Season's Snowfall Now 84¼ Inches

Near Record Accumulations Piled High on Every Street in Town

Another eight inches of snow blanketed the local area last Saturday and Sunday leaving a near-record accumulation which man and machine have now piled to towering heights along every highway and driveway in town.

Heralded as a northeast blizzard, the storm was perhaps the most severe, although not the biggest, of the season. Temperatures had dropped earlier in the day to such unofficial readings as 28 below at Playdon's in Shawsheen, 22 below at Ballardvale, and 16 below in the square, and remained at sub-zero levels during the night as sharp winds whipped the light, dry flakes into huge drifts.

The storm was the 14th of the season and, according to records of the Essex Company, brought the total snowfall since last November up to 84¼ inches.

Present snow accumulations, however, date back to December 23. On that date the ground was bare when the first storm of the present cycle came with a 14-inch start, and the ground has not been bare since then. On the contrary, storm after storm piled up in rapid succession.

The December 23-24 storm had hardly settled when two days later the biggest storm to date brought 19 inches more, and this was followed January 2-3 by another of 10 inches.

Altogether 10 storms hit here between December 23 and January 25 leaving a total of 75¼ inches, almost all of which is still on the ground.

With the latest storm the town's overworked snow fighting forces, which have been plowing, clearing, widening, removing, sanding and scraping since December 23, again went into action plowing out streets and highways considerably narrowed by the great banks of snow left from previous storms.

Traffic was delayed but no serious accidents were reported.

Town Hall Activities

The cost of snow clearing operations from January 1 to 23 have cost the town $14,000, Supt. Edward R. Lawson of the board of public works stated yesterday. This does not include the cost of operations in December, when $5,000 was transferred from the reserve fund to take care of the several storms of that month.

The board of selectmen met Tuesday evening and went over their budget with the finance committee.

Town department balances carried into 1948 totalled $57,690.87, according to the recent report submitted by Town Accountant George C. Napier. The unexpended balances in the various town departments for 1947 were $28,115.87.

Railroad Acts In Local Protest

Further indication that the selectmen are getting results in their campaign against certain railroad operations in the Andover and Ballardvale stations are shown in a communication which Chairman Roy E. Hardy has received from the state department of public utilities.

This letter contains a copy of the order which the railroad issued December 9, 1947, which should cover the type of cases against which the protests were made.

The letter is as follows:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Dept. of Public Utilities
State House, Boston

January 22, 1948

Roy E. Hardy, Chairman

Board of Selectmen

Town of Andover, Mass.

Dear Sir:

As a result of your communication of December 27, we have investigated the subject matter contained therein; namely, of trains running through Andover and Ballardvale Stations when another train is stopped at the station.

Please be advised that signals of the latest type are installed to advise the engineer of an approaching train when this condition exists.

In an order dated December 9, 1947 the railroad issued the following rule:

"It must be understood that in passing a Station Signal displaying a restrictive indication, the adjacent station must be approached prepared to stop clear thereof regardless of whether or not any passenger train is scheduled to be stopping there at the time. Engineers must not assume that there is no train in the station, or that they know what is setting the signal".

This order should remedy the danger of which you are justly concerned.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM H. KIRLEY
Director
Div. of Railway & Bus Utilities

Cregg Describes Crime Detection

The administration of the criminal law is no better than the jury, District Attorney Hugh A. Cregg told the Andover Service Club Thursday night at the Andover Inn while describing the difficulty in getting convictions for drunken driving.

In his interesting discussion of the application of science in the investigation of crime, the county prosecutor drew upon his 17 years' experience in office to describe the great advance made by the fingerprint expert, the ballistic expert and the pathologist in solving major cases.

The drunken driver, he declared, is a menace to any community, worse than the man with a gun who may kill only one, while the driver, under the influence of liquor may kill ten. The increasingly difficult problem of convicting such persons, he pointed out, is frequently due to the attitude of juries. Report has often times reached him through various channels, of jurymen who will say: "I wouldn't believe a cop on a stock of Bibles", or of others who recall when they were stopped by an officer, thought that he was "too fresh".

"You are the type of men who should serve on juries", he said, recalling how others, who first tried to avoid jury service, quickly changed their minds after getting their first experience on a panel.

Mr. Cregg also told of the numerous problems facing young people today and of some of the instances where his office has helped young men get on the right path.

ANDOVER GARDEN CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Andover Garden club will be held February 3rd, at the Andover Inn, at 10 a. m., Mrs. Bertrand G. Peck, newly elected Vice-President, presiding. Mrs. Charles W. Abbot's newest publication has recently established itself on the campus. It is the weekly news sheets "The Page," a one-page presentation by way of the mimeograph which gives a view of the "inside" life of the school pointing up events in the classroom, the recreation rooms, senior parlor, and dormitories. Cartoons add lively interest to the paper. The chief editor is Barbara Dake of Andover. She is assisted by Joan Webster and Eleanor Parker of Andover, and Jane Woolverton, Sue Davis, Honor Banks, Judy Holt and Jo McManus. Barbara Sugar is business manager.

The weekend program will be given over to mid-semester activities and the vesper service on Sunday evening will be a song service. On the evening of Saturday, February 7, Mlle. Germaine Arosa, a member of the French department at Abbot, will give a recital — monologues and songs. The recital will take place in Davis hall at 8:15. The public is cordially invited to come.

On Sunday evening, February 8, Dr. Herbert M. Gale will speak at vespers. Dr. Gale is lecturer in Biblical history at Wellesley college.

Looks 'em Over

FLASH:—Dancing Gob, a thoroughbred race horse, foaled in Andover won at Sunshine Park Tuesday!!

Having looked over this week's "Life", we have decided that bathing suits are going to alter equilibrium. Instead of three classes of people, there now will be but two:—

Those who go swimming in the "New Look"; and those who go to the beach for a new look.

The results of our first experience with direct importing are now in the Andover Gift House.

Dog fanciers might be interested to know that the "Black and Tan" cocker might be approved by the American Kennel Club as a new variety of breed eligible for Dog shows. This will make four breeds of Cockers, as listed by the A. K. C.

In the big Westminster K. C. Show, February 11-12, there are 2540 entries. Rough Collies show the greatest increase in participants. Maybe, at last, the collie will get its just dues.

I didn't notice any Danish dogs listed in the show; but, we have some beautiful Danish hand made porcelains at the Gift House. Direct imports, too.

January seems to be the month for platitudes. This Sunday the Baseball Writers, at their 25th Jubilee, will make two awards. Big Jawn Mize gets the best player plaque, and Bucky Harris the award for meritorious service to baseball.

Mize is quite a player: 51 home runs last year; the most ever for a left hander in the N. L.; he has made three successive homers, in a single game, five times; also, he scored runs in 16 consecutive games; and, had only six errors in 1503 chances—not bad for a 35 year "old man"!!!!

Too bad they don't play baseball in Denmark. They'd have a world beating team if they played ball the way they make ceramics.

Last week we mentioned that the Winter Olympics start this Friday. We still think that all the U. S. will win are the bob sled events. But, there will be good sport all around. What we lament is our own "Bungling" Avery Brundage. He's the man who as President of the U. S. Olympic Committee, says who is and who is not an amateur.

At this writing, we have two hockey teams at St. Moritz, both ready to do or die for the U. S. A. Brundage says that one team is a professional outfit, and that, if it is allowed to play Brundage will send all of our contestants home!

It would seem that such matters could and should have been settled in this country, before contestants sailed. And, thus avoid laundering our linen in Europe.

Oh well, forget your snow shovel. Shuffle out to look at porcelains

HOMEROOM ELECTIONS

Homeroom elections were held on Monday. Some new and some old faces are among those chosen. We are sure it will be a successful year for all those elected.

QUESTION BOX

The Townsman asked us to put some thought into their question box which appeared in the January 15th issue. We did, and numerous answers poured in. We received the following replies:

20, 80, 45, 85, 40 and 50 degrees. Then our scientific authority handed me this answer. Make of it what you will. He is undoubtedly right.

"What is twice as cold as 10 degrees below zero?" Answer: 234½ degrees below zero.

SCHOOL DANCE

The school dance was held Friday, January 23rd. It was an "old-clothes" dance and many of the students wore slacks. Mr. Phinney was in charge, and as usual did a fine job of directing the dancing. Cupcakes, cookies, and brownies were brought in by the eighth grade to help with refreshments. Ice cream was also served. A Virginia reel was the novel event of the afternoon and drew many couples. This dance was well attended and we think it a great success.

SCHOOL PAPER

In the next issue of the Junior Sun, our widely read school paper, candidates for school officers will be well written up. The members of the Press club wish to stress the importance of knowing the candidate you are going to vote for. School citizenship is the background for town and state citizenship. Therefore one must start on the right foot, and know his candidates. The school paper will endeavor to help.

HOME MAKING

During this week classes in grades 9 and 10 are learning to scrape, wash, and sand furniture in preparation for painting.

Grade 10 and Special and Continuation classes are learning the care of fingernails.

Grade 9 is learning to interpret direction sheets that come with patterns for the assembling of garments. They are also being instructed as to which garments should have French seams and which should have flat-fell seams. For instance, French seams are made on blouses, and flat-fell seams on pajamas.

Grade 7 is making and tasting cocoa made from fresh, evaporated and powdered milk to decide if there is any difference in taste. Results show that, if made properly, dry milk cocoa tastes creamier and is less expensive than fresh milk.

Each class has only two periods a week and a lot must be packed into each.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

The Andover five was victorious over the North Reading squad with a mangling score of 49-11 at North Reading on Wednesday of last week. Our entire team was extremely co-operative and thus won the game. No one player was to be commended above the other.

The summary of the game is as follows:

	G	F	Pts.
Wennik .....	7	1	15
Wilson .....	7	0	14
Ross .....	6	2	14
McCullom .....	1	0	2
Lawrence .....	1	0	2

In the girls' game the North Reading six slaughtered the Andover girls with a 40-18 score. Evelyn Dufresne and Frances Ratyna played exceptionally well. Evelyn was high scorer with ten points, and Frances did some excellent guarding. A return game was played with North Reading here on January 19.

Suggests Measures For Greater Safety

With present snow accumulations piled high on every street and highway in town, narrowing thoroughfares and hampering the ordinary flow of traffic, certain precautions are suggested by Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the board of selectmen, which, if followed until conditions approach something nearer normal, may save a life or save a home.

One of the more important suggestions is that people dig out the hydrants near their homes in order to save valuable time in case of fire. Another is to open up catch basins so that excess water may run off in case of a thaw.

To co-operate with the public works department in its snow plowing and clearing operations, motorists are urged to keep their cars off the streets unless it is absolutely necessary to use them. Such co-operative measures. Chairman Hardy stated, insure greater safety for all and help keep down the mounting cost of snow removal operations, an item which is reflected in taxes.

Autoists approaching street corners, now baned high with snow, are asked to drive with the thought in mind that they may meet another car or child at every corner. Pedestrians are obliged to walk on the roads as very few sidewalks have been opened, the small sidewalk plows not being able to move the snow against the great banks that have been pushed in from the roads.

Mrs. Thomas Robjont, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is convalescing at Miss Robinson's on Summer street.

University of Life Series Opens Sunday

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

SEARCH FOR OIL

The present oil situation leads us to probe a little deeper into this important problem. Finding more oil in the United States and developing foreign oil resources are essential to the peacetime world. The time appears to be past when the United States can supply unlimited quantities to all who ask.

The oil industry has a man-sized job ahead of it. At present it is producing some 5,300,000 barrels a day—a record figure. Yet it is forecast that in two or three years domestic demand alone will rise to 5,600,000 barrels daily. The solution of the problem is aggressive development of every oil resource, here and abroad, which the industry can find and prove.

The Middle East constitutes the most important underdeveloped reserve now known in the world. American capital and engineering genius have a tremendous development program under way there, and by 1951 the region will be producing up to 1,500,000 barrels each day, much of which will go to oil-thirsty Europe. Let's hope that every possible step will be taken to meet this tremendously important world need.

A WORTHWHILE ORGANIZATION

The Boy Scouts of America becomes 38 years of age on February 8th, and we have been asked to celebrate with them.

We know of no greater observance in the interest of youth than this big national birthday, which affords us more satisfaction.

Satisfaction is something the Scout achieves. However, the benefits derived by those of us who are affected by his efforts go far beyond mere satisfaction.

The theme of the 1948 Boy Scout Week deserves our endorsement: "The Scout Citizen at Work in His Home, His Community, His Nation, and His World."

There it is, clearly inspiring, for us to examine and exult in . . . 38 years of continuous accomplishment by the Boy Scouts of America.

Report from the State House

by Sen. Philip K. Allen

HISTORICAL COMMENT

One of the main principles emphasized in the Massachusetts Constitution is that there shall be a separation of power within the law-making bodies. For example, it states that, "The legislative department shall never exercise the executive and judicial powers, or either of them; the executive shall never exercise the legislative and judicial powers, or either of them; the judicial shall never exercise the legislative or executive powers, or either of them; to the end it may be a government of laws and not of men."

The function of the legislative branch is to make laws, the function of the executive branch to execute the laws and carry on public business and the function of the judicial branch is to interpret and administer the laws in keeping with Article 30 of the Constitution, as quoted above.

By constitutional amendment No. 66, adopted in 1918, the number of all departments under the executive branch was limited to twenty. Four of these departments come under elected constitutional officers; namely, the secretary of state, the treasurer and receiver-general, state auditor, and attorney general. The remaining sixteen are actually branch departments headed by commissioners who are responsible for the administration of their individual departments. They are as follows: Agriculture; Banking and Insurance; Civil Service and Registration; Conservation; Corporations and Taxation; Correction; Education; Industrial Accidents; Labor and Industries; Mental Health; Metropolitan District Commission; Public Health; Public Safety; Public Utilities; Public Welfare; Public Works.

The fact that these departments are limited to twenty imposes certain restrictions upon the possible addition of other departments which are found to be necessary in the operation of the government. Two methods have been employed to resolve this difficulty. In the case, for example, of the "Department of Administration and Finance". It was created as a Commission coming directly under the Government and Council. On the other hand in the case of the Registry of Motor Vehicles, it was placed in the Department of Public Works, but the Registrar is not responsible to the Commissioner of Public Works. All of this may seem to be somewhat complicated, but from personal observation the system seems to operate successfully. At a later date we will take up the functions of some of the important departments.

Town Topics

Chairman Roy E. Hardy of the board of selectmen was the guest speaker Wednesday at the noon meeting of the Rotary club of Southbridge. His topic was "Assessing".

Mrs. George K. Sanborn of Phillips Academy is included in the 300 alumnae of Mount Holyoke College who have been invited to attend a campaign conference at the South Hadley campus this weekend.

Selectman Howell F. Shepard is about again after being detained at his home for the past two weeks with illness.

Arthur B. Darling, professor of American history at Phillips academy, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Andover Service club at Andover Inn Thursday, February 12. His subject will be "Abraham Lincoln."

Two state auditors are making their annual audit of the town books. It is expected that they will require five or six weeks to complete their work.

The Legislative committee of the League of Women Voters met Monday morning with Rep. J. Everett Collins to discuss with him pending bills before the legislature which the League is supporting.

Russell Sheeley of 17 Enmore street has taken out nomination papers for selectman.

The temporary emergency measures of making Essex street one-way westerly to Brook street, and Brook street one-way easterly to Central street, have worked so well while the streets are banked with snow that they may be adopted permanently. Town officials as well as abutters appear to be well satisfied with the arrangement, and it also means one less line of traffic coming into the square.

Two more streets have been made one-way while the present snow conditions exist. They are Corbett street, westerly from Dartmouth to Green; and Stevens street, westerly from Main to Shawshen road.

Police also found it necessary to restrict parking on the following streets:

Chestnut street, parking on south side only, from Central to Bartlet street;

Punchard avenue, parking on north side only, from Main to Bartlet street;

Balmoral street, parking on north side only, from North Main to York street.

That many townspeople are ready to cooperate with the public works department is indicated, Supt. Edward R. Lawson notes, by the number of calls received from people in all parts of the town asking for the location of hydrants near their homes so that they can dig them out while town crews are battling with other snow clearance problems.

Girl Scouts

Troop 23, Girl Scouts of the Free Christian Church held its regular meeting on Thursday evening. All members of the troop are dressing small dolls in native costumes of foreign countries for their International Friendship requirements. When completed, they will have an exhibition in town and in Lawrence. Mrs. Merrill Burnett, leader, and Mrs. Frederick Griffin, member of the troop committee, assisted the girls in this work, while Mrs. Levering Reynolds held an examination on World Trefoil badge with Ann Lancaster, Bonnie Golden and Josephine Collins. Paula Parent completed her requirements for homemaking.

LEADERS' MEETING

There will be a meeting of all Girl Scout leaders of Andover and Shawsheen on Wednesday evening, February 4th in the Memorial Hall Library at 7:45 p. m.

Parents and friends who are interested are also invited to attend.

Persons wishing assistance in filing their Federal income tax returns may obtain continuous service Monday through Friday at the branches of the U. S. internal revenue office located in the post offices at Lawrence, Lowell or Haverhill, according to notice received from Denis W. Delaney, collector of internal revenue. The service is given without cost.

Edward Lewis Valentine of 218 North Main street has left for Denver, Colorado, where he is to be married February 4 to Irene Bertha Nagel of that city. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Valentine, he saw six years service in the armed forces. After the wedding he couple will reside in Andover.

Leonard James, instructor at Phillips Academy, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Men's club of St. Augustine's church, Monday evening, February 2. It will be "Ladies Night." Moving pictures of the Holy Name parade in Boston last October will be shown.

WARNS PARENTS

Chief of Police George A. Dane again calls attention of parents to the danger of children coasting on streets while the views of autoists are cut off by high banks of snow. Even on restricted streets, Chief Dane points out, there is the possibility of accident as residents of those streets still have a right to operate there even during coasting hours.

Some coasters, police have found, try to block off whole streets and break lanterns and signs by moving them around in their attempts to shut out people who must use them.

Streets set aside for coasting are as follows: Bartlet street, from Morton to Punctured avenue; Morton street, top of hill to Chestnut; Cheever circle, from Cabot road to Elm; Red Spring road, from Cuba street to Abbott Village; Binney street, from South Union to dead end; Sutherland street, top of hill to Sterling; Marland street, top of hill to Tewksbury.

WHY

GENERAL ELECTRIC PUT LOWERED PRICES AHEAD OF OTHER THINGS

General Electric lowered prices because we wanted to do our part to stop the present spiral of inflation.

General Electric lowered prices on electrical appliances in greatest demand—because that is where lowered prices on General Electric products will do the most good and have the greatest effect.

General Electric lowered prices regardless of the fact that G-E profits are not high—are not at present levels high enough.

We did this because we know that in the long run General Electric can prosper only as the people of this country prosper. We believe that producing more goods for more people at less cost is the soundest way of running a business. And we feel that inflation in this country has reached a dangerous level—for the wage earner, for the man with savings, and for industry alike.

Do you know what inflation can do to you?

As money buys less and less, your savings lose their buying power. Life insurance policies dwindle in value. Money saved to take your wife to the hospital won't pay the bill when the time comes. Pay checks buy less and less. Retirement money won't pay for retirement.

This applies to the man who brings home a weekly pay check, to the man with a little savings in the bank or a life insurance policy, and to companies that have to build new plants and buy new machines to fill future needs and provide future jobs.

Inflation is a sinister thing. It steals up on a country and its economy in a gradually accelerating two-step of prices and wages—each trying to get one step ahead of the other—and there is no red line to show when the danger point has been reached.

Inflation is like a fire. Once it gets well under way, it can never be checked until everything is destroyed.

Self-restraint by industries and individuals the best check

You as an individual can do most by buying less and saving more—thus avoiding bidding up the prices for scarce goods. Business and industry can do much by lowering prices whenever and wherever possible—voluntarily.

General Electric put lowered prices ahead of other things because we believe it is a step towards licking inflation.

We Must Destroy Inflation or It Will Destroy Us

Question box

Editor of the Townsman,

Can one of your readers give me the correct answer to this problem:

How cold would it be if it was twice as cold as ten below zero?

PUZZLED PAULA

Answer:

234 1/2 degrees below zero.

Explanation:

The lowest temperature supposed to exist is 459 degrees below zero. Therefore, 10 degrees below zero is actually 449 degrees above zero on the absolute scale. Since 449 degrees is twice as warm as 224 1/2 degrees, 224 1/2 degrees must be only half as warm, (or twice as cold) as 449 degrees. Since 449 degrees absolute is 234 1/2 degrees below zero Fahrenheit, which is the temperature we are looking for — or are we??

"LISTENING TO MUSIC" GROUP

The first of the series of evening meetings designed as "Listening To Music" evenings, open to all interested people in Andover and neighboring communities, will be held on Monday evening, February 2, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Ivar Sjostrom will be in charge, and is preparing a program to appeal to both trained and untrained music lovers. He will comment on his selections, and will encourage those present to ask questions on the building of home libraries of musical recordings. The date for the second of such meetings will be announced later. All will be held in the Memorial Hall Library. The public is cordially invited to attend.

HOBBIES TO EXHIBIT?

All young people are asked to consider any hobby which could be put on exhibit in the locked case in the Young People's room. There have been some very attractive ones offered in the past, and all have been extremely popular with both adults and boys and girls. At present two brothers, Robert and Arthur Domingue are showing their collection of picture post-cards, some of local and national places, some of streets and cities far away. If you have something to offer, please make arrangements with Miss Lane in the Young People's room.

PRE-SCHOOL GROUP

Mothers of pre-school age children are reminded that the next meeting of their "Littlest Listeners" for a story hour will be on Wednesday morning, February 4, at 10:00 o'clock. There will be a mothers' forum meeting at the same hour, conducted by Mrs. C. Edward Buchan, at which time child behavior problems will be considered by the mothers. All little people are invited to attend.

RECORD CLUB

For over a year the Young People's Record club has been in existence. It was organized by a group of educators and musicians whose work with children had made them aware of the casual manner in which music for boys and girls was selected for recording. Because they believed that such music should be carefully planned and timed to a child's readiness, expanding interests and needs, they developed this idea which has known a splendid response from educators and parents all over the country. The records listed here are examples of their project. All may be borrowed from the Young People's room for home use. They are planned for two age groups; for the pre-school, the following are suggested: Bells of Calais, When The Sun Shines, The Big Engine, The Little Fireman, Little Indian Drum, Little Brass Band, What the Lighthouse Sees, Happy Birthday.

Children of the elementary school age group would enjoy these: Toy Smmphony by Haydn, Songs for Music Time, Lentil, Kitchen Music, Risseldy Rosseldy, Mozart's Country Dances II, Let's All Join In, Underground Train, Birth of Paul Bunyan, Igor Stravinsky

NEW BOOKS

Head Winds Bassett

Another Cape Cod story, full of warmth and flavor and the kindly charm of a maiden lady who takes a hand at match-making and marriage preserving.

Whispering Hill Albrand

At forty-six, Norah Sedley looked no older than a pretty thirty, but maintained such an aloofness that people questioned her humanity. Her whole life centered around her son, and in his relationships she meddled as far as she dared. Suspense—excitement—and vivid character drawing are Martha Albrand's strong points.

Grenadine Etching Ruark

This is a mocking poke at the increasing popularity of historical novels.

Moon Over the Back Fence Carlson

A fanciful story of Ellen, a heroine not unlike Alice in Wonderland, whose summer with Uncle George was delightful, if unworldly, experience.

The Golden Porcupine Bolton

The handsome Duc d'Orleans and Anne of France were betrothed at birth, but, contrary to custom, found themselves falling in love as they grew to maturity. A change of plan on the part of Anne's father resulted in two different marriages for the young people. Both responded with extreme reactions, leading to a surprising outcome. This is colorful writing of an interesting period of French history.

The Light of Stars Wise

Gregory Lane, brought up in the slums of Baltimore, became a parish priest to escape the squalor and poverty of his childhood, only to be sent to serve as pastor in the neighborhood. Despite the irony of the situation, he tackles the problems of his people with complete sympathy.

NON-FICTION:

Salem and the Indies Phillips

The story of the great commercial era of the city of Salem, 1790-1812, when her ships traded in ports all over the world, and their owners amassed enormous fortunes. There are chapters here on the ship-building industry, the layout of the city, daily life of the merchants, the rise of foreign trade, routes used, cargoes and business methods. Here are Phillips, Cabots, Dodges, Crowninshields, Hathornes, Peeles, Bowditches and other great names in a brilliant period of American history.

Atlantic Harvest

The Atlantic Monthly Magazine Ellery Sedgwick, editor of the Atlantic monthly for thirty years, has collected his favorite pieces from the magazine from a period of seventy years of its publication. Forty-six authors are represented, each author is introduced; more than one third of the selections are fiction, another third are essays and articles while the remaining are for the most part records of exciting experiences. A large part of the charm of the book is the preface, addressed "To the Reader, Gentle and Ungentle."

Overdue and Presumed Lost

Sheridan
The story of the U. S. S. Bullhead, the last submarine to be lost in the war, only two days before the Japanese surrender.

The Story of the Bible Bowie

Dr. Bowie, the author of this recently published book, says of it—"What I have tried to do is to tell the Bible Story in such a way that mature and intelligent people will feel its fascination, and yet at the same time reproduce its incomparable pictures of human life in language simple enough for every child to follow and to grasp." That he has succeeded is more than evident to anyone who selects at random passages or who reads the entire book.

Father and Son Burned In Home

Willy Rehe, 43, and his son, Arthur, 14, suffered severe burns Thursday evening in a gasoline fire at their home on Argilla road. Both were taken to the Lawrence General hospital for treatment, after which both returned home.

The fire started, Chief Charles E. Buchan stated, when a glass bottle containing gasoline, which was left close to a gasoline stove on the kitchen floor, broke and covered the floor with the flaming liquid which both tried to put out.

With his clothing ablaze, the boy ran from the house and fell into the snow which extinguished the flames, and continued to the home of a neighbor to notify fire headquarters.

Box 251 was sounded at 8:55 o'clock. Engines 1 and 2 and the ladder truck responded. When Chief Buchan arrived he radioed fire headquarters for both ambulances. Both responded, but only one was used to take the father and son to the hospital. The father was burned about the face, and the boy received second degree burns about the arms and face. The flames seared the kitchen walls, but had been extinguished when firemen arrived.

South Church Annual Meeting

A membership of 793, the largest in the church's history, was reported at the annual meeting of the South church held Wednesday evening, January 21, in the church vestry.

A large group of members and parishioners sat down to a catered dinner at 6:30. Various officers of the church served as hosts and hostesses. The supper was in charge of Mrs. Frank Crawford, chairman of the church social committee of the Women's union. Following the supper a business meeting was held with reports of all church organizations being approved.

Edmund Hammond was elected moderator for the evening. Greetings were exchanged, as usual, with the Free Christian church, which was holding its annual meeting at the same time. Names of shut-in members were read by the clerk and it was voted to have the secretary send letters of greetings to them. The budget was accepted with a few amendments. Much discussion followed on the subject of the "church cemetery." A committee consisting of Mrs. Myron H. Clark, Miss Bessie P. Goldsmith, and Attorney Walter E. Mondale is investigating matters pertaining to the cemetery.

The finance committee reported the church to be in good financial condition. Many new people have made pledges and gifts and many of the old contributors have increased their pledges. A highlight of the evening was the vote on the merger with the Evangelical Reformed churches. A written vote was taken, and the results showed an almost unanimous vote in favor of the merger.

The nominating committee comprising Mrs. G. Richard Abbott, Harold M. Harshaw and Ralph L. Draper presented the following officers for the coming year: Clerk for one year, Arthur W. Bassett; treasurer for one year, Cleveland Gilcreast; assistant treasurer for one year, Harold N. Wood; finance committee for three years, George W. Glennie; deacon for six years, Frederick Flather, Jr.; deacon to fill out four years, unexpired term of John Halford, who moved to New Jersey, Wilfred Lord; deaconess for six years, Mrs. Peter B. Whittemore; deaconess to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Burke Thornton, who moved to Florida, two years, Miss Madeleine Hewes; prudential committee for three years, Miss May Elander and L. Fraser Colpitts; trustee of ministerial fund in the South parish in Andover, life tenure, Arthur W. Cole; commissioner of cemetery, three years, Gilbert Cromie; superintendent of ushers for one year, Dr. Malcolm B. McTernan; auditors for one year, Frank R. Petty and Gordon L. Colquhoun. The meeting closed with a rising vote of thanks to the retiring officers for all they had done for the church during their terms of office.

HONOR ROLL

Here, rather belatedly, is the Honor roll for the second ranking period. The delay is due to a change of secretaries. The former secretary, Mrs. Jeannette Hogan, resigned. She will leave for South America sometime next month. Mrs. Bernard Kellmurray is filling in temporarily until a new permanent secretary arrives on the job. It will be noted that the list of Honor students has shrunk somewhat, but this is explained by the fact that many students let their marks slip after receiving honor marks for the first term. Without further discourse, here are the names of the honor students for the second term:

Honors in Five Subjects

Seniors — **Jane Black, Joan Capen, Marjorie Harshaw, Elaine MacLellan, John Pingree, June Steinert, Audrey Tompkins.

Juniors—Patricia Black, Pauline Mower, Milian Van Coppenolle, Shirley Pilgrim.

Sophomores — Elizabeth Boloian, Thea Dantos, Dorothy Dodge, John

Fredericason, Edith Gordon, Doris Halbach, Claire Henderson, Andrea Hofer, Donald Mudgett, Robert Prescott, Joseph Ratyna, Ralph Webster.

* Highest honors in five subjects.
** Highest honors in four subjects.

MARCH OF DIMES

Last Thursday, the annual March of Dimes campaign was held at Punchard. The student body marched up to and across the auditorium stage and dropped their contributions into a jar placed there for the purpose. Music was played while the students dropped their money. Punchard may well be proud of itself, for everybody remembered to bring a dime or more. Two hundred and ninety people contributed $36.60, making a total percentage of 126%. We are very proud of this record.

GUIDANCE NOTES

After the March of Dimes, Mr. Kellmurray met with the seniors in room six and spoke to them concerning their plans for next year. He pointed out that the Guidance department is not operated solely for those students who plan to continue their education, but that it is also desirous of helping other students to find jobs suited to their abilities. If the student is not sure what he wants to do or what he is suited to do, the department has many tests that will determine what type of job best suits the individual. Mr. Kellmurray asked that all seniors fill out a paper, stating their next year's plans and what they have done about them. He also said that too many students were waiting until the last minute to make up their minds, and that they should make their plans now, not only for advanced education, but for summer jobs and regular jobs for next fall.

SHOP NEWS

Those students who take shop with Mr. Gahan have been busy making woden horses for the town to post the sliding signs on. They have made a great many of these and will make as many more as are requested.

TUBERCULOSIS PATCH TEST

This week the students were given the TB patch tests. A piece of adhesive tape was applied to the student's arm. This tape had been treated with chemicals so that a reaction would show up if the person being tested had been exposed to Tuberculosis. The patches were removed Wednesday, and the arms will be inspected on Friday for the reaction. The whole test takes five days. These tests were given to the students free of charge by the Essex County Health Association.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The Sophomore class will hold a dance Friday evening, February 6. The Social committee members have arranged for Harold Phinney to supply the music. The dance will last from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. The Social committee members are: Justin Curry, chairman; Nicholas Maucieri, Joseph Ratyna, Nancy Chadwick, and Dawn Dunn.

SENIOR PLAY NOTES

Mr. Stevens and the members of the cast of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" are hard at work preparing the play for its local performance Thursday evening, February 26. The admission will be 75c, tax included. Tickets will soon be on sale, and posters will be around town about the middle of the month. Be sure to save the 26th and come on over to the Memorial Auditorium and see the Senior class presentation. It has a large cast, so anyone who attends is almost certain to see some one he knows. All of Mr. Stevens' past productions have been excellent, and this one promises to fulfill or sur-

3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employes, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15½ cents an hour.

This is the same increase awarded 1,000,000 non-operating employes by an arbitration board in September, 1947.

This is the same increase accepted by 175,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.

Agreements have been made with 1,175,000 employes, represented by nineteen unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.

Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7% of all railroad switchmen, the other 93% being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.

Strike Threat

The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a secret vote but is taken by union leaders and votes are signed by the employes in the presence of union representatives.

When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the railroads in asking the National Mediation Board to attempt to settle the dispute, but the Board took jurisdiction at the request of the carriers and has been earnestly attempting since November 24, 1947, to bring about a settlement. The Board on January 15, 1948, announced its inability to reach a mediation settlement. The leaders of the unions rejected the request of the Mediation Board to arbitrate. The railroads accepted.

What Now?

The Unions having refused to arbitrate, the Railway Labor Act provides for the appointment of a fact-finding board by the President.

The railroads feel it is due shippers, passengers, employes, stockholders, and the general public to know that throughout these negotiations and in mediation, they have not only exerted every effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement, but they have also met every requirement of the Railway Labor Act respecting the negotiation, mediation, and arbitration of labor disputes.

It seems unthinkable that these three unions, representing less than 10 per cent of railroad employes, and those among the highest paid, can successfully maintain the threat of a paralyzing strike against the interest of the entire country—and against 90 per cent of their fellow employes.

The threat of a strike cannot justify granting more favorable conditions to 125,000 employes than have already been put in effect for 1,175,000, nor will it alter the opposition of the railroads to unwarranted wage increases or to changes in working rules which are not justified.

A glance at the box shows what employes represented by the Engineers and Firemen make. They are among the highest paid in the ranks of labor in the United States, if not the highest.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Here is a comparison of average annual earnings of engineers and firemen for 1939 (pre-war) and 1947. Also shown is what 1947 earnings would have been if the 15½ cents per hour increase, offered by the railroads and rejected by the union leaders, had been in effect throughout the entire year 1947.
