THE AND

At the Library . .

Behind the desk, near the office door
From the highest stack to the base of the floor

Is an alcove that boasts in its darkened nooks

An enormous collection of "crafty" books.

And, if there is any doubt as to the truth of this statement, we suggest that the people of this busy town take time off to explore their library a bit — not just the quick
"Is there a book on reserve for me?" approach, or an apologetic siddling to the mystery shelf (now highly respectable literature, according to Dr. Fuess). Why not take the circuitous route around the desk and down the dark aisle, and see for yourself that there's a little of everything and a good deal of a few things there in the pleasurable field of crafts and hobbies.

The antiquers, or lovers of the odd and beautiful of yesteryear have found their way to these shelves. Here they have learned to unearth the black-bound wealth of information on exquisite glass and china and carved wood and fans and shawls and Bristol ware.

And those who are thrilled with the maze of blueprints and house plans are very familiar with this part of the room. The constant traffic of books such as "Houses for Budgeteers," "Tomorrow's House,"
"Planning Your Home for Better Living," and "Houses for Homemakers" leaves many a shelf with amazing vacancies, but that is as heart-warming a sight to a librarian as a neatly arranged preserve closet is to the homemaker.

If you are a gardener, you have touched the hem of this vicinity, for it's just a step or two to the north of your favorite stamping-ground.

Once there, who could stand and read the titles of two or three shelves and fail to marvel at the diversity of things that will prevent boredom and will give a new zest to living?

When a Feller Needs a Friend
 ("During his visit home the President dropped in on Eddie Jacobson, his old partner in the hat store."—News Item.)

Harry—Well, Ed, how goes it?
Eddie—Pretty good, Harry. How bad are things in your line?

President—They're not good.
Eddie—I gathered as much from the papers. Lately every time I got to thinkin' that I had troubles, I just thought of you. I ain't felt so sorry for anybody since we sold that shirt with the short tail to the tallest man in town.

President—Believe me, Ed, I can use your sympathy.

Eddie—Being President ain't what it's cracked up to be, eh?

President—Not even close. Mind if I just sit down and look over the stock?

Eddie—I ain't got much stock. Harry . . . just a few hats and ties left after the holiday rush.

President (admiringly) — That's okay. Hats and ties look better to me now than when I was in business. It sort of comforts me to sit here surrounded by haberdashery.

Eddie—A hat shop ain't a bad place, Harry.

President—You're tellin' me!
Eddie—The nearest thing I ever saw to a pressure group around here was once when three women came in to tell one man what kind of a necktie he ought to pick out.

President—How long have I been here, Ed?

Eddie—About ten minutes.
President—And not a demand so far for a special favor from any direction! Mighty nice place this.

Eddie — Well, always remember I'd be glad to have you back with me in the store.

President—That's the nicest thing that's been said to me since I got into the White House.

Eddie—And I ain't lookin' for no post as an ambassador, either!

President — Just imagine being back in the hat shop. . . Just to be able to sell a collar with no news reel men recording the deed for posterity . . . to be able to dress the front window without having it full of newspaper men!

Eddie—Just to take a nap on the counter without any fear you were imperiling the future of civilization, eh?

President—Oh, man!

Memories of Early Autos
 Floyd Clymer of Los Angeles, writing a book, recalls the old-time automobiles, naming the Ace, Alco Alpena, Apperson, Chandler, Cleveland, Franklin, Flanders, Kissel and Lozier among others. And it brings back to us boyhood memories of the

Who remembers the EMF? The Maxwell, Stoddard - Dayton, Dart, Grant, Glidden, Jeffrey, Wm. Elmore, Winton, Marmon, Grant and Apperson Jackrabbit?

The first car we ever drove had an isinglass foldup windshield, prestolite tanks and a motor that, started after applications of boiling water on the outer pipes, roared like a flock of fire engines.

A famous radio commentator has switched from a stomach medicine sponsor to a hat company. And Elmer Twitchell, who gets mixed up easily, went into a haberdashery shop the other day to get a laxative, and later entered a drugstore and asked for a hat spelled backwards.

Sergeant James Renny arrived at Fort Devens yesterday. He returned from Germany after 27 months service overseas. Technical Sergeant Alexander Renny, of the Army Air Corps, expects to be home next week. He arrived in California last Tuesday.

Boys To Use Guild

At their meeting Tuesday evening the school board voted to approve the request of Kenneth L. Sherman that the Junior High School boys' varsity basketball team be allowed to practice afternoons at the Guild gymnasium.

This measure was made necessary in view of the fact that the Memorial gymnasium is now being used to capacity by the senior high school boys and girls.

SLEIGH RIDE

After the recent snow storm, members of the Young People's Society of the South Church and the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Free Church enjoyed an old-fashioned sleigh ride, with Gilbert Cromie driving the horses.

The group toured the roads of West Andover and stopped at the Shattuck farm for refreshments. Mr. George Westhaver had charge of the group. The following young people attended: Jane Noss, Sally Westhaver, Helen Glennie, Patty Black, Margie Harshaw, Barbara Nicoll, Irene Yancy, Nancy Chadwick, Ruth Ann Chadwick, Joan Cross, Hilda May Cargill, Richard Gould, Allen Wood, Kent Donovan, Alan Douglas, Edwin Weaver, Fred and Charles Flather, Dick Mower, Robert Beauchesne, David Anderson and Roger Dea.

How Well Has General Electric Met These Objectives?

HIGHER WAGES

Here's how General Electric's increased production and efficiency have affected G-E workers. Average hourly earnings for men, not including overtime pay, have gone up as follows:

1936.....	$.73
1937.....	.81
1938.....	.87
1939.....	.86
1940.....	.85
1941.....	.89
1942.....	.96
1943.....	1.05
1944.....	1.09
1945 (Sept.).....	1.09

Overtime pay gave G-E workers more on top of this. G.E. has made jobs for nearly three times as many. 61,781 worked for G.E. nine years ago.

In 1945 an average of 145,000 had jobs at G.E. and at much higher pay.

LOWER PRICES

G.E. has an obligation to a second group of people—the public. The public wants improved products at fair prices.

"More goods for more people at less cost"—G.E.'s goal—is not a part-time assignment. It is a job for management and worker alike if G.E. is to keep growing, keep raising wages, keep making more jobs for more workers.

A few figures show typical price decreases:

Refrigerator
1935.....	$199.00
1941.....	129.95
Lamp
1935.....	.15
1945.....	.10

1935.....	76.32
1941.....	69.30

FAIR PROFITS

G. E. during the war earned 4.7¢ on each dollar of sales. Of this, 4.1¢ was paid to its more than 200,000 stockholders and the remaining six-tenths of a cent on each dollar was retained in the business to assist in carrying on and expanding its operations.

All money earned over this 4.7¢ was turned back to the U. S. Government. G-E cost-saving methods had made war goods for less money than the Government expected.

These dividends have been declared per share of common stock since 1936:

1936.....	$1.50
1937.....	2.20
1938.....	.90
1939.....	1.40
1940.....	1.84
1941.....	1.75
1942.....	1.40
1943.....	1.40
1944.....	1.40
1945.....	1.60

GENERAL ELECTRIC'S OBJECTIVE has been to keep prices moving downward, keep wages going up, and to earn a fair profit. This calls for volume production, more efficient work and methods. With the help of every single employee, General Electric believes it can show our country, as it did in wartime, an example of American enterprise at its best.

ADJOURNED HEARING TO BE SATURDAY

An adjourned hearing will be held Saturday afternoon at the town town house at 4:30 in connection with the proposed automobile building to be erected in Shawsheen square. At that time plans and sketches will be presented to the appeal board.

A number of residents of the village were present at last Saturday's hearing, and several of them expressed their views on the appearance of the building and the public safety factor. The suggestion dealt with the possibility of having the building set back, proposed entrances, etc.

The proposed building would be a one-story front on Main street with a basement having a Haverhill street entrance.

NEW CANDIDATES ENTER ELECTIONS

Andover's political situation continued to gain momentum this week with several new names tossed into the ring

There are now three possibilities for moderator. Rev. Frank E. Dunn, first to enter race, will be opposed by John F. O'Connell and very possibly by attorney Arthur Sweeney, for whom papers have been taken out.

John M. Caldwell of North Main street has taken out papers for selectman, the other candidate being former selectman Howell Shepard.

For Board of Public Works, the incumbents, P. Leroy Wilson and William Marron, have to date one opponent, John Kelley of Holt road, well-known official at Tyer Rubber.

There has also been some talk of Victor Mill of 106 Elm street entering the race. He is connected with the Lawrence Machine and Pump corporation. His son, Victor Mill, Jr., of 4 Cedar road, has taken out papers for school committee, though it is not definite whether for the two-year or three-year term. The senior Mr. Mill had not taken out papers at noon today, but there was a possibility he would.

Definitely out for the two-year term on the school board are Gordon Colquhoun and George Connors. The incumbents, William A. Doherty, Dr. Malcolm B. McTernan and Rev. John Moses, are all trying for re-election to the three-year term.

Charles McCullom, recently appointed to fill out the late Franklin Stacey's term on the Board of Health, is probably to be opposed by Benjamin Brown. Dr. Look is running for re-election to the three-year term.

Running for re-election to the Punchard trustees are Edmond E. Hammond, William A. Trow, Roy Hardy, Henry G. Tyer and Charles C. Kimball.

Three vacancies for the library trustees may create a little contest. Attorney Walter E. Mondale is running for the seven-year term, William N. Perry for the one-year term, and Caroline P. Leavitt for the three-year term. There has been some talk of another candidate for the seven-year term.

Next Thursday, January 31, at 4:30 p. m. nominations will close.

Old Clothes Drive To Be Held Sunday

Once again humanitarian Americans are participating in a united effort to clothe the needy people of Europe, and once more Andover will share in the responsibility of this worthy cause.

The drive this year will be held on Sunday afternoon, January 27th, at one o'clock, and it is under the direction of the Andover Service Club. A fleet of trucks will tour the town to pick up the clothes, which should be left at the curb, or on the porch in case of rain.

The clothes should be sorted into the following categories: shoes to be tied together in pairs; infants clothing up to three years; children's clothing three to eight years; men's and boy's clothing nine years and older, and the same for women and girls. Bedding with usable remnants and miscellaneous items. Clothing in any of these groups should be tied to make it easy for the committee members and others in the final sorting which must be done.

Clothing may also be left at the following places: Shawsheen Motor Mart, Central Fire House, Central Post Office, or Ballardvale Post Office.

The committee is as follows: Walter E. Mondale, chairman; Frank E. Dunn, Henry Hopper, Howell F. Shepard and Dr. Nathaniel Stowers.

A Letter to the President of the United States

January 18, 1946

Hon. Harry S. Truman
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Your proposal to me in Washington last evening that the wage demand of the United Steelworkers of America-CIO be settled on the basis of a wage increase of 18½ cents an hour, retroactive to January 1, 1946, cannot, I regret to say, be accepted by the United States Steel Corporation for the reasons set forth below.

AS you must know, the offer of almost equivalent to granting in full the Union's revised demand of a wage increase of 19½ cents an hour, which was advanced by Philip Murray, the President of the Union, at our collective bargaining conference with

As you know, collective bargaining negotiations with the Union broke down at the White House yesterday afternoon, because Mr. Murray then refused to budge from his position that a country-wide steel strike must take place, unless steel workers are granted a general wage increase of 19½ cents an hour. Our offer of a wage increase of 15 cents an hour was again rejected by the Union.

The Union threatened to go ahead with its program for a national steel strike at midnight next Sunday, although such a strike will be a clear violation of our contracts with the Union, which continue by their terms until October 15, 1946.

From the outset, we have recognized how injurious a steel strike will be to reconversion and to the economy of this whole coun-average straight-time pay to $1.29 an hour, placing such pay among the highest today in all of American industry.

Under our offer of a 15 cent increase, the average weekly take-home pay of our steel workers for a forty-hour week would amount to $51.60, assuming that no overtime is involved. This figure is only $4.54 less than the actual average weekly earnings of these employees, including overtime, in the last full war year of 1944, when the average work week was 41.6 hours. The difference is really less, because we will undoubtedly continue to pay premium and overtime premiums to our steel workers aggregated more than $1,300,000. Such reduction of $4.54 in weekly take-home pay is the natural consequence of a shorter work week of forty hours, and therefore one of lower evening that the wage demand of the United Steelworkers of America-CIO be settled on the basis of a wage increase of 18½ cents an hour, retroactive to January 1, 1946, cannot, I regret to say, be accepted by the United States Steel Corporation for the reasons set forth below. AS YOU MUST KNOW, the offer of 15 cents an hour is almost equivalent to granting in full the Union's revised demand of a wage increase of 19½ cents an hour, which was advanced by Philip Murray, the President of the Union, at our collective bargaining conference with the Union in New York a week ago today. In our opinion, there is no just basis from any point of view for a wage increase to our steel workers of the large size you have proposed, which, if put into effect, is certain to result in great financial harm not only to this Corporation but also to users of steel in general.

As I have tried to make clear to you and other Government officials during our conferences in Washington over the past few days, there is a limit in the extent to which the Union wage demands can be met by us. We reached that limit when we raised our offer to the Union last Friday from a wage increase of 12½ cents an hour to one of 15 cents an hour. This would constitute the highest single wage increase ever made by our steel-making subsidiaries. Our offer of 15 cents was equivalent to meeting 60% of the Union's original excessive demand of a $2 a day general wage increase. Our offer met 75% of the Union's final proposal of a wage increase of 19½ cents an hour. A wage increase of 15 cents an hour, such as we offered, would increase the direct labor costs of our manufacturing subsidiaries by approximately $60,000,000 a year. That is a most substantial sum, and does not take into account the higher costs we shall have to pay for purchased goods and services, when large wage increases generally become effective throughout American industry, as is inevitable after a substantial increase in steel wages.

an hour. Our offer of a wage increase of 15 cents an hour was again rejected by the Union.

The Union threatened to go ahead with its program for a national steel strike at midnight next Sunday, although such a strike will be a clear violation of our contracts with the Union, which continue by their terms until October 15, 1946.

From the outset, we have recognized how injurious a steel strike will be to reconversion and to the economy of this whole country. Most industries are dependent upon a supply of steel for their continued operations. We have done everything reasonably within our power to avert such a strike. If a strike occurs, the responsibility rests with the Union.

When the Government at the eleventh hour informed us about a week ago of its willingness to sanction an increase in steel ceiling prices, we at once resumed collective bargaining negotiations with the Union. Such price action by the Government was a recognition by it of the right of the steel industry to receive price relief because of past heavy increases in costs, something which the steel industry for many months has unsuccessfully sought to establish with OPA.

I should like again to point out some pertinent facts relative to the wages of our steel workers.

Since January, 1941, the average straight-time hourly pay, without overtime, of our steel workers has increased more than the 33% increase in the cost of living during that period, recently computed by Government authorities. Steel workers' wages have kept pace with increased living costs. Such average straight-time pay in our steel-producing subsidiaries was $1.14 an hour in each of the months of September, October, and November 1945, excluding any overtime premium and any amount for correction of possible wage inequities. An increase of 15 cents, in accordance with our offer, would raise such involved. This figure is only $4.54 less than the actual average weekly earnings of these employees, including overtime, in the last full war year of 1944, when the average work week was 41.6 hours. The difference is really less, because we will undoubtedly continue to pay overtime premiums to our steel workers aggregated more than $1,300,000. Such reduction of $4.54 in weekly take-home pay is the natural consequence of a shorter work week of forty hours, and therefore one of lower production.

Much as we desire to avoid a steel strike, we cannot overlook the effect both on this Corporation and on our customers and American business in general, of the 18½ cent an hour wage increase, which you have proposed. Such a wage increase must result in higher prices for steel than have previously been proposed to us by the Government. Great financial harm would soon follow for all users of steel who would be obliged to pay higher prices for their steel, higher wages to their employees, and still have the prices for their own products subject to OPA control. Such a high and unjustified wage scale might well spell financial disaster for many of the smaller steel companies and for a large number of steel fabricators and processors. The nation needs the output of these companies. Increased wages and increased prices which force companies out of business can only result in irreparable damage to the American people.

In our judgment, it is distinctly in the public interest to take into account the injurious effect upon American industry of an unjustified wage increase in the steel industry.

After a full and careful consideration of your proposal, we have reached the conclusion above stated.

Respectfully yours,

BENJAMIN F. FAIRLESS,
President, United States Steel Corporation

Editorial

We think Andover is beautiful, and we want to keep it beautiful. We think Shawsheen village is one of the most beautiful parts of Andover.

A meeting was held last Saturday afternoon to discuss a building which it is proposed to erect in the square. A number of Shawsheen village residents were there, and they in general did not oppose the erection of a building, but they did express their views on both the appearance of the building and the public safety factor. They had a right to do that, and those are certainly considerations which in the public interest the owner of the lot should take into consideration.

They were reasonable, most of those residents of the village, and it is a little difficult to understand why the man representing the owner should have repeatedly said: "If you want something undesirable, you may get it if you drive us too far. We don't want to do it, but you'll get it if you drive us to it." We trust that this is not the owner's own view; we trust he realizes that the people in the village are interested in the village; and we feel perfectly sure that he'll be willing to adhere to any reasonable suggestions.

Infantile Paralysis Fund Continues To Increase

Frank E. Dunn, chairman of the Andover Infantile Paralysis Committee, in reporting on the progress of the drive to date, expressed gratitude for the co-operation being extended to the committee by citizens of Andover. The progress of the drive to date is very encouraging, and everyone is urged to continue their contributions so that the quota will be reached by February 1st.

Plans for the ball, which is being sponsored jointly by the Andover Servicemen's Fund Association and the Andover Infantile Paralysis Committee, are practically complete. There will be eight acts of entertainment from eight to ninety-three o'clock to be followed by a grand march and general dancing. The entertainment and music comes under the direction of Harold Wernick who has engaged the finest talent available.

The committee urges the recipients of tickets for the ball to make early returns. Returned servicemen will act as ushers for the ball and among the notables who are to attend are the Hon. Arthur W. Coolidge, President of the Mass. State Senate and Senator William H. Corby, well-known news columnist.

The Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON

UNDER THE DOME

WASHINGTON.—Busy Tom Corcoran, the ex-braintruster, has been promoting his law partner, ex-Senator D. Worth Clark of Idaho, to replace Harold Ickes when and if the latter resigns as secretary of the interior. Clark, a former die-hard isolationist, is not likely to get the job. . . . An off-the-record quote from President Truman: "A lot of people used to accuse President Roosevelt of being a liar—especially on Capitol Hill. But having been in this job for a few months myself, it's hard to know how anyone could be President of the United States without occasionally being a liar." . . . Boss of the Bronx Ed Flynn, close friend of FDR and former Democratic chairman, is in for tough political sledding. Hard-hitting Congressman James Roe, leader of Queens county, who spearheaded Mayor LaGuardia's victory, is out to replace Flynn as Democratic national committeeman from New York. . . . Ed Flynn, always more interested in the coveted field of diplomacy, plans to leave for Moscow this winter to try patching up relations between the Kremlin and the Vatican. . . . Some senators who backed Cordell Hull in ousting Sumner Welles, have now become strong Wellesian rooters since his masterful testimony before the Pearl Harbor committee. . . . The demagogue business must be picking up. Gerald Winrod, race-baiting editor of "The Defender" and under indictment for sedition, has moved from a modest dwelling on North Green street to a pretentious home on Broadview street, the exclusive section of Wichita, Kans.

SOL BLOOM SLIPS

Congressman Sol Bloom of New York, who imported the "Salomance" from Egypt to the Chicago World's fair many years ago, nearly got away with a fast one during a secret session of the house rules committee called to consider the UNRRA appropriation bill.

Bloom, who is chairman of the house foreign affairs committee, attended the rules committee meeting as its guest. He was not supposed to vote. Congressman Charles Eaton of New Jersey, ranking minority member of the foreign affairs committee, also was a guest and supported UNRRA generally. However, he began to tell the rules committee of his strong conviction that "freedom of the press" amendment should be included in the bill.

Anxious to avoid more argument over this, Bloom, though not a member of the rules committee, shouted, "I move the previous question!"

Rules Committee Chairman Adolph Sabath of Illinois banged his gavel and remarked, "The question is called."

Members of the rules committee then prepared to vote.

Not so Representative Clarence Brown, Ohio Republican. Turning to Bloom, Brown asked:

"Sol, how long have you been a member of the rules committee?"

Bloom flushed, while other members of the rules committee grinned sheepishly, realizing they had been taken in.

"I just thought if I could get away with it, I would," Bloom replied. He did get a rule to put the UNRRA appropriation before the house, but not without a good deal more discussion.

CAPITAL CHAFF

G.I.s in India report the U. S. army, fearing the British may be faced with revolt, has issued rifles, bayonets, and ammunition to American G.I.s. Many American soldiers in India never had weapons in their hands during the war, but now get weapons after the war. . . . Secretary of State Byrnes has offered Ken Galbraith, former OPA executive and editor of Fortune magazine, an important job to help run peacetime Germany. . . . American members of the Anglo-American Palestine commission will begin hearings in Washington on January 10. . . . Assistant Secretary of State Jimmy Dunn is leaving for London to help complete the peace treaties for Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania and Italy. . . . Floyd B. Olson was a famous governor of Minnesota. But Congressman Havenner of California is probing charges that the U. S. ship named for him has been forced to carry a cargo of sick Japanese from Pacific islands to the Japanese mainland. Nearly all the patients had communicable diseases, and two of the 60 tuberculosis patients died during the voyage. Most controversial subject that has hit the Truman cabinet in weeks is the Moscow agreement.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Maury Maverick, who had the smaller War Plants corporation knocked out from under him while he was in the Far East, reports that General MacArthur is doing an A job in Japan. . . . If the Russians want to make a hit with G.I. Joes they could loosen up their absurd policy of not permitting Korean coal from the Russian zone to be shipped to the American zone a few miles south. As a result, ships which might be used for hauling G.I.s, now carry coal to Korea.

Punchard to Meet Undefeated Exeter

Punchard will meet an undefeated Exeter Saturday night at the Memorial Gymnasium at 7:30.

Exeter has won eight games this season, and Tuesday night defeated the then undefeated Somersworth Academy 58 to 21, thus taking the lead in the Southeastern league.

It looks like a probable victory for the strong Exeter team, which appears to be a more formidable rival than the Methuen team which defeated the Punchard quintet last week.

The line up for Punchard:
Phinney (captain) rf
B. Noble, lf c, Yancy
McCollum, rg lg, Westcott

Jr. High Defeats Methuen Juniors

The Junior High team remains undefeated after beating Methuen 27 to 11 last Friday. The local team started out on the Methuen floor with a close zone defense. Some of the Junior High players were confused by the glass backboard. The high scorer was John Craig with 12 points, and following closely was Robert Deyermond. The outstanding player was Mike Muise, who played a very good game, although the whole team made an excellent showin.

The Junior High team played the Punchard J. V's Wednesday, and a return game with Methuen will be played on Friday.
