Notes on Kendall:-

Gamble says, quoting American Family Antiquary, vol.7-
"Francis and Tom Kendall, brothers, born in England, came to Mass. Colony before 1640. Francis settled in Woburn, then called Charles-town Village. Tom went to Lynn in the Lynn Village of Reading, and there, in 1639, married Rebecca. He moved to Reading about 1653. Tom was a deacon, and was very pious." (So was my uncle Tom Kendall. He sold liquor in his supply store and upset aunt Kendall's nerves so she had to go to an asylum.) Tom died July 22, 1681; Rebecca died July 17, 1703 at 85. Rebecca had 10 children; 175 grand children and great grand-children.

Francis Kendall married Mary Tidd, Dec. 24, 1644. He was a Selectman for many years and was very influential. He died 1708; Mary died 1705. They had four sons and five daughters.

The Kendall line may be traced back to 1410 . All members have an extra finger or toe as a birth mark.

Mabel Reed, widow of Wm. Reed, was a sister to Francis and Tom Kendall.
