

LOWE FAMILY
OF ANDOVER

Notes :- ( Some of Joseph Lowe's doings.)

229:82 - John Harding 's mortgage. Lowe is said to hold a claim.
Harding lived on Old Buckley place, corner of the turnpike.
The Dilloways and Samuel Osgood were <sup>in</sup> adjoining tenements up the street. Joseph Lowe owned a lot next the river, north of Harding.

228: 213:- Jos. L. Lowe sale to Dr. Abiel Pierson, land on the Pierson estate north of Joseph's lot and that of Capt. Edward West; S.E.
On West's; S.W. on Moses Parker's; N.W. on Pierson, 54 1/2 rods .
1821. ( Who were all these people?) Lots were back of the Punchard house, I think.

1814: Reference to Essex Turnpike house and buildings purchased of Joseph L. Lowe. Trustees of P.A. held the mortgage.

---Something about Ben Kimball and the trustees, and another mortgage made by Lowe to Kimball, 1819.

1822- Creditors advertised the estate to be sold. Nathe Poor, Sam
Merrill and Sam'l Ayers bought it up. Nov. 21, 1822.

L45:130--

Tim Holt, cordwainer, deposes, Nov. 17, 1828: " In the afterpart of the day, Mr. John Harding called on him and wished him to witness the tender of some money to Jos. L. Lowe, in order to redeem his dwelling house and land. Agreeable to his desire, in company with him and W. Brown and Mr. John Flint, who boarded at the house of said Lowe, met at the doors and all went in together. Mr. Harding paid the wife of said Lowe in her husband's absence, the sum of $ 320. There were 4 $50 bills on Boston Bank, and the remainder, principally upon the Bank of Essex County.

LOWE FAMILY

( Cont) " ' John Harding dictated/ (declared) in my presence, that from instructions in his possession, he calculated that the sum due said Lowe, with the interest, did not exceed $ 313.84.' "

John Flint, cabinet- maker, testified likewise, Nov. 17, 1828.
 These depositions in case of Harding estate, vs. Lowe's cheating.

--- --- ---
 223:227- Contract of Lowe with Jn. Brown , 1820, to build a house like Amos Blanchard's.

--- --- ---
 No record anywhere of sale to Lowe by Jn. Phillips- vendue or transfer to anybody, before 1827. Lowe claimed a right to the estate.

LOWE FAMILY

The earliest ancestor traced by an Andover LOWE needing a Revolutionary record, is Ephraim Lowe , of Sanford Maine. He had a son Ephraim, Jr.(2) who, tradition has it, married an English girl, Hannah Came . Their sons were : Ephraim (3); Timothy (3); James (3).

Timothy, (3), born in 1824; died in ANDOVER, 1901. He married in 1855, Mary Saunders/<sup>born 1815;</sup>of South Reading, a daughter of Timothy Saunders. They lived for many years in Wilmington, coming to Ballardvale in the 1880's, to the home now owned by her on High St.

Timothy (3) Lowe died 1901 and since that time his widow has had her neice, Mrs. J.H. Smith, live with her.

Timothy (3) and Mary(Saunders)Lowe, had :-

- Willard F. (4) ; of Providence, R.I.
- Albert W. (4) ; of Summer St.Andover.

According to family tradition, an Ephraim Lowe, soldier in the Revolution, had part of his nose shot away at Battle of Bunker Hill. He is said to have been near Washington and Howe when they concluded the terms of evacuation of Boston, and saw the british sail away from Boston Harbor.
