OF THE
JENKINS FAMILY
OF ANDOVER

COMPILED BY
CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT

THE JENKINS FAMILY

JOEL (1) JENKINS was a freeman in Braintree, 1646. He may have died in Malden, as he went there in 1646. I have not the name of his wife.

His children were :-

Lydia (2), b. in Braintree, Oct.13,1640; m. John Paul in Malden, May 3, 1657.
Theophilus (2), b. April 7, 1742, in Braintree, d. July 12, 1660.

Ezekiel (2), b. ; d. July 30, 1705; m. Sarah Gowing, dau. of Robert and wife, Elizabeth (Brock).

Lemuel (2), b. about 1650; m. July 10, 1670, Elizabeth Oakes, daughter of Thomas; lived in Malden; d. Dec.20, 1713; he is sd. to m. 2nd., Mercy Tufts, widow of Joseph Waite, June 11,1694; she d. July 19, 1736; was daughter of Peter Tufts of the Malden Ferry and had m. Waite, 1688.

Joel (2) of Reading, I place in this lot. He is sd. to have m. a Mary Herbert of Lynn in Lynnfield; (his 2nd wife, Mary Chadwick, pub. Dec. 27, 1706) d. 1748; I doubt this as I think Mary Chadwick was wife of Joel (3) . In her will the widow of Joel (2) names her kinsmen, Sam and John Groves of Malden and Richard Shute, a neighbor- to have personals.

Ezekiel Jenkins (2) Joel (1) and wife Sarah Gowing, had:-

Mary Pole (Poole(?) (3), probably an adopted child; in 1705, he (Margaret Cole) left 267 L.-, his wife to have a life interest. He was a cripple. In his will he commends her : " She has been feet to the lame and help to the helpless ; had manifested great care to his aged father in his long time weakness before his death, etc." and so gives her all he possesses.
