The PARKER FAMILY OF ANDOVER

Joseph Parker, who, according to the terms of his will, had an estate in Ramsay, England was one of the first freeholders of Andover. He was in Newbury in 1642 and came to ANDOVER in October, 1645. His estate was on the site of the present Stevens' Mill in North Andover. John's wife was a Mary-- -, presumably Mary STEVENS. In his will, made 1678, John leaves the bulk of his property to Mary, with instruction for the care of two of their sons, who are non compos mentis, "by God's providence." Mary, also declared to be non compos mentis in wills, died in 1695.

At his death, Joseph appoints as overseers of his estate, his "loving brother, NATHAN PARKER, and loving friends, Lieut. John Osgood, Ensign Henry Ingalls, and Thomas Chandler."

NATHAN PARKER "the loving brother", died here in Andover, June 25, 1685. His first wife is said to have been Susan Short of Newbury, whom he married on Nov. 10, 1648; she died in Andover, Aug. 26, 1651; he took for a 2nd wife, Mary Ayer, daughter of John and Hannah of Newbury. Poor Mary was accused of witchcraft by Mercy Wardwell and William Barker,--confessed witches,-- who declared that she assisted them in tormenting Timothy Swan, who died that year.(1692).(His stone is in North Parish Yard.) Ten or more of the "witches" confessed to having their astral bodies appear at the bedside of sick Timothy, and torture him by punching him with iron spindles, pins and tobacco pipes. In consequence, Mary Parker was hanged at Salem in 1692.

Nathan's estate was in North Parish on the site of the present Unitarian parsonage on Chestnut street, and at his death, the widow Mary and son John are executors. He mentions no others. He leaves a horse, hive of bees, house and barn; 17 acres of post-yard;39 acres behind the barn;9 on West side Shawshin;40 acres on upland in No.Parish 49 acres in meadows; 51 acres in Town Rights;4 parcels of 1st Division, etc. Total value £472.

Dudley Bradstreet and Capt. John Osgood" were to be overseers of the property. He died before he could sign the will, but Bradstreet and Osgood took oath that they drew up the paper three days before his death, and it held. The estate was valued at £ 402; included: Arms; Tools; Gristmill and water privileges: 60 acres over the Shawshin; 50 acres by Great Pond; 20 acres near the Shoe Meadow; 10 acres of upland by the Shawshin; an old house; barn; post-yard above the mill. Joseph Parker came to Andover from Newbury, with his brother Nathan. They were perhaps elderly nephews of the Rev. Thomas Parker, and grandsons of Rev. Robert Parker of England, and allied to the family of Rev. John Woodbridge and to that of Rev. James Noyes of Newbury.

Nathan Parker was a scrivener. Joseph was a millwright, his family holding for several generations the valuable privilege now in possession of "Moses Stevens and Sons" in North Andover.

The wife of Joseph was non compos in her old age and one of their sons and some of the Stevens boys, sons of John(1) Stevens, whose wife called Joseph Parker "brother", were not all right. The facts, as studied in later generations, indicate that Mary Parker was born Stevens and was a sister to John Stevens. No Parker line save this one shows degeneracy and the history of the Stevens family favors the theory.

Joseph(2) Parker, the son of Nathan(1), is usually called "inn-holder". He was a man of marked ability and character under whom the estate gained much.

Joseph (3) Parker, son of Joseph(2) Nathan(1) married Mary Emery, who died in 1735 and he very inconsiderately married for a second wife, Martha Johnson, daughter of Timothy (3) Johnson and wife, Katherine Sprague. To sort out the children of this Martha (Johnson) from those of the Martha Barker who married his cousin Joseph, of the Joseph(1) line, has been a task.

The descendants of Joseph Parker of Barre, Mass. claim that he went to Barre from Andover. This Joseph died some place unknown to his family. He was a soldier at Bunker Hill, of which scrap the family possesses a powder-horn engraved with his record.
