Abbot Alumnae Return For Annual June Festivities

A morning chapel service, afternoon business meeting and evening banquet occupied the attention of many Abbot Alumnae last Saturday. The president, Mrs. Mildred Frost Eaton of Andover, presided at the various functions.

Miss Julia Twichell, recently retired assistant librarian at Memorial Hall and a former president of the Alumnae association, offered the prayer at the chapel service, with Miss Evelyn Bailey playing the hymns.

Miss Twichell was one of the two members of the 60 year class returning, the other being Miss Amy Learoyd of Danvers. Mrs. Sarah Hunking Cheney, 1866, was the oldest alumnae returning. With her from Haverhill was Miss Lydia C. Noyes, 1880. Miss Caroline Bronson, until recently principal of her own private school in Providence, represented the class of 1883.

The class of 1889 held its 50th reunion with the following members present: Mrs. Ellis Emerson, Titusville, Pa.; Mrs. Evelena Franch Anderson of West Somerville; Mrs. Martha Hart Moore, New Britain, Conn.; Mrs. Mary B. Hutchings, Brewer, Maine; Mrs. Edith Jackson Lewis, Pelham Manor, N. Y.; Miss E. Kathleen Jones of Boston; Mrs. Alice Joy Arms of Groton, Mrs. Lizzie Ryder

A class of 36 girls, four of them from Andover, graduated from Abbot academy at the annual exercises held at the South church on Monday morning. The Commencement festivities had started the previous Friday night with the traditional folk dancing and step singing. Saturday the graduates-to-be were welcomed into the alumnae association, with the Draper Dramatics in the evening centered on the theme: "The Women Have Their Way."

On Sunday the girls, their parents and the alumnae heard an outstanding Baccalaureate address by the Rev. Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, President of Union Theological Seminary. In the evening the annual Commencement concert was held.

Taste, Color Of Water Cause Of Many Complaints

Many complaints have been received lately by the health and public works authorities about the condition of the town water. Some complaints have concerned themselves with the color of the water, others with the taste. A check-up is now under way.

P. T. A. BANQUET

Tonight the annual banquet of the Vale Parent-Teacher association will be held in the Bradlee school at 6:30. Guests may be invited by the members.

An interesting program will follow the banquet. Elections of officers will also take place.

Again Refuse To Change Minds On Closing Of School

The school board, with recourse to Roberts' Parliamentary rules, wrote "finis" for this year to the North School controversy when it refused to reconsider the closing of the school after hearing a delegation from the district. Following the action the book of rules was looked into, and it was found that having once this year been reconsidered, further reconsideration was not Parliamentarily possible.

A number of new appointments were made during the evening. The resignation of Miss Madeleine Kimball, soon-to-be-married domestic science teacher, was accepted with regret as was that of Miss Wilma

Punchard Wins Valley Championship

The Punchard baseball team won the Merrimack Valley Suburban league championship yesterday by defeating Methuen 7 to 5. The result was in doubt until Tom Noyes caught a line drive with two on, for the final out. Captain Doug Howe held the visitors in check, despite infield errors and frequent passes. Proctor led the attack with three hits, and McLaughlan, Lindsay and Allerruzo made two each.

A defeat would have dropped Punchard into a four way tie with Methuen, Johnson and Chelmsford. By getting away to a five run lead in the second, Punchard was able to relax slightly. Going into the ninth four runs behind, Boehm singled for Methuen, Fleming tripled, scoring Boehm, and Ralph sacrificed the second run home. Ball strolled, and Pollard reached on an error. With the tying run on, Noyes took two line drives to end the strain.

Last Friday afternoon Punchard won their second game from Johnson 7 to 5. The Andover team was forced to come from behind to make up for a three run deficit caused by loose fielding.

Noyes made three hits, while Howe, McLaughlan and Lindsay made two each. Johnson had the tying runs on base in the ninth, but Burnham made a fine stop and throw for the final out.

Next week the Townsman will print the Townsportsman's Valley league All-Star team for the season.

Mrs. Gilbert's reunion is especially interesting as her daughter, Mrs. Helen Gilbert Rich of Staten Island, N. Y., celebrated her 25th reunion, and her granddaughter Barbara Bellows is a member of the graduating class. Mrs. Bellows (Dorothy Gilbert) is an Abbot graduate of the class of 1915.

Business Session

Greetings were sent from the annual meeting to Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis Smith, 1860, senior alumna of Andover.

The reports of officers and committees were made

Mrs. Eaton then announced the election by the board of trustees of the new Alumna trustee, Mrs. Pelly Bullard Holden, '24, of Danville, Vt., for a term of six years.

Announcement was also made that the living room in the new dormitory is to be named the Kelsey-Mason room in honor of Miss Katherine Kelsey and Miss Nellie Mason. For many years both taught at Abbot, Miss Kelsey as head of the Mathematics department and at one time acting principal, and Miss Mason, teacher of science. Their home in Andover is the mecca at all times of returning alumnae.

An alumnae guest room in the new dormitory is being furnished by alumnae gifts in memory of Alice Carter Twitchell, 1886, for ten years Director of the Loyalty Endowment Fund.

The meeting adjourned and tea was served in the John Esther Art Gallery. Much interest was shown in the exhibition and sale of Alumnae handcraft, part proceeds of which are donated to the second century building fund.

Alumnae Banquet

The annual Alumnae banquet was held at the Andover Country club Saturday evening with 147 present.

At the close of the banquet, Miss Hearsey made a short address, followed by a surprise entertainment entitled "Madam Abbot Returns," written by Mrs. Helen Danforth Prudden, '13. Those who took part were: Madam Abbot, Mrs. Eaton; Girl of '38, Barbara Reinhart; '79 Miss Kate Jenkins; '34, Miss Margaret Morrill; '99, Mrs. Mary Marand Littleton; '29, Mrs. Polly Frances Loesch; '89, Miss Flora Mason; Second century girl, Charlotte Skinner, '39; Girl of '09, Miss Sarah Knox; 1904, Miss Mary Byers Smith; 1919, Mrs. Catherine Coe Taylor; 1914, Mrs. Helen Hamblet

WHY OWN LESS THAN AN EIGHT?

ALL "fine cars" have 8 or more cylinders—many "fine cars" have V-type engines. Ford is the only low-priced car with both these great engine advantages! And in Ford V-8, you pay no more for these fine-car features! Why limit yourself to a "six"—why take less than Ford V-8 offers you?

Why take less than FORD V-8 PERFORMANCE?

Only Ford in the low-price field gives you the smooth power of an 85 H.P. V-8 engine. Ford V-8 placed 1-2-3 in the grueling 4515 South American Grand Prize road race this year—a Ford-built Mercury 8 won first place and Ford V-8's took all other prizes in this year's Daytona Beach Road Race! Proof of speed, stamina, power!

Why take less than FORD V-8 ECONOMY?

Ford V-8 cylinders are eight for smoothness—small for economy! Last January, in the famous 315 mile Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run, an 85 H.P. Ford V-8 gave best gas mileage of all leading low-price cars.

Why take less than ALL THESE FEATURES?

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Established 1887

Published on Thursday at Smith & Coutts Co., 4 Park Street, Andover, Mass., by Elmer J. Grover.
Entered at the Andover Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

Our Public Dump

These very pleasant days make some very unpleasant things much more unpleasant. If the annual town meeting were held in June every year, something certainly would be done about the public dump.

Down on High street at present there has been a home development in progress, and the town's spending some money on a new sidewalk via the W. P. A. But what will the sidewalk lead you to? The dump. You'll know it's there long before you get there, and it will linger with you after you pass it. It's not a nice thing to smell and it's not a nice thing to see. Even if you were blind, it would still be an eyesore because some ashes would probably blow into your eyes as you pass. In fact, they've been blowing over into Carmel woods for years, even despite the high wire fence erected there.

There was a day when Carmel woods was a very attractive place; that day may return if something is done about the dump. At one end of the woods is the Town Infirmary which is becoming more and more a convalescent home, a real credit to the town. It would be just as well if there were nothing dumped near there, either at the dump or on the way to the dump, for so many people carry bags of garbage and rubbish to the dump and find that somehow or other they fall at the roadside before they are anywhere near their destination.

Some definite plan should be forthcoming soon on better methods of rubbish disposal.

No umbrellas are needed for the showers that have been pouring down on the many local brides and brides-to-be. Mary Beer of Summer street was tendered a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederickson, formerly of Andover, now of Malden, last Saturday evening. She received several lovely gifts and a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Mary Beer, George Fish, Elizabeth Beer, John McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Ann Marr, Charles McCarthy, Isabelle Batchelder, Eleanor Daly, and Ann Beer.

Other couples who will be listening to strains of Mendelssohn very soon are Madeleine Kimball and Paul P. Simeone, Katherine Hurley and Clarence Buckley, Wilma Corliss and Hartwell Abbott, and Margaret Stott, bookkeeper at the Andover National Bank, and Kenneth Stevenson. The latter couple are from North Andover and will reside in Andover after their marriage.

Everyone is buzzing about the new Beehive Bakery that opened at 3 Barnard street last Thursday. If you are already familiar with J. B. Blood's products, you will agree that they are as delicious as home-made. If you have never tasted them, Mrs. Stanley Lane and Mrs. John Erving, who have charge of the shop, invite you to come in and sample some of their very special cakes.

It's difficult to be a femme fatale in the summer months when there are so many hazards to dramatic coiffures and loose waves. Paris suggests the five-inch or three-inch cut with "little girl" curls that are interesting as well as youthful and at Madame Yvonne's Beauty Salon, 575A Essex street, Lawrence, you will be sure of getting the very newest styles plus the individual touch that is characteristic of Madame Yvonne's work. She advises light make-up accenting the natural contours of the face as a perfect complement to short curls. You will be delighted to find that glamour doesn't vanish with the adoption of simplicity.

Greeks may not have had a word for it but Ruskin did. His words, reprinted on the title page of the International Institute Cook Book, describe the contents as appropriately as if that had been his original purpose. Especially when he says, "It means the economy of your great-grandmother and the science of modern chemists; it means much tasting and no wasting; it means English thoroughness, French art and Arabian hospitality."

Favorite recipes, carefully selected from kitchens of all nationalities, have been tried and proven too delicious to be included in the ordinary book. So the International Institute printed the collection entirely by hand and added pertinent sketches, also hand done. Miss Peabody has the book in her window opened to an illustration of a bagpipe-blowing Scotchman who is accompanied by some choice recipes all the way from the Highlands.

Now for sale at The Peabody Book Shop for two dollars, you will want to buy one for yourself and one for a gift to the bride.

There aren't any wasteful left-overs when you serve home-cooked products from Bob's Bakery. Made in their sanitary kitchen on South

Broadway by Bob himself, each pure and wholesome dessert makes a perfect ending to a perfect meal. Even the crumbs disappear.

Frosty white wedding cakes are in particular demand this month, especially when they come from Bob's. If you can resist the temptation to eat your piece, you will see that it really is something to dream over.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold W. Henry of Gardner, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to Howard McKeen Cutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cutler of Andover.

Fifteen-Year-Old Valedictorian Pianist

Entertains Club

The Andover Musicians' Club held its final meeting of the year on Wednesday evening with Mrs. Roy Spencer, 21 Phillips street. The program was furnished by Miss Virginia Parker, a fifteen-year-old girl from Billerica, who gave a delightful hour of piano music. Her selections included representative works of the finest masters of piano composition and were rendered with a technique which many a more seasoned pianist might well envy. Miss Parker is very definitely endowed with unusual talent if not with genius. She is a pupil of William C. Heller of Providence and Lowell. That she is gifted in other ways too is evident from the fact that she is graduating this June from the high school in Billerica as valedictorian of her class, having completed the customary four year course in three years.

The meeting concluded with a discussion of plans for next year and it was decided to reduce the number of meetings from eight to four. Miss Kate Friskin of the Abbot academy faculty will be in charge of the programs and an extremely interesting season is anticipated.

Plans are rapidly going ahead for the annual Pynchard Alumni banquet to be held June 22. In addition to the banquet and the usual reunion festivities, there will be a short entertainment. A main feature for the second year running will be the absence of speakers.

Even the committee changed itself a bit. The change was not made originally because Mr. Smith did not feel that Mr. Houston as a

Legion - G. A. R. Banner To Be Presented School

The historic old flag which was presented at the Welcome Home celebration on September 6, 1919, to the American Legion by the Grand Army of the Republic will be given to the Junior High school next Wednesday, Flag Day. Commander Thomas Dea will make the presentation.

Back in the immediate post-war days, Commander Philip W. Thomson of the new Legion post accepted the flag from Comrade E. Kendall Jenkins of the Grand Army, with these words: "Perhaps the very best token of appreciation and thanks that we can give to all of you today is to say to everyone here that the American Legion throughout the length and breadth of this land has taken it upon itself to guard that flag—even as you of the Grand Army have guarded it."

Evelyn Mayer Belcher, daughter of Mrs. Charles Mayer of Salem street, has accepted a position as organist and choir director of the Methodist church of Milford.
