Entertainment at Home for Aged

A very delightful affair was the buffet supper and reception given at the Andover Home for Aged People, 4 Pumphard Avenue, on Tuesday evening when the women of the Board of Managers entertained for the members of the Board and the residents of the Home.

The supper committee consisted of Miss Anna Kuhn and Mrs. Virgil D. Harrington, who, with Miss Grace Lake, were in charge of the dining room. The table was very attractive, sweet peas, jonquils, and larkspur being the flowers used as decoration, with candles furnishing light, and the menu which was served by the gentlemen to the guests in the various rooms, was most delicious.

In these rooms, snap dragons and marguerites were effectively placed and Miss Clara Baldwin, Mrs. Myron Gutterston, Mrs. Edwin Brewster and Miss Anne Stone acted as hostesses.

Those present were: Mrs. Myron Gutterston, Miss Anna Abbott, Miss Clara Baldwin, Miss Anna Kuhn, Mrs. Edwin Brewster, Mrs. Virgil Harrington, Miss Anne Stone, Miss Grace Lake, Miss Abbie Davis, Miss Nellie Sullivan, Miss Margaret Caldwell, Miss Abbie Abbott, Miss Anne Davis, Cecil Bancroft, John V. Holt, Edward Anderson, Duke Smith, William Trow, and David Shaw who was cordially welcomed as a former member and treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Home.

Women's Union Have Entertainment

On Saturday evening at the West Parish vestry at 6 o'clock the Women's Union will have a supper and entertainment. The supper is in charge of Mrs. John Noyes and the menu will be chicken short cake, mashed potatoes, peas, cabbage salad, rolls, pie and coffee. Following the supper there will be an entertainment consisting of Cape Cod stories told by Mr. Nathan C. Hamblin, principal of the high school, and other interesting items. Admission for the entire program will be 35 cents.

Shawsheen Women Present Comedy

"Mary's Step-Husband," a comedy in three acts by Larry E. Johnson, will be presented by the dramatic department of the Shawsheen Village Women's club in Balmoral hall this evening, starting at 8 o'clock. This play has made a big hit on the legitimate stage and has been successfully staged by several amateur groups.

Mrs. J. Albion Burt plays the role of the heroine, Mary Marshall, who is an incurable romanticist. Mary is one of those persons who love to make good impressions, but unfortunately she goes too far and involves her whole family in a series of complications which would puzzle even the hero of the ancient Labyrinth story.

Mrs. John M. Birdsall, who has been very successful in coaching plays here in town, has been directing the cast for this presentation. Mrs. Burt is chairman of the dramatic department, and the other members are: Mrs. C. LeRoy Ambye, Mrs. George C. Best, Mrs. Albert E. Curtis, Mrs. Herbert L. Leddy, Mrs. Frank R. MacMackin and Mrs. Earl J. Waddington.

Sherrill Club to Hold Smoke Talk

Over fifty young men have signed the Club's list. The soccer team is to play on Saturday.

Merchants War Against Hoarding

A battle against hoarding was started early this week by the local Merchants' association and the Lions club merchants' committee. In the belief that a great deal of the present business in activity is caused by the hoarding of money, the local merchants are attempting to convince the public that they should either buy or bank. Many automobiles and trucks in town are now adorned with spare tire covers advertising the campaign. Rowland Luce is chairman of the committee.

School Board Awards Roof Repair Work

A special meeting of the School Committee was held Friday evening, April 15th, to consider bids presented for the repair of the High School roof which was recently found to be leaking. A figure of four hundred forty-six dollars ($446.) was presented by the Andrew Wilson Company and four hundred eighty-five dollars ($485.) by the George W. Horne Company. The sub-committee felt that the Horne specifications included a little more work than those presented by the Wilson Company, and their recommendation that the bid be awarded the George W. Horne Company was adopted by the general committee.

For some time water has been leaking in the corridors of the Shawsheen school during every bad storm. Every effort has been made to remedy this situation but so far without avail. The Andrew Wilson Company has been doing some repair work on the roof and they recommend that the installation of eight metal louvers of the type suggested by them in each of the two ventilator stacks might help remedy the existing trouble. The cost for these would be one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125.) for the lot plus a small charge for installation. It was decided to equip the northeast stack with these as a trial and, if found successful, the other stack would be equipped later.

Legion to Meet at Ballardvale

Tuesday April 26, Andover Post, No. 8, American Legion, goes to Ballardvale for its annual big night. Some of the post's very best meetings have been held in the Vale, and this year's program is worthy of the breaking of all records. There will be just two speakers, County Chaplain Harold D. Lancaster of Salem, and County Commander Edward Perkins of Haverhill. Both men can say a lot in a short time, every veteran knows of the important things now in the air, and these speakers will tell the story.

In the line of sport, the committee has secured four big time wrestling bouts; these alone would be worth the trip. The Drum and Bugle Corps will escort the members down, and demonstrate its rapid progress at the Vale. And as usual refreshments will be served. The Community Rooms will be the scene. Transportation will be available at Legion quarters from 7.30 on.

The next regular business meeting of the Post, on Tuesday, May 10, is always one of the most important meetings of the year, and this is especially true this year. The Post hopes to have a very unusual and interesting offering for this date.

Snowless Students Cheer Fire Dept.

If it is true that "the course of true love never runs smooth," the Andover Fire department and the Phillips academy student body have completely fallen for one another. It was only a short while ago that the boys engaged in a snow battle with the firemen, and so the department probably did not anticipate any trouble when the telephone in the station brought forth the information Wednesday evening at seven o'clock that Williams Hall on Phillips street was ablaze.

When the firemen arrived at Phillips street, they found no fire, but learned that the reflection of the sun on the roof of Williams Hall had resembled a fire so much that someone in Peabody house had called the department. While the department will probably blame the call on the sun, it is more than possible that most of the members will not feel too badly at "Old Sol," for after all, students can not throw snowballs when the sun has melted all the snow.

Annual Barnard Speaking Tonight

The annual Barnard Prize Speaking contest will be held in Pumphard hall this evening at eight o'clock. This contest always arouses a great deal of interest each year. The public is invited.

Christmas the Year Round

Where has the pre-Christmas charity spirit of Andover's organizations disappeared? Last December every club in town seemed vying in a keen contest to see if it could surpass all the others in staging plays, giving concerts and holding whist parties for the benefit of the needy. It was a worthy endeavor, but it would have been far more commendable if the Christmas spirit had continued to influence the societies so that today their minstrel shows would still be staged to procure food for the needy rather than to send delegates to a monthly conference or an annual frolic.

Andover has been fortunate, but the town should not bask in its brilliance so long that it becomes blinded to the needs of its residents. At times like these those who have extra money should share it with those who are lacking the necessities of life. Taxation of course is not the way to raise the funds, since in a town like Andover the levies are based on property valuation, and the amount of real estate a man owns today is no indication of how wealthy he is in convertible assets with which to pay taxes. The town has been wise in keeping down its tax rate and leaving charity where it belongs, in the hands of private individuals and organizations. In this way those who are unable to pay will not be forced to do so, but those who can help should pitch in and do their utmost.

However, with a few notable exceptions, our clubs have not been carrying as much of the burden as they should. They are putting on as many entertainments as they did last December, but the purpose is not the same. Today when many families are wondering where their next loaf of bread is coming from, it undoubtedly seems unjust to them that other people should be able to spend money for a good time. Why should not a part at least of the hundreds of dollars that Andover people spend on entertainments each year be donated to help those who do not even dare to think of seeing a play? Those who like to have a good time would still be satisfying their desires without forgetting those who are less fortunate.

Give the needy a hand once again. Remember that a "Merry Christmas" always sounds more complete if a "Happy New Year" is added.

Editorial Cinder

Any move to bring teachers and parents into closer association is a commendable one. Next Monday evening Punchard hall will be the scene of a meeting held for the purpose of forming a Parent-Teachers' association for the central plant. Since such an organization will be of great assistance in enabling both parents and teachers to see the points of view of one another, it is hoped that Monday's meeting will be attended by a large group of those eligible.

Nurses Receive Blanks for Camp

Application blanks for Andover and North Andover children to be entered in the Essex County Health camp for this season have just been received by the local health nurses, together with notice of the clinics at which applicants will be examined.

These clinics will be held at the Essex Sanatorium at Middleton April 27 and May 11 by Dr. Olin S. Pettigill, superintendent of the sanatorium and his staff.

This will be the ninth season of the health camp conducted by the Essex County Health association with funds provided by residents of the county in the annual Christmas seal sale. During its existence several hundred county children who have been exposed to tuberculosis, as well as those suffering from malnutrition, have been benefited by the eight weeks of outdoor living under the medical supervision of Dr. Pettigill, the direction of registered nurses and health education experts. Follow up of these children in their homes and in the schools is continued by the health association through the year, regular physical examinations are provided and information and instruction furnished to parents to supplement and extend camp care.

Shawsheen Team Wins First Game

The spring soccer season of the local young men's clubs was opened Tuesday afternoon when the Shawsheen Athletic club defeated the Sherrill club by the score of 1.0 on Balmoral field. The teams were very well matched, and it was not until the second period that Renny, playing inside right for the Shawsheen aggregation, managed to slip one by Best, the Sherrill goal for the only score of the game. The Sherrill club full-backs, Sims and Davison, stood out as the stars for their team, while Renny and Walker excelled for the Village eleven.

The two teams will play another game at the Balmoral field tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Dinner Dancing at Shawsheen Manor Proving Very Popular

For the past few weeks the Shawsheen Manor has been offering something new in Andover hostilities—dinner dancing. The last three Saturday evenings the dining hall at the well-known local restaurant has been crowded with dance-lovers who saw in the Manor's plan a chance to spend an enjoyable evening for a moderate sum. The management is offering a chicken or steak dinner for only $1.50 and no cover charge is asked. The many patrons of the Manor have been well-pleased with the food, the service, and the music, and because of this it is expected that Shawsheen Manor's dinner dancing will soon become one of the best-known of Greater Lawrence's Saturday evening diversions.

Now the announcement comes of the prospective enlargement of Andover's other big industry, the Smith and Dove Mfg. Co. This paper is today able to state authoritatively that the changes which are to be made will increase their product about 25 per cent. These changes will mean a great deal to Andover in the employment of additional help. The addition which is contemplated at Smith and Dove's is to consist of a two-story brick building connected with present shipping building near the Boston and Maine R. R. tracks. The company also contemplates building a number of tenement houses for their help.

These Recipes Will Utilize Left-overs In Welcome Ways

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

MEAT remaining from last night's roast and bits of vegetables in the refrigerator need not appear on today's table in a form in which they will be recognized. They may be served in almost numberless dishes so flavorful and tempting that the family will enthuse about them. By adding a flavorful sauce, or by combining with another food an entirely new dish may be made. Vegetables offer possibilities for sandwiches and salads and the meats for meat pie, or delicious hash. Try these recipes for thrifty, flavorful dishes. They will bring welcome variety to your table.

Delicious Hash: Combine one cup grated cheese, two cups Rice Flakes, one egg, one teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce and a dash of pepper. Place a generous layer in a buttered baking dish, add a layer of chopped cooked ham and repeat, using remaining ingredients. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until cheese is melted and the top slightly brown (about 15 minutes). If left-over ham is not available, use thin slices of cold boiled, or baked ham.

Vegetable Salad Sandwiches: Mix one large tomato, finely diced 1/2 medium sized cucumber, finely diced, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1/2 medium size green pepper, minced,

8 to 10 Stuffed Spanish Olives, 2 cups shredded lettuce, and salt to taste, and spread between slices of whole wheat bread which have been spread with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. Cut into rectangles, but do not remove crust. Serve with meat, egg or bean salad.
Baked Bean and Egg Salad: Place 2 cups Oven Baked Beans in a sieve and wash with boiling water, then cool. Add 3 chopped hard cooked egg whites, 6 Preserved Sweet Gherkins, chopped, 1 small chopped onion and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Moisten with Mayonnaise and serve in crisp lettuce cups. Garnish with Mayonnaise and egg yolks, pressed through a sieve. Serve very cold. Serves 4.

Famous Casa Loma Band at Roseland-On-The-Merrimack Tonight

More than two years ago Jean Goldkette's famous Casa Loma orchestra made its New England debut and scored the greatest hit in Eastern ballroom history. Since that time it has been the outstanding attraction in this district. Its many followers are happy to know that it will be featured tonight at Roseland-on-the-Merrimack, where it is the most popular of all visiting bands.

With the Casa Lomas will be Kenny Sargent, famed Nashville tenor, and the greatest singing ensemble in America. Casa Loma was the pioneer radio broadcasting band in America, being heard first over KDKA of Pittsburgh and WJR of Detroit. Many critics agree that it plays the sweetest dance music in this country. Roland Russell and his Rollicking Ramblers will play for check dancing tomorrow evening and every Wednesday and Saturday throughout the season. Historic Reproduction

There is a building called Virginia house at Windsor farm, just outside of the city of Richmond. The building is constructed of material from the ancient priory of the Holy Sepulcher completed in 1565, at Warwick, England. It was purchased, packed and shipped outright to Windsor farms in 1925-1926. The structure represents three historic English houses: The Tudor portion of Warwick priory; part of Warneleighton, the home of the Spencers, and the original portion of the present Sulgrave manor, the ancient home of George Washington.

Basilicas

Originally, at Athens, a basilica was a portico on the agora in which the archon basileus dispensed justice. Later, in Rome, it was a rectangular hall divided into nave and aisles by ranges of columns, and with a raised platform, called the tribune, at one end. It was used as a hall of justice and adopted as the type for the earliest buildings of Christian worship.

The word is now applied to a church of this time or to one to which the pope has given the title.

Travel in Discomfort

Baby opossums travel on the back of their parent, but they are third-class passengers, for they have to put up with the open air in all weathers. The mother bends her tail over her back, and the youngsters, twisting their small tails round that of the parent, hold on as best they can, but at times they must have a rough journey, for with eight or ten babies on her back, she will climb trees and move rapidly about among the branches.

The usual Friday afternoon tea was given on April 15. On Saturday, April 16, heads of spring sports were chosen: Track, Mercedes Clos, Baseball, Joyce Henry, and Volleyball, Hazel Walters.

The Rev. S. C. Beane of North Andover conducted the service on Sunday evening, April 17.

"Ship Aho!" was the name of the musical comedy presented by the day scholars on Tuesday, April 19. A large and enthusiastic audience followed the plot with amusement and greeted the costumes and scenery with hearty applause. The hard work which the girls had done under Helen Allen's efficient management was shown in the well-organized chorus and the continuity of the action. The chorus was exceptionally attractive, with its dapper young men and its prettily dressed girls. The principals had opportunities for good character acting, and their interpretations were thoroughly enjoyed. From the highly unconventional "Herb Mullin" to the suave and polished members of the socially elite, each character was ably presented.

The cast of characters follows: Dotty Kendrick, Betty Flanders; Carl Davis, Betty Hollman; Herb Mullin, Ann Cole; Capt. Busberry, Joyce Henry; Mrs. Grace Johnson, Virginia Chapin; Boris, Helen Buttrick; Jack Dennis, Clare O'Connell; Gustav Rufus Rundatti, Delight Hall; Mary Ann Davis, Dorothy Reinhart; Ward Davis, Catherine McDonald; Pierre Delboeuf, Katharine Roth; Peggy, Marie Hollman.

ACT I

ACT II
At the Hotel Norida in Raycerne, the principal port of Bel Santo. The next day.

ACT III
Scene 1—Grand Ballroom at the home of Ward Davis, Raycerne. The next evening. Scene 2—The Same. Later that night.

TIME—The Present
Director, Helen S. Allen; treasurer, Ruth Stott; Faculty Advisor, Miss Mathews, Music, Hilda Lynde; Scenery, Mr. Scannell. The demonstration of the work done during the winter months by the classes of Miss Mary Carpenter was held on Wednesday evening, April 20. As a proof of the even matching of the Gargoyles and the Griffins, the score for the competitive features was a tie. The girls accomplished the Danc gymnastic work, the apparatus and marling with evident enjoyment, and the tapping and tumbling (results of volunteer classes) were entered into with zest. The judges for the meet were Miss Gertrude McDonald, Miss Edith Bruce and Mrs. E. J. Waddington.

Several parents and teachers were able to attend Miss Constance Ling's open meeting for her classes in rhythmic dancing, which she held on Thursday afternoon, April 1. The Rev. Frank Cary, missionary to Japan, and son of Mrs. Ellen Emerson Cary (Abbot 77) will conduct the evening service on Sunday, April 24.

On Tuesday evening, April 26, will come the joint music faculty recital, of which more is said elsewhere.
