Five Refugee Students Included In Capacity Abbot Enrollment

Many Changes In Faculty And Administration Mark New Term

Abbot Academy will open for its one hundred and twelfth session on Tuesday, September 24, when the new students arrive. They will be greeted not only by the faculty, but by a committee of "old girls," officers of the Senior Class and the Student Government Association, who will arrive a day earlier than the other old girls to be guides and hostesses to the new girls.

This year, as for several years past, the school is filled to capacity, and in addition has made available space, ordinarily not used for students, for five English "war guests." These girls, all thirteen years old, have been personally selected by an Abbot teacher whose home is in Bath, England.

There will be thirty-six day scholars at Abbot this year, residents of Andover and the vicinity. Barbara Lindsay and Jean Schubert, both former students of Pynchard High School, entering the second year class, have been awarded scholarships on the basis of their excellent scholastic records.

The principal announces several changes in the faculty for the coming year. Miss M. Dorothy Baker of Bath, England, who has been on a year's leave, expects to return to teach again in the English Department. During the school year she will be personally in charge of the English girls who are to be the guests of the school.

Miss Helene Crooks will take the place of Miss Ruth Baker in the French Department. Miss Ruth Baker, who had taught at Abbot for twenty years, was married in June to Professor James Chester Bradley of Cornell University. Miss Crooks, who was born and brought up in France came to this country first as an exchange scholar to Vassar College, from which she graduated in 1920. She has taught in several American schools, and was for some years supervisor in the practice school of the State College for Teachers in Albany, New York. She comes to Abbot, however, directly from Vassar College where she has recently been teaching in the French Department. Miss Crooks has also been continuing her studies at the Sorbonne toward the Doctorat d'Universite, but has had to postpone indefinitely further study in France.

Miss Mary Mills Hatch (Mrs. Harold Marnham) is to teach Art in the place of Mr. Francis Merritt. Mr. Merritt has been called to the Art Department of Colby College. Miss Hatch, who is a gifted artist, has studied in Paris and in London as well as in this country.

COLLINS, BUTLER, BUSHNELL, FROST ALL WIN IN STATE PRIMARIES

Selectman J. Everett Collins successfully negotiated the primary election Tuesday to become the first man in fifteen years to stand a chance of being elected representative from this town. With three to be nominated by the Republican party the local selectman came in third and will be in a field of five in November.

Andover received what really is a 50-50 break in the representative contest, for another of the successful nominees, Attorney Raymond A. Schlapp, is really half-Andover, having been brought up and educated here although he now lives in Methuen. In first place was present representative Harold S. Pedler of Methuen who has shown sufficient interest in the four component parts of the district to advocate that the three representatives hold a meeting as a board once a month in each of the four parts at which time all citizens who wanted to be heard could have an audience.

School committeeman Bower of Methuen also managed to get on the final ballot. Although a Republican enough people voted for him on stickers on the Democratic ballot to nominate him as a Democrat.

Protest Meeting On Phone Rates To Be Held Monday Evening

The telephone wires are getting hotter and hotter in Andover as the state public utilities commission continues to keep mum on the many complaints about high rates sent by Andover phone users. To date not one letter has been answered by the commission except one sent earlier by Selectman Roy E. Hardy, and this apparent lack of interest on the part of the commission has made the local interest more keen.

Next Monday evening at 7:30 there's to be a meeting on the subject down at the assembly hall in the administration building. It is being sponsored by the Andover business and professional men's committee, Joseph A. Mulvey, chairman, and the Andover Service club, Judge Walter Tomlinson, chairman.

Two prominent Shawsheen village business men sent letters this week. One from T. P. Kelley, president and treasurer of the Shawsheen Dairy, is reprinted elsewhere in this issue.

Following is a letter sent by the manager of the Shawsheen Main street garage who states that the

Joseph R. Cotton, Chairman

Dear Sir:

I feel that I speak the thoughts of the great majority of the people of Andover when I express the feeling to you that the recent foreign exchange rates which you established are almost ridiculously exorbitant. Even with the 10% reduction in mileage charge which you ordered, the average residential bill is $18.00, and the average business rate is $20.00. In the latter case furthermore the Telephone Company has limited the number of calls to Lawrence to 70, which makes the average cost per call over 26 cents, this despite the fact that no limit was set in your order.

Many people in Andover feel that there is no need for foreign exchange service anyway; that all Andover should have unlimited service to Lawrence, just as Methuen and North Andover have. Of course, if the majority of Andover people prefer to have the present limited service at 50 cents a month lower charge, that should continue, but it seems to me that since Andover's population is constantly changing, the department should once again hold a poll to determine whether the majority now prefers unlimited or limited service.

If the majority of Andover subscribers want to have no toll charge to Lawrence, the change should be effected as soon as possible, making it unnecessary for anyone who wants unlimited service to pay the present outrageous $18.00 or $20.00 rate.

May we hope that the Town of Andover will see some immediate action on this important matter.

Sincerely yours,
T. P. KELLEY

EVERETT COLLINS TO CARRY ANDOVER'S HOPES IN NOVEMBER ELECTION

since there was only one man running for the three positions there. Bower was fifth among Republicans.

Andover also had further cause to rejoice, for its own Fred Butler had a runaway victory for county commissioner despite all the abuse that had been heaped on him during the campaign by his opponents and during the term by commissioner C. F. Nelson Pratt. Furthermore Fred's colleague, Commissioner Bentley, went back in with an excellent vote, although many political wiseacres had wagged their heads despairingly when Fred publicly teamed up with Mr. Bentley. The endorsement of the pair will show that they have sufficient public confidence to help them ward off the talk of Mr. Pratt.

Then to make the day complete, another former Andover boy did all right by himself. Bob Bushnell, who lived here for some years, won the Republican nomination for attorney-general. He had many local active supporters.

Everett Collins ran well ahead in Andover, although the vote was very light. He was, however, a poor seventh in Methuen, a good fourth in North Andover and was in a tie for fifth in Lawrence. In the total Pedler was well ahead with 3487, Schlapp, whose mother passed Fred Butler garnered 27,496 votes and Mr. Bentley 20,388. No opponent had over 10,000.

Archie N. Frost, also of Andover, managed to annex not only the Republican nomination for county clerk of courts but also the Democratic nomination over two oppo-

Forty "Holt's" Return To Andover For Thirteenth Reunion

The Holt Association of America held its 13th annual summer reunion in New England at West Andover on Sunday. About forty members attended morning worship at the West Parish Church, where both the music and the sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Donald H. Savage, were most suitable to the occasion.

Following the service, the family group strolled about the lawn, renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances, then gathered in the parish house for luncheon. Mrs. William Trow and her loyal helpers, ladies of the parish, had prepared coffee and other delicious additions to the box lunches brought by the members.

At two o'clock the annual summer meeting was called to order by William Trow, vice-president for New England. Mr. Trow served as chairman throughout the meeting, greeted the members, read several letters and cards from different members giving their regrets for their absence and sincere greetings to those able to attend, then introduced in turn the President, Mrs. Edith Holt Tydman of Easton, Pa., and Miss Grace Noyes of Lawrence, who acted as assistant secretary in the place of Mrs. Helen Holt McLaughlin of Meriden, Conn., secretary, whose absence was regretted by all.

The meeting was made short, including in addition to reports of the officers already mentioned, the report of the Membership Chairman Miss Hattie F. Holt of Nashua, N. H., whose service in her department is an achievement of which the Association is deeply indebted.

Then came the visit to the old home on Holt's Hill, where "Cousin Mabel" Ward greeted all with her usual generous hospitality. Several additional members, including Mr. Charles Tapley of Danvers, joined the group on the hill, and together with Mrs. Ward and her aides, all dressed in Colonial costumes, made a picture never to be forgotten. Several young people acted as guides to lead the hill climbers to the spot on top of Holt's Hill, where Mrs. Ward has erected a very unusual memorial to her husband. This monument is in the form of solstice stones, arranged about a giant mill stone so as to mark the spring and fall solstices.

After the climb all were again welcomed to the charming old home and enjoyed ice cream and dainty refreshments. A pleasant incident was the customary process of each person present, to sign their name in the family book, thereby recalling every member visiting the homestead each year by merely referring to this historical book.

A long, perfect day of sunshine, joyful reunions, and promises of other happy days to come finally came to an end, and regretfully the "cousins" turned their way homeward, but knowing that next year their joyous experience was again to be repeated.

Ask Another Main Street Gas Station

Punchard To Have All-Girl Band; Team Progressing

There are colleges—and for fear of hurting the feelings of local Harvard graduates, we won't mention any names—that aren't very strong in football but can speak with justifiable pride of how their band outspelled Dartmouth on the gridiron. It's a bit early to prophesy just how strong the Punchard football team will be, but this much is certain: Punchard will have a honey of a band.

It's to be an all-girl band, and just wait until you see the uniforms! Made of gabardine, they are to be blue of course, a bit on the sky-blue, with plenty of gold braid across the front. The skirts are to be very full and the hats will be tall with plumes and a gold eagle emblem.

Miss Miriam Sweeney has been organizing and directing the girls. They are to be a regular fixture at all Punchard football games, even those away from home.

Now to get back to the team. The boys, not one of whom starred last year, are slowly rounding into shape and are showing commendable spirit as they approach their first game with Amesbury a week from Saturday at the playstead. The boys from down-river, many of whom are veterans, have been practicing since mid-August and will have the advantage of a game tomorrow night with Methuen.

Miss Brierly Wins Youth Scholarship In State Contest

Miss Ethel Brierly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brierly of Tewksbury street, Ballardvale, has received word that she is the winner of a State-wide National Youth Administration competition and that at a meeting of the National Youth Association tomorrow afternoon in the Park Square building, Boston, she will receive a four year scholarship to Emmanuel college. State Youth Director John L. Donovan will make the presentation.

All youth project workers in the state were eligible for the contest which was decided by the record of high school marks. A graduate of Punchard high school in 1939, Miss Brierly's scholastic record reveals that she was an honor student for four years and was the Valedictorian of her class. Before she was informed of her good fortune in winning the scholarship to Emmanuel, she had planned to take a medical-secretarial course at the Fisher school in Boston.

Miss Ruth Fairweather is recuperating at her home on Summer street after receiving treatment in a Boston hospital.

Why Do They Do It?

Why do so many of the best stores and the best firms advertise in the Townsman? Primarily they do it because they know that the small cost is far more than offset by the large returns. And, they get large returns because Andover's residents read their ads in the Townsman . . . because the Townsman provides them with the best advertising illustration service available . . . because great care is exercised in the laying out and printing of their advertisements. To make your sales increase, call the Townsman. That's a job we can do.

Delayed Action Bullet Fired In Car Chase

Officer Carl Stevens had to yank out his gun and shoot at an automobile tire on South Main street last night to inform a colored driver that a whistle, flashlight, siren and several sundry media of signalling really do mean stop. The driver finally did stop. Carl thought sure he hit the tire, but when the car stopped, the tire was not flat. However, on the way back to the station the tire did inflate Carl's ego by deflating itself.

Carl first tried to stop the car for cutting out near Locke street, but orthodox methods didn't work even as far down the road as Witham's.

Academy Announces Excellent Concert Series For Coming Year

KERSTIN THORBORG

From Phillips Academy comes the announcement of a series of three concert celebrities this fall and winter. The chosen artists are Mischa Elman, internationally famous violinist, Kerstin Thorborg, the leading Metropolitan Opera Contralto, and Luboshutz and Nemenoff, the celebrated duopianists. Although these concerts have been arranged primarily for the students and faculty of Phillips Academy, the public from Andover and the surrounding communities will be privileged to subscribe at popular prices. The events take place on Friday evenings, November 22, January 24, and February 28,—dates which immediately precede the Symphony Hall engagements of the same stars.

Elman made his first American appearance in 1908 and since that time has been in the foremost rank of living violinists. When he recently appeared at the Lewisohn Stadium in New York all attendance records of the season were broken. Madame Thorborg has shared with Madame Flagstad an enviable place in the Metropolitan Opera. Her portrayals of Ortrud, Brangaene, Amneris, and Fricka have brought her world-wide fame. Luboshutz and Nemenoff, the brilliant duopianists, are Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Luboshutz in private life. Last year the pair scored one of the outstanding successes of the Boston season when they appeared as soloists with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

All enquiries should be addressed to George Washington Auditorium, Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.

PROTEST MEETING

supposed reduction in foreign exchange rates actually resulted in an increase of from $25.40 to $33.69 in his case.

Gentlemen:

We are one of the 801 foreign exchange subscribers as mentioned in your D. P. U. report 5994 and note that a new schedule providing for a reduction affecting foreign exchange service went into effect July 21, 1940.

We should like to place before you certain facts which we believe have escaped your notice.

We have a business in Andover and have Lawrence phone service. Previous to July 21, 1940 our Lawrence telephone was billed to us at $25.40 per month with an unlimited number of calls. This rate was based on $1.20 per quarter mile plus regular service. Under the supposed reduction now in effect, we find that the rate is based at $1.00 per quarter mile plus regular service which totals $20.00 monthly, but limited to seventy calls per month.

In your report 5994 we do not see any mention of limited service. Incidentally, we have for the month just ended a total of 428 calls less 70 calls allowed making a total of 358 units charged for. We find upon comparison that our last bill as rendered by the Telephone Company amounts to $33.69 as against $25.40 which we formerly paid.

We would appreciate an explanation and are accordingly enclosing a self addressed stamped envelope for your reply.

Thanking you, we are,

Respectfully yours

Surprise Concert To Be Featured At State Get-Together

The annual Massachusetts Get-Together of the Arbroathians to be held September 28 at Memorial auditorium has an air of mystery about it and the committee has an option on the key. After the supper, which will be served at 6:00, a concert program has been planned with the star performers remaining a deep dark secret.

Fred Scott, Mr. and Mrs. William Watt, James Watt, Margaret Renny and Ella Petrie are in charge of arrangements and the only statement they'll make is "you'd better come."

Wednesday, September 25, is the last chance to get tickets and any member of the committee will be glad to take your order. Dancing will conclude the evening's entertainment.

The next regular meeting of the association will be on October 14.

Obituaries

Mrs. William B. Cheever

The neighbors and many friends of Mrs. William B. Cheever were saddened to learn of her death on Monday morning, which occurred at her home on Chestnut street. After long days and nights of weariness, her rest had come.

Annie Durrie Holt was the daughter of Samuel B. Holt and Caroline Lucy Abbott, born in Andover, September 10, 1866. Educated in our public schools, she graduated from Pynchard High school in the class of 1884. She married William B. Cheever, August 21, 1888.

Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Lyman F. and W. Abbott; two daughters, Elsie B. Cheever of Washington, D. C., and Lucy M., Mrs. William Fessenden of Andover; and one grandchild, Marjorie Fessenden; a sister, Mrs. Frank H. Kendall of Andover; and a brother, George A. Holt.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Frederick B. Noss of the South Church on Wednesday at the Lundgren Funeral Home, and burial was in the family lot in Spring Grove Cemetery.

"For friendly hands stretched out in time of need—For gracious thought and word and deed. We thank Thee, Lord."

Elmer Shattuck

Elmer Shattuck, who lived most of his seventy-five years in Ballardvale where he was a member of the fire department, died early Friday morning at the Lillian Smith Nursing home in Tewksbury. He was born in Hartford, Vt.

Services were held Sunday afternoon at the Lundgren funeral home and burial was in the Spring Grove cemetery. Masonic services were conducted by St. Matthew's lodge.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Charles N. Marland, and three nieces and a nephew.

Mrs. Florence Schlapp

In the morning of the primary election that voted her son, Atty. Raymond W. Schlapp, Republican candidate for State Representative, Mrs. Florence Schlapp, widow of Frederick W. Schlapp, former representative, passed away at her home, 16 Strathmore road, Methuen, after a long illness.

Born in Lawrence fifty-five years ago, Mrs. Schlapp lived for some time in this town with her family. She was proprietor of the taxi business at the Lawrence Boston and Maine railroad station and was active in the business.

Besides her son, she is survived by a sister, Miss Lotta M. Johnson, R. N., of this town.

The funeral is to be held this afternoon at the funeral chapel of Julius B. Emmert and sons, Lawrence, with services by Rev. Clinton W. Carvell.

Mrs. Agnes Stewart

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes Stewart, widow of Robert Stewart, was held Sunday afternoon at her home, 120 North Main street, where she passed away on Friday. Rev. Herman C. Johnson conducted the services and interment was in Spring Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Stewart, who was born in Scotland 81 years ago, has resided in this town for the past 40 years.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Henry Cairnie, three sons, Peter Stewart, Alexander Stewart and John B. White; and several grandchildren.

Rev. Charles Otis

The sudden passing, last Thursday, of Father Otis, who had recently returned to Boston as Superior of the Society of St. John the Evangelist, recalls to the minds of his many friends in Andover his boyhood days in the Glebe House on Central street, and later on Salem street, and his brilliant record at Phillips Academy, where, for fifteen terms, Charlie Otis consistently made the first honor roll—a feat undoubtedly never equalled by any other student at the school. A lover of music and of the classics, his precise and deliberate speech betokened a thoughtful and orderly mind. Of more than usual stature, like his mother and brother, he had also a large heart and a cheery soul, and among his happiest moments in later years were the occasions of his visits to his old home town to see old friends or to occupy the pulpit of Christ church. Graduating from Yale with high honors, he gave his life to the service of his church in Boston, New York, and San Francisco. His departure from the latter city this spring was made memorable by the awarding of the well deserved doctor of divinity degree at Berkeley, California.

A vacation on an island in Portland Harbor made his last summer a happy one. His earnest and joyous service of his Master will remain a constant challenge to all who knew and loved him.
