

THE HUTCHINSON FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

SAMUEL (2) HUTCHINSON, b. 1618, was, I think, the eldest son of ANN HUTCHINSON of Charlestown. In 1639 records show that an extra 10 acres were added to his grant, in Lynn. In Essex Ct. deeds, 1;25, July 12, 1648; "Samuel Hutchinson of Lynn, for 30 £, sells to John Mansfield of Lynn, a dwelling house and 10 acres of land; 2 acres of salt marsh and 3 1/2 acres of fresh marsh. After that, he was recorded as a member of the Lynn Artillery Co., in 1653. Sam evidently came to Andover, for, on June 24, 1662, he married Hannah Johnson of this town. She was the daughter of John Johnson and his wife, Susanna.

Hannah seems to have been a lively character for Tom Chandler's wife, Hannah, for whom she did laundry work, says that she told big yarns. In 1665 she was hailed into court charged with stealing liquor from Mark Graves. Hannah, it appears, had a bad toothache, and at sunset, went to the Graves' home and asked for a draft of liquor. The Graves girl refused, whereupon Hannah informed her that the Graves' cows had broken out of the pasture. While the girl ran to herd the cattle, Hannah got the bottle, and left only a spoonful.

May 20, 1671, Essex Ct. records, 12:60:- Sam Hutchinson of Andover, husbandman, sold to Simon Bradstreet, gentleman of Andover, upland and feeding ground, 1/2 acre-3/4 acre - in Andover, near the Meeting House; bds. on land of Simon Bradstreet, George Abbott's commons, ^{by} Meeting House and land I lately bought of Richard Sutton of Roxbury. Wife Hannah signs.

Samuel Hutchinson of Andover, for a sum, sells to Ben Stevens, land near Job's FOLLEY, North side "MUSKETOE" River, 4 acres, described in Town Records.

" The above land was lately in possession of Ralph Farnum, granted to him by the town of Andover as part of the south portion of a meadow formerly granted to him in BEACHY meadow, and found to fall without ye line of Andover bds.

(Above may have been Sam (3)). Wife, Elizabeth (Bridges) signs.

Sam and Hannah lived in Reading for a time, for on Dec. 24, 1669, the are recorded on a deed to Robert Burnap of a 5 acre lot near Ralph Dix, the river, W. Eaton and the highway.

Sam, in 1670, swapped homes with Richard Sutton, and came to Andover. The home was in North Parish, on property that later was owned by Farrington. In 1671 when his step-father, Adam Hawkes, (Ann's,) died, he had his share of her/property .

The deed, 12:60, to Gov. Bradstreet, was not acknowledged until June 10, 1697, when it was signed by Sam's wife, so he must have been dead at that time. She resigned her dower right. The witnesses were Dudley and Ann Bradstreet. It was recorded May 18, 1698.

Probate of Sam's will was in Nov. 1706, and his son, Sam, was appointed administrator. He received for his portion, 11 sh. 1 d. The other children received 5 sh. 6 1/2 d. apiece.

(This ANN HUTCHINSON^N who married for a second husband, Adam Hawkes of Lynn must not be confused with the famous Anne (Marbury) Hutchinson who was banished from the colony in 1638, for heresy and sedition.)
