Chaplain From Far East at Free Church

An opportunity will be given to the people of Andover to learn something of the war in the Far East at first hand and one of the problems the Allied nations will face at the war's end when Major John P. Fitzsimmons comes to Andover this Sunday to preach from the pulpit of the Free Church.

As the supervising Protestant Chaplain for the China-India-Burma theatre, Major Fitzsimmons had ample opportunity to see both the civil and social conditions of those countries and was familiar with the work of the G.I.'s, the Airmen and the Chaplains, not only of our own Country, but of other Allied nations with forces in that theatre.

One of the tragic stories of the war as told by the Associated Press several months ago was the story of a Bomber crash in far off China in which all hands were instantly killed. These boys who gave their lives for their country were a mixed group religiously. There were Protestants, Catholics, and there was one Jewish boy. It was Major Fitzsimmons who conducted the single service for the burial of these boys and he was assisted by a Catholic Chaplain, and a Jew, who read the service of his faith, since no Jewish Chaplain was present. Hundreds of the 14th Air Force stood at attention under clear blue skies as Chaplain Fitzsimmons and his assistants spoke

Churches To Hold Union Service on Thanksgiving Day

The Protestant Churches of Andover will, as has been their custom in recent years, hold a union Thanksgiving Service at the Free Church Thursday, November 23rd, at 9 A. M.

The ministers of the Churches will take part with Rev. Frederick B. Noss, Minister of the South Church, delivering the sermon. It is expected that the several Church Choirs will also be present for their share in this annual service.

Ministers will urge their congregations this Sunday to come to this Thanksgiving Service, and a general invitation is issued to all Protestant families to attend.

Rusco

The Rusco all weather triple-service windows are easy to wash, easy to store, shut out dirt and noise, and reduce fuel costs up to 30 percent. See the adv. of the E. A. Parlee Company, Inc., 121-123 Exchange St., Malden, in this issue.

Combined Choirs to Give Sunday Concert

Sunday, November 19, at 7:30 o'clock is the date and time. The Free Church is the place. The occasion? Well, it's to be one of the finest concerts heard in these parts in many a year. For on Sunday evening the Andover Male Choir, the First Calvary Baptist Church Choir of Lawrence, and the Free Church Choir, combine to bring to Andover and citizens of other towns and communities a diversified program of compositions from Bach, Schubert, Handel and other masters.

Added to the fact that these combined choirs of nearly eighty voices will render several numbers comes the word that Andover's renowned Andover Male Choir will present six selections. J. Everett Collins is the conductor of the Concert, Miss Marion Abbott will be at the piano, and Ivar Sjostrom will be at the organ.

The program for the evening follows: Organ Prelude, "Pastorale in E" by Cesar Franck; "Prayer of Thanksgiving" by Kremser and "Almighty God of our Fathers" by Will James, Combined Choirs; "Sanctus" by Schubert, "Give Ear unto our Prayer" by Arcadelt and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotto, The Andover Male Choir. For the Offertory Mr. Sjostrom will play the Chorale Prelude, "Sleeper's Awake" by Bach.

The second half of the program consists of "O rejoice ye Christians Loudly" from Bach, "Open our Eyes" by MacFarlane and "Behold now, Praise the Lord" by Tit-

Punchard-Johnson Clash on Saturday Coach Robinson Looks For Real Contest

Punchard and Johnson High Schools renew an old rivalry this Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. before the usual large crowd which always follows these teams.

Punchard covered itself with glory before over 2,000 spectators last Saturday where the gold and blue squad outfought an unbeaten Methuen team for three quarters only to go down to a 12-6 defeat in the closing minutes. Punchard showed an outstanding brand of football in the Methuen game. If they continue the caliber of play against Johnson, they should chalk up their fourth victory of the season.

Last year, after almost upsetting Methuen, Punchard went into a tail spin in the Johnson game, going down to a shocking 31-0 defeat. Capt. Gie Collins' team will endeavor to see that history does not repeat itself this autumn.

Johnson's coach, Benny Lee, has experienced a poor season on the record, defeating only Brooks

FIELD DIRECTORS NEEDED

Assistant Field Directors for overseas work are very urgently needed by the American Red Cross, according to the following telegram received this week by the local chapter. Anyone interested should get in touch immediately with C. Carleton Kimball, Tel. 144 or Mrs. Elizabeth Rich, Tel. 22.

The telegram follows: "Immediate and critical need for assistant field directors overseas. Men 35-45, college background or broad community experience. Physical fitness, American citizenship, war manpower and Selective Service clearance required. Could you help? (Signed) Robert Harriman "Mgr. No. Atlantic Area."

Twenty Now Toll Of World War II

The list of Andover's Honored War Dead has been gradually growing until now the little black markers with a star on the plaque in front of the Town House number twenty.

Alexander Smith Waldie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Waldie, 13 Bartlet street, was killed in France on October 6, 1944. Private, first class, Waldie was inducted on April 9, 1942 receiving his basic training at Camp Blanding, Florida and Camp Robinson, Ark., before going overseas last June. He took part in the Italian campaign and then proceeded to France for further action. Waldie was born in Andover

Sixth War Loan Drive Starts Mon.

Andover's sixth war loan campaign will get underway on next Monday, with James Gould, treasurer of Phillips Academy, again serving as chairman of the local drive. The town's quota has not yet been announced, but it is expected that Andover will again chalk up an enviable record.

One new feature in this drive will be an intensified campaign on the part of the Legion and its auxiliary, with the State Department endeavoring to raise three million dollars to underwrite through the sale of bonds the cost of a Hospital ship.

In this campaign, the Legion and Auxiliary are cooperating with the Treasury Department and the Massachusetts War Finance Committee in aid of the Sixth War Loan. Hospital ships are needed to speed and facilitate the return to this country of battleworn and wounded servicemen and women from farflung battle areas. By underwriting the cost of a Hospital ship, the Legion and Auxiliary will carry forward a constant program of rehabilitation to which these organizations have long

Abbot Academy Notes

Students of the second year class at Abbot will present on Saturday night, under the direction of Miss Elinor Strickland, three one-act plays. Friends of the school, particularly the parents of the day scholars who will take part, are cordially invited to attend in Davis Hall at 8:00 o'clock. The casts will include Katherine Barrell of North Andover, and the following girls from Andover: Ruth Brimer, Janice Cole, Helen Dowd, Edith Flather, Emily Gierasch, Peggy Kimball, Sally McDuffie, Mary Lee Peck, Shirley Sawyer, Renate Sides, Marion White.

On Sunday night in Abbot Hall at 7:30 Margaret Walker, Negro poet and winner of the Yale Series Prize for Younger Poets, will read from her book of poems "For My People." Miss Walker was born in Birmingham, Alabama, and began writing at the age of 13. During her school days she attracted attention with her remarkably sincere power of expression. She has her B. A. and M. A. degrees and is now a member of the Department of English in West Virginia State College. She has been a social worker, a newspaper reporter, magazine editor, research assistant in the English Department of the University of Iowa, lecturer on Negro folk literature, and poetry reader for student groups at Northwestern and Chicago Universities. She read over the radio for the 25th anniversary of Poetry Magazine in Chicago. Leon Whipple in "Survey Graphic" has written of her work, "The Poems of Margaret Walker are communal singing, distilled from the long suffering of her race, that holds in memory the bitter past—and questions today. This is American poetry for Americans. What mystery of providence that this young girl speaks for millions! She has confronted life in streets and fields, and by her genius enlarges experience into universal symbols that arouse emotion. Such poems can help save the future from the past."

The public is cordially invited to attend this program next Sunday evening.

A rummage sale will be held by the Margaret Slattery class of the Free church on Saturday in the vacant store in the Musgrove building. Articles may be left there Friday night.

Community Orchestra Concert December 10th

The committee of the Andover Community Orchestra has made arrangements for two concerts during the coming season: one, a Christmas Concert will take place at the High School Auditorium Sunday evening, December tenth. The second will be a Pops Concert in early May, when a gay program, refreshments, and popular Andover talent will be featured, providing pleasure for all ages.

Proceeds from both concerts will be shared with three other Andover organizations, the Andover Servicemen's Fund, the Andover Guild, and the Pynchard High School Band.

An innovation this year is the Student Membership, which entitles boys and girls at any of the Andover schools to subscribe to both concerts for one dollar. These seats are to be for student use only. Information concerning this membership, regular patron membership, and reservations for the Christmas Concert may be obtained from Mr. James P. Christie at the Town Hall, Andover.

The Andover Male Choir and Choral Society will assist the Orchestra in giving the Christmas Concert. Among the works to be presented by the Chorus and Orchestra is the "Magnificat," a new composition by Walter Howe, distinguished composer and resident of Andover.

Pfc. David Duke, son of Mrs. Margaret Duke, 63 Essex street, has been admitted to Moore General Hospital, Swannanoa, N. C., for treatment. He has a badly bruised leg, injured in a football game November 12, between the Hospital eleven and the Military Police team at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Duke, who is a member of the hospital station complement and has played regularly on the football team, starred for the hospital team in the scoreless game. His injury is not serious.

We have received an official notice from the Public Relations Section of the Fifth Army Headquarters that Sgt. Henry G. Holt, Jr., of 9 Canterbury street, is a member of the headquarters of II Army Corps which, in its 28th month overseas, is fighting in the Gothic Line with Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army in Italy.

Sailing from England, II Corps fought its way ashore at Arzew and Les Andalouses, Northern Algeria, November 8, 1942. Three days later, following the capitulation of French forces which had at first offered fierce resistance, II Corps took Oran.

The Corps took 42,000 prisoners and large stores of material as the Tunisian campaign came to a climax and General Krause surrendered all opposing troops on the Corps front May 9, 1943.

In the Sicilian campaign, the corps drove across the center of the island to the Tyrrhenian Sea, wheeled to the east and battered its way into Messina to bring that campaign to a victorious conclusion.

Landing near Naples, II Corps began its fourth campaign by enduring three months of heartbreaking mountain fighting in punishing weather in southern Italy. Fighting from one snow-capped peak to another, the unit had reached into and above Cassino when it was relieved so it could take over the coastal sector for the big spring offensive. On May 11 the corps charged across the lower Gariglian River northwest of Minturno, reached the beleaguered Fifth Army forces of the beachhead around Anzio a fortnight later and 10 days after was the first American unit to move into Rome. Without losing momentum, the men of II Corps advanced beyond the capital and had reached into the outskirts of Viterbo when relieved again.

Divisions which have fought under II Corps in this war are the 1st, 3rd, 9th, 34th, 36th, 45th, 85th, 88th, 91st and the 1st Armored.

Two Punchard graduates now in the WAVES, have completed their basic training at the Naval Training School in New York. WAVE Margaret S. Gordon, HA 2/c, has received orders to report to the U. S. Naval Hospital, at Bethesda, Md., for further instruction. She is the daughter of William R. Gordon, 5 Temple Place.

T/5 Lawrence J. Spinella has returned from overseas under the Army's furlough rotation plan, according to a notice received from the Headquarters of the First Service Command. Spinella, who lives at 35 Middle street, has spent 27 months in the Asiatic-Pacific area.

Sgt. William J. Kelly, with the 15th AAF in Italy, is waiting for his first combat mission as a gunner on a B-24 heavy bomber. Kelly, a graduate of Central Catholic, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kelly of Holt road. He was in his senior year at Notre Dame when called to active duty in February, 1943.

A letter from Albert J. Coguen, S 2/c, who is with the Coast Guard studying Radio Engineering in Silver Spring, Md., tells us that he expects to finish his course in a few more weeks and receive his assignment to duty elsewhere.

T/Sgt. Henry J. Trow of 50 1/2 Whittier street, a flight chief, with the 12th AAF B-26 Marauder Group has served overseas 23 months with the AAF's oldest B-26 Marauder group, which has been cited by the President for "outstanding performances of duty in armed conflict with the enemy," during a January 13, 1944 mission over Rome Ciampino North and South Airdromes, in preparation for the Allied landings at Nettuno, Italy on January 22, 1944.

He is entitled to wear the blue and gold framed Distinguished Unit Badge, the only army award worn above the right hand blouse pocket. His Bombardment Wing was recently cited by General de Gaulle, Chief of the French Armies, for outstanding bombing support of Allied ground forces in Central Italy.

His was the first B-26 group in Major General John K. Cannon's 12th AAF to complete 400 missions and, as the Presidential citation mentions, flew 215 missions between January 1, 1944 and July 31, 1944, during which period it reflected great credit on the military service of the United States.

WAVE Grace C. Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stewart of 3 Temple Place, is to attend Yeoman's School at Oklahoma A. & M. College in Stillwater.

Tercentenary Plans, Still Tentative, Forecast Brilliant Town Observance

Andover's Tercentenary plans, though still in their infancy, took a long step forward on Tuesday evening when the second meeting of the anniversary committee was held. Personnel of committees was announced, tentative budgets set up, and portions of the program were discussed.

Chairman Fuess at the meeting asked the chairmen of committees to name their personnel, together with any ideas they might have for consideration by the general committee.

For the Music Committee, Mrs. Higgins listed the following members: Clinton H. Stevens, Mrs. Roger W. Higgins, Ivar Sjostrom, Miriam Sweeney, Walter Howe, Joseph N. Ashton, Marion L. Abbott, John Newall, Mrs. John C. Angus, Dr. Carl F. Pfatteicher, Horace N. Killam, James P. Christie, Joseph E. Stott, Alexander Campbell, Mrs. Philip F. Ripley and Miss Annie Donovan. No definite plans had been discussed, and a very preliminary figure of $500.00 was suggested as a budgetary amount.

Mr. Trow advised that in addition to himself and Miss Goldsmith, the following had agreed to serve on the Historical Committee: Mr. Byers, Mr. Johnson, Mary Byers Smith, Caroline M. Underhill, Scott H. Paradise and Miriam Putnam. Considerable discussion followed concerning the method of preparing the history, its cost, and the possibility of partial reimbursement by selling copies of the printed history. Discussion included method of writing history, personnel of the authors, and amount of travel and study required. A possible budget figure would be $15000.00 for work preliminary to printing and $3750.00 for printing, a total of $5250.00.

Mr. Daley advised for the Movie and Radio Committee that he had talked with Mr. Resnik on movies, and with Irving Rogers of Station WLAW, concerning the availability of that station. Both indicated complete co-operation at almost no expense. Arrangements were under way to make a complete and satisfactory record of the anniversary. A total of $750.00 may be needed for this work.

Mr. McDonald, chairman of the Sports Committee, said that he had not completed the membership of his group, but would have 25 members, headed by Harold Wennik and Charles McCullom.

Dr. Fuess named the following members of the committee on Invitations, Guests and Speakers: Miss Hearsey, Fr. Fogarty, Mr. Brakey, Mr. Kenseth, Herbert Carter, Walter M. Lamont and Arthur Coleman.

Dr. Fuess advised that the committee would aim high, mentioning the President, Senator-elect Saltonstall, the British Ambassador, Secretaries of the Army and Navy, the mayor of Andover, England, etc., as possible guests. No fees would be needed for speakers, but some expense would be incurred for printing, stationery, and the banquet would probably result in a deficit. The pageant would be discussed with Joseph Lindon Smith, who would be in Andover in the next two weeks. A pageant might run from $500.00 to $2000.00, depending upon its size, with a figure of $1000.00 preferred. In all, $1500.00 might be budgeted for these various items.

Mr. Shepard reported that his committee was incomplete, and that both the cost and make-up of the parade units would depend very largely upon the condition of war or peace obtaining at the time of the celebration. Full co-operation of the military was mentioned as very possible, and a preliminary figure of $1500.00 mentioned for the budget.

Mr. Hardy reported that the Publicity Committee had been named as follows: Mr. Paradise, Miss Putnam, Mr. Grover, Mr. Doherty and Mr. O'Connell. General activity would not start for some time, and the chief expense would be stationery, printing and mailing. A figure of $1500.00 was set up for the budget.

Mr. Eaton, chairman of the Finance Committee, advised that Mr. Flagg would serve with him. Committee expenses would be small, but Mr. Eaton advised that 1946 expenditures could not be covered by a 1945 Town Appropriation without a special act of the Legislature. This had been done in Chapter I, Acts of 1929, for the town of Watertown. It was moved and voted to ask Representative Collins to introduce a bill in the Legislature, permitting Andover to appropriate money in 1945 for our 300th Anniversary, whenever held, and permit postponing the celebration until after 1946 if it seemed advisable.

It was moved and voted to select Thursday to Sunday, inclusive, May 30 to June 2, 1946, as our 300th Anniversary dates.

Guild Program is Well Under Way

The program at the Andover Guild has been expanded and is progressing under the capable leadership of Benjamin Dimlich, assisted by Mrs. Dimlich, who is a specialist in recreational activities.

In addition to the regular program, which included gym, bowling and tap dancing, the new activities include boxing, wrestling, and tumbling for Junior girls.

The complete program follows: Monday evenings, tumbling and volleyball for the boys; Wednesday afternoon, tumbling for junior girls; Wednesday evening, boys' club team; Thursday afternoon, boxing for junior boys; Friday afternoon, tap dancing for girls. ## PUNCHARD NOTES

Due to the fact that Mr. Lovely's secretary, Miss Nollet has been absent on account of sickness, the honor roll for the first term has not been compiled.

Every Saturday morning over Station WLAW at nine fifteen a high school program, which includes Punchard, broadcasts news and notes from the Greater Lawrence schools. Also a student from one of the schools is interviewed and another either plays an instrument, sings, or entertains similarly. This last week, Ruth Innes from Punchard, secretary of the Senior class, was interviewed by Raymond MacDonnell, the announcer and member of the Lawrence High School.

The Senior class finally received their picture proofs last Friday afternoon and were as a whole pleased with them.

Janet Caverly from Lowell High School entered our Sophomore class on Monday of this week. Also two members of that class have transferred to other schools: Betty Haakonson to a school in New Jersey and Thelma Clark to one in Taunton, Massachusetts.

The Guidance Department of Punchard has been and is very busy making surveys and interviewing students, plus arranging for a film that was shown during the assembly on Thursday of this week. The film was entitled, "Winning Your Wings" and although it was of particular interest to the boys, it was enjoyed by the girls. The survey was conducted of all the boys and girls who work either afternoons, evenings or Saturdays or Sundays. Hours and wages were of particular value and the main purpose was to see whether the hours spent in part-time work and the wages received were according to those specifications suggested by the State Board of Health. The department has been interviewing those boys and girls who are failing in some one or more of their academic subjects. The counselors hope that by pointing out the reasons for the failures the students will accomplish more in the next term. Also on Friday of this week, an IQ test is to be given to the Sophomore members and those upper-class men who have not taken the tests previously.

The Junior Red Cross drive at Punchard brought in $25.45.

Janice Driscoll of Andover will be one of two representatives the College of St. Elizabeth, at the Middle Atlantic International Relations Club Conference, at Marywood College, Scranton, from November 16 to 18.

Round table discussion will be devoted to consideration of defeated enemy countries in the post-war world.

WEDDINGS

Carter—Blanchard

Gowned in traditional white satin with a train, her long veil of tulle held in place with a beaded coronet, Miss Evelyn Ann Blanchard, daughter of Louis B. Blanchard of Whitinsville, Massachusetts, was married Saturday afternoon, November 4th, to Mr. Donald Wm. Carter, son of Mrs. Emma Gould Carter of Andover. The ceremony was performed in All Saints Episcopal Church, Worcester, by the Rev. Stanley Light, assistant rector. The bride carried with her wedding gown an armful of white chrysanthemums and orchids.

Mrs. Sebastian Lentini of Belle-rost, N. Y., the matron of honor, wore a gown of royal blue velvet bodice with sweetheart neckline and a light blue marquisette bouffant skirt, appliqued with dark velvet love knots over taffeta. The four bridesmaids, Mrs. Richard Sanderson, Jr. of Whitinsville, Miss Elizabeth Emery of Reading, Miss Rita Daigneau of Leominster, and Miss Helen Crowley of Northbridge, all wore gowns like those of the matron of honor, but of maroon velvet and American rose marquisette. Each attendant wore a Juliet cap to match her bodice, with shoulder length veil, and carried armfuls of gold chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Louis B. Blanchard, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Leverett Blanchard of Whitinsville, Charles Ellison of Chevy Chase, Md., George Adam of Hartford, Conn., and Reynold Lyons of Worcester.

Wedding guests from Washington, New York, Hartford, No. Conway and Providence, besides many friends from Boston, Andover and the environs of Worcester, were present at the ceremony and reception which followed immediately in Huntington Hall, the Parish House of the Church.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Carter will reside in Gardner, Mass.

Towler—Squires

A pretty ceremony took place at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in St. Patrick's Church when Miss Marion Irene Squires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Squires of River Rd. became the bride of Machinist Mate 3/c Alfred C. Towler, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Towler of Abbott St. Lawrence, Rev. Michael A. Barry officiated. Yellow and Russet Pom-poms and gladioli decorated the Altar. Mrs. Mary Barrett, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were: Miss Carmel Gamache, Miss Alice Rowe of Waltham, Miss Evelyn Squires of Phila. Pa. and Miss Frances Sullivan of Sullivan. Walter Barrett was best man and the ushers were Ralph Fink, Paul Pellerin, Eugene Longo, Benjamin Miklus, all of the Navy.

The bride wore white satin, trimmed with imported lace and a veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Two attendants wore gowns of oak leaf green, and two were in rust. The matron of Honor wore gold. They carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

A reception followed at the Merrimack Valley Country club. The couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Phila.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Pike, 138 Summer street, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mary Jacobs Sutton, to Paul Winslow Bixby, of Springfield. The couple were married at Christ Church on last Wednesday, and they will make their home at 137 Russel street, Springfield.

"There's a telephone in the house where I am moving  Can you connect it for me?"

This is a perfectly natural question which is frequently asked of us today.

We wish we could say yes in all cases, but our answer must be qualified.

Yes — we can probably connect it if you already have service in the house from which you are moving, and if you are moving within the same exchange or immediate geographical area.

Yes — we can connect it if your use of a telephone is essential to the proper discharge of your duties as a member of one of the following groups: (1) armed forces and government; (2) war production and directly related activities; (3) public health and welfare.

No — we cannot connect it if you are moving outside of your present telephone exchange or geographical area, and we cannot connect it if you do not have telephone service at your present address, unless you are in one of the above listed groups that are entitled to immediate service.

You see, since there are not enough telephones to go around, we must distribute those that are available as fairly as possible. The telephone that is in the house to which you expect to move may be needed by a doctor or an essential war worker or by someone who has already been waiting many months.

Please understand, however, that your application will not be forgotten, and that it will be filled in its turn.

Glorious victories of our naval, air, and land forces in the Pacific area, steady progress in Europe, and vast preparations under way in India inspire us all to believe that our immense productive and military efforts are soon to achieve complete success.

Our support of our fighting men and women must be steadily maintained on a high level. Military trucks, tires, bombs, big shells, and tanks are needed especially, in addition to normal supplies in vast quantities.

The Sixth War Loan Drive for $14,000,000,000 beginning on November 20 and extending through December 16 will provide financial means for the continuing drive to victory.

Eternal Vigilance

"I do not agree with a word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

It was Voltaire who said that, many, many years ago—and unfortunately for the world, the doctrine that he enunciated so forcefully has not had full acceptance in many places outside the United States of America. To us freedom of speech and its corollary, freedom of the press, is a very important part of our democracy, because a democratic government can not be truly representative of the wishes of its people unless its people have the right to say what they think about that government.

Next week is Freedom of the Press Week; Thanksgiving comes the same week, and it might be well to pause next Thursday to give thanks that we can say what we want and we can print what we want. They can't in Germany; had they been able to this war might never have broken out. If they had been able to freely criticize, if they had the right to give full expression to their opinions, a certain person today might be trying to eke out a meager living house-painting and our boys might never have had to leave their homeland to fight on foreign soil.

Let's be very jealous of that freedom. Let's watch it and guard it. Let's keep it free from encroachment of any sort, whether it be the too frequently exercised pressure of groups to remove certain books from circulation in their local library or a Soldiers' Vote Act that prevents our boys from learning all the arguments in a campaign.

A woman was struck last week by a youthful bicyclist who was coasting down a hill, on the sidewalk, without lights, bell, brakes, or registration. The victim, was bruised and shaken up, and the youngster, doubtless felt conscience-stricken, but it's going to take drastic action one of these days to put a stop to offenders who persist in riding on the sidewalks, riding without lights after dark, carrying riders when, to all appearances, they are having a hard enough time maneuvering alone. This appeal is to parents and children alike. Please be mindful of others when riding bikes, both for their safety and yours.

This Sober Town

All in Favor, Say "Neigh"

Three horses and a cow, after reading the results of the recent license vote here in Andover, have apparently decided that it's a wide open town. Up in the Salem street section, three equines and one bovine have just decided to be very nonchalant about where they wander; boundary lines mean nothing to them; even stone-walls offer no obstacle to their nomadic cravings.

It's not so bad during the daytime to see a couple of horses lolling over your front lawn, or a cow sticking her nose, or whatever that thing is, into your garage, but in the nighttime it's no fun. One resident of the district went out last night to bring in some clothes off the clothesline; he walked blithely along, reeling in the clothes and clothes-pins with masculine abandon, when suddenly he barged right into the side of a cow. He claims that he lost ten years of his life; we don't know just what reaction the cow had.

Something's got to be done soon, because some of the residents are beginning to feel they have a home on derange.

The Sixth War Loan Drive will be launched November 20, and extend through December 16. Fourteen billion dollars is the total quota with five billion to be raised from individuals.

With the accumulated successes of our military operations, the people seem to have become more complacent, feeling that a relaxation in our financing efforts will not prove harmful. This is a most dangerous attitude as the sale of War Bonds is more important now than ever before.

Local business organizations who have cooperated so unselfishly with this program are asked again to back up our boys at the front, by helping put the Sixth War Loan over the top. American dollars must be spent in appalling sums to finance our all-out military efforts. Next to our military operations the War Bond Program is the most vital part of our war effort. It is our NUMBER ONE obligation here at home.

He is survived by his parents and five brothers and six sisters, and his grandfather Alexander Smith. He is a cousin of Pfc. Lawrence A. DeSalvo who was also killed in action in Italy just ten days later.

Private, first class, Lawrence A. DeSalvo, was killed in action on October 19th, somewhere in Italy. With his cousin, he left Andover in the same draft contingent in April, 1942. He received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla., Camp Robinson, Ark., and went overseas in March.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeSalvo of 19 Middle street. In addition to his parents, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret (LaPlante) DeSalvo, two brothers, John and Salvatore, and a sister, Grace.

Frederick W. Grant, 69, retired janitor at Phillips Academy, died last Thursday at his home on Summer street. He leaves a stepson, Arthur Sidebottom of New York City.

The funeral was held from the Lundgren funeral home on Saturday, and burial was in Bellevue cemetery. Rev. John S. Moses, rector of Christ church, officiated.

The Turkey Outlook

Thanksgiving Day comes just one week from today. In all the past years we have been able to tell you one week in advance just what price you would have to pay and just what size of a turkey you could select. This year it is a different story.

Last Saturday, Armistice Day, and Sunday, the day following, we called at eleven large turkey farms just above Montpelier, Vermont. We saw more live turkeys than we ever saw, at one time, before — almost 30,000 healthy, good-looking turkeys, but not one could we buy. They were all sold right on the farms. The buyers had to take them alive, kill and dress them at their own places of business. Markets like ours are not equipped to do this kind of work. Therefore, there will not be any home-dressed Vermont turkeys in our market this Thanksgiving.

We have been promised a great many large chickens from our local poultry men. They will weigh from 5 to 6½ lbs. If any extra good Western turkeys come into the Boston market, we hope to be able to get some. This is the turkey outlook at this writing.

Council of Churches Reports on Survey

The Andover Council of Churches through its Chairman of the Religious Survey, Rev. Frank E. Dunn, announced today the first incomplete returns for three of the precincts of the town.

A total of 1663 calls were made in precincts No. 2, No. 3, and No. 4 and workers found in these families a total of 2,937 Church members and 602 non-Church members. The summary for these three precincts is as follows:

Pct.	No. Calls Made	No. Church Members	No. Non-Members
2	683	1208	231
3	673	1205	235
4	307	524	136

Clean-up work in these precincts is still going on and final reports will be made within the next few weeks. Precincts No. 1, No. 5, and No. 6 have reported their work almost complete.

Nearly one hundred and fifty men and women of all the Churches in Andover participated in this project on a voluntary basis and the unusual success of this survey is due entirely to their efforts. It is hoped that the vast fund of information gathered in the survey cards will be evaluated, analyzed and summarized by some competent person. The Survey Committee has already gotten in touch with Harvard University, Boston University, and Andover-Newton Theological Seminary and these institutions have expressed real interest in the results of the survey.

Local Churches will have the survey Cards available for the purposes of conducting more efficient and comprehensive religious work.

CHRISTMAS FAIR

On Dec. 2 the Junior Woman's Union of the West Church will hold their Christmas Fair. Mrs. Dean Hudgins and Mrs. Chas. Sparks are co-chairmen.

The suppers which will be served at 5 and 6:30 are in charge of Mrs. Harry Wright and Mrs. William Stewart. Santa Claus will also be present.

Apron table in charge of Mrs. Clayton Northery. Gifts table in charge of Mrs. Clyde Fire and Mrs. Irving Piper. Children's table in charge of Mrs. Clyde Barlow and Mrs. Fred Doyle. White Elephant table in charge of Mrs. John Hall, Jr. Candy table in charge of Mrs. Ejner Blomquist. Food Table in charge of Senior Woman's Union. Mrs. Arthur Lewis. Toy Table in charge of Men's Brotherhood.

Mrs. Karl Haartz has charge of the supper tickets and reservations should be made early.

Sale of Christmas Seals to Start Soon

Christmas Seal activity is busily on its way. To give thanks to each one who helps would be impossible but Edward C. Nichols of the Merrimac Mutual Insurance Co. is the one person who for many years has been responsible for the envelopes being sealed and on their way. The Seals will be in the P. O. in time to reach your homes on Nov. 27th.

The Andover National Bank has already contributed its annual generous gift. The Courteous Circle of the King's Daughters has made its gift.

Miss Helen Eaton has put posters in various stores—Notice it shows a jolly postman on his rounds for without the cooperation of our Post Office the Seals could not so easily go into your homes.

The need for help is even greater than ever, so open your hearts as well as your pocketbooks when you make your gift to the Christmas Seal Fund which is used in the fight against tuberculosis.

Catholic-Jewish funeral for American boys in the land of China.

Headquartered alternately at Chungking, China, and Delhi, India, Major Fitzsimmons had opportunity on numerous occasions to fly over the Himalayas Mountains, more familiarly known to our flying heroes as 'the Hump.' In his work he made intimate contact with many of our boys and one of his assistants was the Olympic Pole Vault Champion in 1936, the year in which the meet was held in Berlin.

While restricted by the expediences of the military situation, Major Fitzsimmons will, nevertheless have much to say about these nations in the Far East of which the average American knows so little. The Morning service at the Free Church begins at 11 a. m.
