 1828.
SOUTH PARISH

SOUTH PARISH... had a home on Brook street, in what I think was the old house once Pamela Wood's. It has since been moved to the corner near the R.R. station and is a tenement house. Brook street was once a part of the old road from the Resting House to Peter Smith's and then to Nathan Keeley's house. It went back across the lots toward the Chandler places.

SESSIONS, ALEXANDER... and wife, Elizabeth Spofford, were in Andover early.
Elizabeth was b. 1646, the daughter of John Spofford and w. Elizabeth Scott. Alexander d. 1688. She m. 2nd., a Low, of Andover. A deed of 1724, calls her Elizaabeth of Low, of Andover, widow, and concerns land in Rowley, which had belonged to her father, John Spofford, and to her brother, Francis. The Sessions children were:-

Elizabeth, b. 1672.
John, b. 1674.
Alexander, b. 1675.
Timothy, b. 1677.
Samuel, b. 1678.
Nath'l, b. 1683.
Josiah, b. 1684.
Joseph, b. 1685.
Abel, b. 1686.

STEVENS, JAMES... took a square of the property once owned by the ballard heirs, and built a mansion, 1782. This is the old house opposite the Baptist Church. The purchase was East side Boston Road and joining Mr. Wardwell's bds.-
1/2 a 30 p. -- for 18 $.

SWIFT, DR. NATH'L... had the house which still stands on the corner of Central and Brook streets. The Nath'l Swift building-(Smith and Manning) was built in 1832.

WARDWELL, JOHN... bought from Josiah and Wm. Ballard, in 1777, 2 acres and orchard they still hold- East side of Boston Road, NW cor. on Parker's wall- and E on Roger's brook-SE on Dan Poor's land- ( Poor held the Draper, Barnard and Bank block site) and J on Poor and a to road. (I think it was the Gray estate later.)

WHITING, DR. ... of Charlestown and Haverhill, lived, in 1663, on the old Allen homestead at Sunset Rock. This was once the home of Martha Allen, who married Thomas Morgan, alias Carrier, and was hanged at Salem as a witch, during the witchcraft craze in 1692.

Ephraim Abbott (3) bought the place from Allen and left it to his son, Abenezer (4) Abbott.
Other tenants and owners were John Preston, Ben West, who held the land where the house stood, and gave it to a Holt, who in turn sold to Whiting.
Cornelius Johnson and his family lived there for a time and the family of W. Russell, who were summer residents. Russell was known as "Elocutionist" Russell.

The young son of the Russells wandered into the woods to read or sketch, and died there. His body was found months later, sitting against a tree with a book beside it. In her grief, Mrs. Russell committed suicide, in a pasture nearby. A man later took his life on the same place and these tragedies have given rise to the tale that the site is haunted.

WARE, ALBERT P.  ... of Providence, R.I., Worcester and Andover, m. in 1839, Elizabeth Abbott, b. 1814, daughter of Col. Ben Abbott and 1st wife, Mary Kidder. FRIE VILLAGE
BARNARD, DAVID... married Lydia Frye, daughter of Theophilus Frye, who owned a Grist Mill in Frye Village. David settled on the place owned in 1864 by Squire Hazen. (White Pups)

"ISAAC OSGOOD... moved from the house in which John Henry lived, see 1872 map- and built a house on opposite side of Lowell street, in 1847. He bought the land from Mr. Faulkner.

"ORRIN... Lived on Lowell street in half a two-family house—the other side being the residence of a Faulkner family. The Battles family lived later on the same site. A barn on the Barnard property was made into the Rae house, west of it.

"OSGOOD... had a shop and house on Lowell street near West Parish Church, at the cross road. The store was built by Nathan Abbott and then Nathan Holt took it for a home. He sold it, in exchange, to Orrin Barnard.

BATTLES, CHARLOTTE, widow of Mr. Battles who came from Plymouth with Eph. Everson and others, to work for Faulkner, Richard- son and Smith, lived for a time, in the corner house opposite the Frye Village store, on property which her father, John Wardwell, bought for $600, in 1794. Later she and her husband owned the place which he bought from Je cuttham Abbott, July 1839. The house, on Lowell St., second west of the school-house (see 1872 map) was built by Jed Abbott in 1819, and was the Abbott residence until the Battles family came. The land later owned by the Stevens heirs was once owned by Battles. They held all the land from Faulkner's place to the woods beyond Michael Walker's—20 acres.

HENRY, JOHN AMES... came from North Andover, April 1854, to live on Lowell street in a house opposite mill's (see 1872 map). Richard Hill began to make the house over from a barn, 1840. Andrew Frye was a tenant before the Henry family. John Henry was b. in Meredith, N.H., May 7, 1817. His mother was an Ames. He married Hannah Dodge, daughter of Ban Trow. Their children were:

Next east of his place was Battles, on north side of street. Had a dau., Carrie, b. Oct. 18, 1863.
FRYE VILLAGE

ORALL, JOHN... son of Anthony Orall of Londonderry, was b. in Montreal, Canada, Feb. 1843. He m. Francesca Merrill daughter of Mehemia Merrill and w. Sophia Deane Plummer. They lived on Lowell street in a large house on north side, somewhere near John Henry's. Orall came in May, 1864, to work on the farm owned by Peter Smith.

Mrs. Orall's mother lived on Gipsy Road near the schoolhouse.

SPENCE, JAMES... son of George Spence and w. Catherine Petra, came on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, 1864, with his wife to Frye Village, to live in the John Smith house. They were from Scotland, from whence they sailed two days after their marriage, April 1854. They landed at Newcastle, Canada. They came from Canada to Andover, May, 1860. Mrs. Spence was Agnes, daughter of George Sierwright and w. Margaret Lamkay, b. in Montrose, Scotland. The Spence children:- George Sierwright, b. in Canada, April 12, 1855. James; d.y. Alice; d.y. Catherine S.; b. Oct. 1858 in Newcastle, Canada. Maria Jane, b. in New Castle, May 1860. Laura A., b. in Frye Village, Sept. 23, 1864.

WARDWELL, JOHN... bought a house lot in Frye Village for $6 in 1794, and in the little house he built, his daughter, Ursula, died in late years. There was no Turnpike then. A road from Theophilus Frye's to Andover Bridge, ran back of Frye's place to the Harland Mill and to Abbott Village, along Peter Smith's land and past Poor's wagon shop and Jonathan Poor's to the Faulkner house. Then back of Hussey's and Jos. Poor's and past Wardwell's new place to Stott, and along the Brewery Road to Mt. Vernon street, at foot of the hill, and so on to the bridge. The Turnpike tackled the hill directly and left the road behind.

CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT.
BAILEY, RODERICK... had a road house on River Road in a building which was put up in 1840, after the new road was made. He left in 1853 and went West. The place was sold to Prof. Stowe and then to A. Knapp. B. F. Butler owned it in 1863. (Later Hood's)

"SAM..... bought a house in West Parish in 1822 from Josiah Brown, and let it to Micajah Hardy, April 1823. David Hunt seems to have been the first owner of the place, before 1800. David died on the place and his son, John Hunt, inherited it but he moved away to a home near the school-house where he died. The property was sold to Mr. Ray.

"Timothy... said (1863) that his house was built in 1795 by his wife's father, John Poor. Her brother, Joshua inherited it and sold it to his sister, Neziah, who in turn sold to Timothy Bailey, May 1823. This was on River Rd. near Laurel Lane.

"PALMER... lived, (1864) in a house which was hauled across the pond on the ice about 1790. It was known as the Boynton house.

"RUFUS... lived on River Road in a house which was built by Henry Lovejoy when he married Polly Noyes. Aaron Sawyer was the next tenant and then Timothy Bailey, who died there, Nov. 1851. Rufus worked for the widow first and on her death, 1857, he married, and held the place since. (1864 map.)

BARDWELL, SIMON... had a house in the Bailey District, which was built in 1848, the year after Miles Flint built his home. Bardwell's grandfather, Furbush formerly lived on the homestead. The place was rented to Ebenezer Goldsmith and Chas. Flint, 2 years; to Solon Johnson, 3 years and to David Ambrose, 2 years.

"BARNARD, HERMAN... bought the house built by John Tuck. It was sold by Tuck to Joel Merrill and Joel's son, Elijah sold to Herman Barnard in 1837. Herman died there 1853, his widow lived there in 1864.

"JOHN... owned a house 1/2 mile from Aaron Luscomb's, which was left to his son, Herman Barnard. This was sold in 1835 to N. Chandler Abbott.

BARTLETT... a blacksmith, lived, about 1800 in a house that was owned by Joshua Osgood, and stood nearly opposite the present Osgood school-house. The house was later moved and Ebenezer Lovejoy lived in it, 1863.

BLANCHARD, SAM... owned 200 acres that far from the old Osgood place... to Maggett's Pond. Aaron lived E. of school-house, marked Hurd, on 1886 map.
BOYNTON, BEN... died in 1864 in the house on Haggett Pond Road which he got from the Bardwell heirs, 1851, the year he married.

"Henry... lived on Lowell st., at corner of Bellevue Road. The house was built by Gideon Foster and was drawn to the Lowell street site when "Master Billy" was 12 years old. It stood originally on the site of the Ballard Lovejoy (1864) home. Joseph Dane once lived in it. On the Boynton site there was originally an old house which was moved down the road toward the State Almanhouse and was later the home of Jacob French, who rented it from Sam'l Blanchard.

"THOMAS... lived in a house on Lowell St., above Lovejoy Road-north side. Tom's brother Ben lived there next and he sold the place in 1855 to Lieut. R. Josselyn, who in turn sold it to Percy H. Jefferson.

CHASE, JOHN... lived where Jameson lived on Argilla Road (see 1872 map). His daughter married Paul Bailey Follansbee of W. Newbury.

COREY, EPHRAIM... had a home on Haggett's Pond Road, on Wood Hill, this side of Bradley Pearson's. (See 1862 map.) Had 3 daughters - Olive, Sally, Hannah; bpt. May 20, 1767 at So. Church. (Ephraim was of a Tewksbury line.)

CROSBY, JOHN... lived in house on Haggett's Pond Road, which was built by his father-in-law, Tom Boynton. Crosby sold it to Jed. Burtt and he to Abraham Stickney who lived there a year or so. Joseph Kendall was next tenant and lived there 10 or 12 years. Jones lived in it 1864. It was near the R.R. tracks of the Lawrence and Lowell R.R.

"SIMON... lived in a house which belonged to the widow of Jacob Haggett. It was originally said to have been the home of Wright, who was killed by Indians. Simeon married Jacob Haggett's widow. The house was mortgaged to Peter French, who took care of the Crosbys in their old age, according to the deed.

CROWLEY, PETER, and Jeremiah Lee, came in the Spring of 1858, to live in the house opposite Jones, on Haggett's Pond Road. (See Jn. Crosby, above.) Crowley was overseer of the R.R. He moved from there to the Depot (Lowell branch of the R.R.) in May, 1864.

"TIMOTHY... came 1862 as section hand on road to Lawrence. Lived near Follansbee place in 1862, SW of Haggett's Pond, north side Wright's brook.
DOUGAN, TIMOTHY. Barabeg, Cork Co., Ireland; b. 1828, was son of Daniel Domovan and w. Margaret Hurley; he came to Boston, 1848; lived awhile in Blackstone and then came to Lawrence, just before the dam was finished. He m. Mary McCarthy, dau. of Timothy McCarthy and w. Ellen Moore, b. in Cork Co., parish of Lislee, 1830; she came to Boston, April 18, 1853. They came to West Parish and lived on Haggert's Pond Road, near the Pond, July 1862. (See 1872 Map.) They had:—

Wm. Bliss; b. in Seekonk.

Sophia (4) unm.

Francis Gray; d.y.

Lucy Jane (4); lived at home, 1864.

Maria Louisa (4); " " " "

Foster, Lidkun... had a house on the site of the Ballard Lovejoy house. It was drawn over to the Boynton place and was then owned by Samuel Blanchard. It was later taken up the road near the almshouse. The Foster house was built in 1770. (I think the old house on the site when Ballard Lovejoy took it in 1835, was one left by the heirs of Wm. Foster, which had been drawn from Boxford and set up in West Parish. Gideon found it too old to use and built the new one. When B. Lovejoy pulled the old house down and built the cottage in 1843, he said the timbers were punk, it was so old.

Lovejoy, Ballard... built cottage in 1843, on site of Gideon Foster place.
FIELDING, JOHN... lived on north side of Lowell St., above Argilla Road, 1840. Ballard Lovejoy lived opposite. Fielding went to the house when John Goldsmith left it. James Dane built the front part of the house and Fielding added the other. There was no house on the site before Dane built.

I recall Fielding as having a loom and weaving rag carpets, 1857 and during war time.

FLINT, HENRY... lived, 1860 in the Artemus Hardy place, (now Livingston's). He came from some place in Maine and had lived in the Hardy house 15 years. It was formerly an old Blanchard home and had been drawn, in 1840, by Alfred Holt, from the widow Boynton's site. (Lowell St., corner Bellevue Rd.)

FLINT, JOHN... built a new house in 1809, on the site of an old home. The property had always been held by Flints, since then.

FLINT, MILES... b. Sept. 21, 1810 in the Bailey District, m. Catherine Hardy, b. in Tewksbury, Jan. 22, 1816, dau. of Stephen Hardy. Miles built a house in 1843 and sold it to Wm. Hardy, his brother-in-law. Miles went to the Hobart Clark site and built a new house there in 1847, after he tore down the old home in which his grama-father, Furbush, had lived when the original Furbush homestead was burned.

FLY'D, JAMES H... b. in Warren, N.H., Feb. 1810; m. Sarah Kerr, dau. of James Kerr and w. Sarah Huse, b. in Hill, N.H., Dec. 1813. They came from Lawrence to the North District and lived in house on the lane opposite the school house, some rods from the street. They were there in 1862. Wadleigh Nyes once lived there. James Floyd was a farmer. Their children:

- Eliza Bartlett, b. in Warren, Oct. 8, 1835.
- James K., b. in Lowell, Dec. 17, 1837.
- Daniel, b. in Lowell, Dec. 18, 1838; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Wm. Buffum of Grafton, N.H.; res. Lawrence; was a stable owner; had daughter: Sarah Aude, b. Aug. 5, 1853.

James H. Floyd was son of David Floyd and w. Esther Ackley.

FOLIANSBEE, PAUL... came in 1835 from West Newbury. He bought a house north of Wright's Brook, SW part of Haggett's Pond, which was then owned by Dudley Trow, but was once the property of John Crosby. Follansbee built a new house, 1850 and sold the old one to the R.R. Co. Then an ice company bought it for a storage house. Follansbee married a daughter of John Chase and Anna Cochrane. On his homestead he had a great plantation of trees and also cut peat. (John Chase lived on Cross St., where Jameson lived later.)

FOX, DANIEL... bought a Furbush cottage from Abramam Stickney, 1804, and lived in it until his death, 1858. It will snow on the 1852 map. He came from Pomfret, Conn., and was said to be part Indian. Taught school 49 years; m. Phoebe Lovejoy, July 3, 1803:

- Daniel, b. Mar. 17, 1806; m. Abigail Nye, of Embrooke, d. 1867.
- Clarissa, b. Mar. 10, 1809.
- Harriet, b. Nov. 25, 1813.
FURBUSH, SIMON... lived in an old homestead over in the Bailey District, which later burned down. He also owned the house in which Joseph Bradley Pierson lived (see 1872 map). His son, Capt. CHARLES, a veteran of the Revolutionary War, lived on a place which later went to Miles Flint, who rebuilt on the site. Capt. Furbush had potash works at the foot of Wood Hill, on the east side of the road.

GAFFREY, CHARLES... came to West Andover, Dec. 1963, from Lowell, and lived in the brick house on High Plain Road, which was built in 1840 by John Merrill, Jr. The house is marked J. Merrill, on the 1852 map and Hodgman, on the 1883 map. George Boutwell later used the place for a shelter for workmen.

Mr. Gaffrey and his wife, Ann, daughter of Charles Farrell and wife, Nelly Merrifield, were born in Roscommon Co., Ireland. Their children were:

- Thomas, b. about 1843; was in the Navy, 1864.
- Ellen, b. 1847, in Ireland.
- Charles, b. in Lowell, 1856.

GOFFE, HENRY... lived in house built by James Dane, before 1833, on land Dane bought from James Abbott. (This end of Argilla Road.) Goffe married Martha Pettigrew, b. in Leeds, Yorkshire Co., England, 1836. She came here 1844, with her parents. James Calvin lived in the same house.

GOODELL, C.E... lived on Lowell Street, East of Lovejoy Road, opposite Bailey's Lovejoy's (see 1872 map.) It was owned originally by John Dane, son of a Revolutionary veteran. Next owner was Timothy Frye, a tanner. The tan yard was at the East end of the house and the vats were in the garden. Tim Frye d. soon after 1853 and his son, Gilbert Frye sold the place to Goodell, who was there in 1863.

(John Dane's mother died 1792 in an old house she lived in opposite the Shattuck's, and her son John bought the above place from its original owner. It is a very old house.)

GRANT, BEN PARKER... lived in an old house on River Road near the Lewksbury line. He was the son of Isaac Grant and Anne Mahaney, b. in North Andover, Feb. 5, 1802. He was brought up in East Andover, Maine. He m. Fanny, dau. of Timothy Farnum and w. Susan Berry, b. 1810. The house was built 1828 by John Hunt. The children of the Grants were:

- Hannah, b. 1836 in No. Andover; m. Jacob Brown, son of Jacob Brown and Becky Farnum; he was in Civil War.
- Hannah d. 1861; their son, Louis Franklin Brown, b. in So. Andover.
- Lucy Ann, b. April 24, 1839.
- Farnham Parker, b. Feb. 1, 1841 in No. Andover; in Civil War.
- Adeline F., b.- d., unm. April 1863.
- Ellen, d. at 11 years.
GRiffin, Dan... built the house that Abraham Stickney got in 1804 and vacated in 1820. It was held by Artemus Hardy, 1863. (See map.) On Lowell street, the old road.

"Eldad... lived in the house in the OsGood District in which Wm. Trow lived before he built his new one in which he lived in 1863. (See 1860 map.) Over on Tewksbury line.

"Joshua... lived where Ben Dane lived in 1863. (See map.) On Lorillard street, the old road.

Hardy, Artemus... lived on Brown St., in OsGood District, in 1863. The house was once Sam Kendall's. Artemus had 14 acres which he bought from Abby Chase, widow of Walter Kendall. She was daughter-in-law of Samuel, who had the house early. The house was marked Moulton on 1866 map. It was on the old Lowell Road. Built by Dan Griffin, 1804. John French bought it and sold to Sam Kendall. His son Walter, and Walter's widow, Abby (Chase) held it until 1859. A Howell was there in 1862 and Artemus Hardy took it in 1863, and kept bachelor's hall. It was at the junction of the Tewksbury Road, South and the Tewksbury Road, West, past Haggott's Pond.

Hardy, James... lived on the Sam Bailey place on Bailey Road. He was there at the time of the "September Gale", which rocked the house and blew down the barn. He had to build a new house and barn.

McCarty, Robert... also spelled McCorda, Hacknardy, Macarde, was on the Andover Tax List, 1733. He was off in 1735 and on again in 1737. He paid 9 sh. 13 d. a very good tax. He was recorded as on the West Side and was off the list again in 1740. Was then called Corde, and McGardee. (I think he was of French origin and possibly kin to the Peter McCarty killed 1776 in the powder mill explosion.)

Three brothers, said a historian, came from England to Essex County in 1729. One married and had no children; another settled in Reading and had a large family.

Wm. McCarty of "sford, m. 1728, Elizabeth Damson of Reading and moved to Reading.

Archibald McCladdy (see Orman) a sawyer, came here from Scotland, 1694. He m. Sarah Lincoln of Charlestown, dau. of Sgt. Richard. They had a marsh at Blanchard's and a woodlot. He d. 1714; she was still alive, 1737. Had a son, David, b. 1698; also called McQuerry and McQuarry.

McCarty, John... also McCurdy, was taxed 1730-1737; also in 1770-73.
HERRICK, ELIJAH... lived in a house which stood in Deacon Smith's garden. It was built like Orrin Barnard's house in Frye Village, with windows in the roof. The Herrick orchard was planted by old Jacob Barnard, a farmer-graftor. The place was originally owned by Ephraim Abbott. Another house stood on the grounds also at the time. Herrick's wife was a sister to John Lovejoy Abbott. Herrick owned the Francis Cogswell house.

HUNT, DAVID... left Tewksbury and came to Andover, to live in the Sam Bailey house on Bailey Road, before 1800. He died there and left the property to his son, John. John sold to a Ray and moved to a house near the school house, where he died. Old David Hunt bought the property from a Mittridge, who never lived on it. John built a second house on the place about 1828. He sold it to Ben Parker Grant. After Grant, Greely lived in it; then Herrick; then Peters; Page and last Eldridge (it is marked Laddox on 1882 map).

JAMESON, DAVID... lived in house on Argil a Road, 1863. He went there from Frye Village, 1859, and bought the place from Jos. Abbott. Widow Ballard and a negro boy set out the old elm tree in front of the house in 1776. The place is now gone. Jameson later took the Stratton house. This, the James Stratton place, was on an old stage road behind the Jameson house. The stage used to go from Andover to Lowell past E.G. Holt, over Jas. Abbott's bridge and up through the fields past Baker's meadow. Stratton had the place 1856 and Jameson was on it 1863. It was built by Franklin Heald, 1849.

The first house occupied by Jameson, was originally owned by a Ballard, as long ago as 1710, according to Seth Chase, who was b. there, 1809. I conclude the house was a Blanchard homestead, held by Joseph Blanchard and last owned by David Blanchard, who d. 1776. Widow Sarah (Abbott) Blanchard, (widow of Timothy, Sr.) kept a little shop there. Next tenant before Chase was San'l Towne who built the first bridge over the Merrimac, 1800.

JEFFERSON, Perry M... lived on Lowell St., above Lovejoy Road, in the house built by Thomas Boynton. It was sold to Lieut. R. Josselyn of Chelmsford, 1835; leased to Tom. Shattuck; bought by Abiel S. Walker, 1844 and sold to Jefferson, 1854. Walker built a cottage opposite.

JOHNSON, JACOB... held the place later owned by Dascomb on Dascomb Road.

He was a blacksmith. His wife was Sarah Dolliver. All the children were born in the old house: Phineas, Isaac, David, Joseph and Osgood. Dascomb married a Johnson girl. There were three houses built on the Johnson place. The 2nd was built east of the first. The south part of the 3rd was built in 1800. A son married and a room was added at the West end. Deacom Dascomb enlarged the house, which stood north of the street, and near the farm owned by Jacob, who died there.

A Jonathan Johnson of another line, held the oldest site, which stood 2 rods from the street to the southeast. Nathan Clark's father bought part of the estate from the Johnson heirs. All the houses west of Clark's, save Pillsbury's were held by Johnsons.

JOHNSON, JAMES... a veteran of the Revolution, lived on place marked Stephen Lovejoy on 1852 map. Johnson d. about 1800. James Cochrane had the place next, then John Tuck. James, Jr., went to Vt.

JOHNSON, SOLON... lived for three years on the Bardwell-Furbush place.

JONES, ARIEL... lived, 1805, on the old place near B. Winning's on Chandler Road, (1872 map.) A Buck lived there earlier.

"AMBROSE LOUIS... who came from Lowell, made cough candy for sale, when he lived in the house near Haggett's Pond, 1850. He came after a number of tenants had lived in the house, which was owned originally by Abraham Stickney who lived there, 1820-2. Joseph Kendall, son of Eph, was there in 1828. Lovering, who m. a Lovejoy girl also lived there. The place was run down when Jones took it.

KENDALL, EPHRAIM... who came from Lowell, m. Sunice Burtt, a cousin of Jed Burtt. They lived on the place now known as the Livingston farm, and their children were all born there. The present house was built in 1838 by Thomas F. Kendall, a son of Ephraim. Mary Kendall, a daughter of Ephraim, married a Gilman, and bought the place. Livingston was the next owner.

"JOSEPH... another son of Ephraim, lived from 1828 to 1843 in the Abe Stickney house, near Haggett's Pond.

"SAMUEL... went to the 1st house of A. Stickney, which he bought from Jn. French. Sam died 1843 and his son, Walter, who m. Abigail Chase, lived in the house until his death in 1857. She was there until 1859. A Howell lived there 1862 and Artemus Hardy took it in 1865. House on Lowell St., old road.
KNOWLES, JONATHAN... bought from Alfred Holt, a part of Blanchard Plain, comprising 34 acres on the Andover side, and some in Tewksbury, in 1848. This was on Bellevue Road near the old R.K. bed West of Haggett's Pond Road. John Woodward Brown was on the same side of the street as Knowles, in 1861, on part of the same estate. Brown's house was built by Joseph Dane, 1847. Several persons owned his place: Shattuck, a Barker from Maine; Almore Dane and Alfred Holt. Brown was a machinist in the File Shop in the Vale, 1862.

LIVINGSTON, ASA WARRREN... was b. in Tewksbury, June 29, 1821. He was brought up with Sam Kendall, in the house owned by Artemys Hardy, 1863.(Lowell St.) He lived later in the house built by Thomas P. Kendall, in 1838. A Gilman, who m. Mary Kendall lived in the house; then Wright hired it; then Porter Livingston, son of Asa and w. Seulah Carter.

LOVERING, JONAS... who m. a Lovejoy girl, went to live in the Ambrose Stickney house, after 1845. He left for Harvard, Mass. This was occupied, 1863, by Ambrose Jones, the cough-candy pedlar.

LUSCOMB, RICHARD... born in Marblehead, came to Andover with a brother, Samuel. Richard lived in a house on Chandler Road near the Lawrence line, built 1805. The house was moved 1815 and was enlarged, 1820. Aaron Luscomb inherited it from his father.

"Samuel... lived on Lowell St., east of Lincoln, in a house marked Deacon Nathan Moore's, 1864 map. He m. Rhoda Hoyes, sister of Fred Hoyes and Addleigh Hoyes. They bought the Isaac Phelps place 1818. Sam died Sept. 1, 1856, at 67.

McCULLUM, JOHN... lived on the road from Deacon Nathan Moore's to Peter Smith's. (Lincoln St.) His home was built 1856. John was the son of James McCollum and w. Rebecca Miley, of Co., Tyrone, Ireland, near Danig. He came here in 1850. He m. Margaret, dau. of Wm. McCrory and w. Mary Maxwell. She was b. at Stulene, Tyrone Co., Ireland, about 1836; came here about 1850. Their children:
- W. James, b. Dec. 29, 1853.
- Helen Jane, b. Nov. 1855.
- John and
- Frances-- twins, b. Aug. 1858.
- George, b. 1862.
- Rebecca, b. 1864.

MALCOY, JOHN... is said to have lived and died in a house built by Jesse Trull, before he left for Tewksbury, 1790-5. Malcoy m. a Furbush girl. The house went to their son, John, Jr., and he sold it to Simeon Hardy. Miles Flint built his house on part of the homestead and Trull owned a lot to the south of Flint. This was on Bailey Road beyond Sam Bailey's.
MERRILL, EZRA... lived in the house for 3 years, which he bought from Thos. C. Foster, who bought it from David Jones, who, in turn got it from its first owner, Flint. Ezra let the place to his brother:

JAMES, who went to live in it 1846 and was there 1864. (see map.)

JOHN, SR.... who probably came from Newburyport built, in 1840, the brick house occupied by MURDGE, 1864. (see map.) It was in the Bailey District. John, Sr., died there and his son, John, sold the place to George Boutwell for his workmen. John, Sr., built first, the house north of the brick house on High Plain Rd., which he sold to John Hunt. Hunt never lived there, and sold to John Webster. This was in the section called "Herrimac Woods." John Merrill, Jr., lived on the Boutwell place, 1864.

MERRILL, JOEL... bought the John Tuck house on North side of Lowell St., near Cutler Road. Joel's son, Elijah lived there and sold to Herman Barnard, who occupied it in 1864.

WILLIAM... lived on River Road, east end, near Fish Brook. He moved his house 5 rods toward the street when he repaired it in 1842. His wife was Phebe Abbott Shattuck, a dau. of Joseph Shattuck and Phebe Abbott. The house was built when Lt. Moses Bailey was 8 years old, by David Abbott, her great uncle. Her uncle Solomon Abbott had once lived there. Wm. Merrill built his second home in 1868. (see map.)

MORGAN, DAVID... a son of Zachariah Morgan, lived in 1864 on the west side of Lovejoy Road, near old Tewksbury road. (see map). The place was originally owned by Zebadiah Holt, son of Jonathan, who lived there until he d. 1790. Zeb Holt sold to Herman P. Chandler. Holt was a Capt. in the Revolution. Samuel Cummings lived there for a time; then Peter Johnson; and George Kingman was there in 1862. Morgan bought the place from Herman Chandler.

MORS, AMOS... came from Methuen June, 1857, from a home near the Dracut line, where he had lived for 60 years. He bought the house owned by Wm. Merrill, which was formerly owned by Merrill's father-in-law, Joseph Shattuck, who died on the place. Aaron Lovejoy lived in it for a few years after Shattuck; then Fred Hoyes and next, Amos Morse. The house was on River Road, east side of Laurel Lane. Merrill raised fish in a pond which he built on the east side of the house, in 1862. An earlier tenant had put a pond there 4 years before.
NEWHALL, put up a house in the Bailey district in 1848, in one week's time. He took the timber from the woods on Monday, and on Saturday night the family moved in. Before that, he had lived on the John B. Bailey place. Newhall sold to Biscoe in 1850, but lived on there until he got frozen, one bitter day. His widow died there in the spring of 1864.

NICKERSON, lived in the house built in 1820 by John Foster. It was on the road from the Osgood school-house to the Pillsbury place, and was marked R. Welch, on the 1864 map. Other tenants had been Samuel Manning, Jonathan Knowles, R. Welch, Alfred Holt, Elmore Dane and Warren Mason.

NOURSE, MARY ANN, widow from Salem, lived from 1844 to 1862 in the house on Lowell St., west of Argilla Road, next to that occupied by Richard Gale Dane. She bought the place from Nathan Abbott, who lived in the next house.

PERRIN, see FARREN, WILLIAM.

PHelps, ISAAC, son of Thos. Phelps and Mary Shattuck, built, in 1820, a house on the corner of Chandler Road and North St., near Lawrence bounds. This was later owned by Aaron Luscomb, who inherited it from his father, Richard Luscomb. Isaac Phelps lived later in South Parish in Col. Ben Abbott's place, south of South Church.

"HERMAN, owned the Stone house in West Andover, which he built in 1866. Mrs. Rebecca Goldsmith was a tenant there in 1863.

RAND, EBENEZER, and wife, Priscilla (Husse) widow of Tim Blanchard, lived on the end of Bellevue Road near the Lewksbury line, in a house next to Joel Shedd's.
