

The GREEN FAMILY

of ANDOVER

Rev. Aaron Green and his family, of Malden, came to Andover in 1827, and lived in the house at 134 Main street, corner of Morton St. Morton St. was formerly called Green Street. His line of descent is from :-

Ezra Green, son of Samuel and Martha, born Feb. 3, 1714/5; m. Nov. 28, 1740, Sarah Hutchinson of Malden. He m. 2nd., Eunice Burrill, Feb. 22, 1743/4 :-

Ezra, who was b. June 23, 1746; m. Mary Vinton of Malden, Mar. 28, 1762. They had :-

Aaron, b. Jan. 2, 1765; graduate of Harvard, 1789; was ordained in Malden, Sept. 30, 1795. He m. Eunice Orne of Lynnfield, Dec. 13, 1796. She was born 1771. On Aug. 8, 1827 he resigned his pastorate at Malden, and shortly after, came to Andover. Their children were :-

J. Orne Green, b. May 14, 1799; a physician; lived in Lowell.

Charles Reynolds Green, b. Dec. 28, 1806; d. y.

Caroline Green, b. June 25, 1803; m. Wm. Blanchard of Andover, May 10, 1836; lived in Boston.

George Green, b. May 12, 1801; m. Martha Dana of Charlestown, Jan. 28, 1837.

Charles Reynolds Green, 2nd., b. Oct. 16, 1810.

In the Andover Advertiser of July 23, 1853, an article on Octogenarians, tells briefly of the Rev. Aaron Green. He was then 87 years old. He remembered the battles of Bunker Hill and of Lexington.

Rev. Henry Solomon Green of Lynnfield of a different line, married Mary E.P. Abbott of Andover, Jan. 1, 1840. He was a preacher here in 1850. He had a son who d. shortly after graduating from college. The family moved to Amherst.