THE WILSON FAMILY

OF ANDOVER

(From a compilation prepared in 1920 by Samuel Tyndale Wilson of Maryville, Tenn., who credits Miss Charlotte Helen Abbott with valuable assistance.)

William (1) Wilson and his wife, Alice, lived at Dunnington, Lincolnshire, England . The region was a prosperous one, and William evidently had considerable property there, for on his death, in or about 1638, his son, Edward (2), then in the colonies, recrossed the Atlantic to settle the estate and to take the widow, mother Alice, back to America with him. Nothing definite has been discovered further of her movements.

The children of William (1) Wilson and wife, Alice , were :-

Edward (2), b. in England; was a weaver at Salem, Mass.; before returning to England, made a will, ^{Apr. 19,} (1638) in which he names his brothers William and Thomas Wilson. He returned to Salem , and there m. a daughter of Michael Salloes, and was executor of Salloes' will, made in 1640.

Thomas (2), b. in England; emigrated to America before 1638; settled in Roxbury, Mass. and Exeter, N.H.; was a miller; he m. Ann -- ; he d. in 1643; she m. 2nd., John Legatt; had 3 sons; 2 dau.

William (2), b. in England; had interests in Dunnington, for between 1638-1641 he sold or leased land there, which adjoined that of his father, William, Sr., and his brother, Thomas. He m. Patience -- . They were in Boston in 1635, for on June 6, that year, their first child, Sherborn, was b. there. On Sept. 6, 1635, William and Patience united with the First Ch. of which the Rev. John Wilson, was pastor. William was a joiner or carpenter by trade; a jailor and deputy marshall by office, and a planter or farmer, by occupation. He took the oath and was enrolled as a freeman, May 25, 1636 .

On Oct. 12, 1692, a petition was addressed the court, signed by Messrs. Osgood, Frye, Marston, Osgood, Joseph Wilson" in behalf of his wife and children", Bridges, " in behalf of his wife and children," Tyler, Barker and Dane all of whom had wives languishing in Salem jail awaiting sentence. The petitioners begged that the prisoners should be allowed to remove to their homes, under bonds. On Oct. 18, the ministers and others of Andover asked for their release, and on Dec. 6th, a third petition emphasized the desperation and suffering of the accused, and their "extream danger of perishing." At the end of the month, the victims began to be released, Sarah Wilson among the number. Joseph d. April 2, 1718; Sarah d. May 21, 1727 .

From Andover Townsman, March 6, 1936:-

Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Wilson

Passes Away Suddenly

Sunday Afternoon.

...." Frederic Arthur Wilson, D.D., pastor emeritus of Free Church, Andover's most esteemed resident, passed away suddenly last Sunday, March 1, 1936. Dr. Wilson was on his way to church when he became ill, and he was returned to his home, where in surroundings so dear to him, he breathed his last.

Funeral services were on Tuesday, March 3, at the church which was built during Dr. Wilson's pastorate. ...In the pulpit from which Dr. Wilson had so often spoken was Rev. Alfred C. Church who expressed in his prayer, the feeling which he had for Dr. Wilson. Three hymns were sung:- " Jerusalem, the Golden" , " How Firm a Foundation" and " For All the Saints." Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Born at Urono, Me., April 23, 1852, Dr. Wilson graduated from Bowdoin College, with the degree of A.B., in 1873. For two years he was principal of Fryeburg Academy and for four years, instructor at the Hallowell Classical Academy. He entered Bangor Theological Seminary and graduated in 1882. He was the first pastor of the Orthodox Congregational Church in Billerica, 1882-9, when he came to the old Free Church here. In 1908 the new church was built. He was Trustee of Memorial Hall Library and a member of the Historical Society. He retired as pastor, 1920 and was named pastor emeritus. In 1923, on the 50th anniversary of his graduation from Bowdoin, he was given an honorary degree of D.D.

His widow, Florence Nightingale^(Nason) Wilson survives and a daughter, Miss Mira B., principal of Northfield Seminary, and a son, Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, of Ipswich Congregational Church.
