Still Investigating Damage at School

Considerable mystery still enshrouds the damage done at the Central schools by youngsters, presumably last week. A number of boys have been apprehended who admit to the destroying of light globes and doing other damage in the Stowe school, but the playground children claim that most of the windows broken in the boiler house and grammar schools were broken a week ago Sunday. The boys who have been caught will be asked to work out the cost of the damage by assisting the janitors in certain jobs at the school. They deny the window-breaking.

Monday night a meeting of the playground committee, school board sub-committee on buildings and grounds, and the selectmen was held at the town house to discuss the situation. It was agreed that the boys should work out the damage, and also that playground instructors should remain on the job until all the children have left the grounds.

Annual Pet Show Tomorrow Night

The annual pet shows will be held at all three playgrounds tomorrow night, with the Shawsheen village playground also running the twice-postponed amateur show at the same time.

Tournaments will close on Friday, August 12. The annual playground outing will be held next Wednesday, the tenth, at Canobie Lake. Buses will leave the three playgrounds at about 10:15, returning about 3:30. Children under seven must be accompanied by an adult. Tickets are 25 cents, round trip. Children must provide lunch.

New Officer Catches Five Escaped Boys

Officer George Dufton, one of the civil service appointees doing substitute duty this summer, underwent an initiation on Tuesday morning, and when he had finished his fellow officers and superiors realized that they had an A-1 police officer in the new addition to the force.

When you catch one boy who has escaped from the Essex County Training school, you've done a good piece of work. When you catch five in one morning, you've done a marvelous piece of work. That's what Dufton did Tuesday morning, caught five boys in an hour or so, jumping over walls, scrambling through barbed wire, dashing down roads, over railroad tracks, through bushes, and even jumping full-clad into the river.

He was accompanied on his expedition by Officer Frank McBride, who led the way by catching the first of six escaped boys and then cruised around as Dufton returned one after the other to the car. The graphic description of the chase is contained in McBride's account taken from the police log:

"At 2:50 a. m. Sergeant Saunders was informed in the Square by two officers from the Essex County Training School that six boys had escaped from that school. The sergeant detailed me to be on the look out as he feared the boys might make a break. With officer Dufton we kept all the streets well covered during the morning.

"On one of many visits to the depot at 6:15 a. m. Pat Hession, gate-tender, who had been asked to watch the track, informed me some boys were down the track by the coal yards. I returned to the square and got officer Dufton and went back to the crossing. Taking up a position in back of the shanty, we waited for the boys.

Fires Lighted in New Boiler

Fires were lighted in the new boiler at the pumping station on Tuesday, in order to dry it out. The Board of Public Works inspected it Tuesday night and found everything satisfactory and ready to operate.

The year's delay in authorizing the installation has saved the town considerable money, since the figure given a year ago was $13,000 for one boiler. The present boiler was put in for less than $8,000.

The old pump as authorized at town meeting has been junked, sold and removed, and the money from its sale has been used to re-finish the floor at the station.

Make Changes in Precinct Officers

A few changes have been made by the selectmen in the list of precinct officers this year. Percy Holt has been moved from Precinct six to precinct two, taking the place of school bus-driver Chester Abbott in two. Carl Lindsay has been appointed to Holt's place in six. Fireman Gordon Coutts has resigned in two, and his place will be filled by Carl Wetterberg. Joseph Comber has been appointed to precinct five, to take the place of William Bonner, who has moved out of the precinct.

Lightning Hits Young Man

George Flint, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Flint of Bailey road, had his slumbers disturbed last Friday morning, when a bolt of lightning shot along the electric wires through the window panes in his room. Some of the flying glass landed in his bed, one piece against his arm, and in all probability he received a slight shock in the same arm, for it was numb the next morning.

It wasn't the first experience with lightning that the Flint family has had. Back on August 23, 1930, a fine large tree in the front yard was struck, and today a little sapling stands in its place. Years before Bill Flint was stunned by a bolt while he was driving his horse to Lowell, and the horse was more stunned than Bill.

FIELD DAY SATURDAY

The Free church Field Day at the cricket field Saturday will start about 1:30.

G O P Candidates to Speak Tonight

Several candidates for Republican nominations will speak tonight at a meeting of the Young Republican club to be held in the Male Choir rooms in the National Bank building at 7:30.

The principal speaker will be county commissioner and moderator Fred Butler, first Andover and first Essex county candidate for governor in many years. To date the strongest opposition Fred seems to have comes from Leverett Saltonstall, unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant-governor two years ago. Fred has been active in the past two biennial campaigns, having been manager for Gaspar Bacon for governor four years ago and having been chairman of the Republican state convention two years ago, in the days before the pre-primary law was repealed. It was he who two years ago finally untangled the Haigis-Saltonstall deadlock at the convention, with Haigis being nominated governor and Saltonstall lieutenant-governor.

Horace Cahill, candidate for lieutenant-governor, and a prominent figure in the present governor-legislature tangle, will also speak tonight. G. Hudson Driver, register of deeds by appointment who is seeking election, will be on the program, as will state senator Frank D. Babcock, unopposed for the Republican nomination. Paul A. L'Antigua, candidate for representative, has signified his intention of speaking.

Gauthier Wins Tennis Title

Warren Gauthier, runner-up last year, won the Greater Lawrence Junior tennis title at Balmoral tennis courts yesterday afternoon, defeating Gerald Lenane 6-4, 6-0. Although Lenane did most of the forcing, Gauthier outsteaded him. Lenane was runner-up in 1935.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Established 1887

Published on Thursday at Smith & Coutts Co., 4 Park Street, Andover, Mass., by Elmer J. Grover.

Entered at the Andover Postoffice as Second Class Matter

Too Many Bosses

High overhead, especially the presence of too many salaried employees, has been responsible for the ruining of many a business, as everyone knows. Government, however, can't be very well ruined, and for that reason the constant growth of the town salary list escapes unnoticed. Property-owners can be ruined, though; it is up to them to find out if Andover has too many bosses for its employees.

On the usual private construction job, there are very few non-working bosses. Even up at the academy when large gangs of men were working on the grounds in the summer, there was just one superintendent and just one foreman, and the latter even worked at times. But with our public works department, there is quite a different story. On a recent payroll there were 27 part-time men and 18 so-called "regulars." Of the 18, there were 11 who received a higher rate of pay than the 56 1/4 cent rate for the workers. Some of these were justified, of course, as the superintendent, the steam-roller engineer, etc., but a good many of them were not justified. For a group of 45 men you don't need a superintendent, an assistant superintendent, plus several non-working bosses. It's not an uncommon sight to see four men loading a truck, with one man supervising. It is claimed that these men on the B. P. W. are better workers than other men, including the W. P. A. workers. If so, does their every move demand close supervision? Wouldn't they really know enough to move up to the next manhole, or along the street to a place where the snow had heaped up, without having to have someone stand there and tell them to do it? Of course they would. A good many of them, mainly those who haven't been on the force so long that they think they can do anything they want, are really good workers who don't have too much respect for some of the actions of some of their bosses. They are there to give the town a good day's work; they are willing to give the town its money's worth, and they don't need a bunch of well-entrenched foremen to guide them.

Siftings

The present legislative-gubernatorial squabble is not so much to provide money for work for the unemployed as to provide money for the votes of the unemployed.

Don't know but what that rain wasn't so bad after all.

Do you suppose the microphones will be working at the special town meeting?

The Very Rev. John Williamson of Trinity Cathedral, Little Rock, Arkansas, will conduct the services at Christ church during August.

Amateurs Perform at Playgrounds

Major Bowes' Amateur program is reputed to be "The Original Amateur Hour." The annual Andover playground amateur hour is not "The original" but it is original.

The youngsters gave an excellent variety program last Thursday evening, with the popular applause of the children determining the winners. At the Central Playground, for children under twelve, the winners were: Kenneth Tomlinson, first; Charles Waldie, second; Mary Young and Zita Surette, tied for third. In the group over twelve the following won: Jessie Ferrier, first; Cornelia Yancey, second.

Those taking part in the program were: William Morgan, song, "The Moon Got in My Eyes"; Irene Shorten, song, "My Little Lady Make Believe"; Thomas Garvey, recitation, "Oh"; Marjorie Thompson, Alice Surette, Joan Lefebvre, Alexander Stewart and Marjorie Davis who appeared in a playlet, "The Three Little Pigs and the Big Bad Wolf"; Anne and Constance Burns song, "The Birds"; Kathleen Lefebvre, Claire Lefebvre, Warren Davis, Ruth MacLachlan, Sheila Ronan and Betty Bragg in the playlet, "The Three Bears."

Kenneth Tomlinson, song, "Harbor Light"; Charles Waldie, song, "The One Rose"; Mary Young, song, "The Old Straw Hat"; Zita Surette, reading, "Rheumatiz"; Jessie Ferrier, song, "My Little Lady Make Believe"; Cornelia Yancey, tap dance and song, "Cowboy from Brooklyn."

At the Vale the winners were: Children under 12 years: First, Clifford Lawrence; second, Harriett Schofield; third, James Abbott.

Over 12 years of age: First, Geraldine Dunn and Virginia Lowry; second, John Miller; third, Ada Welsh.

The program: Song, "I Once Had a Dear Old Mother," Virginia Lawrence; solo, "In a Little Gypsy Tea

Speeders Fined in Local Court

No speed traps have been held in Andover this week, and none are contemplated for the immediate future. Traffic on Main street has slowed down considerably, officials report, and the chances are that if any further traps are held, they will be run for a while at the corner of Stevens street and North Main street at the foot of the hill.

Some of the more serious results of last week's traps were seen yesterday and today. Yesterday morning Judge Joseph Haddedon held sway at the local court room, and nine fines of five dollars each were levied, these being cases more serious than the many who merely received warnings. Seven were for speeding, one for operating to the left of the way, and one for unnecessary noise. Several different officers made the complaints.

This morning more were scheduled to appear in Lawrence District court, these being the most serious offenders.

DESTROY GOAL POSTS AT FIELD

Cement goal posts erected at the old cricket field for the annual Free church Field Day to be held Saturday, have been destroyed by vandals, the Board of Public Works reported yesterday to the police.

School Secretary Miss Shawsheen

Andover's "Miss Andover" and "Miss Shawsheen Village" contests of the last two years have been conspicuous by their misses. Last year Miss Andover came from Haverhill. The first Miss Andover did come from Andover, and though worthy of the title, she was a Mrs.

Last Thursday night they tried again on "Miss Shawsheen Village," at the Balmoral Gardens and this time they did something very unusual: conferred the title on a "Miss" and on a Shawsheen villager. The trouble in other contests has been that the judges were all from Andover, and didn't show the loyalty to Andover talent that they should. This time the judges also failed to appreciate home talent, but their homes were in Hamilton and Medford respectively.

The young lady who won the honor this year lends honor to the title. It was Miss Evelyn Rutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Rutter of Carlisle street, the popular secretary to junior high principal Kenneth L. Sherman. No one disputed her claim to the title; no one could. There was a large field of entrants selected by the judges from the general dancing, and gradually they were weeded out until only Miss Rutter, squired by Roger Whitcomb, remained on the floor. Included among the contestants was Lucille Guilmette, the young lady who last year won the non-resident title.

Approve Transfer to Pond Committee

A transfer of $300 from the reserve fund was approved by the finance committee at a joint meeting with the Poms pond committee. The toilet system, badly in need of repairs, will be immediately attended to at the pond, and the wharf and other equipment, damaged in the heavy rains, will also be repaired.

Marks 98th Birthday

Mrs. Feronia Carpenter

Mrs. Feronia Carpenter, widow of the first editor of the Townsman, last Thursday edged one more year nearer the century mark as she celebrated her 98th birthday at her home on Morton street. Mrs. Carpenter is the oldest resident of the town.

church, Rev. Henry B. Smith, O. S.
A., officiated. The bride is the daughter of John Stack of 20 Summer street, and the sister of Miss Alice and Miss Eunice Stack, local grammar school teachers.

The bride wore a beige travelling costume with accessories of cinnamon brown. Her corsage was of talisman roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Stack, wore a delphinium blue crepe dress, redingote style, with navy blue accessories, and she wore a corsage of pink roses and blue larkspur.

James Cronin, a brother of the groom, was best man.

Mr. Cronin, who is the son of James Cronin of Bradford, is a pro-jectionist with the Paramount corporation. The couple will live at ton street and Edward Rice, son of James Rice of Cambridge, were united in marriage Monday morning at a nuptial mass in St. Augustine's church, Very Rev. William J.

McGarry, S. J., a cousin of the bride, officiated.

Legion Juniors End
Inauspicious Season

The Andover Legion Juniors' season petered out last Thursday night with a 2-1 defeat at the hands of the Lynn Legion Juniors. The setback confirmed the local team's position at the bottom of the heap, with but three wins the whole season. However, a number of the games were close decisions.

Bishop was the only local player to make a hit last Thursday, his double in the third scoring White for the only local run. Andover went out in order in three of the five innings. Warren Deyermond allowed but three hits, but one of them accounted for two runs after two men had reached on a walk and a wild throw.

MALE CHOIR PARTY

The Male Choir will hold a card party next Wednesday afternoon at the home of director and Mrs.

Rees-Comeau

A wedding of local interest took place last Saturday morning in St. Anne's church, Lawrence, when Miss Irene L. Comeau of 295 No. Main street, Shawsheen, became the bride of Francis E. Rees of 22 Glen road, Reading. Rev. Father A. F. Fournier presided at the nuptial mass, and the wedding music was played by D. Dubois.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Comeau of 1253 River street, Haverhill, was given in marriage by her brother, Eugene Comeau of New York City. She was charming in an old fashioned gown of white net, cut en train. Her three tier finger tip veil of white illusion was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms and she carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Mary Comeau, a sister of the bride, was dressed in an empire gown of yellow chiffon, and her circular veil was held by a braided coronet of blue and yellow. Her bouquet was made up of yellow tea roses and deep blue bachelor's buttons.

The best man was Arthur Rees of Reading. A wedding reception for about 60 people was held at Balmoral Hall. After a White Mountains honeymoon the couple will live at 295 No. Main street.

HAVERTHILL DOLLAR DAYS NEXT WEEK

The semi-annual merchandising event, Haverhill Dollar Days, is announced by L. Atwood, Chairman of the Dollar Days Committee, for Friday and Saturday, August 12 and 13.

These Dollar Days have become recognized as the outstanding bargain days of the year, and this year will be no exception. In fact, the Haverhill merchants have had Dollar Days in mind for several months and have made their merchandise commitments accordingly, thus securing the lowest prices for several years—which savings will in turn be passed on to the shoppers on these two days.

The official Dollar Day stores will be recognized by the orange and black pennants displayed in their windows, and shoppers are urged to patronize these stores for protection as well as profit. This sale will have special significance as it will undoubtedly be the last opportunity, before the anticipated price advance, for the shoppers to secure such remarkable values at such exceptionally low prices.

Much interest is being manifested in the special gift awards as hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise will be given to the holders of the lucky gift award coupons. These coupons can be obtained at any of the official Dollar Days stores on these two days.

Shoppers visiting Haverhill for this sales event may park their cars as long as necessary except near hydrants, in bus stops, on cross walks or other restricted areas, through the co-operation of Marshall Lynch of the Haverhill Police Department.

British War Veterans to Conduct Picnic

The annual picnic of the British War Veterans will be held on Sunday, August 14, at Millville Lake, Salem, N. H. Transportation will be provided, with buses leaving the square at 10:30.

The committee is headed by John Wynton and he is assisted by George Addison, Harry Bland, William Cargill, Peter Doherty, Charles Fettes, George Mitchell and Alexander MacLaughlin.

BRITISH VETS TO MEET

The British War Veterans will meet tomorrow night instead of next Friday night as previously scheduled.

CATCHES FIVE BOYS

catching Egan on Essex street and Dufton was right after Osgood. The others went across the tracks, headed for the back of the rubber shop. I put Egan in the car and then followed down Essex street. Osgood was giving Dufton a hard run as I overtook then on Red Spring road hill.

"As I passed Osgood he jumped the fence and headed for the river with Dufton still a few yards behind. In a few minutes officer Dufton returned to the cruiser with Osgood in his possession.

"We returned to Railroad street and after another lively chase Dufton succeeded in catching Dickinson and returned him to the car. Cauley was spotted next and his pace was slowed considerable after a jump of about ten feet from a wall. Dufton returned him to the car.

Into the River

"We had four and two to go.

"We continued to cruise and when on Stevens street we spotted a white shirt in the thick brush back of the rubber shop near Marland's coal shed. I drove into the shed, and officer Dufton was off. The speedy Brady outran George, but met his Waterloo when he tried to outswim Dufton. Brady met a barbed wire fence in his way, then turned right and headed for the river. He hesitated, then dropped in and was about to swim the river when George had him under control.

"They were a pair of very wet boys that returned to the cruiser.

"Why stop with only one to go and what proved later to be the ringleader, a very cunning boy? George, in making a further search in back of the shop, spotted Corey. A barbed-wire fence soon stopped his progress and a wonderful chase was ended when George returned his fifth culprit to the police court."

What You and Your Neighbors Were Doing in Days Gone By

Fifty Years Ago

The reasons for a Prohibition Party are clearly and strongly given in an article written for the Townsman by Rev. Varnum Lincoln.

Town clerk Putnam distributed the tax bills in the vicinity of the office on Wednesday, August 1, and Robert Callahan has since taken them through the rest of the Center district. The West and South districts will have to be patient till next week.

Frank O. Baldwin, sometime principal of the Lynn High school and later Superintendent of Schools in that city, has been elected principal of the Punchard Free school.

A Cleveland and Thurman flag is to be spread to the Andover breeze this evening. A meeting will be held at the Town Hall, to be addressed by Josiah Quincy and others on the "Tariff."

Commissioner Hayward has just begun repairing Elm street, putting in a solid stone foundation; a covering of Red Spring gravel makes a complete job.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Mrs. Dana Clark of Claremont, N. H., has been spending a few days at the home of her father on Maple avenue.

Dr. A. E. Hulme and family are enjoying two weeks at the Iduna, York Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cook and son Rowland arrive next week at the home of Adam Lindsay for the remainder of the summer.

Rev. Mr. Shipman will not reconsider his resignation as pastor of the South Church.

Clarence Auty, P. A. '13, has been granted a scholarship to M. I. T.

The lunch cart, several drunks and the night police officers figured in another Saturday night brawl last week in which Chief Smith was attacked and struck by one of the crowd. Two arrests were made.

A son, Russell Wright, was born on Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudon of High street.

John Hurley of Harding Street suffered a compound fracture of the wrist while at work Wednesday, making repairs at the Andover Steam Laundry.

Ten Years Ago

The Misses Sweeney of Florence street are enjoying a two weeks' motor trip over the Mohawk Trail and through New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Abbott and daughter, Miss Lucy B. Abbott, left town on Friday en route to San Francisco where they will visit their son, James H. Abbott.

B. Frank Hatch and family of High street, Ballardvale, will move next week to Haverhill street.

Miss Grace Warren of Lincoln, Nebraska, has returned home after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pitman of Summer street.

Miss Agnes Dugan of Maple Avenue, a teacher in the Methuen High school, is taking a course in high school commercial curricula at the Harvard Summer school.
