Abbot To Hold Festivities

In Honor Of 111th Anniversary

On Saturday, beginning at 1:30 p. m., the buildings and grounds of Abbot academy will be open to the public in celebration of its one hundred and eleventh birthday. All afternoon there will be special exhibits of the work of the Fine and Practical Arts department in the John-Esther Art Gallery.

At 2:00 p. m. there will be a riding drill on the hockey field, which will be in the form of a competition between the Gargoyle and Griffin athletic teams. The riding will be conducted under the supervision of Miss Carpenter and Lyle Phillips.

A program of music by pupils of Miss Friskin and Miss Tingley, and of drama by pupils of Mrs. Gray, will be presented in Davis Hall at 2:45 o'clock.

Andover girls taking part in the musical program are Helen Stott, Annette Cusran, and Gisela Bolten. In the play, "The Princess Marries the Page," Nancy Eccles will be the Lord High Chancellor and Margaret Little will be a soldier.

Immediately following these events there will be a short program of modern dancing on the Abbot Circle by sixty members of Miss Rhodes' classes. From 4 to 6 a gala Bazaar will be held on the grounds behind Draper Hall. Bright colored booths will carry articles and refreshments of all kinds for sale, or entice the guests to various games of riotous fun; there will be a puppet show and a tea room, managed and conducted by the students. The seniors, dressed in red and white, will serve as guides or dispensers of information to the guests. The proceeds of the Bazaar will go to the Abbot Second Century Building fund. Families of a number of the students have already accepted the invitation to attend, and it is hoped that friends of the school in Andover and beyond will be present on Saturday.

Three Percent Of Voters Go To Polls

Only 198 out of Andover's more than 6000 registered voters went to the polls Tuesday for the presidential primaries, but the per vote cost to Andover was not so great as was the case in many of the towns. The local officials foresaw a light vote and opened just one polling place, saving about $300. Other towns in the vicinity had all their polling places open, the cost to them being about $3.00 to $4.00 a vote, whereas Andover's cost was slightly under a dollar.

Of the 198 there were 161 Republicans and only 37 Democrats. There were no contests on either ticket, with the town committees being elected as published last week. However there were only six Democratic names on the ballot for the ten places on the town committee, and the name of William Harnedy and of Joseph Comber was written in, this one vote being sufficient to elect them. The other two members may be named by appointment by the committee itself.

TO ELECT OFFICERS AT FINAL MEETING

The Shawsheen Village Woman's Club will hold the last meeting of the season in Balmoral Hall at 6:30 p.m. Monday, May 6. Dinner will be served, reports will be read, and the election of officers for the coming year will be held. The nominating committee has submitted the following slate of officers: president, Mrs. Frederick C. Smith; vice-presidents, Mrs. Joseph Gagne and Mrs. Edwin L. Bramley; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward Lawson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Percy Nutton; treasurer, Mrs. Garrison Holt.

DOG CLINIC SATURDAY

The dog clinics will be held May 4 from 9:00 to 12:00 at the Ballardvale Engine House; May 11, at the Shawsheen Main Street garage; May 18, at the Central Fire station.

Preview Prize Songs In Annual Concert

Singing against the background of fifty-four Male Choir voices, the clear soprano voice of Miss Olive Appleton possessed all the vigor and verve necessary to express the carefree feeling of Herbert's "Italian Street Song." Miss Appleton was one of the guest stars at the Male Choir annual concert in Memorial Auditorium last evening and besides singing several solos, including the difficult "Le Rossignol Et La Rose," she also sang in duet with Harry Newcombe, baritone, also a guest star, Dite alla giovine from "La Traviata." Both stars gave extremely finished performances adding professional perfection and interpretation to the fine concert program.

The Male Choir sang without accompaniment the two prize selections which they will sing at the New England Federation contest in Melrose, May 18, and if the tremendous ovation received last night is an indication, the local choir will be carrying away the Grand Prize again this year. The sixty boy sopranos, who are becoming known as the Junior Male Choir, surpassed their previous performance of "Omnipotence" as each young singer made a very special effort to be a credit to their seniors.

Even after the completely fulfilling program, the audience applauded for more selections and the choir sang as encores, "The Lost Chord" and the popular "Musical Trust."

Miss Marion Abbott accompanied all selections assisted in two by James Gillespie, Jr. J. Everett Collins directed.

ANNIVERSARY SATURDAY

THRU THE KNOT-HOLE

Well, Bill McDonald's boys started out on the right foot at Tewksbury last Friday...16 to 1... in only seven innings...eighteen hits including four doubles...Tom Noyes was the big noise (in more ways than one) with two singles and two doubles in five trips... Burnham, Lindsay and Kearn each got three bingles...Ferguson and Calder allowed two hits...Noyes erased two men at second when they attempted to steal...His throwing has improved considerably...

The only injury was a wrenched elbow which Bishop received in a collision on the first base line in the first...Collins relieved him... The rookies played the last two or three innings...Lewis at third... Duke at second...Allerruzo, Wood, and Erler in the outfield...

In the rest of the league Methuen got off to a fine start with wins over Dracut and Wilmington... Chelmsford beat Johnson on two hits...It was a tough one for Miller to lose, but Doole also pitched smart ball...It looks like a great season...

It is still a bit too cold for the spectators...There was a raw east wind blowing through the Knothole at the Tewksbury game...Next game for the Punchard boys...Saturday...vs. P. A. Jayvees...then Tuesday Billerica comes here...

Super-Democracy

We've been inclined to scoff quite a bit at the election methods of the totalitarian states in Europe. Over there if you're allowed to vote, you're only allowed to vote a certain way, the way you're told to. But over here we have Democracy and we're all allowed to vote any way we want to. Tuesday we had that so-called privilege, but in Andover less than 200 of the 6000 or so registered voters availed themselves of the privilege.

Why didn't you go to vote? The chances are that you don't feel a bit ashamed, and when you really analyze the situation, there's not much reason why you should be ashamed. What was there to vote for? If you're a Democrat, you were given a ballot on which there were a lot of names, mostly of men and women whom you never heard of. If you were a Republican, you had a different ballot, but it was like the Democratic one in that most of the names were of people you hadn't heard of. On the Democratic ballot you saw the words "Pledged to Farley," and there wasn't much chance for you to vote for anybody else even if you have the same opinion of Mr. Farley that a lot of us have.

The point of the whole matter is that you weren't interested because your vote didn't make any difference anyway. Then why hold such an election? It costs money. Each vote in Andover cost about a dollar; each one in Gloucester about four dollars. Silly, isn't it? A certain number of elections are desirable—but Democracy can be saturated with too much Democracy. Before 1944 comes around, our Legislature should try to find some more efficient method of party procedure to eliminate the ridiculous situation that existed in this state Tuesday.

THE HEALTH-GARD PROCESS

Years of research have culminated in the discovery of a fur cleaning process so important to the life of your fur garment and the health of this city that we have obtained the exclusive use of it in this area. The HEALTH-GARD PROCESS is truly revolutionary for it is the first and only fur cleaning process which cleans, revitalizes, and kills disease germs at the same time. It is a definite health protection.

It gives your fur garment a really thorough and hygienic cleaning according to the accepted furriers' method and the standards prescribed by the HEALTH-GARD PROCESS. The lining is cleaned and the fur itself is cleaned right down to the hide. Dust, dirt and grime are removed, leaving the garment immaculately clean.

The life of your fur garment is actually prolonged by revitalizing. The oils used in the original dressing process which have a tendency to dry up and become resinified are softened and redistributed. When your garment is returned to you it is soft and pliable, and the original luster and sheen are restored.

News of Other Days

Fifty Years Ago

—The game between Phillips and Amherst last Friday afternoon was won by the latter, 4 to 1. Arthur Boutwell, a son of Selectman Boutwell, was in the box for Amherst and did finely.

—Saturday afternoon last, Harvard '93 came here and played a game with the Phillips team. The score at the end of the sixth inning, when the collegians had to leave to catch the train, was Phillips 17, Harvard 1.

—A new flag has been put in the Engine house.

—Steamer No. 2 was out for trial Tuesday evening and was tested on hydrants under different water pressures. At the bridge, (Ballardvale) where there is 106 pounds pressure a magnificent and steady stream was shown. Altogether Ballardvale people are pleased with the waterworks and are inclined to vote it a success.

Twenty-five Years Ago

—The Board of Fire Engineers of the town have organized for the coming year and Charles S.

Buchan has been appointed to succeed Lewis T. Hardy as chief. The other members of the board, Walter I. Morse and Allan Simpson, will be first and second assistants.

—With the changes in the board it has been necessary to hold an election of officers of the Fire company. This was held Wednesday evening and the following were elected: Captain, Frederick Adams; 1st lieutenant, Charles Sena; 2nd lieutenant, Arthur Bliss, Jr.; clerk, Charles A. Hill; treasurer, Lester Hilton.

—The Board of Fire Engineers of the town of Andover have had a serious and difficult problem on their hands in straightening out certain irregularities in the Ballardvale fire department. The trouble seems to have been too much intoxicating liquor consumed by some members of the fire fighting force.

—The first annual concert of the Parish Glee club given last Friday night in the town hall assured it a high place among Andover's musical organizations. A well-arranged program smoothly rendered gave evidence of the careful training of the director, J. Everett Collins.

—The theft of a high-powered Nash car from the garage of Burdard Horne on Bartlet street early Wednesday morning is thought to be the latest chapter in the sensational Andover adventures of Joseph Agofsky, the twenty-year-old desperado who is said to be "out to get two Lawrence policemen."

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin with a tight fitting bodice, and her long, three-tiered train was caught with a coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Meillen of Manchester, N. H., the maid of honor, wore a blue taffeta gown with matching accessories. She carried a Colonial bouquet.

Gerald Roderick of Lynn was the best man and the ushers were: Representative William Booth of Manchester; and three brothers of the groom, James, Clarence and John Woodbury.

Ralph Maszaro of Boston was the soloist and Rev. Thomas B. Austin, O. S. A., performed the ceremony.

Following a reception in Balmoral hall, the couple left on a wedding trip to New York. They will reside at 8 Binney street, Shaw-shien.

Field-Simmers

Prettily decorated with white, pink and blue flowers, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Rev. Hugh Ponny of the Eliot church in Lowell performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a powder blue afternoon dress with Mayflower pink accessories, and she carried an o'd-fashioned bouquet. Her maid of honor, Thelma Field, sister of the groom, wore Aqua chiffon with a corsage of gardenias. Wendall Field was the best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the family home.

Mr. Field passed the bar recently and is practicing law in Lowell. He attended Northeastern Law school, Boston University and Lowell Textile school. Mrs. Field attended the local schools and was for some time a student at the Eliot Hospital School of Nurses in Manchester, N. H.

SORORITY ENJOYS "CARIBBEAN ADVENTURE"

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held by the A. P. C. sorority of the South church last Thursday when Mrs. Myron Gutterson spoke on the subject of "Caribbean Adventure." Mrs. Gutterson has recently returned from a cruise on a freighter of the Royal Netherlands line, during which she stopped at several Caribbean ports and she also spent two weeks in the Dutch West Indies. Because of the war tension some of her experiences were unusual and especially interesting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frederick W. Gould, Mrs. Franklin T. Ellis, Miss Anne Stone and Miss Louise Sherman.

The annual Mothers and Daughters banquet of the sorority will be held next Thursday, May 9, at 6:30. Mrs. Harold T. Godfrey is chairman of the supper, and Mrs. Robert Mower is in charge of the tickets which must be ordered before May 7. Entertainment will be provided by the Beverly Hand Bell Ringers and by Patricia and Nancy Barnard.

May Breakfast Attracts Large Crowd

The American Legion Auxiliary wishes to thank all those who so kindly donated food and money toward the annual May breakfast in the Legion rooms Wednesday morning. Over 200 people enjoyed the generous servings of beans and ham and other home-cooked foods.
