

JEFFERSON FAMILY

of ANDOVER

A Miss -- Jefferson, born in Washington, Vt., Nov. 2, 1817, daughter of Roswell Jefferson and Cynthia Fish, married Simeon Hardy, born 1813- and came to ANDOVER, where they lived thereafter.

She was a sister to P.M. Jefferson, and the grand daughter of Obadia Jefferson and his first wife, Ann Emerson. Her mother, Cynthia Fish, was daughter of Stephen Fish of Sandwich, on Cape Cod. When she was 2 years old the family went to Barnard, Vt.

The children of Miss - Jefferson and Simeon Hardy, were :-

Mary Elizabeth, b. Dec. 31, 1841; m. Nathan B. Hormore of Lowell;

he died at Baton Rouge, in Civil War; had one son, Wm. Herbert, born at her father's; she went to Lowell.

Wm. Jefferson, b. Sept. 4, 1843; went to Boston; m. Jenny Elizabeth

Frost, daughter of Dan Frost of Tewksbury.

Harrison Henry, born Sept. 1, 1845-

Fanny Adelaide, b. May 23, 1847; unm.; at Punchard School.

Frank Albert, b. May 30, 1856.

others who died and are not listed.

Mr. Hardy's home was built 1792 by Jesse Trull, on a tract then called " Fitch land.

By his first wife, Obadia Jefferson had a son Roswell, who m. Betsy Cheney, and had 5 children; by his 2nd wife, Jerusha; Obadia had 2 sons who went away.

Sarah Ann Jefferson, daughter of Roswell and Betsy Cheney, married Stephen Chase of Meredith, N.H.. as his 1st wife. One daughter, Emma Amelia, was born 1838; twins, Mary Ella & Ella Adeline, b. 1850/