

THE HAYWOOD FAMILY

OF ANDOVER.

I have had a theory for some years as to Richard HAWARD's line here and there may be something in it, as from correspondance with Mr. Galloupe of Beverly and the late Henry Dutch Lord who was working on a line from Salem, I have had much encouragement as to the truth of my early guesses.

Richard Haward , according to Savage, came over with Higginson in 1629, from Bedford County, England, to help lay out six towns, and was promised grants of land for his official services in the Bay Colony. He had five or six sons and a wife, in England..

About thirty years later a lot of stray Hawards of varying ages appear in Salem and Boston. These might very well be sons and grandsons of Richard, who must have been mature in 1629 if he was considered capable of laying out townsites.

Our Andover line of Hayward comes from Nicholas of Salem and Beverly who had a wife, Hannah. " Sister Haward" was present in 1642 when her son, Nathaniel (2), was baptized in Salem.

Nicholas (1) died Feb. 24, 1682 and his will was probated the same year. There are two copies of this, the best is to be found in the deeds room at Salem,-Ipswich records, Vol. 4;page 578-9. Only two sons are mentioned: Nehemiah and Nathaniel. The inventory lists:- House and 20 acres, value £ 80; spice mortar, 2 sh.; great coat, 16 sh.; warming pan, 2 sh.;moveables, £ 17.

Nicholas(1) leaves to his son Nathaniel (2), the estate for life, and this is to be left to the sons of Nathaniel and not to be alienated... To his daughter-in-law, Anna Judkins, wife of his deceased son, Nehemiah (2), he left his Great Chest, a " Cipress Chest", which went to Nehemiah; to his grandson Sam, " my little chest"; to grand-daughter, Elizabeth, " my little cubbord, or keepe, so called;

Essex Court Records:-

Elizabeth(Corning) Haywood, widow of Nathaniel (2) outlived him several years. In his will made 1721 he says that he has disposed of most of his estate and stuff to his sons and grandsons. He gave land to the son of Nathaniel (3) Haywood; to his son, Nehemiah; to son, Jonathan; son Nicholas, Sam and Stephen; to daughters, Elizabeth Hawkes, Abigail Flint, Sara Coburn and Hanna Vickery.

To sons Nehemia and Sam, a special bequest of an estate on the Andover-Reading line which he bought in 1712 from his son Jonathan- 100 acres- a 1/4 part of the land which Jonathan bought from Capt. Thos. Flint of Reading; bounded on North by Capt. Peter Osgood of Salem; East by Mr. Upton's farm and the highway between said farms.

In 1725, Nehemia (3) of Salem and Sam of Reading, divide this land Nehemia choosing the East section and Sam the West. This is the farm on the line held in Reading by heirs of Jabez (4). . . .

In 1734, Nehemia (3), cordwainer, conveys to his two sons, Josiah and Jabez, " for the natural affection I bear to them , 80 acres from the Ipswich River along the whole breadth of my farm near Sam Phelps' meadow-buildings on it". Anna Foster is witness.....

In 1757 a deed is recorded in which Nehemia pays to each £ 26 13 sh., Jabez 15 acres; Josia, 15 acres; son-in-law, David McIntire, 15 acres.

Nehemia (3) made his will in 1757. He is indexed as of Reading. He gives, to daughter Abigail Didge, 16 sh. added to her dowry; to grandchildren James and Lydia, children of dec. Dr. James (4) of Hingham, 4 sh. each, besides what I gave their father for "larning" to be a doctor; to grand daughter, Ruth Woodbury, grandson Edw. Walden, 8 sh. besides what I gave their mother;

To son, Josia, the gun he borrowed of me; to Nehemia, my ivory-headed cane; to Jabez, my iron cittle(kettle) I bought of Mr. Shillaber; to dau. Eunice McIntire, my silver spoons; to son, Andrew Haywood, 4 sh.; Rose Upton, 4 sh., dau. Elizabeth, all my land in possession except the 80 acres I gave to my sons, Josia and Jabez- with buildings and personal property. To the 3 daughters of 3rd wife, Ruth Burnam, Ruth, Hanna and Tabitha, one cow among them..... " Ruth, my wife is to improve the estate with my dau. Elizabeth, during her life.

Deacon Burnap and my wife Ruth, exec." (Elizabeth, under age, chooses Jonathan McIntire, her guardian.

In 1797, Jabez (4) Haywood made his will. His 3 sons, John, Jabez and Nehemia are executors..... To his widow Elizabeth(Russell) a comfortable room, privilege of a chamber and 1/4 the cellar; 9 cords of wood hauled to her door; Corn, Rye, Pork, Beef, Cider, Potatoes, Turnips, White Beans, Flax, Sheeps' Wool, Cotton Wool, Green Beans, Apples, etc., a Garden spot; Salt, Fresh meat, Veal, Mutton, Lamb; $9 to keep 2 cows summer and winter; a horse to ride; doctor and nurses- as long as she remains his widow, etc...

"If she marry again and become a widow, in need, she shall return to the same support as at first."

Son, John, is to have the land, livestock and buildings in Reading, except 18 acres of pasture North of the Andover-Reading line, which go to Jabez (5). John has the wood on Andover Road, etc., and Tools.

Will of Jabez(4) Haywood, of Reading, (cont.):-

Jabez got 19 acres in the South section of Reading-pasture, where he lived. Jabez(5) and Nehe mia(5) are to divide the rest of the land, stock and moveables they have in their possession.. To children-of Ann Perry, £ 20; Betty, £ 7 additional; Sara, £ 2, additional; grandchild, Elias McIntire Jr., £ 16; Rebecca, £ 64, and she is to live with her mother, or one brother while single.

Inventory:- 190 acres in Andover--$ 1900; 88 acres in Reading, and buildings, $ 1050; Ppersonals- stock- $ 604; real estate, $ 2950.

(Jabez(5) paid tax to his mother until 1812- the last entry being 1811.)

Among the items listed in the inventory are :-

2 pr. Oxen, $ 94; 4 Cows, $ 60; 2 Horses, $ 40 each; 2 guns, $ 6; farming tools, andirons, $ 1; 2 feather beds and bedding, $ 30; 2 pewter dishes- 6 plates, $2.

Notes:- Sam Phillips, $ 50; Nath Day, $ 122; Eben McIntire, $ 36; Wm. Goldsmith, $ 17; Edward Waldron, $ 22.50.

(Ben Upton helps the Flints to make an estimate.)

1754.. Martha Osgood sold to Jabez Haywood- she was of Salem,- widow of Peter Osgood of Salem, Tanner- " my husband requiring me to sell enough real estate to pay his debts and funeral charges---" for 10 £ 17 sh. 2 parcels of land --1 st. lay near Swamp Meadow, so called, and laid out to Ralph Farnum, 1720 as part of his 3rd Division- 22 acres- bds. North by Road from Andover to Salem -East by Henry Holt's land- South on Jonathan Abbott; West on Ebenezer Holt; another parcel- a meadow near the first, 1 1/2 acres, North side Osgood Hill- bds. on upland and Swamp.

She sold more land in May- on Highway-East on Joshua Upton's and Osgood's; North on Sam'l Jenkins- 101 acres- buildings on it.

1769... Joshua was on the Andover side. He bought from Joshua Upton, for £ 260 - 1/2 the land Upton bought of Osgood- had a brook through it- Frye's meadow, Frye's Brook and Damon's land connect.

1769... John Fisk Osgood of Boston and Joseph and Abigail Bryant of Stoneham, sold to Jabez Haywood, more than 240 acres of old Peter Osgood's land on the Reading line. Samuel Woodbridge, an Osgood heir, had put up some buildings on the place and they were reserved.

Robert Gray sold David Gray's land to Samuel Jenkins, and Jenkins and Jabez Haywood seem to own nearly all that part of town.

1772.... Dudley Woodbridge of Salem, tanner and Samuel Woodbridge of ANDOVER and Sam Jenkins of Andover owned 6/8 of the old Osgood lots in Andover; they quit -claimed to Jabez Haywood, who owned 2/8.... 1 parcel of 18 acres on the Reading line; west of Jabez's home, 24 acres; 18 acres more.. no money involved- merely a swap all round to clear the title. May have been a mortgage on it somewhere.
