Tax Rate To Be Near 1938's

This WAS a good car before it started on a trip out from Boston a week ago last night. Down on South Main street it crashed into another car practically head-on, injuring six, and being practically demolished itself.

Figures From State Much More Favorable Than Was Anticipated

Although no tax rate in the state may be officially announced before September first, Andover's tax rate will not be far from last year's $29.20, it was learned on reliable authority this week. Much more favorable figures on both state tax and state income are responsible for much better tax rates all over the state than were originally anticipated.

On the basis of their recommended appropriations, the finance committee had estimated in February a tax rate of about $31.50, but the assessors felt that the finance committee estimated $32,000 low on state assessment and $12,000 high on returns from the state. With these figures and the finance committee's recommendations the rate would have been $34. However the town meeting out-did the finance committee in conservatism, and its reduced appropriations gave an estimated rate of $32.75.

The income from the state gas tax will be much larger than was anticipated. Only a cut of 50 cents was allowed for in the original computation whereas from this source Andover will secure better than a $1.50 reduction in rate. The town this year will have to take care of a deficit caused by last year's state underestimates. The legislature has passed a law making it possible to bond this deficit over five years.

The local assessing department is all ready to swing into action once the rate is announced. The tax book has been all posted with assessed valuations, etc., and all that is necessary now is to figure the bills. The tax collector's office has the personal bills all addressed and work on addressing the real estate bills is well under way. It will be necessary to stamp in the rate and also to stamp a change in paying date caused by the late issue of the tax rate.

Health, Public Works Officials Differ On Filter

Nothing further has developed this week on the condition of Haggetts pond and the town water supply, although secretary Franklin H. Stacey of the board of health and Engineer Cleary of the state department conducted a further investigation. In the meantime the public works department has continued building small sand filters on the inlets to the pond and with police officials have tried to have all boats removed from the pond. Fishing has been entirely stopped.

A variance of opinion apparently exists between the board of health and the majority of the board of public works on the necessity of a complete filtration system for Andover. The health officials feel that it is necessary, while the B. P. W. feels that it would be an expensive project that would mean an unnecessary waste of money. Dr. Percy J. Look of the health board states that even before he became a member of the board last year he had long felt that filtration was desirable to eliminate possible poor health conditions.

The health officials feel that the small sand filters will be useless in the spring during freshet season when the water will pour right over the filters or wear a channel through the sand. Secretary Stacey feels that the present good condition of the water is caused by the drought, since the pond is being supplied entirely by its springs and no water is coming in from the reported unsanitary inlets.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

Joseph W. Connor, 18 Elm street, and Margaret C. Wood, 90 Maple avenue.

Hilton M. Gerrior, 56 Balmoral street, and Florence Keenan, Cypress avenue, Methuen.

Eugene D. Farley, 118 Palisades avenue, Elizabeth, N. J., and Sarah R. Dean, 354 No. Main street.

State To Investigate Shawsheen Floods

The Shawsheen river has had its ups-and-downs, but now that it's having its downs, the state department of public works is planning to investigate its ups. A resolve for study of control of the flood waters in the river has finally been passed and signed by the Governor, after it had gone through a series of ups-and-downs in the legislature.

Professor Quiz At Central Playground

James Doherty, alias Professor Quiz last Friday night at the Question Box contest at the Central playground, found Evelyn Smalley and Norman Ross mentally on their toes. Both were the winners of first prize in their particular age group with Doris Shorten and William Valentine, Paul Sheehy and Gladys Munroe pretty close behind. Mrs. Adeline Wright was the scorer and Miss Caroline Abbot assisted by Miss Mary Angus, awarded the prizes.

The questions and answers were made audible to the large audience by the use of a loud speaker system with Harold Phinney as the operator.

Community singing, led by Miss Alma McTammany and George Zink, followed the contest.

Suffers Brain Concussion From Fall Off Truck

A "hooked ride" on a bakery truck brought a ride in the fire department ambulance Tuesday afternoon to nine-year-old Jack Renny of Walnut avenue. A North Andover driver reported to police that he had stopped at a house to make a delivery, and then proceeded along to the house of Edward R. Lawson. When he stopped, he found the boy lying in the road. He took him to Dr. Blake's, and later he was removed to the hospital when it was found he had a brain concussion. According to police, the youngster stated that he had "hooked" a ride.

Pigeons Take Home Playground Prizes

Arthur Green received the gold medal at the Shawsheen play-ground Pet Show, last Friday evening, for his fine collection of homing pigeons. He also received first prize in the fliers' group, with Elsie Rasmussen receiving second for her pet canary and Nelda Chaisson, third, for her two baby chicks.

A variety of other pets were exhibited by their proud masters with the dogs and puppies well represented. Virginia Kenny was awarded first prize for her wire-haired fox terrier with Kathleen Eastwood and Louise Doyle receiving second and third. Shirley Dixon, Marie Riley and Rita Jalbert received the prizes for their puppies.

Two blue ducks owned by Dorothy Foster controlled the applause in the zoo group, with Lorraine Missenti's Angora rabbit and Theresa Nault's two snow white rabbits, which she wheeled in a doll carriage, as runners up.

The museum exhibit seemed to favor dog collections and Sally MacLellen and Elaine MacLellen won first and second respectively for theirs. Raymond Poland received third for his stuffed bird.

The cats were saved until last and a little black and white Angora kitten owned by Angie Bagnano won first and Philip Crowley and Barbara Parsons received second and third.

The flag bearers in the parade were: Audrey Dyer, John Spinelli, Dean Carmichael and Raymond Richards.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Established 1887

Published on Thursday at Smith & Coutts Co., 4 Park Street, Andover, Mass., by Elmer J. Grover. Entered at the Andover Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

In Union There Is Strength—IF—

Silly? Of course he was silly. Imagine Governor Saltonstall telling the American Federation of Labor convention that they couldn't have whole-hog. The nerve of him. Doesn't he realize that these men who make their living by keeping labor stirred up—doesn't he realize that they know what's best for labor?

Of course they passed a resolution condemning him. Hadn't he made the mistake of considering the interest of the public so important that he wouldn't do everything the labor leaders wanted him to? He should have forgotten his conscience, should have forgotten the bloodshed in states whose governors were week-kneed, should have refused to send state troopers to the South Barre strike to protect the public.

"My friends," he should have said, "bring in all the bills you want passed, and I'll see that the legislature pushes them through even if they are no good. Just so long as you want them, boys!" Then, there would have been resolutions praising him; the Bay State would then be able to have a number of bashed-in heads in their strikes just as other states do; and business would be taxed so heavily that it couldn't do much in the way of employing labor. But really, Governor Saltonstall, that's the way to play the game. Bless the labor leaders—and the public be damned.

Some day—and we hope for labor's sake that that day is not far distant—these men who are elected to responsible positions in labor organizations will realize what great things they can do for labor, not by brute force or by loud mouths but by peaceful co-operation with the men who have it in their power to help labor—public officials and businessmen. No sensible-minded person today will say that unions should be abolished; no fair-minded person will want a man to receive a penny less than he earns or to work under improper conditions. But labor's leaders must realize that they are bringing their cause into disrepute, for they are not only failing to co-operate with the government but they can't even co-operate with each other. Isn't it time for them to get together and let the word "Union" mean something?

COUNTY RACQUETS CHAMPIONSHIPS IN NORTH ANDOVER

The tennis championship of Essex county will be decided at the North Andover Country club courts on the holiday week-end. C. Carleton Kimball who with fellow committee members George Abbott and Samuel Rockwell was prominent in the early tournaments will referee. Entries for singles close the Thursday before the tourney starts.

Townsmania

Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?

Andover's Townsendites, whose bi-weekly meetings show that they are anything but retiring just yet, have been enjoying a serious-minded chuckle lately over the following little bit of poetry:

In savage tribes where skulls are thick
And primal passions rage,
They have a system, sure and quick,
To cure the blight of age.
For when a Native's youth has fled
And years have sapped his vim,
They simply knock him on the head
And that's the end of him.
But we in this enlightened age
Are built of nobler stuff;
And so we look with righteous rage
On deeds so harsh and rough.
For when a man grows old and gray
And weak and short of breath;
We simply take his job away
And let him starve to death.

Siftings

Greedy man, the President; imagine not being able to wait an extra week for his turkey and cranberry sauce.

The chief accomplishment of the 1939 state legislature was finding a new way to hold the tax rate up.

Some of the local fishermen resent not being able to continue their fishing at Haggetts: they always figured that the more fish they caught, the less fishy the water would taste.

The President's plans call for a vacation all at sea. After his recent tussle with Congress, isn't that something of a postman's holiday?

TO STUDY IN VIENNA

Seen in town recently was Dr. Guy Hayes, who won't be seen in town after late September, for he is planning to go to Vienna and thence to Sweden to study more medicine. Back in the days before he had an M. D. after his name, Guy was a local boy, graduating from Phillips in 1930. He received the first installment of his medical training at Harvard.

You save money by paying $2.00 a year for the Townsman.

Local Senator

Opposes Legislative Salary Increase

Frank D. Babcock

Senator Frank D. Babcock was the only legislator from this district who voted to uphold Governor Saltonstall's veto of the proposed legislative salary raise last week. Recorded against the veto and for the raise were representatives William J. Casey and Cornelius J. Twomey.

Legion Evacuating

Town For Taunton

The vanguard of the best post in the state left Andover by automobile yesterday afternoon to attend the state Legion convention in Taunton. Others will follow today and tomorrow, with the biggest concentration due Saturday morning when the Andover post will march at the head of the parade because it has been declared the post which has done the most for its community the past year. The drum corps will leave by bus tomorrow evening at 5.

Included in the group which left yesterday were Joseph McCarthy, Stafford Lindsay, Arthur Coleman, Joseph Remmes, Harold Peters, George Smith and last but not least, Commander Thomas Dea, who tomorrow will receive for the post the shield for community service.

FALSE ALARM

Box 51 was sounded about 1:05 Wednesday morning, but in less time than it takes a newspaperman to put on his clothes and grumble about the life of a newspaperman, the all-out had blown.

Weddings

Hickok-Keller

Miss Roberta Irma Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Carl Keller of Manchester, N. H., became the bride of Frederick Clark Hickok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Hickok of Elm street at a private ceremony at the home of the bride's parents last Saturday afternoon. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride's gown of white net over white taffeta had a becoming roll collar and puffed sleeves of starched lace. Her veil had a coronet of lace and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and white rosebuds. Miss Polly Clough of Hyde Park, the maid of honor, was gowned in pale blue organdie over matching silk and her tiny halo cap of blue maline was wreathed in pink rosebuds. Her old fashioned bouquet was of pale pink sweet peas.

John Thomas Hickok, brother of the groom, was the best man and Rev. Herman Johnson of the Free church performed the ceremony.

The bridal party adjourned to the Manchester Country Club for dinner after which the newly married couple left for a trip through New Hampshire and Canada. Upon their return, they will reside in Andover.

BRIDESMAIDS AT GAMBRILL-BUTLER WEDDING

Miss Olive L. Butler of Lowell street and Mrs. Miner W. Merrick of Cynwyd, Pa., formerly Elizabeth L. Eaton of this town, were two of the bridesmaids at a pretty summer wedding at St. Peter's By-the-Sea church in Ogunquit, last Saturday noon, when Miss Mary Greenwood Butler, daughter of Mrs. Franklin Butler, Jr., 184 Jackson street, Lawrence, and Frazier Pasture Road, Ogunquit, became the bride of Howard Gambrill, Jr., of Cambridge.

Frederick Butler, Jr., also of Lowell street, was one of the ushers. Both he and Miss Olive Butler are children of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Butler and cousins of the bride.

SHOWER BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Delia White of Topping road was recently tendered a shower at the home of Margaret Comeau of Juliet street in honor of her approaching marriage to Albert E. Goguen, also of Topping road. She received a purse of money from employees of the Tyer Rubber company and many lovely gifts from friends.

A musical program was arranged and refreshments were served.

The wedding ceremony will be performed at a nuptial mass in Sacred Heart church, Lawrence, on September 4, at 9.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lister of 12 Essex street announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Edward C. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morrison of Phillips street, Westborough. No date has been set for the wedding.

MARRIAGE

Miss Olive Gibson became the bride of Norman Kibbee, Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Herman C. Johnson.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

Hilton Gerrier, 56 Balmoral street and Florence Keenan, 48 Cypress street, Lawrence.

John P. Jacobson, River road, and Irene Mangerian, 9 Hazel Park, Everett.

William Harrison, Sr., Railroad avenue, North Andover, and Jessie Broughton, 42 York street.

Retired Teacher

At Abbot Dies

Abbot academy lost another of its beloved characters last Friday evening when Miss Katherine R. Kelsey, retired head of the mathematics department and former assistant principal, passed away at her home, 47 Bartlet street.

Miss Kelsey had retired in 1932 to enjoy a well-earned rest after a service of 45 years to the school. Retiring with her was Miss Nellie Mason, and the two lived together on Bartlet street where for the past seven years many visits of colleagues and alumnae gave evidence of the affection and esteem in which they were held.

Miss Kelsey was born in Madison, Conn. She attended Wellesley college, and in 1886-1887 she was an instructor in the chemistry department there. She came to Abbot as teacher of science, and was later moved up to the position of head of the mathematics department. She served as assistant principal from 1912 to 1932 and for two years she was acting principal during Miss Bailey's absence.

Miss Kelsey was the author of "Sketches of Abbot Academy" which continues the history of the school begun by Miss McKeen.

Funeral services were held at the late home on Monday afternoon by Rev. Markham W. Stackpole of Milton, former Phillips academy minister. The remains were taken to Madison for burial.

—Rev. and Mrs. John H. Grant and Miss Julia E. Twichell of 43 Bartlet street are expected home Friday of this week. Miss Twichell has been at Cold River Camp (of the Appalachian Mountain Club), North Chatham, N. H., since August 1. Mr. and Mrs. Grant have been in Southport, Conn., where Mr. Grant was guest preacher in the Congregational Church August 6 and 13.

—Fred Gould, teller at the Andover National Bank, will begin his annual vacation Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. James MacMeekin of 30 Salem street are vacationing in Canada, guests of relatives in Ottawa.

Lightning Strikes Steeple Thrice

The above picture, together with a sight which West Andoverites saw this morning, proves that lightning does strike twice in the same place. It was back in 1916 that this picture was taken, but it might have been taken this morning except that the damage to the West church steeple this time was much worse than it was 23 years ago. Some of the older residents of the Parish recall that this is the third time that the steeple has been struck.

A sizeable piece of the steeple was ripped out by last night's bolt, and one piece was found 200 feet away stuck perpendicularly into the ground near the cemetery entrance. Residents of the houses nearby were startled by the loud crash and the following crackle.

Just across Lowell street from the homes of school committeemen Herbert Carter and Arthur R. Lewis was also struck, apparently by a different bolt.

—Miss Grace Lake of Main street is touring the Gaspe Peninsula with friends from Beverly.

—Mrs. Louis Dane of Florence street has been visiting her aunt, Miss Emma Thomson of North Truro, Cape Cod.

Gas Tax Refund For Town $27,600

The state gas tax refund this year for Andover will be $27,600, the assessors were informed this week by Commissioner Henry F. Long of the State Department of Corporations and Taxation. This will save the town nearly two dollars on its tax rate.

Another McLaughry Coming To Andover

Here's good news for you football fans: coming to Andover in the fall is another of Tuss McLaughry's boys, and he's reputed to be even better than John McLaughry who will be captain this year of his pater-coached Brown university team.

And you have to take the bitter with the sweet: Maurie Gould, who won the Exeter game two years ago by a miraculous catch which Exonians still doubt and who broke a 25-year old broad jump record this spring by a margin which no one could doubt—Maurie won't be back on the Hill this year.

VACATION PICTURES

● The Townsman will pay fifty cents for each vacation snapshot submitted by readers and suitable for reproduction. The only requirements are that they must contain photos of local residents, and we don't care whether they're lounging on the beach, climbing Mount Washington, absorbing the spray from Niagara Falls, or sitting on top of the Trylon at the World's Fair.

● All pictures should be in by Tuesday noon of the week in which it is intended that they shall appear.

News of Other Days

Fifty Years Ago

Little Willie Butterfield had remarkable luck fishing last Friday, in one of Andover's ponds, which was not revealed to the writer. He brought home seventeen handsome pickerel, one of which weighed 2 3/4 pounds, two, 2 pounds apiece, and the rest were of a very good size.

The town has purchased of Margaret Mills the Heatherwood land, next west of Bailey's Grove, at Haggett's Pond, to be used as the place for the pumping station of the water works.

The contract for laying the water pipes was awarded to Charles H. Eglee of Flushing, N. Y. There were ten bids for the job and over $30,000 difference in estimates.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Dr. A. E. Hulme and family have returned from a three weeks' vacation spent at York Beach.

J. H. Playdon has returned from a visit to Halifax. He reports the city in a state of considerable excitement, expectations of bombardment by German ships being heard on every side. The guard around the city has been increased and no one is allowed to enter or leave the city without identification papers.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lawson and son of Wolcott avenue have returned to their home after a brief sojourn at York Beach.

Patrick Barrett, who has been visiting in New York, has returned to his home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hussey are spending a few weeks in the Green Mountains.

Ten Years Ago

Miss Dorothy Winn of South Main street is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Ruth Hall of High street spent the week-end at Higginum, Conn.

Miss Marion Hill of Lupine road left by automobile this week for California where she will spend six weeks.

Mary Doherty, 13 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Doherty, North Main street, won a first place at Manchester and two seconds at Revere last week-end when she was competing for the first time under the colors of the Boston Swimming association.

Miss Julia Twichell and Miss Delight Hall of Bartlet street are enjoying a vacation in Connecticut.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE VIEWS METCALF POULTRY

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace was among those who showed interest in the White American Poultry exhibited at the International Poultry Congress at Cleveland by Ellery Metcalf, son-in-law of Herbert Lewis of Lowell street. Mr. Metcalf has spent many years in developing the breed. He is an instructor at the Essex County Agricultural school.

Shaw Case Up

On August 26th

The case of William R. Shaw, deposed police officer, comes up again in District court Saturday morning, August 26, he having asked for a review of the selectmen's action in dismissing him. It will be the third time that the court has been in the case, Shaw having first pleaded guilty to charges of driving under the influence and operating to endanger and then on a continuance having changed his pleas to not guilty. Judge Chandler, whose name appears on the new writ, found him guilty and fined him $60, following which the selectmen took their action.

Howe In Uphill Fight Wins Title

After trailing in the first two sets, Doug Howe, one of Puncard's outstanding athletes the past year, won the Greater Lawrence singles championship Sunday from Warren Stanwood. Doug managed to win four games of the first set, and in the second he made further headway by forcing Stanwood to seven games.

In the third set Doug came close to losing the championship with Stanwood running up a 4-1 lead, but he refused to be beaten. He took the next two games, dropped one to make it 5-3 and then finally won out 8-6. By that time the tide was definitely turned, and Howe cleaned up the next two sets with little difficulty, 6-3 and 6-1.

Doug will enter Hebron academy in the fall.

Children Present Puppet Shows

"Cinderella at the Ball" and "Three Little Pigs" are capturing the imagination of Andover's playground children these days. Last night the Central Playground Puppet club presented the tale of the big bad wolf and Prince Charming's puppet love at the Vale playground, tonight Shawsheen will be favored with a similar presentation, and on next Monday the club will come back to its own home ground, with two performances: a matinee at 3:30 and an evening production at 7:30.

Tomorrow the group will journey to Manchester-by-the-Sea where the Manchester Children's Puppet club will cast their critical eyes on what "those youngsters from Andover are doing."

The girls wrote the dialogues for both plays.

The club is in charge of Miss Margaret Davis, supervisor of the playgrounds. Those who will take part in the puppet show are Irene Shorten, chairman of the club, and Doris Shorten, Claire Lefebvre, Kathleen Lefebvre, Marjorie Thomson and Helen Renny.

You save money by paying $2.00 a year for the Townsman.

No Nuisance From Low River, State Says

"A slight odor" but "no actual nuisance" is the opinion handed down by the state department of health on the condition of the drought-affected Shawsheen river in Ballardvale, after an investigation which was prompted by the circulation of a petition in the Vale. The department engineers reported that the water was very low because of the dry spell, and that a mill which had riparian rights had used so much water that the flats were not covered.

The state authorities reported that they had no power to regulate this, inasmuch as a bill to give them this power had failed of passage at this session. However, they suggested that the residents secure the co-operation of the mill-owners in keeping the flats covered.

Walter Howe Receives Plaudits For His Conducting Of 750-Voice Choir

Walter Howe, director of music at Abbot academy, has been receiving considerable praise for his recent conducting of a 750 voice choir in "Elijah" at Chautauqua, N. Y. Of the performance Jessie Thomas, music critic, said in "The Chautauquan Daily":

The Regional Choral Festival, held Saturday evening (August 5) in the Amphitheater, with Walter Howe conducting, was one of the magnificent music events of the season. When a splendid 750-voice choir can be brought together in the short period of a few weeks to sing "Elijah," one of the great masterpieces in choral literature, and sing it with such musical soundness, vitality, good diction and depth of feeling as was evidenced on this occasion, it is nothing short of thrilling.

The performance on this occasion was thrilling not alone for its moving power but also for the fact that it gave so good an account of the present status of our musical culture, as represented in a relatively small area of this great land of ours. Indeed, the future of American musical culture would seem well assured if other sections of the country can produce choral groups in such quantity and of such quality.

The appearance on the platform of Conductor Walter Howe was the signal for according him the famed Chautauqua salute, which in the words of President Bestor,

"is reserved for best friends and most distinguished guests." Thus the audience and the choir enthusiastically expressed their deep appreciation not only of Mr. Howe's contribution to this one great event but also of his efforts on many other occasions throughout the years that Chautauqua has been privileged to call him a "best friend."

COW ROAMINGS

A bovine nomad may cost Edward Shattuck of River road $1,000 if the court finds that Mr. Shattuck's cow on June 8 or 9 was nomadic enough to wander into Rose Jacobson's land and start converting her grass and crops into milk. Mrs. Jacobson filed suit last Saturday.

Fifteen To Attend Religious School

The twenty-fourth session of the Northern New England School of Religious Education opens next Sunday at the University of New Hampshire at Durham and continues for one week. About 350 young people and adults will attend and a faculty and staff of 44. The following will go from Andover: Free Church — Dorothy Paine, Roberta Cilley, Margaret Gordon, Margaret Cargill, Ruth Keith, Jean MacLeish, Dorothy Monroe, Dorothy Barnett and Frances Hartmann; South Church — Harriet Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Thaxter Eaton; West Church — Mrs. Madeline Slate; Union Congregational Church — Phyllis Henderson and Ethel Brierly.

For those unable to attend the whole session there will be a week-end institute Saturday and Sunday on the theme: "Getting Help from Religion Today." The leaders will be Rabbi Beryl D. Cohon of Boston and members of the school faculty, including Rev. Frederick W. Smith of Waterville, Me., formerly of Ballardvale. Thaxter Eaton is treasurer and business manager of the school.

Seriously Injured In Toss Off Bicycle

A near fracture of the skull, a concussion of the brain and body abrasions resulted Friday evening when a Cambridge boy took a toss off his bicycle when he attempted to swing off the soft shoulder onto the cement road on South Main street. Another boy riding with him was tossed on top of him and sustained only minor injuries. Rushed to the Lawrence General hospital, the first youngster's name was immediately placed on the danger list.

—Alex Renny of Walnut avenue and Thomas Eldred of Main street enjoyed a motor trip through the mountains last week-end.

—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brickett and family of No. Main street are enjoying several weeks' vacation at their camp at Rock Pond, Georgetown.

Something To Remember Two Months From Now

The very low prices listed here on Andover grown vegetables (and there are no better vegetables grown anywhere) will cause you to ask next November when vegetables from Southern and Western states are three times these prices quoted today, "What is the reason?"

Let me tell you, little ladies; IT IS NOT ENTIRELY "FREIGHT CHARGES."

One chain store system was able, last year, to manipulate the prices on 30,000 car loads of vegetables. This is something to remember:
