C. E. UNION HEARS REPORTS

Delegate to London Convention Tells of Experiences Across the Water. Plans Made for Boston Convention and Winter's Activities.

A very successful business meeting was held by Andover Christian Endeavor union Monday night at the Free Church, when reports of the London convention by Miss Elsie Ross, and the address by speakers from Boston Union convention committee were given.

Miss Ross spoke of the enjoyable trip across on the Carmania. The mornings, aboard, included devotional, quiet hour or testimonial services. The evenings were devoted to prayer and song. The great motto for the world's convention was "The Youth of the World for Christ and the Church." Dr. Clark, used these words for his inspiring evening address in the great Crystal Palace of London.

The last evening of the convention is one that will especially remain in the delegates' minds. At this gathering there were thirty-six nations represented and 700 delegates present from the United States.

Russell Blair and Robert Fraser, representing Boston union, spoke on the state convention to be held in Boston from October 21 to 24. At the state convention two prominent Northfield leaders, Dr. Foulks and Dr. Foye, will give inspiring addresses. The well known song leader, Percy Foster, of Washington, D. C., will lead the get-together praise services. Banquets will be held Friday and Saturday evenings at which times toasts will be given.

After the business meeting a Northfield stunt called "Biblical Mimics" was put on by this year's delegates to Northfield. The mimics were David and Goliath, by William Emmons and James Carter; Ruth, by Evelyn Mayes; Moses, by Herbert Otis; Lot's Wife, by Margaret Manning; Noah, by Selden Billington; Samson, by Robert Kierstead; Salome, by Margaret Manning; Peter, by Herbert Otis; Adam and Eve, by William Emmons and Ruth Perry, and Joshua, by Selden Billington.

After the social hour, refreshments were served by Bertha Cuthill, Doris Manning, Helen Saunders, Edith Johnson, Harrison Brown, Mayhew Stickney and Harold Weeks.

CAPTAIN IS SUSPENDED

Changes Are Made in Line-up for Tomorrow's Game Between Punched and Manchester

Daniel Doyle, captain and fullback of the Punched High football eleven, and William Murphy, quarterback, were indefinitely suspended Wednesday from school on account of cutting classes. Both boys went to school Tuesday morning, but at 7:55 decided to take a day off and didn't report for classes. Another prominent member of the eleven joined them but returned for some of the classes and escaped punishment.

The loss of Doyle's and Murphy's services to the eleven is a severe blow to Coach Lovely, but under the circumstances, the punishment was merited by the boys. Doyle is probably the best defensive high school player in this vicinity, while Murphy was expected to bear the brunt of Punched's offensive play this fall.

Coach Eugene Lovely has definitely decided on his lineup for the opening game of the season against Manchester High school, Saturday.

James Gallant will start his first game in a Punched uniform and will guide the team at quarterback in place of Will Murphy. Bill Emmons has been shifted from right tackle to fullback in place of Capt. Doyle. Mayhew Stickney, one of the best centers that Punched ever had, has been appointed acting captain and will lead the eleven for the remainder of the season unless Doyle's suspension is lifted.

How to Live Well and Die Happy

The title of this article rather reminds one of Pollyanna but after all it is possible, usually, to live well and to die happy. The reason most people don't accomplish this desirable aim is because they don't intelligently apply the knowledge which is available to them. This is especially true of middle age. Therefore, we shall take up today the health of the person of forty or upwards.

There is really no good reason why middle age should not be characterized by physical as well as mental vigor; no good reason that is, except lack of foresight on the part of youth. Health habits practiced in youth bring health in middle age. Suppose we run over some of these health habits which, we may claim, produce such generous dividends.

First of all we had better mention common sense in eating, since overweight is one of the serious problems of middle age. Most people eat too much. Eat sparingly of meat, of starches and of sweets; go slow in the use of salt. Drink water freely and specialize in vegetables especially the leafy ones. A pint of clean milk a day is good. Have a light meal in the middle of the day—you will work all the better for it.

Exercise we will mention next. Use your automobile, if you have one, as sparingly as possible. Walk at least a mile every day and hike four or five miles Saturday afternoon and Sunday. If you started your health habits in youth this may be enough for you. Otherwise, regular daily exercise on getting up in the morning will help keep the waist line from getting out of bounds. But don't forget that you are no longer twenty. Don't get too strenuous in your exercise.

Posture is all-important. Stand tall with head up, chest out, and abdomen in. Thus will you avoid the evils of sagging stomach and intestinal tract and the evils attendant on constipation.

Rest when you are tired. The best time to rest is at night, and in bed. Seven or eight hours sleep, with open window, should make one feel fit for the next day's work.

Most important of all, cultivate a serene mind. If you have a placid disposition be thankful for it, since it is beyond price. If you don't have one naturally, cultivate one with all your might.

This then is the measure of healthy middle age. An erect body, clear eye, clear skin; a good digestion; ability to sleep soundly; freedom from constipation. On the mental side, a calm mind, kindly disposition, and wholesome interest in the normal things of life.

Christian Endeavor Notes

The South Church C. E. society met in the vestry Sunday evening. Misses Frances Hall and Jeanette Meehan reported on the Durham convention. A report was also submitted on the Northfield convention.

One of the most interesting meetings ever held by the Free Church Christian Endeavorers was that of Sunday evening under the leadership of John Cameron. The speaker, who has been to China several times, gave the society a good picture of the work being done there. He spoke of the brave missionaries who sometimes sacrifice their lives to teach in Chinese cities.

Czechoslovakian Songs

The great war has brought forth a new alignment of nations and has reconstructed several, which had for centuries been under the rule of stronger powers. One of the most picturesque of little nations, which has emerged into complete independence thanks to the Allied victory, is the Czechoslovakian nation. As the name implies, it is a composite nation, partly Czech or Bohemian in its physiognomy, and partly Slav. The march of the Czechoslovakian army through Russia and Siberia in order to rejoin the Allied armies on the Western front, the vision of Masaryk which brought about the existence of this army, the hardships which these intrepid warriors had to undergo in the wastelands of the frozen fields of Siberia, these will forever remain as one of the most noteworthy epics of the Great War. But now this nation is definitely settled under its own rule in Central Europe and can contribute its mite to the general culture and civilization of that troubled continent. One of the cultural treasures of this nation is its folklore. Some of their folk songs are Bohemian and some are Slav in character. The Russian Symphonic Choir at its concert here at George Washington Hall on October 23, will introduce at least two Czechoslovakian songs, and one of these, a Bohemian song, with its gaiety and unusual lilt, is surely destined to become as popular a hit in this country as the "March of the Wooden Soldiers" from the Chauve Souris.

Will Rogers—America's Leading

Humorist

MORE THAN 50,000 letters a year come into the Globe office from its readers. In this vast bulk of correspondence there is ample evidence of the value and interest of the Globe's Household Department, which is written in most part by the women themselves. Let a few of these women tell you about it:—

"For years I have read the Household Department of our beloved Globe, seeing it grow from a column or two to pages. In all the past years I seldom have missed an edition."

"The Column certainly must be a god-send to some of the frantic mothers with children and small incomes. It seems like a large book of knowledge, full of bright ideas, recipes, household hints, sympathy, love and friendliness."

"In our opinion, the Household Department is the most interesting part of the Globe, and we have been taking it for years solely because of that department."

You, too, can become a member of this great Household Club. It costs so little—only 2 cents a day, and to attend the meetings you don't have to leave your own front porch.

Whatever pertains to the home, the family, and the very important question of food, you'll find it in the Globe. These women tell you how they have overcome the same obstacles, perhaps, that confront you.

To keep up with what is going on in your own community you must read the daily Globe. And if you are going into Boston to shop, it's only in the Globe that you will find the most complete store news.

MEN prefer the Globe because of its accurate and fair-minded news policy. In the Globe you find full and accurate reports of the important news happenings, untinted with racial or religious prejudice, or political bias. And in sports—all the news of all the sports whether professional or amateur, local or national.

Every week-day—and Sunday—see that your newsdealer hands you the Globe.

Right now we're having a wonderful success with the Barrett Wedglock Shingle, which goes on over the old roof. Richly colored, fire-safe and rot- and rust-proof, it has a special interlocking feature that makes it the last word in modern roofing, for it locks tight on ALL FOUR SIDES!

The first issue of the Phillipsian in enlarged form appeared Wednesday.

Eighteen students have entered the archaeological department at Phillips academy.

There are less than 400 students in Phillips academy, although the young men are still entering.

This year there are only ten or a dozen students from Lawrence in Phillips academy as opposed to the thirty or forty of last year. The difference is explained by the opening of the high school in Lawrence.

Football and Soccer Schedules

The Pawtucket high school of Rhode Island, met and was defeated last Saturday afternoon at Brothers' field by the Phillips academy team by the score of 28 to 0. The game was staged as a secret engagement to give the Blue coaches an idea of just what their charges could do under fire.

The high school eleven proved no match for the Blue. Coach Shepard was very much impressed with the manner in which his offense shaped up during the hot afternoon. Several times during the contest the suburban prep school backs made long gains through the high school line.

"Casey" Jones, a former Andover athlete, coached the high school players. His team found it difficult to pierce the strong defense put up by the Blue eleven during the afternoon.

Coach Ray Shepard had a splendid opportunity to have his boys try some of their new plays as there was hardly a spectator present.

The game was not a regular scheduled affair but was arranged at the end of last week to give the Andover team a real workout before it opens its season with Dartmouth Freshmen at Hanover tomorrow.

The possible starting lineup for the opening game will probably be the same as that which started on Saturday although it is not definite at the present time.

The starting lineup Saturday was as follows: Avery and Reiss, ends; Kingston and Weicker, tackles; Stewart and Davis, guards; Gould, center; Crandall, quarterback; Luce and Frigard, halfbacks, and Richardson, fullback. The football schedule:

October 2nd — Dartmouth Freshmen at Hanover.

A Sign of the Times

Surely it is a significant fact that the Railway Age has begun the publication of a motor transport section, which really is a new magazine, to appear each month as a separately bound supplement, and to be devoted to all phases of the rapidly expanding highway service, both freight and passenger, now being rendered by motor vehicles in every part of the United States.

Few persons not connected with the transportation industries realize the magnitude of motor transport in this country and the importance of the problems which it has thrust upon the railroads. Only 11 of the 48 states as yet have passed no special legislation regarding the use of buses within their boundaries, and seven of these states are in the South. Last year New Jersey enacted a set of laws containing detailed specifications for the design of motor buses, and before the year was out 34 states had followed that lead. Seven of the regulations are approved by engineers as of a beneficial type, but "an alarming number" are declared to be burdensome and unnecessary. There is no uniformity in this legislation. The interstate commerce commission will finish next month the investigation begun in July of "the operation of motor buses and motor vehicle trucks by or in competition with common carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act." At the hearing the eastern roads participated most actively in the offering of evidence and argument. Here in Boston the Boston & Maine and the New Haven described at length the losses they have sustained by bus and truck competition and their own plans to meet this competition by including highway operation in their own services.

The motor bus and motor truck have established themselves permanently as agencies of transport. Their advent has precipitated upon the older transportation systems a whole new set of problems and their success is largely due to the convenience of the service they render. Motor transport is a business and a utility belonging in a class by itself but closely related to the other transportation agencies of the country and needing above all to be coordinated with those agencies. It is especially to this end that the Railway Age devotes its new Supplement. Regulations of the bus and truck in the interest of safety and economy, of fair competition, of the greatest service to the public, of the protection of the highways they use without payment, is recognized everywhere as necessary. The utility boards of most of the states accept this necessity and the I. C. C. has in view the question of the possible regulation of interstate operations.

Without doubt the bus and the truck are going to hold an important place in that national transportation system which the United States determined it must have when Congress passed the Transportation Act in 1920. The Boston Herald, September 29, 1926.

Girls' Friendly Holds Quarterly Supper

The fall season of the Girls' Friendly Society of Christ church opened on Monday evening with the quarterly supper held at the home of Mrs. Walter Edward Howe instead of at the parish house where alterations are not yet quite completed.

The supper room was decorated in pink and white and at each cover was a favor basket of salted nuts. The supper consisted of meat pie, mashed potatoes, beets, tomatoes, rolls, apple pie with ice cream, and coffee.

G. F. S. songs were sung and a report was given of the Girls' Friendly banquet held at Winthrop Arms in June.

The members of the society are planning to attend a series of lectures to be given at Grace church, Lawrence, on Monday nights during October. The weekly hikes will be resumed on Saturday afternoon.

Among those present were Mrs. Walter E. Howe, Miss Emily Richards, Misses Gertrude, Doris, Elizabeth, and Ethel Hilton, Anne and Florence Swenson, Florence and Gertrude French, Sally and Anna McCoubrie, Ethel Hilton, Alice and Edythe Wrigley, Helen Smith, Grace Larkin, Mildred Howard, Ruth Saunders, and Martha Howe.

Costume Dinner Party

The K. L. B. club held a costume dinner party in honor of Miss Emma Cushman at the home of Miss Jennie Barrett on Harding street Monday evening. The feature of the evening was a bridal march led by Miss Helen Kyle and Miss May Dugan in which all who took part were dressed in old-fashioned costumes of brides and grooms of colonial times. The dining-room where a delicious dinner was served was prettily decorated in pink and white, and a beautiful bouquet of autumn flowers adorned the table. Favors were distributed. A beautiful picture, "Summer Glory," was presented to Miss Cushman by the members of the club.

During the evening parlor games were played and dancing and singing were enjoyed.

Those present were: Misses Katherine Leary, Genevieve McNally, Katherine McNally, Helen Kyle, May Dugan, Anna Kyle, Mary Barrett, Emma Cushman, Jennie Barrett, and Mrs. Joseph McCarthy.

Eleventh Birthday Party

Esther Stocks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Stocks of South Main street, observed her eleventh birthday with a party at her home Saturday afternoon. A number of her little friends were present to wish her many happy returns of the day, and the young hostess received many gifts. Refreshments were served and games played.

New England's Metal Industry

A survey of the metal trades industry of New England, recently completed by a committee of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, reveals a regrettable situation. The metal industry of this section was making satisfactory progress up to the time of the war; but since that time the activity here has not kept pace with that of the rest of the country. New England's remoteness from the sources of raw materials is undoubtedly a factor tending to handicap New England's metal working business. But the conclusions of the survey are to the effect that this handicap can be entirely offset by thoughtful utilization of certain other advantages which this region possesses. By focusing upon the production of articles which are highly fabricated and standardized the transportation cost can be made a very small percentage of the cost of the finished goods.

After presenting a number of excellent suggestions, the report of the survey arrives at this bit of much-needed advice: "Adopt an open minded attitude to change so as to overcome the stagnation due to tradition and to secure more effective methods of production and distribution."

Attitude is the important thing. No industry can afford to go along in a rut. The time seems to have come for our metal industry, in particular, to take account of itself, in order that it may obtain a proper share of the prosperity which is going around the country.

New England has the skilled labor; the capital; the organizing ability; the plants; the reputation. All it lacks is the will to put these elements at work with definite, intelligent and resolute purpose.—Boston Traveler, September 29, 1926.

Invitations to Theft

Quick and bold was the thief who made off with a sample case containing $30,000 worth of jewelry, left on the sidewalk for a few seconds at one of the city's busiest corners. Somebody should have stopped him, of course. Such a robber deserves to be caught and punished.

But the incident bears out what Superintendent of Police Michael H. Crowley has been saying about the negligent habits of owners and custodians of valuable property.

The jewelry salesman and the youth who was acting as his porter entered the door of a jewelry store with one sample case between them—leaving the other out on the sidewalk. It was only for a moment, but it happened to be the wrong moment. The vast majority of folks are honest. Few even of the ones who are dishonest would have risked stealing a sample case by daylight when hundreds of people were passing and the owner might appear at any second and start an uproar. But this time the exception occurred. It is bound to occur eventually where people invite that sort of thing by carelessness.—Boston Traveler, September 29, 1926.

Andover Helps Hurricane Victims in Florida

The pupils, their parents, and friends of the Briggs Allen school have responded generously and promptly to the request for clothing for the destitute children of Coral Gables, Florida, and several large boxes have already been sent to supply their immediate needs.

Mrs. S. R. Waldron, a niece of Mrs. Amy L. Briggs, who has often visited in Andover, and has many friends here, makes her home at Coral Gables with her husband and little son. They owned a home and a service station and though their property has suffered heavily they are happy to be alive and unhurt, after a most terrifying experience.

Mrs. Waldron writes that at the White Temple of the Baptist church with which she is affiliated, there are ninety-seven little children who have no parents and four hundred more who are awaiting the possibility of being claimed. Many of them are scantily clad and others with no apparel of any sort. It was in answer to this moving appeal that the young people of Andover and their parents responded so generously and promptly, winning the gratitude of Mrs. Waldron and her little proteges.

Mr. Holland reports that $348.35 contributed by sixteen persons has already been forwarded to Florida through the Andover Branch of the Red Cross. It is hoped that some of the 10,253 remaining citizens of the town will feel moved to contribute a small sum, so as to make the contribution at least $500.

Woman's Union Holds Quarterly Meeting

The regular quarterly meeting of the Woman's Union of the South Church, was held on Thursday afternoon. The subject of the afternoon was "The Music of the Out-of-Doors." The devotional service was followed by reports from the various committees, and Miss Mary Alice Abbott outlined some of the interests and activities of the Woman's Union.

In the course of the afternoon, there were many quotations from nature poetry, and there were piano numbers by Miss Jane Goodell, and Miss Dorothy Converse; Miss Mabel Carter, and Miss Ruth Pratt sang songs. Tea was served.

following plans concerning the hike to be held at Foster's Pond on Saturday, October 2nd. All the Societies of the Union are invited to attend and carry as someone has suggested: "A pair of legs, a sunny smile and a tin cup." The hikers will meet in front of the Baptist Church at 3:30. There will be a voluntary collection to help defray expenses of the picnic luncheon which will be served.

The Sunday evening meeting will be led by Miss Jane R. Wetterberg, and the topic for discussion will be "What is Education? how get it? how use it?" There is excellent material offered in the Christian Endeavor World on this subject. All the members are urged to be present at this meeting as it will be the monthly consecration service.

Both the Union banner and shield were gained by the Baptist society at the recent Union meeting held at the Free Church on Monday. The attendance which won the banner was 74%. It is always a question of great interest as to which society will be awarded the banner and shield at the Union meetings.

Andover Professors Resign

The Harvard Theological school opened yesterday with a registration of sixty-nine students, the largest registration in its history and no longer affiliated with the Andover Theological seminary as it has been for the last four years. The Harvard school has nearly all the students of the formerly combined schools. The curriculum for the year is essentially the same as that offered by the two schools during their years of affiliation. The Andover building has been rented from the Andover trustees by Harvard and Andover announces no courses for the academic year.

The members of the Andover faculty have resigned their Andover professorships owing to the conditions now required for the tenure of professorships in Andover as interpreted by the supreme court. This is that the theology taught shall be the same as that for the teaching of which it was endowed.

The resignation of Prof. Daniel Evans was not accepted, but he was granted a leave of absence for one year. Prof. Henry J. Cadbury has accepted a position in the department of biblical literature at Bryn Mawr. Dean Willard L. Perry and Prof. William R. Arnold retain their Harvard positions. Andover is thus left without a resident faculty. No announcement is made as to plans for Andover's future.

Why they should be washed

You spend a third of your life on your pillow. Eight hours out of every twenty-four your head is in contact with a casing full of feathers which have absorbed perspiration and oils from the head like a sponge absorbs water.

Folks often use their pillows year after year, through Summer, and Winter, illness and health, and because of the difficulty of the task, neglect to have them thoroughly cleaned.

Airing doesn't clean a pillow. Changing the ticks doesn't cleanse the feathers inside. An article you use as much as your pillow should be washed! Assistant Agent of Ayer Mill Accepts Position in Providence

Ralph O. Ingram, assistant agent of the Ayer Mill since its erection in 1907, has resigned his position to assume new duties as agent of the Wanskuk Mills at Providence, R. I. His new appointment makes him head of the same plant in which his father, the late James Ingram, for years agent of the Washington Mills, learned the first rudiments of the textile industry after emigrating to this country from England.

Mr. Ingram left Andover on Tuesday to take charge of a plant which holds a high reputation in the textile world. It is controlled by United States Senator Metcalf of Rhode Island and besides operating three hundred looms, it has spinning and preparatory equipment of fairly large proportions.

Mr. Ingram, whose father served as agent of the Washington Mills until his rather sudden death, took up duties as assistant agent of the Ayer Mill after serving as agent of the Prospect Mills in South Lawrence, both of which are under the control of the American Woolen company. His father, who was closely associated in the textile business with the late William M. Wood, was active in the original founding of the American Woolen company, and as such occupied a position of prominence in the textile industry. The father first studied the textile business in the mills over which his son will now preside. He became a loom-fixer and later went to northern New York state as an overseer. Later he became connected with the Washington Mills in Lawrence and advanced successfully from overseer to superintendent, to agent, which duties he was fulfilling at the time of his death.

The new agent of the Wanskuk Mills was born in Wanskuk, R. I., in 1882, and came to Lawrence as a child. He received his preliminary education in the public schools of that city being graduated from the Lawrence High school with the class of 1900, later entering the Massachusetts Institute of Technology from which he received his degree in 1904.

His first position was that of treasurer of the Shaw Machine company of Lowell, a position which he fulfilled until becoming connected with the American Woolen company at Providence, R. I. He remained there several years when he returned to Lawrence and became agent of the Prospect Mills, later being advanced to the Ayer Mill post.

In 1907, he married Miss Constance Albee of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and they have two children, Miss Elizabeth Ingram and Robert Ingram. Prior to removing his home to 39 Salem street, about fifteen years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram maintained a residence at 96 Knox street, Lawrence. Mr. Ingram's mother, Mrs. Mary J. Ingram, resides at 43 Salem street.

He has membership in Grecian Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and the Merrimack Valley Country club, and is also a director and chairman of the finance committee of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. Ingram left Andover for Providence on Tuesday and Miss Elizabeth Ingram is already entered at Miss Wheeler's school. Mrs. Ingram and Robert expect to leave for their new home about the first of November.

State Department of Health Condemns Water in West Parish

Three cases of typhoid fever among residents of Lawrence, who have spent a portion of the summer at camps in West Andover, on the Merrimack river, have led to a thorough investigation by local health officials. Although the food is highly well established that the disease was contracted before coming to Andover, no stone has been left unturned to ensure the health and safety of residents of this town.

Serum tests for typhoid fever were made on occupants of neighboring camps and all were reported negative.

Members of the local Board of Health have thrice visited the camps and taken precautions to thoroughly disinfect the out-houses. The State Department of Health has taken samples of the three sources of water used by the campers, and taken them to Boston for examination. In a letter received last night from Dr. Bigelow of the State Department of Public Health, the report on the water was most unfavorable and it has been condemned either for drinking purposes or for the washing of milk cans.

So far as is known no cases of typhoid have developed from the use of milk from these two farms, all of which is sold in Lawrence, and every precaution will be taken to see that the decree of the State Board of Health is observed and that the public health is safeguarded in every way.

This investigation should prove a warning to tourists and campers not to drink from wells and springs concerning whose purity they have no guarantee and to impress upon them the desirability of being made immune to the ravages of the typhoid germ.

The letter from Dr. Bigelow is as follows:

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Department of Public Health
State House, Boston
September 27, 1926
To the Board of Health,
Andover, Massachusetts
Gentlemen:

In response to your request, the Department of Public Health has caused examinations to be made of three sources of water supply used by the occupants of camps in the vicinity of River road, near the southerly bank of the Merrimack river in the town of Andover and samples of water from these sources have been analyzed.

One source examined is a spring located in pasture land on the property of Joseph Landry. At the time of the examination this spring was being fed by water flowing from a cast-iron pipe laid horizontally into the hillside. No information was available as to the source of this supply. The result of the analyses shows that the water contained a large number of bacteria and was unsafe for drinking.

The well located in a shed on the property of Joseph Landry was also examined. At the time of the examination the ground in the vicinity of this well was considerably polluted and the well was not protected from the entrance of surface drainage. The results of the analyses show that the water of this well at the time of the examination was grossly polluted and unsafe for drinking.

The well located on the property of Joseph Blanchette was also examined, and the results of the analyses show that the water at the time of the examination contained a large number of bacteria and was also unsafe for drinking.

The Department recommends that the further use of the waters of these sources of supply for the purpose of drinking or for washing milk utensils and containers be prevented.

Respectfully,
GEORGE H. BIGELOW, M.D.
Commissioner of Public Health

A Larger Thanksgiving Sale

The Woman's Guild of Christ church postponed its much-looked-forward-to annual Country Fair this fall as plans for a much larger Thanksgiving sale had been made. In the afternoon and evening of the fair, toys, games, ice cream, candy, pies, jellies, flowers, bags and grabs will be for sale. There will also be a Memory table, Book table, and a White-Elephant table where someone's misfits will prove treasures for other people.

Tea will be served and there will be special attractions for the children. An entertainment will be given in the evening, particularly for the older people.

Every organization in the parish will assist in some way and the added space and new facilities of the parish house will make it possible to have many innovations and attractions.

An opportunity to see the new addition to the parish house which is planned so successfully with no waste space, will be possible, as well as to buy some of the attractive articles.

The general committee consists of Mrs. Joseph Rand, chairman; Mrs. LeBoutillier, Miss Alice Jenkins, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. C. W. Henry, Mrs. David Munro, Mrs. Charles Warden, Miss Ethel Brown, Mrs. C. S. Cook and Mrs. Arthur Boutwell.

Too Much For Aunty

An elderly lady of very prim and dignified appearance was seated near a young couple who were discussing the merits of their automobiles. "What color is your body?" asked the young man of the lady at his side, meaning, of course, the body of her car. "Oh, mine is pink. What is yours?" "Mine is brown with yellow stripes," the old lady was astounded and promptly left the room in indignation.

Figures are usually dull, but after telling of the great amount of good being done, of its beginning and growth, he told his hearers that on September 1st, the books of the fund showed that up to that date the fund amounted to $37,000. Forty-one loans had been made in 1926, twenty loans amounting to $3500 have been made during the first three weeks in September. Contributions during 1926 to the fund up to August 31 were $217,044. The largest contributors were Andover Grange $82.00; Haverhill Grange $77.55; North Andover Grange $60.00; Lenox Grange $54.00; Sippican Pomona $60.00. September Christmas Tree Success

The Junior Helpers' society of the Congregational church held the annual September Christmas tree on Monday afternoon in the vestry. The Christmas tree, adorned with gifts brought by the children, was a big attraction.

The gifts will be placed in a Christmas box, which will be sent on October 1, to Miss Carolyn Sewall, a missionary at Tientsin, China, to be distributed to the children of that country. Christmas songs were sung by the children.

Those present: Ada Haynes, Ralph Greenwood, John Roggee, Jane Wood, Mildred Wood, Helen Magurn, James Higgins, Foster Zink, Helen Anderson, Helen Baker, Anita Granville, Margaret Mitchell, Drina Gollan, Elmer Wing, George Zink, Irene and John Gollan, Bertha Kent and Miss Emily Tracy.

BELLEVUE MONUMENTAL STUDIOS FURNISH MANY FINE MEMORIALS IN ANDOVER CEMETERIES

"Mark Every Grave" Slogan of Progressive Concern Finely Equipped—Artists in Every Sense of the Word—Have Served Andover Residents For Over Thirty Years

THE PLANT OF THE BELLEVUE MONUMENTAL WORKS AT 64 MANCHESTER ST., LAWRENCE

When those who are near and dear to us depart from this earth, it is altogether fitting and proper that their last resting place bear every mark of respect that is within our power to give. There is no more tender or lasting tribute than a dignified monument commemorating the spot where those gone before, lie.

Care Should Be Used

Because of the reverence that goes with the placing of this monument the grave, every care should be taken in its selection. Not only should the granite or marble used in its construction be of the finest, but the workmanship and design should be in keeping with the spirit in which the memorial is erected.

The Bellevue Monumental Works situated at 64 Manchester Street, Lawrence, according to those who direct its destinies, satisfies every want in the memorial field. Mr. William E. Redfern, the proprietor, is a man of wide experience, being nearly forty years in the monument business and over thirty years serving the public of Andover and Greater Lawrence.

Plant Modern

The plant is one of the finest in this part of the country. It consists of a two-story brick structure and the show room is finished to give the appearance of a church vestibule. The doors and decorations have been tastefully selected. The memorials which are on display, just a few samples of the art which is practiced at the plant, are comparable to those found anywhere. In the show room are the best examples of the stonemason's art, finely carved and lettered. On display here are several "Guardian Memorials," famous throughout the country, for which Mr.

Redfern is the agent in this territory. He is also agent for the exceptionally fine "Rock of Ages Granite" which comes from the largest quarries in Vermont. The customer can also be served with Western Granite and foreign marbles, in fact any type of stone which is required.

Sand-Blast Feature

The new sand-blast equipment which was installed in the new plant at a tremendous expense makes it possible to carve deeply into the stone, letters of any width or depth, and also the dainty thin lines that make lettering distinctive. The huge electric crane which moves the large blocks of granite about the workshop facilitates the construction so that quality workmanship can be given at the minimum cost to the prospective purchaser. The second floor of the plant is used for a designing room and in this department are created the fine drawings and sketches. This is a feature of Mr. Redfern's service for he will gladly show the purchaser a sketch of his stone, drawn to scale exactly as it will appear when finished.

The granite and marble which is used in the shop is imported from France, Germany, Italy, Sweden and Austria. The surfacing machines which grind the stone to any style, finish or depth are part of the modern equipment. Stones can be furnished either dull or polished according to the desires of those who are ordering.

"You would be surprised," said Mr. Redfern, "at the numbers of my customers who order and erect their stone even before there is a death in the family. It saves a great deal of worry after some member of the family dies. Then again the selection is always better because of the fact that there is no great sorrow burdening the mind when choosing the style and design of stone."

"SAVE WITH SAFETY."

The Arthur Memorial in the Rural Cemetery at Albany, N. Y., is a most excellent example of a modern sarcophagus. The figure of bereavement that is shown is an excellent interpretation of the last earthly tribulation to the dead—the laying of the palm upon the cheek. The polished granite makes for harmony and adds impressiveness to the monument.

We employ men who know the history of monument work, from the ancient obelisk to the modern shaft. Our stone cutters are trained to execute all orders. Our service is satisfactory and our prices consistent.

Wide Selection

Mr. Redfern will make any type of stone for any type of pocketbook, and with his wide selection he feels that there is no need for a single grave to remain unmarked. Slabs, corners, markers, mausoleums, urns, grave benches are a few of the products manufactured by the Bellevue firm.

Mr. Redfern's service does not stop there. He is in the field to design and erect public monuments. The soldiers' monument in Methuen is a striking example of the work which can be done at this plant.

The Andover cemeteries contain many examples of true stone-carving from the Bellevue studios and scores of Andover residents have been served by this company.

With the service which this company offers it is no wonder that Mr. Redfern receives orders from all parts of New England and New York.

Redfern Devoted to Public

Mr. Redfern has devoted a great part of his life in service to the public. His social and fraternal activities are well known and his fraternal affiliations are wide. He is a member and Past Master of Phoenician Lodge of Masons, Senior Warden in the Commandery, a member of the Chapter, the Council, Scottish Rite, 32nd degree, and a Shriner. He is also secretary of Brackett Camp, Sons of Veterans and also acting Adjutant General Lawton Post, G. A. R. His army career has been extensive and for nearly a score of years has been active in military organizations. He enlisted in the ranks of the National Guard, worked his way through the non-commissioned officers' ranks until at the outbreak of the trouble with Mexico, he went to the Border as a first lieutenant of Company L, 8th Massachusetts Infantry in which several Andover boys served with him. When the World War broke out, he served as an officer.

His reputation for honesty and fair dealing, coupled with his experience and hundreds of satisfied customers, make the Bellevue Monumental Works altogether a most desirable concern with which to do business.

Will Open Classes in Dancing at Andover and Shawsheen

Friends of Mrs. Arta Taft Nichols will be interested to learn that she is open classes in dancing this fall in Andover and Shawsheen. For several years she has conducted classes in Ballet, Classic, Interpretive, Ballroom, Step and National dancing in Braintree, Weymouth, and Milton. In addition to her annual recitals she has been presenting through her dancing and the presentation of her pupils at lawn fetes given by South Shore society.

MISS ARTA TAFT NICHOLS

Mrs. Nichols has studied at the Harvard School of dancing and also with Professor Louis H. Chalif of New York, President of the Dancing Teachers' Association of America, Miss Rose Byrne of New York, Miss Florence Baker of Brookline, Madam Wyman and Professor Richards of Boston.

Classes will open the latter part of October, at the November Clubhouse in Andover and at Balmoral Hall, in Shawsheen.

Receive Word from Florida

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cheever of Chestnut street have received a letter from their daughter, Mrs. William B. Fessenden, who with her husband makes her home in Miami. The roof of their own home being blown off, they are staying with friends about two miles distant. They were able to carry their silver and other small portable valuables with them, leaving other articles packed until they are able to return and make repairs on the house.

SHAWSHEEN CHAMPIONS

Arbroath Goes Down to Defeat in a Closely Contested Game Played Sunday Afternoon

In an interesting and closely played game that will be remembered and discussed for some time to come, Arbroath went down to defeat before the determined efforts of Shawsheen who were compelled to make an uphill fight from the first end against the superior play of the Arbroathians in the third game of their match played Sunday afternoon on the Shawsheen green.

Both teams were in excellent form and gave a rare exhibition of skill in the ancient Scottish pastime. During the progress of the game on several lies the tape was used to determine which team the jack favored. Arbroath set the pace for Shawsheen for the first seven ends. Shawsheen took the lead in the eighth but Arbroath came back with a beautiful lie for two points in the ninth. Shawsheen again took the lead in the tenth and Arbroath tied up the score in the eleventh end with one. At this stage of the game the most skillful bowling of the match was displayed by the players who were hugging the jack by feet and inches with their accurate lies. Shawsheen won the 12 end but lost the next four in a row and at the eighteenth both teams were gain tied. The players were now showing by their actions the effect of the close play. Arbroath fell short in the nineteenth and lost their chance of a game. This was the third and final game of their annual challenge match, and with the victory of Sunday, Shawsheen is champion for this year. Last year the Arbroathians were champions. The teams are composed of the best players with Shawsheen and Andover and their skill with the bowls may be judged by the closeness of the score.

Punchard High Granted Use of Balmoral Field

The clouds of uncertainty which have overshadowed the football prospects of Punchard High School for this season were dispelled through the courtesy of Mr. Bailey of the Phillips corporation, present owners of Balmoral field, when he generously granted the use of the field to the football team of Punchard High when waited upon by Coach Eugene Lovely of the football faculty. Coach Lovely visited Mr. Bailey at his home on North Main street, formerly the residence of William M. Wood Jr., and informed him of conditions at the playground and the difficulties which confronted him in the training and playing of his team this fall and solicited the use of Balmoral field. His request was immediately granted.

Considerable work will have to be done to put the field into playing condition and workmen have started cutting the grass, rolling and marking the field. It will be remembered that the Shawsheen Soccer team played their last game on a rainy afternoon on Balmoral field with mud and water over their shoetops. After that game nothing further was done to fill the deep holes made by the players or to smooth over the surface, so that at present the field is in a very rough and dangerous condition and Coach Lovely will not expose his boys to possible injury until conditions have been remedied. With the use of Balmoral field granted, Coach Lovely looks forward to another successful year for the "Punch Harders."

James W. Chamberlain Dies in California

James W. Chamberlain, formerly of Dorchester, father of Mrs. William Shaw, died Sunday at her home in Santa Monica, California. He was one of the oldest railroad men in the country, being in his eighty-second year. He was pensioned in 1914 by the Boston & Albany railroad, after a continuous service of fifty-three years as fireman and engineer. This record is the more noteworthy because of the fact that during that period no demerit of any kind was ever placed against his name by reason of any accident.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and of the Columbian lodge of Masons of Boston.

Mr. Chamberlain is survived by one daughter, Mrs. William Shaw, formerly of this town.

To Start for Florida Home

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hale Smith of Lupine road, who are preparing to leave for their home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, have learned that the roof is still on the house, although the garage roof is damaged, and that no dishes are broken, though the house is "knocked off its blocks." Some screening is gone.

Jury Disagrees

The case of Maurice Zack of 160 Myrtle street, Lawrence, driver of the motor car which on the morning of August 9th struck J. William Lindsay, resulting in his death, was brought before the jury at the second session of Superior Criminal Court held in Lawrence on Monday.

After hearing the evidence, the jury disagreed. A new trial may be held.

Births

September 19, 1926, at the Phillips House, Boston, a daughter, Joan, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sweeney of Central street.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Kinnaird and family of Binney street are removing to Haverhill street this week.

James Fitzharris of Haverhill street enjoyed the week-end with relatives in Roxbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gordon of Poor street, motored to Worcester on Sunday, and visited friends.

Mrs. Margaret Fitzharris of Haverhill street, who has been under the care of a physician, is now fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis who have made their home on Sterling street since coming to the village, are removing to Argyle street.

William Morrissey Jr., of Poor street is temporarily employed at the Shawsheen Mill. He will later enter the Edison Electric Co., training school at Lynn.

Miss Dorothy Jennings, who resides with her parents, on Windsor street, has matriculated at Abbot academy. M. M. and Mrs. Jennings are recent arrivals in the Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wrigley of Shepley street are receiving the congratulations of friends upon the addition to the family of a new daughter. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

Welcome new residents to the village are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bevington and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Conlon, Jr., who have recently removed from Lawrence and are now residing on Windsor street.

Motor traffic was unusually heavy through the square last Sunday, officers on duty reporting one of the busiest days of the season. With the ending of the beach season, tourists are now turning to the beauties of the country.

Reverend Alfred C. Church enjoys playing the bowling game, and while taking a beating at the hands of George Carson on the Balmoral green Saturday afternoon, revealed his sense of humor when he facetiously remarked, "Well it's hard to beat the Scotch at their own game."

It has been reported that a son of Max Petzold of Sylvester street, Lawrence, was bitten by a dog owned by a resident of Shawsheen. The boy's wound was treated by a physician. It is believed no serious consequences will ensue as the owner has had the dog inoculated against rabies every year by a veterinary.

Albert Fritch, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritch of Fletcher street, who broke his collar bone in a fall from a stone wall last week, and James Rennie, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rennie of Binney street, who met with a similar accident in a fall from his bed, are doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

It will be of interest to many residents of the village to learn that Mrs. Walter Kaye is resting quite comfortably at a home for aged people on Andover street, South Lawrence.

Mrs. Kaye was a resident of the village for many years and after the untimely demise of her husband and daughter, was employed as a domestic in the home of the late William M. Wood. She occupied the little white cottage near the pond on Lowell street which Mr. Wood erected for her, until the transfer of the property to the Phillips Corporation. Her many friends in the village will be glad to know that she is comfortable.

Boy Rangers May Be Organized

The desire of so many boys who are not of age to become Boy Scouts, and who are anxious to become affiliated with the organization may have preparation for membership by the formation of a troop of Boy Rangers in the village. The Boy Rangers are a branch of the Boy Scout movement, membership in which is composed of boys between the ages of eight and twelve years.

There is splendid material and plenty of it in the village to form a Ranger troop that would be second to none in the district and their request to organize a troop has been brought to the attention of scout officials who will give it consideration.

Scoutmaster Rice intends in the near future to relinquish some of the activities in which he is at present associated in order that he may have more time at his command to devote to the interest of the Boy Scouts.

Ice House Reported Sold

The transfer of ownership in another community interest was consummated last week, when the Metropolitan Ice Co., took over the ice house and water rights to Hussey's pond. Representatives have been going over the property the past week.

The ice house was another expression of Mr. Wood's interest in his mill employees and residents of Shawsheen and was intended to furnish pure pond ice to the mills at Lawrence as well as the homes in Shawsheen. For the past two years it has been used by the People's Ice Co., of Andover.

Boy Scouts Organize

Andover Boy Scouts of America, Troop 1, held its first meeting and drill in the basement of the Shawsheen school last Friday evening, with Scoutmaster Lieutenant Paul Rice M. N. G. in charge. Mr. Rice spoke interestingly to the boys and briefly outlined some of his plans for the coming year. He said he hoped the boys would help him to help them and that they would take seriously the obligations of the scout oath and law, and strive to live up to them.

Enrollment followed and many new boys were admitted to the troop filling vacancies caused by removals from the village or by attendance at schools away from Andover.

Boy scouts connected with troops in Andover and South Lawrence were present as visitors.

Patrols were organized and their leaders appointed as follows:

First Patrol — Charles Murray, patrol leader; Howard Walker, assistant patrol leader; Rene A. Richard Jr., Kelvin Savell, Alexander Ritchie, Frederick Bume, Walter Savell, Lloyd Marcus.

Second Patrol — Edward Rondeau, patrol leader; Malcolm Burns, assistant patrol leader; John Armitage, Alfred Greenhow, Charles Armitage, Wallace Rennie, Emil Rondeau, William Rennie.

Third Patrol — Arthur Mullen, patrol leader; Brony Marcus, assistant patrol leader; William Baillie, William Sawyer, Robert Walker, Gilbert Chadwick, Samuel Furness, John Finnegan.

Troop Officers: Scout leader, Paul Rice; treasurer, Charles Murray; scribe, John Armitage.

Scoutmaster Rice has not yet appointed an assistant scout master nor a senior patrol leader. This will do at a later meeting.

Troop committee — Walter Lamont, chairman; George Graham, George C. Best, Emil J. C. Schulze, Henry Todd.

NEW CONSTRUCTION

Section Near Lawrence Line is Growing Rapidly — New Houses Going up on Duffton Road

Two houses are nearing completion on Topping road, and batters are placed for two more on Juliet street. These streets are in that section of the village which was voted water main extensions at the last town meeting.

The house occupied by Mr. Furness on Sherburne street is being reshingled by the J. E. Pitman Co.

An ell is being added to the home of Henry White on Topping road.

A rubble stone retaining wall has been built on the North Main street line of the Robinson property on Union street.

A new home is being erected by J. Harry Playdon, the well-known florist, on Lowell street.

Many American Woolen Company houses have been painted during the past summer. Painters are now busy in the brick section of the Village.

Three double tenement houses are practically completed and a fourth is well forward in construction on Duffton road, near the end of Enmore street. The houses are being built by George Duffton of Burnham road.

Progressive Teachers

That the teachers of the Shawsheen school are progressive and fully realize the serious responsibility of their chosen profession in keeping mentally alert and qualified to lay a foundation, educationally, in the minds of the children in their charge upon which in later years the structure of a higher education may be supported, was further evidenced on Saturday by the enrollment of Miss Ann Harnedy, teacher of the fifth grade, who will take an advanced course for experienced teachers on advanced methods in Arithmetic.

Miss Harnedy is the fourth teacher from this school who has been desirous to make personal sacrifices in order to better prepare herself to "carry on" in her chosen field of labor. Miss Rachel Stickney successfully completed a course in sociology at a summer school in New Hampshire. Miss Ethel Anderson was enrolled two weeks ago at Boston University for special study, and last year Miss Genevieve McNally, principal, secured her diploma for completing a course on administration at Boston University.

Shawsheen residents are justly proud of their School and its efficient corps of teachers.

Ladies' Bowling League to Be Formed

A ladies' bowling league composed of the wives and daughters of the Square and Compass club members is now in process of formation, and Manager Roy Hardy has announced that the alleys will be reserved for them on Thursday night of each week. Many ladies rolled informally last year and much pleasure was derived. A few preliminary games will be rolled in order to make up teams of average ability and then a schedule will be arranged. All ladies interested are invited to give or send their names to Manager Hardy or Miss Blanche Holmes of Bartlett street. Announcement will be made of the first roll-off.

The Square and Compass bowlers played the first of their scheduled games on the Shawsheen alleys Tuesday night, with thrills and excitement aplenty. The teams as arranged by Manager Roy Hardy are fairly well balanced and strong enough to insure close competition throughout the season.

Bill Sparks had high single with 112 and Harry Wadman captured the high triple with 304. The feature of the evening was staged by Joe Higginson, when Joe ran off 5 boxes of tens in a row and missed the sixth by only one pin. The big thrill was furnished by Bill Sparks in the last two boxes of his third string when he got a strike and two spares, and on the sidelines a lot of cheers. Wadman was in good form picking the odd pins for spares consistently. Hardy was high man for his team (but Roy is good anyway).

Baker played a fair game but was weak in the pinches for had he been able to take advantage of the breaks, his score would have been much higher. John Ralph and William Thompson proved they were no handicaps to their teams. Manager Hardy should get these two veterans together for an individual match. Team 1 had the edge on Team 2 taking all four points by close margins, winning the second string by three pins and the third by only two pins. Teams 3 and 4 played a gentleman's game, splitting the points while Teams 5 and 6 were satisfied with the ratio of 3 to 1.

Square and Compass Bowlers Start Season's Schedule

The scores:

Bill Sparks had high single with 112 at Hillary Wadman captured the high triple with 104. The feature of the evening was staged by Joe Higginson when Joe ran off six boxes of pins in a row and missed the sixth by one pin. The big thrill was furnished by Bill Sparks in the last two boxes of his third string when he got a strike and two spares and on the sidelines a lot of cheers. Wadman was in good form picking the odd pins in spares consistently. Hardy was high in the second string but Roy is going away. Baker pitched a fair game but was weak in the pinches for had he been able to take advantage of the breaks, his score would have been much higher. John Ralph and William Thompson proved they were no handicans to their teams. Manager Hardy should give these two veterans together for an interesting match. Team 1 had the edge on Team 2 in the first string but lost the match by winning the second string by three pins and the third by only two pins. Teams 3 and 4 played a gentleman's game, splitting the points while Teams 5 and 6 were satisfied with the ratio of 3 to 1.

Boy Scouts Enjoy Outing

Twelve boy scouts of Andover, Troop 1, under the care of Scout Master Paul Rice, held a pleasant outing on the banks of the Shawsheen at Ballardvale on Saturday afternoon. The boys were conveyed to Ballardvale in autos where canoes were engaged for the trip up the river until a suitable camping ground was found. The boys were given an opportunity to display their knowledge in woodcraft, lighting fires and cooking as taught in the Boy Scout manual. After preparing and eating their suppers, they returned to the village, tired but very happy.
