The HOLT FAMILY of ANDOVER.

Nicholas (1) Holt and his wife, Elizabeth (Short), with their daughter Hannah, came from London or Southampton in the ship "James", sailing in April 1635. After a voyage lasting 58 days, they landed in Boston in June. Nicholas is recorded as a "tanner" from Romsay, England. His other occupations in the colonies were those of master cooper, dish turner, yeoman and husbandman. (Ralph Farnum came over in the same boat.)

He first settled in Newbury where he remained 10 years. There he joined the church; ran a ferry at the bridge near Holt's Rocks and owned land on Little River. A patch of 30 acres, still called Holt's Neck, between the highway and Little River was owned by a Little in 1860. In 1637, Nicholas, with nine others, walked from Newbury to Cambridge, a distance of 40 miles to register, in order to help Winthrop in his fight with H. Vane.

In 1644 he came to Andover, being 6th on the Proprietor's List, and was one of the 10 members of the First Church under the Rev. John Woodbridge. Here he had a 15 acre house lot, 160 acres of meadow, 360 acres on Stony Plain and much more was given to him later. It is thought that he never built on his lot in North Parish Center. His homestead was on Holt's (Prospect) Hill. A stockade was across the fields to the south.

In 1652, with Capt. Edward Johnson of Woburn and Thomas Danforth of Cambridge, Nicholas helped to lay out the Andover boundaries. The same year, with Lieut. Thomas Marshall of Reading, -probably a settler on the border line near Gould's, - and with settler Sprague of Haverhill, now Methuen, he helped lay out roads.

On Nov. 9, 1656, Elizabeth, wife of Nicholas died. On June 10, 1658, Nicholas took for a second wife, widow Hanna Rolfe, the daughter of Humphrey Bradstreet of Ipswich. She died June 20, 1665 and Nicholas made his home with his son, Nicholas Jr., to whom he left "1/3 the house where he now dwells." He m. 3rd, May 21, 1666, Mrs. Martha Preston, widow of Roger.

Attention: Mrs. Pettus

Dear Mrs. Pettus,

When I was in the library in Oct. doing some searching of the Holt genealogy I told you I could furnish you with some additional information about the branch of the family that went to Landgrove, Vt. I have been slow in getting to it ;but with the holidays over, there is more time for such.

As I remember, the genealogy there brought my line up to the 7th generation in America, Joseph, first child of Joseph and Tryphena (Perry) Holt
