

The PRESTON FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

ROGER PRESTON and his wife, MARTHA were in the colonies in 1639 and were probably in Ipswich until 1657. In 1660 he leased the Emanuel Downing farm on the Salem-Lowell<sup>R.</sup> Road, very near Proctor's Crossing, and kept an inn there. The estate he called GROTON, from his wife's ancestral home in England. The Downing farm is No. 24 on Upham's map. The farm extended from what is now called Mt. Pleasant to, and beyond, Proctor's Crossing. The inn must have been near the site of the station, and on the old road from Ipswich to Boston.

Roger died Jan. 20, 1666 and widow Martha married Nicholas Holt of ANDOVER on May 21 of the same year, as his third wife. Martha died in 1703, age 80, so was born 1623. Nicholas Holt died in 1685 at 83.
