Public Schools To Open For Fall Term September 5

The public schools, including both the high schools and elementary grades, will reopen for the fall term on Wednesday, September 5.

It is expected that Superintendent Kenneth L. Sherman, who is now on a military leave of absence, will return to resume his duties as superintendent of schools. At present he is a lieutenant commander in the Navy, and has been in the service for three and one-half years.

Edward I. Erickson, who has been serving as acting superintendent of schools during Mr. Sherman's absence, will take over his new duties as superintendent of schools in the town of Longmeadow on September 1.

TO CONTINUE SALVAGE COLLECTIONS

The salvaging of paper, tin cans and used fats is still a vital necessity, according to the War Production Board, and until further notice, Andover's salvage committee will continue to make periodic collections.

The first paper collection in the fall will be made on September 16, and these will be continued every six weeks until the shortage in paper pulp has been eliminated. Tin cans should be cleaned, pressed flat and stored ready for another collection in November.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Dennis of 18 Pinkham street, Lynn, well-known residents of Andover up until two years ago, observed their 49th wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon. On Saturday, they were guests of their son, Clifford Dennis, on a trip to Provincetown. They have two grandchildren, Pvt. Clifford Dennis, Jr., in the Army overseas, and Richard Dennis of Hamilton.

Mr. Dennis is a retired printer.

Three-Day Carnival For Servicemen To Close On Saturday

Man Seriously Burned as Gas Bursts Into Flames

A 25-year-old garage worker was seriously burned about the face and body around noon Thursday when a pail of gasoline became ignited and burst into flame in the repair room of an Andover garage where he was working.

William Ward, Andover street, was rushed to the Lawrence General hospital, where his condition was found to be critical. The pail of gasoline was being used by Ward to clean the parts of a motor on which he was making repairs, when it flamed up, igniting his clothes. Gardner Townsend, 38 Chelmsford street, Lawrence, and Joseph Smeltzer, who happened to be in the garage, tore off the victim's clothes and summoned the fire department ambulance.

It was thought that two boys who had been near the garage had set the fire, but they were later cleared by Police Officers John Deyermond and Frank McBride, who investigated the accident.

LOCAL BOY ARRIVES HOME

At seven o'clock on Tuesday, August 14, when most of us were hearing the news of the Japanese surrender, Lt. Kerr A. Sparks, Jr., alighted from a train at the railroad station, home from overseas service.

He wears the Purple Heart with Oak Leaf cluster, the Bronze Star medal and the Good Conduct medal, and has seen action both in the Pacific and the European areas, with the Mountain Infantry.

The three-day carnival sponsored by the Service Men's Fund Association at the playstead will close on Saturday night, and it is hoped that everyone will take advantage of the many fine attractions before that time.

The midway includes many games of chance, including wheels games, baseball throwing, ring toss and punchboards, with prizes of groceries, blankets, stuffed toys, candy and cigarettes. There are pony rides and miniature cars for the kiddies, and refreshments are on sale.

Door prizes totaling nearly $150 will be given away each night, and the purchase of a 25c donation ticket makes you eligible for these prizes, which include Dutch maple chairs, porch chairs, braided rugs, mahogany end tables, platform rockers, smoke stands, book racks and many other valuable items.

On Saturday afternoon there will be a children's program for children of all ages, beginning at 2:30, consisting of the following events: Interplayground meet: winners of first and second place in the playground field day dashes to run for town championship in 50 and 100-yard dashes; candy kis scramble, shoe scramble, baseball throw, football forward passing contest, sack race, and candy kiss relay.

General chairman of the carnival is Walter J. Young, assisted by the following committees: amusements, Harold Wennick; sporting events, Frank Markey; booths, James Christie; tickets, Mrs. C. W. Hutchins.

Cormey, 35 Hall avenue, became the bride of William Gordon Campbell, motor machinist's mate, first class, son of Mrs. Amanda M. Campbell, 38 Mead street, Charlestown. Rev. Frank E. Dunn, former pastor of the Free church, officiated at the ceremony. The church was attractively decorated with palms and baskets of white gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with a white satin bodice, full skirt entrain, and veil entrain deeply bordered with lace cascading from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern.

Mrs. Joseph Smeltzer of Ballardvale, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and she wore a gown of aqua net and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Constance Ormsby, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Norman Dube of Somerville, sister of the bridegroom, wore matching gowns with a jersey bodice and bouffant net skirts with jersey appliques, one blue with pink accessories, and the other pink with blue accessories. They carried colonial bouquets of pink and blue flowers with streamers, and wore matching tiaras of fresh flowers.

Mrs. Cormey, the bride's mother, wore a gown of powder blue chiffon skirt and silver blue brocaded bodice with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Campbell wore a gown of black and lime grey with sequin trim and a corsage of red roses.

A reception was held in the church vestry following the ceremony, after which the couple left on a two weeks' camping trip. Upon their return they will make their home at 35 Hall avenue, Ballardvale.

The bride attended Punched high school, where she was active in athletics, and was a member of the Union Congregational church, where she sings in the choir.

Mr. Campbell is a graduate of Charestown high school. He is at present in the submarine service, and received his training in Detroit, Beloit, Wisconsin, and New London, Connecticut.

NEWS OF OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Vincent P. Davey, seaman, first class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davey, Brook street, is aboard the USS Astoria in the Pacific, and has helped this light cruiser avenge her namesake — a heavy cruiser which was sunk by the Japs off Guadalcanal in 1942. Since she entered Jap waters eight months ago, this ship has been in the thick of action at Iwo Jima and Okinawa, in the North China sea and off the coast of Tokyo itself. The Astoria was part of the naval task force which made the initial strike on the Tokyo area.

Staff Sergeant Charles D. Regan, 36 Summer street, has arrived home from the European theatre of war. He and Mrs. Regan, town accountant, left Monday for a two weeks' vacation at Belgrade Lakes in Maine.

Lt. Ruth Keith, ANC, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keith of Essex street. Lt. Keith, who has an eight-day furlough, just returned from Cherbourg on an Army hospital ship, the Louis A. Milne.

Corporal Richard Christison, 10th Division of the Mountain Infantry, recently arrived at his home, 100 Burnham road, from overseas. At present he is vacationing at North Chatham, N. H.

Coxswain M. P. Carney, 45 Whittier street, who has been aboard a motor minesweeper in a Pacific anchorage, is coming home. The vessel, which is the first Navy ship of its kind, cleared the waters for four Pacific invasion fleets and served two years on antisubmarine patrol. It is returning to be decommissioned. The crew will be given leaves, then reassignments.

First Lieutenant Walter B. Greenlaw, 16 Enmore street, arrived in New York Monday from Europe aboard the SS Thomas Barry.

John W. Crowley, Tech. 4, 37 Elm street, has recently been awarded the Bronze Star medal for his action in combat prior to V-E Day while serving with the 100th Division. He is a member of the famous Century Division's 397th Infantry. The award recognized the part he played in the division's fighting through France and Germany. Driving through the Vosges mountains last November, the Century Division cracked the Germans' planned defenses at the Meurthe river, and later fought to take the elaborately-fortified town of Bitche on the Maginot Line.

Sgt. George A. Darby, 19 Washington avenue, is with the 78th Station hospital in France, which celebrated two years of continuous overseas service this month. This hospital played a large part in the care of sick and wounded soldiers in the Sicilian and Italian campaigns and handled casualties of the Seventh and Third armies during the invasion of southern France.

ON AN AIRCRAFT CARRIER IN THE PACIFIC—Serving with the corps of doctors, dentists, pharmacist's mates and hospital corpsmen aboard this Essex-class carrier is William H. Jaquith, 19, seaman, second class, USNR, son of William H. Jaquith II, 76 Salem street. Jaquith entered the Navy in April, 1944, after attending Pennsylvania Military academy, Chester, for two years. He wears the American Theatre ribbon and the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre ribbon with a star for participation in the invasion of Iwo Jima.

GERMANY — The Silver Star, the Army's third highest decoration for gallantry in action, has been awarded posthumously to PFC Robert S. McDuffie, whose mother, Mrs. Katherine S. McDuffie, lives at 260 North Main street. McDuffie was serving with the 254th Infantry regiment of the 63rd (Blood and Fire) Division. During the initial assault on the Siegfried Line in the vicinity of Ennheim, Germany, March 16, he courageously advanced up a hill under a hail of rifle and machine gun fire in an attempt to silence a pillbox that was holding up the advance of the company. As he neared his objective, he was fatally wounded. "His magnificent courage and outstanding gallantry under fire," says the citation accompanying the decoration, "reflect the highest credit upon himself and are in keeping with the finest traditions of the armed forces of the United States."

Robert Campbell, seaman, first class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Brechin terrace, is serving aboard the U.S.S. Alabama in the Pacific. The Alabama, in one month's time, raided the Japanese mainland twice, bombarded a Jap-held island north of Okinawa and rode unscathed through a violent typhoon. One of the raids against the Nip homeland was uneventful, but during the other operation the "Mighty A," as the man-o'-war is known to her crewmen, ran into a hornet's nest of Jap suicide pilots. Scores of the Kamikaze planes were shot down outside the task force formation, but at least four came in close enough to be splashed by the guns of this and other ships. Alabama gunners claim credit for downing two of these planes and for assisting in destroying another.

PFC Louis J. McIntyre, 4 Avon street, serving with the 119th Evacuation hospital, is now at Camp Philadelphia of the Assembly Area command in France, being processed for shipment to the Pacific after furloughs in the United States. The hospital, which has evacuated more than 3200 patients, had a mortality rate far below the proven average for evacuation hospitals. The unit first went into operation in the ETO in Germany on March 2, 1945. The 119th, working under canvas, operated in four locations in Germany before moving into the Assembly Area command for indirect redeployment.

Party Will Mark Closing Day at Girl Scout Camp

Camp Maude Eaton, the Girl Scout camp on Poms Pond, will close on Friday with a gala party to be held from 2:30 to 9:00 p. m. The party, which will include former campers as well as those now in camp, will have a lively program of swimming, sports, a scavenger hunt, movies and a campfire. Supper will be served to all those present.

The twenty-two girls now left in camp will leave for home the following day.

NOTICE

In a statement issued last night, Postmaster Stephen A. Boland strongly urged all veterans of World War II who are making application for the Massachusetts bonus to be sure to register their discharge papers to the state and to enclose a Postal Note in the amount of 20 cents to cover fee for the return of these original discharge papers and bonus checks by registered mail.

According to the Postmaster, it is required by the Commonwealth that veterans shall submit their original discharge papers. Photostatic copies of the discharge papers shall not be accepted. A great many veterans apparently do not realize that, in the event of loss, these original papers cannot be replaced. They are the most valued possession of a veteran and it has been observed that some veterans are trusting these to ordinary mail with no record of actual delivery.

GUEST AT SHOWERS

Mrs. Arthur M. Ness, the former Mary Duff, 59 Maple avenue, was feted at two showers recently in honor of her recent marriage. Her co-workers in the office of the Tyer Rubber company tendered her a party at the Capri cafe in Lawrence, and presented her with a corsage and a purse of money.

A shower and farewell party was held in her honor in St. Augustine's school hall, where she was also presented with a purse of money and a corsage.

NEW HOURS AT SHAWSHEEN PLAYGROUND

For the rest of the season the Shawsheen playground will open mornings at 10 o'clock, and close for the day at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

This is an experiment which is being tried out on the Shawsheen playground. In the past, the playground has been open from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until dusk, but the attendance has been light in the evenings, and it is thought that the earlier opening might prove more satisfactory.

LIBRARY NOTES

The books listed below do, we believe, offer good entertainment for those moments of relaxation which we all seek at some time or other. Not that books written with a light touch are necessarily time-wasters, for it takes talent to write a good diverting book, be it fiction, poetry, essay or travel. Why not select a few for your lighter reading moments? If these do not appeal, there are many more in the library's collection that may.

THREE MEN IN A BOAT, Jerome. An old favorite, still extremely funny, which is guaranteed to fill the bill if you want something to read aloud. An account, with witty digressions, of a boating trip up the Thames.

DIARY OF OUR OWN SAMUEL PEPYS, Adams. Extracts from F. P. A.'s column, "The Conning Tower," which appeared in several of the New York papers. The diary forms a chronicle of what was going on, the plays, the books, the people in the public eye. Makes diverting reading if not taken in too large doses.

I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU, Bemelmans. If you haven't made Bemelmans' acquaintance yet, you'd better begin with this book. Delightful, gay tales, illustrated by the author, founded on actual experience.

FOR AUTHORS ONLY, Roberts. A popular novelist turned essayist with pleasing results. Particularly recommended: A Few Remarks on Exercise, When in Rome.

THE ENCHANTED VOYAGE, Nathan. A hen-pecked carpenter builds a boat in his back yard. What happens when the boat takes off on an enchanted voyage that leads to anywhere makes good reading.

THE EDUCATION OF HYMAN KAPLAN, Rosten. A group of humorous sketches, which first appeared in the New Yorker, about Hyman Kaplan, a zealous if somewhat irrepressible member of the American Night Preparatory School for Adults.

ARCHY'S LIFE OF MEHITABEL, Marquis. "Typing with great effort, since he hits the keys with his head and is unable to work the shift," Archy the Cockroach acts as Boswell to Mehitabel the Cat and pounds out her life story. To quote Archy, "mehitabel is a cat that has seen better days. . . toujours gai is ever her word."

WE MARRIED AN ENGLISHMAN, Hoffman. "An irrepressible brace of twins who lived for two years on an airplane base in Iraq and were unable to take any of it seriously."

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN, Paphashvily. A joyous book, with an undercurrent of rare wisdom, about George, who left his native Georgia, and of his adventures in this country in making a living and becoming a part of America. The author's own unique use of English adds a good bit to the charm of the book.

WHEN THE CAT'S AWAY, Bullett. "Rollicking story of a strayed black cat, a scrambled romance, with a perfectly good outcome, all scened in a quiet English village."

ONE MAN'S MEAT, White. Deceptively simple, these articles, previously published in Harpers and the New Yorker, are written in a humorous vein and present E. B. White's penetrating views on many phases of American life.

MR. BEAMISH. "Mr. Beamish, a rotund, philosophically inclined little proof-reader, numbers a vast circle of friends: old books on the 3-for-25 counters that no one else buys, Mephistopheles and Dr. Johnson, who chat with him at home, a lively puppy, iss Hoyden, and a cat, a lilac-eyed copy-holder who chews gum, and a young advertising man who wonders about love. . ."

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lord of Summer street are enjoying a vacation in Lincolnville, Maine.

Madden—Scott

Miss Freda Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott, 8 North Main street, was united in marriage with James F. Madden, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Madden of 9 Hull street, Belmont, at a very pretty ceremony held in the Andover Square and Compass club hall on Saturday, August 18.

Rev. Archibald L. MacMillan, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Lawrence, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white mousseline de soie with eyelet panels and train and a Juliette cap trimmed with pearl and a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Nan Lindsay, the bride's aunt, was maid of honor, and she wore a gown of blue mousseline de soie, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and larkspur.

The bride's mother chose a gown of black with claret trimming and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of plum with fuchsia accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, after which the couple left for a two weeks' honeymoon in New York City. Upon their return they will make their home in Belmont, Mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore white satin. She had as her attendant her sister, Mrs. Alfred Webb, and the bridegroom was attended by Sgt. Henry Chase of Lynn.

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

JAPS threatening a vital position in the Solomon Islands were thwarted largely through the leadership of Staff Sgt. Floyd E. Hill, Marshville, N. C., who has been awarded a Silver Star posthumously. As leader of an antitank section, he was ordered to support a rifle platoon and to have his positions dug and ready when the enemy struck. The big gun that War Bonds helped to provide for those men was ready when the Nips struck. Sgt. Hill, wounded, helped his men to completely rout the enemy.

How many long distance Telephone calls to say "Hello" to an Army?

ABOUT AS MANY as there are dreams of home . . . thousands of them. Just as soon as they reach debarkation centers, soldiers throng to the telephones for that first joyous contact with "the folks."

Right now, such long-distance calling in New England is especially heavy. These are all extra calls, piled high on an increased load of civilian calls, which include the usual heavy vacation traffic.

That's why delays are to be expected when you make long-distance calls. Please help speed essential calls by limiting your own to those that are urgent, and by keeping necessary calls brief.

of Andover, in the County of Essex, Massachusetts, respectfully represent that the way known as Shawsheen Road in said town, between Lowell Street and near Lincoln Street, is unsuited to the present requirements of traffic and that the lines thereof are uncertain, and that common convenience and necessity require that the same be altered or relocated, and that specific repairs be made thereon.

WHEREFORE, they pray that after due notice and a hearing the County Commissioners may alter or relocate, order specific repairs thereon and discontinue any portion thereof, which by reason of their action may no longer be required, all as in their judgment may be necessary.
