HANDLE BARS—One of the most dangerous practices our big-biding youngsters indulge in now-a-days is that of two riding on a bicycle built for one. We remember quite vividly a young man in our school days who had a very terrifying experience riding on handlebars.

REPRESENTATION AT THE STATE HOUSE

Does the General Court represent the people in reality? is a question answered in another of the series of articles on American Political Methods written by Martha E. D. White of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters and released in conjunction with the Andover League. The answer follows.

Undoubtedly it listens and undoubtedly it is swayed, especially individually, by the appeals of constituents. What one group of citizens wants is usually opposed by another group. Here the question of public good is the important decision for legislators to make.

What case in point occurred in the last legislative session? One is seen in the progress of the Leonard Bill to modify the Civil Service Law to open the public service to non-veterans, who were too young or too old for service in the World War.

Andover Supplies Water to Lawrence

Andover again this week started to pump water to Lawrence in order to assist the neighboring city which has been threatened with a water shortage. On Tuesday at two the local Board of Public Works started shooting Haggets pond water into the Lawrence mains at the rate of 600,000 gallons a day. A meter was connected to the pipes at Union street, and in all probability the city will be charged at the regular rate.

Local Young Man Wed at Double Ceremony

Last Saturday evening, July eighteenth, witnessed at Amherst, Massachusetts, a unique wedding ceremony: the uniting of two couples at the same time, while rain fell gently upon them and their assembled friends and thunder growled in the distance. The nuptials of the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Todd of Piedmont, California—Mary Dwight Baker and Helen Lamont Sutton marrying Dr. Thomas McNair Scott and Mr. Luther Hervey Gulick respectively—took place in the exquisite sunken garden of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stannard Baker of Amherst. Reverend Dana Greeley of the Arlington Street Unitarian church, Boston, a classmate of Mr. Gulick's at Harvard, read the impressive marriage lines. Preceded by two small children, Judith McAvity and David Baker, came the sisters, Helen Sutton on the arm of John Lewis Todd, Dwight Baker on that of Ray Stannard Baker. Both brides wore white embroidered mousseline de soie and orange blossom fillets, carrying pale yellow and pink roses respectively. There were no attendants. Mr. Todd gave away his two daughters in marriage. A special feature of the simple ceremony was the singing of a beautiful love song, "I plight my troth to thee," by Madame Sahla, the mother of Mrs. Hugh Baker. After the wedding ceremony there was an informal reception for the hundred guests present, chiefly relatives.

Mrs. Scott, a graduate of Vassar college, has just taken her Radcliffe Ph.D. in biochemistry, having studied at the Harvard Medical school. Dr. Scott, of Edinburgh and London, after four years of post-graduate work in this country is now returning to London to be connected with St. George's hospital, Hyde Park corner. He and Mrs. Scott sailed yesterday for England, on the Britannia.

Mrs. Luther Gulick, after attending Reed college transferred to Mills college, where she graduated in 1934. She has just completed a year's work at the Ruggles Street Nursery school in Boston. Luther Gulick, son of Eleanor Brooks Gulick, now Mrs. Myron Walter Vose Gulick of Seattle, is a graduate of the Punched school, Andover, class of 1927; of Harvard college, 1931; and of the Harvard Law school, 1934. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar and is connected with the Travelers Insurance company in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Gulick will spend August at 8 Tennyson road, Wellesley Hills, after which they will live in Cambridge.

CORRECTION

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin have lived in the house on Woodland road for thirty-seven years instead of seven years as stated in last week's paper. Three bolts of lightning struck in close order after an immunity of many years.

Playground System Nears Mid-Season

Record Attendance Figures Reached as Town Adopts for First Time Playgrounds for Shawheen and Ballardvale

Sports Feature of Annual Outing

The local playground system, operating three playgrounds for the first time this year, is nearing mid-season with the largest attendance ever recorded. Throngs of children flock to the playgrounds in the Center, Shawheen and Ballardvale each day, and on the special activity nights at each place there are usually hundreds of spectators. The directors feel that the very large attendance has amply repaid the town for the five hundred extra dollars spent to operate the two new playgrounds.

Still races and parades of bicycles and other vehicles will be the feature events at the Shawheen and Ballardvale playgrounds next Wednesday and Thursday. There will be no special event at the Center playground because of the circus to be staged there Friday evening.

The tournaments are continuing, special interest being shown in croquet at the Center playground. In about two weeks horse shoe and croquet tournaments will start for persons 16 and older.

Tonight the annual baby popularity contest is to be held at the Center playground, with William Crowley as referee. A similar contest was held at Shawheen Wednesday and at the Vale last night.

John Bruerton was referee at Shawheen. The winners were: grand prize, Bruce and Chris Macomber, twins; under one year: Barbara Koerner who entered Marie McKay; second prize, Rita Guilmette who entered Armand Guilmette; third, Aphose Groleau, who entered Raymond Groleau.

Under two years were: first, Gladys Hartman, who entered Billy Viveny; second, Harvey Sprague, who entered Betty Hearn; third prize, Ramona Pageau, who entered Joseph Pageau.

Under three years: first, Preston Johnson, who entered Robert Walls; second, Fred E. Cole, Jr., who entered Dorothy McCente; third, Doris Anderson, who entered Katherine Anderson. Honorable mention was given Constance McCollum, who entered Sandra Gertin.

Under four years: first, John Neil, who entered Richard Sullivan; second, Carol Davies, who entered Virginia Anne Pageau; third, Irene Sprague, who entered another Carol Davies.

The twin class had only one entry, Chris and Bruce Macomber who were entered by Anne Hooper.

The winners at Ballardvale were: gold ribbon baby, Kenneth Sparks, entered by Diane Nowell.

Under one year: first, Kenneth Sparks, entered by Diane Nowell; second, Virginia Goodwin, entered by Dorothy Evans; third, Teddy Sharpe, entered by Betty Greenwood.

Under two years: first, Judith Nowell, entered by Aubrey Nowell; second, Ralph Sharpe, entered by Meredith Matthews; third, Albion Goodwin, entered by Esther Evans.

Under three years: first, Nancy Lee Crain, entered by Eunice Hutchins.

A BANK ROBBER WHO CAN GET AWAY WITH IT IS A VERY CLEVER PERSON

The Townsman Editorial... A man who can rob a bank, make a nice big haul, and then cover up his track successfully, is a clever man.

The same thing applies to politicians. A man who can garner a majority of the votes every other time he runs for office, and then can make in devious ways the other office-holders do his bidding, finally covering up his tracks so that no one can pin anything on him—why, he's a clever man, too.

We've had a very good example recently of this clever covering up process. It involved the establishment of the state tax at the same figure as last year's. How can state appropriations amount $10,000,000 in one year without causing a rise in the state tax? That's what has happened this year.

Here's What Taxes Mean to Mr. Citizen

New York.—The ever-rising burden of taxation, due to increase further under the burden of excessive federal spending, is described in understandable terms by Herbert Corey in the current number of Cosmopolitan:

"Consider John Smith. He has worked hard and saved all his life. He said the other day: 'I don't owe a dollar in the world.' He was wrong. The federal government alone has a bill against him of $1,415, but he didn't know it. Here are the figures:

"By the end of 1937 the federal government will be $30,000,000,000 in the red. That deficit must somehow, some time, be paid. The only ones who can pay are the taxpayers.

"Since there are about 127,000,000 persons in the United States, each one's share—theoretically—of that $30,000,000,000 amounts to $233. There are five in John Smith's family, and five times $233 is $1,165. Somehow, some time, he must foot that bill."

Federal Meddling Draws Disapproval of Public

New York.—Federal spending with little regard for the rising national debt, and government meddling in the affairs of private industry are today even less popular in the public mind than they were two years ago, according to a report of the National Industrial Conference board. The conclusion is based on the results of a survey conducted among 10,000 editors of newspapers and farm magazines whose publications have a combined circulation of 17,500,000 readers and who were asked to fill out questionnaires.

Where two years ago 85 per cent were opposed to an increase in the national debt, today 93.3 per cent are. Two years ago 63.6 per cent of the voters were cast in opposition to the idea of redistributing wealth through taxation; this year 72.6 per cent were cast against it.

Some of the other voting was as follows: For government control or regulation of profits, other than public utilities, 26.6 per cent. For profits as an essential to business, 87.9 per cent.

Against further taxation of business concerns, 82.5 per cent. Against government control of private business, 92 per cent.

Against federal competition with power and transportation companies, 73.3 per cent. Against fixing of farm prices, 80 per cent. Against bounties to farmers, 72 per cent. Against restriction of crops, 81 per cent.

FOUR MORE YEARS OF THIS?

NEW DEAL CONGRESSES HAVE APPROPRIATED $38,000,000,000 TO BE SQUANDERED.... STOP THEM!

WINNING THE BATTLE against the depression has been likened by New Deal orators as important as American victory in the World War.

This big difference also remains between the two spendings. We won the World War. The New Deal battle against the depression has been confused with boondoggling, crack-pot visions hatched by Professors, and unprecedented political patronage.

LONDON DOES IT AGAIN!

Topeka, Kas.—Gov. Alf M. Landon has balanced his budget again! When Kansas closed its fiscal year June 30, there was on hand a cash balance of approximately $1,250,000, according to the estimate of A. R. Jones, state accountant.

U. S. Is Far in Red as 1936 Fiscal Year Closes

WASHINGTON, D. C.—This was the record of the Roosevelt administration as the fiscal year 1936 came to a close June 30. A federal debt of 33 billion 913 million dollars.

A budget bureau estimate of expenditures of $8,272,554,370 during the new fiscal year, without any alibi such as the veteran's bonus or invadation of processing taxes.

A federal debt that would be 38 billion 600 million were it not for expert juggling of the figures by the New Deal treasury department, which does not include in its estimate a total of $4,888,733,645 in government guaranteed bonds.

Reason given for the omission of the bonds is that some day they will all be repaid, a conclusion which is at least arbitrary.

New Dealers Browbeat Business to 'Advertise'

Chicago, Ill.—Business corporations here and in New York are being browbeaten into furnishing the New Deal with money to pursue its campaign for re-election by buying "advertising" space in the "Book of the Democratic National Convention—1936," according to reports of the Chicago Tribune and the New York Sun.

The volume is made up largely of "interesting and instructive" articles about New Deal leaders. Its price is $2.50, but for $100 a special edition can be obtained with the President's autograph on the flyleaf.

Business men are approached for "advertising" patronage in the following manner: The business man gets a wire from W. Forbes Morgan, secretary of the national committee, that a representative will soon call upon him. On the day of the solicitor's visit he gets another wire from Washington, advising him that the solicitor will arrive almost any minute.

Chicago corporation heads who have been solicited report that the cost of space is $2,000 a page; New Yorkers say they have been quoted $3,125, while in Cleveland the Better Business Bureau reports the price at $2,000 a page, indicating that perhaps the solicitors are asking what they think they may be able to get.

Old Bryan Paper Bolts Roosevelt

Omaha, Neb.—The Omaha World-Herald, for 50 years one of the leading Democratic newspapers of the Middle West and once edited by William Jennings Bryan, has definitely stamped itself as opposed to President Roosevelt and the New Deal policies his administration stands for.

"Mr. Roosevelt, as earnestly and passionately as Hitler once did, assails our own capitalist system," says the World-Herald editorial.

"By his sweeping onslaught Mr. Roosevelt has precipitated uncompromising war between the government he heads and private enterprise.

"And just as long as that war rages, the billions of credit and money tied up in the banks, idle and unused, will remain idle and unused. The millions of idle workers will remain unused, unless it be on public labor.

"This newspaper believes the American system, both economic and political, is not so desperately sick, so hopeless beyond cure, that it is necessary to kill and replace it with an order alien to our traditions, repugnant to all our aspirations."

Landon Urges Wisconsin to Save Its Ideal Homes

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Wisconsin, with its thousands of beautiful homes and high percentage of home owners, is an example of much that is best in American life today," Gov. Alf M. Landon, Presidential nominee, wired the Republican State convention here.

Landon's telegram continued: "These small homes and businesses have been built by a frugal people schooled in the old fashioned virtue of thrift. I have never before known a campaign which has evidenced so greatly the quiet determination of men and women to save for themselves; and their children the things that we Americans hold most dear.

John D. M. Hamilton, national chairman, speaking at the convention, referred to American citizens as "stockholders" in the federal government, accusing the administration of misleading its stockholders: "Your stockholders would like to learn, Mr. Morgenthau, why in recalling that the Treasury estimated in 1934 a $4,000,000,000 deficit for the fiscal year just ended, you omitted the fact that in the same year 1934, your Chief Executive promised that the deficit for this period would be zero, and before a United States senate committee as recently as last April you predicted it would be nearly $6,000,000,000."

"Voters see in Gov. Landon a man who not only pledged his administration to a balanced budget, but a man who delivered a balanced budget," Hamilton continued.

Presidents' Spending Compared

Milwaukee, Wis.—Appropriations of President Roosevelt's administration which were unspecified by congress totalled 13 billion 500 million dollars, or more than eight times the combined unspecified appropriations made to all the Presidents in the 143 preceding years.

Landon's Amendments Pass Over Democrats

Topeka, Kas.—In the face of noisy Democratic opposition, the Republicans in the Kansas senate voted a resolution, 25 to 10, to limit the business of the current session to the passage of state constitutional amendments "proposed" by Gov. Alf M. Landon.

"In considering the proposed amendments," the governor told the legislators, "I desire to call attention to the fact that the platform of the Republican party adopted at its national convention provides for a plan of social security different from the social security act adopted by congress . . ."

123 Taxes on Meat

It is estimated that there are today 123 taxes hidden in the cost of every cut of meat you buy.

Harry Hopkins' Magic Manassa, Colo.—The WPA plans to improve (if it can find) thirteen miles of streets here at a cost of $14,771 to the federal government. The town's population is 933.

Knox Will Be Notified in Chicago on July 30

Washington, D. C.—Col. Frank Knox, Republican nominee for the vice-presidency as Gov. Alf M. Landon's running mate, will accept the nomination in Chicago July 30, John D. M. Hamilton, fiery, red-haired young chairman of the Republican National committee, announced here.

More Federal Jobs

In 1932 the civilian employees of the federal government numbered 583,196. President Roosevelt proposed to reduce the number by at least 25 per cent, but in March of 1936 the number of civilian employees was 806,035, an increase of 222,859.

It is estimated that there are today 123 taxes hidden in the cost of every cut of meat you buy.

Harry Hopkins' Magic Manassa, Colo.—The WPA plans to improve (if it can find) thirteen miles of streets here at a cost of $14,771 to the federal government. The town's population is 933.

Texas Tugwell Aid Quits in Anger Over Spending

Amarillo, Texas.—Fed up with the ridiculous waste of public funds by the federal government, Ralph G. Bray resigned as publicity director for the Rural Resettlement administration in this territory. He said he acted in protest of Prof. Rexford Guy Tugwell's "academy of bubble blowers" and "carnival of blundering and squandering."

Bray accused Tugwell of "exploiting the so-called dust bowl" for "cheap sentimentalism" and of using the resettlement administration "as a laboratory for Utopian policies." He said that "no tangible work has been done" in the four months the Amarillo office has been in operation.

"Bolshevism!" Says Jim Reed

Kansas City, Mo.—Asserting that he was not a delegate and would not attend the Democratic national convention, former Sen. James A. Reed of Missouri said: "Moreover, I don't want to abide by the actions of a convention that would not permit the expression of anti-administration views. Such a convention does not represent the Democratic party; it may be bolshevism, but it's not Democracy."
