League Study Groups To Start Feb. 20th

The League of Women Voters study groups to follow up the "Know Your Schools Rally" will start on February 20 at 7:45 p. m. at the library. Mrs. C. Edward Buchanan will be the leader and the subject will be the Junior High school. On February 27 the second study group on the Junior High will be held, same place, same leader, same time.

The Elementary schools will be the subject of study groups to meet on March 6 and March 13 at the library at 7:45 with Mrs. Bertil Ryberg and Mrs. James R. Adriance as leaders.

The date for the group interested in the High school will be announced later, and parents who are contemplating meeting with this group are invited to call Mrs. Adriance, 249-W, so that she may start the meetings when a large enough number have signified their intention of joining up.

All parents are cordially invited by the League to join the study group in which they are most interested. Miss Miriam Putnam of the library has arranged a display of new books on education and methods which will be appreciated by those who are trying to keep abreast of the changes and advances being made in the field of education.

Red Cross War Fund Drive Opens Monday

The Red Cross War Fund Drive opens on Monday, February 19, with the goal set at $22,500 for Andover. The fund was oversubscribed last year by $2000 and released war prisoners from various combat areas, by their unstinted praise for the work of the Red Cross, have caused public expressions of gratitude to reach an all-time high. The committee, headed by Stafford A. Lindsay, is confident that the response will surpass all expectations this year.

Fiedler of "Pops" To Be On P. A. Hour

Arthur Fiedler, well known conductor of the Boston Pops orchestra, will highlight the round table discussion group on this Thursday's Phillips Academy Hour. The topic for discussion is to be "The Objectives of Music Education." Other members of the panel are Rudolph Ely, Music Editor of the Boston Herald, Mr. A. Howard Abell of Milton Academy, Dr. Carl Pfatticher and Mr. Arthur Howes, both of the Phillips Academy faculty. Mr. Howes will serve as moderator. The broadcast, to originate in the dining room of the Andover Inn, will go on the airways at 8 Thursday night over WLAW (680).

Marc Slonim, Author, To Speak on Russia

Marc Slonim, celebrated Russian author and educator, will speak in George Washington hall on Sunday evening, and his topic will be "Russia and the United States."

Few men are better prepared to introduce the real Russia to us than Marc Slonim. Before coming to the United States in 1941, Dr. Slonim had attained the distinction of being one of the best informed speakers on contemporary Russia. He delivered hundreds of lectures on Russia in various European capitals. He published fourteen books on Russia, many of which were adopted as standard text books in European universities.

Dr. Slonim was born in Novgorod Siversk. He has lived in Italy, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, as well as in Russia, and is the recipient of a Ph. D. and a Litt. D. from the University of Florence and the University of Petrograd, respectively. He has held professorships at the Russian University in Prague and the International University in Brussels. At present he is a member of the faculty of Sarah Lawrence College. Because of the importance of our present and future relationship to Russia, this lecture promises to be one of the most interesting and important in the East and West Series.

The postponed lecture of Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit will be given at a date to be announced later. Mrs. Pandit has promised to save time on her schedule for a visit to Andover if possible.

Tickets for single admissions will be on sale at the door for 50c, and all who are interested are cordially invited to attend this lecture.

Workers Urgently Needed by Government

The Misses Margaret N. Kalenian and Theresa G. Leary, recruiting representatives of the Army Service Forces, are making an appeal for stenographers, typists and clerks for duty in Washington, D. C., with the War Department.

Army Service Forces have the mammoth task of transporting our fighting men to battlefronts of the world, and keeping them supplied.

Transportation to the nation's capital will be furnished those who qualify for these essential jobs. Housing is guaranteed by the War Department.

A new arrival is met at Union station in Washington and after being sworn into her job is taken to select her own living quarters under the guidance of an Army Service Forces counselor.

Full information may be obtained at the U. S. Employment Service office, 1 Mill street, Lawrence, hours: 9-5 through February 24.

One Fatality Aftermath of Record-Breaking Storm

Man Hospitalized as Tear Gas Escapes

Curiosity about a large tear gas gun, described by Chief of Police George Dane as an exceptionally dangerous weapon, and consequent fooling with the apparatus, resulted in the hospitalization of at least one man and painful injuries to another from the Tyer Rubber Co. last Monday.

The men were reportedly fooling with the gun in the belief that it was a large stapling machine, and when it was discharged, its contents were released full in the face of Louis Paquette, 45, who lives off Greenwood road, and who was directly in line with it. He was hospitalized as a result of his injuries, while his two companions, Alfred Grenier of Lowell and Frank Alicata of Lawrence, received treatment but were not hospitalized. Grenier suffered painful hand injuries.

Andover police are satisfied that the incident was purely an accident and the investigation, as far as they are concerned, is closed.

Contributions Still Being Made to Fund

Contributions to the Andover Infantile Paralysis fund are still coming in, and, while the total is still incomplete, it is so far over the anticipated amount that it will be gratifying to those who have worked so hard on behalf of this good cause to know the approximate latest figures.

The goal set by the Executive committee was $1,500.00, and by last week the figure was expected to reach $1,700.00. This week we are happy to announce the final total is nearing the $1,800.00 mark and we hope to be able to publish the full amount next week.

"FOR WHOM THE BELL . . ."

There was a little bit of excitement in the square Tuesday afternoon when the vault alarm at the Andover National bank went off and brought Police Officer John Deyermund on the run from his post in the square. Assistant Cashier Edward A. Anderson tripped the alarm as he was closing the vault door about 2:30 p. m., and as the gong started to clang, Officer Deyermund started to sprint. He was almost to the bank when the phone bell in the square began to ring insistently. The policeman was waved away from the bank and informed that the whole thing was an accident, so he made for the phone, where the story was confirmed.

Unplowed Sidewalks Cause Death As Horse Runs Away

One death has resulted in Andover as the aftermath of last Thursday's record-breaking snow storm which dislocated Andover's community and business life for several days.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Marie Velderman of 259 North Main street, walking on Haverhill street because of the lack of cleared sidewalks, was fatally injured when she was struck by a runaway horse. The authorities are not quite clear as to how she sustained the fatal injury, but they believe, from the shape of the hole in her temple, that it was the shaft of the wagon that caused her death.

The horse and wagon, owned by Sidney P. White of the Wild Rose Dairy, were backed up to the loading platform at the New England Dairy plant off Haverhill street. The farm hand in charge, James L. Amadon, having loaded the wagon, led the horse by the bridle out past a truck that was parked beside it. He then reached for the reins, and as he did so the horse reared and bolted. Amadon clung to the reins and was pulled out as far as Haverhill street before he was shaken loose. He was injured by the wheel of the wagon.

The horse then galloped onto Haverhill street, heading for Shawshen square. Part way up the road several women were walking, and apparently they all jumped out of the way but Mrs. Velderman was unable to flee in time. The horse continued through Shawshen square, and up Lowell street. Near Canterbury street a motorist apparently saw the oncoming horse in his rear-view mirror. He slowed down and maneuvered his car so that the horse ended up in a snow drift.

NO VACATIONS FOR ACADEMIES

In compliance with the request of the Office of Defense Transportation, both Phillips Academy and Abbot Academy will forego their usual spring vacations this year. After several days consideration the matter was brought before the senior class at Phillips Academy Saturday morning. The boys voted unanimously in favor of omitting the vacation, and the faculty at a meeting held Saturday afternoon also took unanimous action, as announced by Oswald Tower, dean of faculty.

Desperate Need for Workers Necessitates Increase in Appeals

The War Production Board has announced that the repair of battle-damaged war ships is one of the activities which has fallen behind the requirements of the armed forces. One of the most critical naval bases where men are needed to speed up the repair and re-fitting of battle-damaged war ships is at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. The Pearl Harbor base is one of the world's largest naval bases and is playing an extremely vital role in the war against Japan. Workers are especially needed now for Civil Service jobs as: Boilermakers, Electricians, Instrument Mechanics, Pipecoverers, Radio Mechanics, Refrigeration Mechanics, Sandblasters, Sheetmetal Workers. Salaries range from $1.52 per hour to 88 cents per hour.

For further information, apply U. S. Employment Service office, 1 Mill street, Lawrence, every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Andover Grange met in Grange Hall on Tuesday evening. Following the transaction of routine business the members present celebrated the 55th birthday of the organization. Assistant Steward of Massachusetts State Grange E. Gerry Mansfield gave a very interesting address. An appropriate poem was read by Mrs. John Hull, Jr. Letters of greeting were read from two charter members, namely, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Abbott, who were unable to attend. Mr. J. Harry Playdon, who was a member of the first class to join the Grange after its organization, told of his experiences of a Granger for fifty-four years. There was also community singing led by the Lecturer, Mrs.

OUTLETS IN THAT POST-WAR ELECTRIC HOME!

YES, MA'AM! You're going to deserve lots of housekeeping help and I'm going to need lots of electric outlets through which to work for you. For instance, I can clean house faster and better without trailing yards of cord from room to room. And how nice to be able to plug in floor and table lamps anywhere you want them! What a convenience to use toaster, percolator or waffle iron right at the table! How comfortable to do warm-weather ironing out on your breeze-swept porch! You'd like that, ma'am, wouldn't you? Why, of course, any woman would! And surely all this extra convenience is worth thinking about and planning for, NOW... whether you're going to build or simply remodel.

LIBRARY NOTES

Do YOU Know:

That parents will find the Young People's Library room available to them almost any morning, even though the room is not officially open?

That the library maintains a Branch at Ballardvale, with a collection of 2,845 books, open to the public on Tuesdays and Fridays from two until five and from seven until eight o'clock?

That 4,735 Andover residents are registered library borrowers? Are YOU one of them?

That 102,889 books circulated during the past year of which 41,804 were issued to boys and girls?

a new lighting system has been installed. Mr. Edward P. Hall, member of the Andover Board of Selectmen, will make a brief address at 8:15. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Here is a Message and a Promise to You Who are Waiting for a Telephone

BECAUSE the very lives of our fighting men depend on our giving them practically all the telephone equipment that can be made, thousands of civilians in all parts of the country who want service must wait.

How long? We wish we could tell you.

Meanwhile, we are providing facilities as they become available to those most in need, in accordance with government regulations set up to apportion service in the fairest way.

For example, preference is given where certain conditions of illness are verified by the attending physician, and under certain circumstances preference is given to wives of men away from home in the armed forces.

Of course service is provided immediately in cases where public health, safety and welfare are involved. None so qualified has had to wait for a telephone.

From time to time the War Production Board has modified these regulations, and the scope of the preference list has become somewhat broader. We intend to keep those on the waiting list posted periodically on such changes, and we'd like to have them keep us posted on changes in their own circumstances which would alter their status under these regulations.

By waiting, by accepting the inconvenience and hardships of doing without a telephone, you are sending YOUR telephone straight to the fighting fronts.

Here is Our Promise:

Your application will not be forgotten or overlooked. It will be filled at the earliest possible time in its proper turn.

NEWS OF OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE LIBERATOR STATION, England — First Lieutenant Frank Koza, Andover, Mass., pilot, is a member of the 392nd Bombardment Group, a Liberator unit recently cited for "distinguished and exceptionally outstanding performance of duty" on 200 missions.

"During this period of 200 missions, the 392nd attacked 120 targets in Germany and 80 targets in enemy occupied territory despite adverse conditions and inclement weather at times . . . overcoming fierce enemy fighter opposition on many occasions in order to reach assigned objectives . . ."

Targets attacked by 392nd Liberators include Berlin, Gotha, Politz, Bremen, Hamburg and other objectives in Germany, France, Norway, Holland, Belgium and Poland.

James F. Keating, U.S.N., has just been promoted to Chief Radio Electrician. He is in the Pacific theatre and, unlike many local boys, has met some "ex-Andoverites" in his travels. Because he writes that these all wait for Keating's copy of the Townsman and because every local boy receives his own copy, we take it these newly discovered "Andoverites" no longer live here in town. However, we'll bet they enjoy talking about the grandest spot in N. E. just the same!

15TH AAF IN ITALY — Flying Fortress pilot John W. Smith, son of Mrs. Mary K. Smith, 23 Barnard street, recently was promoted to captain, according to 15th AAF orders.

Overseas since last July, the 27-year-old pilot is now a veteran of more than 42 combat missions in the Mediterranean theatre. On Smith's first mission, Aug. 18, his B-17 group attacked the huge Ploesti oil refineries in Rumania.

Prior to his enlistment as a cadet, Oct. 3, 1942, Smith was an industrial restaurant manager, traveling between Moline, Ill., Brooklyn, N. Y., and New Britain, Conn. He completed his pilot's training at Columbus, Miss., winning his wings on Dec. 5, 1943. His wife, Lt. Eileen B. Smith, A.N.C., is stationed at Bangor, Mich.

Corporal Mario Fischer-Gajati, son of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Fischer-Galati, 105 Main street, has returned to France after having taken part in the battle for Bastogne. Corp. Fischer-Galati is a paratrooper, having volunteered for this branch of the service soon after he entered the service in September, 1943. He has seen action in France, Holland and Belgium, and wears the Purple Heart as well as the Combat Badge.

Lt. John Edmands and Mrs. Edmands is making his first visit in Andover for three years, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary C. Edmands, 6 Wolcott avenue. Since his graduation from the U. S. Naval Academy in 1941, he has been aboard a destroyer in the Pacific, and has participated in all the major naval engagements in that area. Lt. Edmands attended the local schools and graduated from Punchard high school. The couple have a baby daughter, Carla, whom they left in Washington, D. C. while visiting Mrs. Edmands.

AT A 12TH AAF B-25 BASE—Arriving recently at a B-25 Mitchell bomber base on the island of Corsica, Staff Sergeant Richard W. Abbott, 25, has been assigned to duty as an airplane engineer.

The Andover engineer's squadron is a member of one of the oldest medium bombardment groups in the Mediterranean Theatre. For its outstanding support of the British 8th Army in Tunisia, the group was cited by the War Department as a distinguished unit.

Following the African campaign, the squadron supported the invasion forces in Sicily and has played an important role in the Tactical Air Force operations in Italy since the landing of American troops at Salerno. In mid-August, it carried out close support missions for the allied assault forces in the successful battle for southern France, and recently was awarded its second War Department citation for its brilliant attack that led to the sinking of the enemy cruiser Taranto in La Spezia harbor, Italy.

Sergeant Abbott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Richard Abbott, live on Upland road, and his wife, Mrs. Nancy M. Abbott, lives at 6 Dunbarton street.

Mr. Treffe Lamontagne of Beacon street can well be proud of his five sons who are serving in the armed forces. AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England—For his "continued courageous devotion to duty and outstanding flying ability," Second Lieutenant Frederick Butler Jr., 22, an Eighth Air Force P51 Mustang fighter pilot, has been awarded the first Oak Leaf Cluster for wear with the Air Medal previously awarded. Each Oak Leaf Cluster is the equivalent of another Air Medal.

Lt. Butler, a member of the 339th Fighter Group, awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement in combat over enemy-occupied continental Europe.

He is the son of Mrs. Anna O. Butler, 111 Main Street.

Flight Officer William C. Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart, who formerly lived on Haverhill street in Shawsheen Village, now of Queens, New York, has returned safely to his base in Italy after being missing in action since November 20. On Christmas eve, his mother was notified that her son was listed as missing after a flight over Hungary, after his B-24 crew had bombed Germany. She later received a communication from Major General Nathan F. Twining, commander of the 15th Air Force, stating that the pilot of the bomber that Hart was in had radioed that he was attempting to reach Yugoslavia. Nothing further was heard from the crew. A short time ago a neighbor of Mrs. Hart's wrote to her son, who was in the same squadron as the missing flier, asking for news. A few days ago the reply came through, stating that Flight Officer Hart had that day (January 22) returned to his base.

Then, last Saturday night, Mrs. Hart received a letter from her son which stated: "I am well. Regulations won't permit me to say anything about the last two months, but I am listed for a furlough home. If things go well, I'll see you in a month." Flight Officer Hart graduated from Phillips Academy with the class of 1940.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Percy J. Dole, 2 Washington avenue that their son, Kenneth Dole was promoted to the rank of boatswain's mate, first class on February 1. He is serving with the Seabees in Honolulu.

Tech Sgt. Ione Hill of the WAC Ordnance Dept. has returned to her station at Philadelphia, Penn. after enjoying a short stay with Mrs. Abbott Batchelder, Argilla Road.

His sister Jean, a corporal in the WAC has just returned to her duties after spending a furlough at her home.

The Servicemen's page is sponsored by the Townsman editors with the active assistance of the Servicemen's Fund Association.

The Townsman is sent each week, free of charge, to every local serviceman by the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We shall appreciate receiving up-to-the-minute addresses of all Andover men and women in service, in order that our mailing list may be kept accurate.

The funeral was held from the Lundgren funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. John S. Moses, rector of Christ church, officiating at the services. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

Telephone Facilities To Remain Short for Duration of the War

In the area that includes the Andover exchange and the neighboring exchanges of Lawrence and North Reading, there are today approximately 24,166 telephones in service, more than at any other time in history.

Yet, if it were not for wartime shortages and restrictions which still prevent prompt installation of all new telephones requested, the number of working telephones in the area would be higher by 1991.

That figure, according to E. L. Bramley, manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company, represents the latest count of unfilled orders on the waiting list in the area.

As pretty generally known, this situation is not peculiar to the exchanges of this locality. It exists in practically every community in the United States.

Not all kinds of telephone facilities are lacking in every exchange, Mr. Bramley explained, but common to all exchanges is the lack of telephone instruments. In many localities, however, the lack of either central office equipment or outside wires and cables, or both, is a major reason for unfilled orders.

In the Lawrence exchange and its neighboring ones the inability to install all telephones promptly arises principally from the lack of central office equipment and instruments, Mr. Bramley said. Except for telephones essential to the war and public welfare, which are installed promptly, the installation of new service depends upon room being made by removals of service for existing users.

It Will Take Courage

Between now and March 12, many important decisions will have to be made in town affairs, for on that date the citizens of Andover are going to have to decide how much money will be spent in the year and also they are going to have to decide some questions which may mean annual expenditures hereafter.

Between now and then the Finance committee and the directors of the Taxpayers Association will make public their findings on the various questions. Their job is not an easy one, and it takes men of courage to do it properly. The easy way to handle a budget investigation is just to okay things that have been going on for years and to turn thumbs down on new propositions. However, a real job of town financing requires a minute scrutiny of all expenditures, old or proposed. For instance, it would be too bad to turn down something worthwhile that the town has not tried before just because it is too difficult to save money by tossing out an expenditure that is unnecessary and yet has been made from year to year.

We do waste money here in Andover, and because of that we are denying ourselves some of the services that other communities have. It is nice to have a low tax rate, but it's better to get something for it. We can still keep our tax rate down but eliminate the wastes that have cropped up and developed over the years.

It is going to take courage, but our leaders in Andover public life have the necessary courage.

Helen Platt, Army Nurse Corps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Platt, Bancroft road, has recently been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant.

Lt. Platt is now stationed at Fort Devens, where she is awaiting a second overseas assignment.

Having been on active duty in a hospital in England for a year, she was returned to this country last April because of pneumonia and was a patient in the hospital in Framingham. A graduate of the Waltham training school for nurses, Helen enlisted in the Army in February, 1942. Prior to entering service, Lt. Platt was a district nurse in the city of Waltham for three years and was on the staff of the Mary E. McGowan Memorial hospital, Methuen.

Helen's brother, James D. Platt, a technical sergeant, is serving with the Army Air Forces in the Yukon territory, where he has been stationed for a year and a half.

Recently reported as having returned to the United States, is Alan Dix, who will be confined to a hospital with injuries received while in Uncle Sam's "employ." We'll have more details about "Al" in next week's issue.

Richard Stevens, 72 Morton street, graduated on February 3 and received his wings as a second lieutenant navigator in the Army Air force at Hondo, Texas. He is now on a 15-day furlough and will report for duty at midnight, February 18.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Lindsay have announced the engagement of their daughter, Caryl Norma, to Corporal William Russell McComish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McComish of Lawrence.

Miss Lindsay just completed her training at Salem hospital, and is awaiting assignment to an Army hospital. Corporal McComish recently returned from 18 months overseas as a member of the Chemical Warfare Unit with the First and Third Armies in France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany, and wears the Bronze Star and the Presidential Citation.

To The B B B SHOPPERS

Ever since several items of food have become very scarce, there has developed a class of shoppers who are known to the trade as B B Bs. A B-B-B is a shopper who goes from store to store and asks for nothing but Beef, Bacon and Butter — the three Bs — the Three food items that are very short.

Up to now we have shared generously with everyone our Beef, Butter and Bacon.

From now on our regular customers will be supplied with Beef, Butter and Bacon—FIRST —and when their orders are filled the BBs can have what Beef, Butter and Bacon they wish as long as it lasts.

With apologies to a former mayor of Boston for using "BBBs". He coined the phrase B.B.B. meaning Bigger, Better and Busier.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

NUFF SED — The above applies to this department also. We will follow the same procedure and give to everyone a Fair Share of whatever "Short Articles" are available — "AFTER" Regular Customers Are Taken Care Of. — And Why Not? Wholesale dealers have NOT "taken any new business, because their regular customers would suffer by it. It's fair enough—please be patient—we cannot pull these short articles out of "thin air." To give you an illustration—We've been "waiting" since last November for a shipment of Canned Milk to arrive at this store—

ABBOT ACADEMY NOTES

The second semester of the school year is now in full swing, first semester reports having been given out this week. There will be no spring vacation, and the Commencement date has been advanced one week (to May 18 to 21). This announcement was made by Miss Hearsey in chapel on Monday morning, and the students and faculty were glad to cooperate with the O. D. T. to the extent of avoiding the unnecessary travel which a spring vacation would entail.

On Saturday the Senior Prom will be held, beginning with an informal tea dance in the afternoon and continuing with a formal dance in the evening. On Sunday morning at 10:45 Dr. Raymond Calkins will hold a service in the school chapel for members of the Senior and Senior Middle classes and their escorts.

The Reverend Charles Reynolds Brown, D.D., Dean Emeritus of the Yale Divinity School, will speak at the vesper service Sunday on the subject of "Abraham Lincoln." The public is cordially invited to attend at 7:30 o'clock.

Storm

The record-breaking snow storm began innocuously enough early on Thursday, but by late afternoon it was apparent that it was going to amount to something. Despite the efforts of all the available snow-fighting equipment, Andover awoke the next morning to find itself pretty much snow bound except for the main streets. Most places of business, if they operated at all, were very much undermanned, with most of the help arriving either late or not at all. Through the day the snow crews worked, but it was not until Sunday that some of the roads were broken out.

Many cars which ventured out Thursday night were finally left stranded by the roadside when they proved unable to buck the accumulation of snow. The high wind resulted in many drifts, and walking, except for the main streets, meant wading through hip-high snow.

Bus traffic was suspended entirely Thursday evening. Trains were hours late Thursday evening and Friday.

Lack of manpower greatly hampered the snow-clearing efforts. It was impossible to do anything on sidewalk work because the snow gained such rapid headway that the horse plows could not do the job.

Tuesday's weather forecast provided a further scare that another blizzard was predicted, which was to have given another eight to ten inches. However, this storm went out to sea. Thursday morning, a week after the blizzard, another snow fall started, but the forecast stated that there would be no new accumulation.

Phillips Academy students were provided with some extra-curricular exercise by the storm, many of them helping in the acute man shortage around the grounds, and a large number going to Boston and Maine yards in Lawrence to help relieve the already over-congested freight situation. The money that they earned from these ventures is being turned over to the Red Cross, and it is estimated that the Red Cross is over $300.00 to the good as a result of the storm.

Public schools were out on Friday and also on Monday, since even at that time it had been impossible to clear the walks to the schools.

The plow went down Carlisle street just about an hour before the first call came in for the Fire Department after the emergency. The home of Arthur Crompton, 15 Carlisle street, suffered several hundred dollars damage when fire swept from the cellar up the outside partition and wall. Fire Chief Edward Buchan attributed the blaze to an ignited rubbish box.

Your Car

is older than you think!

YOUR CAR is older than you realize! Right now, eight out of ten cars and trucks are more than four years old! More than half of the cars on the road are at least seven years old! Even if you bought in '41, your car is nearly four years old. It has traveled more miles, possibly, than any of your previous cars. As your car grows older it naturally needs more service and more parts.

• • The war took many of our best mechanics. We had to train new men to replace them. New parts became scarcer. Some disappeared entirely. We had to learn to repair worn or broken-down parts instead of replacing them! Increased demand for service forced us to do many jobs on overtime at higher rates to get the work out.

• • You Ford owners understood these things. Your patience and cooperation helped us beyond words!

• • Even after the war it will be a long time before all who want new cars or new trucks can have them. The chances are that your car will have to last you longer than you think, so don't neglect it. Keep on bringing it "home" for service.

• • With your continued friendly cooperation we'll do our very best to keep your car running smoothly, efficiently and economically! We will help you get all the "extra" miles that Ford built in.

ABBOT ACADEMY NOTES

The second semester of the school year is now in full swing, first semester reports having been given out this week. There will be no spring vacation, and the Commencement date has been advanced one week (to May 18 to 21). This announcement was made by Miss Harsey in chapel on Monday morning, and the students and faculty were glad to cooperate with the O. D. T. to the extent of avoiding the unnecessary travel which a spring vacation would entail.

On Saturday the Senior Prom will be held, beginning with an informal tea dance in the afternoon and continuing with a formal dance in the evening. On Sunday morning at 10:45 Dr. Raymond Calkins will hold a service in the school chapel for members of the Senior and Senior Middle classes and their escorts.

The Reverend Charles Reynolds Brown, D.D., Dean Emeritus of the Yale Divinity School, will speak at the vesper service Sunday on the subject of "Abraham Lincoln." The public is cordially invited to attend at 7:30 o'clock.

The record-breaking snow storm began innocuously enough early on Thursday, but by late afternoon it was apparent that it was going to amount to something. Despite the efforts of all the available snow-fighting equipment, Andover awoke the next morning to find itself pretty much snow bound except for the main streets. Most places of business, if they operated at all, were very much undermanned, with most of the help arriving either late or not at all. Through the day the snow crews worked, but it was not until Sunday that some of the roads were broken out.

Many cars which ventured out Thursday night were finally left stranded by the roadside when they proved unable to buck the accumulation of snow. The high wind resulted in many drifts, and walking, except for the main streets, meant wading through hip-high snow.

Bus traffic was suspended entirely Thursday evening. Trains were hours late Thursday evening and Friday.

Lack of manpower greatly hampered the snow-clearing efforts. It was impossible to do anything on sidewalk work because the snow gained such rapid headway that the horse plows could not do the job.

Tuesday's weather forecast provided a further scare that another blizzard was predicted, which was to have given another eight to ten inches. However, this storm went out to sea. Thursday morning, a week after the blizzard, another snow fall started, but the forecast stated that there would be no new accumulation.

Phillips Academy students were provided with some extra-curricular exercise by the storm, many of them helping in the acute man shortage around the grounds, and a large number going to Boston and Maine yards in Lawrence to help relieve the already over-congested freight situation. The money that they earned from these ventures is being turned over to the Red Cross, and it is estimated that the Red Cross is over $300.00 to the good as a result of the storm.

Public schools were out on Friday and also on Monday, since even at that time it had been impossible to clear the walks to the schools.

The plow went down Carlisle street just about an hour before the first call came in for the Fire Department after the emergency. The home of Arthur Crompton, 15 Carlisle street, suffered several hundred dollars damage when fire swept from the cellar up the outside partition and wall. Fire Chief Edward Buchan attributed the blaze to an ignited rubbish box.

Your Car

is older than you think!

YOUR CAR is older than you realize! Right now, eight out of ten cars and trucks are more than four years old! More than half of the cars on the road are at least seven years old! Even if you bought in '41, your car is nearly four years old. It has traveled more miles, possibly, than any of your previous cars. As your car grows older it naturally needs more service and more parts.

• • The war took many of our best mechanics. We had to train new men to replace them. New parts became scarcer. Some disappeared entirely. We had to learn to repair worn or broken-down parts instead of replacing them! Increased demand for service forced us to do many jobs on overtime at higher rates to get the work out.

• • You Ford owners understood these things. Your patience and cooperation helped us beyond words!

• • Even after the war it will be a long time before all who want new cars or new trucks can have them. The chances are that your car will have to last you longer than you think, so don't neglect it. Keep on bringing it "home" for service.

• • With your continued friendly cooperation we'll do our very best to keep your car running smoothly, efficiently and economically! We will help you get all the "extra" miles that Ford built in.
