B. P. W. Workers On Three-Day Week

The regular B. P. W. crew has been put onto three days a week after having been on five days for the past eight weeks. The main part of the work at present consists of blanketing roads.

The shift to five days a week represented a departure from the idea that a certain number of men had to be kept employed the year long by the department. The new plan calls for working them when the work most needs to be done. Economy has been effected this way particularly in road blanketing.

Named Instructor On Cochran Foundation

Winfield M. Sides, instructor in mathematics at Phillips academy since 1919, has been named instructor in mathematics on the Martha Cochran foundation succeeding Frederick E. Newton who retired in June.

Mr. Sides prepared at Middleton (Penna.) High school for Penn State where he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1915. From 1915-1916 he was an instructor at Conway Hall, Dickinson college, and from 1916 to 1918 at the University of Porto Rico. On May 27, 1918, he was commissioned as First Lieutenant in the infantry stationed at Camp Las Casas, San Juan, Porto Rico.

Hearing Continued; Petition Circulated

At the request of counsel for William R. Shaw, former police officer, the hearing scheduled for last Monday was continued until next Monday at two.

Petitions are now being circulated asking that he be reinstated.

Pastor Directs Men In Cemetery Work

St. Augustine's cemetery is at present being enlarged by the reclamation of two acres which is expected to provide room for 800 four-grave lots in the northwest corner overlooking the river. Much of the work is being done voluntarily by a few men of the parish, under the active supervision of the pastor, Rev. Thomas B. Austin, O. S. A., shown at the right removing a log from the path of a bull-dozer which is levelling off the ground.

Father Austin is also at present having the interior of the church painted, a climax to the large number of improvements he has made.

Addison Gallery Showing Paintings By Abbott Cheever

The Addison Art gallery is now featuring until July 31 a collection of paintings by Abbott Cheever, (son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cheever) of Chestnut street. One of the most fascinating of the group is "The Plaid Shirt," portrait of a woman, who looks across the gallery with a slightly superior air, at "The Big Salmon," with whom she vies for top honors.

The artist seems to be at his best when working with sharp lines, colors and bold reliefs. His salmon blend neutral greys and black with the splash of vivid red in the towel upon which they are resting. In "Ponies of Barra" his foreground animal is dark while the others are much lighter.

"Winter's Job" and "Squaw Mountain" are fine examples of his love of color contrast in outdoor scenes, and this time he uses bright blues with his neutral colors for emphasis. Of his more subdued paintings, his "Barn at Twilight" is perhaps the best with the early evening light softening the colors and casting an almost mystical glow over the homely scene.

Although most of the collection were painted when Mr. Cheever was studying in Scotland and Ireland in 1937 and 1938, "The Old Foster House" is definitely Andover. The sleepy character of the old house, which stood on Elm street but which is now being torn down, is caught on the canvas without any necessity for detail lines or setting.

There are many others that also should share the rank of "best" but it is almost impossible to concentrate on any one for long while the lady in the plaid shirt is watching with her wide set eyes. You will find yourself drawn back to her again and again to discover "what is she thinking" "how much does she know?"

JUNIORS LOSE TWO; PLAY HERE SUNDAY

The Andover Legion Juniors fared poorly this week, losing 11-4 to North Andover at the Playstead on Sunday and 8-0 at East Lynn last night. A bad first inning accounted for the Sunday defeat.

Sunday Salem will play at the Playstead and next Wednesday the local team will go to Lawrence.

Town Trucks Have Saved $2000 Since Put Into Operation

A saving of $2,000 has been realized in the public works accounts in the past two and a half months since the new fleet of trucks have been in operation. In issuing the figures, the public works officials pointed out that the ordinary saving in the later life of the trucks would be less because at present there have been no expenses for new tires, and repair expenses have been nil. However, the $2000 saving is a sizable proportion of the $7500 cost of the vehicles.

The trucks have worked a total of 2985 3/4 hours. If hired trucks had been used to that extent, it would have cost $4478. However, the cost to the town for its own trucks was $2398, including cost of driver, gas and oil, depreciation, etc. An allowance of $100 has been made for depreciation on each truck for the 2 1/2 month period.

Soapbubble Contests At Playgrounds Friday

Increasingly heavy registration prevailed at all the local playgrounds as the season swung into its second week Monday. Tomorrow night will see the first of the weekly contests when all three playgrounds will feature soap-bubble contests.

Handwork started this week, and the usual tournaments will start on next week.

Last Friday night flag parades were held with over 150 being in the Central playground parade and about 75 in each of the other two.

On Tuesday night there will be a party at Perry pond in the State Forest open to all over thirteen years of age. The children will leave the playgrounds at 6:30 by bus.

On Wednesday, July 26, there will be a picnic at Canobie Lake.

Magician Vanishes In Sheriff's Office

Being a magician proves very handy when you're in trouble. In fact if you're really good, you can just allow yourself to be held under custody in a deputy sheriff's office on the fourth floor of the Bay State building in Lawrence, and all of a sudden disappear.

Elbert M. Calvert of Georgia drove through Andover one morning a few weeks ago and came riding up to Officer Joseph Davis. "I ran into a man down the road," he said. "He's in the back seat now, and I think he's dead." Officer Davis looked, and sent the man, Mr. Haskell of Old County road, to the hospital, where he gradually improved. Mr. Calvert appeared in District court last Friday morning and paid a $25 fine on the criminal charge of operating to endanger, the money being raised when he demonstrated his talents to those in the corridor. He then was taken into custody by the deputy sheriff on a civil capias issued because of the injuries sustained by Mr. Haskell.

Nothing is more embarrassing for a woman than begging rides from friends.

That's just what too many husbands force their wives to do - by taking the family auto to work each morning, and tying the car up all day in a parking space.

Yet these men could actually save money by using the Boston and Maine - as well as saving time and energy.

Give your wife - and your pocketbook - a break. Take the train.

Woburn's Mayor Tells Of "Rackets"

The recipe for good government is "guts," according to Mayor William P. Kane of Woburn who gave a talk before the Andover Young Republicans last Thursday night. He spent most of his time in describing what his own "guts" had done to eliminate bad government in Woburn where his defiance of organized minorities has won him the support of the unorganized majority who have no selfish interest in the government.

When he was elected mayor, this is what he found and what he undid: trucks worth $75 to $100 were being hired at $20 per day; horses worth $25 to $50 were being hired at $3800 per year; (this $200,000 saving reduced the tax rate $3.00); one school building tripled in size required six times as many janitors; (he cut the school budget $100,000 of which $42,000 was for janitors); police officers were over 50 pounds overweight and so not fit for duty; (he placed them on three old town farm horses, thus making both officers and horses work and increasing the store business because of the number of people the performance brought out); there were 215 families on relief; (he reduced it to 87 and the tax rate $7.30 by cutting out "chiselers and fakers").

The talk was enlivened by the mayor's straight-from-the-shoulder language. The high spot of the evening was his story of his now famous cage for drunks, which he said provided a two-fold saving: (1) only one police officer was needed whereas in a cruising car an extra man was needed to hold the drunks; (2) the one officer wouldn't be so likely to drive down to Revere for an evening's pleasure.

—Bennie Ventura, well-known local barber, is confined to the Lawrence General hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Benton of Judson road are summering at North Bridgton, Me.

Young Republicans To Fish Sunday

transportation for those who haven't.

If the group tire of catching fish or of fishing, they will sail around the Isle to try to witness salvage operations on the Squalus.

Refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded. The party will be held rain or shine. All interested should have reservations and money in tomorrow night. Irving Whitcomb is chairman.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Established 1887

Published on Thursday at Smith & Coutts Co., 4 Park Street, Andover, Mass., by Elmer J. Grover. Entered at the Andover Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

"Guts"

Isn't the recipe of Mayor Kane of Woburn as outlined to the Andover Young Republicans last Thursday night one that should be adopted elsewhere? According to the Mayor, "guts" is what is needed for good government. If only the officials at the State House and at Washington would heed his advice, we would have much lower tax rates and much fewer foolish laws.

Mayor Kane found what other public officials find: that in every public action, a minority by reason of its own personal, selfish interest in the measure, exerts pressure of varying types. Too often that pressure is effective. Too often public officials pay so much attention to what this minority feels about the matter that they overlook the feelings of the majority, who not personally interested except through their desire that justice be done, are not so likely to exert pressure. Mayor Kane is the type that would just as soon tell anybody to take a trip across the river Styx, but while that has proved effective in Woburn, the recipe can be used without quite so much stirring up. Public officials should listen to the views of the minority, but they must remember that their prime consideration is the greatest good of the greatest number, whether that greatest number expresses its views or not.

Mr. Horton told many anecdotes about some of the game's heroes, to demonstrate some of the seldom-thought-of phases of Big League baseball such as the relation of manager to players, and the important work of looking into possible rookies.

Summer Weddings

Mussey-Schueler

Wearing a beautiful white organdie gown which she designed herself, Miss Dorothy Elinor Schueler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Schueler of Argyle street, became the bride of Robert S. Mussey of Lowell at a pretty old-fashioned ceremony in the Free church, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Priscilla Cormier of Lowell, maid of honor, wore a pink shadow print organdie gown, and the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Rufe of Melrose and Miss Lois Reidel of York, Penn., wore blue with white cartwheel hats. They all carried nosegays.

Walter Mussey was the best man and William Robertson of Lowell, William Rennie and Allan Chadwick of this town and Clifford White of Lowell were the ushers. Selections were sung by Miss Phyllis Dillon of Lawrence with Mr. Thornquist of Reading at the organ.

They will reside at 1117 Middlesex street, Lowell.

Norton-Lamb

An attractive wedding of local importance took place in the South Baptist church in Worcester Saturday afternoon when Miss Mabel Evelyn Lamb, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Louella Lamb of that city, became the bride of Clare William Norton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare William Norton of 117 Elm street.

The bride, wearing a white mouseline de soie gown embroidered with rose needle point over satin, was given away by her brother. Her finger tip length veil of tulle was caught to a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried white roses.

The maid of honor's gown of pink lace was contrasted by her powder blue accessories and she carried a harmonizing bouquet of Talisman roses and delphinium. Nancy Ruth Lamb, the bride's niece, was the flower girl and she wore pastel pink organdie trimmed with blue. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Stanley H. Norton, brother of the groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Lewis Clark of Somerville and John I. Baker, brother-in-law of the bride, of Worcester. Rev. Ralph E. Tupper performed the ceremony and Edwin G. Booth, uncle of the groom, presided at the organ.

A reception in the church vestry followed the ceremony. The couple left on a wedding trip through Canada and the White Mountains. They will live in Andover.

Stevenson-Stott

The Trinitarian-Congregational church in North Andover was the scene, last Saturday afternoon, of a pretty wedding ceremony between two future Andover residents, Miss Margaret Eleanor Stott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stott of 10 Robinson Court, North Andover, and Mr. Kent Blackwood Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Stevenson, also of North Andover.

The bride wore a simple white gown trimmed with white lace and a becoming finger tip veil caught on a coronet of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Buchan of this town, wore white organdie embroidered in blue, a short white veil caught on a coronet of blue flowers and she carried pink roses and blue delphinium.

The groom's brother, Frank Stevenson, was the best man, and John Stott of Lawrence and Robert Ford of Hartford were the ushers.

Rev. C. W. Carvell officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Country Garden. The parents of the bride and bridegroom and the maid of honor assisted in the receiving line.

The couple left on an unannounced wedding trip and will live at 1 Main street terrace upon their return.

—Miss Mildred Wood who is training at the Salem Hospital is enjoying her annual vacation at her home on Abbot street.
