Punchard To Play Rockport Dec. 21

Punchard will play its opening game in basketball Friday evening at 7:30, December 21, when Rockport comes here to play them in the Memorial gymnasium. It will be Rockport's second game as they will play St. James of Haverhill on Friday, Dec. 14. In going over last season's scores we find that Rockport won 10 out of the 18 games played, and Punchard won 5 games out of 16. It might look like the game would go to Rockport, although they have lost five of their players from last year's squad.

Last season's high scorers for Punchard were: Captain Phinney, McCollum and Westcott, who are out for their third year in basketball, and are ready to make it a victorious season.

Coach Kenneth McKiniry reports that he had not placed his players as yet, but has picked a varsity and junior varsity team. They have been practicing and trying out for the positions they can play best.

The visitors' lineup: Robert Wayrymen (co-cap.), f; J. Reilley, f; Valestraci, f; Purady, c; Johnson, c; John Huttunen (co-cap.), g; Joseph, g; J. Wayrymen, g.

Punchard's First Team: Phinney, (cap.), McCollum, Demers, Westcott, G. Noble, B. Noble, Yancy, Moss, McVey and Parsons.

Punchard Eleven Feted at Banquet

Parents, friends and cheerleaders were present at the 31st anniversary banquet given in honor of the 1945 Punchard eleven Monday evening in the cafeteria at Punchard High school. A delicious dinner was served at 6:15, after which Mr. James Hart, toastmaster, announced the first speaker, Mr. Donald Dunn, director of physical education in the Andover public schools. Mr. Dunn spoke on the importance of physical education in the elementary schools, Junior and Senior High schools, and throughout life.

Mr. Eugene Lovely, principal and coach at Punchard for more than 35 years, was the next speaker, and he stated that he had never seen one squad suffer so much from injuries and sickness, and yet be so successful. Mr. Kenneth Sherman, superintendent of schools, expressed his happiness at being back with the school this term after an absence of more than three and a half years. He believes that athletics will get a boost in the next two years, with the addition of track in the Junior and Senior High schools.

Mr. Owen Hinckley, assistant coach at Punchard, spoke on the fitness of the third team which he trained this season, preparing them for the replacement of the graduating players. He believes there will be two or three that will make the first team. Coach McKiniry said he was much pleased with the team, and he believed they had played with the idea to win in all their games. He commended Anthony Cavallaro as being the most outstanding player of the team, and awarded him the Varsity Club plaque. He also commended co-captains Fred McCollum and Phil Markey. Fred McCollum expressed the team's appreciation for Mr. McKiniry's and Mr. Hinckley's efforts, and he presented each of them a present from the team.

Mr. Dennie Gildea and Mr. Richard Hickey, head and assistant coach of the Everett High school, whose team took the state title, spoke on the character, fitness and teamwork of their team, which enabled them to have such an outstanding record.

Two movies on professional football were shown in the auditorium after the speeches.

Members of the football squad were: Co-Captains Fred McCollum and Philip Markey, Captain-elect Joseph Watson, Robert Phinney, Charles Waterman, Norman Parsons, Ronald Demers, William Westcott, Robert Moore, Anthony Cavallaro, James Gillen, Bruce Noble, Glenn Noble, Fred Cole, Clifford Du-

Sure, we've won the War

BUT THE COST GOES ON!

IT WILL COST MILLIONS TO BRING OUR ARMIES BACK and it's just as expensive as it was taking them over. Meanwhile, thousands of our men who stay behind in occupied territory must receive their pay, be clothed, housed and fed at Uncle Sam's expense.

UNCLE SAM MUST STILL PAY FOR THESE. Although America had already started to cut down on production of various kinds of war materials, the swift ending of the war left many planes, tanks, battleships, guns, made at the last minute, still to be paid for.

WE OWE THEM A RETURN TRIP TICKET TO HEALTH. Today, the rehabilitation and care of over 300,000 wounded are among America's gravest peacetime problems. This obligation is one which every American can now share in—by investing in the Great Victory Loan.

America Must Take Care of Her Own
In the Great Victory Loan!

IT'S too much to expect that the cost of a war which lasted many years can just stop overnight. Although the fighting is over the paying has to go on for some time to come.

So once more it's ALL TOGETHER in America's Great Victory Loan. Start off your own peace and prosperity—and your country's—right by investing in the biggest quota of bonds you've ever bought.

Recommends Public Garbage Collection

If garbage is to be collected in Andover the Board of Health feels that it should be collected by the Department of Public Works, and that the net cost would be about $11,000 per year, according to a statement issued this week by Drs. Look and Emmons.

The ideas of private collection or contract collection were felt unsatisfactory by the board.

A complete statement follows:

The Board of Health, together with the Selectmen, have been striving for months to obtain a satisfactory answer for the townspeople in the matter of garbage collection. Many snags have arisen. However, we would now like to review and summarize this problem.

In March, at Town Meeting, the townspeople voted to accept Article 27 and appropriated $4,000. This figure, as the Finance Committee stated, was based on "insufficient information" and the backers of the article were unable to show that the suggested amount would fulfill the requirements of our Town. Nevertheless, the sentiment of the people was to obtain better and cheaper collection.

An intensive study has been made of methods and costs with the following results. There are three (3) methods of collection:

- 1—Private
- 2—Contract
- 3—Municipal

The first method (private) is now in operation in Andover, but is objectionable to some because of the cost per family, the type of trucks used, and the irregularity in pickups of some collectors.

The second method (contract) was the method apparently desired by the proponents of Article 27, but very little conducive study had been given the proposition. The first call for bids was made in April and three men signified their desire to undertake the contract. The contract was finally awarded to the person the Board of Health and the Selectmen felt had the proper equipment and background. However, when it came time to sign the legal papers, the successful bidder and others felt that all outstanding permits should be cancelled and he be given exclusive rights of collection in the Town of Andover. The majority of the two Boards felt that this was unfair to the local men; moreover, this practice was recently declared illegal by the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts in a case against the City of Malden. In part this decision read: "...The authority of Boards of Health to prohibit absolutely and in all instances by a general regulation the transportation of garbage, except by the city or its contractors, which they formerly possessed by virtue of what is now G.L. (ter. ed.) c.111, section 122, no longer exists... It does not follow, however, that a Board is required to grant all or any applications for a permit. The duty of the Board is to exercise the power conferred upon it and, when an application is presented, to determine whether its granting or refusal would be beneficial or detrimental to the public health."

Again, after re-examination of the issue, bids were asked and this time only one party bid, yet he was subsequently found to be unable to meet the requirements and withdrew. This proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Health and the Selectmen the hopelessness of executing the provisions of Article 27 this year.

The third method (municipal) would seem to be the best suited to the needs of a town like Andover, although the most expensive. One of the biggest drawbacks to proper collections in this Town is the wide area to be covered, approximately 32 sq. miles, with only about 2100 families. It is quite likely that some of the sparsely settled portions would have to be omitted at first in any case. If the Town purchased two (2) 1½-ton trucks with enclosed bodies and hired two drivers and four helpers, we feel that the situation could be adequately covered in view of the fact that there will still be a few private collectors available.

Our thought is that the Board of Public Works is the proper department to cope with the situation. In a survey of 20 Massachusetts cities and towns, the Highway Department controlled collections in 8, while the Health Department handled it in 12, but, in well-run municipalities like Brookline, Concord, Lexington, and Newton they believe that the Highway Department is better set up to supply labor and care for equipment than is the average Health Department, and we agree. Residential collections should be made once a week for the average family and twice a week in houses having three (3) or more families. Stores, restaurants, etc., need daily removal in most cases.

In towns with approximately the same population as Andover, the costs run from $3,120 to $10,875, the variance or spread being due to the territory to be covered and the number of collections to be made. Most costs have doubled in the past five years. The Board feels that an appropriation of $14,000 yearly would be needed to satisfy requirements. This figure could be reduced about 20% by the sale of the garbage, thereby making the actual cost approximately $11,000.

We hesitate to endorse municipal collection at the price indicated, but feel that any final recommendation to the Town should be based upon the entire financial picture that faces us in 1946.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by those who attended the Christmas concert at the Free church Sunday evening. The program included the combined choirs of the Free Christian church and the First-Calvary Baptist church of Lawrence, also the Andover Choral society, with J. Everett Collins as conductor. Mrs. Dorothy Cornwell, soprano, sang several selections by Handel, with Francis Dunlevy, organist of the Free church, at the piano.

The program was as follows: Organ prelude, The Messiah Overture, Handel; processional hymn, "O, Come, All Ye Faithful"; Scripture sentences, followed by an invocation; chorale, "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light," Bach; anthem, "Christmas Day," Holst;

Former Jap Prisoner To Address Club

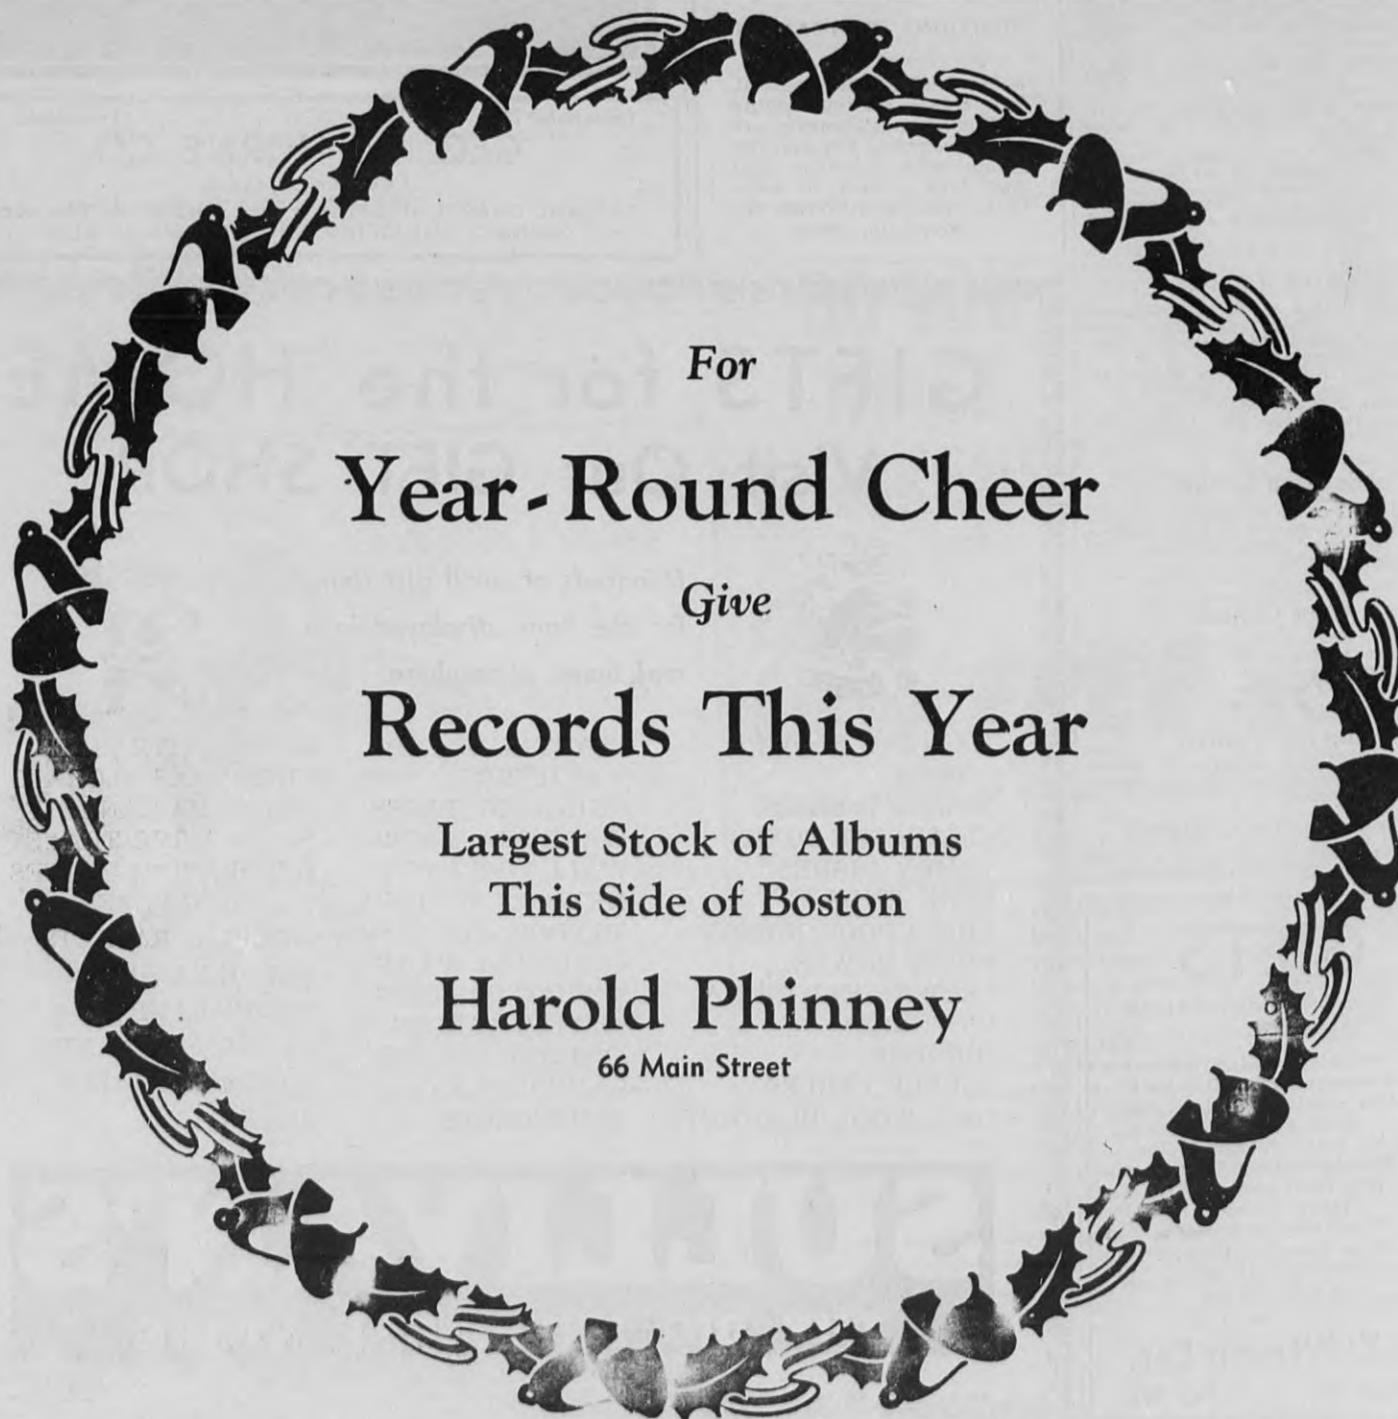

Spending nearly thirty years in Japan, plus over three years in the Philippine Islands, most of them as a Japanese prisoner of war, has given Rev. Frank Cary, New England born Congregational missionary, an unusual background of knowledge for his talk on Japan. He will speak Wednesday evening, December 19, at 6 o'clock at the Men's club in the South Congregational church.

Because of his skill in the use of the Japanese language, he carried a heavy job as interpreter at Santo Tomas. Although he suffered from influenza, tropical ulcers and beriberi, he did his share of the heavy work, led in religious activities and gave blood transfusions as long as his strength held out. "It made patience a virtue to be coveted and broke religion down to its essentials as a daily meeting of one's duty and privilege in a world with a God who cares and understands," he says of his internment experiences.

Rev. Mr. Cary had gone from Japan to the Philippine Islands for temporary service when he was interned first at Davao and later at Santo Tomas in Manila. He executed the dangerous assignment of carrying to the Japanese officers, caught in Santo Tomas prison camp, Manila, the United States Army terms under which they could leave.

Women's Alliance of the Free Church — Mrs. Elizabeth Logan Ennis of Sachikela, educationalist under the American Board of Foreign Missions, was the guest speaker at the meeting held Thursday afternoon, December 13, in the Free church. Mrs. Ennis spoke of the Umbundu Christian church where she worked for more than 30 years, and of the poverty facing these people.

Finance Committee Urges Deferring Purchase of Road Scraper

The finance committee has approved the appropriation of $8000 for snow removal, but approved only $23,000 of the $35,000 that the Board of Public Works is asking for equipment at the coming special town meeting next Monday evening.

The committee felt that the tractor and the truck were needed by the town and "although there is no definite assurance that they can be secured promptly, the Board of Public Works believes that they can be obtained in time to be of use this season." The finance committee withheld approval of the purchase of a grader with the following statement: "Apparently the grader cannot be secured promptly and it is recommended that action on this item be postponed until the regular town meeting."

It is estimated by the Board of Public Works that the tractor and the truck would each cost in the neighborhood of $11,500, with the grader costing $11,000 to $12,000. The department's present tractor broke down last February, and was useless for the big storm, while the old Austin "77" grader was also out of service. For this reason the cost of tractor hire has been higher, and up to December 7, a total of $8,364.14 had been spent for tractor and grader hire, and a few big trucks. The board feels that if it had had its own equipment, there would have been a sizable saving.

According to the board's figures, there has been a reduction of 41% in small costs by virtue of the purchase seven years ago of the small trucks. In that seven year period from 1939 to 1945 for hired units the cost was $20,383.78. The cost of hauling snow out of the square was $2,581.13, making a total cost of $22,964.91, or a year average of $3280.70 for hired snow removal.

The total expenditures for the seven years were $102,040.38, for a yearly average of $14,577.19. This compares with a total for the five-year period from 1934 to 1938 inclusive, of $130,412.52, or a yearly average of $26,102.50, almost twice the yearly average for the last seven years. The official records of snowfall show that it was practically the same each year.

The Taxpayers' Association is urging all its members to attend the meeting promptly at 7:30.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS

Saturday night the giant fir tree at the corner of High street will be lit from top to bottom with multi-colored Christmas lights, as Andover celebrates its first peace-time Christmas after four years of war.

Formerly a tradition in Andover, the tree was not lit during the war years, because of general restrictions. This year the giant star at the top of the tree and the colorful lights will once more make the Christmas season brighter.

MISS ABBIE DENMAN BURTT

Miss Abbie Denman Burtt, 69 Park street, died Wednesday morning, Dec. 5, at the Baker Memorial hospital, Boston, where she had been a patient for a short time. Born in Andover, Dec. 16, 1881 she was a member of the Women's Union of the South Church, Women's Relief Corps, now dissolved, and the Indian Ridge Lodge of Rebekahs, 136, I. O. O. F.

She is survived by a brother, William Henry Burtt, of Winchester; an aunt, Winifred Burtt of Andover, now spending the winter in Deland Fla., and two uncles, Albion Burtt, of Andover, Charles H. Burtt, of Boston.

The funeral was held at the Lundgren funeral home, Friday at 2, with Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor of the South Congregational church, officiating. Burial was in the Old South church cemetery.

MISS ANNIE G. DONOVAN

Miss Annie G. Donovan, a native and life-long resident of Andover, was found dead at her home, 22 Brook street, Thursday morning by Edward O'Hagan, a fireman at the Central schools. He went to her home shortly before 7 a. m. Thursday morning to fix her fires and found her lying on the living-room floor. He immediately called Rev. Henry B. Smith, O. S. A., of St. Augustine's church, at the rectory across the street, who called the Andover police. Officer James R. Lynch immediately answered the call in the fire department ambulance. Dr. Julius J. Burgiel, medical examiner, examined the body and stated that death was due to a heart condition.

Miss Donovan, 77, was one of the first organizers of the choir of St. Augustine's church. She was organist at St. Augustine's for 45 years and had retired about ten years ago because of ill health. She accepted the position of organist in September, 1894, and for two months she played in the old wooden church which stood on the site of the present rectory and which was destroyed by fire November 8, 1894.

Miss Donovan was for many years a music teacher, having studied under the direction of the late Professor Thomas F. Leonard, organist at St. Mary's church. She also studied organ technique under Professor Frank Donahue of Holy Cross Cathedral, Boston. During her long musical career she had served under nine pastors.

The funeral will be held in St. Augustine's church Saturday morning with a solemn high mass of requiem at 9:30 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Augustine's cemetery.

Editorial Be There on Time

Town meeting starts next Monday night at 7:30, and 7:30 is the time that you should be there. The first half hour of the annual meetings are usually taken up by ratifying of elections, etc., but at this special meeting we plunge immediately into whether or not we shall spend 43,000.

On the first article there should be little question, because no one at town meeting will be able to say whether or not there will be enough snow to spend $2,000, $8,000 or $16,000 on between now and the end of the year. The Board of Public Works feel that it will be safe with $8,000, and the short time left between December 17th and the end of the year won't allow much opportunity for wasting money anyway.

On the second article, there is bound to be some question. The board feels that the purchase of this equipment will save money in the long run, and it has figures that show the savings of the last seven years because of the truck purchase back in 1939. Obviously, of course, machinery anywhere will save money only if the management of that machinery and of the men in the department is efficient, and it is hoped that some day this goal will be achieved.

The Finance committee approved the article for $23,000, stating that the tractor and truck are, in their opinion, needed by the town. However, they suggest that action on the grader be postponed until the regular town meeting, because it is felt that the grader cannot be secured promptly.

What the special town meeting will have to decide first is whether the equipment is necessary, and if it will save money. If the voters feel that they can answer "yes," there should be no hesitancy about approving the purchase now, because it will put us three months ahead of most towns in purchasing such equipment. Even if the machinery cannot be secured immediately, it would be best to place the order now, as anyone who has tried to purchase machinery of any kind well knows.

The most important thing is to have a full attendance at the meeting despite its unfortunate date. The spending of $43,000 is worth making some sort of an effort to have a voice in.

This Sober Town

Did you ever wonder why a banker sits out front, and what it is that's out back? We know that we'd go crazy completely if we had to sit right out next to a counter and have no means of being able to devote some uninterrupted time to a problem, an editorial or a job. But bankers do it, and we wanted to know why. The answer, as one of Andover's new residents, Howell Stillman of the Bay State Merchants National bank, told us, is that they want to make themselves available to the public, that they are there to serve the public.

What is it that's out back? It's nothing human, or almost not human. True, the girls do pick away at some keys, but for all practical purposes, the checks just about record themselves, sort themselves and total themselves. The check machines are pretty near uncanny. It's not quite a funnel that you pour the checks into, but it's the next thing to it, and while nobody lies with a string on his big toe to start it automatically when a bird tickles the bottom of his foot with the tip of its feather while it's trying to catch an early worm, the machine does have Rube Goldbergish propensities.

We knew something would come of all this "wishing for a white Christmas" that people have been doing for the past two or three years. This year we got a white Thanksgiving, it certainly looks like it will be a white Christmas (unless we're too completely snowed under to enjoy it) and in all probability we'll have a white New Year's.

With all this talk about new snow-removing equipment, you might think we hadn't asked for it all along. Like the extra present you buy "in case something comes up," but when something does, you're sorry, because it was something you really would have liked to keep.

Of course, a white Christmas would be much simpler if we went "over the river and through the woods" to grandmother's house in the sleigh like they used to do, with a soapstone at their feet and a bearskin rug over their knees, instead of driving a car with clanking chains and a frozen radiator over slippery roads.

But, all in all, it is nice to get our wish this year, and maybe next year we'll be prepared for it.

But It's True

Answer to Puzzle No. 9.

Are we Kidding ourselves Or are some of the Big shots Kidding us

Every year at this time we head our advertisement "Merry Christmas to Everybody in Andover."

We can't do that this year. — Why? Well, here are the facts:

No Sugar, No Butter, No Hams, No Bacon, Less Than One Day's Supply of Fresh Meat of Any Kind. Now Poultry has become Very Scarce; large Chickens, large Fowl and Small Size Turkeys are few in number.

Just think this over

The hostilities of World War 2 have ceased for some few months — instead of conditions gradually improving, just a little bit, they are steadily growing worse each week. As a Food Dealer, I am sick and tired of telling you, the customer, I cannot get meats and other food items that you, the people, want, when I KNOW there never was as much food in this country as at the present time.

What is the reason

Some of the BIG SHOTS say they are waiting until Taxes go down — another group say we have to feed the rest of the World — some more bald heads say it is the dispute between Manufacturers and Labor Unions.

As a business man, I do not believe any of these groups — I believe I am being just KIDDED — I believe you, the consumer, are being Kiddled!

I say this publicly

BECAUSE I Have A Right To Say What I Believe—
BECAUSE I Live In A Democracy—

You, the Consumer, have the same right to say what you believe.

NOW—If the Business Man and the Consumer, don't say Something Pretty Quickly, against this Bureaucratic Crowd that is running our country on THEORY, and NOT on Practical Experience, We Will Lose Our Democracy and the Freedoms Our Forefathers Fought For, and which the Veterans of the past two wars Fought To Preserve.

Life in Andover

Upper Left: Last week's "where is it?" showed the cupola of the AUV house on Wheeler street behind the Cochran Chapel. This week's is fairly easy, we think, but then, maybe we've guessed wrong.

Upper Right: "Lake District Farm, England," a pen and ink drawing by Abbot Cheever, art instructor at Phillips Academy and Andover resident. The sketch is included in "Pictures for Christmas Presents," an exhibition at the Addison Gallery of serigraphs, etchings, oils and watercolors intended as suggestions for the solution of puzzling Christmas lists. Serigraphs, reasonably priced, are highly colored decorative pictures especially appropriate for rooms where color is needed and there are some exhibited especially for children's rooms. The oils are for more formal spots, such as over fireplaces or sideboards. Other pictures run all the way from cartoons by the New Yorker's Richard Taylor to block prints of Biblical subjects. In an effort to make the purchase of original works of art more practical than heretofore, the Gallery has arranged that pictures may be bought on an installment plan to be suited to the convenience of the purchaser. Under the plan pictures may be had for Christmas presentation no matter what the terms of payment. The exhibition will continue until December 31, and the Gallery is open daily from nine to five and on Sunday from two-thirty to five.
