VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

France is the most recent battleground of the Moscow-directed communism, an outstanding example of Russia's fight against European recovery. And this condition is not a chance one. It was probably planned years ago in Moscow where Maurice Thorez spent years of exile learning communist methods. His return to his native land as secretary-general of the French Communist Party foreshadowed trouble. France now has it, a coal strike that threatens the country with civil war.

Moderates Planned To Absorb Communists

The Third Force, or Moderate group of political parties, squeezed between the de Gaullists and the Communists, recently considered a desperate plan with fingers crossed and eyes closed. Desperate because it is doomed to failure, because it indicates the dreadful sterility of democratic politics in France. If the Communists, argued the Third Force, can be persuaded to work with us, we will smother them numerically in the Cabinet, compel them by their very presence in the government to collaborate with us, and thus avoid the danger of Communist-directed strikes. The assumption presumably was that the Communists could be kicked out

Garage Damaged In $1,500 Blaze

Fire Sunday night destroyed the garage at the home of John H. Greco, 17 Florence street, causing damage estimated at $1500 to the building and articles stored there.

When the blaze was discovered an alarm from box 52, the central fire station, was sounded at 9:37 p. m. Engines 1 and 3 and the ladder truck responded. Two water lines were laid and the blaze, which for a time threatened to spread to nearby property, was confined to the garage and its contents.

Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan reported after investigation that the fire was caused by children playing with matches and candles.

Urge "No" Vote On River Plan

Local Groups See Big Tax Jump If Voters Accept It

Voters of Andover are being urged by several local officials and organizations to defeat the Merrimack River Valley Sewerage District plan which will appear on the ballot Tuesday.

The Board of Selectmen, the Planning Board, the Finance committee and the Board of Public Works are recorded against the measure. They call attention to the heavy burden it would place on industry in this area as well as upon the taxpayers of Andover if adopted.

The Board of Public Works at its meeting Monday night recorded its opposition to the proposal, primarily on account of its excessive cost.

At the Taxpayers' association meeting Monday night a motion was carried that those present vote in opposition to the sewerage proposition in view of the present information they had.

This action followed an address by John T. Barry of the Greater Lawrence chamber of commerce, regarding the bill.

Orchestra To Aid Boy Scout Troops

The first concert of the season by the Andover Community orchestra will be for the benefit of the Andover Boy Scouts. The date is Sunday, November 21, at 3:30 p. m.

After rehearsing faithfully for several weeks now, the orchestra wants to get in touch with the whole community. As a community enterprise, the orchestra has decided to reach out to all areas and groups of the town through the Boy Scouts, so that with the aid of the public, and through the performance of music that is popular and good, everyone may contribute towards sending some worthy boys, who otherwise might not be able to go, to camp next summer.

Tickets are on sale now from the Boy Scout leaders, at Phinney's Music store, from Miss Barrett at the Stowe school, and from

Punchard Wins Over Stoneham

By JACK MCCARTHY

The Blue and Gold added another victory to their record last Saturday by downing a stubborn Stoneham foe by a score of 19 to 12. The Andover boys scored once in the first quarter and twice in the third to run their winning streak to five straight games.

In the opening period Punchard registered its first T.D. by taking the ball on downs on their 38 yard line. Co-Captain Herb Deveaux advanced the pigskin to his own 40. Three plays later, Deveaux again broke loose and scooted all the way to the rival 17 before being halted. An attempted line buck by Lawrence's lost two, but Dwyer flipped an aerial to Deveaux which gave Punchard a 6 to 0 lead. The attempted conversion by Sid Watson was wide.

The losers, however, bounced right back to score in the second quarter. Leland of Stoneham returned the Andover kick-off 31 yards to the home club's 49. Florida and Leland alternated in lugging the oval to the Blue and Gold two yard stripe. Leland ended this drive by crashing over to tie up the game.

In the second half a respiration Punchard eleven took the kick-off and staged an uninterrupted

PENNY NO GOOD FOR CHESTNUT ST. PARKING

All parking meters on Chestnut street have been changed over to two-hour parking for a nickel. They will not register any fraction of this time. They cannot be operated with a penny. They are good only for two-hour parking for a nickel. Some motorists, who do not read the instructions, still try to operate them with a penny and then complain at the police station that the meters will not work.

Chest Campaign To Close Monday

At the second report meeting of the 1949 Lawrence Community Chest campaign, held Monday night in the Lawrence Boys' club, 56% of the goal or $104,796 was reported.

Mrs. Mary I. Kilcoyne, chairman of the Women's division was in charge of the meeting and introduced Miss Sybil Holmes of Boston. Miss Holmes was the first woman elected to the Massachusetts Senate and a former state assistant attorney general. Miss Holmes spoke briefly, reminding the Chest workers that "every gift is a lift," she further stated that "it isn't necessary to stress the fact that when you have cast your vote in an election your duty as a citizen isn't fulfilled. No government alone can take care of the needs in the country and this is where the Red Feather has a special significance."

Vincent Treanor, Andover chairman, in his latest message of his volunteers, stressed the importance of an all out effort during the closing days of the campaign if Andover is to reach its goal of $18,430.

Mr. Treanor reported 33% or $6,226 of Andover's goal Monday night, which is $282 more than was reported at this same time last year.

Have Information To Assist Voters

Friday and Saturday of this week and Monday, the day before election, the League of Women Voters of Andover will have an information booth in front of the Town Hall.

There will be reprints of the pages published by the Christian Science Monitor which describe the candidates, national and state, and their platforms; the nine state-wide referenda questions with a concise summary of each and the arguments pro and con.

There will also be a separate sheet prepared by the League of Women Voters of Andover giving the arguments for and against the Merrimack River Valley sewerage question which will appear on the ballots in this district. Those voting for the first time will find the voters primers helpful.

Big Vote Expected Tuesday

Varied Contests And Referenda Arouse Interest

Andover voters are expected to turn out in record-breaking numbers at the polls next Tuesday.

Numerous election contests and the inclusion of various controversial questions on the ballot have aroused more than placid interest among the voters.

While none of the campaigns have been exciting, there is always enough interest in a presidential race and in the contests for the top of the state ticket to bring out a respectable vote.

Then there are two contests in which local men are concerned: that for state senator from the Fourth Senatorial district in which Senator Philip K. Allen is seeking re-election, and that for the three representatives in the General Court for the Fifth Representative district in which Rep. J. Everett Collins is a candidate for re-election.

Add to that the various questions on which people are asked to vote, questions which have been the cause of much debate, which have their supporters and antagonists, all of whom will be out in large numbers November 2.

Theft of Letter From P.A. Charged

The driver of a Lawrence express truck was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner M. A. Higgins in Lowell Tuesday on a charge of stealing a letter from an authorized mail receptacle in a Phillips Academy dormitory. After a hearing the defendant, Francis L. Applebee, was ordered held for the federal grand jury and bail was set at $1000.

Authorities allege that the man was seen taking the letter from the receptacle where mail is left for students. When the matter was reported to postal officials the arrest was made by Postal Inspector Francis A. McAvoy. Federal authorities further report that mail has been stolen before from the receptacle and that placing a watch of them led to the arrest.

SILVER WEDDING
Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield were entertained by their family at their home on Tewksbury street Sunday afternoon as they observed their silver wedding anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Schofield were the recipients of many gifts as well as numerous cards, flower remembrances and money. A delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Cooney.
Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, Mrs. Ella Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cooney and Barbara Cooney, all of North Andover; Mr. and Mrs. George Fleming of Lawrence; Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson and sons Billy and Richard, of Methuen; Miss Andrea Hofer, Miss Harriet Schofield, Arnold and Ainslee Schofield.
Mr. and Mrs. Schofield were married October 23, 1923, at the Christ church parsonage by the Rev. Charles Henry. They have been residents of the Vale almost all of their married life.
Women's Service League
Members of the Women's Service league were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Converse Parker on Ballardvale road. The members brought their pack-a-towel kits which were received by Mrs. Curtis Shultz for the box to be packed November 5th at the West Parish church.
Girl Scout News
Members of Troop 19 are planning their program to be offered in the vestry of the Union Congregational church, November 19.
The new girls passed their tenderfoot tests Wednesday. Two new girls, Nancy White and Joan Jedrey, have joined the troop.
November 5 is the date of the fair sponsored by the organizations of the Union Congregational church.
The booths will offer many interesting articles for sale including fancy work, home-cooked food, candy, grabs, hot dogs and tonic.
An interesting program has been planned with dancers, singers, comedians and a pianist. A full evening's entertainment will be offered to all who attend.
Friendly Guild Notes
Members of the Friendly Guild will meet Friday evening at 7:30 to go to the Home for the Aged in Andover to entertain the ladies.

RED CROSS SECRETARY GETS MANY INQUIRIES
Activities of the local Red Cross chapter were shown to be greatly increased during the past year, according to reports read at the annual meeting. Chairman Roy E. Hardy gave a detailed account of the work being done by various committees and Ellen F. McCollum gave the following report of her work since taking over the duties of executive secretary:
My year and a half in Andover Chapter has been most satisfying. I have completed two courses—one a 10-day Orientation course at Area Headquarters, and a five day Home Service Basic Training course at Salem, Mass., and I have attended various meetings pertaining to the Home Service program.
Just about every kind of inquiry comes to our chapter, but the desk gets everything from "Where may I find a room?" to "How on earth can I replace six pints of blood when I have already given two?"
Most of the inquiries involve making contacts and arrangements, either for transportation or services or supplies. It is the secretary's responsibility either to complete the arrangements or to see that they are placed in the hands of the proper chapter official.
Paper work includes monthly reports to area, correspondence relating to general chapter activities, fund drive, blood program and especially the Home Service program.
The secretary also serves as a clearing house for all the incoming chapter mail, channels it and arranges for delivery to the responsible person. Rarely does a day go by without callers at the office, and rarely does an evening or weekend go by without the telephone ringing at home, in addition to the many office calls.
Many inquiries were made by local young registered nurses about the polio epidemic this fall, and although none of the Andover nurses were in a position to accept these assignments, we did get a great deal of information, which can be used to advantage another year.
In conclusion, I would like to offer my sincere appreciation to our Chapter Chairman, the officers, and committee chairmen for their splendid cooperation and understanding.

COMMISSIONER'S MEETING

District and neighborhood commissioners from Andover, North Andover, Methuen and Lawrence will meet with Council Commissioner John W. Ramsden at the Lawrence Scout office Thursday, October 28 at 7:15 p. m.

Troop Staff Meetings

A tentative date of December 11, from 2:30 to 8:30 p. m., has been suggested for a meeting of junior assistant scoutmasters, senior patrol leaders, troop scribes and patrol leaders to confer on leadership in the troop. The North Essex Council is sponsoring the conference.

Troop Meetings

Troop 70 met Friday evening, October 22, under the leadership of Scoutmaster George Luedke. Training in first aid was given to scouts working on second and first class advancement. A Court of Honor consisting of Harrison Brown, The Rev. John S. Moses, James McGrath and Walter Caswell questioned boys who were eligible for advancement. First class requirements were completed by Bancroft Frederickson, Raeburn Hathaway, Alan Pariser and Donald Lawson. Second class requirements were successfully passed by Robert Henry, Edward Dodge, Robert Frederickson and James Gale. Donald Lawson of Troop 322 of the Daniel Webster Council of New Hampshire is transferring to Troop 70.

Troop 71 is not meeting this year because of lack of leaders. The following scouts are transferring to Troop 70: William Dean, Robert Vaughan, Peter Caswell, Edward Dean, David Wilkinson and Harold Whitworth. Others are expected to follow. Jack Caswell and Thoman Wilkinson plan to transfer to Explorer Post 72.

Explorer Post 72 of the Free church met Wednesday evening, October 20 in the vestry with assistant Post Advisor Roger Dea. The Rev. Levering Reynolds, Jr., and Scoutmaster David MacCord of Troop 72 were present at the meeting.

Advancement Meeting

First class and star scouts interested in meeting the requirements of the cooking merit badge will meet with Dr. Nathaniel Stowers, district chairman of advancement, at his home Sunday evening, October 31, at 7:30 p. m.

Troop News

Cubmasters, Scoutmasters or Troop Scribes are asked to send news of their units to Jack Caswell, 5 Dunbarton street or telephone Andover 62.

Candidates Outline Qualifications For Offices They Seek

(Editor's Note: In order to aid voters exercise their best judgment at the polls, The Andover Townsman has invited all candidates for councillor, state senator, representative, register of probate, county commissioner and county treasurer to tell its readers something about their qualifications for the office they seek. Replies of the candidates appear below in the order they will appear on the ballot.)

COUNCILLOR

Alfred C. Gaunt
Alfred Calvin Gaunt is a champion of Small Business. In 1938, he led the march of Small Business on the nation's capital. Gaunt, then as now, President of the Merrimac Mill in Methuen accepted the invitation of the President and became chairman of the National Advisory Council of Independent Smaller Business, and first president of the New England Smaller Business association. He thought the "little guy" was being shoved around by big fellows and wanted to do something about it.

The motives that prompt Gaunt to seek re-election for the Governor's Council from the Fifth district fall in line with the spirit that saw him carrying the banner for Small Business. In a nutshell, he's for lower taxes, better appointments to state officers, fairness to veterans preservation and promotion of Small Business.

Gaunt stands on his administrative experience in business and for business and his two years of service on the Governor's Council. He was a presidential elector for Harding and Coolidge. He was the founder of the Methuen Public Forum and was chairman for many years. He was chairman of the Fifth War Loan in Methuen.

He was born in Worcester in 1882, the son of Henry and Mary Lyle (Weir) Gaunt. He attended Methuen public schools, Lawrence Commercial School, and Lowell Textile Institute.

At 13, Gaunt became an apprentice in the textile industry. In 1906, he married Bertha Fisher. They have two daughters, both married, and a son, E. Abbot Gaunt, in the mills with his father. Gaunt was a designer from 1900 to 1902, then became superintendent of the Merrimac Mills, founded in 1892 by his father, and became president when his father died in 1906.

Alfred C. Gaunt is not a professional politician. Rather, he is one of the comparatively few busy executives who are willing to take time out to help the other fellow. He demonstrated that when he organized the Smaller Business Association of New England. It is still a going concern and numbers 2,000 members.

Cornelius J. Twomey
Former Representative Cornelius J. Twomey of Lawrence announces his candidacy for the office of Governor's Councillor in the 5th Councillor District comprising all of Essex county and the town of North Reading. Former Representative Twomey was born in Lawrence, was graduated from the Lawrence grammar and high schools, the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance and attended the Suffolk Law School. In 1938 Mr. Twomey was elected to represent the town of Andover and Ward 6, South Lawrence in the Massachusetts Legislature and was reelected in 1940 to represent Ward 6 and Ward 2 in Lawrence and as a member served on many important committees during those four years. Mr. Twomey is a business man having been engaged in the coal and heating oil business for the past 18 years. Mr. Twomey is connected with several fraternal organizations and has been actively identified in civic affairs. Mr. Twomey resides with his wife and four children at 176 Phillips street, Lawrence.

SENATOR

Philip K. Allen
I want very much to continue as Senator from the Fourth Essex District. The experience gained in two years of service in the Senate has been priceless. I feel sure that I can now recognize a hook from a straight ball.

For two years I have served on five committees and on four recess commissions (chairman of three) which have had before them matters of grave importance. I have tried my best to give impartial thought to these matters. One cannot, as unfortunately it is expected of him, know all there is to know about all the problems that come before the General Court, especially when one realizes that between 2700 and 3000 petitions are handled each session.

For two years I have been attempting to bring to the general public through the medium of lectures, teaching programs, and speaking engagements, averaging nearly three a week, the duties of a citizen and the inner workings of state government, feeling that only with a voting population who have at least a nodding acquaintance with governmental procedure can we expect to make our form of government work. I have particularly worked with the young people to make them more conscious of their duties as future citizens.

For two years I have tried to attack all problems with my head rather than my heart. It is all too easy to vote for benefits to groups of individuals. It is hard and frequently unpopular to be realistic. But it seems to me that because our state and national governments are in the process of taking over many local financial duties, these duties should be administered in a business-like and economical way.

For two years I have continuously moved through the district (and it is nearly thirty miles long) to talk over matters with my constituents. I have answered all letters which have had return addresses on them, and have, in general done everything I could for anyone who asked and whose case warranted attention.

For two years I have successfully resisted pressure from minority group in an attempt to represent the Fourth Essex District as a whole and not in part. I owe no political obligation to any individual, group, of individuals, or organization. I owe one obligation only and that is to the people of the Fourth Essex District.

My record stands for anyone to see and it will always be so. As a Republican and present senator I ask only the chance to serve the Fourth Essex District again.

John W. Coddare, Jr.
The Andover Townsman is performing a public service in inviting the candidates to use its columns to state their qualifications. I am grateful for this opportunity.

I am a candidate for Senator from the Fourth Essex Senatorial District. Born in Haverhill, I received my education there, at Holy Cross College and at Boston University School of Law. I am a practicing attorney in Boston and Haverhill, a member of the Massachusetts and Federal Bars; active in Haverhill's civic affairs and chairman of the legislative committee of the Haverhill chamber of commerce.

I reside with my wife and four children at 33 Westland terrace, Haverhill.

For three terms, and those during perhaps the most demanding period in the Commonwealth's political history, I represented the City of Haverhill in the Massachusetts House of Representatives. My service there included membership on the committees on legal affairs, insurance, house elections, special committee to investigate the Commonwealth Mutual Insurance company and the special commission to survey the hurricane and flood damage of 1938.

The voters of Haverhill saw fit to elect me once and re-elect me twice to the House. I received the unopposed Democratic nomination for senator. This indicated, I think, confidence in me and an endorsement of my service in office.

For over four years I was a trial attorney for the National Labor Relations board in Washington and in several regions in the country.

I am a charter member of the Massachusetts Legislators Association. A senator should be a good lawmaker, should give good service to his district and should safeguard its interests. This calls for experience, judgment and an aggressive leadership. I feel qualified.

REPRESENTATIVES

J. Everett Collins
I have been connected with local government for fourteen years, first as a member of the school committee then as a selectman and assessor.

For eight years I have been a member of the General Court and have served on many committees and commissions. For the past four years I have been chairman of the House Committee on Counties, which position has given an opportunity for study from the county level. It is apparent then, that I am qualified through the knowledge of the various forms of government prevalent in the set up of this Commonwealth, municipal, county and state. Experience is of paramount importance in state government and I have served this district as your representative for the past eight years.

Frank S. Giles, Jr.
Rep. Giles is a native of Methuen, attended the schools in that town and graduated from the Edward F. Searles High school in 1933. Mr. Giles was elected a town meeting member in 1936 and has served continuously since that time. He was first elected to the Methuen School committee in 1941 and re-elected in 1944. During his term on the board he served five consecutive years as chairman until his retirement in 1947. He has served as a member of the high school athletic board for six years, two years as chairman.

Among his many affiliations are the Greater Lawrence Community Chest, of which he served as a member of the board of directors and the executive board, and the Methuen Board of Trade.

While in the legislature, Mr. Giles has served on the committee on civil service and election laws. He has also served as secretary of the Freshman Legislators' Association. He was recently appointed by Speaker Willis to study midget auto racing.

During the past two years, Rep. Giles sponsored legislation preventing candidates from running for office on more than one party ticket, legislation to make circuses and carnivals post prices of admission and was a co-sponsor of a bill for a small business bureau.

Rep. Giles was also active in the support of legislation for state aid for education and a state wide road building program.

For the past seven years he has been associated in business with the Northeastern Theater Corp., and its vice president and treasurer of the Merrimack Concession Co., of Methuen.

Rep. Giles and his wife, the former Dorothy E. Moore, have three children, Dorothy, Scott and Sandra, and they reside at 375 Lowell street, Methuen.

Samuel W. Brainard
I was born in North Andover and attended grammar and high schools there and in Methuen where I now reside. I also attended the Rhode Island School of Designing.

I am married to the former Lillian Heath of Methuen and am the father of four children.

I was engaged in the real estate business for a number of years and served as field agent for the department of commerce. For three years prior to the last war I acted as paymaster for the Merrimac Mills of Methuen.

During the war I was employed by the U. S. Army as a field inspector stationed at Bridgeport, Conn.

I have been a Town Meeting member in Methuen for six years and hold membership in Hope lodge, I.O.O.F., and the Methuen Red Men.

William Longworth
One of the outstanding candidates for public office is William Longworth of Methuen who recently gained the Republican nomination for representative in the Fifth Essex District. (Signed) Frank E. Smith, 183 Franklin St., Lynn, Mass.

John J. Costello
John J. Costello of Andover is the Democratic candidate for election as Register of Probate for Essex county. Mr. Costello was the probate post for Labor Maurice J. Governor of the State. He succeeded the Hon. Shanahan and served 1946 election under the appointment of the six year term. During his public school committee and wartime War Labor board, a record of accomplished public service. As Register of Probate he has been county bar for work at the State. Mr. Costello at Preparatory school holds degrees from Harvard and studied public administration. The candidate St. Michael's High School Greater Lawrence club and the Harvard. He is a member of the Boston Bureau.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER J. Fred Manning
One of the outstanding candidates for public office is William Longworth of Methuen who recently gained the Republican nomination for representative in the Fifth Essex District. He has a legion of friends who are predicting that he will be one of the three who are elected in this district on Tuesday, November 2. Those who know him state that they have no fear of the record that he will establish on any measure that will come before the Legislature.

Mr. Longworth believes that difficult modern times call for a more intimate personal contact with the people. He has a keen sense of the experience and common sense to represent his district in a manner to command respect of his constituents.

Mr. Longworth wishes to size the fact that the men in government have to deal with an increasingly numerous and diverse group of people. There are matters which have vital significance for the entire district. A prodigious amount of work goes with it, but that goes with it, will be the men you elect if they are to be resolved to the interest of our people. Mr. Longworth states that he stands for a sound, forward-looking government.

REGISTER OF PROBATE
Richard J. White, Jr.
Richard J. White, Jr., the present Register of Probate for Essex County, believes that the county should have an experienced and qualified man in this important office during the life of every man, he has business in the court, whether it be the will or the administration of the estate of a relative, the care of an aged parent, the settlement of the estate of a relative. Because of the importance of probate court plays in the life of a man, the need of a competent and experienced man in this office is apparent. He should have training and expert technical phases of probate procedure of the Probate Court. Mr. White is a lawyer by profession and has served as a lawyer's job. He is the candidate for such election for the office who is a member of the Massachusetts Bar. One issue in this campaign is the qualifications of date.

Register White was the voters of this county in 1946. He was educated in the Lynn Public Schools, College, State Teachers' College, and Suffolk Law School. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar and has served in the U.S. Army as a field inspector stationed at Bridgeport, Conn.

One and Two, and between was actively engaged in the Reserve Corps. He is a member of the American Legion, and the Forty and Eight. He is actively engaged in various public affairs throughout Essex County. His entry into service was in 1918. He was a member of the Massachusetts Legislature on the important War committee. Upon his active duty, he was named Secretary of the Division of Corporations and signed upon the Register of Probate.

measure that will come before the Legislature.

Mr. Longworth believes these difficult modern times call for energetic representation; they also require an intimate personal knowledge of this post-war world and its problems. Mr. Longworth feels he possesses the experience and common sense to represent his district in a manner to command the respect of his constituents.

Mr. Longworth wishes to emphasize the fact that the problems which men in government today have to deal with have become increasingly numerous and complex. There are matters which will have vital significance for the citizens of our district. A prodigious amount of fact-finding and all the hard work that goes with it, will be required of the men you elect if these matters are to be resolved to the best interest of our people. Mr. Longworth states that he stands for sound, forward-looking government.

REGISTER OF PROBATE

Richard J. White, Jr. of Lynn, the present Register of Probate and Insolvency for Essex County, believes that the county should have an experienced and qualified attorney in this important office. At some time during the life of every individual, he has business in the Probate court, whether it be the probate of a will or the administration of the estate of a relative, the adoption of an infant, the marriage of a minor, the care of an aged parent or the settlement of the estate of a missing relative. Because of the intimate and important part the Probate court plays in the life of everyone, the need of a competent register is apparent. He should be a man with training and experience in the technical phases of probate law and the procedure of the Probate court. Common sense and necessity require that only a lawyer be elected Register of Probate. A lawyer for a lawyer's job. He is the only candidate for such election to this important office who is a member of the Massachusetts Bar. There is but one issue in this campaign, and that is the qualifications of the candidate.

Register White was elected by the voters of this county to this office in 1946. He was educated in the Lynn Public schools, Dartmouth College, State Teachers' College, Salem, and Suffolk Law School. He is a member of the Lynn, Essex and Massachusetts Bar association. He honorably served in World Wars One and Two, and between the wars was actively engaged in the Officers' Reserve Corps. He is a past commander of East Lynn Post 291, American Legion, and a member of the Forty and Eight. He has been actively engaged in Veterans' matters throughout Essex county. Upon his entry into service in World War Two, he was a member of the Massachusetts legislature, serving on the important Ways and Means committee. Upon his return from active duty, he was named director of Corporations' Division office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and resigned upon his election as Register of Probate and Insolvency.

John J. Costello of North Andover is the Democratic candidate for election as Register of Probate for Essex county.

Mr. Costello was appointed to the probate post by Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, former Governor of the Commonwealth. He succeeded the late William F. Shanahan and served until the 1946 election under the gubernatorial appointment. He now seeks the six year term.

During his public career as school committeeman, county officer and wartime duty with the War Labor board, he has compiled a record of accomplishment and public service.

As Register of Probate he was cited by members of the Essex county bar for his outstanding work at the registry office in Salem.

Mr. Costello attended St. John's Preparatory school in Danvers and holds degrees from Boston College and Harvard University, where he studied public law and county administration.

The candidate is a member of St. Michael's Holy Name society, Greater Lawrence Boston College club and the Harvard club of Andover. He is assistant secretary of the Boston Municipal Research Bureau.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

J. Fred Manning One of the most prominent candidates seeking re-election to the office he now holds as county commissioner is J. Fred Manning, of Lynn. He is at present the only representative of the county board coming from a city, and one of his strongest arguments as to why he should be returned to the county board is that, while there are only eight cities among the 34 cities and towns comprising Essex county, those eight cities pay 70% of the entire cost of county government and should be represented upon the county board.

Never in his whole political career has Mr. Manning's ability, honesty or integrity been questioned by any of his political opponents, and, when he became a candidate for the office of county commissioner in 1940, his native city, Lynn, in which he was born, reared and educated, gave him the overwhelming vote of 29,668, the largest vote ever accorded any man for any position in the City of Lynn, which speaks volumes for the warm regard in which he is held by the citizens of his home city.

Mr. Manning is a lawyer, having been admitted to the bar in the year 1919. He is a graduate of the Suffolk University and also of the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance, having attended both these schools evenings after having labored all day in the factories of Lynn. He is a self-made man in every respect. He bows to no man as to his stand for the laboring man. For eight years he was the business agent for the Grain Counter Workers' Union, and during that time he retained the respect of both business and labor because of his fair dealings with both.

Mr. Manning is appealing to the voters of Essex county for their support of his campaign for re-election to the office of county commissioner, and he asks only that his record be weighed with that of his opponents, fairly and justly, without regard to political affiliations, because he thinks that throughout the country, and as a consequence he was selected by the United States Conference of Mayors, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., to serve as one of its advisory board from 1932 to 1940.

Conditions at the Essex Sanatorium have greatly improved, a fact readily attested by patients and employees alike. The new streptomycin drug has been administered to scores of patients with splendid results. A policy of providing hospitalization to veterans has been established with the approval of the Veterans' Administration.

Opportunities for boys and girls attending our Agricultural school have been enhanced. An outstanding veterans "On-the-Farm" training program has been provided. My position has enabled me to assist many World War veterans in matters affecting their interests at the Veterans' administration and elsewhere.

In addition to this, I have gladly assisted countless numbers of people throughout the county to help solve their problems. I have always been available to assist whenever my services were requested. If re-elected, you may be assured that I will continue to devote my time and my energy on your behalf. I shall strive for increased efficiency and sensible economy in the op-party politics has no place in county government.

The same forethought and planning which he has shown in the past he will exercise in the future if elected. He gets things done in his quiet way. He works with others and not against them. He makes no promises except that his every effort will be for the best interests of the whole county.

C. F. Nelson Pratt

As present County Commissioner, I seek re-election. During my two terms I have endeavored to improve conditions in our various institutions. I invite you to examine my record.

Associated with the F. H. Haskell Lumber corporation of Lynn and Peabody, he has had broad experience in business affairs. He was born in Lynn, educated in the Lynn public schools and graduated from Hebron Academy and the University of Alabama.

Mr. Haskell represented Wards 1, 6 and 7 of Lynn and the towns of Saugus and Lynnfield in the state legislature in 1937, 1938, 1939 and 1940, and served on the committees on Banks and Banking and Labor and Industries. He is a veteran of World War II, married and the father of two sons.

Mr. Haskell pledges himself to a strict pay-as-you-go policy in county service, with the accent on honesty and not politics, and if elected, will appoint competent men to positions of trust in county institutions and departments, so that the citizens of Essex County may look upon them with pride and not ridicule.

William J. O'Leary

I was born and have always lived in the City of Haverhill. Attended Haverhill schools, later working as foreman in the Highway department. Became superintendent of streets which qualifies me for any Chapter 90 road work. Then elected to office of alderman and committee of public safety for 4 years which qualifies me for any business or financial transactions arising in the County administration. As alderman of Haverhill I was called to a meeting at the Middleton sanatorium to intercede for better food conditions for the patients.

I went to the hospital immediately to attend a meeting of the County committee and patients, only to be astounded at the pathetic stories told by the patients. Mainly bad, and uncooked food, and when it reached the wards, it was stone cold and unfit to eat. When they protested they were told that if they didn't like it they could go home. It is conditions like these in the county that result in high tax rates due to waste and extravagance.

I brought the condition to the attention of the Haverhill city council, also the board of health, the latter verifying my investigation. I

Proud To Serve...

Two years ago the voters of Andover showed their appreciation for the way the license situation has been run in this town by voting to continue all forms of license. In the intervening two years we have continued to justify that faith. We like Andover. We're proud of the town, and we want the town to be proud of us. That is why we have zealously pursued a policy which we have felt is in keeping with the high standards of our town.

Our presence here in Andover has brought considerable income to the town and has provided a living for many Andover residents. But realizing that even additional revenue is not sufficient reason to warrant a lowering of Andover's grand reputation, we have co-operated with the selectmen and the police department in endeavoring to preserve Andover's fine name.

In the belief that we have continued to maintain these high standards, and with the pledge that the next two years will find us equally as determined to be worthy of Andover's trust, we once again request the town's voters to

CLASS OFFICERS

The slate of officers for the year ahead is now complete in all classes. Those holding office in the senior class are president, Robert Deyermond; vice-president, Herbert Devaux; secretary, Betty Jane O'Connor; treasurer, David Anderson; social committee chairman, Joyce Demers.

The junior class officers are: president, Raymond Collins; vice-president, David Wetterberg; secretary, Jean Dumont; treasurer, Joseph Ratyne; social committee chairman, Barbara Hamilton.

In the sophomore class the officers are: president, Clifford Lawrence; vice-president, Phyllis Johnson; secretary, Janet Fieldhouse; treasurer Scott Gerrish; and social committee chairman Bessie Christie.

Round Table

Do you ever get a chance to discuss books you have read with your friends? Students at Punchard do! They discuss not only books, but other things like current events.

The first round table discussion of the year was held recently in a sophomore English class, on the book "Mill on the Floss" by George Eliot. Bessie Christie, Clifford Lawrence, Sally Bassett and Patricia Peterkin all of 10 A-1, had all read the book as outside work and after a brief synopsis of the story to acquaint the class with the plot, discussed the fine points of the tale.

Athletic Awards

Varsity letters and athletic awards, such as sweaters are given to those students, girls and boys, who have achieved a certain number of points. The scoring will be as follows:

Boys' Activities

Football—A boy must play in a minimum of half the number of periods scheduled for the year.

Basketball—A boy must be on the first squad, 12 boys, and play in a minimum of half the number of periods scheduled for the year.

AT THE LIBRARY

Among the new books at the library are the following titles:
ADVENTURES OF A TEXAS NATURALIST Bedichek

An informal book, filled with keen observations, a pleasant philosophy and accurate information. The author's choice of subject matter is delightful, and prove the keenness of his observation. For instance, he says that fences, by restricting wild life, changed the contour of the land, destroyed natural vegetation and eroded top-soil. Here is a person one would enjoy knowing.

PASTEL PAINTING, STEP BY STEP Sears

A complete "how" and "why" book on pastel painting. It answers such questions as what materials to buy, how to prepare them, how to use them. Portraiture in this medium comes in for discussion—how to dress the sitter, maintain interest, details of the head, etc. The physical care of pastels is considered, framing, hanging, preservation. A few works by leading artists have been reproduced.

MODELING FOR MOTHERHOOD: HEIR CONDITIONING THE MODERN MRS. Heinz

Dr. Frederic M. Loomis, one of the most famous "baby doctors" says of this book, "There may be a better book than this, but so far I have not seen it and I have examined dozens and scores." Here is all the interested woman needs to know, done with common sense, accuracy and a delightful sense of humor. The most comforting illustrations ever made go along with it!

COSTUME DESIGN Hardy

Intended for young men and women who wish to study costume design, this is written by a teacher who organized one of the first practical courses ever given, who trained hundreds of young men and women to be successful designers of dresses, hats, shoes, etc. Jewelry designers, stylists, to be awarded a sweater:

Boys 65 — Girls 50.

Girls with a total of thirty points will be awarded a varsity letter. Cheer leaders will be awarded a letter at the end of the year.

buyers or fashion writers would appreciate this. The book is beautifully illustrated.

PAINTING PATTERNS FOR HOME DECORATORS Spears

An all round handy book for the homemaker who wants to do her own beautifying. Some of the designs, suitable for furniture and accessories, are reproduced in color, with enlarged details. Some readers feel that it answers their needs so much that they buy copies of this for their own libraries. Practical advice and not too expensive materials required.

DAVID LILIENTHAL: PUBLIC SERVANT IN A POWER AGE Whitman

Not only a study of Lilienthal's work as head of the TVA, and chairman of the State Department's first Atomic Energy Commission, but a clear picture of the man's attitude on important questions as shown in speeches, hearings and conversations.

PEACE OR ANARCHY Meyer

An argument for world government, written by an ex-marine.

NEW PATTERNS IN SEX TEACHING Strain

The normal sex interests of children and their guidance from infancy to adolescence.

HISTORICAL GEOLOGY Hussey

The geologic history of North America, by professor of geology at the University of Michigan. Abundantly illustrated.

SOUTHWEST AND BY WEST OF CAPE COD Howland

Another highly flavored book added to the collection of recent publications about the Cape. This time a New Bedford author contributes his stories, observations and affections for the blue water region.

TAVERN IN THE TOWN Shea

When two girls decide to buy a run-down business and make a tavern that will be a sure-fire success, it is bound to bring about a great many situations that would confound the most profound business mind. They did, and it did!

Andover Industrial Scrap Drive

SPONSORED AT THE NEW ENGLAND GOVERNOR'S CONFERENCE

Let Andover do its part and gather all industrial scrap, such as obsolete machinery, pipe, old stoves, farm machinery, heavy automobile scrap, etc.

TO NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRY:

A major portion of New England industry is engaged in metalworking. These factories, employing 350,000 skilled workmen, are threatened with unemployment in late 1948, because of the continuing pig iron and steel shortages. On July 21st, shortly after the closing of the blast furnace at the Mystic Iron Works — the major supplier of pig iron to New England foundries — we appealed to President Truman, three large steel companies, and to the chairman of the National Security Resources Board. Little or no help has been forthcoming.

We are convinced that New England industries can best help themselves by supporting the United New England Scrap Drive, which will start on November 1st, with the New England Council as the coordinating agency. This drive will channel a substantial quantity of dormant industrial scrap iron and steel to our foundries and steel mills in New England, thus partially filling the need for pig iron. Every factory in New England can contribute to the success of this drive. The scrapping of obsolete parts, equipment and machines should be given first priority by top management.

Recognizing the vital importance of assuring uninterrupted operation of New England metalworking industries, we, the New England Governors, heartily endorse the United New England Scrap Drive.

The Andover Scrap Committee desires very much to have the Town of Andover produce more scrap in proportion to population and industry than any other surrounding community. Scrap is very high in price and it is now a good time to get rid of it. The Andover Scrap Committee is only interested in the poundage of scrap produced. The material can be sold through your regular channels and any local dealer. The committee can give you any assistance desired.

ASSEMBLIES

A United Nations Day assembly was held Friday with the school president, Raeburn Hathaway, presiding. Lyman Gale, acting as master of ceremonies, introduced Mrs. Philip Allen and Mrs. Peter McKee of the local chapter of the League of Women Voters, who were in charge of the program. A brief discussion followed in which several ninth graders, Lyman Gale, Frances Dunlavy and Janet Thompson, questioned Mrs. Allen and Mrs. McKee on the United Nations. A movie, entitled "Patterns for Peace" was then shown. It explained the different organizations in the U. N. and the work that they do.

Friday, October 29, a Red Cross assembly will be presented with President Hathaway in charge. Jimmy Murray will read an address given by the National Red Cross convention which met in San Francisco last year. George Adams, David Brown and Henry Bellevue will speak about the uses to which the money contributed to the "Children's Fund" is put. The recommendations made by the National Red Cross convention will be given by Gall Thompson, Barbara Stone, Ann Sughrue and Patricia Sanborn.

Marilyn Davis will recite a poem in regard to the Red Cross.

Social Studies
Last week being United Nations Week, the ninth grade Social Studies classes studied about the different organizations of the U. N. and their work. In the Music Room Thursday the ninth grade classes saw two movies entitled "And Now The Peace" and "Electing Our Representatives." We are grateful to the Memorial Hall Library for loaning the two movies.

Students' Library
The Students' Library is open two periods each day and also after school. Many books are taken out and there is much material for reference work. The student librarians under the direction of Miss Katherine Sweeney, are doing an exceptionally fine piece of work. The librarians are: Alda McCormack, Ruth Miller, Carol Briggs, Roland Sherman, Walter Wood, Judy Nowell, Helen Andrews and Joyce Williams.

Veterans' Hospital
The pupils are asked to bring by Friday, magazines of recent date for the Veterans' Hospital in Bedford. It is hoped that each home room will donate at least ten magazines.

Girls' Intramural Soccer
The girls' intramural soccer games were played last Tuesday, the Blues defeating the Greens, 1-0, and in a tie, 3-3.

Report Cards
Grades will close on Friday, October 29, and report cards will go out Thursday, November 4th.

Church Women Plan World Community Day
Friday, November 5, will be observed as "World Community Day" by the Andover Council of Church Women. The meeting will be held at the West church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. A. Graham Baldwin will speak on the subject, "Secure These Rights." The worship service will be conducted by Mrs. Wendell Bailey.

The "Pack-A-Towel" packages being prepared by the different church women's organizations will be brought to this meeting and will be sent altogether via the Church World Service to children in Displaced Persons camps in Europe. These packages will help make Christmas for them and give assurance that somebody cares.

WHAT IS IT?
As part of an exhibit of helps in the popular art of cookery, there is a display of kitchen gadgets in the case in the reading room of the Memorial Hall Library. For those who can see no possible use for a two-inch screw on a curved metal plate, or a piece of bent metal with a slot in one edge or a plastic cup-shaped whats-it with a wire stretched across the base, or a jar with a grooved cover that has teeth that turn, a list of uses of such objects has been printed on the back of the label on the case. Most women observers rate well on the self-quiz, but the inquisitive male is more interested. And while you're there, take a moment to look over the cook-books on file. There are helps in so many branches of cookery that most readers stay longer than they expect in the homemaker's alcove.

County Treasurer
James D. Bentley
County Treasurer James D. Bentley of 60 Columbia street, Swampscott, has been in public life for more than a quarter-century, and bases his candidacy for being retained in office on his record of public service.

Educated in the schools of Swampscott, he has been a life-long Republican. He was elected by the voters of his home town 13 times, nine without opposition, to the state legislature. Mr. Bentley served on the board of Essex County Commissioners for four years, and chairman of that board for two years. He has been the Essex County Treasurer since 1944, and he retired from a successful business in order to devote all of his time to the office because its many duties make it a full-time job.

While a member of the Massachusetts General court, Mr. Bentley served under six different speakers, and on three occasions was honored to devote his time to serving on special unpaid commissions.

In 1918, Speaker Channing H. Cox appointed him to serve on a special commission investigating the Fish Trust; in 1924 Speaker Benjamin L. Young appointed him to serve on a special coal investigating committee. In 1925, Mr. Bentley was appointed by Speaker John C. Hull as chairman of a joint special committee on the control, supervision and regulation of motor vehicles.

As County Treasurer, Mr. Bentley is entrusted with the duty of protecting approximately one million dollars in Essex County Employees' Retirement Funds, besides the handling of about five millions of dollars annually in receipts of the county.

Treasurer Bentley has maintained a sound financial policy in the investment of these funds, for which prominent banking officials and other leading citizens have paid tribute to the ability and integrity of the present County Treasurer's Office.

Edith Nourse Rogers Points To Fine Record
The Hon. Edith Nourse Rogers, candidate for re-election to Congress in this district, has an excellent record of accomplishment, especially in the last Congress.

Seniority is a strong governing factor and Congressman Rogers' fine record and long years of active constructive service on the Civil Service committee, Foreign Affairs, Veterans' Affairs, and other committees is of major importance. At the beginning of the present session, she received without any opposition, the chairmanship of the Veterans' Affairs committee of 27 members.

For years she has fought against totalitarian forms of government and fought for the strengthening of the American way of life. She has devoted much time in working for the industries of the district and for good working conditions and generous wages.

Thomas F. Duffy

I want to thank The Andover Townsman for this opportunity to reach the voters of Andover and vicinity through its news columns.

I believe I have the educational qualifications to administer efficiently the office of County Treasurer. I attended Harvard University and at present, I hold a responsible position with the General Electric company.

I will maintain an office which provides courteous and efficient service to every person doing business with the County Treasurer. If elected to the office of County Treasurer, I will seek for the employees of the County Treasurer's office, job security by having them all placed under Civil Service.

Thomas F. Duffy of Lynn, Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, speaking at rallies throughout the county, has said that he is "against county machines and county cliques and opposed to their practices and tactics. In the office of County Treasurer we need action, not lip service—we need sincerity—public servants, with the emphasis on servants, who will tell the people the truth. Not men who think they are too big for the job. Mr. Duffy is seeking the support of all Democrats, liberal and forward looking Republicans and progressive Independents in his active campaign for County Treasurer."

Fight Against Spread Of Dutch Elm Disease

Despite the fact that the Dutch elm disease has continued to spread widely throughout Massachusetts, so that no elm anywhere in the state is safe from the fungus, Harris A. Reynolds, secretary of the Massachusetts Forest and Park Association, says that many elms can be preserved. In his annual report to the Dutch Elm Disease committee, of which he is secretary, he states in conclusion: "There is no hope of combating the elm disease in the woodlands and therefore the public and private efforts should be concentrated upon the special shade trees and those of special value on private property."

"Although losses of elms from this pest will continue for many years—and in places where no attempt is made to fight it, the elms may be wiped out—the committee is still of the opinion that most valuable trees can be saved."

Mr. Reynolds' report listed the discovery of the disease in 109 towns of the state during 1948, so far, with the worst infections in Berkshire (866 trees), Hampden (773 trees), Hampshire (158 trees), Norfolk (498 trees) and Plymouth (112 trees) counties, as recorded by the Shade Tree Disease Laboratory at the University of Massachusetts. Among new towns infested this year are: Brookline, Greenfield, Methuen, Randolph, Sherborn and Wellesley.

The Dutch Elm Disease committee seeks to supplement its budget for its fight against the disease during 1948-49 by gifts of funds from public-spirited citizens throughout the State. The campaign for funds is now open. Gifts may be sent to the committee through the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, treasurer, Dutch Elm Disease Committee, State Street Trust Company, Boston.

Congregational Women To Meet November 4

Congregational women in the Andover district will hold their fall meeting in the North Chelmsford Congregational church Thursday, November 4, with Miss Fonnle Davis of Andover presiding.

The morning session opening at 10:30 o'clock will consist of reports by officers and committee chairmen, followed by a report of the general council meeting and an address on "Our Mission High Fulfilling," by Mrs. Edward Hale, state chairman of the Missionary Promotion committee.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. Reservations must be made by Sunday, October 31 with Mrs. Andrew Campbell of the Lawrence area, telephone 27016, or Mrs. Leslie Christison of the Andover area, telephone 101.

The afternoon session will start with a devotional service at 1:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Myron H. Clark, leader. This will be followed by two addresses: Dr. Peter Shih of the Chinese church of Boston, will speak on "A Missionary from China to New England," and the Rev. John Whitney MacNeil of Lowell will discuss his "Pilgrimage to Amsterdam."

Several Andover women are officers of the society. It is expected that a large number from this area will attend.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

YOU'VE GOT A DATE

You have an important engagement next Tuesday — at the polls. It is important to elect the right men to office. It is important to get the right answers to all the questions on the ballot.

More than that, our form of government being challenged by other ideologies, the eyes of the world will be upon us to see how many of us will exercise the privilege of going to the polls, or if we are too indifferent to take time to play our part in the democracy which we inherited at a great sacrifice of others before us.

Help make democracy work. Get out and vote. Polls are open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

It isn't often that a whole year passes between successive Thursdays, but that is what has happened during the past week! Last Thursday — on October 21, just one week ago — we solemnly and proudly boasted that we were 60 years old and starting our 61st year.

Now, one week later, we tell you that we are 61 years old and have started our 62nd year.

Just when we lost that year we are not quite certain, and were it not for the fact that a kind friend and reader in the person of Mrs. Mary C. Edmands called the fact to our attention we probably would still think we were younger than we are.

Here is the letter that put us right:

October 21, 1948
Editor, Andover Townsman, Andover, Mass.
Dear Sir:
I was reading your editorial about The Townsman's "birthday" and I think you are mistaken as to its age. If I am not mistaken The Townsman was started in October 1887, and as that would be Volume 1, No. 1, it seems to me that this October issue should be Volume 62, No. 1. It seems to me that the mistake was made several years ago, but I am not sure. Of course a lady wishes to be as young as possible, but I believe that a newspaper gloats about its age.
Please correct me if I am wrong.
(Mrs.) Mary C. Edmands

Mrs. Edmands is not wrong. Somebody at sometime apparently erred in our volume number. When we received Mrs. Edmands' letter we checked and found that we first saw the light of day October 14, 1887. Not that we doubted the facts in the letter. We simply could not believe it. We are grateful to Mrs. Edmands, and may we never be guilty of such a mistake again!

MY COUNTRY 'TIS OF THEE

"America" was written 140 years ago, here in Andover, as, of course, it is well known. The author, Samuel Francis Smith, was a divinity student at the Andover Theological school at the time. A graduate of Harvard, he studied for the ministry here, and, it is said, his natural aptitude for languages finally resulted in his being able to read and speak fluently 15 tongues.

It was when he was a senior here that he wrote "America," but when he penned it he did not realize how great a poem he had authored.

He wrote, about himself, that he had felt an impulse to write a patriotic hymn. "Seizing a scrap of waste paper," he said, "I put upon it, within half an hour, the verses substantially as they stand today. I did not propose to write a national hymn. I did not know that I had done so. The whole matter passed out of my mind. A few weeks afterwards I sent to Mr. Mason some translations and other poems; this must have chanced to be among them. This occurred in February, 1832.

"To my surprise, I found later that he had incorporated it into a programme for the celebration of July 4, 1932, in the Park Street Church, Boston. . . . When it was composed I was profoundly impressed with the necessary relation between love of God and love of country; and I rejoice if the expression of my own sentiments and conviction still finds an answering chord in the hearts of my countrymen. I pray that the spirit of the simple verses may be the spirit of our people everywhere."

The M. T. A. apparently is in serious financial trouble in Boston. If that corporation could only resolve itself into a human being and participate in one of those give away radio programs, it might, in one fell swoop, win enough money to put itself on Easy street.

Better think twice before you plan an inter-space trip to the Moon, or to one of the planets! The head of one of the Aircraft companies has just issued a warning that a space ship has a 50-50 chance of being drilled by a shooting star, or a meteor, about once every two years of flight time.

The day of execution is almost at hand for a countless number of turkeys.

Before you go to the polls Tuesday, study the referenda. Have your minds made up so that you will not have to take time to study the questions after entering the voting booths. This will slow up voting and cause unnecessary delay.

Now that the U. S. Air Force has announced another plane that travels faster than sound, scientists probably will go right to work on a sound that travels faster than a plane.—Pathfinder of the government once they had served the interest of the Moderates.

Communist Plan To Take Over
Such a hope was utterly pathetic and most obviously doomed to failure. The Communists are not simple men, they are ruthless beyond belief. And they are not in that much of a hurry to get power. They know that a little more time, more confusion, and desperate circumstances can bring the play into their own hands and give them the opportunity to call the game. Thorez recognized the hopelessness of the Moderates. He naturally raised the ante and indicated a few of his cards. If I join you, he demanded, the price is the Ministry of Defense of the Interior. Nothing less.

In simple words, he demanded for the Communists the control of the military or the police, which could be purged for communist purposes — an old, recurring prelude to communist control in Eastern European nations. The alternative facing the government was the threat of "revolving strikes" in one industry after another. Turned down on his offer, Thorez merely offered to be on call for further consultations in the near future after he had softened up his opponents. That time has elapsed, and conditions today virtually demand discussions with Thorez.

Coal Strike—Means To An End
The pattern of the coal strike in France bears out Commissar Zhdanov's statement to the Moscow-dominated Communist Information Bureau that the Soviets would bend every effort to doom the European Recovery Program to failure. Three weeks ago the miners struck for higher wages and improved conditions. Of the three unions involved, the Communist-controlled General Federation of Labor (CGT) made new demands, but the two non-Communist unions withdrew from the strike and ordered their men back to work. After the Government had threatened to call to military service the "safety" men, those who remain in the mines to keep them free from gas and seeping water, the Confederation Generale du Travail (CGT) agreed to leave them in the mines. But freedom of decision and action not being in the communist vocabulary, the CGT prevented the other miners from going back to work. Police were sent in to protect the workers, so in protest the CGT called out its safety men and refused to permit non-striking safety men to take their places.

The End—Disrupt France
The issue was now clearly drawn. No longer was the issue a strike for improved conditions. It was now a fight between the Communist-led CGT and the government. Faced with the loss of 3,000,000 tons of coal to date, the Cabinet decided to purchase 1,000,000 tons abroad. Immediately the CGT issued an appeal through the World Confederation of Trade unions requesting the dock workers of Great Britain and the United States to refuse to load coal for France. The CGT further showed the true nature of its purpose when it announced that it did not support any political candidates who endorsed the Marshall Plan.

And Spread Communism
The French government has long recognized the justice of the miners' request for increased wages. Its attempts to meet those demands persuaded the two non-Communist unions to return to work. But those very attempts only spurred the CGT to further action. A solution of the miners' problem would not suit the purposes of the CGT. And events of the past few days reveal the true intent of Thorez and company. They are communists first, not Frenchmen. They are prepared to cripple their country just as Russia is already to starve 2,500,000 Berliners to win their objective. The French Communists have plainly revealed the national conflict; they show the fight to be one phase of the international conflict between Russia and the West. They are willing, perhaps even ready, to plunge their country into civil war, to wreck the Marshall Plan, to bring the Russian border further westwards.

There is no doubt that the French coal strike and the Berlin blockade are parts of the same deliberate pattern. They are active phases of the cold war against the West. It will be well to learn one lesson from this example. There is no one, final solution to the Russian-Western Powers conflict.

MEET

WILLIAM V. EMMONS

Secretary of the Board of Health for the past three years and a board member for five, William V. Emmons, local optometrist whose office and home are at 9 Locke street, was born in Boston 38 years ago. When his family moved to Andover in 1923, he entered our public schools and graduated from Punchard High school with the class of 1927. Following his graduation from the Massachusetts School of Optometry in 1936, he became an instructor and clinical director at the school, positions which he held for three years.

He returned to Andover in 1938 after an absence of four years and opened his present practice. Now Refractionist at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, Dr. Emmons also finds the time to be active in St. Matthew's Lodge, A.F. and A.M., the Andover Service club and the South church, where he is trustee of the Ministerial fund. Treasurer of the Massachusetts Society of Optometrists and corporator of the Andover Savings bank, he is married to the former Marjorie West. They have three children, Elaine, Donald and Joanne.

DO YOU KNOW THAT . . .
Massachusetts population July 1, 1948, excluding men in the armed forces who are overseas, was 4,718,000, an increase over that on April 1, 1940 of 401,000, as estimated by the U. S. Census Bureau . . . Of this increase the excess of births over deaths accounted for approximately 270,000, and net migration of residents about 131,000 . . . New England tourist index for August showed Massachusetts 15% ahead of last year in number of guests and 3% ahead in cash receipts . . . While there are nearly 20% more motor vehicles registered in Massachusetts than in the prewar peak year, 1941, they are consuming only about 4% more motor fuel and are creating 10% less traffic on the state highways, the Dept. of Public Works reports . . . Boston Light on Little Brewster Island in Boston Harbor was put into service in 1716, and is the oldest lighthouse in America . . . A new $200,000 filtering system which employs the purifying action of bacteria has been installed by Hercules Powder Company in Mansfield to avoid pollution of the Rumford River . . . The National Highways Users Conference has calculated that the motor vehicle taxpayers in Massachusetts have lost 509 miles of state highway by reason of diversion of the gasoline for non-highway purpose . . . The planning board in Billerica has approved five new residential subdivisions since June 1947 . . . Regional planning meetings are being held this month in North Adams, Palmer, Norwood and Bourne, in addition to the annual meeting in Northampton, October 22 and 23.

An excited woman threw a faded apron on the counter in a shop. "Look at this!" she cried. "Look at it!" "I'm looking at it," said the assistant. "What about it?" "What about it?" shouted the woman. "Why, when you sold me that apron you said its color was fast. And look what happened. The color came out at the first washing!" "Well," answered the girl, looking somewhat surprised, "wasn't that fast enough?"

When one issue is settled another will develop. This is an unrelenting struggle. We must be constantly vigilant, never lulled into the self-delusion of final achievement of the problems of peace.

REPORT from the State House

By SEN. PHILIP K. ALLEN

Within the Department of Labor and Industries, there are five divisions. The largest of these is the Division of Industrial Safety. This division is charged with the enforcement of labor laws, the investigation of accidents to employees (see Workmen's Compensation), the regulation of the hours and working conditions of women and children, and the protection of employees against accidents and disease in employment. The division also prosecutes in the labor laws.

The Minimum Wage division has as its duties the inspection of the minimum wage orders issued by the commission and sees to it that companies involved in the orders comply with these orders.

The Division of Occupational Hygiene is set up to investigate conditions of occupation in order to prevent occupational accidents and diseases and in co-operation with the Department of Public Health to promote occupational health and safety education. It is primarily concerned with the detection and evaluation of industrial dust and fume conditions hazardous to health. Its advisory service makes suggestions as to the control of dermatitis, infections, radiant energy, and defective illumination, all of which affect the health of workers.

This division shows also the result of efforts to blend department. Five of the positions in the division of Occupational Hygiene are in the Department of Labor and Industries, ten in the Department of Public Health, and three by assignment from the Division of Industrial Hygiene of the U. S. Public Health service.

The Division of Standards is charged with the enforcement of the weights and measures law. For example, it certifies clinical or fever thermometers, enforces the law in relation to quality of coal and prescribes the sizes of coal, and is the licensing authority for hawkers, peddlers and transient vendors.

The Division of the Necessaries of Life has the authority to investigate the circumstances affecting the prices on commodities which are necessities of life and has the authority to conduct hearings and may publish its findings.

It also compiles a cost of living index upon which is based the welfare allotments through the Department of Public Welfare.

The Division of Statistics collects and publishes statistics of labor and manufacturers, conducts monthly surveys of employment and earnings and answers inquiries relative to the industries of the Commonwealth, the rates and wages and hours of labor and conditions of employment.

The Division of Apprentice Training, under an Apprenticeship council, sets up local and state joint apprenticeship committees and establishes conditions and training standards for apprentice agreements with industries. In co-operation with the State Department of Education and local school authorities, the division has established a system of related instruction for apprentices. Although this is a comparatively recent division, having been established in 1942, it has played an active part in giving opportunities to many young people who wish to learn a trade.

The Labor Relations commission is in the Department of Labor and Industries, but is not subject to its jurisdiction. It is empowered to protect employees in the exercise of their right to form labor organizations without the molestation or interference of employers and to bargain collectively through representative of their own choosing. For example, this Commission sets up and oversees the election by employees of a collective bargaining agency. A decision by this commission ordering an individual employer to cease interference is enforceable in the courts.

This commission is made up of three men appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the council.

The Massachusetts Development and Industrial commission conducts researches into industrial and agricultural conditions within the Commonwealth and promotes industrial, agricultural and recreational interests in the Commonwealth by acting as a kind of governmental chamber of commerce.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago—October 1898

A branch of the American Benefit Society is formed here. Interest in the new Andover Golf Club increasing. "There are several skillful players in town," says The Townsman of half a century ago.

Private Griffin of Company L, Massachusetts Regiment, U. S. V., back from Puerto Rico and spends the night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Murphy.

Announcement that Miss E. C. Reed's dancing class will open November 5th at the November Club.

Clarence Goldsmith of Andover starts duties as superintendent of the North Andover Water Works. Raspberries are still plentiful in and about town.

Andover has 21 new street lights.

We say, editorially: "The time of year when Andover is most attractive is always the present time, whenever the present time may be. But right now, because of the brilliant foliage, it is more attractive than ever."

25 Years Ago—October 1923

The Andover Masonic club has a Halloween dance in Town Hall. Mrs. William L. Hogg and her two sons return to their home in Waynesboro, Va., after spending several weeks at the home of Mrs. Hogg's father, George B. Sellars of Brook street.

Frederick Gilliard of Chestnut street is vacationing in Atlanta, Ga.

The League of Women Voters plans a membership drive. Mrs. H. Gilbert Francke is chairman.

Marion L. Abbott of 107 Main street gives a piano recital at the monthly meeting of the Philatheans.

The Andover Teachers' Association has a Halloween party at the American Woolen company's camp at Boxford.

10 Years Ago—October 1938

A riot at the Andover-Winchester football game in Winchester. Punchard is not to blame, says The Townsman, but some Andover residents are.

The Girls' Friendly society of Christ Episcopal church has a Halloween party. Helen Smith is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The dramatic club of the Andover Grange is rehearsing for a minstrel show.

Steven T. Byington, in a letter to The Townsman, asks why people burn leaves. He writes: "If the falling leaves bounce off the elastic grass and gather in the little grassless spots it doesn't follow that the leaves killed the grass or will interfere with next year's grass. Elm leaves decay easily and left where they lie they will improve the lawn. Oak leaves might smother the grass."

Andover Post, American Legion, has a poppy day.

Phillips Andover announces its Evening Study group.

What Our Readers Say—

WHAT'S THE ALTERNATIVE? Ballardvale, Mass.

Editor of The Townsman:

You report that the Selectmen are unanimously against the sewage disposal project because it will cost so much. But, as I understand, it is settled not only that Andover ought not to be permitted to keep on disposing of its sewage in the present way, but also that it will not be permitted to; and this new plan has been recommended as the cheapest way out. What project do the Selectmen have up their sleeves? STEVEN T. BYINGTON.

P.T.A. PARTY

The children of the Shawsheen school were recently given a party by the P.T.A. in recognition of the splendid work they accomplished in their membership drive.

Miss McCarthy's room, the fourth grade, had the highest percentage of membership, but all the rooms did so well that a party was given to all.

The total membership up to date figures 240 members for this year.

There is a correction on the report of the P.T.A. meeting that was held October 13. The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Francis Henrick and Mrs. Finnerty, sixth grade room mothers, with the sixth grade mothers assisting.

Some of the classes in the school are in need of bookcases and donations would be greatly appreciated.

Current Events Dept.

The Current Events Department of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club held their first meeting recently at the Andover Inn with Frederick S. Allis, Jr., instructor of history at Phillips Academy as the guest speaker.

Prof. Allis' talk was on "The Coming Election" and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Morning coffee was served prior to the meeting.

The next meeting will be held on November 16 at 10 a. m. and each member may bring a guest. This department is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alfred T. Sughrue and all members interested, please get in touch with her.

Board Meeting Notice

There will be an Executive board meeting of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club this Friday, October 29, at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Caswell of 5 Dunbarton street.

Luncheon reservations should be made with Mrs. Leslie Christison. 3:45 p. m., Junior choir rehearsal; 7:00 p. m., Girl Scouts; 7:30 p. m., Senior choir rehearsal.

WEST PARISH
 REV. JOHN GILBERT GASKILL, Minister

Wednesday, 6:00, 7:15 and 8:00 p. m., The Junior, Intermediate and Senior Boys' basketball will be held at the High school gym; 6:45 p. m., West Parish Church choir rehearsal.

Thursday, 10:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., Congregational Women's District meeting at North Chelmsford Congregational church.

Notes: Saturday, October 30, the men of the parish and community will hold a G.I. party for the purpose of cleaning up the vestry which has undergone repairs during the past few months. Dinner will be provided. The committee: Warren Lewis, Earl Young, Louis Broughton and Thomas Carter.

Dramatic Dept.

The Dramatic department of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club met for their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Caswell recently with an attendance of about 27 members.

Dessert was served prior to the meeting with the Dramatic chairman, Mrs. Wallace Fiedler, pouring.

Committees were set up for the one-act play that the group will present at the next club meeting and plans were also discussed for the group to attend an evening performance of "Finian's Rainbow."

The hostesses for the day were: Mrs. Frank Stevenson, Mrs. Hiram Young, Mrs. James J. Faggiano, Mrs. G. Edgar Best, Mrs. John B. Guild, and Mrs. Walter Caswell.

Woman's Club

There will be a monthly meeting of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club, November 1, at 8 p. m., in the auditorium of the Shawsheen school.

Mrs. Norman Miller, president of the club, will conduct a business meeting prior to the program for the evening which will be a one-act play, presented by the Dramatic department.

The play, "There's None of Them Perfect," by Sophie Kerr, is under the direction of Mrs. William Edwards of Andover and the cast of characters reads as follows: Armanda Bartlett, Barbara Locke; Lucy (Mrs. Roger Haines), Nora Himmer; Julia (Mrs. William Moore), Dorothy Guild; Amy (Mrs. George Ryan), Helen Bevin; Cecile (Mrs. Herbert Prentice), Mary Hart; Eve (Mrs. Wilbur Terry), Evelyn Locke.

Prior to the play, Miss Margaret MacLaughlin who is now studying at Emerson College, Boston, will give a selection of readings.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening with Mrs. Hiram Young and Mrs. Austin O'Toole as hostess chairmen for this month.

Members of the club may bring their quota of guests to this meeting and upon entrance, pay for each guest invited. If members are planning to bring a guest, be sure to notify your hostess chairmen.

Planned Parenthood Committee Active

The Andover Planned Parenthood Referendum committee headed by Mrs. James H. Grew has been active in the past two weeks mailing and distributing information supporting the "Birth Control" question to appear on the ballot election day.

Their work is an attempt to inform voters of the merits of the measure. Every major Protestant denomination in Massachusetts and also the Rabbinical Association of Greater Boston have endorsed the measure.

Andover ministers will speak from their pulpits Sunday on the merits of the measure.

Smorgasbord Supper Big Treat of Bazaar

The next three weeks will find the sub-committees for the A.P.C. Harvest bazaar picking up the loose ends and moulding the fruits of their labors into one unit.

Mrs. Roy Hardy and Mrs. Winston Blake as co-chairmen will open the bazaar November 20 at 2:30 o'clock in the South church vestry.

There will be a real treat for those who attend the bazaar during the supper hour when Mrs. Sherwood Kelley, Mrs. Arthur Covell and their able committee will serve a delicious smorgasbord supper.

Industrial Scrap Drive Opens Here

An industrial scrap drive will be conducted in Andover during the entire month of November under the sponsorship of the New England Governors' council.

A local committee has been formed under Chairman Francis Zecchini to contact the town's industrial plants for the purpose of securing obsolete parts of old machines and equipment, or other scrap metal that may be located in the many factories and private institutions here.

The committee has asked that if any industrial plant sells its scrap material through a regular scrap dealer, that it be notified of the weight sold so that it can be credited to the town's quota.

Acting with Chairman Zecchini on this committee are: James H. Mosher, George C. Brown of Ballardvale, Richard Zecchini, Welten Muise, H. Kriensky, Fred Smith, Walter Downs, Jr., George H. Winslow, town clerk; Alexander Ness, E. Davis of Watson Park, and Arthur Lewis of West Andover.

Irrigation has been used in arid and semi-arid countries since ancient times.

U.N. Helps Palestine Refugees

In answer to the late U.N. Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte's appeal made shortly before his assassination, the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund came to the aid of such refugee camps as the one shown being set up above, located near Damascus, Syria. UNICEF has already dispatched two ship-loads of food from the U.S. to alleviate the suffering of these innocent victims of the strife that rages in the Holy Land. Here a group of Arab refugees are seen putting up temporary shelters within the camp's limits.

Free Church Notes

The Young People's Christian Association is a newly formed organization for post-High school young people. It meets at the Free church every Sunday evening at 7:15. The following officers were elected recently: president, David McCord; secretary, Shirley Smith, and treasurer, Evelyn McLay.

The Pilgrim Fellowship for High school ages meets every Sunday at 6:15 p. m. in the Free church parlor. An election of officers was held recently. Those elected were: president, Roger Dea; vice-president, Barbara Parsons; secretary, Bettie McMillan; treasurer, Ruth Denholm, and social chairman, Nancy Adams.

NEXT ON THE AGENDA

To attract alert and active joiners, a club must have a definite purpose and a clearly defined program for attaining its goal, according to "Seventeen" Magazine.

Suggesting elements necessary for a productive and successful group in its September issue, it points out that potential constructive members shy away from a club that meets aimlessly each week and achieves nothing.

An interest common to all members, it asserts, makes the best basis for a club, and is the pivot round which activities can be built.

Big Vote Expected To Be Cast Here

The number of requests for absentee ballots, already over the 125 mark is expected to be increased before the day of election. This number is considered high and is further evidence of the interest shown in voting.

Further indication of a large vote is the keen interest taken in registration here during the past few months which has resulted in the record number of 7272 persons being eligible to vote at the coming election.

The previous high registration was in November 1946 when the names of 7042 persons were carried on the voting lists. At that time 5358 persons voted.

Andover voters will have 10 questions to answer. Questions one, two and three are amendments to the Massachusetts Constitution. They have been passed by the general Court at two successive sessions and must now be submitted to the voter.

Questions four, five, six and seven are statutes proposed by initiative petition, which were defeated by the General Court. They will become laws if accepted by the voters.

Question eight is an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. If ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states by 1954 it will become part of the Constitution.

Questions nine concerns granting of liquor licenses by the town. Question ten concerns the Merrimack River Sewerage District.

Polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The voting places are as follows: Precinct 1, central fire station; 2, Square and Compass hall; 3, Sacred Heart school, Ballardvale fire station; 6, Peabody house, Phillips street.

It's Easy To Publish A Newspaper

(Ed. Note) — Mathias P. Harpin, publisher of the Rhode Island Pilot, West Warwick, R. I., decided to tell the wide world about a publisher's lot. Here's his sad tale.)

"It's easy to publish a newspaper. . . . You never get tired. You never need a vacation. Your head is always clear. You're always bright as a silver dollar. Everybody writes in beautiful letters telling you what a nice paper you have. Everybody phones in news. You never have any trouble getting paper. Everybody pays you on time. You never have to remind people over and over again that their subscription is due. If you're late paying a bill, they say it's all right, let it go. You never make people mad at something you have written or haven't written.

"Your proofreader never makes a mistake. The front page always looks nice. The ads are always eye-catching. You just sit at your typewriter and write beautiful lines. . . .

"People never say your paper is political. They never insist you are taking sides. They always agree that you're independent. . . .

"Everywhere you hear people say you're a good guy. They always say you work hard. The waste baskets never fill up, so nobody has to empty them. The pressman never needs a helping hand to slip a new roll of paper into the press. Rolls of paper you receive are not torn, and you don't get any waste. Your mail galley never gets tied. People never think of asking you for favors that are entirely out of your reach. After every issue advertisers call up and say: 'Say, that was a honey of an ad you wrote for me last week. Thanks!' If an advertiser gives you copy announcing a weekend special, it's always sunny that weekend and very warm, and the buses are sure to run on time. . . .

"You always have plenty of time to spend with the family. Your little boy never asks: 'Mama, have I really got a Daddy?' . . . Never do you place an ad upside down. When you misspell a person's name, he calls up and says, 'Forget it. It's all right.' . . . Oh, it's wonderful to be a newspaper publisher. It's so easy. So simple."

MERRIMACK COLLEGE

The Rev. Francis X. Smith, O.S.A., M.A., a member of the faculty, has been named registrar of Merrimack College by the Very Rev. Vincent A. McQuade, president. In addition to his duties as registrar, Fr. Smith will continue to teach public speaking in the day and evening classes. He is a native of Atlantic City.

A Freshmen recognition dance will be held at Merrimack College, Wednesday evening, November 10. The purpose of the dance is to have all freshmen and upper class men become better acquainted and to foster real college spirit.

Sees Burden On Industry In Merrimack River Plan

Industries in the Greater Lawrence area would be saddled with a heavy financial burden and the Andover tax rate would be increased $5 a year if the Merrimack Valley District sewerage plan is adopted by the voters next Tuesday, Chairman Roy E. Hardy of the Board of Selectmen declared in an address broadcast over station WCCM Saturday.

Speaking on the "Accent on Andover" program, Mr. Hardy told his listeners that he believed the proposal to be unsound, premature and unwise, and urged a "No" vote on the question.

In his discussion Mr. Hardy said: "I wish to speak for a very few minutes on Referendum No. 10, appearing on your ballot November 2nd. It is the last of the referenda.

"The question reads: Question No. 10—'Shall an act establishing the Merrimack River Valley Sewerage District for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating sewerage works in the Merrimack River valley,' be accepted?"

"This question is extremely important to the citizens of Andover.

"If you vote 'YES' you have issued a mandate to have a committee of five men established as a permanent authority to spend at least $35,000,000 in the construction of treatment plants and a trunk sewer in an attempt to remedy certain conditions in the Merrimack Valley. The question will be decided by a majority vote of 16 cities and towns and the entire expense will be borne by them. I believe the proposition forced to spend $500,000 for connections alone. Part of the costs, both construction and operation, may be levied against the industries at the will of the five man authority. One plant will immediately remove a substantial part of its operations. Mr. Lewis told me yesterday that his plant, The E. Frank Lewis Co., will be forced to close its doors. This increased cost may be the proverbial straw that breaks the camel's back. As an individual said, 'Perhaps the bill would provide many of our present workers a full time opportunity to fish and bathe.'

"Why is the bill premature? "The Merrimack river drains about 5,000 square miles; about four-fifths of the area is in New Hampshire, about one-fifth in Massachusetts. It is an inter-state problem, and demands the cooperation of both states and the federal government. A start has been made toward this type of solution. Limited federal aid is available. More may be forthcoming. Little will be lost by waiting, much may be gained. "I have but skimmed the high spots. Lawrence drinking water will not be improved, and the cost of filtration will be almost the same as at present. Lawrence health will be unchanged. Some industry will be lost immediately; more may remove. Andover will pay a bill of one-fifth its whole assessed value. Other and more practical solutions are possible. I urge all Andover voters to vote 'NO' on the last referendum. I repeat vote 'NO' on the last referendum on Tuesday, November 2nd. Thank you."

"What will it do? "It will partially purify the Merrimack River within the boundaries of Massachusetts. It will permit fishing in the river, which is even now enjoyed at some places. It will permit bathing except after heavy rains. It will permit a $70,000 shell fish industry at Newburyport.

"For these benefits Greater Lawrence will pay approximately $20,000,000 funded over 40 years the total cost will be about $32,000,000. This is twice the assessed value of all the property in Andover, and about 20 times the assessed value of the entire Arlington Mills plant. If you are a home owner in Andover it will force you to contribute at least 20% of the assessed value of your house or if you pay rent your rent will be raised for a period of forty years. The five dollar raise in the Andover tax rate will shut off improvements in schools, salary raises, water and sewer extensions, and other needed improvements.

"What will the trunk sewer do for or to our industries? Just three Lawrence mills will be forced to spend $500,000 for connections alone. Part of the costs, both construction and operation, may be levied against the industries at the will of the five man authority. One plant will immediately remove a substantial part of its operations. Mr. Lewis told me yesterday that his plant, The E. Frank Lewis Co., will be forced to close its doors. This increased cost may be the proverbial straw that breaks the camel's back. As an individual said, 'Perhaps the bill would provide many of our present workers a full time opportunity to fish and bathe.'

MILK SHED DAMAGED
Fire early today badly damaged the milk shed owned by Albert L. Batchelder on Argilla road. Box 251 was sounded at 1:40 a. m., bringing Engines 1 and 2 and the ladder truck to the scene. The flames had a good start by the time the apparatus reached there. Two water lines were laid and the blaze was confined to the shed.

Associates Honor Walter M. Wood

Walter H. Wood of 82 Haverhill street, general overseer of finishing at Arlington division, concluded 17 years of service with the William Whitman Company, Inc., October 22, and will take over his new duties as superintendent of finishing at Deerin Milliken company of Pendleton, S. C., next month.

John J. Greene presented Mr. Wood with a portable radio and purse of money from employees of E department.

Miss Della Manning presented a wallet and purse of money from the final examination department. The office employees of the same department presented an electric shaver, and the overseers of the sections gave him a pen and pencil set and purse of money.

The supervisors of wet and dry finish departments gave a testimonial dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Sunday afternoon, October 24 at the Merrimack Valley Country club where Augustine Delaney presided and Richard Stoehr made the presentations.

Mr. Wood was in charge of the Finishing department at Leominster Worsted for 15 years before joining the Arlington where he was first overseer of dry finishing and final examination before assuming the position he has just relinquished.

United Nations Weekly Review

In Paris the Political and Security committee after a lively debate resolved to instruct the U.N. Atomic Energy Commission to continue its work, despite the opposition of the delegates of Russia and Poland.

The Security Council failed to find a solution to the Berlin blockade crisis. A further meeting of the Council has been scheduled to try to determine whether the blockade constitutes a danger to peace and if so what steps should be taken to eliminate this threat.

The International Emergency Food Committee of the Food and Agriculture Organization has allotted an additional 20,000 metric tons of rice to India, Ceylon, Indonesia and the Philippines. Reports had revealed that a shortage of rice existed in those areas. The United States and Ecuador rerouted 13,000 tons of rice which had been earmarked for shipment to Europe during 1949.

A conference of government representatives from war-devastated countries of Europe has been scheduled for next month in Geneva by the World Health Organization.

THE PAST

Thirty years ago, Massachusetts adopted the People's Law—the Initiative and Referendum—to give voice and power to the will of the people. It was opposed by banks and utilities as a threat to their rights.

THE PRESENT

Today, virtually the same wealthy interests who once battled the People's Law are using it to sponsor three Anti-Labor Referenda urging State control of a minority.

REFERENDUM 5 would banish all forms of union security, including the closed shop which began in England 1200 years ago. This referendum would deprive workers of union shop and maintenance of membership and impose jail penalties.

REFERENDUM 6 requires annual election of union officers and imposes restrictions on nominations... deprives unions of a right—now held by political, veteran and fraternal groups—to authorize delegates to elect officers of State-wide organizations... imposes jail penalties.

REFERENDUM 7 requires that a strike may be called only by vote of majority of eligible workers—not majority of those voting—contrary to our democratic local, State and national elections... practical effect of law would be for unions to arm representatives with strike vote before negotiations... imposes jail penalties.

THE FUTURE

P.A. Takes 35-7 Win Over Springfield Fr.

Scoring in every period, Phillips Academy's smooth-working eleven romped to a 35-7 victory over Springfield Freshmen here Saturday.

The Academy's first score came midway in the first quarter when R. Collins raced over from the 16-yard line. Its second tally came early in the second quarter, after a sustained drive, when Gardere went over from the 11. Andover scored again two minutes later, after they had recovered their own kick-off on the Springfield 20, O'Neil carrying over.

A blocked kick set up the fourth touchdown. After Johnson recovered the ball on the Springfield two-yard line, R. Collins plunged for the score.

Springfield's lone score came when Kelly ran the kick-off to the Andover 20. Leonard cracked the line for the score.

Andover's last touchdown was set up by a 25-yard pass, O'Neil to O'Reilly. Gardere went off-tackle for the score, and Toole made his fifth conversion.

P.H.S. HARRIERS WIN

Although the Phillips Academy J.V.'s took first and third honors, Punchard High harriers bunched five runners to win the cross-country run last week.

The winner was Purdy of Phillips, who took the lead from the start, faltered at the three-quarter mark, but managed to sprint in the home stretch, capturing first position. The winning time was 13:12 seconds.

The following is a list of the first 12 finishers: Purdy (A), Tibbert (P), Harris (A), McCarthy (P), Svenson (P), Nightingale (P), Kennedy (A), Bass (A), Medelo (P), Kurzman (A), Allen (A), and Dantos (P).

Friday Punchard will journey to Essex Aggie for a return meet.

march of 60 yards. Sid Watson gathered in the kick-off and lugged the pigskin to his own 40. Dwyer plunged off-tackle for eight as Deveaux made a first down on the opponent's 49. Cliff Lawrence scampered through the Stoneham defense to the enemy 18, after which Deveaux advanced to the 4. Punchard scored on a fourth down pass from Dwyer to Otis.

Andover scored the deciding touchdown late in the third period when Dwyer, on a fake pass, dashed 16 yards into the end-zone. Watson's attempted conversion split the up-rights. Punchard led, 19 to 6.

In the waning moments of the contest Stoneham gained possession of the ball on their 18 yard line. From there Norden tossed an aerial to Moriera, who streaked 50 yards after the catch to register the visitors second T.D.

RETIREES FROM BUSINESS

After 28 years in the shoe repairing business, William J. Reynolds of 37 Summer street, is closing his shop at 16 Park street to retire.

Starting in Post Office avenue, Mr. Reynolds later transferred his business to Barnard street and remained there until 10 years ago when he moved to the Park street location.

Long identified with the business of the town, Mr. Reynolds will be missed in his usual haunts by a large number of friends and acquaintances with whom he was always the same cheery figure. He carries the best wishes of all.

Skillful Processing Of Fruits, Vegetables, Meat And Game

In 1943 the New England Milk Producers' Association established a locker plant in the Shawshen Dairy building, Shawshen Village. This consisted of three hundred lockers which hold individually, approximately two hundred and twenty-five pounds of meat.

Andover people who have hired these lockers, for a nominal yearly fee, may purchase their own beef, lamb, pork or veal and bring it to the locker plant where it is held in an aging room for about two weeks at a temperature of 36 F. Ultra-violet light is used constantly to keep the growth of mold down.

After the meat has been aged the proper length of time, Mr. Zuber, locker manager, cuts the meat according to the customer's specifications, wraps it in such a manner that it cannot lose moisture under refrigeration, and then puts it in the quick-freeze room, which is at a temperature of 20 below zero. After freezing, it is taken out of the quick-freeze room and placed in the customer's locker. While the meat is in the customer's locker it is held at a temperature of 0°.

Customers have their own keys to the individual lockers and may have access to the locker from 8:30 A. M. until 6:30 P. M. except Sunday.

Due to the economies the people found in renting lockers, the demand became so heavy that it was necessary to remodel the locker plant and add two hundred additional lockers.

At various seasons of the year people bring in fruits and vegetables to be frozen in individual packages and placed in their lockers. For the Sportsman, who at this season of the year hopes to, and may bag a deer or other game, this is the ideal storage place.

Many people with home freezing units use the locker plant for processing of their food. Extra storage facilities are available for those not desiring a locker on a twelve month basis.

Any questions regarding processing charges or services rendered may be answered by calling Andover 709 and talking with Mrs. Wetterberg.

Massage- Physiotherapy Have Benefitted Many

Dr. Carrie P. Bacon, Chiroprapist, Masseuse, Physiotherapist and Hairdresser, is, as you can see, a most versatile person.

Physiotherapy is a business in itself. It consists of medical massage, and different kinds of electrical appliances are used, employing heat or light or both.

Dr. Bacon has completed three courses, one of them a private course, and she has studied facial massage as well.

She is well known for her body massage, which is so healthful and relaxing. Massage treatments require much training and the right kind of hands for soothing and relieving discomfort of the individual.

Dr. Bacon is noted for her scalp treatments for improving the health of both hair and scalp. She carries Vitamin Tablets, which she recommends highly as anti-gray hair treatment for those who wish to keep the natural color of the hair, or bring back the original color after it has started to grey.

The Blue Bird Beauty Shoppe is the only beauty shop in town where you can get the Bonart Spiral Permanent Wave which is a specialty here. It is recommended for those with fine and baby fine hair, who get poor results with other types of permanent wave. This is foolproof and makes a most attractive curl.

Whether you need scalp treatments—a good permanent—Physiotherapy treatments or foot care, Dr. Carrie P. Bacon, with all her study and training, is ready to help you. Call Andover 1004-W for an appointment. (Musgrave Building).

ENTERTAIN CHOIR

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Welch of Elm street, entertained the members of the Free Church choir, last Thursday evening at their new home.

Delicious refreshments of fancy sandwiches, pickles, coffee, and dessert were served by the host and hostess.

The choir members are very appreciative of their kindness.

Andover chapter of the American Red Cross is happy to announce that George Williams of the Andover Fire department is enrolled for the first aid courses offered by the Lawrence chapter for the training of instructors.

The number of accidental injuries annually in this country reaches an appalling figure. In many cases, death or permanent injury might have been prevented through simple but proper emergency care. The purpose of Red Cross first aid instruction is to provide for immediate, intelligent care of the injured in an emergency.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A Halloween party followed the regular business meeting of the Margaret Slattery class recently at the home of Mrs. Levering Reynolds, Jr., class leader. Following a spooky trip through the cellar and thrill packed games, the committee served refreshments. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Arthur Jowett's home in Shawshen.

WEDDINGS...

BEGLEY-DOYLE

For her wedding Saturday, October 23, to Gerald A. Begley, Miss Rosaleen Patricia Doyle, daughter of Patrick F. Doyle of 3 Buxton court and the late Sarah Doyle, wore an ivory satin gown with full court train and seeded pearl bodice. Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a seeded pearl coronet and she carried a prayer book centered with white orchids and stephanotis.

The altar of St. Augustine's church was decorated with white gladioli for the 10 o'clock nuptial mass which was celebrated by the Rev. Matthew F. McDonald, O.S.A.

The organ flowed into the traditional wedding march as the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, John J. Doyle, and this was followed by a program of special wedding music played by the organist, Miss Mary F. Lanigan and sung by the soloist, James Sheard.

The bride's sister and maid of honor, Mary Doyle, wore a pale pink satin gown with a hoop skirt and a matching half hat. The three bridesmaids, Marie Begley of Lawrence, sister of the groom, and two of the bride's closest friends, Mary Moynihan and Helen Pasho, wore orchid satin gowns with hoop skirts and matching half hats. All the attendants carried cascade arrangements of orchid and pink sweet peas.

Thomas A. Begley, brother of the groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus P. Begley of 542 Broadway, Lawrence, was best man and the ushers were Patrick J. Doyle of Medford, brother of the bride and John A. Begley, another brother of the groom.

The bride's older sister, with a corsage of yellow roses pinned to her wood green crepe dress trimmed with gold nail heads, and the groom's mother in a gray crepe dress with silver sequins, a gray plumed hat and pink corsage, assisted the young couple at their reception at the Andover Country club. Friends and relatives from Medford, Waltham, Lynn, Boston, Haverhill, Lowell, Nashua, N. H. and New York, were present to congratulate the bridal couple as they left on their wedding trip through the White mountains and New York state.

The bride is a graduate of Pynchard High school and her husband graduated from Lawrence High school.

When they return to Andover, they will reside at 12 Ridge street.

HANNAN-PUCCI

The pews of the Holy Rosary church were decorated with white gladioli markers and white picadilly gladioli adorned the church altar for the wedding, Saturday, October 23, of Teresa Marie Pucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Pucci of 86A Bennington street, Lawrence and Laurence J. Hannan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence J. Hannan of 63 High street, Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., of St. Augustine's church performed the double ring ceremony at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass during which the soloist, Richard Patti, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and the traditional wedding music was played by the organist, Mrs. Irene R. Zannini.

Preceded to the altar by her sister and maid of honor, Jennie R. Pucci, the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory slipper satin gown with a basque bodice. The heart shaped neckline, lower edge of the bodice and sleeves, were trimmed with beading and the full skirt terminated in a long train. Her long veil of illusion was caught to a beaded coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis.

Nile green faille with a full overskirt of Ivory Chantilly lace fashioned the honor attendant's gown. Her headdress was a matching coronet and her flowers were tall-man roses and stephanotis in a cascade bouquet.

The groom's brother, Dr. William Hannan of New York, was his best man and the ushers were Raymond C. Pucci, brother of the bride and Roy Russell.

At the reception at the Red Tavern in Methuen, Mrs. Pucci, in a purple and silver ensemble, matching hat and corsage of gardenias and stephanotis and Mrs. Hannan, wearing a gray ensemble, matching hat and orchid corsage, assisted the bridal couple as they received their guests from New York City, North Grosvenor Dale, Conn., Whitman, Lowell and Boston.

Mrs. Hannan, a graduate of Lawrence High school and the McIntosh school, is an active member of the Y.W.C.A. and the Rels club and has been employed as a secretary at the Tyer Rubber Co.

Her husband, who is connected with the sales department of Tyer Rubber company, is a graduate of Pynchard High school. He served with the Navy for four years and is affiliated with the Holy Name society and the Men's club of St. Augustine's church.

They will reside at 16 Morton street, Andover, when they return from an extended motor trip through Vermont, New York and Canada.

MATTHEWS-CLARK

At a double ring ceremony performed at the Congregational church of Tewksbury, Saturday, October 16 at 2:30 p. m., Dorcas M. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark of Tewksbury became the bride of Edwin A. Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster A. Matthews of Skowhegan, Maine. The couple was attended by the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Thomas and Arthur Gray, Jr., brother-in-law of the groom. After a wedding trip, they will reside in Skowhegan, Me.

Girl Scouts

Troop 27

The troop met Wednesday, October 20, and elected the following officers: Elinor Mondale, patrol leader; Mary Lee Adriance, scribe; Carolyn Blake, treasurer; Marion Washington, musician; and Shirley Murray, reporter.

The troop is planning to send clothes to outfit some girls in Europe. A contest in song writing was opened by Mrs. Johnson. Each girl is to bring in a song written by herself about the troop. This is sure to be very amusing and instructive.

Service Program

Mrs. Robert Hatton is chairman of the Scouts "Own", which is a non-sectarian service for the intermediate and senior girl scouts of the greater Lawrence council. Girls from all over the area will take an active part in the program, which will take place in the Oliver school hall in Lawrence, Sunday, November 14 at 7:00 p. m. The theme around which the program will be woven, "Hands Across the Sea," was chosen because it fits in so well with this year's National Girl Scout Service program in which the group from Lawrence is participating. The project is to send 100,000 complete kits of children's clothing to the needy children abroad.

Cub Scouts Hold Parents' Night

The Andover Cub Scouts held their first Pack meeting October 13 in the Free church under the leadership of John Carver. It was Parents' Night, and the boys were very successful in getting out their fathers and mothers.

Mr. Carver addressed the parents and stressed the point that more Cub mothers are needed to guide these young boys who are in the 9 through 11 age group. He stated that no Cub mother can successfully manage twelve to fifteen boys, which some are doing.

Calvin Metcalf presented advancement awards to the following boys: George Adams, Ronald Muise, Calvin Metcalf, Robert Williams, Reggie Wood, Robert Young, Jack Polgreen, James Curry, Robert Domingue, Paul Carey, Geoffrey Arnold, and Alan Griffin.

The attendance banner, awarded to the Cub den having the highest percentage of mothers or fathers present, was won by Den 2, one of the newest dens, with 100 per cent attendance.

After the meeting the boys held a "Swap," exchanging articles they had brought. Preston Blake served as auctioneer of white elephants which were brought by the parents. A goodly sum was realized for the Cub treasury.

Cub mothers and scouts in charge of the various dens at present are: Dens 1 and 2—none; Den 2—Mrs. Howard Young, Robert Metcalf (scout); Den 4—Mrs. Preston Blake, Mrs. Frank Nicoll (assistant); Den 6—Mrs. Robert Domingue, Billy Hood (scout); Den 9—Roger Dea (scout).

Cider and cake were served about one hundred boys and their parents. Needless to say, the boys enjoyed a good feast.

HALLOWE'EN CAKE SALE

The Radcliffe College Alumnae of Andover will hold a Halloween cake sale in the Andover show-room of the Lawrence Gas and Electric Company, Friday, October 29, from 11 to 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of events being sponsored by the Radcliffe Alumnae of the Merrimack Valley for the benefit of the Radcliffe College 70th Anniversary fund.

SCHOOL BROADCAST

Friday morning at 10:30, there will be another in the series of broadcasts featuring the Andover schools over WCCM.

A musical program has been planned by Leslie Stevens. There will be piano, accordion and saxophone selections by Martha Ann Fieldham, Wilfred and Phyllis Johnson. A report on news of the school will constitute part of the program.

Taxpayers' Ass'n Elects Directors

Directors were elected at the annual meeting of the Andover Taxpayers' association Monday night in Memorial hall library.

Elected for the ensuing year were: Foster C. Barnard, Edmond E. Hammond, Frank R. Petty, Col. Frank Purdon, Samuel Resnik, Franklin T. Bigelow and Louis E. Gleason. Leon Appleton was elected secretary-treasurer.

A directors' meeting will be held within two weeks at which time the president and vice-president will be elected. President Louis A. Gleason presided at the meeting and introduced John T. Barry of the Greater Lawrence chamber of commerce who discussed the Merrimack River sewage plan.

Clan To Present Minstrel and Dance

A minstrel show and dance will be held by Clan Johnston No. 185 O.S.C. and its Ladies' Auxiliary No. 42, at St. Augustine's school hall, Saturday, October 30, 8 p. m.

The cast will include: End men, Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, Mrs. John Thomson, John Caldwell, William Watt, James Gorrie, Jr., and William McLay; specialties, solo, Miss Janet Swenson, Frank McCarthy, Jr., Fred Scott; song and dance, Jacqueline Rhine and Harold Jefferson; accordion selections, the Johnson brothers.

The chorus includes: Mrs. William Watt, Mrs. Robert Maitland, Miss Helen Renny, Mrs. Edward Smith, Francis Wench, Caroline Ward, Marilyn Meek, Agnes Low, Jacqueline Cairnie, Ruth Denholm, Ruth Weamer, John Thomson, Jr., James Caldwell, Jr., Andrew Ferrier, Robert Maitland, Duncan Cairnie, and John Denholm. The interlocutor will be Fred Scott.

STATIONED AT WALTHAM

M/Sgt. John B. Collins, son of Rep. and Mrs. J. Everett Collins of 35 Summer street, was recently assigned to the Murphy General hospital, Waltham, as sergeant major. He entered the service in 1940, went overseas with the 100th Division and is in possession of a Silver Star awarded for heroism in Germany. He is a graduate of Pynchard High school and attended Boston University before entering military service.
