EARLY RECORDS
OF THE
WILSON FAMILY
OF ANDOVER

COMPILLED BY
CHARLOTTE HELEN ABBOTT
SAMUEL TYNDALE WILSON
FREDERICK ARTHUR WILSON
William (1) Wilson and his wife, Alice, lived at Dunnington, Lincolnshire, England. The region was a prosperous one, and William evidently had considerable property there, for on his death, in or about 1638, his son, Edward (2), then in the colonies, recrossed the Atlantic to settle the estate and to take the widow, mother Alice, back to America with him. Nothing definite has been discovered further of her movements.

The children of William (1) Wilson and wife, Alice, were:

Edward (2), b. in England; was a weaver at Salem, Mass.; before returning Apr. 19, to England, made a will, (1638) in which he names his brothers William and Thomas Wilson. He returned to Salem, and there m. a daughter of Michael Salloes, and was executor of Salloes' will, made in 1640.

Thomas (2), b. in England; emigrated to America before 1638; settled in Roxbury, Mass. and Exeter, N.H.; was a miller; he m. Ann --; he d. in 1643; she m. 2nd., John Legatt; had 3 sons; 2 dau.

William (2), b. in England; had interests in Dunnington, for between 1638-1641 he sold or leased land there, which adjoined that of his father, William, Sr., and his brother, Thomas. He m. Patience -- . They were in Boston in 1635, for on June 6, that year, their first child, Sherborn, was b. there. On Sept. 6, 1635, William and Patience united with the First Ch. of which the Rev. John Wilson, was pastor. William was a joined or carpenter by trade; a jailor and deputy marshall b' office, and a planter or farmer, by occupation. He took the oath and was enrolled as a freeman, May 25, 1636.
William (2) Wilson, (cont.) He was forbidden to carry arms, in 1637, being one of 58 Boston followers of Mr. Wheelwright and Mrs. Anne Hutchinson, who were punished by being "disarmed." He may have been tinctured with Mrs. Hutchinson's heresies before leaving Lincolnshire, for she emigrated from that place, to Boston." He d. in 1646, and on Oct. 7, 1646, it was ordered: "Whatsoever appears due to the widow Wilson from the country with respect to her late husband's wages, appearing under the hands of the Treasurer, shee shalbe forthwith paid and satisfied by Rich. Fairbanks, as farr as that comes to, which he owith to the country for the customs of wines, and the rest by the Treasurer, so as she departs the prison-house and quietly resigne it to the Keeper!" On May 28, 1647, widow Patience was allowed £ 23, "'t' dew for expenses hir husband was at for laying out of charges in the prison, and to be allowed hir.'" Patience went to the farm in Braintree and remained there until her death either before, or in, 1663, in which year her estate was divided. The children were not mentioned by name, in the settlement.

William (2) Wilson (Wm. (1) and wife, Patience, had:--

Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Wilson
Passes Away Suddenly
Sunday Afternoon.

"..." Frederic Arthur Wilson, D.D., pastor emeritus of Free Church, Andover's most esteemed resident, passed away suddenly last Sunday, March 1, 1936. Dr. Wilson was on his way to church when he became ill, and he was returned to his home, where in surroundings so dear to him, he breathed his last.

Funeral services were on Tuesday, March 6, at the church which was built during Dr. Wilson's pastorate. ...In the pulpit from which Dr. Wilson had so often spoken was Rev. Alfred C. Church .... who expressed in his prayer, the feeling which he had for Dr. Wilson.

Three hymns were sung: - "Jerusalem, the Golden", "How Firm a Foundation" and "For All the Saints." Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Born at Rome, N.Y., April 23, 1852, Dr. Wilson graduated from Bowdoin College, with the degree of A.B., in 1873. For two years he was principal of Fryeburg Academy and for four years, instructor at the Hallowell Classical Academy. He entered Bangor Theological Seminary and graduated in 1882. He was the first pastor of the Orthodox Congregational Church in Billerica, 1882-9, when he came to the old Free Church here. In 1908 the new church was built. He was Trustee of Memorial Hall Library and a member of the Historical Society. He retired as pastor, 1920 and was named pastor emeritus. In 1923, on the 50th anniversary of his graduation from Bowdoin, he was given an honorary degree of D.D.

His widow, Florence Nightingale Wilson survives and a daughter, Miss "Ira B., principal of Northfield Seminary, and a son, Rev. Frederick C. "ilson, of Ipswich Congregational Church."
