W. A. C. To Seek Andover Recruits

Sergeant Mary Carlin of Denver, Colorado, will be in town the week of May 1st to 7th to interview local women interested in joining the W.A.C. She will have her headquarters during the day at the local Gas and Electric Co. office at 5 Main street from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and in the evening at the Andover Service Men's Headquarters in the Red Cross rooms at 85 Main street from 6:30 to 8:30.

Open House will be held on Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m., sponsored by the American Legion Women's auxiliary in the American Legion rooms, at which time Capt. Dorothy L. Kenna of Framington will be guest speaker, a movie will be shown and representatives from many different states in the W.A.C. will speak of their experiences in the Woman's Army Corps. All who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

Women are needed especially for training in the Transportation corps, the Signal corps, Medical and Air corps, as Laboratory Technicians and Physiotherapists. All women between the ages of 20 through 49 are eligible if they have had two years of high school or its equivalent, no dependents under 14, if they can pass the mental and physical tests, and are U.S. citizens.

After five weeks' basic training, those who wish may be sent back to New England, there to study in whatever branch of the service they prefer.

Girls Friendly to Present Play

The Girls' Friendly, of Christ church are once again in the midst of rehearsals for their annual Spring play, "The Three Pegs," by Alice Williams Chaplin, to be presented Friday evening, May 12, under the able direction of Mrs. Irving Humphreys.

The play has an experienced cast, as many of the girls have taken part in other Friendly productions in the past, and "The Three Pegs" promises in every way to live up to past performances.

The cast includes: Barbara Smith, Doris Hilton, Betty Russell, Thelma Beck, Isabel Anderson, Gertrude Taylor, Doris Howells, Minnie Valentine, and Thelma Colburn.

SERVICE CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

A monthly meeting of the Andover Service Club will be held tonight at the Andover Inn, where dinner will be served at 6:15 o'clock. Edwin L. Bramley, district manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company, will speak on the many uses to which telephones are being put in the successful prosecution of World War II. Since the National Defense Program started in 1940, the Bell system has supplied the needs of Army, Navy, war production factories, and many other war activities. In all, the Bell system has increased the number of telephones in service by over 4½ million.

Large Gathering of Parishioners Plan Farewell Affairs For Father Austin

Plans for the celebration of Father Austin's silver jubilee were further advanced last night when a large number of parishioners met to discuss the program. If their respected and beloved pastor must go, at least the going apparently will be preceded by a series of memorable events.

The night of the reception, Thursday, June 8th, the speakers and entertainment will be from the people Father Austin knew and worked with. Selectman Roy E. Hardy, Rev. Mr. Noss, representing the Andover Association of Ministers, and Dr. Claude M. Fuess will be among the speakers. The Andover Male Choir, under the direction of J. Everett Collins, will sing. Additional plans are being made to invite other guests.

The committees are as follows: General committee, John F. O'Connell, Chairman; Louis E. Gleason, Treasurer; Jere J. Twomey, Vice Chairman; Joseph A. McCarthy, Secretary.

In order to meet the Thursday afternoon mail delivery, we find it necessary again to ask all those having material to insert in the Townsman to send or bring it to the office as early in the week as possible.

Every business has found that life isn't quite what it used to be, and this is just as true of the newspaper business as of any business. We've been lucky in finding sufficient help, and good help; they're a bunch who have been willing to go for all they're worth on a Thursday morning, and through Thursday dinner hours in order to have you receive your Townsman on time. But we should like to eliminate the necessity for that too often nerve-racking Thursday morning, and for that reason we are seeking your cooperation.

Everything that it is possible to get in on Monday and Tuesday should be in on those days. Only those items arriving on Wednesday which MUST arrive on Wednesday, will be accepted.

G. O. P. Nominee To Be Broadcast Subject

"The Republican Presidential Nominee—What Will He Be Like?" is the topic to be discussed on the Phillips Academy hour over WLAW this evening at eight.

The speakers will all be Phillips academy students: Irving W. Bonbright, Charles Y. Chittick, and Frederick A. Sanborn, Phillipian editor. Philip Potter of the faculty will be the moderator.

Few Voters Turn Out for Primaries

Republican, Democrat Town Group Named

Out of 6306 registered voters, only 137 appeared at the polls for the presidential primaries to do little more than prove that the judgment of the registrars in cutting down the voting hours and polling places was well-founded.

There were no contests on the two ballots, the principal matter of local interest being the ratification of previously picked slates for the Democratic and Republican town committees. Four others were elected to the Democratic committee, three on stickers and one by writing in, since there were only six names on the ballot with ten to be elected.

Elected to the Republican town committee were Kirk R. Batcheller, Elizabeth R. Caldwell, Frederick E. Cheever, Elizabeth A. Collins, Percy W. R. Davis, Blanche K. Elliott, Marion G. Graham, Edward P. Hall, Edmond E. Hammond, C. Madeleine Hewes, Gladys A. Hill, Mitchell Johnson, Hilda G. Lewis, John M. MacKenzie, Clifford E. Marshall, Gavin H. McGhie, Vivian

Expresses Confidence In Property's Future

Mrs. William Shaw, a former resident of Ballardvale now living in California, has written to the trustees of the Shaw Realty trust, expressing confidence that the future generations will thank them for their foresight.

The letter follows:
Gentlemen:

In accordance with your communication of April 10, I enclose certificate No. 55 standing in my name for two shares in the Shaw Realty Trust.

I am very glad I had a part in this transaction. I know how heartily my husband would have approved and it was always brother David Shaw's dream that some day the Town would acquire his property.

Whether when things are normal once more the property is simply used as the site of a new Town Hall or developed more extensively into a beautiful civic center of which Andover will always be proud in the years to come, I feel confident that future generations will thank the Trustees of the Shaw Realty Trust for their foresight and the business acumen that made the ultimate purchase by the Town possible.

Very sincerely yours,
MRS. WILLIAM SHAW

"Pirates of Penzance" Successfully Presented

The joint presentation by Abbot's Fidelio Society and the Phillips Academy Glee club of "The Pirates of Penzance" was enthusiastically received by a large audience last Friday evening when the performance was given for the townspeople. Always an eagerly awaited event, this year's production was no disappointment.

Alva Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Houston of Hidden road was outstanding as Mabel, the heroine. She was completely at ease in movement as well as in voice, and lent an air of complete naturalness to her part. The several difficult arias were beautifully sung and her own manner added to the charm of the entire production.

Betty Coulson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Z. William Coulson of Methuen, was also excellent as Edith, another of the Major-General's daughters. These daughters, in typically Gilbert and Sullivan manner, managed to get in and out of ridiculous situations with the greatest of ease, much to the delight of the audience.

Frederic the pirateer, sung by Frederick Pratt, II, apprenticed in his youth to the pirate band until his twenty-first birthday, learns, as he reaches the end of his apprenticeship, that he was born in Leap-year and consequently has actually reached only his fifth birthday. Being a conscientious lad and duty-bound, he ruefully announces to his lately-found love that he must remain a pirate until he is eighty-four, and she, of course, promises to wait for him.

Pamela Clark, as Ruth, the nurse, caused the ensuing mixup many years before, it seems, when she misunderstood the instructions of Frederic's father to apprentice him to a pilot and contacted the pirates instead. It was easier to stay with the outlaws, however, than to do any explaining, and so she also joined the band.

Peter Stevens, as the Pirate King, who, with his followers, cowed the entire local police force, gave a fine performance, aided, in part at least, by some especially effective makeup. It was he, the tender-hearted villain, who relented in traditional manner, and brought the operetta to a happy ending by settling for equal distribution of wives among his men with the girls' approval and the Major-General's blessing.

The operetta was directed by Professor Walter E. Howe, director of music at Abbot Academy, and Dr. Carl F. Pfatteicher, head of the music department at Phillips Academy.

The principal characters: Major-General Stanley, Benjamin Brewster; the Pirate King, Peter Stevens; Samuel, David Thaw; Frederic, Frederick Pratt; sergeant of police, Harry Reid; Mabel, Alva Houston; Edith, Betty Coulson; Kate, Gretchen Fuller; Isabel Janet Hitchcock; Ruth, Pamela Clark.

PLUMBING INSPECTION

The Board of Health of Andover has been advised by the State Board of Registration in Plumbing that installation of tankless hot water heaters comes under plumbing. A permit must be taken out by a Master Plumber for the installation and the work must be inspected and approved by the Plumbing Inspector.

Houston chairman, assisted by Miss Anne Harnedy; Miss Florence Houston, Mrs. Eugene Lovely, Mrs. Benjamin Schubert and Mrs. Arthur Steinert. # NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

The Servicemen's Page is prepared by the Townsman editors with the active assistance of the Servicemen's Fund Association.

The Townsman is sent each week, free of charge, to every local serviceman by the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We shall appreciate receiving up-to-the-minute addresses for all Andover men and women in service, in order that our mailing list may be kept accurate.

Sgt. Joseph W. Hanson, located in Italy, writes the Andover Servicemen's Fund Association, telling us that he has just received his birthday card, and it was greatly appreciated by him. Joe writes he is feeling fine and getting along good. He tells us there are a lot of Andover boys over there, but he has failed to run into any of them yet. When he was in North Africa, he met Mary Winslow. Raymond Gaudette from Carters' Corner is in his outfit. Joe has been over-seas for 22 months, and has done a lot of traveling—started at Syria and worked up to Italy. He has been through the desert, and surely hopes he will never have to go through it again.

2nd Lt. Joseph Serio located at Langley Field, Va., tells the Fund Association that he received his birthday card and it was the finest card a serviceman could want to get.

Pvt. James Skea writes us that he is somewhere in the Marshall Islands. Although he can't say which one, he says there is a big difference between the island and Andover! We're sorry, Jim, but we have no way of knowing whether other Andover boys are located near you.

S/Sgt. Samuel A. Boutwell of Andover is serving overseas with a U. S. Army Engineer Forestry Company which in three months operation in Italy has produced sufficient lumber to free three Liberty ships for ammunition and other military cargo. Operating under the handicap of severe winter weather, the Forestry Company has fought its way through heavy snowdrifts to provide vitally needed timbers, plankings, pilings, and structural material to meet the needs of the Fifth Army. Overseas 11 months, this unique organization, the only one of its kind in the European Theater of Operations, sawed over one million board feet of lumber for military requirements in North Africa before arriving in Italy in December, 1943.

Corporal Chester J. S. Harnden is headed overseas with the Army Air Force, and Staff Sergeant Edward Coates is with the Army Signal Corps in California. Their wives arrived home in Andover Saturday night after a visit with them.

Pvt. Albert Frederick, weighing 12 stone 9 lbs. received his Good Conduct medal and his E. T. O. Service ribbon on April 1st. The "12 stone" apparently means a gain in weight because he was 135 when he left Andover on March 15, 1943, and 151 lbs. when he left for the "European Theatre of Operations." En route to England on Dec. 20th, he spent Christmas and New Year's on the ship.

Sgt. Ivan Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Myers. He is a draftsman for an Engineering Co., stationed somewhere in Italy. Before going in the service was employed at the Lawrence Print Works.

Aerographer's mate, second class, Michael E. Brennan, N.S.N.R., reports that while he was in Newfoundland he met several Andover boys: Corporal Technician Robert Donaghey, Lieutenant (j.g.) John A. Higgins, P.F.C. Harry Duke, U.S.M.C. P.F.C. Charles A. Hurley, Edwin McFarlin, Seaman first class, U.S.N.R., Warren Gauthier, U.S.N.R., gunner's mate, second class, and several men from neighboring towns. Brennan has completed about 27 months in the Navy and saw duty for 21 months in the North Atlantic. After his enlistment in February and boot training at Newport, R. I., he was assigned to Boston and transferred to Newfoundland as an apprentice seaman. He is now assigned to an aircraft carrier.

According to word received by Mrs. Ramsay, her husband, 2nd Lt. Winton Ramsay, has arrived with his crew safely in England.

Lt. Richard Simmers, A.A.C., has returned to his station at Newport, Ark., after a few days spent at his home on Enmore street.

GM 3/c Jimmy Coleman, of Florence street, who entered the service last April and has since traveled practically all over the world, is back in the states for a short visit. He told us that nearly all the Townsmen from September 26th to March 1st finally caught up with him at one time in Iran.

Like other New Englanders, T/5 Henry Towne can appreciate the beauty of Hawaii, but he still says, "Give me good old Andover." He tells us the local news from home is like a spring tonic. We take it though, that he doesn't need a real spring tonic, as where he is, on the island on Oahu, "the climate only varies 8 to 10 degrees the year round."

Quite a few changes of address have come to us this week: Pfc. Charles Calderwood to Greenville, Pa.; Pvt. William Beaulieu to Kearns, Utah; Cpl. Richard Douglas to Camp Van Dorn, Miss.; Lt. Leslie R. Hadley to Topeka, Kansas; BM 2/c Lawrence K. Dole to Davisville, R. I. Lt. David W. Brown to Talahassie, Fla.; Lt. E. Clark, c/o Postmaster, N. Y.; Lt. (j.g.) John Sheehy, c/o FPO, N. Y.; Sgt. George Lawrence to Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; A/C Norman Eaton to Shaw Field, N. C.; Lt. James F. Dolan, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco; S 2/c Thomas F. McNamara to Solomons, Md.; Lt. Robert Haigh to L. I., N. Y. Cpl. George C. Clark to c/o Postmaster, N. Y.; 2nd Lt. Frank Koza to Colorado Springs, Colo.; H.A.1/c Anne A. Hathaway to the Chelsea Naval Hospital; S/Sgt. Arthur Kibbee to Amarillo, Tex.; Pvt. Gordon B. Cannon to Fort Ord, Cal.; Cpl. Joseph N. Roy, c/o FPO, San Francisco; S 2/c A. B. Ferrier, c/o FPO, New York; Gerard N. Twomey to Camp Livingston, La.; Lt. John W. Anderson, c/o Postmaster, New York; Sgt. James A. McKee, c/o FPO, San Francisco; Cpl. Kenneth Lewis to Fort Bragg, N. C.; Chaplain (Capt.) Herman C. Johnson, c/o Postmaster, N. Y.; Pvt. Joseph L. Cantanzaro to Camp Shelby, Miss.; BM 2/c Hans D. Gordon, c/o FPO, San Francisco.

New addresses for Sgt. H. J. Garceau, c/o Postmaster, N. Y.; Ensign Victor J. Mill, Jr., in Washington, D. C.; and Y 1/2 R Kenneth P. Thompson at Berkeley, Norfolk, Va. Word has come from Don Burns that he has been promoted to Sgt. and is still at Camp Breckinridge; also from Charles L. Ware that he has been promoted to T-5 at Camp McCoy, Wis.

Charles L. Sellars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellars, 5 Avon street, has been commissioned a second lieutenant in ceremonies at Fort Knox, Ky. He was a member of the 61st graduating class of the Armored Officer Candidate School. The new officers received their gold bars upon completion of a rigorous 17-week course covering every phase of the employment of armored equipment and organizations in modern warfare. As their first assignment, they will serve as battle training instructors in the Armored Replacement Training Center at Fort Knox. After four weeks, most of the officers will be assigned to armored divisions or separate tank battalions as tank platoon commanders.

S 1/c Joseph Winters has written his thanks for the Christmas package and like all the rest of the boys, he is "looking forward to the day when we can go back to the best little town in the world."

Sgt. Proctor Ransden, 28 Coolidge road, is technician in the photography laboratory of a U. S. Ninth Air Force Marauder station. He is shown on the left.

T/Sergeant. Don Surette, former Townsman photographer, is still as busy as ever, it seems—this time his brain-child is a book of photographs entitled "Soldiers, Cameras and Stuff" recently published by the Base Photo lab and dedicated to the late Lieut. Gen. Frank M. Andrews, past commanding officer of the Caribbean Area. Serving as co-editor with Cpl. Herbert A. Saylor, also of the 16th Air Base Headquarters Squadron, Don devoted his book to photographs of the men taken on duty, jungle trips, and intimate shots at work. Though published solely for the benefit of the photo lab, the book is available for any interested readers.

Robert M. Emmons, is one of 118 cadets just graduated from Colgate University's Naval Flight Preparatory School. He now reports to the War Training Service Unit at Amherst College for his first flight instruction. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Emmons, 50 York street, Andover, he is a 1943 graduate of Holderness School and attended Bowdoin College before joining the Navy.

Pvt. Donald Peter MacLellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. MacLellan, 90 Poor street, has reported at the Army Air Forces Training Command at Keesler Field to begin a phase of processing designed to determine his qualifications as a pre-aviation cadet.

S 1/c Roland Gallant who has been spending some time with his parents the Joseph Gallants, leaves this week for Florida. He expects to go to school of instruction on sub chasers.

The Townsman had an interesting letter from Pfc. Joseph H. Davey saying that on April 4 he was sworn in as an American citizen over in Ireland. He was born in Ireland about twenty years ago and, as he says, "it seems strange to come all the way over here and become a citizen."

Servicemen's Page is prepared by the Townsman editors with the assistance of the Servicemen's association. The Townsman is sent each week, charge, to every local service organization, including the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We shall appreciate up-to-the-minute advertising for all Andover men and women in service, in order that our list may be kept accurate.

Herbert M. Emmons, is one of 118 men just graduated from Col. University's Naval Flight Preparatory School. He now reports to War Training Service Unit at West College for his first flight instruction. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Emmons, 50 York street, Andover, he is a 1943 graduate of Ames High School and attended West College before joining the service.

Private Donald Peter MacLellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. MacLellan, 100 York street, has reported at the 7th Air Forces Training Center at Keesler Field to begin a course of processing designed to define his qualifications as a pre-flight cadet.

Private Roland Gallant who has been spending some time with his family at the Joseph Gallants, leaves this week for Florida. He expects to go to school of instruction on the coast.

FOOD FIGHTS FOR FREEDOM

The job of winning the war is not nearly over—not by a long shot, and as time goes by it becomes increasingly evident that help, in the form of food and of seed supplies, will be needed for the millions of people of war-ravaged Europe and Asia whose lands have been laid waste.

As a matter of hard fact, and cold statistics, the total acreage for commercial vegetable production is going to be drastically cut below last year's; and much of the commercial output will go to our armed forces and lend lease. So plan on a Victory Garden this year.

To those who had one last year—make it better and more efficient. To those who did not—the state agricultural schools and local agencies offer help in every way.

Fifteen major mistakes were made last year according to a group of State agricultural experts. They are as follows:

1. Too much of one thing grown. Beans, lettuce, cabbage, and chard were the chief offenders.
2. Too little succession planting, hence bare ground and precious growing time lost.
3. Failed to thin rows.
4. Failed to keep down weeds by regular cultivation.
5. Failed to harvest crop at maturity.
6. Had too much advice from well-meaning but uninformed enthusiasts.
7. Sowed too much too early.
8. Didn't have soil tested.
9. Sowed wrong varieties, not suitable to climate.
10. Bought too much seed, fertilizer and equipment.
11. Didn't take care of tools.
12. Not sufficient indoor preparation of seeds and flats.
13. Planted too big an area.
14. Sowed seed too thickly or too deep.
15. Failed to draw a plan or failed to adhere to one.

Avoid making these errors this year. If questions concerning your Victory Garden arise, take them to your Information Center at W. R. Hill's on Main Street.

VICTORY GARDEN HINTS

At the Victory Garden meeting on Monday night, Mr. Harold Bent listed the following varieties of vegetables; all are of the best quality and insure large crop returns:

Peas may be planted up to May 1st. Best Dwarf variety: Thomas Laxton, 2 feet tall; Blue Bantam, 18 inches tall. Best Tall variety: Alderman, 4 feet tall. Grow all peas on brush. Dust every ten days with Rotenone.

Beets — Best variety: Crosby's Egyptian, Detroit Dark Red. Plant thickly and not too deep. Thin out twice: 1st for beet greens; 2nd thinning for greens and small beets. Leave remainder 2 to 3 inches apart.

Carrots—Best variety: Oxheart, Chantenay, Nantes. Plant early. Thin to 2 inches apart.

Parsnips—Best variety: Guernsey, Hollow Crown.

Lettuce — Buy plants for early crop. Best seed variety: May King — early crop; New York — later crop; Oak Leaf—summer lettuce, new variety. Plant 5 to 6 seeds every 6 inches. Thin out. Don't transplant. To raise good lettuce: (1) Plenty of manure; (2) Plenty of water; (3) Cultivate.

There will be plenty of good quality Rotenone this year.

Anyone wishing Pressure Cooker tested will leave name at Information Center, Hill's Store.

When buying any vegetable seeds notice date of maturity.

Plan to attend Mr. Bent's next lecture on Monday, May 1st, at 8 p. m., Memorial Hall Library.

"Finis Origine Pendet"

"E Pluribus Unum" is a nice motto for a Nation, but the United States might do well to adopt for its electioneering processes the motto of Phillips academy: "Finis Origine Pendet."

"The end depends on the beginning" as far as electing officers is concerned, and yet here in the United States we don't seem to bother too much about the beginning. It looks now for instance as if President Roosevelt is destined to run for a fourth term as standard-bearer of the Democratic party, and it looks as if Governor Dewey would be the candidate of the Republican party. One of those two will be our next president; that much has been decided, but by whom has it been decided?

We had a so-called Presidential primary in Massachusetts the other day. In Andover about two percent of our registered vote went to the polls, to show their preference as to whom they wanted to represent their party as candidate for President. Of those two percent a little more than no percent knew for whom they were voting. The Republican party had only one slate; the Democrats had a divergence of opinion, but few knew what it was all about. Actually all they did was to pretty much signify their inevitable approval to a slate of delegates which had been already picked, a slate which with 47 others will journey to Chicago early this summer either to nominate somebody who everybody knows will be nominated or to conduct one of those gigantic raffles out of which some dark horse may appear.

The point is this: we're in a Democracy. We are supposed to have a voice in who our president is to be, but actually we have very little to say except in November when to some of us there is the difficult task of deciding between two evils. If we really want it to remain a Democracy, we should do something to reform the beginnings of our election processes, for a great deal depends on the beginning.

AN APPRECIATION

On Tuesday morning, April 18th, Mrs. Gertrude Barnard Bergstrom passed on from the limitations of this visible world into the glorious freedom and beauty of the invisible world.

Like her mother, Mrs. J. Warren Barnard, and her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Foster, Gertrude Bergstrom was a true and friendly neighbor. She supplied many an invalid's tray with dainty cakes and custards, or with the first roses or pansies. In fact, she planned every detail of her garden so that each neighbor could especially enjoy it, bright yellow crocuses for one, a pansy bed for another, iris and peonies for the passers by.

She kept her house in constant readiness for the visits of her son's family with its three gay rollicking children. Her joy was complete as they rushed through the house to look for familiar objects, or raced about the garden to discover new plants and blossoms in "Grandma's garden."

Like her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bergstrom was a member of and dearly loved the South church. Following their example, she spent much time in devotional reading. She was a loyal King's Daughter, and her little silver cross, "In His Name," was a constant reminder of her Spiritual Birthright.

In this realization she still lives with her children and grandchildren, for there is no separation in Perfect Love.

80TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Alice R. Dearborn quietly celebrated her eightieth birthday recently at her home on Elm street. A supper was served in the evening by her daughter, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, to members of the family and a few friends.
