Academy Registrar Removed by Death

Cecil Kittredge Bancroft, Registrar for Quarter of a Century, Mourned by Wide Circle of Friends—Had Been Ill for Some Time

Cecil Kittredge Bancroft, Registrar and Instructor in Latin at Phillips Academy, since 1906, died on Saturday, November 26th, at the Itham Infirmary, after an illness of three months. Mr. Bancroft was born on December 15, 1868, at Lookout Mountain, Chattanooga, Tennessee, where his father, Cecil F. P. Bancroft was then Principal of the Lookout Mountain Educational Institution. His mother was Fanny Adella Kittredge Bancroft, of Mont Vernon, New Hampshire. In 1873 Dr. Cecil F. P. Bancroft became Principal of Phillips Academy, serving in that position until his death, in 1901. Cecil K. Bancroft entered Phillips Academy at an early age, and graduated with the class of 1887. While in school he was a member of the football eleven. He received his Degree, Cum Laude, from Yale College in the year 1891. After two years of teaching at Morris Academy, Morristown, New Jersey, he spent two more years of study in Rome, Italy. In 1895 he became a tutor and instructor in Latin at Yale University, where he remained until 1906, when he returned to Phillips Academy to accept the position of Registrar, under his cousin, Alfred E. Stearns, who became Headmaster in 1903. His incumbency as Registrar has covered a period of almost precisely a quarter of a century. Last winter Mr. Bancroft was in failing health, and this autumn he was given a leave of absence for a year by the Trustees. His death was due to a complication of diseases.

Mr. Bancroft, who was unmarried, leaves two sisters, Miss Mary Bancroft, a member of the teaching staff at Abbott Academy, Andover, and Mrs. William J. Long, of Stamford, Connecticut. He was a Congregationalist, a member of the American Philological Society, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. For many years he had spent his summer vacations at Mont Vernon, New Hampshire. The funeral service was conducted at the new Phillips Academy Chapel, at 2:30, on the afternoon of Tuesday, November 29th. The honorary bearers consisted of eight of his intimate friends on the Trustees and the faculty—Dr. Charles Henry Forbes, Mr. James Cowan Sawyer, Mr. Clarence Morgan, Mr. Lester Edward Lynde, Professor Allen Rogers Benner, Mr. John Lewis Phillips.

Annual Election Held by Masons

Frederick W. Gilliard was elected worshipful master at the annual meeting of St. Matthew's lodge, A. F. and M., in the Masonic rooms Monday night. The retiring master, Phillip F. Leslie, tendered a reception at the close of the meeting. Right Worshipful Albert E. Lowe was installing officer with Worshipful Brother James Anderson serving as marshal.

The following were elected: Frederick W. Gilliard, worshipful master; Osborne Sutton, senior warden; James E. Downs, junior warden; William D. McIntyre, treasurer; George M. R. Holmes, secretary; Rev. Alfred C. Church, chaplain; Dr. Malcolm B. McTernan, marshal; Wesley J. Clarke, senior deacon; Frederick C. Smith, junior deacon; Clinton H. Stevens, senior steward; J. Lewis Smith, junior steward; Alexander P. Black, inside sentinel; John A. Arnold, organist, and Horace C. Bodwell, tyler.

Legion, Auxiliary Plan Card Party

The American Legion and the auxiliary, No. 8, of Andover are sponsoring a whist and bridge party December 8, at 8 o'clock, to cover the Christmas welfare work of the two organizations. Due to the large advance sale, the party will be held in the Town Hall. The committee has been calling on their members and friends to cooperate by their donations and to encourage the party. There has been a large turkey donated for a door prize, and a long list of useful and ornamental gifts is to be awarded to the high scorers. The Legion and its Auxiliary had numerous calls for relief not only to disability but more than ordinarily unable to find employment. As in other years the organizations do not want to feel that they have been unable to grant even slight requests for comfort over the Christmas season. With the aid of the residents of Andover this affair will be no disappointment. The committee for the Legion is headed by Commander James Sparks, Joseph A. McCarthy, Robert B. Christie, Joseph T. Remmes, Percy J. Dole, Frank P. Markey, Arthur L. Coleman; The Auxiliary Committee, Mrs. Ethel Robinson, Welfare Chairman, Mrs. Annie Platt, Mrs. Ethel Buchan, Mrs. Jessie Miller, Mrs. Winifred Keith, Mrs. Mary A. Gardner, Mrs. Margaret T. Dole, Mrs. Mary Warren Fenney. Tickets may be obtained from any of these members and donations will be gladly called for, or may be mailed to Mrs. Robinson, Chandler road, West Andover. Orders for reserved tables for bridge or whist will be gladly welcomed.

Officers Installed by Vets Auxiliary

Past Department President Mrs. Winifred Risteen of Salem officiated at the installation of officers of the auxiliary to Andover post, 2128, V.F.W., in the Musgrove building Sunday afternoon. Gold pieces were presented to each member of the staff, Mrs. Walter R. Shorten, president, making the presentations for the auxiliary. Senior Vice President Mrs. George A. Abbott presented Mrs. Shorten and Mrs. Blamire with beautiful bouquets. The officers installed were: President, Mrs. Walter R. Shorten; senior vice president, Mrs. George A. Abbott; junior vice president, Mrs. Norman Mazer; treasurer, Mrs. William G. Martin; chaplain, Mrs. John Alexander; conductor, Mrs. James Fraser; guard, Mrs. Harold Cates; trustee for 18 months, Mrs. William Snyder; secretary, Mrs. Alex M. Blamire; patriotic instructor, Mrs. John Winters; historical, Mrs. William G. Martin; color bearers, Mrs. Daniel Porter, Mrs. Catherine Eastwood, Mrs. William Snyder and Mrs. Alec Kimball. Remarks were made by the visiting officers, John M. Erving, commander of the V.F.W. post, Mrs. Thomas W. Platt, president of the Legion auxiliary, Mrs. William H. Navin of the Sons of Veterans auxiliary, Miss Anna Neas for the Relief corps and Mrs. Herbert Kent for the Daughters of the G.A.R. A fine entertainment program followed with solos by Leonard Carthy, Miss Adeline Stewart, Miss Callahan and Philip Hughes.

Packard Crashes into Parked Truck

No one was injured Tuesday night when a Packard sedan owned and operated by William Emmons of 39 Morton street crashed into the rear of a parked truck on the Reading road. In his report to the Andover police Emmons stated that the truck was parked on South Main street about 150 yards south of Hidden road. No lights were visible, he told police. He was coming north and did not see the truck until he was almost on it. Emmons told officer David Gillespie that the door of the truck was open and he could not avoid hitting it. The truck was owned by McCarthy's Express of Lawrence. The driver, Roy Hamilton of Lawrence, told Officer Gillespie that he had run out of gas. The front end of the Packard was damaged.

Man Fatally Injured in Trolley Car Smash

Dominic J. O'Dowd of Elm Street Dies in Ambulance after Ford Sedan He Was Driving Smashes into Front of Electric Car

Domenic J. O'Dowd, 32, of 59 Elm street, died while being taken to the Lawrence General hospital in the Fire Department ambulance last Friday night after his Ford sedan had crashed into an electric car on North Main street just above Harding street. The car, bound for Andover square, had been put in reverse, according to Motorman Ira Goodhue, when it seemed evident that the Ford was coming down the hill in the tracks.

O'Dowd was unconscious when taken from the wreckage of his car, and he died a few minutes later without having regained consciousness. Medical Examiner Dr. Victor A. Reed reported that death was caused by a fractured skull. Several ribs were fractured and his face was severely lacerated.

O'Dowd was the only occupant of the Ford. Goodhue was uninjured, although he remained at his post until the Ford was right on him. The occupants of the trolley were not hurt.

When Officer David Gillespie reached the scene, he found the automobile on both rails, with the front end of the Ford caught under the front end of the trolley. The engine of the Ford had been pushed up and back. The front end of the trolley car and its brake service were damaged.

The accident occurred at 10:10 p.m. Motorman Goodhue, who lives on Turnpike street, North Andover, reported that he had dropped some passengers at Harding street, and had just started up again when the crash occurred. He stated that he believed O'Dowd had driven all the way down the hill in the tracks.

Deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Dowd of Ireland; four brothers, Michael and Joseph of Ireland, Peter and John of New York; three sisters, Mrs. Catherine White and Miss Anastasia O'Dowd both of Ireland, and Mrs. Mary Culhane of Chicago.

Military Funeral The funeral was held Monday morning from the home of his aunt, Mrs. Ellen B. Dowd, 59 Elm street. A solemn high mass of requiem was offered in St. Augustine's church, with Rev. John B. Leonard, O.S.A., singing the mass, assisted by Rev. John J. Ryan, O.S.A., as deacon and Rev. Bienvenido Jonquera, O.S.A., as sub-deacon. Mrs. Terese Mahoney Donovan rendered "Pie Jesu" at the offertory and Miss Annie G. Donovan, organist, played Beethoven's funeral march as the body was borne from the church. At St. Augustine's cemetery, committal services were conducted by Rev. John B. Leonard, O.S.A., and Rev. Fr. William H. Culhane.

Tree Warden Cuts Budget One-Sixth

Ralph T. Berry, tree warden and superintendent of the moth department, reported to the finance committee last night that he had slashed his budget estimate this year to $3750 for each of his two departments. This involves about a 16 percent cut, the two departments in March receiving $4500 each. The library, Spring Grove cemetery, and street lighting boards are scheduled to meet with the finance committee next Thursday night. A request for a transfer from the Reserve Fund to the Old Age Assistance Account will also be acted on Thursday.

Bandits on Trial in Boston Today

One more bandit of the sixth alleged to have taken part in the holdup of fifteen men from this vicinity at the camp party in West Andover a week ago Saturday night was identified today as a police line-up of ten in Boston last Sunday morning. The men were being tried in Boston this morning on charges brought by Boston police. Murray Gordon of 29 Estella street, Dorchester, was picked up on suspicion by Boston police and George Lannon and Edward Morse of this town went down to try to identify him. When they were able to pick him out of the line-up, the Andover police secured warrants for him and he has been charged the same as the other five.

Scouts Planning to Hold Benefit Show

Everyone is urged to attend the Colonial Theatre in Andover on December 14th or 15th when a special All-Feature Show will be presented for the benefit of the local Boy Scouts, the proceeds to be used for the upkeep of the Scout Cabin on Prospect Hill. "Robinson Crusoe" will be there. Not the original Robinson but the famous film of that name—a brand new, wholesome, adventuresome picture with Douglas Fairbanks in the principal role. Mickey Mouse will be there too. And Tom Mix in a circus picture called "My Pal the King." Not even the Metropolitan could present a finer show. Here is a good clean entertainment in the whole family, from six to sixty. They'll laugh at Mickey, grin at Tom Mix and marvel at "Doug" who makes even the Scouts sit up and take notice when he lives in comfort on a desert isle. The price for all shows, afternoon and evening, is adults, 35c and children, 20c.

William Ellsworth to Speak Monday

William W. Ellsworth, a familiar figure before Andover audiences for many years, will give a new illustrated lecture, "The Glories of the Thirteenth Century" next Monday evening at 8:15 in the Meeting Room of George Washington Hall. In this talk Mr. Ellsworth will deal particularly with the literature, art, architecture of this wonderful period in the world's history. Those who have heard Mr. Ellsworth in the past know that his addresses are uniformly interesting and instructive. No admission fee will be charged and the general public are cordially invited to attend.

V. F. W. Post Collects Nearly 300 Dollars

Substantial Sum Realized from Charity Concert and Football, All of Which Has Been Turned Over to the Emergency Committee for Relief Work

Almost 300 dollars have been added to the funds of the Emergency committee as the result of the ball and football game conducted by Andover Post, 2128, V.F.W. The total net proceeds of the two events amounted to $296.40. Of this $90.15 was collected at the football game last Saturday, a very substantial sum when the weather is taken into consideration. The charity ball netted $206.25. This is the best endeavor of any of the organizations to date, and the Vets are to be heartily commended for their efforts. The firemen have also helped with their ball, and the Vets and fire ladders are again planning to do another good deed by repairing old toys.

Picturesque Setting at A. P. C. Bazaar

Back to the olden days trudged young and old alike yesterday afternoon and evening when the annual A. P. C. bazaar was held in the South church vestry. "Ye Village Green" proved an attractive setting for the bazaars. Decorations, colorful for such booths as the Ye Toy Shoppe or subtitled for booths such as the Old Curiosity Shoppe added to the picturesque background. The old-fashioned supper served during the evening was enjoyed by over 200. Following this an entertainment entitled "Ye Clock Shoppe" was presented. Mrs. Tyler Carlton arranged this little sketch. The principals were: shopkeeper, Miss Gladys Hill; Dutch clock, Ruth Pratt; cuckoo clock, Mrs. Jay W. Cilley; French clock, Constance McNally; alarm clocks, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. Nathaniel Stowers, Miss Marjorie West and Annabelle Steed; Grandfather's clocks, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. J. Albion Burt, Evelyn Robinson, and Mrs. William Ferguson; chorus, Mrs. Mervin Stevens, Jeanette Greeley, Helen Sargeant, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, Mrs. Kenneth Fisk, Mrs. Franklin Roberts, Mrs. Albert Hulme. Mason Downing of North Andover was present and did many silhouettes. An attraction not previously announced was the costume jewelry table under Mrs. Harold Vezettey.

Class Confirmed at Christ Church

At the Confirmation Service held on Sunday at 10:45, Bishop Sherrill preached against the greatest foe in international, national, business, social and religious endeavor. That foe is indifference—indifference on the part of those who ought to be interested. A class of twenty-two were confirmed. The Bishop spoke of Christ Church Parish as the only one in which he had held confirmation three times in the two years of his Bishopric. Bishop Babcock has also come to the parish once in the same two years. The choir sang well, the solo of Mrs. Mary Harris being especially finely rendered. The church was well filled.

Northfield Club Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Northfield Christian Endeavor Union Northfield club on Monday evening, December 5, in the Trinitarian Congregational church, North Andover at 7:45. This meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party following the regular business session. The committee in charge are Miss Mary Lang, Ruth Covell, Virginia Drew, Arthur Kins, Earl Bennett and Arthur Payne, all of North Andover. Members planning to attend from Andover are asked to meet at the Free church at 7:30 Monday evening.

Salaries in Andover Compare Favorably

Most of Officials' Salaries Are Close to Those Given in Other Towns, Report Shows—A Few Are Lower, While Some Are Slightly Higher

Spurious Money Circulated

When is a fifty-cent piece not a fifty-cent piece? When it is counterfeit. Andover people are warned to look out for spurious half dollars. Last Saturday one was turned over to Chief of Police George A. Dane and since then other people in town have found them in their change. So be sure your half dollars are worth fifty cents.

Couple Pass Away Few Hours Apart

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Jenkins, respected residents of Andover for many years, passed away Thursday morning at their home on Chestnut street within a few hours of each other. Mrs. Jenkins died at 3:40 a.m. and she was followed about nine by Mr. Jenkins, who, however, was unaware of his wife's passing. Mr. Jenkins had had a heart attack Monday night, and it was undoubtedly because of this that Mrs. Jenkins suffered a shock the same night. She never regained consciousness. Mrs. Jenkins had a severe attack at two Thursday morning, and this was the immediate cause of his passing. The late Mrs. Jenkins, nee Mary J. Auby, was born in Salem, Mass., July 29, 1858. She later graduated from Salem Normal school and taught in the public schools of Salem. The couple would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on January 17, 1933. Since their marriage in 1883 they have lived in Andover. Mr. Jenkins was the son of John B. and Ellen Holt Jenkins. He was born March 27, 1857, at the old Jenkins homestead built by his grandfather at Jenkins corner. He descended from a long line of Holts beginning with Nicholas Holt who settled on Prospect Hill, now called Holt's Hill. He attended the local schools and Phillips Academy. For forty years Mr. Jenkins was with T. A. Holt and company, and was recently manager at the Andover News company, which post he entered exactly two years prior to his passing. For a number of years he was town clerk of Andover. The late Mrs. Jenkins leaves two daughters, Grace A. Jenkins, supervisor of drawing in Wakefield, and Mrs. Henry J. Stevenson of North Andover. She also has as survivors some cousins in Salem. The late Mr. Jenkins leaves besides his daughters a brother, Frank B. of Newton and a sister, Mrs. Bessie M. Jenkins of Bradford. The funeral will be held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon at the late home, with Rev. Frederick B. Noss officiating. Interment will be at Harmony Grove, Salem.

Judge Criticizes Frat Initiation

Charles Douglas Glennie, 18-year-old Tufts student involved in a fatal automobile crash on the by-pass October 25th, was held in $1,000 for the grand jury when probable cause was found by the Lawrence District court Wednesday morning on charges of manslaughter and operating to endanger. During the hearing it was brought out that the probable basic cause of the accident was a fraternity initiation in which Glennie had to walk 35 miles. Following his arrival back at the hotel after a walk of about 12 hours, the initiation started out for his North Andover home in his machine and according to testimony apparently dozed off for an instant before the crash. Judge Frederic N. Chandler stated during the hearing that the Greek letter society "acted like a bunch of asses instead of sensible people." The accident happened shortly before 3:36 Tuesday afternoon, October 25, just south of Salem street on the by-pass, resulting in the death of Charles F. Reid of Reading and in severe injuries to Martin B. Harding, also of Reading. Testimony revealed that the initiation had started shortly after eleven o'clock Monday night, when a group of initiates were taken to Gloucester and left to walk the 35 miles back to Tufts. Sixteen were in the group, according to John McMahon, president of the Theta Delta Chi. McMahon testified that the students were left in the woods about one a.m., and Glennie returned at three. John Peters of Arlington, one of the sixteen, stated that he gave up in Saugus, but Glennie continued on to Medford. For nourishment they had a bar of chocolate and a cup of coffee in Salem, he said. Glennie stated that he immediately started home in his car after arriving in Medford. He recalled going up a grade, and swinging to the left to pass a vehicle, but from then until a moment prior to the crash his mind was evidently a blank. He tried to avoid the crash, he testified, but it was too late. He told the court that he had not felt sleepy but rather exhausted. About 35 miles per hour was the speed of his car, he asserted. Testimony of others, including an eye-witness, Leon Lefebvre, substantiated these statements. Others who testified were Officers Carl Stevens and William Shaw, Dr. Victor A. Reed, and Inspector James J. Moore.

Obituaries

FISHER Andover friends of Reverend William P. Fisher will regret to learn of his death which occurred in Claremont, California, October 28th, after an illness of six weeks.

In his early days he lived with his uncle, Reverend Caleb E. Fisher, then Pastor of the Free Church and was for several years a member of that Church.

He entered the Congregational ministry and his pastorate was in the College Church in Brunswick, Maine. Ill health for many years prevented him from active service.

He enjoyed Andover and in later life often came here to spend weeks at a time at Phillips Inn. He never married, but for some years had a home in Londonderry, N. H. Needing a change of climate he removed to Claremont, California, to spend his remaining days.

He was a man of keen literary and musical tastes and a loyal friend.—F.A.W.

DUHAMEL

The funeral of Mrs. Delia A. (Barry) Duhamel, wife of George A. Duhamel, a former resident of Lawrence, was held from the home of her son, Arthur Duhamel, 291 North Main street, Andover, Monday morning.

Mrs. Duhamel passed away early Friday morning at her home, 52 Linwood street, Medford, where she had lived for five years. Prior to her removal to Medford she had resided in Lawrence for 56 years.

Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. James Murray and Miss Alice Duhamel of Medford; two sons, Arthur and Duhamel and Francis of Medford; three sisters, Mrs. William McCarthy and Mrs. George A. Stanley of Lawrence; and Mrs. Lawrence Bradbury of North Andover; two brothers, Daniel S. and William T. Barry, both of Lawrence.

A solemn high mass of requiem was offered in St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock Monday morning by Rev. Fr. James L. Davey, assisted by Rev. Fr. John E. Bowen as deacon and Rev. Fr. William H. Culhane as sub-deacon. At the offertory Bernard J. Keaveny sang "Pie Jesu," and as the body was borne from the church Miss Agnes K. Doyle, organist, played Chopin's funeral march. Interment was in the family lot in Sacred Heart cemetery where committal services were conducted by Father Bowen.

The bearers were: Daniel S. Barry, William T. Barry, Eugene Kelly, Lawrence E. Bradbury, Ernest Tremblay and Isidore Dion.

HUDSON

Friends of Miss Jane Hudson of Marlard street were shocked and saddened to learn of her death at her home at 8.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Miss Hudson was born in Ballardvale fifty-five years ago and has always resided there.

An unfortunate victim of infantile paralysis when a small child she was an invalid and shut in for many years. Despite all her afflictions she had a cheery disposition and endured her sufferings patiently until the end. The funeral was held from the late home this afternoon at two o'clock. Interment was in the family lot at Spring Grove Cemetery. She leaves to mourn her loss, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Burns, Mrs. Oliver Coates of Ballardvale and Mrs. Joseph Petty of Granville, New York, two brothers, James Hudson of Ballardvale and Josiah Hudson of Arlington.

Susan Ann Wood, widow of James R. Wood, died at her home at 20 Elm street on November 25, after an illness of over a year.

Mrs. Wood was born in Charlestown, Mass., in 1856. She had many associations with this town making numerous visits here in her youth. She was married to Samuel C. Hale of Haverhill in Andover in 1876. She resided in Andover at intervals during her early life and came to live here permanently in 1907.

Mrs. Wood was active in the Woman's Relief Corps and in the Rebekah Lodge. She is survived by a son, J. Frank Hale of New York City, two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Collins of Gardner, Me., and Mrs. Jennie Thurlow of Newburyport, two brothers, D. P. Donnell of Sheldonville and W. H. Bryant of Amesbury and a grandson, J. Frank Hale, Jr., of New York City.

The funeral was held from her late home, 20 Elm street Sunday afternoon and burial was in Groveland.

HOWARD

Mrs. Lucy J. Howard, mother of Mrs. V. D. Harrington of Salem street and of Mrs. Harlow of The Harbor Shop died on November 26th in Portsmouth, N. H., where she had made her home for the past six years. She was 90 years of age, having been born at Groton, N. H., in 1842. Services were held at The Buckminster Chapel in Portsmouth on Tuesday and interment was on Wednesday at North Charlestown, N. H.

GREENOUGH

Mrs. Mary Dwight Greenough, 85 years of age, widow of Charles P. Greenough, former president of the Boston Bar association died November 29, at her home, 45 Carleton street, Brookline. The funeral was held at the Church of Our Savior, Longwood, Thursday at two o'clock. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Branton Kellogg of Brookline, and Mrs. Samuel Lester Fuller of New York, and a son, Henry Vose Greenough of Brookline.

Organ Selections Please Audience

The organ recital given on Tuesday evening by Walter E. Howe in Davis Hall, Abbot Academy was a most enjoyable event. The program was varied and well-chosen, and Mr. Howe brought to its performance a keen musical insight. In the first part of the program, which opened with a prelude full of grace and charm by Nicholas Le Begue, Mr. Howe presented three choral-preludes by Bach, Brahms, and Karg-Elert on the Choral-Schmucke dich, O liebe Seele.

It was interesting to hear the three very diverse treatments of the theme, and it was a happy idea to have the chorale sung before and after the preludes by an invisible choir in the organ-loft. The effect was most impressive.

The Symphony by Edward Shippin Barnes is a tuneful work, but rather lacking in variety. The most effective movements seemed to be the Cantilene and Finale. The final group contained the descriptive Chinoiserie by Swiänen, the familiar Largo from the New World Symphony by Dvorak and a clever and interesting piece by Leo Sowerby called Comes Autumn Time.

Mr. Howe seems to acquire increasingly greater command of his instrument, and played with evident enjoyment which was shared by an appreciative audience. Two members were added as encores—the second Arabesque by Debussy and Sibelius' Evening Calm.

BALLARDVALE

Miss Doris Miller, a nurse at the Massachusetts General Hospital at Boston, spent the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hudson of Marlard street.

Mrs. George P. Morse of Salem spent the holiday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Augustus Fuller of Tewksbury street.

Next Sunday the Ballardvale Athletic Association football team will play the Andover Town team at Andover.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Shattuck of New Hampshire were the recent guests of relatives here.

Mrs. Joseph Wood was the recent guest of relatives and friends here. Addition Wonson of High street entertained relatives from Gloucester on the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and family of Haverhill were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller of Tewksbury street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petty and sons spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. James Petty of Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Fuller and children of Essex were recent visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Augustus Fuller.

The Home Beautiful Club met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. C. Walker of Chester street.

Miss Christine Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Burns of Chester street who is a student at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston spent the day with her parents recently.

Mrs. James Bell has been ill at her home on Andover street.

Dorothea Dunn is ill at her home on Andover street.

Mrs. Constance Cohn of Newton has been spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Granton of Andover street.

Rev. E. R. Barrows gave an interesting talk at the Evangelistic service sponsored by the Holbrook M. E. Church at Holbrook. He chose for his subject "He Brought Him To Jesus."

Owen Dougherty of Lawrence was the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Keating of Marlard street.

Mrs. Prudence Brown has returned to Amesbury after spending several days at her home here.

The B. B. Club will hold their meeting on the afternoon of December 5 at the home of Charles Hanson of Dale street.

Miss Annie Clemons of Marlard street is spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Clemons of Wakefield.

George Moody of Danvers was the recent guest of Rev. and Mrs. George R. Moody of Marlard street.

Miss Theresa Beaulieu of Lawrence was the week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Beatrice Beaulieu of Clark road.

Miss Nellie Matthews and Miss Marion Matthews of Boston were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews of Marlard street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Ryder of Andover street are entertaining Mrs. Henry Ryder.

RAYNE BEATS FAIRWEATHER

As if November had not been wet enough Rayne scored a last-minute victory over Fairweather in Lawrence District Court Wednesday morning.

The latter defaulted in a suit brought against him by Rayne to recover $30 owed for lumber used in the construction of a sign for the Tyer Rubber company.

James D. Fairweather of this town painted the sign on lumber supplied him by Thomas W. Rayne of Lawrence, but the Rubber Company refused to accept the sign as the lumber used was "wet" and the sign cracked, so it is alleged. Evidently fair weather was unable to make Rayne's wet lumber dry.

Mrs. John Buchan of Lincoln street is enjoying a visit with her daughter Ada in Washington, D. C.

Thieves Break into Greeley's Market

The market of the James E. Greeley Co., at 20-26 Essex street was entered some time Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning and a few coins were stolen. Very little money had been left in the store. None of the stock was disturbed.

The break was discovered by Mr. Greeley when he opened the store Wednesday morning. Drawers had been tossed around and the cash register had been tampered with. The probability is that key workers entered the place, since all the doors and windows were secure.

Stowe School Notes

The regular weekly meeting of the Current Events Club was held Wednesday afternoon, November 23, 1932. The chief topic of discussion was the paying of the War Debt, which are due on December 15 of this year. Another subject of discussion was the disagreement in Germany between Hitler and Von Hindenburg. This club has not organized with officers as the nature of the work made it seem unnecessary.

To Give Talk on Xmas Decorations

A talk, much looked forward to, on Christmas Decorated Doorways, will be given by the Rev. Glenn Tilly Morse, before the Andover Garden Club at the Phillips Inn on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Morse has been chairman of the West Newbury committee which has sponsored competitions for decorated doorways for the Christmas season. This undertaking has been approved by the New England Society for the Preservation of Wild Flowers, and as the Andover Garden Club is planning a similar competition with awards and prizes, Mr. Morse's ideas and suggestions will be most helpful.

Holly and mistletoe have long been used in the South but in staid New England, where the celebration of Christmas was for years second to that of Thanksgiving, it is comparatively recently that lavish decorations for the Christmas season have been used.

The story of the young Harvard student of fifty years ago, who trudged two miles through the snow to wish his fiancée a merry Christmas before departing for his holiday, is true and well known. Reaching her home quite exhausted from his struggles through the drifts, but cheered by the sight of the the knocker to give it a resounding whack, when what was his horror to find it supporting a wreath! He removed his hat, tip-toed down the path and floundered back to Cambridge where he immediately wrote his lady love a note of sympathy for her evident bereavement.

In our day when every house has its wreaths or bright decorations no matter how unpretentious, some helpful suggestions on what to use so that our supply of laurel and other greens may not be destroyed, will be most welcome.

Mr. Morse might well advise us also on what not to use, for some of the decorations one sees are about as incongruous as the rabbits, blue birds and comic pictures on some of our so-called Christmas cards.

The meetings of the committee on the Club Die seem to have been held in secret session and behind closed doors and no hint of their conclusions has leaked out. A special report from the chairman will be given on December 6, and is awaited with great interest. E.H.

Frye Village to Be Subject of Talk

The regular monthly meeting of the Shawshen Village Woman's Club, Monday evening, December 5th in Balmoral Hall will be in charge of the committee on the Frye Village. Mrs. John M. Lynch, chairman, Mrs. Leon P. Dutch, Chairman of Community Service of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs will be the guest of honor. She will bring a message from the Federation.

This will be Historical Night. Rev. William G. Poor of Upton, Mass. will be the speaker of the evening. His subject will be "Frye Village, Early Settlers and Industries." Mr. Poor lived in the Village when it was called Frye Village. This will prove an intensely interesting evening to the present residents of the transformed Frye Village, now known as Shawshen Village, as well as to the many original residents living in town.

The present name was given to the Village by the late William M. Wood, President of the American Woolen Co. This is a model village built to house the employees of the various offices who were all working in the beautiful and modern Administration Building facing Shawshen Square. With the exception of some of the houses which have been moved to other sites, not a vestige of the former village remains.

The committee consisting of Mrs. Lynch as chairman, Mrs. Albert Curtis, Mrs. Arthur Steiner, Mrs. Albert Knowles and Mrs. H. Lester Utley are working hard to give this lecture a background with the proper atmosphere and plan to have the stage set with furniture and pictures loaned for the occasion.

The Club Trio, Mrs. Henry J. Simmers, Mrs. Frank Gould and Mrs. William J. Pedlow, with Mrs. Frederick C. Smith, accompanist, will sing two groups of songs: "Minuet, When Twilight Weaves" by Beethoven, "Sweet and Low" by Barnby, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults and "Cradle Song" by Brahms.

These parties are being given good support by the club members and their friends.

The Community Christmas Tree in Shawshen square which has been lighted by the Shawshen Village Woman's Club since it was given by the late William M. Wood in 1912. These parties are being given good support by the club members and their friends.

The Dramatic Department under the direction of Mrs. John M. Birrell will meet Friday afternoon, December 9th at the home of Mrs. George Winslow, Lowell road.

The Club Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Smith will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 6th at the home of Mrs. Henry J. Simmers.

Seventy Expected at Fellowship Meeting

The vestry of the Andover Baptist church will be the gathering place of some seventy men invited to attend a fellowship meeting Monday evening next, December 5, at 7:30 o'clock.

The program calls for many interesting events, opening with the singing of America followed by a prayer. Then an explanation of the meeting is given followed by a welcome by the pastor, Rev. L. I. Hansen. At 8:05 the speakers will be introduced. The speakers of the evening are as follows:

Rev. Clinton W. Carvell, who will speak on the Fellowship of Man.

Fred E. Pitkin, Supt. of Schools, North Andover. First President and one of the founders of the Trinitarian Men's Club of North Andover. He will speak on Our Club Life, Its Functions and Activities.

Both speakers are well equipped to bring splendid messages of great value to the meeting. They are vitally interested in developments of this meeting.

This will be closely followed with an opportunity for fellowship and acquaintance period, where each one will have an opportunity to get acquainted with the others. The group will then gather and sing a few songs, after which the Chairman of the Standing Committee will speak to the men.

A solo will be sung by Clinton Stevens, who sings bass in the church choir. Following this, (if it is the will of the group), an outline will be discussed on the organizing of a consisting of officers, President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Chairman of committees, program, social, membership, finance, and the group as a whole will be divided into smaller groups with the approval of the assembly. The group will then vote on an appointment of a nominating committee, discussion of development of By Laws, and the whole evening will be one of complete enjoyment and fellowship, fun, activity, and games. The meeting will close with songs, prayer, which will be followed by a social period given by the social committee of the Philathea Class, under the direction of Mrs. Lundgren.

Court St. Monica Installs Officers

Mrs. Frank A. Welch was installed as grand regent of Court St. Monica, 783, C.D.A., for her second term in K. C. hall Monday night. During the evening gold pieces were presented to the following: Chaplain Rev. Charles A. Branton, O.S.A., ten dollars, and two and one-half dollar gold pieces each to State Regent Miss Marianne J. Collins and the retiring officers, Miss Katherine Buckley, Mrs. Joseph Levi, Mrs. John P. Alexander, Mrs. S. Frank Burns, Mrs. Frank S. McDonald and District Deputy Miss Margaret Loftus.

District Deputy Miss Margaret Loftus of Lowell was the installing officer and she was assisted by District Deputy Mrs. Charles J. Bailey.

The following officers were installed: Grand Regent, Mrs. Frank A. Welch; vice

Women Voters to Hear Health Talk

On Tuesday, December 6th, the Andover League of Women Voters will hold its second regular meeting at Phelps House, the home of Mrs. Horace Poynter. This meeting will be in charge of the Committee on Child Welfare, and the speaker will be Dr. Luize Dies, Director of Child Hygiene, Department of Public Health, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the subject being "Community Responsibility for Child Health." Although this meeting is for League members only, all women of the community who are interested in the League and in its work of education, are cordially urged to join the Andover Branch of the League of Women Voters, and take part both in its general meetings and in the study groups conducted by the various committees within the League.

Two of these study groups are now organized. The study group on Women in Industry under the leadership of Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin, has met twice in the evenings with a group of Industrial workers at the Y.W.C.A. in Lawrence to study the question of Unemployment Insurance and the various different plans now in operation or before the public both abroad and in this country. The speaker last Monday evening was Miss Ethel Miller, the head of the Lawrence Y.W.C.A. who presented the outline of one of these plans followed by a lively discussion.

Four Andover women, Mrs. John F. Andrews, Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Mrs. A. Buel Trowbridge, and Mrs. Harold Raiton, had been in Boston that afternoon to hear the report of Dr. Compton, President of M.I.T. and chairman of the Commission on the Stabilization of Employment, appointed by Governor Ely under the Department of Labor and Industry. This report will soon be published and forms the basis of the Bill to be presented to the State Legislature for action at its next session.

The study group on International Cooperation to Prevent War, of which Mrs. Ralph Barnes is the Chairman, held its first meeting last Tuesday afternoon. Miss Marie Carol, Secretary of the World Peace Foundation, gave a masterly summing up of the conditions existing in the Far East, with special emphasis on the Manchurian problem as outlined in the Lytton Report. The attitude of the United States towards this question and our possible co-operation with the League of Nations in helping to solve this important problem, will be discussed at later meetings of this study group.

Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Kathleen Jennings of Lowell with Miss Lillian Sullivan of Lowell at the piano.

Communication

EDITOR OF THE TOWNSMAN
DEAR SIR:

I should like to correct the rather misleading statement as to the town treasurer's office hours in the report of the Committee on Salaries in your last issue. The facts in the case could easily have been ascertained. Perhaps, however, I should thank the committee for the opportunity to clear up any prevailing uncertainty in the matter.

I am invariably at my office during the following hours: Monday and Tuesday—9 a.m. to 12 m.; 2 to 4:45 p.m.; Friday—2 to 4:45 p.m.; Saturday—9 a.m. to 12 m. This schedule does not, by any means, include all the time spent on town business, but I do usually go to Boston on Wednesday or Thursday, in which case I am at the office at 4:35 p.m. to take care of anything needing immediate attention. In my absence, the town accountant hands out any pay envelopes which have not been called for on pay day and transacts any other routine business. My general policy is to be at the office when I know of anything to be done and not otherwise.

Sincerely,
THAXTER EATON

Turkey Awarded at Penny Social

Cent by cent the treasury of the Sherrill club of Christ church took on a prosperous looking aspect Wednesday night when the club held its first penny social. In the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty people came to the Parish house during the evening to participate in the fun and to share in the prize awards. Enthusiasm unbounded on the part of the guests testified to the popularity of the event.

A fine array of prizes was awarded to the lucky ticket-holders, the grand prize, an alive but very much scared turkey, being taken by Miss Mary Sheehy. Other winners and their prizes were as follows: Edward Barton, cigarettes; Edward Dombrowski, chocolates; Mrs. John Souter, chocolates; Marion Fettes, chocolates; Lettie Farnsworth, cake; Marion Fettes, slippers; Elsie Shorten, cake; Carl Holt, cigarettes; Mrs. Souter, sugar; Ted Cole, dumplings; Mrs. Alex Blamire, powder; Elsie Shorten, cake; Mrs. Harold Cates, grape juice and candy; Walter Dombrowski, Melachroin cigarettes; James Griffin, cake; Mrs. Blamire, chocolates; Carl Porter, pencil; Wallace Rennie, sugar; Mrs. Charles Shorten, chocolates; Mrs. Charlotte Holden, cake; Evelyn Skea, pie; Mrs. Albert Cole, cigarettes; Walter Dombrowski, jack-o-lantern; Sarah White, jelly; Walter Dombrowski, ginger ale; Mrs. John Thompson, cigarettes; and Mary Wood, cake.

Bruce Valentine's orchestra furnished music for dancing during the evening. William Burbine of the Sherrill club is pianist in this group of musicians. Mrs. John Souter pleased the audience with her rendition of "Shanty Town," while Joseph McGrath and Carl Hatch were well received when they sang as a duet, "My Wild Irish Rose."

In addition to prizes donated by members of the club, the following merchants gave prizes: Hartigan's Pharmacy, Walter E. Billings, A. Basso, Whitworth's, Lowe's Drugstore, W. R. Hill, Dantos Bros., A. and P., and McGregor's Bakery.

Edward Dombrowski and Martin Darby headed the committee, which included William Nichol, Joseph Barton, Lester Hilton, William Skea, William Holden, and Eugene St. Jean.

tion and our possible co-operation with the League of Nations in helping to solve this important problem, will be discussed at later meetings of this study group.

EDITOR OF THE TOWNSMAN
DEAR SIR:

I should like to correct the rather misleading statement as to the town treasurer's office hours in the report of the Committee on Salaries in your last issue. The facts in the case could easily have been ascertained. Perhaps, however, I should thank the committee for the opportunity to clear up any prevailing uncertainty in the matter.

I am invariably at my office during the following hours: Monday and Tuesday—9 a.m. to 12 m.; 2 to 4:45 p.m.; Friday—2 to 4:45 p.m.; Saturday—9 a.m. to 12 m. This schedule does not, by any means, include all the time spent on town business, but I do usually go to Boston on Wednesday or Thursday, in which case I am at the office at 4:35 p.m. to take care of anything needing immediate attention. In my absence, the town accountant hands out any pay envelopes which have not been called for on pay day and transacts any other routine business. My general policy is to be at the office when I know of anything to be done and not otherwise.

Sincerely,
THAXTER EATON
