The JAQUES FAMILY
of Andover

It is claimed that the Jaquith, Jaques and Jaquish are all the one stock, but Henry of Newbury, was not allied with Abraham (l)Jaquith. In 1656, one of the Jaquiths spelled the name JACKEWISH, probably Jaqueesh was the old pronunciation, softened in one locality to Jaqueeth, Anglicized form.

Henry (l) Jaques of Newbury married Anna Knight, Oct. 8, 1648. He was a carpenter in Newbury, 1661, and helped build the meeting-house there, 1663.

He was one of our proprietors in 1645, but did not live in Andover.

In 1663 he complained to the Court that one John Ewing entertained Quakers in his home and John was fined. In 1666 he was charged with being the father of a child of Eleanor Bryant but according to the records "he flyeth". If he fails to appear, the Court threatens to seize 1/3 of his estate, and Eleanor was to be publicly whipped or pay 3 lbs. fine. John Knight, a relative of Henry's wife Anna, undertakes to pay the fine for Eleanor.

In 1703, Henry Jaques sold in ANDOVER, to Samuel Blanchard, of Braintree, for 9 lbs. a home lot in Andover, 5 acres, between John Abbott's on south side and Job Tyler's on north side the street.

1722 Richard Jaques bought land in ANDOVER.

Joseph Jaques is recorded as a private in Capt. Kimball's Co., Col. Jacob Herrish; of guard; service from Feb. 8, 1778 to April 1778- 2 mo. 2 days; Winter Hill. Another entry, signed for wages, Capt. Caleb Kimball's Co., 4 mo. 20 days; Winter Hill.
Abram (1) Jaquith joined the church in Charlestown, 1643. He married Anna Jourdain, daughter of James Jordan of Mednam (also spelled JOURDAINE) and she also joined the church the same year. He bought a house from the widow Alice Barnard in 1649. Their children were:—
