Industrial Exposition Will Close Tonight

Thousands of Townspeople Attend Three-Day Affair Sponsored by Legion in Town Hall—Style Show Popular—Baby Show This Afternoon

The first annual industrial exposition to be staged by the Legion will come to a close tonight at ten o'clock after three days in which thousands of townspeople flocked to the town hall to enjoy the booths, the shows, and the entertainment. This afternoon a baby show is being held.

The show opened Wednesday at three and on the first day some 1500 people visited the hall. The Legion bugle and drum corps paraded around the hall during the evening to advertise the exposition.

A style show proved the biggest attraction on Wednesday evening. It was staged by Russem's apparel shop of Lawrence. Mr. Russem is well-known here as a former resident, and his many friends were well pleased with the quality of the styles. A group of young ladies modeled the latest creations which are now being sold at the apparel shop.

Plaids were prominent in the garments exhibited. Favorite colors in the afternoon dresses were egg shell, peach, navy, green, blue, beige, aqua, rose and summer prints. Assorted pastel shades predominated in the evening dresses, and the materials were taffeta, crepe and mouseline de soie.

The models were: Mrs. Frank A. Welch, Miss Eileen Ryan, Miss Phoebe Noyes, Mrs. T. Joseph O'Connell, Miss Elizabeth Hession and Miss Louise Sullivan of Andover and Mrs. Jeannette Le Clair, Miss Anne Woodburn and Mrs. Alfred Brunt, Jr. of Lawrence. Mrs. Brunt appeared in the bridal costume.

The baby show is in charge of Mrs. John P. Alexander, president of the auxiliary. The judges are Mrs. Fay H. Elliott, Mrs. E. V. French and Mrs. Charles J. Bailey. The entries are divided into three classes according to age. Prizes will be awarded in each class and a special prize to the best baby in the show.

The auxiliary is conducting a booth at the exposition for light refreshments. The committee in charge includes: Mrs. Robert Francis, Mrs. Timothy McCarthy, Mrs. Mary Garside, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. Albert Cruikshank, Mrs. John B. Keith, Mrs. John A. Anderson, Mrs. Carl A. Wetterberg, Mrs. Harry Wrigley, Mrs. William A. Buchan, Mrs. Kenneth Macdonald, Miss Doris Hilton and Miss Ethel Hilton.

All this for the interesting sum of ten cents, with free admission to those children accompanied by grownups!

Arrest Malden Man for Intent to Murder

Leaving a week-and-a-half old baby in the woods off Holt road is of exposure resulted in the arrest Monday afternoon in Malden of Ralph H. Bradbury, 35, of 42 Wigglesworth street, Malden. The body was discovered Saturday afternoon in the woods by George Jagello, who was taking a short cut through the woods off Salem street between Alvah P. Wright's property and Jenkins' corner. Monday Chief George A. Dane and state detective Richard J. Griffin conducted an investigation, and as a result Bradbury was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Tuesday morning he pleaded not guilty in Lawrence District court and will be held in $25,000 bonds when the case was continued until April 12.

The baby was born on February 25, and according to a confession which Bradbury is alleged to have made to police he left the little baby girl in the woods at four o'clock on the afternoon of March 7. He stated that he did not inflict any blows of any kind, although the child's head was quite badly bruised. An autopsy was held Tuesday afternoon by Medical Examiner Dr. Victor A. Reed, as the result of which death was ascribed to exposure. The bone structure of the head was not injured.

When found the baby's clothing was still on it, and police noticed a marking "138-37-34" for a while this was thought to be a laundry mark, but when Dr. J. J. Daly saw it, he explained to police that it was a hospital number. This gave the department something definite to work on, and by Monday the hospital had been found to be a Woburn institution. Chief Dane and Detective Griffin visited the hospital, where they learned the name of the baby's mother, a Reading woman. She is married but not living with her husband. She told police that she did not know her baby was dead, believing that it was in a home in Lowell where, she said, Bradbury told her he took it. Hospital authorities stated that the baby was normal in every respect.

The trail then led to Lynn, but the man located there was not Bradbury but his brother. Chief Dane called the Malden police from Lynn and requested Sergeant William F. Cronin to take Bradbury into custody.

Bradbury confessed in the presence of Dane, Griffin, and Chief Jeremiah Cullinan of the Reading police. It was reported that he admitted calling for the mother of the child on March 7, the day she was released from the hospital. She did not wish to take the baby to her home, he said, and he told her he would take care of it. He then drove to Lynn, after taking her home, and intended to leave the baby in the railroad station. He changed his mind then, and came to Andover.

Assistant District Attorney Charles A. Green of Salem who issued the orders to have Bradbury held under the charge of assault to kill was in the Lawrence office of the county prosecutor Tuesday morning.

In reference to the charge he instructed Detective Griffin to make while talking to the latter over the telephone Monday night, the assistant district attorney stated he understood that Bradbury claimed that he simply left the baby in the woods and did not help.

Mark Centenary at Savings Bank

The 100th anniversary of the incorporation of the Andover Savings bank was observed Monday afternoon at the quarterly meeting of the board of trustees. The feature of the observance was a historical record prepared by the treasurer, Frederick S. Boutwell, and read to the trustees.

It was voted to prepare later on in the year a pamphlet containing the history of the bank, including sketches so far as possible of the early incorporators of the institution. The bank was incorporated on April 2, 1834, and was opened for business the second Tuesday in May, 1835. Various phases of the anniversary therefore will occur during the coming year.

Members of the board of trustees present were: Frank A. Buttrick, Edward V. French, Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, Abbot Stevens, Frederick H. Jones, Philip F. Ripley, David Shaw, George Abbot, Frederic S. Boutwell, Burton S. Flagg, and C. Carleton Kimball. Judge Colver J. Stone was unable to attend.

Specialist Talks on Elm Disease

"The menace of the Dutch elm disease is serious but not hopeless," said Dr. Richard P. White, research specialist at the Experiment Station in New Jersey, speaking before a small but interested audience at Peabody House Monday evening.

The center of infection is an area within a radius of thirty miles from the port of New York to which the disease was brought in elm burl imported for furniture veneer. The disease is spread by the elm beetle already numerous in this vicinity and although its progress is now only about ten miles a year it is feared that the advance will be more rapid as more trees are infected.

The precautions advised by Dr. White are thorough pruning of dead or weak limbs in which the larvae of the beetle are harbored during the winter, destruction of such wood by fire, thorough spraying of trees when the mature beetles are feeding on tender shoots, feeding of elm trees and watering during dry weather to produce vigorous, disease-resisting growth. If infected trees are discovered they should be cut and burned.

"What would be the real estate devaluation of your property if the elms were destroyed?" queried Dr. White. In a poll taken over the United States the elm was voted the most popular shade tree with the greatest value from an aesthetic view point. The agitation concerning the Dutch elm disease has emphasized the value of these beautiful shade trees and the necessity of giving to them some share of the attention lavished on the house and garden.

Departments Buy Four New Cars

The four cars authorized at town meeting have been purchased. Three are Fords and one a Dodge.

The Board of Public Works has purchased a new Ford V-8 dump truck from the Andover Garage at a price of $888 including an allowance of $100 for a turn in. A bid of $850.44 was received on a Chevrolet including $147.44 on a turn in.

The following bids were received on a car for the police department: Robinson-Toohy, Plymouth four door sedan, $755.53 including an allowance of $110 on the old Studebaker; C. W. Dillon, $624.13 on the same type of car including an allowance of $151; Smith Motor, Chevrolet four door sedan, $628 including an allowance of $110; Andover Garage, $604 for a Ford V-8, four door sedan, including an allowance of $135; Lowell Ford, including an allowance of $135; Lowell Ford, $515.63 on a two door coach on a turn in. A two door sedan was not considered and the sale went to the Andover Garage for the Ford car.

The tree department has bought a Dodge one and one-half ton truck with 161 inch wheel base and platform stake body from Carl Lindsay, local salesman for the J. W. Robinson company at $900.

The trustees of Spring Grove cemetery bought a Ford V-8 truck from the Andover Garage for $825.50 including the turn in of the old Ford truck. The Smith Motor company bid $840 on a Chevrolet.

Scarlet Fever Spread Checked

Andover has at last rid itself of the scarlet fever menace which has hung over the town for the past few weeks. Twelve cases had been reported prior to an announcement by the school department two weeks ago that the state board of health had advised that the schools remain open. Since then but one case has been reported, and the period in which there was a danger of spread from that case is over.

Four or five cases of measles and one case of whooping cough have been reported. Dr. Philip W. Blake, school physician, and Miss Edith Moreton, school nurse, have worked untiringly in an effort to get the epidemic under control.

Eastern Star Bridge

Andover chapter, 187, O.E.S., will hold a bridge whist and dance in the Square and Compass club hall, April 11. Mrs. John H. Flint is chairman of the ticket committee, assisted by Mrs. James Gillespie. Harry Dobbie's orchestra will furnish the dance music.

Appointments Made by School Committee

Several new appointments and reappointments were made Tuesday evening at the meeting of the school committee. Miss Mary Winkley of Carmel road was appointed secretary to Nathan C. Hamblin, principal of the high school, at a salary of fifteen dollars per week for the school year of 38 weeks. This is a new position created because the greatly increased enrollment at the high school has piled up the clerical work more than the principal can handle without depriving him of much of the time which he has to devote to administering the high school. The appointment will go into effect immediately.

Three persons were chosen to supervise the children who remain at the John Dove and Samuel Jackson schools during the noon lunch hour. A supervisor was formerly employed, but her services were temporarily dispensed with two years ago for reasons of economy. This will relieve the teachers of the necessity of remaining on duty continuously from nine until after three-thirty. Miss Mabel Marshall will have general charge of the whole lunch hour, and will take care of the older girls. Mrs. H. Allison Morse will be in charge of the primary children, boys and girls, and James N. Cole will supervise the older boys. The salary will be $1.25 for each period, consisting of one hour and a half. There are over one hundred children who remain for lunch.

In this connection the buildings and grounds committee reported that it felt that with a new school to be built, in which provision would undoubtedly be made for a lunch room, no money should be spent on a temporary extending of the washing facilities at the John Dove school. The job would have cost about $160. Mr. Sanborn stated that with the new supervisors, it would be possible to use two washstands in the Samuel Jackson school, making six in all. The recommendation of the sub-committee was accepted.

Teachers Re-elected

Miss Betty Hind, teacher at the West Centre school, was elected to tenure, she having served here three years. The following were re-elected: Miss Agnes Dugan, Joseph B. Doherty, Miss Ida Grover, Miss Mary Burke, Mrs. Margaret Tate, Miss Alice Olliff and Miss Mary Bailey. Miss Grover, Mrs. Doherty, Miss Bailey, Miss Hind, and Miss Bailey were given the regular raise of ninety-two dollars, while Miss Dugan was given a raise of $46 bringing her up to the maximum. Mrs. Tate and Miss Olliff were already at the maximum. William McDonald, already on tenure, was given a raise of ninety-two dollars, bringing him to the maximum.

The following reappointments were made: school physician, Dr. Philip W. Blake; school nurse, Miss Edith Moreton; secretary superintendent, Miss Marion Hardy; dental hygienist, Miss Margaret Cronin. All are at the same salary as last year with the exception of Miss Hardy who was given a raise to $1200 to bring her weekly salary into more favorable comparison with the other clerks in the town employ.

Mr. Sanborn reported that the Indian Ridge school had been broken into again. (Continued on page 4, column 4)

Many Appointments Made by Selectmen

McDonald Retires from Bathing Beach Committee—Forsythe Replaces Him—Young Named Wire Inspector, Mears Sealer of Weights

Several changes were made in the list of appointees coming under the control of the board of selectmen at the meeting Monday afternoon. George C. Forsythe is replacing Frank S. McDonald on the Pump's pond committee. Mr. McDonald declining to serve again. William J. Young was named wire inspector in place of Charles A. Hill and Lewis N. Mears is taking the position of sealer of weights and measures held last year by Joseph P. Lynch. Dr. Roy S. Youmans of Methuen replaces C. LeRoy Ambye as inspector of animals.

John J. Driscoll is the new dog officer. Edward O'Hagan resigned the position last year when he was appointed janitor at the central schools.

Others on the Pump's committee are: Henry Todd, Joseph I. Pitman, William C. Crowley, William A. Harnely, Herbert Wright, James R. Mosher and Charles A. Gregory.

The regular police officers were reappointed as follows: Chief, George A. Dane; sergeant, Leonard Saunders; motorcycle officers, David Gillespie and Carl H. Stevens; patrolmen, Frank McBrine, John Deyerdmond, William R. Shaw, Arthur Jowett, Thomas Dailey and James Walker. Jowett, there will be an opportunity for questions following his address, and everyone is cordially invited to come.

Telegraph Man to Speak on NRA

The League of Women Voters holds its April meeting on Tuesday evening, April 10, in Davis Hall, Abbot Academy, at 8 o'clock. This meeting has been planned by the Women in Industry Committee and is open to the public. The speaker will be Mr. W. R. Higgin of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in Boston. Mr. Higgin is active in the Speakers Bureau of the Massachusetts Re-occupiers Board and has done a great deal of speaking to groups of many kinds, interpreting to the public the ways in which the N.R.A. is operating in the state of Massachusetts. Tuesday evening he will speak of the N.R.A., particularly as it affects the city of Lawrence, and he will suggest the direction in which the N.R.A. is carrying us in our National Life. Mr. Higgin is a graduate of Cambridge University, England, and the Harvard Business School. He is secretary of the Inter-Allied Danube Commission and Director of Serbian Relief, a position which he has held since the beginning of the War. There will be an opportunity for questions following his address, and everyone is cordially invited to come.

The cost of each of these registrations to the town was about six dollars, since the four registrars were in session ten hours each at ninety cents an hour. These figures are only approximate since no bills have been presented as yet.

Woman's Union Note

The Woman's Union of the Andover Baptist church will meet Thursday afternoon, April 12, at the home of Mrs. Charles Shattuck, 144 Summer street.

Dramatic Club to Give Play Monday

Monday evening at the town hall "Too Much Family," a three-act comedy by Harry Zell, will be presented by St. Augustine Dramatic Club under the direction of Thomas Quinlan of Methuen the cast will be rehearsing the play for many weeks. Miss Eva Bourassa, president of the club, and Miss Anna Hennessey, both well-known in local dramatic circles, will occupy leading roles in the production.

The play portrays the humorous experiences of Elmer Nebblepredder, a young man who meddles in all the affairs of his family; he even seeks to forward the marital hopes of his bashful sister. In one comical scene Elmer imagines that he is before the gates of Heaven and St. Peter is refusing him admission because of his meddling nature. Elmer is afraid Elmer will disrupt the harmonious environment of Paradise. This imaginary experience causes a remarkable change in the young man and, when the curtain falls at the conclusion one realizes that Elmer's busy-body activities are at an end.

Gives Talk on Graf Zeppelin

John Bolten of South Main street gave a very interesting talk at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association Wednesday night on his trip to Germany last year in the Graf Zeppelin. The thrill of riding over Washington, the feeling at seeing the shoreline recede in the distance, the anxious moments in backing away from a storm, the landing in Spain, and the final arrival at the destination were all graphically described by the speaker.

The report of the nominating committee was presented at the meeting. This will be acted on at the annual meeting in May. The selections were: president, Mrs. Fay H. Elliott; vice-president, Miss Catherine Barrett; recording secretary, Mrs. Henry G. Tyler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Holmelund; treasurer, Robert V. Deyerdmond; governing board member, Mrs. E. Dean Walden.

ERA Working on Water Extension

The Andover E.R.A. workers started this morning laying water pipe on Lovejoy road, the labor costs to be paid by the F.E.R.A. and the pipe and other material to be supplied by the board of public works. This is one of the special articles left to the discretion of the Board of Public Works by the town at town meeting.

There has been no appointment of an Andover E.R.A. administrator as yet, although we are expected at any moment.

The school committee Tuesday evening instructed the secretary to send Dr. Daly a note of thanks and commendation for the work being done by the C.W.A. painters at the high school. The letter follows:
Andover, Massachusetts,
April 4, 1934

Dr. J. J. Daly
Local Administrator
Civil Works Administration
Andover, Mass.
My dear Dr. Daly:

At the meeting of the Andover school committee last evening, it was voted that the secretary should send to you as local administrator of the Civil Works Administration a letter of appreciation for the work being done at the high school by the C.W.A. painters. We feel that the work is progressing very satisfactorily considering the limitations on the amount of time that the men are allowed to work each week. The quality of the work is equally as high as the painting job done on the two lower floors by contract last summer, and since we were all very well pleased with that particular job, you can readily see how satisfied we are with the C.W.A. work, especially since the natural assumption would be that the workmen would work neither so rapidly or so well under the C.W.A. as they would under contract.

We also feel that the total cost of the project to be borne by the federal government and the local government will compare quite favorably with the various contract prices given us a year ago. This is a source of deep gratification to us, and we wish to express our sincerest appreciation to you for your assistance in securing approval for the project and through you to the workmen for their fine spirit in not loafing on the job, in giving us a painting job that we can be proud of.

Sincerely yours,
ELMER J. GROVER, Secretary

"Private" Nuisance?

Last week's editorial suggesting an office for the board of health in the town hall struck a note which seemed to be a popular one with the people of this town.

There was a complaint filed this week with the board of health to the effect that in the cellar of a tenement house in the thickly settled residential part of the center of the town one of the residents was housing eight or nine dogs and the cellar was not being kept very clean.

General laws, chapter 111, section 128, reads as follows: "The board of health if satisfied upon examination that a building, tenement, room or cellar in this town occupied as a dwelling place has become by reason of the number of occupants, uncleanness or other cause, unfit for such purposes and may become a nuisance or be a cause of sickness to the occupants or to the public," may issue a written notice to the occupants ordering that it be cleaned up.

That is only a sample of things that are heard much too frequently here in town about our board of health. It is not anything of which to be proud, and we hope that before long the board will peer more deeply into the administration of health affairs here so that some day we can again point to our board of health with justifiable pride.

Making Wrong Right

At last the salary situation has been cleared up, on the surface at least. The acting director of accounts, Edward H. Fenton, died at an opportune time for the board of selectmen, and his opinion that the salaries of elective officials must be voted annually at town meeting has been overlooked.

Siftings

The FERA has given way to the ERA. Remember Mr. Butler's remark about the dawning of a new ERA?

For a while "Do you know who the new officer is?" was a popular as "Warm enough for you?" in the summer.

We have our personal opinion about a man who would leave a baby to die of exposure in the woods. It almost seems too bad that the baby's paternal grandfather hadn't done something of the sort years ago.

Twenty-seven men in Andover were angry at the selectmen this morning. But after all, only one could be appointed.

The school committee would like very much to find the gentleman who suggested that the new school be built out of the bricks of the old, but that the old shouldn't be torn down until the new one is built. That would be a handy solution next year.

Free Church C. E. Meeting

Miss Mary Dobbie led the meeting of the Free Church Christian Endeavor held Sunday evening in the Parish house. The subject was "Does the Resurrection Make Any Difference in Our Lives?"

John Howell led in prayer and read passages from the bible. Next Sunday night Miss Margaret Purcell will lead the meeting and will have as her subject: "The Place of Bible Study in Christian Living."

the Townsman asked Chairman Hardy his opinion on the matter, and as reported in the February 16 issue Mr. Hardy called up Mr. Fenton immediately on the telephone and asked him if the salaries should be voted annually. Soon after Mr. Hardy called the Townsman again and stated that Mr. Fenton had said that the salary of each elective official must be voted specifically at each town meeting. Mr. Hardy informed the editor at that time that the salary vote would be taken at the time that the budget concerned is acted upon.

After the town meeting Mr. Fenton in a letter to the Townsman again stated that the salaries must be voted annually. However, the meeting had gone by, and the selectmen had to do something rather than admit that they were wrong. Mr. Fenton always had been almost an apostle to the selectmen up to that time; his opinions had always been followed very closely. But here he had stated something which would put the board in error, and rather than admit that error the selectmen decided to disregard his opinion and look around for someone who would agree with them and make wrong right.

However, were we to follow this rule, to ascertain the salaries legally to be paid to our elective officials today, it would be necessary to go back over the town meeting records and see when each specific salary was last voted. It means of course that none of the elective officials have to take the ten percent cut given the other town employees last year; their salaries were not set at the lower rate as required by law. However, this is counterbalanced by the fact that in 1929 when salary raises were more or less slipped over on the voters. At that time the Townsman protested the procedure from a legal standpoint, and the majority of the voters felt the same way.

Take the tree warden, for instance. The 1926 town report states that he received $792; the 1932 report shows his salary to be $1025. The town meeting records in the meantime bear no mention of an increase in salary for him.

The Townsman does not object to payment of salaries to any of the elective officials; what it does object to is the shabby procedure followed in town meetings here in the last few years, procedure which in several cases has involved the town in extra expense. Next year let us do things correctly, so that we will not leave town meeting feeling that we were improperly guided.

You Figure It Out!

Looks as though the Government was asking a business man to pay out, in increased wages, money that he hasn't got, to hire men that he doesn't need, to fill orders that haven't come in from people who couldn't afford to buy his goods even if they wanted them. Which brings us right back to the starting point—wherever that was!—Banker and Tradesman

One thing that will greatly help solve the troubles of the country, is for everyone to make things go well in his home town.

Playing ball on the basis of the Golden Rule just isn't in the cards for some people. They would "gyp" their own grandmothers if they were able to see some advantage for themselves.

When Uncle Sam drives an individual out of business by selling below cost of production, who pays the taxes of the "evicted" business man? Ask us an easy one. The consumer is the "last man." He pays it.

Some things worth remembering: The value of time, the pleasure of working, the worth of character, the influence of example, the dignity of simplicity, the power of kindness, the success that comes from perseverance, the obligation of duty, the virtue of patience, the wisdom of economy, the joy of originating, and the profit of experience.

The future happiness and prosperity of most of us depend largely upon how we employ our spare time.

Communications

Dear Mr. Editor: I read with interest the communication in last week's Townsman signed "A Visitor" in reply to a communication printed two weeks ago signed "Taxpayer." Broad views about town affairs were gotten from the town meeting held a short time ago which was anything but sober and patriotic.

The reference to "A Visitor" applied to all "won't work" whether in Haverhill or elsewhere. No reflection was made, or intended, on the good people of Haverhill but when a man won't work and prevents others from working who would be glad to work then I say there shouldn't be even a soup kitchen for him.

It is possible, but not probable my friend saw red but at any event he wasn't red as some people are known. "A Visitor" may find himself better off behind a "Cohen" or "Insky" than some of our Labor Unions as they are run today.

Our visitors article would indicate there are times when the most unwelcome thing we hear about ourselves is the truth.

THE SAME "TAXPAYER" Our Electric Horse His collar lacked a button, He was anything but neat; His laces were unfastened, and The shoes were on wrong feet! He was a perfect model for the "ad" of old man Stoen, And he steamed by my lapel As he went into his moan—"I've forked pintos on the prairie, Rid an off artillery mule, I shot the shutes at Coney, Was in aviation school; I rode rods and blind baggage And a dizzy Ferris wheel, Sir—I never had a wabble, nor did an ache I feel; But—I'd never rid a broncho in a boiler works, I swear! 'Til I got upon your trolley From Shawsheen to the Square!" SOPHROMIA WHIFFLETREE

PIPER

Walter Elbridge Piper of South Sudbury, treasurer and general manager of the Tyer Rubber Company died of heart trouble Sunday afternoon at two at the New England Sanitarium, Stoneham.

Mr. Piper was in his sixty-third year and until some six weeks ago had been in excellent health. At the time he was motoring from his factories in Andover to Boston and fell ill while coming through Stoneham. He called a young man and asked to be directed to the nearest doctor. The youth took the wheel of his auto and drove to the home of a Stoneham doctor who found his heart in a serious state and advised him to go to the nearest hospital which was the New England Sanitarium. Mr. Piper was accordingly taken there at once and had remained there since, his life hanging on by a thread.

At times he rallied and was able to see his family. Two days before his passing, a slight cough developed and it was thought that an attack of coughing Sunday strained his heart and caused his sudden death.

Mr. Piper who was born in Hyde Park, leaves his wife, a son Richard of Wayland and a daughter Mary O. of Sudbury and a married daughter, Nester, Mrs. William Francis Lloyd residing in Burnham in Buckinghamshire, England, and five grandchildren.

He was graduated from Technology in the class of 1894 and at once joined the staff of the Boston Rubber Shoe when it was owned by Deacon Elisha S. Converse. Eventually he succeeded E. F. Bickford as superintendent and resided in the old white Colonial house on the west side of Main street, Melrose just north of the Falls factories, known as the Lynde mansion, said to be the first house ever erected in Melrose.

Prior to coming to Andover in 1922, he was employed for by the Firestone Tire company in Akron, Ohio. He brought the Andover business to a high state of efficiency and established factories in England and Australia. Not only did he become a leading executive shoe factory man but one of the country's shrewdest buyers of crude rubber. For a time he was head of the Preside-ent Suspenders Company of Shirley which he put on its feet after financial difficulties. He was for many years a director of the First National Bank of Malden, was an organizer and a director of the Major Morris Plan Bank, had been trustee of Maiden Savings Bank and a director of Baird and Bartlett Company of Boston with which his son Richard is identified.

He was interested in Sudbury town affairs and was chairman of the town's finance committee. He served two terms as a member of the Melrose aldermen.

During the World War he served under General Goethals as federal purchasing agent of rubber footwear for the United States Army and the A. E. F. He held that position over a year and a half and refused a colonelcy, declaring he was only a private citizen trying to do his duty.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at his home in South Sudbury.

CHANDLER

Miss Ada B. Chandler, 84, passed away Thursday afternoon at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mabel R. Hartman, 89 Elm street. Miss Chandler was a retired teacher, having served at the Pynchard school from 1874-1879. She was one of the early graduates of the school. She was born in Manchester, N. H., but moved here when she was eight years of age. Her father was Deacon Holbrook Chandler, a very prominent man in Andover. She was a member of the South church.

She leaves besides her niece, a nephew Ralph Chandler Robinson of Schenectady, N. Y., and two grandnephews and two grandnieces.

The funeral will be held at 2.30 Sunday at the Fuller funeral home, with Rev. Frederick B. Noss in charge. Interment will be in South church cemetery.

PUTNAM

The death of Miss Mary Bishop Putnam will bring sorrow to many in Andover who knew her when she was connected with Abbot Academy.

Born in Danvers, a member of the famous Israel Putnam family, she was a woman of fine New England qualities. Having dealt for many years with young people, she was intensely interested in their problems. While her spirit and sympathies were youthful, she proved a loyal friend to both young and old. During her thirteen years in Andover she lived in Sunset Lodge where she created a pleasant and homelike atmosphere for the younger girls attending Abbot Academy.

The funeral services will be held on Sunday at 2.30 at 2 Sylvan Street, Danvers.

Army Home

By HAZEL ARDEN

MOST army romances end with a newspaper account of the bridal couple emerging from an arch of crossed swords.

The first night, on their way by car to Rodney's post in the South, they stopped at the best hotel in Baltimore and had jellied omelette, broiled bluefish and peach melba.

On the fourth day they reached their destination, the army post to which Rodney had been assigned after his graduation from West Point that June.

A stout captain in the quartermaster corps met them at headquarters and ushered them to their new home.

"I'm sorry, kiddie," he groaned. "I know what I'm going to do."

"But she decided to stay for two months, for after all, they were still on their honeymoon."

When they realized what was the matter, Rodney was terrified and begged her to go.

Winter descended upon them, a chill, rainy winter that spread a vast drizzle about their little low shack.

At last, one spring day, the great event took place, Sally Ann spent an afternoon walking on the hot roof garden of the army hospital with Rodney pacing desperately at her side.

"You have a cute little daughter," they said, "and girls are just as nice as boys."

He merely glanced at the bundle on its way out to the nursery, cried for a few moments over Sally Ann's placid white face and went back to his little lonely shack.

Lying in the pleasant, yellow-walled hospital, Sally Ann was more determined than ever to leave Rodney and his dreadful little hut.

At her father's home there would be a sunny nursery with warm, rugged floors and steam heat, sizzling against the frosty windows.

When they at last took Sally Ann back to the shack, she resolved that the next time she went out of it would be the last.

A medley of colors met her gaze. The rough ugly boards were covered with yellow wall paper.

"Do you like it?" he asked, proudly. "I did it all myself. This is a real home now, isn't it, kiddie?"

Sudden tears scalded Sally Ann's eyes. Yes, this was home—this funny, terrible little shack that the government had provided and that Rodney had so valiantly tried to make livable.

"I told you that I was going home after the baby came," she said. "Well, Rodney, I am home."

The Engineering News-Record says that the largest power shovel in use today, according to its records, is not a steam shovel in the full sense of the word, but is an electric shovel.

St. Louis, Mo., March 25.—An electric shovel in use in an open-strip coal mine at Duquoin, Ill. It weighs 1,750 tons and required 58 freight cars for transportation to the work. It has a bucket capacity of 20 cubic yards, which is the amount of material that can be handled in one operation. This material would weigh about thirty tons.

Locusts Good for Something

The locust, much dreaded by the average farmer, serves at least two useful purposes, a Macon (Ga.) scientist declares.

It is the first place, locusts make excellent chicken feed, and in the second place they furnish wild birds with a substitute for the fruit they might otherwise destroy.

The chickens, according to this authority, go for these destructive insects in a big way; while in one instance birds attacking the cherries in a cherry orchard have been known to desert their fruit diet to feed on locusts, thus insuring the owner of the orchard a larger cherry crop.

Representative speaks to Otis Club

After a meeting or so devoted to "doddering" (probably the aftermath of the recent town meeting), the Otis Club finally "came through" with a series of set dates and announcements as follows:

On Monday evening, April 16, at the annual meeting of the club, officers, committee members, and all members are requested to attend.

On the evening of April 30 will be held a special meeting at which the guest speaker will be Alfred Baker Lewis.

On Monday evening, May 7, Rep. C. F. Nelson Pratt of Saugus has been invited to speak and tell some "in sidestories" related to legislative matters.

On May 21 will be held the "James Otis Night" of the club, and a direct descendant of the pre-revolutionary day patriot and a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives (Ralph Emerson Otis) will be invited to make the memorial address previously mentioned.

At the meeting last Monday evening, Rep. Pratt gave a very interesting lecture, in detail, on legislative procedure at the State House, his remarks being illustrated by a diagram or chart showing the different branches through which a fled bill would have to pass, before being finally enacted, or defeated, as the case might be.

Mr. Pratt also pointed out the procedure for the calendar for this year, and House and Senate, combined, appointed some thirty committee members between them.

What with three readings necessary on the floor of the House and Senate, (with the governor's power of veto, after that), before a bill was eligible to be engrossed, there did not seem any lack of safe guards to the public safety. And then there is the feature of "referendum," by

Presidents Guests of Woman's Club

The Shawheen Village Woman's club entertained the president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Frank P. Bennett and the presidents from several clubs in the district at its meeting Monday evening. Director, was also a guest. Mrs. Carl L. Schrader was unable to attend and sent a telegram of greeting from Hancock, N. H. where she was obliged to go for the week-end. Miss Lillian Runnells, Tenth District Director, was unable to attend on account of illness.

Mrs. Walter E. Curtis read a very interesting report of the Youth Conference sponsored by the American Home Department of the State Federation which was held in Hotel Statler, March 8th and 9th and Mrs. Harold T. Houston gave a fine report of the Music Conference held March 29th attended by five members of the music department.

Mrs. Lewis R. Hovey brought greeting to the club in the absence of Miss Runnells. Mrs. Frank P. Bennett told the club how much she enjoyed visiting the smaller clubs. She said the smaller clubs contribute far more to the Federation as the larger clubs do. The smaller clubs have the advantage of knowing each member and are able to make the movie more personal thus fostering the true community spirit on which the foundation of the Federation is built. She spoke of the wonderful things the Federation has to give its individual clubs and club members if they will but take advantage of them and the complimentary reports of the Youth and Music Conferences which had been given showing that the Shawheen Club was keeping its contacts with the Federation alive.

Mrs. Bennett stressed the importance of an interest in Art and mentioned the Art Broadcasts which are being given each Saturday evening at eight o'clock beginning with art of the 16th century and bringing it up to the present day.

She also urged the members to be more active in the movies saying that it had been working for the wrong end; they had stressed the idea of telling the proprietor of the movie theatre whether or not the picture they had seen met with their approval. At a recent meeting of the Motion Picture Council, however, it was decided that block booking was the root of evil in the movie situation and that the pressure against or wherever the booking agent had to take a booking of fifty pictures for example just to get the one fine picture he desired and of course could not afford not to show the other forty-nine. As far as children were concerned, she said, she thought they should not be allowed to go to the movies anyway.

Mrs. Bennett said the club women owed a duty to a Church and that they should make the man who was in charge of their particular church feel that they were behind him in the originality of his life especially at this time when the whole country is swinging back to church going.

The program for the evening was given by the Music Department and was as follows:

despite efforts by the police department to apprehend the vandals.

The severe winter is having a marked effect on the school department budget, with $10.00 more having been spent this year so far on coal than was spent for the corresponding period last year. The committee voted to have the coal bids submitted at the June meeting, it being felt that the prices would be lower then. The buildings and grounds committee was authorized to go ahead with the waterproofing of the high school and the high school work will be started in the coming vacation so that the newly painted rooms will not be damaged by leaking. It was voted that the secretary send a letter of appreciation to Dr. Daly, head of the local C.W.A., for the work he had done at the high school.

Sanborn reported that there are now three pre-school centers in operation under the Federal Educational Relief administration. Miss Milne and Mrs. Dodson are continuing at Indian Ridge, and Mrs. Shaw have been established at Braintree and Shaw.

Permission was granted Mr. Hamblin to use the high school hall on Sunday afternoon, June 17, for the 75th anniversary of the Panchard school.

The committee discussed at length the matter of accommodations for the central schools during the building of the new school project next year. With old Panchard being razed, the high school will not be able to use four rooms that it would have required for the next year. The matter was referred to the superintendent who is to study it with Mr. Hamblin and Miss Putnam.

Whales Deep Divers

Whales dive deeper than sea lions. The sea lions are not deep-diving animals, since their food is largely found on or near the surface. The depth to which sea lions ordinarily penetrate certainly does not exceed five fathoms and is generally much less. Some of the whales are very deep divers. There is a record of a specimen of a sperm whale found tangled in a cable at a depth of one-fourth of a mile, about 220 fathoms.

Coot Belongs to Rails

The coot is really a member of the rail family, but actually is the most duck-like member. It is an expert swimmer and diver, but it has much difficulty rising from the surface. Once on the wing, it is a good flyer, maintaining a direct course, but is not as speedy as a duck.

Secret Test Proves Haffner Gas Is Best

We buy from the refineries making the best gasoline. Right now we are buying from James B. Berry Sons Co. the largest Independent Refiners in the U. S. A.

According to Specifications it is the best Gasoline coming into Lawrence.

Haffner Given City Contract

Haffner's Service Station has been awarded the contract for supplying the Municipal garage with 7500 gallons of high-test gasoline. This fuel will be used by fire department apparatus. The price to be paid for the gasoline will be three and one-tenth cents higher than the tank wagon price at the time of delivery.

The fire department recently conducted a test to see if ordinary gasoline could be used by its apparatus, but the test showed the ordinary gasoline was not conducive to quick starting. The test was made secretly so that even the drivers of the trucks did not know it was being carried out.

Seventeen-Year Locusts

The seventeen-year locust is a cicada that is supposed to appear at these intervals. Eggs are laid in small limbs or twigs and after they hatch the larvae fall to the ground and burrow in - sometimes to a depth of 20 feet. At the end of a seventeen-year period of inactivity they emerge, mature and become full grown locusts. Their life span is from four to six weeks during which they mate and lay their eggs - and the cycle begins over again. Most of the damages by these insects are caused by the weakening of the limbs where the eggs are laid. Males alone produce the noisy din accompanying the visitation. Cycles of these insects overlap each other in such a way that some sections are visited often than once in seventeen years. For this reason every year is a locust year in some part of the country. - Pathfinder Magazine.

"Banjo Itch," Dog Disease

Novice owners of dogs generally become convinced that their pet has fleas every time it scratches itself, but the strange and violent scratching contortions may be the result of "banjo itch," a rather prevalent skin disease among dogs. This skin infection, known scientifically as staphylococcus streptococcus, is one of the most common skin diseases among dogs. It is frequently referred to as "moist eczema" and is believed to result from an unbalanced glandular condition, calcium in the blood or a serious skin abrasion. The disease is a lever of all dogdom and will attack the most pampered pet as well as the alley mutt.

Christ Church Notes

The Sunday afternoon musicles at Christ Church and is being appreciated. The performance by the Andover Male Choir on March 18 was an excellent sample of their work, under the inspired influence of their leader. The choir of Christ Church, with several extra voices, gave a beautiful rendition of Du Bois' "Seven Last Words" on March 25, Palm Sunday. The soloists, Mrs. Mary Harris, Mr. John Hill, and Mr. Everett Collins, the first our regular soloist, and the last two being former choir boys here, were at their best and the accompanist, John D. Newall, 3rd, supported them delightfully. The church was filled with a most appreciative congregation.

"English Shrines," beautifully illustrated, will be given on Sunday night at 7.30 and the Young People's Fellowship invite all who are interested to attend. It is the story of how Christianity conquered what is now England.

At the Carol service of the Church School on Easter afternoon the speaker came from Ceylon but he seemed to be no stranger as he interested the children. The primary department sang very sweetly. The Easter plants brought joy. Lenten Bands were awarded the following for attending Friday services in Lent:

Brussels Griffon Called the Comedian of Dogdom

The Brussels Griffon is just as much a dog as any of the toy breeds, but, unfortunately, not quite as popular. Very little is heard of this bizarre appearing pet, for its acceptance as a standard breed has been slow and confined almost entirely to those who are always seeking the unusual in dogs.

Considerable doubt surrounds its origin. Some claim it is a Belgian production; others believe the coal mining districts of England gave it to the world. Only one thing is certain, it appeared in both countries about the same time, more than half a century ago.

The fringed beard, which imparts a touch of the comedian to the animal, is an outstanding characteristic. Abroad it is popular as a household pet, displaying at all times alertness, wit and unending intelligence.

The standard for the Brussels Griffon has been set by the Societe Royale Saint-Hubert of Belgium and calls for an animal not exceeding six or seven pounds in weight, reddish brown coat, dark whiskers and everything is to go ahead just as it was before. - Detroit News.

Oratorio Society Meeting

The executive committee of the Bosford Oratorio Society will hold an open meeting at the Boxford Chapel Tuesday evening, April 10, at 7.45; to make plans for the coming season, which include proposals to develop an outdoor concert theatre.

The society has given outdoor concerts every summer for eight years, usually at the grounds of the Kelsey Highland Nursery in East Boxford, and although this place has been very ideal, there are many ways in which it can be made more usable and attractive for such affairs.

The committee are extending a cordial invitation to all interested persons in East Boxford, and although this place has been very ideal, there are many ways in which it can be made more usable and attractive for such affairs.

Ballet Russe Performer

The above cut portrays one of the performers in the Monte Carlo Ballet Russe to be held at the Boston Opera house Monday evening. Several local ladies are patronesses for this opening night, which is for the benefit of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters.

Stowe School Notes

The Junior Forest Preservers had a very pleasant time at the regular meeting of the club on Friday. After the business had been finished, Miss Putnam instructed the members about the kinds of maple trees commonly found in Andover. This was followed by a talk given by Henry Wrigley, who told his experience in tapping maple trees and making maple syrup.

Brussels Griffon Called the Comedian of Dogdom

The Brussels Griffon is just as much a dog as any of the toy breeds, but, unfortunately, not quite as popular. Very little is heard of this bizarre appearing pet, for its acceptance as a standard breed has been slow and confined almost entirely to those who are always seeking the unusual in dogs.
