We had a Sanders here in the home occupied by Seth Chase in 1860, and owned by heirs of Richard Sanders, who died April 1862. Richard came from Cambridge to Andover in 1832. He was an Englishman, and was 88, when he died of injuries to his hip. His wife was Sally Kneeland, cousin of John, of Andover, step-son of Samuel Abbott. John Kneeland bought the place from Joseph Dane, who moved to Willow, N.H. Kneeland, who was in possession for 30 or 40 years, leased it to Clark Holt, who had been promised the place by old Samuel. Moses Dane had it on shares 25 years, and George F. Holt and Wm. Abbott were there also.
