Assessors Set Tax Rate at $29

Andover's tax rate this year is $29.00, an increase of $2.20 over last year's rate but at least $1.50 under the estimates made at town meeting. The assessors completed their task yesterday afternoon, and the rate was approved by Paul Cole of the state department of corporations and taxation shortly after 5.

The increase is caused mainly by the new $13,000 pension appropriation and the large increase in public welfare demands.

The rate varies from the finance committee estimate mainly because of the valuation and state figures. The finance committee guessed at a $150,000 increase in valuation, whereas the jump was actually more than twice that. There was an increase of $297,893 in real estate valuation, and a jump of $35,022 in personal. After all the complaints on personal increase last year, the assessors this year were pleased at the $35,000 increase, since it was compiled from the voluntary returns of property owners.

Crippled Child Saved From Fire

Warren Christie, ten-year-old crippled youngster, was rescued from possible death yesterday morning when Herbert Early found him in a smoke-filled house off Boston road. Early had been told by another youngster that a boy had been burned to death in the house. Rushing over he broke through a window and threw a smoldering mattress and some burning furniture out the window. The youngster, paralytic, was found alive in the next room.

The fire department answered a call from Pox 32 but its help was not needed. However, if Mr. Early had not been around to save the youngster, his life might have been lost. If the fire had gained any headway at all, the frame structure would soon have been demolished. It was impossible for the fire trucks to get within 300 yards of the house, the only path leading over a bridge that would not support a truck.

SUSPICIOUS FIRE DESTROYS CAMP

A fire of suspicious origin last night destroyed a four-room camp off Woburn street, the property of Charles Stewart of Cambridge. A large crowd was attracted to the scene by the glare in the sky.

The fire was deep in the woods and the engines could not get close to it. Selectman Howell F. Shepard however piled the hose onto his beach wagon, and let it unroll behind as he weaved the wagon around trees, etc., to the blaze. About 1200 feet of hose was used.

Announces Noblest Gift In P. A. History

The noblest gift in the history of Phillips academy would have to be a pretty noble gift, but Headmaster Dr. Claude M. Fuess was able to give that description at the annual alumni meeting last Friday to the gift of a 17-acre estate in Washington from Henry L. Stimson, president of the board of trustees and secretary of state under Herbert Hoover. Col. Stimson will pay for the upkeep, taxes, etc., on the estate until his death, and at that time the academy may dispose of it as it sees fit. The value of the estate, said Dr. Fuess—and this statement brought tumultuous applause—is one million dollars.

Dr. Fuess also mentioned the Carnegie foundation gift of $50,000 previously announced. This will be used to study the 'normal boy.'

Treasurer James C. Sawyer later announced that of the $750,000 needed for the teachers' retirement fund a total of $565,000 had been received.

Plan to Attend Tri-Delta Meeting

Of interest to graduates and students of Boston University, will be the dedication of a tablet in memory of the four founders of Delta Delta Delta, Sarah Ida Shaw Martin, Eleanor Dorcas Pond Mann, Isabel Morgan Breed, and Florence Isabelle Stewart, on Saturday, June 25, at the College of Liberal Arts, Boston University.

Miss Barbara Sellars of Avon street, Andover, is the delegate from the Boston University chapter. Other local members of the fraternity are Miss Dorothy Trott, who has been teaching at the Junior High in Andover, of Alpha chapter; Miss Ruth Hardy, who will be an honor page at the convention, of Alpha Iota chapter at Middlebury College; and Miss Marjorie Jones, formerly of Lawrence and who now lives in Shawsheen Village, of Eta chapter at the University of Vermont. Miss Joan Moody is a pledge at B. U.

SOCIAL AND WHIST

A penny social and whist was enjoyed by the local Rebekah lodge Monday evening in Fraternal hall. Guests were present from Lynn and Lawrence. Whist prizes were awarded to Mrs. Nellie Stevens, Mrs. Elizabeth Somerville, Mrs. Gladys Barnet, and Mrs. M. Morse.

Dance Enjoyed by Ninth Grade

Last Friday evening the gymnasium was completely transformed into a trans-Atlantic liner as a setting for the June dance of the ninth grade. A gangplank served as the means to approach the ship's deck where the orchestra, clad in sailors' outfits, occupied the bow. Off in the distance a lighthouse flashed its beams, and still farther away were seen the trees of the distant shore. In the stern of the liner the chaperones sat to watch the dancers. From above the deck dozens of colored pennants swung in the breeze, while silvery gulls floated about among shining stars and a glittering moon. Flung over the ship's railings were fish nets tangled with seaweed. The lives of the dancers were safe from shipwreck because of the many life

Warn Employees About Drinking

Individual notices have been sent to each employee of the Board of Public Works warning them that they will be summarily fired in the event of future drinking on the job. The notice stated that infractions of the order would result in dismissal regardless of the position or length of service of the offender.

REQUEST TRUCKS USE BY-BASS

A request that trucks use the by-pass, now that the bridge over the Shawsheen river on the Den Rock road has been completed, was made yesterday by the selectmen in a communication to the Motor Truck Club of Massachusetts. The selectmen reminded the club of the get-together held here on April 12 at which time it was agreed by the truckers that they would adopt the alternate route after the bridge was rebuilt.

AT REPUBLICAN MEETING

Allen M. Flye of Lowell street and Irving J. Whitcomb of Main street terrace attended the monthly council meeting of the Massachusetts Young Men's Republican club at Salem last Saturday. The next meeting of the local group will be held July 7.

Transfer $5,000 for WPA Work

A transfer of $5,000 from the reserve fund to the Board of Public Works was granted by the finance committee last night at a joint meeting of the selectmen, B. P. W., finance committee and tree warden. The funds will be used in conjunction with W. P. A. labor.

The grant puts off a possible special town meeting until September at the earliest.

The gravel road projects are to be dropped. Some eighty men will start shortly on the Shawsheen drain for which there is a materials appropriation of $4500, and the rest will be put at work mostly on cutting back brush along the roadways, with some at the cemetery. It is planned to grub-hoe the brush in order to prevent its growing up again by next year. The truck hire item on the gravel roads was a heavy one, with about three-fourths of the $10,000 original appropriation having been used up on this account.

P. H. S. Alumni Reunion Tonight

The annual alumni reunion banquet of Pynchard's alumni association will be held tonight at 6:30 in the Memorial auditorium cafeteria. Payment of the one dollar dinner fee will automatically pay for the year's dues.

Instead of the usual addresses this evening there will be an entertainment program under the direction of Miss Madeleine Kimball.

MISS SHERMAN NAMED TEACHER

Miss Louise Sherman of 59 Bartlett street, teacher at Miss Pike's school for the past five years, was yesterday elected to a vacancy in the West Center school caused by the resignation of Miss Helen Pickard of Mendon, who is to be married. Miss Sherman will teach the first two grades. She is a graduate of Wheelock school and has done extensive studying at Boston university.

Baby Killed by Kennebec Express

A very much worried mother, walking up and down Enmore street last Friday morning in search of her two little boys who had wandered away from their yard, heard a train's whistle shriek, its brakes screech as it came to a stop near the Shawsheen station. The flagman jumped from the rear of the train and dashed down the tracks toward Andover, and soon the train started to back up. The mother, realizing something had happened, set off for the tracks, but police headed her off, entrusted her to the care of neighbors so that she wouldn't have to see the broken body of the baby of her family.

Little two-and-one-half year old Carter Caswell had been playing with his four-year-old brother Peter and five-year-old William Poole, and their childhood game carried them into the woods behind the house and thence onto the tracks. Wallace Fiedler of 50 Enmore street saw them there and warned them to get off, and they left the rails. But evidently Carter got back onto the Boston-bound rails, and seeing the Kennebec Limited coming, dashed across the Portland-bound rails to try to reach the other two little boys. The engineer coming around the curve near Burnham road was unable to see the youngster until the train was almost upon him. A fraction of a second was all that separated life and death, for the little boy was over the rails when the protruding piston box on the side of the locomotive struck him. He was carried 78 feet and then thrown to the side of the roadbed, Death fortunately was instantaneous.

The boy's father, Walter Caswell, was on his way to Portland by automobile when the tragedy occurred, while the oldest brother, John, was at the Shawsheen school.

It was Andover's first fatal accident of the year, there having been no automobile fatalities as yet.

The funeral of the youngster was held from the Lundgren funeral home Saturday morning with services in Christ Episcopal church at 9:30 o'clock. Interment was in a Brockton cemetery.

COURTEOUS CIRCLE PARTY

The birthday committee of the Courteous Circle of the King's Daughters were the hostesses at a charming party held at the home of Mrs. Burton S. Flagg of School street on Monday afternoon. They welcomed as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Robinson, Miss Annabelle Richardson, Miss Alice Hinton, Miss Annie Davis, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. George B. Ripley.

Mrs. Fred G. Cheney who was chairman of the birthday committee, gave a welcoming speech. Mrs. Harold Hathaway was the chairman of the entertainment committee and the informal program consisted of tap-dancing by Cornelia Yancy, dancing by Constance Hathaway and singing by both girls, as well as several gay songs by Mrs. Allison Morse.

WHIST PARTY

A whist party is to be held by the Mothers' club at the home of Mrs. William Webb next Thursday. Assisting will be Mrs. Paul Schmotlach, Mrs. William Coupe, and Mrs. Fred L. Collins.

MISS ABBOTT'S PUPILS IN RECITAL

Miss Marion L. Abbott presented her pupils in two excellent programs of pianoforte music, one last Thursday and the second on Monday evening, both in the Junior High Music Room. An excellent attendance of parents and friends enjoyed the fine playing of the pupils.

Those who took part in the Thursday program were: Robert McCoubrie, Jocelyn White, Patricia Barnard, Spaulding Shaw, Nancy Barnard, Miriam Hadden, Sally Brown, Gladys Deyermond, Marjorie Foster, Nancy Rice, Rebecca Stevens, Ruth Leitch, William Holland, and Christine Hill.

Historical Club Meets Saturday

The annual meeting of the Bay State Historical League will be held at Nantucket on Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. Members of the Andover Historical Society are urged to attend, for it will be an excellent opportunity to see Nantucket under happy auspices.

The famous Whaling Museum, the Historical Museum, the ancient Quaker Meeting House, the old Wind Mill as well as the famous houses will all be opened. Here is the birthplace of Benjamin Franklin's mother. The names of Starbuck, Coffin, and Macy are familiar from days when the island was the greatest whaling port in the world.

The historical program, in charge of those who know Nantucket's story, is made up of appeal especially to "Off-Islanders"—as people not born on Nantucket are still referred to.

Ample accommodations are available at the Gordon Folger Hotel, the official headquarters, with a welcome and comfort for all who can prolong their stay into an enjoyable week-end.

Marriages

Hart-Coughlin

Two priests, brothers of the groom, took part in the ceremony yesterday morning as Cornelius J. Hart of 20 High street and Miss Catherine E. Coughlan of Lawrence were united in marriage at St. Mary's church. Rev. Charles F. Hart, O.S.A., performed the ceremony, and Rev. Leo Hart, O.S.A., celebrated the mass.

Attendants were Miss Kathryn Donovan of Lawrence and William E. Fox of Newton.

Following the reception the couple left on a wedding trip. They will reside at 12 Cuba street.

Young-Gray

Barbara F. Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gray of South Main street, became the bride of George E. Young of East Andover, N. H., at the Congregational church in that town last Sunday in a double ceremony at which Mr. Young's brother was also married. Rev. Oliver Munroe conducted the ceremony.

Miss Miriam Marr was bridesmaid and Ernest Brown of Saco, Maine, best man.

Both couples will reside in Saco.

LOCAL TALENT IN HAVERHILL CONCERT

The advanced group of pupils of Celia M. Robinson, gave a concert in the Pentucket Club, Haverhill, Tuesday evening. Among the performers was a local young lady, Edna Louise Nutton, 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Nutton of Carisbrooke street, who played three very difficult numbers. Miss Nutton gave her first recital at the age of 5 and up through the years has studied diligently, and now at her present age was privileged to perform with the advanced group. Her interpretation and technique was outstanding, her brilliance of tone colors was very delightful, and thoroughly enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience. Her performance, however, was in keeping with her previous appearances before local audiences.

Miss Mary McNulty of North Main street is spending the summer in Burlington, Vt.

Relief Where Needed

There has been quite a bit of grumbling in town lately about the men who are picked to work on the W. P. A. It's human nature to feel that "the grass is always greener in the other fellow's yard," and many of those who have been unable to secure W. P. A. work are bitter against those who do, for they think themselves worse off than the favored ones and therefore more deserving of the work.

The pity of it is that often they are more needy, and the situation is made worse by the fact that the local authorities can do nothing about it, even when they know these people need the work more than those who are given it. The W. P. A. set-up should be changed so that politics cannot enter into the choice of any applicant. At present the selectmen as the board of welfare have to certify all those who they feel need work, and from those who are certified someone down in Boston who knows little about the applicants picks out the ones who shall be placed on the quota. A few weeks ago one young man started on the W. P. A. here in town, and boasted that he got the job through a politician down in Washington. Others who needed the work, others with large families—they didn't know so-and-so down in Washington, and so they have to keep on wondering where the next meal if any will come from.

Our board of selectmen know the people here in Andover; they know who needs work more than anyone sitting in an office down in Boston. All over the country the same situation exists. They've taken the administration of relief out of the hands of those who know the local conditions, and placed it in the hands of political appointees who, in order to hold their own jobs, have to do what the politician who appointed them wants them to. In some communities, even with local control, politics will still enter, but in most towns, including Andover, those who need work the most would be given it before others who might be better qualified in a Washington politician's eyes, but whose appointment would actually be taking food away from someone who needed it a good deal more.

Siftings

They've reduced the interest rate on unpaid taxes, so it costs you less not to pay your taxes now.

Now that you know the tax rate, will you spend as much on your vacation as you planned to?

The W. P. A. problem is: How get as much from the Federal government and spend as little of our own money as possible.

President Roosevelt says business is not as bad as some say. He's still getting his pay.

SON OF "VILLAGE BLACKSMITH" DIES

The funeral of T. Frank Tyler, 84, son of Longfellow's "Village Blacksmith," who died Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Perry of 37 Balmoral street, was held Monday, with Rev. C. Guy Robbins, D.D., of the Universalist church of Lawrence, conducting the services.

Laurence Bottomley sang two selections. Mr. Tyler was born in Bath, N. H., in 1854. He had made his home in Bradford and Lynn before retiring, and came to Andover six years ago. He was a life member of Mt. Carmel Lodge of Masons of Lynn and a charter member of Saugus Lodge K. of P. His father, Thaddeus Warson Tyler, was immortalized as the blacksmith in Longfellow's famous poem, and the hammer used by his father was highly prized by Mr. Tyler.

Besides his daughter, with whom he made his home, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Cora M. Hersey of Hollywood, Cal. Committal services were held in Pine Grove cemetery in Lynn by Dr. Robbins.

The bearers were: Fred Whitaker of Andover, Ernest Benedict of Lawrence, Ernest Slattery of Salem, and G. Chesley of Saugus.

Mrs. Ida Beach Brown

The funeral of Mrs. Ida Beach Brown, 66, wife of Ernest L. Brown, well-known resident of Winchester who died Sunday at the Ring sanatorium, Arlington, after a long illness, was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marian B. Gallo-way of 11 William street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Ernest A. Miller, Ph.D., of the Central Methodist Episcopal church of Lawrence, conducting the services. Mrs. Clara Taylor sang selections.

Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Gallo-way and Mrs. Albert B. Bascom of Wakefield.

Burial was in the family lot in Bellevue cemetery.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Proctor of Lakeside Farm, Lunenburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Louise, to Walter Frederic Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis of Sunny Ridge Farm, Lowell street.

Miss Proctor is a graduate of Massachusetts State College and for two years has been field secretary of the peace section of the American Friends Service Committee in the colleges of Illinois, Iowa, and South Dakota.

Mr. Lewis is a graduate of Essex Agricultural school and of Massachusetts State college. He is now the graduate assistant to the farm management specialist of Connecticut State college.

The wedding will take place in late July at Lunenburg.

Weddings

Patterson-Schneider

At a ceremony Monday morning at the Unitarian church in Lawrence, Miss Helen C. Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zock of Bellevue road, became the bride of Irving H. Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson of 10

Pleasant terrace, Lawrence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Herman F. Lion.

The bride was gowned in white embroidered net over black held with a black velvet girdle. She wore a white panama hat and a corsage of white roses and baby's breath.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Frank J. Coughlin, sister of the bride, wore rose lace with a natural leg-horn hat and a corsage of talisman roses.

Herbert H. Veit was the best man.

Planning Public Speaking Course

Classes directed to clear thinking, classes on clear, powerful speech—these Dr. Fuess hopes to institute within the next few years at Phillips academy, he told the alumni last Friday. He stated that in his recent trip to England he was impressed by the great influence graduates of the English schools have on public affairs, and depressed by his feeling that schools like Phillips academy in the United States do not make the contribution to public life that they should. We need more men to stand out against the influence of organized minority, he stated.

Something on the same line was the address given by the guest speaker, Dr. Charles C. Tillinghast, headmaster of the Horace Mann school in New York city. He stated that we are becoming too casual toward our heritage of freedom. He said it isn't wealth, inventive genius, resources, statesmanship that make our country great; it's the contributions poured back into the country by people who have come from it and who are willing to return that which they have received from it. He urged the graduates to protect the freedom which have made our country great, and not to lose sight of the individual.

Hugh McKennan Landon, retiring president, was toastmaster and he gave a lengthy talk on education before introducing the first speaker. The new president will be Charles W. Littlefield of New York City. Scott Paradise, Frederick E. Newton and George F. French were re-elected statistical secretary and treasurer respectively.

The oldest graduate present was Addison Robinson of Andover, class of 1869.

MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Turpen observed their fifteenth wedding anniversary Sunday, by entertaining a small group of friends at their apartment in The Aberdeen. Their daughters Claire and Raymonda were also present.

Monday afternoon Claire Turpin observed her eleventh birthday with a birthday party for thirteen of her young friends. Games were played and prizes given. Mrs. Herbert Cregg assisted Mrs. Turpen with the party. Among those present were Claire Turpen, Raymonda Turpen, Barbara Dean, Elizabeth Kurth, Madge Twomey, Mavis Twomey, Pauline Lewis, Marie Eastwood, Kathleen Eastwood, Shirley Gordon, Jean Batal, Alva Houston, and Raymond Simmers.

Mrs. George B. Petrie is attending the Clan auxiliary convention in Providence.

Andover Boys Win P.A. Honors

For years Andover boys at Phillips academy have been prominent scholastically at the annual graduation, and this year was no exception. Best upholder of the town's standards this June was John Abbott Lindsay, football-playing son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Lindsay. Not content with winning a $400 scholarship for Amherst and honorable mention for a Greek prize last Wednesday, he went on at the annual graduation last Friday and won the Fuller Gold Medal, awarded to the senior who has best exemplified and upheld in his life and work the ideals and traditions of the school. He was also among the Cum Laude graduates and was cited in the program for senior honors in two Greek courses and in Social Problems.

John Arthur Rogge helped make Ballardvale proud. Manager of the basketball team, he had already been awarded a scholarship of $500 each year for the next four years at Columbia. A member of Cum Laude he won senior honors in Calculus and in English.

Richard FitzHugh, now of Skull Valley, Arizona, but until recently of Morton street, won a senior honor in German. Other Andover boys who graduated were: Frank McClain Reinhart, Charles Henry Tower, James Edwards Trott who goes on to Harvard with the Harvard club's scholarship, Scott Van Schoick Walker, and Clarence Horsman Weeks, Jr.

There was a total of 182 in the graduating class which listened to the annual address given by Dr. Richard M. Gummere, chairman of the committee on admissions at Harvard and father of an academy teacher. Dr. Fuess presided, awarded the prizes and spoke a final word to the young men as students before they became alumni when Frederick T. Murphy of the trustees awarded them their diplomas.

Hold Last Junior High Graduation

In what is expected will be the last graduation exercises of the Junior high 141 students received certificates last Monday morning, with Chairman Frederick C. Smith presenting them. A special feature of the program was the presence of Mrs. Frank L. Nason of Boston, who is register general of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Nason came to present three medals for good citizenship, to Glenna Markert, Lucille Nollett and Frederick McDuffie, 2d.

In Mrs. Nason's presentation she said many interesting things to the winners. Members of Betsy Ross chapter, D. A. R., present at the exercises were: Mrs. Arthur S. Pfallister, regent; Mrs. Herbert E. McQuesten, vice-regent; Mrs. Henry A. Webster, treasurer; Mrs. Edward S. Gould and Mrs. Edward D. MacIntosh. Following the graduation the guests were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Gould.

"The Ballad" was the subject of the prose and music program which opened with a processional by the orchestra. Glenna Markert welcomed the parents and friends, and the invocation was given by the verse-speaking choir. Two essays were presented, "The Ballad" by Frederick McDuffie and "A National Ballad" by Margaret Kidd. The girls' and boys' choirs both favored with selections. Other features included: "Robin Hood and Friar Tuck," with Ben Cole and John Humphreys, the flag salute led by Philip Toohy, and a dramatization of "The Three Pirates," with the following in the cast: Russell Lord, William Beaulieu and James Carmichael as pirates, Lois Rollins, Nancy Smith and Sheila Ryan as the daughters, and Stafford Lindsay as the innkeeper.

The following who graduated had an average above 90:

Janet Carter, Russell H. Lord, Jr., Glenna Markert, Kathryn A. McCarthy, Frederick C. McDuffie, 2d, Dorothy Miller, Lucille Nollett, Barbara Pullen, and Eleanor Rafton.

Other graduates were: Henry Babicki, Irene Baduvas, Julie Barberian, William Beaulieu, Mary Bernard, Maurice Berube, Raymond Berube, Wright Bolton, Malvina Bourdelais, Octave Bourdelais, Helen Brickett, William Broderick, Harriet Broughton, Charles Bryant, Jr., Robert Burnham, Donald Burns, Kathleen Buss, Dorothy Campbell, Elizabeth Campbell, John Campbell, Jr., Helen Cargill, Helen Carmichael, James Carmichael, Ruth Cashman, Lincoln Clark, Benjamin Cole, Augustine Connolly, Barbara Corney, Robert Costello, Milton Craig, Helen Crockett, Mary Curtis, Dorothy Daley, Barbara Davis, Lawrence DeSalvo, James Deyermond, Isabelle Dobbie, William Doucette, Elizabeth Dow, Louise Dowd, Raymond Downs, Elizabeth Duff, Edith Dummells, Gordon Elliot, Jr., John Erving, Jr., Thelma Fairweather, Jessie Ferrier, Claire Flaherty, Benjamin Forbes, Jr., Constance Forsythe, Phillips Foster, Helen Gahn, Walter Gaily, Jr., Thomas Gauthier, James Green, William Gilman, Mary Godin, Fred Goebel, Jr., Marguerite Goodwin, Beatrice Greenwood, Jane Guild, Janet Guild, Priscilla Guild, Karl Harig, Jr., John Hendrick, Betty Howe, John Humphreys, Jr., Janice Hyland, Burton Jenkins, Charles Johnson, Katherine Johnson, Normie Johnson, Sherman Johnson, Nancy Jones, Charles Kearns, Warren Kearns, Margaret Kidd, Wilson Knipe, 3d, Mary Lacaille, Ernest Lakin, Charles Lawrence, Eileen Lawson, Kenneth Lewis, Edward Lindholm, Stafford Lindsay, Jr., William Loosigan, Lillian Lovely, Barbara Lyle, Albert Lynch, Helen MacMillan, David MacDonald, Jr., Ralph Manning, Doris Manthorn, Anne McCarthy, James McMahon, Marilyn Miller, William Morrissey, Vincent Nealey, Florence Nicoll, Joseph O'Neil, Sally O'Riordan, Dorothy Paine, Barbara Parker, Dorothy Parker, Henry Parsons, Joseph Payne, Julia Peterof, Priscilla Proctor, Kathleen Quill, Fred Rapisardi, Frances Reidy, Mary Ring, Francis Rockwell, Eleanor Rogge, Lois Rollins, Doris Rutter, Sheila Ryan, Charles Sawyer, Marjorie Smalley, Nancy Smith, Dorothy Souter, Gordon Stedman, Clifford Stowers, Frances Surette, Philip Toohy, Andrew Townsend, Martha Tyler, Edward Valentine, Eleanor Whalen, Alexander Winward, Malcolm Yaghmoorian, William Yancey.

To Hold Union Church Services

Union services will again be held this year by the South and Free churches, with the services in July and the first Sunday in August scheduled for the South church with Rev. Herman C. Johnson of the Free church in charge, and the August services in the Free church with Rev. Frederick B. Noss of the South church in charge. A communion service will be held Sunday, July 3.

RECENTLY MARRIED COUPLE HONORED

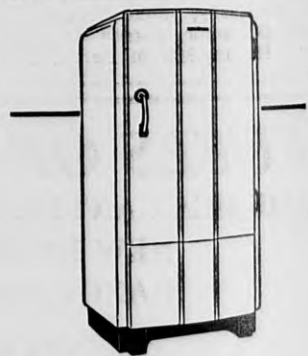

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chadwick were presented with a table lamp Thursday evening at the annual choir supper held at the Free church vestry. The couple were recently married, Mrs. Chadwick being the former Etta Brown. Rev. Herman C. Johnson made the presentation.

The following Woman's Alliance committee served the supper: Mrs. E. E. Perry, chairman; Miss Clara Baldwin, Mrs. Frank A. Buttrick, Mrs. George A. Carter, Mrs. David L. Coutts, Mrs. William H. Faulkner, Mrs. Frank Jamieson, Mrs. James MacMackin, and Mrs. Joshua Paine.

CHOIR PICNIC

The South church choir will hold its annual picnic this evening at Berry pond in the Harold Parker state forest.

Coming through are trustee Frederick Murphy and Treasurer James Sawyer, with retiring teachers John L. Phillips and Warren K. Moorehead right behind.

At side, top: Dr. John J. Hartigan, P. A. 1913, evidently being told a funny story about Roosevelt by—yes, it is John D. M. Hamilton, also P. A. 1913, who piloted Alf Landon's campaign in 1936 to a great victory—in Maine and Vermont.

At side, next below: two of the old graduates as they marched in the procession: John Manning of Porter road, and Arthur W. Cole of Haverford, Pa., bearing the standard of 1873. Oldest alumnus returning was Addison Robinson of Elm street. He was 1869, or 69 years out!

who were present at the awarding of the Good Citizenship Medals to three Junior High students Monday. In the rear are Mrs. Henry Webster and Mrs. Edward S. Gould. In the front are Mrs. Herbert McQuesten, vice-regent of Betsy Ross chapter; Mrs. Arthur S. Pallister, regent; and Mrs. Frank L. Nason, registrar-general of the National society of the D. A. R., who awarded the medals.

Bottom, center: Everilda Collins received her diploma from St. Augustine's school Sunday in the Barr sanitarium, where she had been operated on for appendicitis the preceding Tuesday. She also received a prize for effort. But she couldn't be in the class picture taken on the steps of the church, so we went right over there and snapped her well on the road to recovery.

Enjoy Week-end at Camp Onway

The Margaret Slattery class of the Free church spent an enjoyable week-end at Camp Onway, Raymond, N. H., with some leaving Friday and the rest on Saturday. Swimming, boating and other outdoor sports were enjoyed. On Sunday Mrs. Dana W. Clark conducted services.

Those attending were: Mrs. Clark, Isabel MacKenzie, Mrs. Marion Pearson, Ann Hogan, Margaret Neil, Ethel Wessell, Bertha Wessell, Mrs. Mae Reynolds, Grace Lake, Barbara Cameron, Janet Barwell, Mrs. Sadie Denholm, Mrs. Annie MacDonald, Mrs. Sarah White, Mrs. Marie Souter, Mrs. Nellie Doherty, Mrs. Edna Woodhead, Emma Stevens, Ruth Napier, Frances Jamieson, Miriam Marr, Jean Cullity, Mrs. Daisy Gorrie, Jean Cuthbert, Eleanor Gorrie, Anna White, Ruby Laurie, Isabel MacLaren, Martha Thompson and Margaret Laurie.

Alumni Honor Retiring Teachers

A sincere tribute was paid last Friday at the annual academy alumni banquet to the three retiring faculty members: Allen R. Benner, John L. Phillips and Warren King Moorehead. Each of them was presented with a silver bowl engraved with the academy seal, but what must have been most warming to their hearts was the alumni's cheer for "Zeus," "Jackie" and "Warren." Horace M. Poynter, L. D. Peterkin and Douglas Byers presented the three bowls, with appropriate remarks. Dr. Claude M. Fuess in his annual address also paid them tribute.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Abbott observed the 56th anniversary of their wedding yesterday.

Legion Holds Up Decision on Move

No definite decision has been made by the Legion yet on the selectmen's suggestion that they change their quarters to the publicly-owned Richardson school from the present rented quarters in the Barnard block. The town pays $600 annually for rent for this purpose and also $480 for rent for the V. F. W. quarters in the Musgrove building.

At the Legion meeting last Thursday there was some opposition to being away from the center of the town, but the main hold-up came on the question of whether the town or the post would pay for the maintenance of the rooms. The question will be discussed later when more information is at hand. Some Shawsheen Villagers are against the proposition, feeling that the building was renovated for Shawsheen community purposes. One room is at present ready for playground use, and there are two other large classrooms.

SODALITY PICNIC

The Young Ladies' sodality of St. Augustine's church held an enjoyable picnic at Berry's pond Tuesday evening, with Father Smith in charge. Those attending were: Josephine Hurley, Margaret Carroll, Mary Harkin, Mary Darby, Marion Connolly, Bernardine Barrett, Mary McNulty, Margaret Reilly, Mary Collins, Eleanor Raidy, Flora Raidy and Margaret Laverty.

Births

A son, last Thursday, at the Barr Sanatorium to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Andrews of 52 Haverhill street, Shawsheen.

TO REPRESENT POST

Commander Stafford A. Lindsay and Thomas P. Dea will represent the Andover Legion post at the state convention in Worcester in August. Alternates will be Harold L. Peters and H. Garrison Holt.
