43-Inch Snowfall in 11 Days

Town Crews Still Battle To Clear
All Traffic Lanes

STORMS COST TOWN
OVER $10,000

Snow-clearing operations due to the three heavy storms that struck here in 11 days from December 23 to January 2 will cost the town more than $10,000. Supt. Edward R. Lawson of the Public Works department had an $8000 pay roll for snow clearing up to midnight Friday, January 2, and estimates that this week's figure will be close to $2000. However, that does not tell the whole story as the department will be busy with the present accumulations for another two weeks which will cost another tidy sum for men and equipment.

The town's third heavy snowfall in 11 days blustered into this area last Friday, piled up 10 more inches of snow on the previous 33-inch accumulations, and disrupted transportation services, but swept out to sea without causing any serious damage here.

The heavy snow stuck to windshields and made driving conditions as hazardous as at any time during the season. The snow also clung to trees and wires, and although many sections in the East had essential communications and electrical services stopped or curtailed by falling limbs and wires, the only such damage locally was the falling of a heavy duty wire at the corner of Elm and Main streets. The Lawrence Gas and Electric company crews had this repaired in a few hours.

Snow accumulations so far are reaching early-season record proportions. Essex Company records give 14 inches for the storm of December 23, 19 inches for December 26, and 10 inches for January 2, a total of 43 inches.

This total was increased by another five inches or more with a storm that started Tuesday night and continued Wednesday morning, necessitating the sounding of the "No School" signal.

Snow-fighting forces, battling with the first two snowfalls, were taxed to the utmost to keep highways open to traffic as the third storm increased in intensity.

All available men and equipment of the Public Works department had been working long hours since the arrival of the first storm, with the many operations of plowing, widening, sanding, salting and clearing sidewalks, so that when last Friday's north-easter hit here with another 10-inch cover, all of the work had to be started over again.

The Public Works department with but one crew has no spare men to call upon in such emergen-

Pushing back the great piles of snow that bank streets and highways was one of the operations that kept overworked snow-clearing crews busy during the past two weeks when Old King Winter lavishly spread a 50-inch snow blanket over the town. Here Donald Gillispie, tractor operator, is nudging a snow pile back with the town's big caterpillar tractor just to make room for more snow when the next storm comes. (Look Photo) cies so that it has been necessary for the department forces to work long hours overtime since the first storm. Over the week-ends some of the operators have worked 30-hour stretches, and then after a short rest, have come to work 12 to 16-hour periods without relief.

With the amount of snow already on the ground, Supt. Edward R. Lawson estimates that it will take two more weeks before the snow-removal operations are completed.

Very few accidents were reported to police during the time road conditions were at their worst. Injuries were reported in only one automobile collision in West Parish where one machine, entering from a thoroughfare where the corner was piled high with snow, collided with another.

Firemen were on emergency duty during the worst part of the storm, all permanent men being called in, thus giving the department a double shift from 3 o'clock Friday afternoon until about 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The department received no calls during this period.

Library Curtails Opening Hours

Beginning Monday, January 19, the Memorial Hall Library will be open Mondays through Fridays from ten to nine o'clock, and on Saturdays from ten to six o'clock.

This reduces the number of hours that the library is open from 72 to 63. The morning nine to ten hour is a quiet one as far as library use is concerned and Saturday evening, since the stores have been closing at six o'clock, has been less busy than before.

It is hoped that this slight change in hours will not interfere with the convenient use of the library. The Board of Trustees decided upon this curtailment in order to relieve somewhat the pressure of increased library costs. It is not expected that it will result in the elimination of any essential services.

Mrs. Marion Hickey of Cheever circle, wife of Police Sergeant W. R. Hickey, is resting comfortably at St. Joseph's hospital in Lowell, where she recently underwent an operation.

School Board May Adjust Bus Service

The regular meeting of the school committee was held Tuesday evening with all members present except Mrs. Dorothy Partridge, who is ill.

Arthur Gilman of Elm street appeared before the board in behalf of a number of children who live in the vicinity of Elm street, near the town line, but within the limits allowed for transportation, requesting that on account of the present conditions of streets due to the heavy snow, they be allowed to ride on the school bus. The matter was referred to Supt. Kenneth L. Sherman to make whatever adjustments he deems necessary for winter months.

The resignation of Mrs. Jeannette Hogan, secretary to Principal Eugene V. Lovely, was received and accepted. To succeed her, Miss Eileen Flynn was appointed. The salary is $1,200 annually.

A heating engineer representing the Cross Coal company discussed the proposed change over from coal to oil, in the heating system of the Shawsheen school. The committee has this project under consideration for the purpose of saving manpower.

At a previous meeting an engineer of the General Electric company representing the Andover Coal company, presented a plan which would mean a complete change-over with new automatic boilers at a cost of $8000 to $8500.

The plan suggested by the speaker Tuesday night called for the installation of oil burners in the present boilers at a cost of $4800 to $5000. The matter was referred to a special meeting to be held January 20.

Supt. Sherman pointed out that the town is now receiving refunds from the state which are higher than ever before. The refund for 1947 amounted to $13,446.60, which has been received regularly for some time, and in addition is to receive $2,380.05 as a special transportation refund.

The committee also adopted a special article for the town warrant to see if the town will vote to authorize the school committee to continue to maintain state aided vocational education in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 74, General Laws and Acts amendatory thereto, or dependent thereon, and further raise and appropriate the sum of $900 therefor.

The nagging worry which accompanies the feeling that you're not quite up-to-par, is often more directly responsible for serious illness than any other single factor. If you have been feeling lousy, listless—if you've been worried about the state of your health . . . wouldn't you rather KNOW what's wrong? Wouldn't you rather have your mind set at rest? Go and see your doctor. His advice will serve to allay your fears. And if he SHOULD find something wrong—he will be in a far better position, for having caught the symptoms at an early stage, to set you on the right road to a complete and speedy recovery.

High Grade Milk Supply For Town

Numerous inquiries have been reaching Milk Inspector Robert A. Walsh recently concerning the milk supplies coming into town. So many persons have shown such deep concern in the matter that Inspector Walsh feels that others, too, may be interested, and in order to clear up any misunderstanding that may exist on the subject, has taken the most pertinent questions and has answered them, as follows:

What is the status of milk supplies in Andover?

In general our milk supplies are A-No.-1. We are fortunate in our town, and also in surrounding areas, in having milk producers and distributors of high standards.

Are all of our milk supplies from local areas?

All of our milk supplies come from the New England area. Occasionally, however, supplies have to be brought in from other areas. This was true during the shortage in milk supplies that existed during the month of November. Some of our larger producers had to supplement their supplies with milk from Wisconsin. This western milk was high-grade and we were fortunate that this supply was available. It undoubtedly prevented a consumer milk-supply shortage.

Do we estimate bacterial counts of our milk supplies?

Not as yet, but we anticipate carrying out these determinations shortly after the first of the year.

To Open Sunday Evening Series

The Andover Council of Churches representing six churches in Andover, will sponsor a "University of Life" series of Sunday evenings during the month of February and including the first Sunday in March. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Rev. Levering Reynolds, chairman; Rev. A. Graham Baldwin; Miss Miriam Putnam; Mr. Herbert Otis; Miss Fannie E. Davis.

The plan for each evening will be as follows. At 6:30 a simple buffet supper will be served. This will be followed by a meeting with a short Worship Service and a main speaker, following the general theme, "Christianity and the Issues of Life" with outstanding speakers. The group will then divide into three Interest Groups, two for adults and one for young people. The discussion topics for the Interest Groups will include "The Church and the Issues of Life," "The Bible and the Issues of Life" and "Youth and the Issues of Life." Those who register for the series are asked to choose the Interest Group they wish to attend and tickets will be issued for these groups. The enrollment is open to all in Andover with a limit set at 300. Some of the speakers already secured are Prof. Henry J. Cadbury of Harvard University, Dr. Howard Thurman of San Francisco, who is at the head of the Multi-racial church in that city, and Miss Mabel Head, the official observer at the United Nations for The Council of Church Women.

Such a series of meetings was conducted with outstanding success in Lowell last year with an enrollment of 800. Tickets will be issued for the series and an announcement with further details will be sent to all the church lists and to the community within a short time. No one will want to miss this unusual opportunity in Andover.

Close Town Hall Over Weekends

Because of the shortage of fuel oil the selectmen voted Monday night to close the town house Saturdays until further notice. The police station will be the only part of the building heated weekends.

Chairman Roy E. Hardy stated that the heat is to be turned off Fridays at 5 p. m. and not turned on again until Monday morning, so that anyone coming in to work in any office on Saturday will do so entirely "on their own" as there will be no heat.

JUNIOR HIGH

By Bessie Christie and Patricia Peterkin

SCHOOL REOPENS

On Monday morning, January 5, 1948, the students of the Junior High School returned after a ten day vacation full of snow and skiing and coasting and shoveling snow. New Year resolutions were made to study harder. Along with our resolutions to study more we hope that resolutions will be made throughout all the world to keep the peace, and we hope those resolutions will achieve lasting peace.

ORCHESTRA REHEARSALS

With the close of the band season, classes have begun for orchestra, and will continue for the second third of the year. Following this period, classes will begin in singing and there will be a Glee club formed for both boys and girls.

SKATING RINK

In spite of the fact that there has been so much snow, efforts are being made to make a skating rink in the northwest corner of the playstead in order that the students of the high schools might have a chance to play hockey.

WEDDING BELLS

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. Walter Roberts, High School football coach, and instructor in the Social Studies department of the Junior High school, who was married to Miss Dorothy Adams of Lawrence on December 27. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will reside on Main street in North Andover.

SCHOOL PAPER

The next issue of our school paper will soon be placed in the corridors for sale to the students. Up to the present time the school paper has been purchased by a large percentage of the members of the school and this number will be just as popular, for it will contain the items so well liked and read by all.

PERSONAL NOTES ABOUT STUDENTS

William Hogan of the seventh grade has returned to school after several weeks absence due to illness.

Grace Engle and William Thompson entered the ninth grade a few weeks ago and both are taking the Business course. Grace came from Manchester, N. H., and is living on Chandler road, and William entered from Lawrence.

Roland Rainville who lived on Maple avenue, and was registered in the seventh grade, has left the Andover Junior High school and has gone to New York to live.

On Tuesday morning Crosby Day entered the Junior High school from Brookline Junior High school and will be with us for a month. Crosby will live with his aunt, Mrs. Curran, on Woodland road, while attending the Andover Junior High school.

It was interesting to note all the new shiny jewelry, sweaters, dresses, and coats being worn to school after the holidays, and we suspected that most of them were choice Christmas presents.

NEW LIBRARY BOOKS

Two new books have been added to our library—

The Legend of the United Nations,
by Frances Frost

This is a collection of favorite stories told to boys and girls in England, Russia, China, our own country, and in all the other countries of the United Nations. Among the stories there is a comical tale from Poland about Mr. Whirlwind, Shoemaker, the exciting Czechoslovakian story about the Devil's Little Brother-In-Law, Belgium's Sugar Candy House, and

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Congratulations to the Sacred Heart Brothers for making a grand skating area available to the townspeople. Brother Peter, Sacred Heart principal, recently informed the chairman of the town recreation committee, Mr. Stafford A. Lindsay, that the rink was open for public use. We think that this is a mighty fine gesture of civic mindedness which deserves the thanks of all of us.

The Town's snow-fighting forces are getting a great workout these days. From the condition of the streets we see that they are really giving us some pretty fine results too.

Most predictions for 1948 indicate that there will be no major depression, but that retail prices will continue to rise, that war preparations will be an ever-increasing subject of conversation, that Republicans and Democrats will blame each other for the high prices, that Mr. Truman may very probably be the Democratic candidate, that unemployment will not increase appreciably in 1948, and that taxes will probably be reduced, but to an unpredictable extent. This at least would not be as bad as a total depression in 1948 that has been frequently predicted during the past few months.

In refusing to arbitrate, and instead striking for excessive demands, the Boston truck drivers' union has sadly missed a trick, says the Christian Science Monitor. The top leadership of Local 25 urged arbitration on the membership. For two hours last Sunday, Nicholas P. Morrissey, the New England organizer for the Teamsters' International Union, pleaded for arbitration. He and his associates are experienced trade-unionists who know what is best for their organization. But the rank and file voted them down If the strike persists and the State does nothing, the international headquarters of the Teamsters' Union in its own protection may have to take control of Local 25, as it has previously done, to see that this greatly troubled union is run right.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

A large number turned out for tryouts for the representative varsity basketball team of the Andover Junior High last Tuesday, January 6. Names of the boys on the squad, under the capable coaching of Mr. Benjamin Dimlich, will appear at a later date.

POETRY CLUB

The Poetry Club, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Stevens, has gotten a school song underway which they hope will be completed soon. The club members won't tell anybody what the tune or words to the song are but promise their best work in the end. Everyone is waiting in suspense for the release of this song.

GIRLS' INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

With the usual large turnout, the Greens and Reds started the day off with a good game of basketball, the Reds triumphing with an 8-4 score.

The second game, Golds vs. Blues, was fast and exciting, ending with an 11-10 score for the victorious Blues.

After the games passing from the hip over the head to give a hook effect was practiced by the girls.

Miss Collins, gym instructor, will soon choose girls for the varsity team.

CAMERA CLUB

There was no Camera Club Tuesday due to the absence of Mr. Owen Hinckley, director, who is ill. We hope Mr. Hinckley will be back with us soon.

REPORT CARDS

Well, now that we're back from vacation, report cards have been issued. Friday was a happy day, though. Just think that there's one less card to be given to you.

PUNCHARD HIGH

By Jack Sherman

THE RETURN

The promised storm didn't materialize, so Punchard students returned to school as scheduled last Monday. After the bad weather, it almost seemed impossible that Mother Nature would hold off as long as she did and allow school to reconvene. Many students listened hopefully as no school was announced in towns in and around Boston, and were sorely disappointed that Andover's streets had been so efficiently cleared. Hopes are high for bad weather, although the prospect of shoveling has soured the hopes of many.

P. S.—Came Wednesday. More snow. No school!!!

SKATING

The skating rink has been flooded in the playstead again this year, and Mr. Donald D. Dunn, director of athletics, has told the boys that if the weather holds good, to bring their skates to school and skate during their gym period. This sport is looked forward to with great enthusiasm by the boys.

SENIOR PLAY

Tryouts for the Senior class play were held this week. The first session was held on Monday, and continued to Tuesday. The play "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" has a very large cast, and the casting of characters will take quite a while. There are twelve men in the cast but only four turned up for the first tryout. However, many of the men's parts are very small, and it is expected that they will be filled without too much difficulty. It is hoped that the public performance will be held late in February. Why not mark your engagement calendar now for a Friday night late in the month and come and see the show. As in years past, Mr. Mervin Stevens will direct, and a finished performance is promised.

BASKETBALL

The thoughts and hopes of the student body are centered on the basketball team. Last year the Punchard squad made the Tech tournaments, and guesses are being made that the team will receive this honor again. The boys are being coached by Mr. Kenneth McKiniry who produced last year's winning team.

GOLDSMITH PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST

The annual Goldsmith Prize Speaking contest will be held January 14. This contest was originated by a group of alumni several years ago, and is one of the several contests the students have the chance to enter for cash awards. The participating students are picked by their teachers to tryout for the honor of speaking. After the tryouts, two from each class a boy and a girl, are selected by a committee of the faculty to participate in the contest. They pick their selection and are coached by members of the faculty. Formerly the affair was held at night, but public interest waned, so that it is now presented as a school assembly. The program was scheduled for December, but due to the prolonged illness of several participants and coaches, it was postponed to the above date. If you would care to attend this program, it will be held in the Memorial Auditorium January 14 at 12:30 o'clock. The public is cordially urged to attend.

Essex Aggie To Close Saturdays

The Essex County Agricultural school will close Saturday afternoons. This action was taken at a recent meeting of the trustees in conformity with that adopted by other county and state institutions.

It is the intention of the trustees that emergency problems of farmers and others will be handled on Saturday forenoons as far as possible as in the past. This may be done by appointment with individual instructors or extension agents. In general, however, the school office will be closed and the clerical staff no longer on duty on Saturday forenoons.

Dr. Fuess To Prepare New Town History

Will Start When He Retires as Head of Phillips Academy

A new and up-to-date history of Andover which will include the town's participation in World War II, is to be written by Dr. Claude M. Fuess when he retires as headmaster of Phillips Academy.

That the distinguished educator would devote his time to the preparation of such an important record became known only recently through the action of a committee which has had the matter under consideration for some time.

One of the articles adopted in 1946 for the Town Warrant of that year set aside the sum of $2,000 for research work preparatory to writing the history of the Town of Andover that would bring into a new document the record of the town's great past up to the closing days of the second World War. The article provided that the money be spent under the direction of a committee of 15 to be appointed by the Moderator.

In the selection of this committee Dr. Fuess was made chairman, and when it organized Selectman Roy E. Hardy became secretary.

At a recent meeting the matter was discussed with the result that Dr. Fuess became the unanimous choice of the other 14 members of the committee to undertake the task. To this Dr. Fuess agreed and promised that it would be one of his first undertakings after his retirement next July 1 from the academy, where he has served 15 years as headmaster and 40 years as a member of the faculty.

AT THE LIBRARY

OPEN MEETING AT THE LIBRARY

On Tuesday evening, January 13, at 7:45 o'clock there will be a meeting at the Memorial Hall Library, open to all members of the community and neighboring towns. Miss Katherine Lawler will give her talk on color and design in home decoration. She is prepared to demonstrate the value of correct combinations of color and the use of textured materials by actual showing of swatches, small sections of papered walls, and miniature curtains. If these questions run through your mind—Are people using glass curtains? Should they be inside or outside the sash? Are floor length better than apron length draperies? What should I look for in paper draperies? Could we use large patterned wall-paper for small rooms? What proportion of light and dark make up a cheerful room? Is chartreuse a color to avoid? Miss Lawler answers all these and many more, and encourages the women present to bring up problems of their own. The public is cordially invited to attend.

DISCUSSION GROUP MEETS

On Monday evening, January 12 at the Memorial Hall Library, the first of the discussion groups will meet at 7:30. The group will read and possibly argue over the book "History of the Peloponnesian Wars" by Thucydides, under the leadership of Mr. Alston Chase of the Phillips Academy faculty. The public is cordially invited to attend this new venture, and find the truth of the old, old saying, that there is nothing new under the sun.

MOVIES AT THE LIBRARY

The first movie and story hour of the new year will be held at the Memorial Hall Library on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, January 13th and 15th, at 3:15 o'clock. The 4th, 5th and 6th grades are invited to attend on Tuesday, and the first three grades on Thursday to see the pictures "Pueblo Boy" and "Wild Elephant Round-up." Miss Lane, the Young People's librarian, will tell stories at both programs. All boys and girls of the grades listed are cordially invited to attend.

NEW BOOKS

Among the new books at the Memorial Hall Library are the following, any of which may be borrowed or reserved:

Lifey Lane Lavery

Here is a warm, tender story of Chrissie Doyle, a teen-age girl in the slum section of Dublin and the lives of those who live around her in Lifey Lane. Maura Lavery keeps up the high grade of writing in this latest book of fiction.

Alexandra Schmitt

The dramatic life of Alexandra Hill, who, from the earliest part of her childhood, was destined for the life of the theater.

Gus The Great Duncan

Here is Augustus H. Burgoyne, a man who did everything on a grand scale, in a story which takes many pages to tell. He was a promoter, a showman and a newspaperman, and with all his big ventures, managed to have as large scale adventure in his personal life as in his business. His doings are a small edition of the social period of his times.

The Bright Promise Sherman

A novel dealing with the twelve years of Roosevelt's administration, especially as they were viewed by Amy Ellery, whose story it is.

CLUB PLANS ANNIVERSARY

The Andover Square and Compass Club will celebrate its 25th birthday on Friday, January 9th with a banquet and entertainment for its members and friends.

The first meeting of organization of this club was held in St. Matthews Lodge in November 1922, and under the guidance of the then Worshipful Master Albert W. Lowe, Brothers Roy E. Hardy, Edmund E. Hammond, Benj. B. Tuttle and David L. Coutts received 69 signed applications for membership in a so called "Masonic Club". Later it was renamed "The Andover Square and Compass Club".

It is an association of master masons bound together for the promotion of social educational and benevolent purposes.

The present club quarters in Elm square, Andover, have been its permanent home since it was first opened on January 1st, 1923, and Roy E. Hardy, present chairman of the Andover Board of Selectmen, was elected its first president.

The assembly hall in the rear of the club house was dedicated on June 2, 1927, and provides meeting quarters for various organizations of the town as it is fully equipped with all facilities for small and large parties of all kinds.

The club has a current membership of 95 members, and is affiliated with the Massachusetts Federation of Square and Compass Clubs, an association of 16 clubs.

The present officers are as follows: President, Malcolm B. McFernen; 1st Vice President, David L. Coutts; 2d Vice President, Walter R. Davis; Secretary, James R. Mosher; Treasurer, Harry Sellars. Among those present on the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall, Mrs. Emma Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paine, Peter Markow, former shipmate of the guest of honor, John Privitera, Mrs. Ethel Mortin, Miss Marjorie Paine, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall.

Damage Signs On Roads Used For Coasting

Cooperation of children and their parents in preventing the destruction of wooden horses, lanterns and signs designating the streets upon which coasting is allowed, is urgently requested by town authorities as numerous reports of damage to such property are being received regularly from several sections of the town.

With the large amount of snow that has fallen in past weeks, coasting has been enjoyed day and night by hundreds who take advantage of the streets set aside for that purpose, but day after day come reports that signs have been taken down, lanterns are missing, and horses have been damaged. These are replaced as soon as possible for the protection of the youngsters who want to enjoy the sport without danger from traffic. Only persons who live on these streets or who have business there are allowed to drive on them during coasting hours.

Replacing the wooden horses is a problem right now. Only a few were available when the first snow came. Through the cooperation of the school department the boys in the manual training classes started making more, but as schools were closed during the holiday period this work was retarded.

The streets set aside for coasting are as follows: Bartlett street, from Morton street to Punchard avenue; Marland street, southerly end to Tewksbury street; Phillips street, from Main street to Abbot street; Sherbourne street, from Allen street to William street; Morton street, from a point near the Haggerty property to Chestnut street; Sutherland street; Binney street; the hill on Cheever circle; and a portion of County road, west from Main street.

NOVEMBER CLUB NOTES

At the January 5th meeting of the November club, the speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Rolf Kaltenborn, son of the well-known radio commentator.

Mr. Kaltenborn chose for his subject "Radio, a Threat to Democracy," and spoke convincingly about this subject that he knows so well having spent many years studying the relationship between radio and politics.

Before the war he toured this country lecturing on the influence of advertising on radio, and he has traveled widely abroad and made a study of radio in Europe.

The second book review in the series of four given by Marion Tucker Rudkin of Beverly, will be given Thursday, January 15 at 3 p. m. at the November club house.

Three Retiring From Town Office

The retirement of three present town officers was made known this week in the announcements that Frederick W. Doyle of the board of public works, and Chairman Arthur R. Lewis and Miss Barbara A. Loomer of the school board, would not be candidates for re-election.

Owing to a reduction in the personnel of the school board from nine to five members, only one member will be elected to the board this year instead of the usual three. This plan will be followed annually until the board is reduced to five members.

An extra office to be filled at the coming election March 1, is that of Library Trustee for three years to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Harry Tyer.

A single nomination paper has been prepared by Town Clerk George H. Winslow bearing the names of town officers whose terms expire this year and who are candidates for re-election. It includes the following:

For moderator, Atty. Arthur Sweeney, one year, 64 Central street; clerk for three years, George H. Winslow, Lowell street; selectman and assessor for three years, Roy E. Hardy; board of public works for three years, Edward A. Doyle; school committee for three years, Gordon I. Colquhoun, 4 Summer street; board of health, Charles O. McCullom, 26 Summer street; planning board for five years, Leon A. Field, 5 Wolcott avenue; trustee of the Memorial Hall Library for seven years, Winsor Gale, 118 Main street; constables for one year, George A. Dane, George N. Sparks and J. Lewis Smith.

Tax Collections Largest In History

The collections in 1947 totalling $650,865.20 were the largest in the history of the town, according to figures prepared by Collector of Taxes James P. Christie which show an exceptionally fine tax collection record up to the closing days of the past year.

Out of the 1947 commitment of $626,019 which includes poll, personal and real estate, a total of $586,900 was collected by December 31.

The motor vehicle commitment doubled in 1947 over the preceding year, the amount being $34,251. Of this total a little less than four percent, or $1334, remained uncollected by the end of 1947.

The total uncollected balance of slightly over $39,000 is considerably less than the $130,000 that was outstanding when the present collector took office 10 years ago.

Town authorities contribute this fine record to the ready cooperation of townspeople in meeting their tax obligations.
