Eight Hundred Parents Thrilled As Students Sing, Perform Gym Work

Junior Male Choir Gives Fine Performance

Andover at present is the home of the champion male singing club of New England; Andover doesn't have to worry particularly about the future of that title.

Last night 56 youngsters stood on the stage of the Memorial Auditorium. Behind them stood the Andover Male Choir. In front of them stood J. Everett Collins, director of the New England champions. Six rehearsals he had had with the youngsters, and when they had finished with "Omnipotence" you couldn't have convinced many in the audience that they hadn't had sixty. The boys had sat and waited for two hours, and for many of them it was well past their bedtime, but still they gave the Memorial Auditorium a thrill that few auditoriums have had. Fifty-six youngsters—and you could tell by the expression on the faces of the members of the champion Glee Club of New England that they were pretty proud to be singing with those 56 boys, some of them their own sons. Proudest of all was Ev Collins, to have those 112 eyes trained on every move of his baton just as closely as the eyes of the Male Choir follow its movements.

The musical portion of the P. T. A. program started with a group of four numbers by the Male Choir, including "Stout-hearted Men" and "The Musical Trust." Then followed three solos by Junior McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarthy of Wolcott avenue. With a voice that was matched only by his poise and self-confidence (even

Town Doing Well In Hospital Drive

Andover's teams in the Lawrence General hospital building drive which got under way last Thursday night presented one of the most encouraging reports at the first report dinner held at the Lawrence Boys' club Tuesday evening. The Andover teams reported 86 subscriptions totalling $3143 for an average of 36 dollars a subscription. The Methuen teams had a higher average subscription but only a little more than half as many subscribers and $1,000 less. Aside from the special Memorial committee the Andover report was second only to the Lawrence Women's teams in the total subscribed.

The Andover women's groups under Miss Anna Kuhn reported 29 subscribers for a total of $717. Mrs. Brigham's team having the most subscribers but Mrs. Dearborn's the most money. Mrs. William Kurth's teams in Shawsheen reported 44 subscribers for a total of $1987. Mrs. John T. Batal's team having led with 19 subscribers and $1116. Roy E. Hardy's team of men reported 13 subscribers and $442. Joseph Doherty's group leading with eight subscribers and $201.

Punchard Gym Team Shows Proficiency

When Donald Dunn, instructor of physical education, first came to Andover a few years ago, he twice had some of his undergraduate friends of his Alma Mater, Springfield college, come to Andover to stage a demonstration of gym work. Last night at the P. T. A. meeting he proved that he doesn't have to do this any more; in fact, Springfield might find it edifying to witness a demonstration by the Andover gym team.

Last night the boys did just about everything the Springfield men did: wand drills, pyramids, fencing drills, apparatus work, tap dances and even the silver statues at the end, when the boys, completely coated with a silver paint, became living statues of athletic figures, many of them, according to principal Hamblin, "standing still longer than he had ever seen them." There was even comic relief, although no relief was needed. Staf Lindsay, Jr., and Milton Craig gave a comic version of School Daze that was well-liked, and later in the program John Surrence and George Collins kept the audience in an uproar while they got themselves into and each other out of difficult situations.

The boys in the team were: Wilfred Boucher, William Broderick, Ralph Brunell, Harry Buntin, James Coleman, George Collins,

Express Appreciation

The ministers of the Andover churches desire to express their deep appreciation to the public schools, the Service club and the merchants of the community for their generous co-operation in the observance of Good Friday. We believe that this added greatly to the significance of the day for many people, and hope that it will become a tradition that will grow in meaning and value from year to year.

No Change In School Principalships This Year

Mr. Hamblin To Return; Two Sub-masters Appointed; To Study Single Principal Problem

The question of the principalship of Punchard High and the Junior High was settled for the coming year by the school committee Tuesday night when Nathan C. Hamblin, present Punchard principal, expressed his willingness to serve one more year at the helm. The temporary arrangement will have Superintendent of Schools Kenneth L. Sherman remain as principal of the Junior High school during the coming school year. Eugene V. Lovely, who long has served as sub-master of the high school, received the title officially Tuesday night, and Milton C. Blanchard, who has taken care of most of the administrative functions at the Junior High since Mr. Sherman's elevation to the superintendency, was officially named sub-master of the Junior High.

The extra year will give the committee more time in which to carefully consider the problem of whether to have one principal for the two schools or one for each. No appointments to either position will be made until this is decided. The arrangement with Mr. Sherman in the two positions will mean a saving to the town for another year.

Four teachers who have served three years were elected to tenure: Emil Keller, Adeline Wright, Florence McCarthy, and Elizabeth Stephan. Teachers re-elected were Edward Manning, Ralph Sturke, Mabel Barron and Louise Sherman. Gwen Armitage and Eleanor Raidy were re-elected cadet teachers, Dr. Blake, school physician, Rudolph Johnson, Alvah Wright and Chester Abbott as bus drivers, and Gladys Downs, Evelyn Rutter and Mary Winkley as clerks.

A slight change was made in the salary schedule whereby those possessing Bachelor of Science Degrees would be on the same level as the A. B. holders.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION OF EPISCOPAL DIOCESE

This Community will be well represented at the annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts which opens on Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m. in Trinity church, Boston. Local delegates to this service and the business sessions which follow in Ford Hall on Wednesday are Rev. Albert C. Morris, Irving Southworth and C. Carleton Kimball of School street and Kenneth S. Minard of Salem street.

—Mary Patterson, who is a student at Pembroke College, Providence, R. I., is spending her Easter vacation at her home on Johnson road.

—M. Lawrence Shields of Phillips academy has returned to town after spending the spring recess in Florida.

CLAN TO INSTALL FRIDAY NIGHT

Peter Anderson is to be installed as Chief of Clan Johnston tomorrow night in Fraternal hall. Others to be installed are: tanist, John McMillan; past chief, William Vannett; chaplain, Fred Scott; treasurer, William Gordon; financial secretary, George B. Petrie; recording secretary, Thomas B. Gorrie; senior henchman, Andrew Ferrier; junior henchman, David Wallace; seneschal, John Elder; sentinel, Thomas W. Neil; warder, Robert Low; trustee for three years, William Vannett.

CHICKEN PIE SUPPER

A chicken pie supper is to be served by the Square and Compass club Saturday night from 5 to 7 at the club rooms. Tonight the members at their meeting will see motion pictures.

News of Other Days

Fifty Years Ago

—About one year ago, work commenced on Main street, the result of which has been the erection of a building which, although not the handsomest, may be properly regarded as one of the most valuable structures that adorn the streets of Andover. The Bank Building, so-called, is now a familiar sight to nearly all the residents of this town, including the sidewalk committee, who have watched its growth toward completion with pardonable pride, making as it does a magnificent home for the leading financial concerns of the town and also for several well-known professional men.

—Employees in the winding room at the Smith and Dove mill were working extra time Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

—P. Conway of Ballardvale is adding a story to his shoe shop.

—J. E. Sears is about moved into his new store in the Bank Building and the Insurance company is also getting installed in its new quarters.

Twenty-five Years Ago

—Herbert Carter of Harvard college is spending several days at the home of his parents in West Andover.

—William Harnden Foster, the local artist, was hit by a pitched ball in the Punchard-Alumni game Monday and received a fractured arm.

—Gardening is in full swing but the ground cries out, "How dry I am."

—George Petrie, who has taken over the duties of sexton at the Free church, has removed his family to Maple avenue.

—The Woman's Relief corps, No. 127, celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary last evening with a beautiful turkey supper in Pilgrim hall.

—The Punchard high school baseball team won its second game of the season by defeating the Sanborn seminary team of New Hampshire by the score of 28 to 7 on the local playstead, Thursday afternoon.

Ten Years Ago

—Kellogg Boynton was welcomed back to school, Monday morning, April 7, after an absence of several weeks due to injuries received when he was struck by an automobile.

—Raymond L. Buchan and William H. Foster tied for high gun in the first skeet shoot of the Isaak Walton chapter of Andover held at the new grounds off Argilla road.

—Michael Winters of Cuba street has moved with his family to North Main street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Winslow L. Knowles have returned to their home on Punchard avenue after spending a month in Washington, D. C.

—Mrs. Joseph H. Smith and daughter, Marcia, have returned to their home in Albany, N. Y., after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Smith of Maple avenue.

Going To The Alumni Bridge?

Have you brought your ticket for the Punchard Alumni bridge? Isn't it a bargain? For only thirty-five cents you will have an evening of card playing, be able to meet again and chat with some of your old friends that you haven't seen for some time, have a chance of winning the table prize which is especially worth winning with all the good pictures coming to the Andover Playhouse. (Didn't you know? There are two theater tickets to every table) and then you also have a very good chance of taking home one of the many door prizes which were kindly donated by several merchants of the town.

The committee is also planning to raffle off a waffle iron and a radio in addition to the many prizes offered. You certainly won't want to miss it, and if one of the committee hasn't already approached you remember that tickets may be purchased at the door. And because the committee has been so busy dashing around getting tables and things to accommodate the large number of townspeople who are planning to attend, they are making the special request that each party bring their own cards. But don't stay away just because of that, they will have some on hand for you to use as second choice.

Didn't I say when? Eight o'clock April 17, in Memorial auditorium, and don't forget to bring Lady Luck along with you. She won't need a ticket!

Colored Film Featured At Calendar Supper

It won't matter at which table you sit at the Calendar supper tonight at the Baptist church, January, March or August, the chicken pie will be just as delicious at each. The Shawsheen Village Woman's Club chorus will entertain with several selections and H. Lester Utley will present his "Winter Sports" film taken, in color, of New England sport areas. The picture is scheduled to begin at 7:45 and the general public may obtain admission at the door.

Red Cross Continues Finnish, Polish Relief

Red Cross work abroad has by no means ceased, even though at the moment screaming headlines do not constantly remind us of war. With the cessation of fighting in Finland there is urgent need among the people as they restore or establish their homes. Relief activities in Poland will be on an increased scale. Help must continue here and in other areas. The national Red Cross plans to have 100,000 sweaters, 50,000 dresses, 20,000 layettes ready for shipment abroad June 15, to be distributed at points of greatest need early in September. This can be done only if each chapter produces its share. The quota for the Andover chapter will be met if many new sewers and knitters are added to those who have already contributed so generously of their time and effort. Material for sewing and knitting warm clothing for civilian victims of war may be obtained from Miss Anna Kuhn, 48 Central street, telephone 46.

Miss Doherty Wins Hearts Of Large Audience As Heroine Of Senior Class Play, Marigold

With all the scandalous goings-on at the Punchard senior class play in Memorial Auditorium last Friday night, it's a wonder that Beenie (Ruth Keith) ever got her "jeelly" to "jeell." Just when everyone in Paradykes had approved the engagement of Marigold (Eleanor Doherty) and James Payton (Warren Richardson), kilted Archie Forsyth (Gordon White) broad of shoulder and lithe of limb, appeared on the scene to steal her heart and making even more obvious the prim age of the creaking kneed Laird.

It was no wonder Archie found competitors in his friends, Nigel Lumsden (Warren Deyermund), Bobbie Townsend (Philip Beck), and his soldier servant, Morday (Laurence Cleary). Marigold's gay spirit, undaunted by the stern over-seering of her father, Major Andrew Sellar (William Ferguson), and the tsking Misses Valencia and Sarita Dunlop (Ruth Cowan and Elinor Houston) lead her to go, unescorted, to Edinburgh where adventure awaited her at the soldiers' quarters. Marigold's unsuspecting innocence was superbly acted as she calmly made her plans to spend the night; her deep concern over her very pretty and very becoming bonnet, her pervading sweetness and grace as she floated about the stage made her indisputably Marigold, the lovable heroine.

Mrs. Pringle (Barbara Gahm) championed Marigold in her love for Archie and helped to bring about the happy ending for the young couple and the reconciliation of Madame Marley (Thisbe Paparella) and the Major. Although she was the "meenister's wife" she still allowed herself to remain understanding and human. Peter Gloag (Thomas Davies), the Divinity student in search of a book, appeared at unexpected moments, keeping a perfectly sober face while the audience laughed loudly at his characterization.

St. Leger Carington (Donald McLauchlan) was the Equerry in attendance on the Prince Consort and announced the arrival of the royal party which, although it never appeared on the stage, was strongly presented in the imagination by the bowing respect paid by the entire cast as the curtain closed on the final scene.

Although the play started a little slowly and a little inaudibly, it soon quickened in interest as the cast became absorbed in their parts, erring only occasionally in their difficult task of retaining a Scotch accent. The Scottish polka in the third act to the tune of the bag pipes best exemplified to what great lengths Director Mervin E. Stevens had gone to keep a congruous note throughout.

The costumes, too, spoke for themselves and won the admiration of the audience by their hooped beauty.

What's more the "jeelly" finally "jeelled."

the fact that he kept his fingers crossed didn't detract from his self-confidence) Junior sang "Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day," and the first time that he showed any visible signs of being worried by the auditorium full of people was when the unrestrained applause welled up at him from the assembly—a bit lip and then eyes that showed the pleasure that came with the realization that 800 people liked his singing. Then he went on through "If Daddies Could Live On Forever," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," with the strength of his voice showing particularly in the former, the sweetness of tone in the latter. Accompanying him at the piano was his mother, who incidentally is well-known for her hobby of raising canaries.

"Romany Life" followed with Mrs. Alberta Casgrain Comtois singing the soprano solo and her husband playing the violin obligato. After two more Choir selections the audience was presented with the evening's thrill among thrills, junior and senior male choirs in "Omnipotence."

During the physical education exhibit two of the young gym team members demonstrated that the physical was not a far call from the aesthetic. William Knipe played Sibelius's "Finlandia," a tribute to a nation whose athletic ability is surpassed only by its valiance, and later in the evening Norman Whitaker, captain of the gym team, played Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor." Further proof that bars can be a musical term as well as gym apparatus was seen in the versatility of John Collins, Ev's John, who appeared in his tux in the front line of the Male choir shortly after having given a fine exhibition in his gym suit.

In his few brief remarks Director Collins paid a well-deserved tribute to Miss Sweeney of the school music staff. Miss Marion Abbott accompanied the choirs.

The Male choir auxiliary will meet Monday night with Mrs. Alfred Perry of North Andover.

It Costs More on the Installment Plan . . .

You can buy a Townsman subscription on the installment plan by paying five cents a week at a newsstand. BUT you're running the risk of missing a copy and you won't want to miss a single one of the pictures the Townsman is now running, too, for you can really have the Townsman delivered to your door every Thursday afternoon by the mailman for about three cents a week with no carrying charge. Do what many others are doing: take out a year's subscription for $2.00 . . . three months extra are given new subscribers without charge.

Decrease Number Of Convention Students

The school committee Tuesday night stepped into a controversy that has divided parents in some sections of the town on the question of the school-boy patrol convention in Washington. It was felt by some of the parents that the wholesale sending of students to this convention annually imposed a hardship on some families. The committee voted to approve the naming of only four boys from Andover, one from the sixth grade in each school, to attend the conference.

TO MEET TONIGHT

The G. A. L. club will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Stevens, High Plain road.

MEET HENRY AND GEORGE

Come to the vestry of the West church on Friday evening, April 12 at 7:30 for an evening of fun. Henry and George will be introduced to the audience by their sponsor, James Marshall, Jr., ventriloquist and magician. Tickets are on sale by children of the Sunday school. Mrs. Earl Slate is general chairman.

4-H Clubs To Have Permanent Camp

A year ago came July 71 happy youngsters. 4-H Club members, gathered at Camp Leslie on the shores of Pentucket Pond, Georgetown, for two weeks vacation. It was a real success and brought to the minds of those who were leaders in 4-H Club work in Essex County the great need of such a place for a permanent camp for 4-H Club members, Boy and Girl Scouts and other organizations of a like nature in the county. It was the belief of these leaders that Camp Leslie was the right place. Mrs. Leslie, owner of the Camp, came forward with an offer to sell for the sum of $4000 to be paid July 1, 1940. Then things began to happen. A board of trustees was chosen with Willard T. Kelley, Master of Essex Pomona as president, Lester D. Friend of Danvers, Mrs. Charles Ropes of Salem, Alfred Godbout of Middleton and Nathan Hale of Woburn, president of Essex Aggies Alumni Association, making up the board. They immediately went to work with the result that an intensive drive is to be made in every town and city in Essex county that all interested in the welfare of the children of Essex County, and who isn't, may have a chance to help in some way. Essex Pomona No. 2 appointed a committee to raise funds to supplement their gift of $50. That committee, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis of Andover, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marshall of Haverhill and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Germain of West Newbury met with 4-H Club leader Horace Shute and formulated a plan that it is hoped will make it possible for every Grange in Essex Pomona to make a substantial gift to the fund. The 14 Granges were divided among the committee who will attend a meeting of Granges allotted them and explain the movement and plan. The sum of $1500 has already been raised and $3500 more must be ready by July 1st. The Pomona drive is booked for the month of April. Each one is urged to do what he can to make this, the 25th anniversary year of 4-H Club work, a real red letter year.

Obituaries

Frank A. Dentremon

Frank A. Dentremon, foreman of the J. E. Pitman Estate for many years, passed away at his home, 38 Florence street, Friday night after a long illness. A solemn high mass of requiem was held at St. Augustine's church Monday morning, burial following in the church cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Annie; two sons, Roy of Lawrence and Harold of Andover; a brother, Edmund of Roslindale; and a sister, Mrs. Simeon Amiro of Nova Scotia.

James G. Stewart

Saddened were the playmates and classmates of 10-year old James Grieg Stewart when the youngster passed away Monday night at the Massachusetts General hospital after waging a fine fight against an illness that had its inception a year ago. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart of 10 North Main street, and there are two sisters, Gertrude and Georgina and a brother William.

Funeral services are being held this afternoon by Rev. Herman C. Johnson. Burial will follow in Spring Grove cemetery.

Peter W. Greenwood

Peter W. Greenwood passed away Saturday morning at St. John's hospital in Lowell where he had been confined for ten days. Born in Gilbertville nearly 68 years ago he had lived on Chester street for the last 10 years. He was a painter by trade.

He leaves a sister, Margaret, and a brother, Albert of Salem, N. H.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, burial following at Pine Grove cemetery, Salem.

Mrs. Mary J. Allicon

A high mass of requiem was held in St. Augustine's church, Tuesday morning, for the late Mrs. Mary Jane Allicon, who died early Sunday morning at the family home, 23 Highland road. Mrs. Allicon was born in Antigonish, N. S., coming to Andover half a century ago. She was employed as a laundress at Phillips academy until her retirement two years ago.

Her only survivor is a daughter, Matilda, with whom she resided. Interment was in St. Augustine's cemetery and the bearers were: Fred Allen, Philip Allicon, Jr., Herbert E. Allicon, Bernard DeLory, Oakie Toomey and Thomas Kennefick.

Enjoy the Feel of a GROWN-UP ENGINE!

Own an "8," not just a "6"
Get top economy, too!

More miles per gallon than any other standard-equipped car at its price... that's the amazing record of the big, 85 h.p. Ford V-8 in this year's official, impartial Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run! Also... Ford owners report no oil added between regular changes.

YOU don't even have to "look under the hood" to know that the Ford V-8 engine is the greatest engine ever offered in a low-priced car! When every maker of fine cars in America today uses 8 or more cylinders, that fact becomes important. And the "feel" of this engine under your toe will tell you in a minute why it is important!

It takes an "8" to match an "8"! And it takes a Ford to match that engine with such big-car quality throughout! With a level, gentle big-car ride that's one of the year's big surprises. With greater knee-room than in any other low-priced car. With the kind of clutch and gearshift and drive that cars far higher-priced use and boast of.

Andover Tossed Out Of Championships

The finals in the Greater Lawrence basketball tourney are to be held next Thursday night, but Andover won't be in it. Two teams from the Y. M. C. A. in Lawrence will compete for the honor, and the reason that Andover will not be there is that last Saturday in the semi-finals the local championship hopes were shattered in smithereens by the Y varsity. The score was 55-9, with Andover scoring but two shots from the floor and five from the foul-line.

However, the victorious team are two-state champions now en route to Reading, Pa., for the national championships there.

ANDOVER GARDEN CLUB NOTES

The enthusiasm of Mr. Will C. Curtis for the planting of wild gardens and the propagation of wild flowers was shared by his hearers at the meeting of the Andover Garden club held Tuesday morning at the Andover Inn with Mrs. William T. Rich presiding.

Mr. Curtis stressed the importance of conserving our wild flowers by propagating by seeds and cuttings in protected areas rather than merely transplanting them from the woods and fields, and he told of many interesting and successful experiments in this form of conservation. He recommended the use of a soil tester to ascertain whether the soil reactions were acid, alkaline or neutral to secure the necessary requisites for the plant's successful growth. He spoke not only of the early wild flowers, like arbutus, hepatica, bloodroot and trillium, but of the cyprinidiums, cardinal flowers, gentians and summer lilies, the ferns and shrubs such as clematis, azaleas and rhododendrons.

Mrs. Frank M. Benton made an interesting and comprehensive report on the activities of the Conservation committee, and stamps for National Wildlife Restoration were for sale.

The president announced members of the nominating committee as Mrs. Douglas Byers, chairman; Mrs. Charles Thomson and Mrs. Robert Brown. The members of the committee on open garden day to be held May 21 are: Mrs. Charles W. Arnold, general chairman; Mrs. Charles Gabeler, tea; Mrs. Henry S. Hopper, posters; Miss Bessie P. Goldsmith, publicity.

In the exhibition of arrangements of forced shrubs that of Mrs. Robert Brown was voted first, that of Mrs. Mitchell Johnson, second, and Mrs. E. D. Walen, third.

Characters Of "Holiday" Well Executed In Adventurers' Spring Production

Eleanor M. Bishop of "Butter and Egg Man" fame will once more grace the Adventurers' stage as the lovely Julia Seton in "Holiday" which will be presented, April 16, at Memorial auditorium. Julia's beauty which attracts many admirers including the adventure-some Johnny Case whom she intends to marry, is governed by conventionality and an overfondness for social life and position. Consequently she and her fiancé, played by Paul L. MacKendrick, are constantly at odds as to their plans for future happiness. Johnny is neither conventional nor desirous of the prestige that money will bring but is more anxious to enjoy a "holiday" while he is still young. In this, he is loyally sustained by Linda Seton (Thisbe Grieco) the fresh, eager, ambitious-to-live-life daughter of the rich, who is continually thwarted in her ideals by her loyalty to those she loves.

Also in the Seton family are Ned, the disillusioned, youngest and only son, who, because he is lacking in any reverence for riches, finds solace in alcohol; and Edmund Seton, the stern, unrelenting father, acted by Lyman Cheever. Henry, the old family butler or rather a gentleman's gentleman from a long line of gentlemen's gentlemen, will be played in character by William S. Hughes.

Marguerite M. Fecteau as Susan Potter makes a very merry little wife of a rich playboy and manages to be both a companionable playmate for her husband as well as a devoted friend to those she cares for, Stephen Whitney as her husband, Nick Potter, is extremely good-natured and jovial and doesn't miss a trick.

All the cast are making use of their past stage experience both with the Adventurers and in previous plays, and are enthusiastically living the parts of the Seton family who are suffering from "money disease" invaded by an even more threatening pestilence, a likable young man with completely alien ideas.

The committees are working hard to produce a background worthy of Barry's intriguing play and the actors' skilled portrayals, and even at this early date it is obvious that another successful Adventurers' production under the able direction of Mrs. Lyman Cheever is under way.

Choir Auxiliary Guests At Banquet

Over 60 were present Saturday night at a supper held by the Male choir for the auxiliary. Games and musical numbers were enjoyed, the feature of the evening being the appearance of the renowned interrogator of experts in Information Please: J. Everett Collins. Split up into teams, the members waged an intensive educational war, with the prize finally going to James Gillespie, Jr., William Thompson and Eleanor Murray.

The entertainment program included a clarinet solo by George Walton; piano duet by Mrs. Edward Comtois and Mrs. Edward Guertin; vocal selection by Harold Holt.

President George Knipe, Director Collins, James Christie and auxiliary president Mrs. Herbert Merrick spoke a few words. The committee included Alfred Perry, Alexander Campbell and Carl Wetterberg.

Thimble Club Holds Banquet

A banquet was held last Friday night by the Thimble club in the Square and Compass hall, with Miss Alice McTernan in charge assisted by Mrs. Clarence Weeks, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, Mrs. Fred Winkley and Mrs. Chester Johnson.

A few selections were read by Betty Campbell Saunders of North Andover; Doris Marshall of Providence gave a dance and Miss Johnson of Providence a specialty number. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Charles Cole led community singing.

Parochial School Children Give Dramatic Performance

To quote Rev. Thomas B. Austin who spoke a few words at the Irish night performance Tuesday evening, "The only trouble with the whole show was that there weren't enough mistakes." Indeed the cast of "The Bird of St. Patrick" were very self-assured, very well-rehearsed with Murray Abbott stepping out of the archetype Leprechaun of Irish folklore and preferring to be a laughing sprite who sat in the center of the stage making his shoes and grinning at director James Flannery who was unsuccessfully signalling him to dart about among the children. In the school scene, the girls and boys of grade two made a slight mistake in the spelling of their native land and stood with lettered cards marking I-R-E-L-A-N-D. But the humorous peak of the performance was the song and dance, "Rings on My Fingers," when the grades five, six and seven, dressed in grass skirts shimmied to Augustine Grant's singing.

The program opened with the first grade scampering to the tune of "The Little Red Fox" followed by grades three and four in a song and dance with Francis Mooney. The two-act play centered around the proud courage of the O'Malley's with Eileen Byrne as the heroine with a capable supporting cast. Dennis' song, sung by John Loye, included many well-known Irish names but the plane which flew from America to Ireland, making Eileen the winner of the O'Riordan prize, was called "The Bird of St. Patrick." Arthur Collins sang "Mother Machree" and the ensemble, "Come Back to Erin." George Levi and William Beaulieu as Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean were regular vaudeville troupers and neither wore the stamp of amateurs.

The Tango as popularly danced in Ireland was executed by Kathleen Quill, Barbara Carley, Frances Reidy, Mary York, and Elizabeth Lefebvre, and Joan Fleming, wearing a lovely blue gown, recited "The Wearing of the Green." Patricia Robertson, Barbara Quill and the girls of grades five, six and seven sang and danced, "The Low-backed Car" followed by the inimitable "Rings On My Fingers."

The boys and girls of grade eight flirted to the tune of "The Glory of Love," and John Brennan conducted the school scene with the second grade children. The conclusion of the program contained grades seven and eight in "Wishes Three," boys of grades six and seven in "The Harrigans," Theodore Boudreau, "When The Sun Sets in Galway," ensemble singing "Eileen Alanna" and "I Am An American." After the performance Father Austin thanked all those who had participated and worked on the entertainment and Wednesday was declared a free day for the students of the parochial school, a prize which was applauded by pupils and audience alike.

ROHRBACHS REPORTED AS IMPROVED SLIGHTLY

Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Rohrbach of Sunset Rock road, seriously injured in a head-on automobile collision in South Glastonbury, Conn., Saturday, were reported yesterday afternoon to be progressing as well as possible at the Hartford hospital. Minor injuries were suffered by their son who is expected home in a few days. Mrs. Rohrbach received fractured ribs, and Mr. Rohrbach serious internal injuries for which an emergency operation was performed on him Monday night.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY NOTES

At the meeting of the Girls' Friendly society of the Christ church Monday evening, Miss Bertha Cuthill gave a talk on the value of foods, followed by a demonstration by Mr. Desmarais, of the Cudahy company, of Lawrence.

First, Mr. Desmarais gave a short history of the meat and packing business, stating that only two per cent of the meat used in this district is actually from this locality. At the present time, 13,000 people are employed at this occupation, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the company, incidentally. There are 200,000 markets for these products, and in Lawrence alone, seventy-eight tons of meat are sold in one week. The distribution of meat was also traced, with cuts of meat being explained and samples passed around.

Refreshments for this meeting were donated by various business houses, and the following committee was in charge: Bertha Hilton, chairman; Edna Marland, Elizabeth Hilton, Gertrude Taylor, Ethel Hilton, Jeannette Deyermund, and Laura Marland.

The Girls' Friendly bowling team attended a presentation of the current hit "Rebecca" in Boston last Saturday. The following members made the trip: Bertha Hilton, Arline Kelley, Annetta Anderson, Mrs. Walter E. Howe, Ruth Saunders, Betty Deyermund, Anne Jamieson, Ethel Sorrie, Agnes Deyermund, Barbara Smith, Elizabeth Hilton, Helen Smith, Ethel Hilton and Doris Hilton.

The Society will visit the St. John's Girls' Friendly in Lawrence next Monday evening where movies of the hurricane will be shown by the telephone company. Refreshments will also be served.

HOLD SEWING MEETING

A sewing meeting was held in place of the talk at the King's Daughters meeting Monday evening in the South church, the results of the work to go to the Red Cross. Alva Shepard, who was scheduled to speak, was unable to attend. A supper preceded the meeting, with the following committee in charge: Mrs. Chester Abbott, chairman; Mrs. Edward Cole, Mrs. John Conway, Mrs. John Scherner, Mrs. Alva Wright, Mrs. Marion Wilkinson, Mrs. Avis Sanderson and Mrs. Charles Francis.

The next Circle meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 10, with all-day sewing for the Red Cross.

MOVIES AT MEN'S CLUB

The Men's club of the Christ church met Monday evening in the vestry where movies were shown on the hurricane telephone technique and telephone voice by the Western Electric company.

EASTERN STAR MEET

An amateur minstrel show furnished entertainment for the regular monthly business meeting of the Eastern Star in the Bank Building Tuesday evening, followed by refreshments.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, May 7.

To Present Program Of Parody On Parade

The entire cast of the Men's Club Minstrel show will be emblazoned in all their gay adornment tonight at the dress rehearsal in Memorial Auditorium where they will also give an accomplished performance, Friday evening. Stage manager Joseph Barton assisted by Lou Wrigley have completed the wings and background props carefully planned to harmonize with the costumes, and the endmen are all set to disclose several gags that they have been keeping up their sleeves.

Harvey Seagle will appear again this year singing a parody on the song "Somebody Lied" which somebody might believe. Jim Gorrie will revive one of Al Jolson's favorite songs and Martin Darby will give the masculine version of Bonnie Baker's "You'd Be Surprised." In a topical number the end men have filled the "Little Brown Jug" with some witty remarks with plenty of local color.

After the greetings and opening chorus the program will be as follows: "Oh Johnnie" sung by John Burbine; "Sure As You're Born," George Gorrie; solo, James Sheard;

"Ma," James Davie; "Impersonations," Jack Clark; "Little Red Fox," Harry Duke; specialty, Gus White; "Mammy" James J. Gorrie, Jr.; "Somebody Lied," Harvey Seagle; "The Man Who Comes Around," George Brown; specialty by the Adventurers' quartet; "You'd Be Surprised," Martin Darby; specialty, Norman Leslie; topical song, end men; "Don't Bring Lulu," William C. Valentine; Grand Finale, entire company.

Tickets may still be purchased from the cast or any of the club members.

Urges Vocational Training Classes

In Domestic Science

The establishment of state-subsidized vocational training classes in the various departments of Home Economics in the ninth and tenth grades here was urged upon the local school committee Tuesday evening by Miss Wilson of the State Board of Education. The plan which is now in effect in 46 Bay State communities would mean no additional cost to the town. All the large cities conduct their own classes on a full-time basis, Miss Wilson reported. Young people over 14 years of age who have no bent for academic or business work would be benefited by this course, she said.

The program must be first approved by the town meeting. The school committee will give it careful consideration before making a further decision on it.

LEGION NOTES

The American Legion will hold a round up of members, April 11, in the Legion rooms with the County Commander and the Adjutant preparing the annual Spaghetti supper. All Legionnaires are invited to attend and special guests will make the evening an important one to remember.

On April 18, the Post will hold its observance of Child Welfare Month which is being conducted throughout the Nation by the Legion. Department Vice Commander "Chet" Grant is to be the speaker and anyone interested in the Problems of Youth is invited to attend. A big feature of the evening will be the presentation of the new Oxygen Tent to the town, a gift which was made possible through the voluntary gifts of members of Andover Post.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENJOY TALK BY MANK SISTERS

The regular meeting of the Shawsheer village Woman's club was held Monday evening in Balmoral Hall. The program chairman, Mrs. Joseph T. Gagne, presented Miss Helen and Miss Edith Mank, who gave a very colorful account of the states "In the Land of Little Rain." The lecturers held the group under their spell describing the beauty and wonder of the Middle Western States, including New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming and Colorado.

The Woman's club chorus sang under the direction of Mrs. Charles Lynde accompanied by Mrs. Frederick Smith.

Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Charles E. Bradley.

At the business meeting that preceded the program, the new officers for the year were named, President, Mrs. Frederick C. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. Joseph T. Gagne; second vice-president, Mrs. Edwin L. Bramley; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward Lawson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Percy Nutton; treasurer, Mrs. H. Garrison Holt; directors, Mrs. William W. Kurth and Mrs. Lester M. Thompson.

EXPERT QUESTIONEES AT FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Rev. John Grant was in charge of the Young People's Fellowship meeting, Sunday evening, at the South church when he conducted an interesting program of "Information Please." The members were divided into three groups, and although the questions consisted of facts about the Bible and Easter, most of them were correctly answered by the group.

Next Sunday, Mrs. Myron E. Gutterson will relate her experiences during a trip to the West Indies from which she recently returned.

"Information Please" To Be Continued At Historical Society

The semi-annual meeting of the Andover Historical Society on Tuesday, April 30, at the Society's home, will continue the "Information Please" of the October gathering. On that occasion, various persons who are remodeling old houses in Andover or living in them, or whose families owned such, or who knew facts concerning any, contributed their information for the Society's permanent records. The meeting proved interesting and there was so much to be said, that several important dwellings were crowded out. These, so far as time permits, will be considered.

It is hoped that everybody who is interested in the older Andover houses or has any information concerning any of them, will attend this meeting, whether members of the Society or not. The meeting will be at eight and the usual refreshments will be served.

TO WORK DEGREES

Andover Grange No. 183 will meet in Grange Hall next Tuesday evening at 8:00. At this time the regular officers will work the First degree and the Men's Degree team will work the Second degree on a class of candidates. John Hall, Jr., is in charge of the second degree team.

PHILLIPS CLUB TO HOLD LADIES' NIGHT

Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor, who has aroused so much discussion in Andover by her lectures at the November club, will be the speaker at the Phillips Club Ladies Night which will be held in Peabody House, April 5. A wide-eyed, traveled and well-informed speaker, Mrs. Taylor has chosen "What the World Thinks of America" as her subject. The meeting will begin at 8.30.

R. P. C. TO MEET

The R. P. C. club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Buchan, Lincoln street.

Shall Methuen Or So. Lawrence Represent Us?

Just what does Andover get out of this redistricting? Back in 1925 we gritted our teeth and said: "Well, we'll have to wait ten years, and then maybe in the redistricting Andover will again be represented by someone from Andover." Came 1935, came no redistricting; came 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, still came nothing but South Lawrence Democrats as representatives of Andover Republicans. Came 1940 and with it somewhat of an understanding of the truly complex problem that the special redistricting commission headed by our own Fred Butler faced. When the committee decided that the only thing to do up here was to tie Andover in with Methuen and a Lawrence ward in a triple-member district, still none of us kicked much because we did realize that being a numerical problem it was not an easy one to solve on a basis of community interest.

But now what is happening? The court in a decision prompted by a case down the other end of the county has overruled the committee and told it to try again. And what's happening up here? Some of the politically-minded men over in Lawrence are up in arms because the present districts are to be changed, thus proving that really they are not representing Andover at all, for if they had our interests at heart they certainly would not be advocating a continuance of Andover's fifteen-year disenfranchisement. These men are also appealing to the courts with the hope that the committee will be ordered to try again up at this end of the county.

If they win, Andover loses; but if they don't win and the proposed redistricting is approved, what does Andover get out of it? To be perfectly frank, we get just about what we've been getting. Out-numbered by South Lawrence for fifteen years, it looks very much as if for the next ten or more years we'll be outnumbered by Methuen AND a part of Lawrence, both of which are farther away from us than South Lawrence is.

We weren't planning to kick, because we did realize what a job the committee has, in view of the legislative requirements: that each district should have a certain number of voters, and that no town of a certain population could be divided. But if everyone else is kicking and trying to have things arranged the way they want it, we might as well put in a word or two. Maybe there is no way that the committee under the present statutes can arrange it so that Andover will be represented by someone from Andover, but if there isn't, there should be. If the state legislature cares at all to be perfectly fair about this representation, it should change the law so that in some way communities the size of Andover could have a voice in the legislature. We want it, we deserve it, and if we can't get a voice in it, we're going to talk loud enough outside of it so that in some way we'll be heard and heeded.

Hot Air

Last Friday night the Punchard senior class put on a really finished production of "Marigold"; Tuesday night the children of St. Augustine's school gave a capacity audience an entertaining evening; last night the public school children presented a truly inspiring program; pretty soon the Adventurers will stage their play, the Barnards will be held, and graduations are not far distant. The Memorial Auditorium is being used to its fullest extent and it's proving to be a really grand thing for the town.

BUT—we spent money on a ventilating system. When the building was first opened, the Townsman was told especially about its wonderful ventilating system. But as far as we can determine, it has never worked, and you can't keep cool in the balcony on theory alone. Before many more nights have passed, something should be done about that system. It's there lying idle—and its installers should be made to show why it doesn't work and how it can work.

Community Party
Successful In Shawsheen

Anyone gazing into the Crystal ballroom Monday night would have been convinced that a very good number of Shawsheen residents turning out in a very good cause were having a very good time. Part of it they made for themselves by joining the modern and old-time dances; part of it they saw others make for them, with particular enjoyment being derived from the Jitterbug contest won by Betty Ross and Garrett Burke, Dr. and Mrs. William Doyle won the prize waltz.

Included on the entertainment program were Frank Frisselle, Mrs. Martha Robinson, Fred and Cornelia Yancey, Charles Valentine, Frank McCarthy, Jr., Martin Darby, Monica Collins, James Sheard, Dr. and Mrs. Doyle, Mary Regan, and Louis J. Scanlon.
