EARLY RECORDS OF THE
PEABODY FAMILY OF ANDOVER

COMPILED BY
CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT
The PEABODY family in America are lineal descendants of that ancient family whose origin Mr. Nehemiah Cleveland has traced back to the time of BOADIE, a king of a primeval race of Britons, who in A.D. 61, came to the rescue of his noble queen, Boadicea, when "bleeding from Roman rods." From the terrible defeat in which she lost her crown and life, he retreated to the Cambrian Mountains, from whose fastnesses he swept down upon the low country in frequent forays, and he and his posterity became the terror of its inhabitants.

The name "PEA", which signifies mountains, was at this time prefixed to the "BOADIE" meaning man. The name of PEABODY appears in ancient British heraldry, among the Knights of the Round Table, in the time of King Arthur.

Lieut. Francis (2) Peabody, (son of John (1), was born in Hertfordshire, England in St. Albans, 1614. He came to the colonies in 1635 in the ship, "Planter", with Nicholas Ferrie, mariner. He is on the Mass. Rolls as "husbandman, age 21." He went first to Ipswich; then in 1638 he went to Hampton with twelve others, who were proprietors and founders of that settlement. He was a freeman in 1642. Hampton was set off to New Hampshire, Rockingham Co., and Francis sold out to Robert Drake, to move nearer Boston, March 25, 1650. The sale was of a house and 55 acres of land, for $25 & 13 sh. With his wife, Lydia, whom he had married about 1639, he moved to Topsfield, where, in May 1651, he owned a farm near Richard Dorman and Mr. Symonds. From the latter he bought more land later, and also owned lots in Rowley and Boxford.

The date of Lydia's death is unknown but Francis took for a second wife, Mary Foster, daughter of Reginald (1) Foster, after 1649. She was the widow of David Wood. She is mentioned in "Marmion" and "Way of the East Minstrel."

Will of Francis (1) Peabody, probate at Salem, Aug. 7, 1698. (Abstract)

"Lieut. Francis Peabody of Topsfield, Essex Co., N. England... uncertainty of life... certainty of Death... perfect understanding and memory... ye temporal estate God in his grace has given me in this world, as followeth—

Imp... I commit my immortal soul to God and my body to a decent burial when God shall take me out of this world.

Imp... Son John, son Joseph Peabody, all the land I bought of merchant Joseph Jewett of Rowley... lyeth in Boxford... to John two thirds— to Joseph the other third also 5 in current money added to what they have already.

Imp... Son William land I bought of John Todd, Junior of Rowley and of John Ferley (except 100 acres) and 5 in money added to what he had-- This I do ye rather on consideration of his being by ye Providence of God deprived of ye use of one of his Arms.

Item- To son-in-law Daniel Wood that hundred acres of land which is excepted to my son William and already partly possessed by my son-in-law Daniel Wood which land I doe give to him and his heirs forever in consideration of what I was obliged to do for him when he came of age and provided he shall be satisfied therewith on that account and give a discharge to whom it may concern which land I have promised to make a deed of firm conveyance.

Item- To son Isaac, all the land I doe live upon I bought of Mr. Symonds he to have land S side of Brook running through the land both upland and meadow and my dwelling house and houseing orchard, Mill and Mill Yard and all I bought of William Emms-- also from the Bridge, all the meadow downward on NE side of the Brook which runneth through Thomas Dorman's meadow and a rod and a half of upland near it for the bringing of his hay from time to time also seventy acres on S side the River near dwelling house of Joseph Tomne, Jr. Also the bed and ye furniture he now hath the improvement of and I to have given ye more to my son Isaac on consideration of ye Providence of God disenabling him by ye loss of one of his Legs.

Item- To grandchild Jacob Peabody (son of my son Jacob, dec.) ye house his father dwelt in and all ye upland on N side of Brook and the meadow near it from the Bridge and upward. If he live to 21 he shall have the above land, but in case he do not live, my other sons may have his share—but they are to pay my grandchildren Keziah and Mercy Peabody, children of son Jacob, 120.

If grandson Jacob have issue before he arrive at 21, said land shall be at his disposal with the house also... Keziah and Mercy are to have 30 acres each at age of eighteen S side of the River in the SW Division beyond Endicott's Farm in the place called Sticky Meadow which I bought of Daniel Dorman. In case the two die before 18, the land shall go to my next immediate children equally divided but the survivor of the two is to be heir of the other.

Item- To son Nath'l Peabody and my grandchild Sampson Howe all that 400 acres I bought of Stephen Sewell in Rowley Village, called Boxford and land near Bradford formerly Mr. Nelson's of Rowley. Nath'l is to have 300 and Sampson 100 provided Sampson Howe shall be at my disposal till he is 21. In case Nath'l die without lawful issue, the 300 acres shall pass to my other children by equal division. His widow is to enjoy it for life and the moveable estate already in her possession I leave to her disposal.

It is to be understood that what son Nath'l leaves undisposed of at his death of his 300 acres shall be for the use of his widow during life, that is the life of her widowhood.

Item- I doe reserve for wife Mary South end of my house to live in and the new cellar -use of two milch cows which she shall chuse out of my milch kine- Isaac is to pay her annually 20 bush. of Indian Corn, four bush. of Wheat - four of Rey- six of Mault, and liberty to keep 2 or 3 swine-- and to have yearly half a dozen pounds of Wool and a pasture for her cows with Isaac's cows, he tp provide fodder for them in the winter. She is to have a horse to ride when she shall have occasion and in case she marry again these privileges shall cease-- During her widowhood she shall also have yearly benefit of orchard, of cyder and some apples as her occasions summer and winter shall require. She shall have use and disposal of 2 beds and needful firewood provided for her and the use of such part of the barn as is needful. Sampson How shall live with my wife till 21 and to be at her command to be helpful on all accounts. In case he is taken away by his father before he hath served to 21 my wife shall have the 100 acres of land given conditionally to Sampson, to provide for herself such help as shall be necessary. If my wife die before Sampson comes of age he shall go to whosoever she shall see good to appoint for rest of term of service, and if he does not comply the 100 acres shall be at her disposal.

Item- Daughter Lydia Perley 5 $ added to her portion.

Item-Daughter Mary Death 5 $ added.

Item- Daughter Sarah Howe 5 $ added.

Item- Daughter Nephzibah Ray 5 $ added.

These legacies to be paid in Common Currant Pay by my executors out of my estate which I do leave in son Isaac's hands and in my wife's hand- in corn or cattle after my debts and funeral expenses are paid.

Finally I appoint wife Mary executrix with my sons John and Isaac Peabody executors and if any estate be left after all is paid it shall be divided as my executors shall see good.

The PEABODY FAMILY

( Included in C.H.A.'s compilation was the following, which seemed of sufficient charm to warrant inclusion in the family record )

From "In Portia's Garden", by Kennedy.

"In proof of the entire absence of antagonism between English sparrows and wrens (native) I should say I never saw the least disagreement among them. There was room for all and all were happy. The wrens could roll up their sleeves and polish off Johnny Bull at any moment; the Johnnies had found this out and there was peace.

"My first identification of a bird was one of the earliest Spring arrivals—the White-throated Sparrow, called in Canada, la siffleur (the Whistler)—in the United States, the Peabody bird. One might call him the little Jinnie from his whistling. I did not hear the bird's song for a few days, but one morning was awakened by a new six notes fluting under my window. Sometimes the stave had only three or four notes. But the next morning the solution came. It was the White-throat, for, after a few broken bars and experiments, came clear and sweet the 'Sam Peabody, Peabody, Peabody', of his delicate little quill, repeated again and again as if the bird were proud of having discovered his song and wanted to repeat it until he was sure of it.

"But what on earth did the daft little bush-fool mean by his 'Peabody'? That's Peabody to him or he to Peabody? The members of that family that I have known in different parts of the country are pious, clean bodied and clean souled, eminently respectable... and whaleboned people. Conformity, conventionality and stubborn conservatism, are the family traits. The bird is shy; they are the reverse of that."
