1895- " Fire burned to the ground the old fashioned house, on the Isaac Fish place, in the Kimball district, NORTH ANDOVER, early this morning. The ancient dwelling.. being four miles from the Parish.. word could not be sent to the Parish Centre before the building was destroyed with practically all the contents. The building was owned by Mrs. Ann Fish, widow of Isaac Fish.

No one knew when the structure was built but it was certainly over 225 years ago. With its great chimney and sloping roof, it had been a widely known landmark. Artists came to sketch it , for the site was filled with beauty. Tradition says that it had twice been attacked by Indians. Old Ike Fish, who died last Fall after reaching nearly a century, lived and passed away there..... "
