NOTES - The Townsman -

"Joseph C. Goldsmith, an old and well known resident of the Scotland District, died at his home last Monday, at the age of 64 years. Deceased was a member of Post 99, G.A.R. and a delegation from that organization, consisting of Commander George F. Holt, Junior- Vice, J. Warren Berry, Adj. Ballard Holt and John L. Smith, acted as pall bearers. The funeral was held yesterday, with the Rev. F.W. Klein of the Baptist Church officiating. Burial was at the South Cemetery."

NOTES- THE TOWNSMAN - 1896.

" Mrs. Phebe, (Russell) widow of the late J.C. Goldsmith, fell asleep on June 12, after a few days ' sickness, at the home of Mrs. C.A. Shattuck, Main St., aged 89 years, 2 months, 13 days.

She was the mother of seven children all of whom attained middle age. When the first death occurred she was in her 85th year.

She was born at the Russell homestead, March 30, 1807, and always resided in the Scotland District. She leaves five children : Mrs. James H. Goldsmith, Mrs. C.A. Shattuck , of Andover; Mrs. W.H. Greene, Mrs. W.G. Parker of Ballardvale, Mrs. George K. Dodge, of Ipswich

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. F.W. Klein. Interment was in South Cemetery.

THE TOWNSMAN - 1901

" Mrs. Lozina (Goldsmith) Waldo died Sunday, at the advanced age of 87 years, 11 months and 14 days. Daughter of a soldier and grand daughter of two more Revolutionary heroes , she was connected in a large measure with the two past centuries.

She was born in Andover, Jan. 27, 1813. the youngest of the 11 children of Jeremiah Goldsmith and Sarah Converse. When 19 years of age she married Jonathan Waldo.

Her father, Jeremiah Goldsmith, enlisted when a mere boy, as a drummer, in Capt. Abbott's Company of the Army of Cambridge, Dec. 9, 1775. He remained in service throughout the war and at the surrender of Burgoyne, stood within a few yards of Gen. Gates.

Mrs. Waldo also had two grandfathers who served in the American Army during the Revolutionary War, William Goldsmith of Andover and Joseph Converse of Bedford.

The deceased was born in the house built by her father on the Boston Turnpike, "over the hill", and lived there for many years. For three years she has lived with her daughters Mrs. Abbie Russell and Miss Mary Waldo, in the Scotland District. Shortly after she moved, the old homestead was burned to the ground.

Mrs. Waldo was one of the earliest scholars at ~~Abbot~~ Academy, belonging to the class of 1832. She was a member of the John Adams Chapter of the D.A.R. and of the Phoebe Foxcroft Phillips Chapter.

She is survived by six children: Mrs. Elizabeth Ward of Peabody, John Waldo of Franklin, N.H., Mrs. Abbie Russell, Mary, Sarah C. and Joseph Waldo of Andover.

The funeral was held from South Church vestry, Thursday at 2 p.m. Rev. F.R. Shipman officiated. Interment was at South Cemetery."

July 10, 1903- "George H. Goldsmith died at Ossipee N.H. at home of his Lawrence Telegram-) aged mother. He was born in Ossipee, N.H. in 1861, and came to Lawrence at age of 17, learning the printers' trade. He is survived by his mother, two brothers who live in Ossipee, and two daughters. Burial will be in the family lot in that town."

--

1920- "Sanford King Goldsmith, a Civil War Veteran, died Feb. 1, 1920, at his home, 89 West Springfield St., Boston. He was born at Wilton, N.H. Jan. 23, 1842. Enlisted as a private in the 4th Batt. Rifles, Mass. Volunteers in 1861. He was taken prisoner on two occasions and was severely wounded at the Battle of Gettysburg.

He was made brevet captain for gallantry at Fort Stedman. Capt. Goldsmith was a member of the Edward W. Kinsley Post No. 113, G.A.R. and the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. He was a member of the 13th and 59th Regiment Associations, having been president of each. Also a member of the Sons of Revolution, Civil War Prisoners' Ass'n. and the Hooker Ass'n. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity at ANDOVER and a charter member of a lodge in St. Albans, Vt.

Surviving, are his wife : Mrs. Olive Moor Goldsmith, a son, Oswald Goldsmith of Peabody, and a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Clark of Salem. Burial was in West Parish Cemetery."
