

LIVINGSTON FAMILY

of ANDOVER

Asa W. Livingston, a son of Asa Livingston and Beulah (Carter) Livingston, was born in Tewksbury, June 29, 1821.

He was brought up by his aunt Abigail (Carter) and her husband, Samuel Kendall, in the home where Artemus Hardy resides.

Since 1856 Asa W. (Warren) has resided in the place formerly owned by Ephraim Kendall, then by his son Ephraim. It was built in 1838 by Thomas P. Kendall.

Mr. Gilman, who married Mary, the daughter of Ephraim Kendall, Jr., bought the place from Tom Kendall. Mr. Livingston went there after Wright left, the latter having hired it from Asa's brother, Porter Livingston.

Asa W. married first, Elizabeth, daughter of Edmund French of Tewksbury, who died in 1866 where he now resides. He married 2nd., Roxa Swan, daughter of John and Martha (Swan) Nowell, who was born in Herman, Me., May 7, 1837. The children are:-

Mary Elizabeth, born 1851

Charles Warren, b. 1854

Jane, ~~born 1861~~ born 1861
