VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

Two men who should be seasoned enough statesmen not to fall for the 'formula' gag in international politics are Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the United Nations, and Dr. Evatt, President of the Assembly. Yet along with many others who seem to think that every political problem may be solved by simple mathematics, they bid for the Big Four meet for further discussions on the Berlin issue. Their statements lend weight to the suggestions that all are equally to blame for the present deadlock. They imply that the Western Powers and Russia have the same common objectives. They—and many others like them—might well consider a few words from Eric Johnston, President of the Motion Picture Association of America. Mr. Johnston returned recently from a trip to Europe, including interviews with Molotov, Bevin and Aided by some effective blocking on the part of his teammates, Herbie Deveaux (25) is off to a good gain in the annual Punchard-Methuen Armistice day game. An unidentified Punchard player just behind Deveaux has checked a would-be tackler; Ray Collins, on ground, has just smothered an enemy player, while Phil Gaudet (22) is headed down the field to blot out the nearest Methuenite. Other identifiable players in the play are: Cliff Lawrence (23) and Kopaz (16) Methuen tackle, Lawson (13) Methuen end, and Holden (21) Methuen back.

Punchard Tops Methuen Before Crowd Of 4000

By Jack McCarthy

Before a capacity Boosters' Day gathering of 4,000 the Blue and Gold of Punchard marched to victory once more as they forged to an 18 to 6 triumph over a battling Methuen foe.

By this victory Punchard took a leg on the "Little Three" title, which will be determined at the Turkey Day tilt with Johnson. The Andover boys also gained possession of the Veterans of Foreign Wars football trophy until next year's contest.

In the opening period both clubs fought on even terms with fumbles playing a major role. Punchard, however, offered a threat as they penetrated to the visitors 16 yard line. This attack was promptly snuffed out and after an exchange of goals Methuen took over on their 20.

Charles Dwyer gathered in a rival punt returning it 7 yards to the Methuen 47 from where Deveaux looped right end to the 33 for a first down. Collins charged the line, but fumbled to Methuen's Jim Holden. On the following play Methuen fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Paul Tisbert of Punchard.

After an exchange of kicks, Andover's Deveaux and Tisbert snared Dwyer aeriels advancing the oval to the 29. Deveaux broke loose to

Prof. Crum Opens Library Book Week

An enthusiastic audience listened to Professor Earl L. Crum, head of the Greek department at Lehigh university, tell of his experiences as officer in charge of Heidelberg, in reopening that great university after the war. The occasion was the library's annual "Open House," held Sunday afternoon, November 14, as a part of the library's Book Week celebration.

Professor Crum came to the task of reopening the university late in 1945. It was established American policy to aid Germans in

Girls To Be Ushers At Sunday Concert

A group of Punchard High school girls will serve as ushers at the Fall Youth concert to be conducted by the Andover Community orchestra at the Memorial auditorium at 3:30 p. m. next Sunday.

These girls are donating their services to this community project which the orchestra will sponsor and present for the benefit of local boy scout troops. Part of the proceeds of the concert will be used next summer to send some worthy youngsters to camp.

A diversified program has been arranged to appeal to children as well as adults in the field of popular music. The orchestra has been rehearsing weekly since its organi-

Large Enrollment In Central PTA

The Central P.T.A. membership drive has come to a close with an enrollment of 978 members, a 21 per cent gain over last year.

The enrollment of parents in relation to the pupils in the schools was:

Punchard High School—For the entire school 52 per cent joined. The winning room was Miss Luella Dunning's with 82 per cent. Mrs. George Adams is the room mother. Miss Agnes Duggan's room was second. Mrs. Herbert Otis is the room mother.

Junior High School—Throughout the school, 62 per cent joined. Tied for first place with 76 per cent were Miss Mabel Marshall's room with Mrs. Leslie Westfall, room mother and Miss Evelyn Parker's room with Mrs. Edwin Bramley as room mother. Carl Martin's room with Mrs. Geoffrey Glendinning as room mother was second with 70 per cent.

Stowe School—Of the whole school, 89 per cent joined. The two rooms in first place with 100 per cent were Miss Mary Burke's

Workman Dies After Mill Fire

Following a fire at the Marland Mills in which he received severe burns Monday morning, Albert E. Royds, 46, of Lawrence, a workman, died a few hours later at the Lawrence General hospital.

The local fire department ambulance was called at 10:36 a. m. and brought the man to the hospital. Chief C. Edward Buchan with Inspector James Winn of the state fire marshal's office investigated, as did Dr. Julius J. Burgiel, medical examiner.

It was believed that a spark of static electricity caused the rayon fluff on which he was working, to ignite, burning him from the waist to the head.

1949 Chest Fund Goes Over Top

Trial Justice Charles W. Trombly, general chairman of the 1949 Community Chest campaign, has announced that the Chest campaign had been a wonderful success with $190,111 being raised. This is 100.4% of the 1949 goal of $190,044, and represents the largest amount of money ever raised in the peace-time history of the Chest for the 13 Red Feather services.

Vincent Treanor, chairman of Andover, expressed his appreciation to the hundreds of volunteer workers for their loyalty and courage in continuing to solicit funds after the final campaign meeting.

Man's Body Found Near R.R. Station

The body of From George, 60, of North Andover, with a deep slash in the abdomen, was found early Wednesday morning on the embankment near the railroad tracks a short distance south of the Andover depot. A boning knife was found under the body. Dr. Julius J. Burgiel, medical examiner, viewed the body and stated death was caused by a self-inflicted knife wound.

Workmen at the Dundee warehouse across the tracks saw the body early Wednesday morning and notified Officer Joseph E. O'Brien. He went to the scene and was later joined by Chief George A. Dane, who notified the medical examiner.

Police learned that the deceased, who conducted a meat market in Lawrence, had left his home Tuesday afternoon to visit a doctor for treatment of his eyes. He did not return Tuesday night and was reported by his family as missing. He had been in poor health since recent operations on his eyes. Deceased was born in Syria and had been a resident of Lawrence for 46 years.

The proposed school building survey outlined at a general meeting of the school committee Monday night met with such favor that similar survey may be recommended for all town departments. Such action was indicated at the meeting where town officials and representatives of several civic organizations were present to hear an expert on the subject outline plans for a school survey.

In the discussion that followed the remarks of Dr. Jesse B. Davis, former dean of the School of Education of Boston University and now an outstanding expert on school buildings, several of those present joined in favoring the proposal, and it was during this period that suggestion was made that such a survey would be beneficial for all departments of the town.

Among the invited guests at this conference were: Mrs. John Hawes, president of the League of Women Voters; Mrs. C. Edward Buchan and Miss Barbara Loomer, members of the league, Louis Gleason, Philip Thompson and Joseph McCarthy of Andover Taxpayers' association; Preston Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Dino Valze, and Mrs. Walter Mondale of the Central P. T. A.; Mrs. Water Caswell, Walter Davis, Herbert Ortstein, Mrs. Norman Miller and Mrs. Allen Frye of the Shawshen P. T. A.; Milton H. AT THE LIBRARY

Among the new books at the Memorial Hall Library are the following many of which are on display during Book Week but may be reserved:

BLACK IVORY Collins
A wild tale, in a style that reminds one of Fernald, of high-jacking, mutiny and violence off the African coast in 1829.

ROANOKE HUNDREN Fletcher
Ingles Fletcher has written another superb story, comparable to "Aaleigh's Eden" and "Lusty Wind for Carolina." This time it is the story of the founding of the first English settlement in North America on Roanoke Island, off North Carolina. Raleigh, Hooker and Drake all come to vivid reality in the course of the story.

THE OLD BEAUTY AND OTHERS

Three stories, the last written by Willa Cather, each a gem in itself. The Old Beauty is a story of a woman's whole life spanned in a few pages. The Best Years is a story of Nebraska farm country, and Before Breakfast is a study of brilliant success and bitter failure.

THE YELLOW ROBE Payne
An imaginative reconstruction of the life of Buddha, as seen through the eyes of his cousin and beloved, Ananda. For 12 years after his marriage to Yasodhara, Buddha lived the easy life of the palace, then from worldly things to be found the gospel whose followers now number one tenth of the world's people.

THE CRUSADERS Heym
This might be called the "big" novel of the war, or a story of the development of human beings, especially of Lt. Yates and Sgt. Bing. The author served in World War I and writes as real a story of the tragedy and waste of war as one can hope to find, or dare to read.

NORTH FACE Renault
First of all, this is a love story of Neil Langton, who tries to bury his unhappiness in danger, and of Ellen Shorland, who is fighting her own battle against despair. Their story is set in North Devon at a small seaside guest house.

NEW YORK: THE WORLD'S CAPITAL CITY Rodgers
From the "beginning of time" here is the story of New York City, its history, culture, social, economic and political life. It is the most thorough study yet undertaken of the great metropolis.

EISENHOWER SPEAKS Eisenhower
In his own words, Eisenhower for the first time gives his views and opinions on many important subjects, mostly of the post-war period. Documents cover from VE day proclamation and end with his final report to the Secretary of the Army.

Firemen To Present Top Acts At Annual Ball

The annual ball of the Andover Firemen's Relief association will be held at the Memorial auditorium Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 24. An excellent program of entertainment has been arranged by the committee in charge.

One of the featured attractions will be "The Adrians," one of the leading ballroom and adagio dance teams. They have starred in many theatres, night clubs and hotels in Europe and South America.

An unusual attraction will be the appearance of Ting Ling, a young and masterful artist of Oriental magic and fire eating. His performance greatly differs from that of the usual "magician" show. His appearances in New England have brought him many top notices.

Tickets are available at the Central fire station, the Ballardvale fire station and from members of the department.

Appeal Board Allows Petitions To Convert

Two petitions to convert two-family houses into dwellings of four apartments each were granted by the board of appeals last week after public hearings. A third petition, that from Vincent Salvo to erect a house adjoining 80 Salem street with a side yard of less than 15 feet, was taken under advisement.

Members of the board, Atty. James S. Eastham, chairman; Roy E. Hardy and Edward P. Hall, heard several opponents to the petition of Steve P. Christie to convert a two-family house at 13-15 High street into a six-apartment house. After some discussion the board voted to allow the petitioner to convert the house into one of four apartments.

On the petition of Elsa T. Guild to convert a two-family duplex residence at 35 Balmoral street into one of four apartments, the board voted approval with the following stipulations:

The conversion must be completed by October 1, 1949. All other provisions of said zoning by law in the town of Andover must be complied with; There will be no enlargement of the house or alterations that will make a difference on the outside appearance of the house; No alterations may be made on the house until approval in writing by the building inspector, Ralph W. Coleman.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was held Saturday at the home of Paul Collins on Park street, in honor of Walter Gordon of Temple place, who recently joined the U. S. Navy. Approximately 60 were present from Lawrence, Methuen and Andover. Refreshments were served.

Customer—Why is it I never get what I ask for here?
Waiter—Perhaps, madam, we are too polite.

A food sale will be held Saturday, November 20, at the Lawrence Gas & Electric company store on Main street. All home foods, including backed beans, will be on sale. The patronage of the public is earnestly solicited. The committee: Mrs. Paul Cheney, Mrs. Frank Markey and Mrs. Grace Peters.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held Tuesday, November 23, because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The rummage sale will be held Saturday, November 27, in the post rooms.

Central P.T.A. Lists Topics For Discussions

As a result of questionnaires completed by members of the Central Andover Parent-Teachers association, the topics of future programs will follow the wishes expressed by the membership.

Eleven topics, all of interest to the members, were listed with instructions to designate the order of preference. Two topics received an equal number of votes. They were: "New Methods in use (in schools) and why," and "Should Students be grouped according to ability."

Also high on the preference list were "Good Reading Habits," "New Methods Needed and why," and "Teaching the significance of Democracy." A total of 518 questionnaires were completed and returned. These topics will be discussed at future meetings by outstanding speakers, discussion panels and classroom demonstrations.

LITTLEST LISTENERS
The Littlest Listeners group of 3, 4 and 5-years-olds will meet at 10 a. m. Wednesday, Nov. 24, in the Young People's room of the Memorial Hall library. Miss Lane will include Thanksgiving stories on her program.

The mothers will have their own meeting at the same hour. The subject for their discussion will be "Toy Selections for Christmas." All mothers are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grecoe of 17 Florence street were visitors at the Bridgeton academy Education Week program November 10. Their son, Barry, is a post graduate student at the academy.

Andover scouts have been doing well in advancement during the past year. Those who have attained the ranks of Star Scout are as follows: Edward Dean and Allen Douglass, Robert Hatton and Ronald Christy, Troop 73; Daniel Worcester, Troop 75. Several of these scouts plan to work toward the Life Scout and Eagle awards.

Outdoor Cooking
Eleven scouts went to camp Sargent on Pomp's Pond Sunday afternoon, November 14 to try for the cooking merit badge of first class cooking requirements. District Chairman of Advancement, Dr. Nathaniel Stowers who is cooking counselor for the district headed the examining board. Those present were Peter Caswell of troop 70; Russell Johnson, William Hood, Thomas Burnett, Allen and Arthur Schwarzenberg, Leo Ruel, Allen Dodge, Richard Parker, and Richard Meadowcroft of troop 72; and Robert Hatton, r., of troop 73. The cooking merit badge test was successfully passed by Russell Johnson, William Hood, Thomas Burnett and Robert Hatton. First class cooking test was passed by Allen and Arthur Schwarzenberg, Leo Ruel, Allen Dodge, Richard Parker and Richard Meadowcroft. Among the adult leaders present were District Chairman Calvin Metcalf, District Commissioner Walter Caswell, Troop Committeeman Merrill Burnett of troop 73, Scoutmaster David MacCord of troop 72, and Committeeman Robert Hatton, Sr., of troop 73.

LEAVES HOSPITAL
The many friends of Mrs. Julia Silva will be pleased to know that she has been removed from the Quincy City hospital to her home on Chandler road. She was in the hospital with severe burns suffered when the engine on a pleasure yacht on which she was aboard to sail, exploded in Quincy harbor.

ANDOVER TRIUMPHS 28 TO 7 OVER EXETER IN 69TH GAME

Andover academy's powerful 1948 football team triumphed 28 to 7 over its traditional rival, Exeter, before a crowd of 4,500 at Brothers' Field Saturday afternoon.

The 69th meeting of the ancient foes gave the home team its seventh straight victory and its first undefeated season in eight years.

Although Andover started off as if it were going to run all over the New Hampshire team by scoring two touchdowns in the first period, a recovered fumble changed the complexion of the game and started Exeter on its lone touchdown. The Red and Grey stubbornly held on through the third period and worked the ball to Andover's eight yard line where the Blue and White held to take the ball on downs. From that point on, it was all Andover.

The score: ANDOVER — Toole, O'Reilly, Berkowitz, Pasalodos, le; Beatty, Gordon, Killough, lt; Esmiol, Gambill, McTieyre, lg; M. Collins, Franklin, Smith, Waskowitz, c; Anderson, Cuthbertson, Cook, Ryder, rg; Wight, Koolstra, rt; Johnson, Tilton, Dorsey, re; O'Neil, Ryan, Osgood, Doran, qb; Gardere, Rayder, Finney, lhb; Polk, Kimball, Smith, rhh; R. Collins, Shepard, Linn, Davidson, Graham, fb.

EXETER — Porter, Loch, McCormick, re; Wilson, Tait, rt; Emery, rg; MacLaury, c; Mabry, Paul, McKallor, lg; Toole, Mabry, lt; Crowley, Waterman, Rider, le; Eitelman, Kloppenburg, qb; Laubscher, Rowell, Cudhea, rhh; Brand, Utiger, Hanson, lhb; Sexton, Cousin, fb.

Periods: 1 2 3 4 T. Andover 14 0 7 7 — 28 Exeter 0 7 0 0 — 7

Punchard Defeats Methuen 18 to 6

the rival 4, and fullback Ray Collins knifed his way into the endzone to give his team a 6 to 0 lead. Sid Watson's conversion was wide. A few moments later the first half came to a close.

In the third quarter a determined Methuen eleven staged a long touchdown drive to score their only marker. With Mulvanity, Pirozek, and Larry Bradley lugging the oval plus a short pass the visitors were able to throw the contest into a deadlock.

That was all for Methuen, however, as Punchard took the kick off and marched uninterrupted down the gridiron to break the tie.

After receiving a short kickoff, Deveaux and Collins advanced the ball to the 32. Deveaux made two first downs to the 6. Then, following three vain attempts to score, Dwyer tossed a T. D. pass into the arms of Deveaux to give the home club a 12 to 6 lead.

A pass intercepted by Dwyer set the stage for another Punchard tally. Dwyer returned the intercepted aerial to mid-field from where Deveaux rocketed down field to the 14. Dwyer raced to the 4 and Deveaux, on a reverse, carried for the final score of the afternoon.

The summary: PUNCHARD—Tisbert, le; Gaudet, lt; Mower, lg; Valz, c; Curry, rg; Cavallaro, rt; Chetson, re; Lawrence, qb; Dwyer, lhb; Deveaux, rhh; Tanoian, fb.

JAPANESE PICTURE BOOKS IN LIBRARY EXHIBIT

Among the exhibits of interest during Book Week at the Memorial Hall library, one that has been drawing close attention, and still continues to do so is the arrangement of Japanese picture books on display in both Young People's room and in the adult room.

Of particular interest are the publications in English intended to be the means of teaching English to the very young children. These little ABC books are extremely interesting in that most of the pictures used to indicate a letter of the alphabet have a wide variety of objects from which one must be selected.

The A page, showing a handsome, well-fed piglet in blue overalls with a large red wheelbarrow is supposed to illustrate the word apples, one of which is falling from a tiny branch into the wheelbarrow. The F page has a red-tempered cat with a fishing pole and a tiny goldfish casting envious eyes at a worm-baited hook. G is for Games, but the only objects are a cat and dog, one running after the other. "V is for vase" reads one page, but the vase is almost lost in the background, while a large cat in a blue dress smiles at a half-dozen mammoth violets. The choice letter is Z which stands for a Zipper!

The books will remain on display for a short time.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bourque of Dutton road were guests of honor last Saturday evening at a reception held in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. A large number of relatives and friends attended. The couple were recipients of a purse of money and a bouquet. Refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed.

SHAWSHEEN P.T.A. MEETS

The November meeting of the Shawsheen P.T.A. was held recently in the auditorium of the Shawsheen school with a large percentage of members present.

The president, Herbert Ortstein, presided at the business meeting and this being Fathers' night, Allen Flye acted as secretary for the evening in place of Mrs. Allen Flye. A thank-you note was read by the secretary from Christa Hahnenstein, a student in the fourth grade, thanking the P.T.A. for the lovely party given to the fourth grade for being the winners in the membership drive contest. Another letter from Jackie Doyle, a student in the sixth grade, was read thanking them also for giving a party to the entire school in recognition of the splendid work they all accomplished in this drive.

Mrs. Walter Caswell read a letter and a report on the matter of having a new ceiling installed in the auditorium for better acoustics. The issue was put before the School committee for further action.

The program for the evening was in charge of William McCarthy who announced R. A. Minzner, the speaker for the evening. His very interesting subject was "Flight by Jet Propulsion."

Refreshments were served at the close of the program by the fifth grade fathers. The hostess chairman for the evening were Mrs. Richard Quint and Mrs. Robert Waters. Dramatic Dept.

The Dramatic department of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club will hold their monthly meeting, Friday, November 19 at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Stevenson of 66 Winthrop avenue, Lawrence.

There will be a business meeting prior to the afternoon's entertainment, with Mrs. Wallace Fiedler, chairman of the department, in charge.

Mrs. Gordon Colquhoun is in charge of the entertainment for the meeting and will direct the group in a series of pantomines.

Mrs. Arthur Steinert, chairman of the Veteran's Service department has requested that all members who have completed the gift bags for her, please bring them at this time.

The hostesses for the day include, Mrs. Arthur James, Mrs. Richard Locke, Mrs. Sherman Locke, Mrs. Donald Kent, Mrs. Frank Himmer, Mrs. Thomas Bevan and Mrs. Frank Stevenson. Theater Party

A group of women from the Dramatic department of the Shawsheen Village Woman's club attended a matinee performance of "Finnian's Rainbow" in Boston recently.

The group left in separate cars and met for lunch after which they attended the theater in a group. Another theater party is anticipated in the near future.

Tuesday Night Bowling

The Tuesday night women's bowling league are now in their eighth week of bowling and we find the Avengers, captained by Rita Maxwell, taking most of the honors at the present time. M. Kopatch has won the high single with a score of 140 and she also has the honor of having the high triple with 335. N. Flaherty has high average with 93.4. The high team single is held by the Avengers with 499 and they also hold high team triple with 1359. Personals

Miss Gladys Payne, who is living with her cousin Mrs. Albert Carpenter of 7 Dunbarton street, visited with her family in Westerley, R. I. over the weekend. Miss Payne is now employed by the Hardy Brush factory in Shawsheen Village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe and their son John of 6 Sutherland street enjoyed an extended trip over the holiday weekend. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Frang Britt-ingham of Montevale, N. J., formerly of Shawsheen Village, and also visited relatives in Dumont, N. J.

Mrs. Kurtin of 7 Windsor street has returned after enjoying an extended trip to St. Petersburg, Fla., Fla.

DANCING CLASSES

A dancing school will again be sponsored by the Central Andover Parent-Teachers association. Differing from last year, there will be two classes, one which will specialize in folk dancing, and the other in which tap, cossack and skate dancing will be taught.

The folk dancing class will open at 3:15 p. m. December 3, in the Junior High school music room. Subsequent classes will be held every other week.

Classes for the tap, cossack and skate dancing will start at 3:15 p. m. December 10, also in the Junior High school music room, and will be held every other week. The exception to the second schedule is that skate dancing will be taught on the skating rink adjacent to the football field when conditions permit. To assist in the latter program, children in that group are requested to bring any skates that have outgrown.

Miss Shirley Novack of North Andover will instruct both classes. Mothers of the students will act as hostesses.

NEED JUNIOR PLAYERS

A few basketball players could be used by the Baptist church team in the Junior division of the Inter-church league which is now starting. Boys who have not passed their 13th birthday are eligible. Those interested are asked to report to Donald D. Dunn, physical director at the high school.

The Garden Shop For Xmas Cheer

Have you visited the Garden Shop this month? At this time of year, Mr. Stedman and his son are featuring Christmas greens and decorations.

The Garden Shop is famous for its made to order displays, and if you have a clever idea for decorating your home, business establishment or just your front door, the Stedmans will carry out that idea, and it will be more beautiful than you had hoped.

Last Christmas, the Cross Coal Company called on the Garden Shop for holiday decorations, and won first prize in Andover for their beautifully decorated store front.

One of the prize winning home doorways here in Andover was the work of the Garden Shop.

The Lawrence and Andover Garden clubs call on the Garden Shop for evergreens and flowers of all kinds to carry out their unique decorating ideas. The Garden Shop has the most complete line of Christmas items in the vicinity.

The Garden Shop has a wonderful variety of wreaths, baskets and corsages for all occasions.

For Mother's Day and Easter, you can find a profusion of spring flowers to choose from, and later in the summer, gladioli in quantity. Call Andover 276 for further information.

Prof. Crum Opens Library Book Week

The reestablishment of their educational institutions. The only directive that he had from American military government was that no Nazi ideology should be taught. Otherwise he had a rather free hand in determining the direction of events.

In an informal conversation before the meeting, in answer to a question as to Heidelberg's greatest need, Professor Crum replied that food was the great need of both faculty and students and suggested that CARE packages were perhaps the best method of sending it. Professor Fritz Ernst, professor of modern history, is in charge of distribution and there is also a student committee which sees that packages fall into the hands of particularly needy students. If any one is interested in contributing in this fashion, the Memorial Hall Library will be glad to act as a clearing house. Contributions of any amount will be gladly received.

SORORITY MEETING

The next meeting of the A. P. C. Sorority will be held in the South church vestry tonight at 8 p. m. This is a work meeting for the bazaar. Refreshments will be served by a committee of which Mrs. Arthur Gilman is chairman. Other members include: Mrs. Sherman Boutwell, Miss Emma Briggs, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Donald Bassett, Mrs. Guy Kneeland and Mrs. James Souter.

CARE Packages Still Needed

The local chapter headquarters of the American Red Cross, has just received up-to-date information on CARE packages for needy families abroad.

U. S. government aid has started to rebuild industry and shipping in Europe, but as far as food and clothing go, it will be months before the average family will be any better off. Meanwhile CARE, a government approved service, composed of 26 major accredited American overseas relief agencies, is prepared to handle orders for food or clothing packages to most of Europe.

The following points deserve consideration:

CARE is non-profit. No one makes a profit from CARE. After the war, 26 leading relief agencies organized CARE with the cooperation of the U. S. government, to provide a safe and efficient method of sending non-profit packages abroad.

CARE is guaranteed. CARE promises to deliver your package and return a signed receipt. If CARE cannot deliver, for any reason, you get your money back. CARE has delivered more than six and a half million packages abroad during the past two years.

CARE is convenient. It's easy to send packages. There is no shopping, no wrapping, no mailing. You don't have to stand in line to buy or mail, there's no postage. You merely select the type of packages you want and send a check or money order. CARE does the rest.

CARE is scientific. Packages have been designed by experts to give the people in Europe the things they need most. There are special packages designed for different countries, special foods for babies, infants, and others. CARE has fourteen packages to choose from.

CARE is ration-free. All CARE packages are ration-free in Europe. Your friends may have CARE packages in addition to their normal rations. CARE packages are also admitted duty-free and free from inspection, free from delivery charges.

CARE is efficient. The food and clothing packages you order are already in Europe. CARE warehouses are strategically located in each of the countries served. Your order is air mailed to CARE headquarters, and a package is released from the nearest warehouse.

CARE is economical. You get your money's worth when you send CARE packages. CARE buys in huge quantities and sends food by the ship load.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

A GROWING TOWN

Have you noticed, in recent issues of The Townsman, a column captioned, "Recent Newcomers to Andover"?

Many families have moved here during the past few months, some from nearby places, some from other states—some from distant points. These newcomers have chosen a fine town in which to make their homes, and in which to educate their children. If they are employed here, or nearby, they are handy to their places of employment, and if they are engaged in business in Boston there is no better commuting service anywhere, than between Andover and the capital of Massachusetts.

Have you noticed, in our advertising columns, that two new stores have opened here recently?

Both of these factors — new Andoverites, and new stores — mean, of course, that the town is growing.

And have you noticed from month to month the record of new building permits? The estimated cost of new building for the first nine months of the present year surpassed the total for all of 1947. October added another $76,000 to the sum, and there are two months to be heard from. Another growing sign in a growing town!

EXPENSIVE GOVERNMENT

In these days when everything costs too much, it probably is not surprising that governmental costs are high, too. But, it really does seem as though those who run the government—and by government in this instance we refer to the Federal one—might do a little economizing.

Forbes Magazine had an article recently which pointed out that swollen payrolls, waste, inefficiency and duplication of effort in many Federal agencies have helped to boost the national budget to the point where government is costing the taxpayers nearly as much as food!

From this source we learn that Federal expenditures today are equivalent to 26 percent of all privately produced income in the United States, as against about four percent in 1929, and less than 12 percent in 1937, the record year of deficit spending. In the past ten years the number of Federal employees has nearly doubled.

Just one little example of duplication may not be amiss. A group of former FBI operatives, sent by the House Appropriations committee into Federal agencies to ascertain why they needed a budget of $43,800,000,000, reported the State Department as employing 11,000 more persons than at the peak of the war. Inefficiency in State Department clerical procedure was illustrated by the handling of a single letter taken at random from the department's files.

The letter — a simple request by a U. S. citizen for a transfer of funds abroad — went twice through three buildings and accumulated en route "a multitude of initials, forms, directives and copies." After 35 separate "processings" the letter had consumed the equivalent of 30 days of one person's time.

May we expect some "relief" from such foolishness during the coming four years?

WILD LIFE AND SHORT LIFE

Once, it is estimated, there were 75,000,000 buffalo in the United States; today there are only a few very small herds.

Once Audubon, the great painter of birds of America, saw literally billions of passenger pigeons, one of the most beautiful game birds, during his travels; the last of them died years ago in a zoo.

The population of ducks, pheasants, quail, and other game birds has been decreasing rapidly; the result — constantly shortened seasons and decreased bag limits.

It is silly to kill the goose that laid the golden egg. That is true whether one means buffalo, passenger pigeons, ducks, pheasant, quail or other game birds. For a long time some people have been getting the idea more and more that Uncle Sam can lay a golden egg at will. But, the people of America may some day find out, it is even possible to do away with Uncle Sam.

Ever knock out 22 teeth at one fell swoop? Perhaps you have — if you've ever killed a mosquito. Scientists say the pests have 22 teeth. So draw your own conclusions.

It is probably a grand and glorious feeling to "Stop the Music" and win a prize valued into five figures. But, honestly, now, aren't there a great many programs on radio that ought to be stopped anyway.

Well, the Trumans are going to get out of the White House, but it was not the Republicans who brought it about. The executive mansion simply isn't a safe place to live in.

One week from today we all eat turkey—if we have the price.

Views of The News

others. Asked about the Berlin situation, he replied, "Berlin by itself is unimportant in the sense that if you settle the Berlin issue there will be others. That is what our people do not seem to understand. They seem to think that if the Berlin issue is settled, everything will be all right." Evatt and Lie may have sound reasons for endeavoring to do all within their power on the Berlin issue, but their reasoning seems to be poor. For they, too, appear to have fallen for the clever propaganda persistently coming from Russia.

Last week another barrage of the cold war came from Moscow. Those boys don't miss an opportunity, and they certainly make the most of it. A Washington columnist on Monday last week suggested that Truman wanted a heart-to-heart talk with world leaders on peace, and might go to Europe and even to Moscow. On Wednesday all Russian newspapers—as directed from above—reprinted the rumor almost as a fact, and concluded, "However, if Stalin does not leave the Soviet Union, Mr. Truman is filled with such determination to put into effect his program of peace that possibly he himself will go to Moscow."

What Is A "Technical" Study?

The same day Mr. Evatt pronounced that the area of disagreement between the Western Powers and Russia had been reduced to that "between Tweedledum and Tweedledee." And then went on to suggest that the Big Four utilize a technical study of the deadlock over the Berlin currency situation being prepared by Trygve Lie. He further announced that he had advised Lie to make such a compromise settlement. Dr. Evatt is less than wise if he thinks that the obstacle to a solution of the Berlin issue is merely technical. He must have kept his eyes closed for the past several months if he assumes that no attempts have been made to arrive at some sort of settlement.

An Excuse For Vishinsky

Vishinsky, ever alert to find the slightest excuse to sound off against the United States, immediately pounced on that excuse and on Saturday delivered himself one of his most vituperative blasts against the United States. That he contradicted his former statements about there being no blockade on Berlin and that he would not participate in the discussions was of no consequence to him. He is not the man to forget earlier remarks. He merely utilized the usual communist doctrine of any means to a desired end. For him and Moscow that end remains unaltered and will continue to be precisely the same—get the United States out of Europe. The more people who provide him with opportunities to pursue that objective, the better will Vishinsky be pleased.

The Blockade Boomerangs

The simple fact is that the Russians would very much like to get themselves out of the Berlin tangle that they hadn't foreseen. The airlift has embarrassed them with its effectiveness to date. They are losing face over the issue, and they are feeling the pinch of the Allied counter-blockade which has kept badly-needed steel, coal and industrial goods out of the Russian zone. But still they want to solve the problem on their own terms. The Russians want a resumption of Big Four talks on the whole German question, because they want a say in Western Germany too. They know that until the Berlin issue is settled the Western Powers will doubtless refuse to discuss the larger issue. They will perhaps suggest a withdrawal of all troops from Germany, having by this time successfully created in Eastern Germany a communist puppet bloc strong enough to handle all Germany for them. And to this end Evatt and Lie supply ammunition.

Russia Plays On Anxieties

Certainly Russia is not anxious to have the issue brought before the United Nations Assembly where world disapproval of Russia's atti-

MEET

DR. WILLIAM A. FLEMING

Coming here from his native Ireland as a very young lad, Dr. William A. Fleming was educated in Andover schools, married an Andover girl and is conducting his dental profession here at 76 Main street while enjoying his chief hobby, raising flowers in his garden at 15 Pasho street.

After graduation from Pynchard High school, he "prepped" at St. John's preparatory school then went on to Boston College and received his dental degree for Tufts Dental school. He has maintained contacts with his former classmates through membership in both the St. John's and Tufts Dental school Alumni associations.

A Navy veteran of World War I, he is a member of Andover post, 8, American Legion, St. Augustine's Men's club and the American Massachusetts State and New England Dental associations.

Dr. Fleming, who has lived here for 48 of his 52 years, and his wife, the former Alice M. Welch, have one daughter, Joan E., who graduated from Lasell Junior college in Auburndale and is associated with the Andover Gift house.

tude would be officially voiced. So, if the discussion can be sent back from the Security Council to the leaders of the four nations or to their foreign ministers, the same old roundelay of words can start again. The Russians, much as they would like the Berlin affair settled on their terms in the immediate future, aren't going to give way if they can help it. They started the whole affair by the blockade, and they know it. But they sit tight and watch well-intentioned people spreading the blame equally. They see short-sighted statesmen, anxious for the immediate safety of their countries, prepared to bargain away long-term security for illusive present "safety." The Russians, aware that anxious people are unwilling to face unpleasant facts, see the United States accused, if only obliquely, by jittery countries as deliberating proving war. And feeling that they have time on their side the Russians very naturally seize every opportunity to drive in the wedge. As ordered from Moscow, Vishinsky gives it another hefty kick by shouting that the United States is preparing a Pearl Harbor for Russia, using as "evidence" an article published in an American periodical last May.

Time Is On Russia's Side

Comrade Vishinsky is an old hand at this sort of thing. Remember when he made the headlines ten years ago as the prosecutor in the Russian purge trials? So he now beats the drum by quoting General Kenny, former chief United States Strategic Air Command, who said that Russia was America's number one enemy. Potentially it was and still is. Vishinsky knows it and is annoyed that we recognize the fact. Much better if we could be lulled into a false sense of security. But Russia sees that we are awake to her actions, and so she uses the next best method of persuading others to delay decisions and let time work to her advantage. The game is clear to those who will see. And Vishinsky unwittingly gave us our lead near the end of his tirade when he said, "Facts happen to be facts. And facts cannot simply be denied, because a mere denial cannot serve either as a proof or as an argument." By the same token, let us look for facts and not be misled by words however many may be poured out.

REPORT from the State House

By SEN. PHILIP K. ALLEN

We now come to the Department of Mental Health with its headquarters at 100 Nashua street. This department is in charge of Commissioner Clifton T. Perkins, of Melrose. Dr. Perkins' department is made up of eight divisions, the titles of which are self-explanatory as to their functions. They are the divisions of mental hygiene and research, mental deficiency and medical statistics, hospital inspections, legal medicine, medical business settlement and support, executive, medical, and business.

These divisions plus advisory committees and boards of trustees of the state hospitals and schools which are appointed by the governor and council for a term of years constitute the overall staff which operates the department. In general, this department has the supervision over all public and private institutions for the mentally ill, the mentally defective, the epileptic, and those persons in private hospitals who are addicted to the use of narcotics and stimulants.

Our state institutions of mental health are under the local administration of the board of trustees, but the department itself has the overall responsibility for their efficient, economical, and humane management. Some conception of the size of the department of mental health may be had when one realizes that there are twelve state hospitals for the insane only. These hospitals are: The Boston Psychopathic, Boston, Danvers, Foxboro, Gardner, Grafton, Medfield, Metropolitan at Waltham, Northampton, Taunton, Westborough, and Worcester.

The Monson State hospital, in Palmer, is specifically set up for epileptic patients.

In addition to these hospitals there are the schools for mentally defective. These are the Belchertown State school, the Walter E. Fernald State school, in Waverley, and the Wrentham State school. The Myles Standish division set up originally as a temporary measure but which now in all probability will be classed as a permanent hospital, is designed to relieve the overwhelming burden of patients in the state hospitals. As of the first of November of this year there were approximately 30,000 patients of all categories in the state institutions under the control of the department of mental health.

Ninety-five out of every 100 people in Massachusetts who need mental hospitalization must be taken care of in our state hospitals for any length of time simply because they cannot afford the luxury of private facilities. Therefore, it becomes obvious that the fate of the mentally sick is literally and absolutely in the hands of the Commonwealth. What, therefore, is the current situation as to personnel and structural facilities? The most pressing problem is the lack of personnel, much less qualified personnel.

In the medical service, for example, there were 57 vacancies as of September, out of a quota of 224 doctors. This means, therefore, on the basis of 30,000 patients one doctor for every 179 patients. In ward services out of a quota of 4,620 as of September there were 1,427 vacancies. In the administration, industrial, and educational, kitchen, and dining room, domestic, engineering, repair, farm and garage and ground service, much the same situation applies. The tragedy lies primarily in the first two categories. Faced with a lack of sufficient skilled professional medical service and sufficient skilled attendants in the wards, the state cannot point with pride to its handling of the mentally ill. For years the faithful employees working under incredible conditions, have worked overtime at a cost this year to the state of $500,000.

The question of structural facilities is again a perplexing one. The working capacity of the twelve hospitals for the insane, for example, is 18,082, yet they are overcrowded by 3,418 patients. The situation at the three schools for the feeble-minded is even worse. Their capacity is 4,012 and they are overcrowded by 988 patients despite the fact that 470 patients were transferred to the Myles Standish division.

It is almost unbelievable, but there are over 80,000 known mentally deficient and mentally retarded individuals in the Commonwealth. Some 4,000 of these are on waiting lists for admission to these schools, and of that 4,000 some 1,600 to 1,800 are cases of sufficient urgency to require immediate admission.

As with the new state prison, work is already under way to alleviate at least the problem of additional facilities. Four and one-half million dollars is now being spent on six projects which will give an additional 1,000 beds. Another 1,000 beds will be ready by 1950. One-half million dollars is currently being spent on projects relating to fire protection. Nearly one million dollars already appropriated is being expended on more adequate sanitation. One and one-half million dollars appropriated in the last legislative session is being spent on changes and additions to existing power plants.

Overall, then, approximately ten million dollars is being expended currently from available funds to relieve this distressing situation. Another 11.5 million dollars will, it is to be hoped, be appropriated by 1950.

Much has been done to alleviate the difficulties under which the Department of Mental Health has been operating, but only with aroused public sentiment can the Commonwealth take the necessary steps to care for what has become a forgotten segment of our people.

St. Augustine's Opens Three-Day Bazaar

The annual bazaar of St. Augustine's church will open tonight at 8 o'clock in the school hall.

Friday afternoon will be given over to the children's table sponsored by the Catholic Guild. On Saturday a bean supper will be served from 5 to 7 to which the public is invited.

MARKETING with Marjorie

Come Thanksgiving, you'll be mighty thankful you marketed early. So look over the ideas below and plan your dinner right now. Then choose all you need for your Thanksgiving feed from A&P's big stock of big values!

GOOD USE FOR A GOOD HEAD

Ever eat all of a salad, including the bowl? You can when it's made like this: Hollow out a firm, green cabbage head and shred portion removed (about 1 1/2 quarts). Add 3/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. sugar, 1/2 tsp. grated onion and 1 1/2 tbsps. vinegar. Add 1/2 cup of tangy ANN PAGE SANDWICH SPREAD from the A&P; toss; chill and pile into cabbage shell. Serves 6.

"CORN"Y AS CAN BE

Honest Injun, this corn pudding is the best thing that's happened to corn since the Indians discovered it! Beat 1 egg; add 1 cup milk, 1 cup of A&P's golden sweet IONA CORN, 1 tbsp. fat (melted), 1 tsp. sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt and 1/2 tsp. pepper. Mix well; turn into greased casserole and bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 1/2 hr. or till set. Serves 4 to 6.

HOLIDAY HIT

If you want to make a big hit on the big day, take my tip and take a trip to your A&P for a rich JANE PARKER FRUIT CAKE. Studded with glacéed cherries, pecans, raisins and citrus fruits... this luscious fruit cake is America's favorite. Bet it'll be yours too!

CRUST ISN'T A "MUST"

Pumpkin pie filling baked in a casserole instead of a crust is just as tasty...especially if you use A&P's choice ANN PAGE SPICES and this recipe: Mix 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1 tsp. cinnamon, 1/2 tsp. nutmeg, 1/4 tsp. ginger, 1/8 tsp. cloves and 1/2 tsp. salt. Add to 3 eggs, slightly beaten. Add 1 1/2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin; mix well and stir in 2 cups milk. Pour into 1 1/2 qt. casserole; set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven, 375° F., 1 1/2 hrs. or till set. Serves 6.

ONLY FIVE DAYS LEFT!

Please may we have your order for your Thanksgiving Turkey soon?

(All you want of between 12 and 15 pounders!)

We have all the Table Delicacies you will need for the Holiday.

We extend to all our customers the Season's Best Wishes for this Thanksgiving Day.

P. T. A. NOTES

The next meeting of the Ballardvale P. T. A. will be held Thursday evening Dec. 2, in Bradlee school.

A Christmas party will be held at this meeting with each person bringing a 25 cent gift marked for a boy or a girl. These gifts will be given to a charitable organization. Games will be played and a social hour enjoyed.

At the November meeting Mrs. Haseitine won the mystery chain. Miss Collins' room won the attendance banner. Mrs. Frank Green reported that curtains would be available for use for movies. There are 116 members now in the association, the largest enrollment the Ballardvale P. T. A. has ever had.

Celebrates Birthday

J. W. Stark of Marland road recently celebrated his 75th birthday. Among the many remembrances received by Mr. Stark were 50 roses, a gift in recognition of 50 years service in the church school of the Methodist church in Ballardvale.

Mr. and Mrs. Stark recently celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary. They had three children. Darwin, who passed away several years ago, Harold who resides with his parents, and a daughter, Gertrude, wife of Paul Abbot of Detroit, Mich. There are three grandchildren.

Mr. Stark is the popular butcher of Ballardvale and still cuts meat in the shop which has been used for 100 years, originally owned by Mr. Stark's grandfather, W. D. Stark, who came from Vermont, then passed down to Mr. Stark's father, John S. Stark, and now owned by Mr. Stark and his son, Harold. One of the original shopping blocks is still in use. On the wall is a clock given to Mr. Stark by George Bruce. The clock came

May Make Survey Of All Town Departments

Abbot of the Finance committee. In presenting his ideas for a school building survey, Dr. Davis described the part an expert consultant would have with the local members of a steering committee. He thought that nine members would be a proper number for such a committee with representatives from the parents, teachers, school committee, selectmen and planning board. He also stressed the point that the superintendent of schools should not only be consulted but should be an active member of the committee.

Under this central or steering committee would be sub-committees as follows: One would study the growth of the community with the trends in population, trends in school enrollment, birth rates and housing. There should be a committee to study the educational needs with its problems of kindergartens, changes in elementary education, community use of buildings and demands for adult education. He thought there should be a sub-committee to study the needs for special services such as health, recreation, guidance, audio-visual education and transportation. He felt that there should be a sub-committee to study the school plant with its problems, of evaluation of each school building, sites, services, building needs with a view toward long range planning. He pointed out that there would be a need for a sub-committee on organization and administration as well as a sub-committee on finance. The committee on finance to study the financial status of the town with its assessed values, taxes, state-aid, dept limit, available funds, and borrowing power. There should also be a sub-committee to study the school personnel with its many problems of teaching, preparation, salaries, methods and teaching load.

After the work of the sub-committee is completed, they would turn over their reports to the central committee who in turn would make a summary and a final report to the town with recommendations for action.

Keneth L. Sherman, Superintendent of schools, explained to the group that up to this point the school committee was merely discussing the advisability of having a survey. The committee agreed with Mr. Sherman's interpretation. He went on to say that he felt that it was about time to take stock or inventory of the general school building situation and that he felt that at least one impartial expert from the outside should help the school department and the citizens with such a survey.

Mr. Sherman went on to give a short resume of the conditions in the elementary school buildings and pointed out where the present increased enrollment was and where he expected it in the future.

Mr. Hardy spoke in favor of such a survey and said he felt that the results of such a survey would be very beneficial to the town, that such a survey should be carried on in cooperation with other departments and that when such a survey was completed the town should consider school needs along with needs in other departments. The superintendent of schools has repeatedly expressed a willingness to work in close cooperation with a planning board and with other departments.

Mr. Gleason, president of the Andover Taxpayers' association, and Joseph McCarthy brought out the fact that the survey conducted in the past for the board of public works had been very beneficial to Andover and that they felt that there was a possibility that such a survey for the school department would also prove beneficial.

The entire group showed a great deal of interest in the subject and many questions were asked regarding present conditions and what such a survey would mean. Mr. Ortstein also spoke in favor of such a survey.

Dr. Davis was the invited guest of Mrs. Dorothy T. Partridge, member of the school board.

Following the meeting with Dr. Davis, a group representing the fourth grade with Mrs. George Sanborn as room mother, and Miss Alice Stark's fourth grade with Mrs. Miles S. Pendleton as room mother. In second place with 95 per cent was Miss Anna Noyes' room with Mrs. Roland Sherman, room mother.

Jackson School—Of the whole school, 96 per cent joined. The three rooms in a first place tie with 100 per cent were: Mrs. Adeline Wright's first grade with Mrs. John Cecil as room mother; Mrs. David Darling, room mother; and Miss Margaret Bascom's second grade, Mrs. James Hart, room mother. Second place was won by Mrs. Betty Richardson's combined second and third grade with 82 per cent, Mrs. Norman Stein, room mother.

John Dove School—The whole school, including Miss Louise Sherman's morning and afternoon kindergarten classes with Mrs. Frank Diclementi and Mrs. Harold Wennik as room mothers and Mrs. Louise McQueston's third grade with Mrs. Joseph Cardella as room mother, joined 100 per cent.

The entire membership drive was in charge of Mrs. Philip Hogan, chairman.

1949 Chest Fund Goes Over Top

At the final meeting November 4, when a grand total of $182,931 was reported, the Hon. William H. Daly, president of the Lawrence Community Chest, urged all workers to continue their efforts to bring victory to Greater Lawrence.

Taking Judge Daly's words to heart, the workers continued to bring in results daily until the deficit had been overcome and the $190,044 goal had been realized.

Mr. Treanor pointed out that we were one of the two chests to reach our goal out of the 64 Community Chests in Massachusetts, thus proving Greater Lawrence to be one of the better communities in Massachusetts.

resolution requesting that the committee include in its 1949 budget funds for the installation of fibre tiling in the Shawsheen school auditorium. This committee headed by Walter Davis and Herbert Ortstein, pointed out that the reverberation time in the Shawsheen auditorium was close to 12 seconds and this tiling would reduce it to 3 seconds. The Shawsheen P. T. A. is ready to present the school with a moving picture sound projector when this work is completed. After a lengthy discussion the committee took the proposal under advisement.

The committee also discussed the 1949 budget at great length and the meeting adjourned at 11:05 p. m.

Appreciate Cooperation

Principal Milton Nelson and members of the faculty of the Junior High school wish to express their sincere appreciation to all members of the Central P. T. A. for the cooperation they received in making "open house" night at the school a success.

Over 150 parents signed guest books as having attended, and it is known that several more were present whose names were not recorded.

Parents and teachers were provided with ample time to discuss various problems concerning school life. Several parents have voiced their approval of this type of program as they feel, as teachers do, that much in the nature of solving immediate problems was accomplished.

Miss Ida Grover is resting comfortably after a recent operation in the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. During the illness of Miss Grover, Mrs. Ruth Morse is substituting in her Latin and Mythology classes.

School Dance
A very successful school dance was held Friday afternoon, from 2:00 to 4:30 o'clock. The music was provided by Benjamin Dimlich and refreshments were sold in the cafeteria. Miss Anni Angelo taught the boys and girls a new square dance—"Jimmy Crack Corn." Through the efforts of Gil Efinger of the eighth grade, almost everyone who attended took part in the dancing.

Student Council
An enthusiastic student council meeting was held during the last period Monday. Several homerooms reported that they were not satisfied with the conduct of the students in the school cafeteria. Others gave reports on the traffic squad and a committee was chosen to speak to the principal, Mr. Milton Nelson, about the traffic squad. Because so much had been brought up in the homerooms Friday, there was not enough time for all matters to be discussed.

Mrs. Newcombe
Mrs. Theo Newcombe, a practice teacher, has completed her newspaper project in connection with the study of "Lady of the Lake." She has been working with the second ninth grade college division on this modernized version of "Lady of the Lake."

Because she is leaving the school, Brad MacCormack presented Mrs. Newcombe with a large bouquet of roses, in behalf of the college division and the academic division, with whom she had also been working.

Notes
Mr. Nelson is planning to attend the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Junior High school Principal's association at Worcester Nov. 18.

Every second Saturday, Miss Agnes Reardon conducts a speech clinic under the direction of the school department. A number of children from the public schools have benefited from this special training.

Miss Mary Donahue and Mrs. Anna Walsh attended the second meeting of the Massachusetts Special Class Teachers Association which was held at the Art Museum in Worcester, Saturday afternoon, November 13.

INDIAN RIDGE LODGE

A food sale, sponsored by Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge, will be held Friday, Nov. 19, 10 a. m. at the City Cleaners store on Main street. Mrs. Phyllis Smith is the chairman.

Tickets are now on sale for presidents night of the Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge, which will be held Monday, December 6 at 6:30 p. m. in the lodge room. Reservations for the catered supper must be made by December 3. Tickets are in charge of Mrs. Muriel Fischer and Miss Doris Gates. There will be an early business meeting at 5:30, the same evening.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

The author of a recent book on foreign policy remarks that Americans should realize that world politics is the most fascinating of interests. That may be true, but sometimes the fascination must seem to resemble that of a rabbit for a weasel—an inability to move from impending disaster. The citizen looking at only the front page of one newspaper, stares in open-eyed bewilderment at the headlines, and in sheer desperation probably seeks sanity in the sports page. Apart from the domestic mess of the longshoremen's strike, he reads that Arab-Israeli peace talks collapse, the United States strengthens its Marine force in China, Chiang Kai-Shek wants more aid, Forrestal praises Western union on the one hand while Charles de Gaulle damns Western union, the Mar-

VETERANS' HOUSING ALLOTTED $560,000

Christmas Clubs Total $236,738

This Sum Distributed By Two Local Banks To 3661 Club Members

Andover Banks have just distributed the sum of $236,738 to their Christmas club members.

Checks for this amount have been mailed to those systematic savers who have been making weekly deposits during the past year toward the big Christmas check.

At the Andover National bank the sum of $138,075 was sent out to 1981 accounts, and at the Andover Savings bank $98,663 went to 1680 accounts.

This is a total of 3661 checks that have been received by Christmas club depositors of the local banks, a slightly greater number than were distributed a year ago.

New Christmas clubs started in both banks this week. At the Andover Savings bank it was reported that almost all of the members normally start right in again making new deposits toward the check for next year.

At the Andover National bank a new bi-weekly plan was put into effect. Members deposit once every two weeks. At the bank it was stated that this plan has been favorably received by the public in other places and is being offered here as the newest plan of systematic savings for Christmas.

Sum Allows Completion Of 56 Units

Local Authority Also Allowed 4 1/2 Acres Of Land For The Project

The Andover Housing Authority has been allowed $560,000 for the erection of 56 dwelling units for veterans. A "dwelling unit" takes care of one family.

The State Housing Authority in acting upon the application of the local board, has also allowed the acquisition of four and one-half acres upon which these dwellings are to be built.

Chairman Frederic S. O'Brien of the Andover board said that the dwelling units approved for the town would vary from three to six rooms and would be attractive structures of two-story, multi-family type known as garden apartments.

Architect Clinton Goodwin of Haverhill who has done considerable work for the town, has been engaged by the board and is already at work on the plans.

With this sum approved the local board has completed part one of the program. The original amount sought for Andover was in excess of $600,000. An increase in the amount approved by the state may be made at a later date, although it is not certain, as the actual number of homes to be constructed depends upon further analysis of the needs of the veterans.

The sum allowed the local board is at the rate of $10,000 per unit and out of this must be paid all development costs in connection with the work.

Part two of the program consists of submission of a complete lay-out of the area with surveys of the land and drawings of the houses. When this is approved by the state authorities, the local board will be ready to let contracts and to put the first shovel into the ground.

With Chairman O'Brien on the Andover Housing Authority are: Atty. Charles G. Hatch, Winthrop Newcomb, Ernest N. Hall and Stanley Swanton, the latter appointed by the state.

Tebbetts Scores With Service Club

A record gathering of Andover Service Club members and their guests crowded the Andover Inn last Thursday night when George "Birdie" Tebbetts, Red Sox catcher, appeared as guest speaker. The Nashua, N. H., insurance man related a number of stories, mostly humorous, about some of the current stars of the game and discussed a few of the controversial issues concerning the Boston club.

Introduced by Harold W. Wrennik, the speaker launched into the choice of Galehouse as pitcher in the play-off game with Cleveland that decided the pennant. Reminding his audience that he, Tebbetts, had a $6,000 stake in that game, he went on to say that considering all circumstances, Galehouse was the correct choice that day.

He felt it was Lou Boudreau, Indian manager, who was taking

Punchard, Johnson In Turkey Day Tilt

By JACK MCCARTHY

Thanksgiving morning at 10:15 o'clock on the Andover Playstead, Punchard High football team will play its most important game of the season, when it clashes with its arch rival Johnson.

This "Turkey Day Tilt" will decide the "Little Three" championship of Greater Lawrence, and it will also be the last game of the season for these two clubs.

The Blue and Gold, which has compiled a record of six wins and two defeats compared with Johnson's record of four triumphs and five setbacks, seems to have the edge, but in a contest such as this all records can be thrown out the window.

The Andover boys, under the leadership of Coach Walter Roberts and Donald Dunn, will be out to avenge last year's defeat, while Johnson guided by Coach George Lee and Phillip Miller, hopes to continue its winning streak.

The following are the probable lineups:
PUNCHARD L.E. Ross; L.T. Gaudet; L.G. Curry; C. Valz; R.G.

ANDOVER ORCHESTRA PRESENTS ENJOYABLE FALL YOUTH CONCERT

A large and enthusiastic audience assembled in the Memorial auditorium Sunday afternoon to hear the Andover Community Orchestra successfully present its annual fall youth concert.

Listeners of all ages were present from surrounding towns and cities and thoroughly enjoyed the diversified program presented. The orchestra under the direction of George Brown of Melrose, drew many rounds of applause throughout the program, and the soloist, Charles Castleman, seven-year-old violinist of Quincy, was recalled for an encore after his concert.

The musicians are a truly community group, one-third of them from Andover, another third from the rest of Greater Lawrence, and the rest from Haverhill and as far away as Plaistow, N. H., Danvers and Belmont. The explanatory remarks by Mr. Brown aided the audience of young and old to more thoroughly enjoy the program.

All these people, the audience and members of the orchestra, combined to make a real contribution to the Andover Boy Scouts and will enable some lucky youngsters to spend some time at camp next summer.

The winter schedule of the orchestra began last Tuesday with

Friskin Concert Sunday Evening

Miss Kate Friskin's piano recital previously announced for Saturday evening, Nov. 27, will take place Sunday evening, Nov. 28, at 8 o'clock in Davis hall. The public is cordially invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

The piano concerts annually presented by Miss Friskin are numbered among the highlights of the town's musical events and always attract an appreciative audience. For her Sunday program Miss Friskin will play works of Scarlatti, Bach, Cesar Franck, Chopin and Debussy.

Legion To Entertain P.H.S. Football Team

Punchard High school's football team will be guests of Andover post, S. American Legion, Thursday evening, December 2.

A fine program has been arranged by Commander Kenneth L. Sherman and his committee. Principal Eugene V. Lovely, Coach Walter C. Roberts, Chairman Roy E. Hardy of the board of selectmen, and J. Everett Collins, chairman of the Booster's day committee will be among the speakers.

At the conclusion of the program a Smorgasbord supper will be served.

Boosters Sponsor Football Banquet

Arthur L. Valpey, head coach of the Harvard university football team, will be the guest speaker at the annual Punchard High school football banquet sponsored by the Boosters' club, to be held Thursday, December 16 at 6:30 p. m. at the high school. Lucius P. Jones, scout for the Boston Braves, will also speak.

Movies of the Punchard High-Johnson High and the Punchard High-Methuen High games will be shown and the presentation of athletic sweaters will be made to the members of the Punchard High football squad.

J. Everett Collins is chairman of the banquet. Tickets are $2.25.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

The Christmas bazaar under the auspices of the Junior Women's Union of the West church will be held Saturday afternoon and evening in the church vestry. Mrs. Harriet Sparks is the general chairman. There will be many Christmas gifts for sale, also door decorations, aprons, and novelties. The young women of the union have been working very hard to make this affair a success. The sale will start at 2:30 p. m. A baked bean and ham supper will be served at 5:30 and at 6:30 p. m. Get your tickets early by calling Mrs. Arthur Peatman, 1267 M. A bakery sale will also be held.

Men's Club Elects

The Men's Brotherhood of the West church held its annual meeting and election of officers last Thursday. The following were elected: President, Elmer Peterson; vice president, Walter Wilson, Jr.; secretary, Richard Williams; treasurer, Philip Thomas. The committee will be appointed by the president at the next meeting.

Trip to N. E. Home

The annual Thanksgiving offering for the New England Home for Little Wanderers was taken at the Sunday school session of the West church last Sunday morning. A large supply of canned goods, fruits and vegetables and a generous gift of money were donated to this very worthy cause.

In the afternoon a group of children from the Sunday school visited the home in Boston. Supt. Warren A. Lewis and Asst. Supt. Earl Young, took the following youngsters to the home: David Haartz, Paul Giskill, Glenn Peatman, Roger Johnson, Judith Hall, Myrtle Bella Jaques, Geraldine Boutwell, Marjorie Stewart, Ruth Santuccio, Joan Silva, Mary Garabedian, Ernest Clegg, and Nancy Bolian. All are in the sixth grade classes.

vestry at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, December 1. A Christmas party in charge of the executive committee will follow the business meeting and election of officers. Each member is asked to bring a 24 cent gift for the tree and also a toy which is to be packed and sent to the children of the Cotton Valley school, Alabama. Paper, coloring books, crayons, dolls pencils, and balls are suggestions as gifts for children 5-15 years of age who are greatly in need of some remembrance at Christmas time. Let us all help.

Food Sale
Beginning at 10 a. m. Friday, December 3, there will be a sale of home cooked food in the grey stone cottage on Haverhill street, Shawshoen Village. The sale is under the auspices of the Philaetha class of the North Tewksbury Baptist church. Mrs. Norman Briggs is chairman.

Receive Awards
The following West Andover farmers received awards at a banquet and meeting of those who participated in the Green Pastures contest in Essex County. A blue seal certificate for pastures with 70-79 per cent was awarded Everett Boutwell of Highplain road and a red seal was awarded Arthur Tisbert of Greenwood road.

Shower for Bride Elect
A miscellaneous shower was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Kilburn on Union street, in honor of Miss Shirley Bailey who is soon to become the bride of Allen Young. About fourteen relatives and friends were present and Miss Bailey received numerous useful gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Do You Know Massachusetts?

DO YOU KNOW THAT... Of the 107 cities and towns which have requested assistance under the State Housing board's veterans' program, sites providing for 7,961 moderate-rental homes have been approved in 63 communities at an estimated cost of $79,610,000. Formal contracts for financial assistance have been completed with eight of these municipalities for 1,778 dwellings of which 468 units already are under construction in Boston, Cambridge, Pittsfield, Springfield and Worcester. Massachusetts agriculture has set up two all-time records this year—its 575,000-barrel cranberry crop and a yield of 200 bushels of potatoes per acre, as reported by U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Massachusetts Aeronautics Commission reports a total of 1,653 aircraft and 4,830 aviators registered in the Commonwealth. Air traffic, as measured by the control tower count, is running nearly 60% larger at Bedford than at Logan airport, notwithstanding about 6,000 commercial flights a month at Logan and practically none at Bedford. Harvard University has the oldest library in the United States, and the largest with the exception of the Library of Congress. Massachusetts has more degree-granting educational institutions than any other state; more than half of these are in Metropolitan Boston. The adult education class in city planning sponsored by the Marlborough school department is a program that may well be followed by other cities and towns. (Compiled by the State Planning Board)

Local Artists Exhibit Work at Art Gallery

"Pictures for Christmas," an exhibit by local artists, is now on display at the Addison Art Gallery where it is daily attracting larger crowds interested in seeing the work of home talent.

This exhibit is usually presented at this time each year in downtown stores, but this season the work of all 20 or more artists, each of whom have entered three pictures, has been assembled in one large display. The pictures are for sale.

The gallery is open from 9 to 5 daily, including Saturdays, and from 2:30 to 5 p. m. Sundays. With the exception of the Thanksgiving holiday the exhibit may be seen until Dec. 24.

Tebbetts Scores With Service Club

the gamble in pitching rookie Gene Beardon, but as the sensational southpaw won the game nothing was said about it.

He tagged sports writers as being responsible for the stories about "trading" Ted Williams.

"I am the greatest Williams fan you have ever seen," he declared, as he related a story about Ted's batting eye.

"I don't think they will trade Williams," he said. "If he has to go I hope I go with him. He is the best baseball player living. There is no ball player in the country who does not love him."

He asserted Williams was the best left fielder in the business and the best hitter in baseball. Later in his talk, in discussing great hitters in connection with different ball parks, he said that Williams was the most maligned hitter in baseball, and that he is hitting in a tough field for a left-hander.

Discussing Joe McCarthy, he said the Sox manager "has a pipeline to the Lord," as everything he does just seems to be the right thing to do. The "greatest manager" and the "master strategist" are terms he applied to McCarthy.

He went on to tell how McCarthy converted Billy Goodman into a first baseman and continued by saying that the boy was an inspiration to the whole team. The Sox were 11 games behind when Goodman donned the first baseman's mitt and from then on the club made its climb to the top of the league. Goodman, he said, "was the only reason we finished as high as we did. Next to Williams he was the most valuable player we had on our ball club."

"We don't need any more pitching," he told his audience as he ran over the roster of the club's pitchers. Other than about two top pitchers in both big leagues the pitchers "are all guys named Joe."

He did say the Sox could use a good right-hand hitter who could consistently "hit that wall" but he felt the team was going to go along with the pitchers it had. "I think we'll win as we stand."

Tebbetts made a great hit with his audience, just as he did at the testimonial given Jimmy Hegan at Lynn the previous evening. Although Tebbetts was named the all-star catcher in a recent writers' poll, he dubbed Hegan as the best catcher in baseball.

The attendance figure of 120 set a record for the club. The drawing for the free dinner was won by Maurice J. Curran, and the baseball autographed by the speaker was won by Atty. Walter E. Mondale.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 9 and will be in charge of the past presidents.

P. A. Winter Athletics Have Bright Prospects

Prospects for a successful season seem bright for Phillips Academy's swimming team with Captain Jimmy McLane, right, Olympic champion, ready to carry on for the Blue and White. With him is Manager Wilder Baker.

Winter athletics got underway at Phillips Academy last week with every indication that the teams will turn in successful seasons.

One of the brightest spots in the winter sports calendar is the season ahead for the swimming team.

With Captain Jimmy McLane, Olympic title holder and national champion in three events, there will be five returning lettermen. They will be the mainstays of the swimming team. There is "Shorty" Thoman, who holds the school record in the back stroke, John Thompson, who excels in the free style, Jim Miller in the breast stroke, and Mac Beatty in diving.

Coach Drake is expecting to develop several promising swimmers from last year's J. V. possibilities. Bolstered by five returning lettermen, the basketball team, under Coach Frank A. DiClemente is looking forward to a winning season.

Captain Eddie Ryan who is again leading the team for the second year, will lead the attack at left forward. This will be his third year on the varsity team. Guard Sam O'Shea also seems assured of holding down his position. Foremost among the candidates for the right forward position are Bo Polk, a letterman who also plays guard, and Frank Capra, who improved greatly playing club basketball last year. The other guard position will be strongly contested for, with four men, letterman Augie Johnson; Don Gess, from last year's J. V. squad; and two preps, Gil O'Neil and Jim Windsor, battling for the first-string berth.

Jim Brown will probably play first-string center, but strong competition will be provided by Al Toole and Doc Savard, both of whom saw a great deal of action on last year's J. V. team.

Hockey
Coach Leavitt's hockey team has a lot of good material this season, but it faces a rough schedule. There are five returning lettermen, who will form the nucleus of the squad: Captain Bruce Bates, Bill Thompson, Dave Swenson, and Bill Osgood, in the line; and Hank Wood at defense. The squad will be rounded out with many capable players from last year's J. V. and a few promising preps. Paul Brodeur is expected to play in the goal this year, but a serious challenge for the starting position may be offered by John Spencer, a prep.

The team will officially open the season at the Prep School tournament at Princeton on January 3 and 4. With the other eleven games scheduled, including an overnight trip to Hebron, the team should see plenty of action. From all indications, they should have a fast hard-hitting club this winter.

Track

The winter track team has a fair group of returning lettermen by improved J. V. men of last year, and is strengthened in many events. The 40-yard dash and the 300 will be centered around Dick Collins, a prep, who has shown his speed this fall on the football field. He will be helped by Barry Phelps, Bruce Valentine, Dud Shepard, and Clark Brink. The 1000 and 600 are greatly weakened this year as the top three men of last year's squad are gone, but a lot can be expected from Co-Captain Art Doran, Spence MacCallum, John Kimball, and Hugh Sprague. The field events are strong both in the shot put and the broad jump. Co-Captain Bass Wallace leads the shot-putters, followed closely by Gil Murray and Bob Doran. Ed Moran leads the jumpers with Dick Brace and Bob Kimball also coming close to the twenty-foot mark. Dan Wight, John Cross, and Eric Mack will probably see a great deal of action in the discus event; John Houk and Bruce Wallace in the high jump; Bud Linn and Tex Williamson in the pole-vault.

Wrestling
Under the direction of Coach Pieters, the Andover grapplers look forward to a heavier schedule than that of last year, since extra meets with Bowdoin Freshmen and Cheshire Academy have been scheduled. Although two of the

Improvement Society Holds Annual Meeting
The annual meeting of the Andover Village Improvement Society trustees was held Monday evening, November 22, in the Memorial Hall library.
Reports were given on the work of the past season. Some care has been given to the planting of various plots around the town. The main project of the society has been the spraying to control poison ivy on the highways. This work is becoming a real benefit to the community, and a large sum of money was appropriated at the meeting to continue the campaign in 1949.
Two officers who had given loyal service to the society resigned; F. Tyler Carlton, who had been president for the past two years, and Miss Helen Eaton, who had been treasurer for the past twenty years. Both resignations were accepted with regret.
The following officers were elected for the coming year. President, Mrs. Wilson Knipe, Jr.; 1st Vice-president, G. Richard Abbott; 2nd Vice-president, William Perry; 3rd Vice-president, Thaxter Eaton; secretary, Mrs. H. Allison Morse; and Treasurer, Miss Ann Penniman.

Body of Veteran Returned For Burial

A delegation of Andover veterans went to Lawrence Tuesday evening to meet the body of Pvt. L/c Lawrence A. DeSalvo, of 19 Middle street, Shawsheen Village, when it arrived at the Central railroad station, and act as escort to the funeral chapel of S. D'Amico & Son in that city. The funeral will be held from there Friday morning with a high mass of requiem in the Holy Rosary church at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the Immaculate Conception cemetery.

Commander Kenneth L. Sherman headed a large group from the Legion. It included: a color guard of Joseph Medolo, Sr., William Retelle, color bearer; Joseph Caswell, color bearer; Joseph Medolo, Jr., guard; and Vice-commander Joseph Wrigley, guard; and the following delegation:

Joseph Remmes, John Greco, Thomas Dea, Arthur Coleman, Irving Whitcomb, Harold Waldie, Herbert Lister, George Napier, James Rennie, Daniel Sharp, Joseph Levy, Jr., and George St. Jean.
From the All-Women's post, 427, A. L. Mary Bailey, commander; Louise Wolfenden, Edith Valentine and Jeannie Mitchell.
The Veterans of Foreign Wars, under William Hulse, commander, had a color guard consisting of: Charles Sanborn and Hector Keith, color bearers; William Leahey and William Hollis, guards; and the following delegates: Thomas Eldred, George Milne, Norman Auchterlonie and William Holland.
Francis P. Markey, Veterans' Service officer, represented the town.

Pvt. DeSalvo was killed in action in Italy, Oct. 19, 1944. He was inducted into service in April, 1942, and went overseas in March, 1944.

Surviving are his widow, Margaret (LaPlante); his parents, Giuseppe and Francesca DeSalvo; two brothers, John of Framingham, and Salvatore of Andover; and one sister, Grace, wife of Augustine Salvetti of Andover.

WOMEN'S UNION
The final business meeting and social of the Women's Union of the Free Christian church, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 7:45 p. m. at the church. The president, Mrs. George Adams, will conduct the meeting.

The leaders are asked to submit the names of their circle members so that they may be drawn, during the evening, for the coming year.
Reports of the church fair will be heard at this time. Devotions and social period are in charge of the December circle, Mrs. Leslie Christison, leader.

D.A.V. MEMBERSHIP
Andover chapter, 18, Disabled American Veterans, is urging all disabled veterans to join the local chapter for the purpose of helping other disabled comrades. Applications may be obtained at any of the veterans' centers, or by writing the D.A.V. chapter, 18, Andover.

PRESENT PLEASING PROGRAM

The girl scouts of Troop 19 entertained their members and members of the troop committee in a pleasing manner last Friday evening in the vestry of the Union Congregational church.

Joan Wilson as mistress of ceremonies introduced the program as follows: Tap dance by Joan Jedrey; solo by Cynthia Lawrence; and a short play in which Priscilla Colpitts, Ann Lefebvre, Anne Froburg and Leigh Henderson took part.

Arvilla Mason gave a reading and Patricia Smalley a piano solo. A song by a group of girls ended the entertainment. Priscilla Colpitts led the group in a game, after which refreshments made by the scouts, were served. Then the scout circle was formed and the parting songs were sung.

Miss Lucille Rogers, director of the Greater Lawrence girl scouts, was the honor guest with the troop committee, Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Edward Lefebvre, Mrs. Edna O'Hara, George Forsythe and Bart Smalley.

The scouts include: Gail Goodwin, Joan Jedrey, Arvilla Mason, Leigh Henderson, Joyce Lee, Nason, Cynthia Lawrence, Margaret Perry, Anne Lefebvre, Joan Wilson, Priscilla Colpitts, Marjorie Davis, Ann Ward, Joan Lakin, Thelma Sparks, Diane Mitchell, Marilyn Ness, Geneva O'Hara, Carol Forsythe, Ann Froburg, Judy Hall and Patricia Smalley.

Brought Food Donations

Members of the Union Congregational church Sunday school brought donations of canned goods, fruits and vegetables to their service Sunday morning. A special Thanksgiving service was held. The baskets will be given to the Red Cross for their work.

Young People's Groups

The Young People's group of the Union Congregational church will be hosts Sunday evening, Dec. 5, at a meeting of the Young People's groups of Andover. A buffet supper will be served at 6 p. m. followed by a game period. Later a short worship service will be held, followed by a movie entitled, "Kindled Flame."

Serving on the committee are: Worship, Raymond Nolin and Ralph Sharpe, Jr., refreshments, Miss Harriet Schofield, Miss Peggy Perry and Miss Shirley Nicoll; welcome, Miss Elizabeth Green and Miss Ann MacFarlane; games, Ainslee Schofield; letters of welcome, Miss Doris Nicoll.

Miss Lawlor To Speak

All persons interested in books and magazines for children are invited to attend the meeting of the Friendly Guild to be held in the vestry of the Union Congregational church at 8 p. m. Monday evening.

Miss Katherine Lawlor of the Massachusetts extension service will discuss books and magazines for children especially appropriate at Christmas.

Refreshments will be served by members of the Guild with Mrs. Elwyn Russell as chairman. A social hour will follow.

Home for Holiday

Recruit Roland Joy has finished basic training and is spending the Thanksgiving season at home. Roland will then report to Camp Kilmer, N. J.

James Donovan also a recruit is spending his furlough with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Francis Donovan of Andover street.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peatman of Woburn street and Miss Elainor Rogge of Ballardvale road have arrived in West Palm beach Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. James Fairweather has returned to her home on Clark road after undergoing an operation at the Lawrence General hospital.

Captain Alton Littlefield of the ordinance repair shop at Atlanta, Ga., visited recently at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roland Joy of Andover street.

On Dean's List

James Green of Tewksbury street has been notified that he is on the dean's list at Northeastern University. Mr. Green is the owner of the service station on North Main street and attends evening classes at the university.

There will be a union service for Thanksgiving at the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Thistle of the Methodist church, South Tewksbury, will be the speaker. Everyone is invited.

Flower Arranging Courses Proposed

Have you ever looked at a well-arranged bouquet and wondered why it looked so right, and how the container happened to be so well selected, and how the person who had made the arrangement had found just the right colors and shapes and heights for the material used? It was no happy accident that created such beauty, but the result of careful thought, planning and the application of a few well-defined rules of flower arranging.

Among the courses under consideration for the early part of the new year at the Memorial Hall library, "Flower Arranging" is one that should appeal to homemakers, party planners, church workers and artists. If the idea of attending such a class has any appeal, would you please register your interest as soon as possible? This does not commit any person to attend, but does give the library a chance to select more intelligently the courses to be offered to the public. Application blanks are available at the desk.

South Church Notes

Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock there will be an observance of the 200th anniversary of the death of Isaac Watts with special music and sermon. Isaac Watts was the writer of some of the truly great hymns of the church and this service will commemorate his work and his life. At this service the offering made through the "silent guest" envelopes used by the families of the South church Thanksgiving day will be brought to be sent to the Wen Shan Mission in China where Miss Helen Smith is serving as a missionary in the school. Miss Smith is well known to the South church having visited and spoken in the church during furlough periods.

Wednesday evening, December 1 at 6:30 o'clock the Men's club will meet. Professor Lorenz A. Weishaupt of Bradford Junior college will be the speaker. His subject, "Church Under Autocratic Governments—An Adventure story." Dr. Weishaupt teaches mathematics and German at Bradford. He secured his doctorate at Wurzburg where he specialized in the History of Art. Later he became Dean of an Art College at Cologne but was dismissed by the Nazis in 1939. Dr. Weishaupt brings to the club a background of experiences that Americans never have endured. The club is holding a "Guest Night" in order that more men in the Community may have the opportunity to hear him. Those who wish to attend may make arrangements through Dr. John Brown, 138 Main street. A supper catered by Robert Sutton assisted by Preston Blake and Winston Blake will precede the talk.

AT THE LIBRARY

Among the new books at the Memorial Hall library are the following:

RAVENSWOOD

Doner
Another Great Lakes story, this time of a family dynasty in the fourth generation, wealthy owners of the largest salt refineries in the country. Especially is it the story of Thad, and his love for Kitty Rose Keane, of mysterious parentage. As in her previous books, Mary Doner brings the Great Lakes region into vivid reality.

THE SKY IS RED

Berto
About "ordinary" people, all survivors of a bombed Italian town, and the way in which they try to rebuild their lives. It is a story of two boys and two girls, forced into adulthood by their circumstances. Here are new urgent needs struggling with old values, and here is what war does to plain, everyday human beings.

THE BURNISHED BLADE

Schoonover
After the harrowing experience of watching Joan of Arc at the stake, Pierre, a young lad is rescued from almost certain death by an armorer, and is taught the armorer's trade. Later, he is apprenticed to one of France's richest merchants. Commissioned to uncover the opium and jewel smuggling that is going on, he is sent to Trebizond, on the Black Sea border, where intrigue and horror vie with the evil of sophistication. Vivid adventure!

THE TORTURED ANGEL

Garth
Denis Furlong, ex-teacher, ex-news correspondent and ex-Army intelligence, was entrusted with the quest for tracing Richard Landis, who disappeared in Normandy, taking with him an important packet containing the key to a menace to the peace of the world. David Garth readers will find this a worthy successor to the earlier novels.

LAUGHTER FROM DOWNSTAIRS

Ormonde
A story of a Bohemian family living in the Pacific Northwest. Special favors are shown to two of the members, Grandma and nine-year-old Lida. They dominate almost every scene. Then there are the others, Papa, pinocchio player de luxe, Mama, so respectable, Uncle Jaroslav, Uncle Emile, Aunt Tilda, to name a few. Lively, humorous, and has somewhat the charm of "Mama's Bank Account" and "Anything Can Happen."

BRIDE OF FORTUNE

Kane
A novel about Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who at the age of eighteen shared the life of the man destined to play such an important part in American history. Above all the color and glamor of America in the making, this is the love story of Varina and Jefferson Davis, with the vivid settings of Richmond, Natchez on the river, New Orleans and Washington, the capital.

MAINSRING

Weaver
This book has the sub-title: "The Grassroots Story of Human Progress, What It Means To You and Me and How NOT To Prevent It." It is a condensation of Rose Wilder Lane's "Discovery of Freedom."

A SHORT HISTORY OF RUSSIA

Sumner
Vera M. Dean, authority on Russia, calls this the "best book for Western readers." It studies carefully the country and people, avoiding the usual chronological arrangement of most histories, and is divided according to seven basic influences—the frontier, form of the state, land, church, Slavic race, the sea and the impact of the West.

FAMILY CIRCLE

Skinner
A delightful biography of Otis Maud and Cornelia Skinner, beloved the world over for their place in the American theater. Cornelia, who is telling the tale, brings out the fun and excitement that went along with their daily life. She ends the account at the moment of her debut on the stage.

SIX NEW ENGLAND VILLAGES

Chamberlain
As usual, the Chamberlain photographs are remarkable studies, in this case of Hancock, New Hampshire; Litchfield, Connecticut; Little Compton, Rhode Island; Old Bennington, Vermont; Wiscasset, Maine, and Old Deerfield, Massachusetts. This is a compelling argument for decentralization, the theme of the generation.

Fine Collection Of Gifts At The Irma Beene Shop

The Irma Beene Shop at 8 Main street has so many things you'd like to have and to give for Christmas.

A quilted satin robe in flowered pastel or a solid color would make a welcome gift for anyone. We saw some lovely blouses priced from $2.98 to $10.75, and pretty flowered kerchiefs and scarves which would fit any age, as would the warm gloves and mittens.

Teenagers would be delighted with the real MacTavish plaid visored caps 100 per cent wool.

Childrens umbrellas in gay cotton plaid are only $2.98, and for girls and women, there are beautiful plaid silk umbrellas from $4.98 to $11.98.

The suede and leather handbags at $4.98 plus tax add a fillip to any costume, and there are miniature handbags for little girls.

Gold and silver evening bags and belts are here with all their holiday sparkle.

You may have someone on your list who wants a big baby doll (20") and the dolls are all a little girl could hope for.

We saw new oversnap, roomy billfolds for $3.50 plus tax and novelty billfolds complete with fittings at $1.50 plus tax.

Miss Beene has some nice sewing kits containing black and white thread for the religious orders, and colored ones for the layman.

Very soon, Miss Beene will have a fine assortment of costume jewelry.

For the men—handkerchiefs, ties, umbrellas, and shaving sets.

Shop early and take time to look at this fine collection for Christmas.

Shawsheen Laundry Cleaning Service

The Shawsheen Laundry is noted for its excellent laundry service, and if you haven't tried the cleaning service, you have a pleasant surprise in store.

The one day cleaning service is guaranteed. You can be sure that your best dress, coat or suit will come back on time, looking like new.

Do your rugs, curtains, drapes and other household goods look fresh enough for the Christmas holidays? The Shawsheen Laundry can make those rugs and drapes, or your slipcovers sparkle with cleanliness at a moderate cost, and you'll have so much more time to enjoy the holidays. This is no time to rub, iron or stretch curtains, when Christmas shopping and planning takes so much of your time.

Call the Shawsheen Laundry at Andover 620 this week, and send your heavy things to be cleaned. You'll have a Merry Christmas instead of a weary one.

Legion Preparing For Christmas Party

Lots of fun, plenty to eat, and prizes galore is the promise made by the Legion committee in charge of the annual Christmas party to be held at the post rooms the night of Friday, December 17.

Vice-commander Richard Wrigley is chairman of the committee in charge. Arrangements are being made for an evening of enjoyment with numerous prizes to be awarded during the program.

Proceeds will go toward the many contributions the post sends to veterans in hospitals.

Free Church Notes

The Missionary committee of the Free Christian church has been very busy during the year with its work, including several large boxes of numerous articles, which members solicited and packed for China. This is one of the church projects. Dozens of articles were donated recently for the Pak-a-towel bundles, which were sent to the displaced veterans' project. Now the group is planning a food and rummage sale, to be held at the church at 10 a. m., Saturday, Dec. 11. Donations will be received Friday evening at the church after 6 p. m. The committee includes: Mrs. James Sullivan, chairman; Miss Esther Batchelder, Mrs. Agnes Burdett, Mrs. George Cilley and Mrs. Ina Jowett.

WHIST PARTY

Plans are underway for a whist and domino party to be held at 8 p. m., Friday, Dec. 10, in the I.O.O.F. rooms, and under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and the Rebekah lodge. Many prizes will be awarded, including a door prize. The committee in charge are Mrs. Muriel Fischer and Mr. Ralph Berry. The public is invited.

POST OFFICE HOURS FOR THE HOLIDAY

Postmaster Stephen A. Boland has announced that the local post office will be closed all day Thanksgiving day, Thursday, Nov. 25.

The lobby will be open from 7:30 to 10:30 a. m. and from 4 to 6 p. m. to allow box holders to withdraw mail.

Special delivery mail will be delivered. Collections from street boxes will be made at 4 p. m., and dispatch of outgoing mail will be made at 6 p. m.

Attend Conference Of Women Voters

Several members of the League of Women Voters of Andover attended a two-day meeting held in Boston last week, one of 13 regional conferences in which league leaders all over the country discussed the federal budget and methods of presenting it to the membership for study.

Because of the problems of inflation and the high cost of living, the 1948 national convention of the League of Women Voters of the United States voted to work on "An analysis of federal taxes and expenditures in order to understand and support such fiscal policies as make for a stable domestic economy."

Andover members attending this conference have brought back information which will be used in small local discussion groups later in the year. Members of the Andover League at the meeting were: Mrs. Hart D. Leavitt, chairman of economic policies; Mrs. James Gould, Mrs. Charles White-side, Mrs. Harold Rafton and Mrs. John B. Hawes.

COURT ST. MONICA

Eleven new members from Court St. Monica, C. D. of A., were among those initiated into the organization, Sunday in K. of C. hall, Lawrence, by State Regent Gertrude E. Curry of Belmont and her staff. They were: Miss Monica Coleman, Mary Coupe, Mrs. Nora Flaherty, Mrs. Claire Winters, Mrs. Mary Winters, Mrs. Rita Higgins, Mrs. Marguerite Greenwood, Mrs. Henry Wrigley, Mrs. Ronald Valentine, Mrs. Edna Justice and Mrs. Florence Robertson.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

THANKSGIVING

Today is the day when we give thanks for the blessings that have been ours through the year. By no means is it true that everything has been ideal, and things have run less smoothly for some than for others. But, all in all, there is probably nobody who cannot be — who is not — thankful for something.

We here in America are blessed with freedom, with plenty, with jobs. This nation is prosperous, and when we go to the polls — as we did earlier this month — we vote as we please, and for whom we please. In many countries the people can't do that.

In this country we go to church on Sunday, or we stay at home — just as we please. And when we go to church, we go where we like, and we worship the way we want to worship. In many countries it is not so simple.

In September and October, during the political campaigns, we lined up pretty much into two factions. A lot of people took those campaigns pretty seriously. If Truman should win, it would just be too bad for the country — said the Republicans. And if Dewey won it would have been just as bad for the nation — said the Democrats.

Election day came — the ballots were counted — and we all calmed down, and we know the country is not going to the dogs. We are a united nation. We choose our leaders, and we all accept them. It is not like that in all countries.

Yes, there is much to be thankful for. Very, very much.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

When you read page one notices in the papers about the number of shopping days before Christmas, heed them. They are far more important than you may realize. They mean that, day by day, the time to the year's greatest day is getting less and less. And, as almost everybody shops before Christmas it is only reasonable to think that as the shopping crowds get bigger, the amount of goods on the store counters grows less. It is almost a case of first come, first served.

Of course you may do your Christmas buying any time before December 25, but the best time to do it is NOW!

A TOWN DEPARTMENT SURVEY?

The proposed school building survey here — there is no certainty about it yet — may, if it becomes a reality, grow into something even bigger. It may include a similar study of all town departments.

Such a survey, as we understand it, might not mean that any drastic changes would have to be made; they might not even be recommended. On the other hand, there may be a great many things in need of correction, and the only way to find out whether there are is to look over the entire situation and find out.

Just because a man is physically fit, it does not follow that a complete medical check-up is not advisable every so often. If he has some trouble — some unsuspected trouble, possibly — a complete check will locate it, and it may be possible to take steps to see that things get no worse. If, on the other hand, a man, after a medical examination, learns that there is nothing wrong with him, he has nothing to worry about.

It is the same way with schools, and with town departments. A new building may be needed here or there; some departments might be conducted in a somewhat different way. Or perhaps no changes are needed.

So far as the schools are concerned a study to show population trends, trends in enrollment, birth rates and housing — all considered as worthy of small committee consideration — would certainly do no harm, and it might be most revealing.

Andover is, and always has been, a pretty good town. Its affairs are — and have been — efficiently managed. But there certainly is no harm in trying to make things even a little more shipshape. That is what a survey might do.

Views of The News

shall Plan and the Allied handling of the Ruhr. Time was when a man of ordinary intelligence could boast a nodding acquaintance with international politics. Today he must sometimes feel that only the specialist can understand what is going on. In all probability part of the trouble is that news to be news must be red-hot off the griddle with no background or interpretation of a particular incident.

France Fears Germany

For instance, we thought we were doing pretty well by France in trying to set her back on her feet, but de Gaulle seems to thank us by stating that France "has lived for centuries without the Marshall Plan." Our first reaction is annoyance, but closer examination will show us that de Gaulle fears that Marshall Plan assistance may be used as a weapon to get French support of a Ruhr settlement which thoroughly scares France. And from the French point of view, de Gaulle may have cause to criticize.

France Wants Ruhr Internationalized

What really set him off was the agreement of Britain and the United States to return the coal, steel and iron industries of the Ruhr — the heart of the industrial continent — to German ownership. His is not the first French voice raised in vehement protest. M. Auriol denounced return of the Ruhr to "Hitler's accomplices or a German community" as an "unforgivable mistake" because it exposed Germany's previous victims to the danger of new German aggression. The denunciation is somewhat unreasonable, since the Ruhr is to remain under Allied supervision, and final ownership will ultimately be determined by a freely elected German government and an Allied International Ruhr Authority in which France will participate.

Why Return the Ruhr?

Why is the present action taken? Partly because military control is less effective and efficient than industrial management, and partly because the Germans will get the incentive to speed up production. This would very clearly take some of the load off the United States and Great Britain by having the Ruhr contribute to the recovery of Europe. Furthermore, this action is putting into practice the intention announced in 1945 of leaving Germany with enough resources to enable her to get back on her industrial feet. It must be understood, too, that the Ruhr isn't being turned back unreservedly to the Germans. The British and Americans are no less aware than are the French of the dangers of German resurgence. But, like most political issues, the Ruhr problem is not an open and shut case. The recovery of Germany is essential to the recovery of Western Europe and the success of the Marshall Plan. And if the future of the Ruhr must depend upon de Gaulle's proposition the issue may never be settled. For de Gaulle and other French leaders advocate the separation of the Ruhr under international control of the Big Four. That includes Russia, which has no wish to see the Marshall Plan succeed. Russia would probably be only too glad to see France's proposition accepted. For either way Moscow would stand to win. If Russia wanted above all a say in Western Germany she might agree quickly to terms. If she knew that she couldn't get her terms accepted, she'd probably follow her pattern of past performance and prevent a solution of the issue. In the meantime the cause of European recovery would be halted.

France Doubts International Defense

Why don't the French appreciate this? It must be said that they have cause to remember three German invasions across their borders in sixty-five years, with their dreadful toll in men and national wealth. The French, and perhaps only the French, realized in 1920 the threat of future invasion which haunted them and

What Our Readers Say —

"EXPENSIVE GOVERNMENT"

To the Editor of the Townsman: Your editorial November 18 on "Expensive Government" quoted an instance where a request by a citizen for a transfer of funds from abroad consumed the equivalent of thirty days of one person's time, on government pay. Part of the pay was provided by the people who live in Andover, and those Americans who live elsewhere provided the rest of it. In your editorial you ask if we may expect some relief from such foolishness.

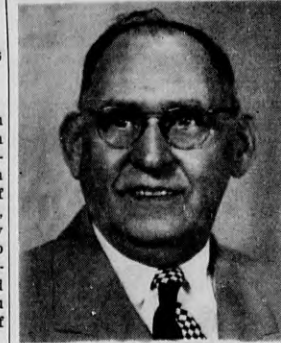

If you are asking me, I'd say that we probably may not. If a private business under the sinful profit system paid each of its employees a month's wages for taking care of one letter per month, you really could expect a change pretty promptly but under government operation, ask yourself if it is reasonable to expect that much will ever be done about it, and ask yourself if anything but a profit system will ever take care of such waste.

Those who question the profit system and who applaud the government action on this, that and the other, may be saying that if the United Steel corporation is so selfishly and badly managed that it cannot afford to pay splendid wages we should all look forward to government operation of the steel plants for the benefit of all Americans rather than for the benefit of the few. Ask yourself if government steel plants will be worrying too much about a month's wages for taking care of one letter per month.

which materialized almost to the year which Foch predicted. But the United States has learned its lesson, and knows that Western union must become a reality. Perhaps the French are haunted by the suspicion that the United States will give to Western union no more than moral support. That fear we can appreciate if we see the European situation through French eyes staring across an imaginary but very present border. But can't exist without it. But for de Gaulle to denounce the Marshall Plan and to demand that western defense be split under three independent leaders with a French general in command of French forces is to demonstrate a strait-jacket mentality. France cannot defend herself against invasion. That is a fact, palatable or not. No one can guarantee France or Britain against invasion. But the best and only hope for France, in the event of conflict, is a united France, a strong economic Western Europe, and the power and resources of the United States to back them up. Obviously France has lived for centuries without the Marshall Plan. But times are very much changed and most obviously France won't last long without the Marshall Plan and many other implementations of international cooperation. France cannot afford to go along her own road alone. Charles de Gaulle must recognize this if he is ever to become an effective leader of his country.

Mr. Elander is married and has one daughter, May.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago—Nov., 1898
First snow falls November 24. A tally-ho party of Harvard students comes to Andover from Cambridge and makes merry here.

We say: "Quite a few local football enthusiasts rejoice over Harvard's victory over Yale. While Andover naturally sympathizes with Yale there is a strong sentiment at Phillips Academy nowadays in favor of the Crimson."

"It is reported that eventually the Boston & Maine railroad will abandon the Lowell Junction branch and build a double track on the Salem branch which passes through Wilmington Junction."

The Y. P. C. E. society of the Free church elects these officers: Charles Richardson, president; John C. Angus, vice president; Addie Cox, secretary; Nellie Russell, treasurer.

The firemen have their 27th annual ball. From our news columns: "A false alarm was rung in Saturday night from Ballardvale. The watchman at the Bradley Mills made a mistake in the hour and rang the mill bell at 8 o'clock instead of 9. Some one thought there was a fire and pulled in the alarm."

Also from our news columns: "Box 46 rang in for an alarm at 11:30 this forenoon for a slight blaze in Walter Buck's house on School street. It was quite a while before the apparatus got under way, the horses being at a distance. In order to get the horse carriage out Tuttle's express horses were called into service." Incidentally, the fire was all out when the firemen got there!

REPORT from the State House

By SEN. PHILIP K. ALLEN

In discussing the Department of Mental Health last week, we were concerned primarily with the inner workings of the department. There are two additional services in which the Department of Mental Health offers within the Commonwealth.

First of all, there are the so-called community services. These community services are aimed to minimize the number of those who have to be separated from their families and from work to be hospitalized for mental illness and which also aim to reduce the number of those who might have to return for hospital care after discharge. Approximately one million dollars is expended annually from all sources both public and private in Massachusetts for these community services in mental health.

Under the provisions of the national mental act, the U. S. Department of Public Health nearly $100,000 annually for these services. The state's contribution is approximately $600,000.

Under the direction of the Department of Mental Health during the past year 44 community clinics have been maintained. The demand for these community services cannot be answered by existing facilities. Nearly twice as many requests for these services are received as can be handled. With the help of the U. S. Public Health service, however, the department has been able to expand certain of these services during the past year. For Ella Holt of Maple avenue announces a Christmas sale of Oriental goods from Shanghai, China. James Dugan of Maple avenue leaves for California and plans to stop off in Chicago on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson of Summer street move into the house in Allen court recently vacated by Ivan Steadman and family.

The Retail Merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce meets, but no business is transacted because of the absence of a quorum. Miss Martha Smith of Elm street purchases from Frank Buttrick a house lot on the Lock estate, fronting on Walnut avenue.

James Keefe, a night watchman at the Tyer Rubber company, catches his foot in a pump and is held prisoner for more than an hour before he is released.

Henry Pomeroy is named a permanent fireman.

About 90 local residents likely to have their automobile registrations suspended for non-payment of excise taxes.

Announcement is made that James C. Sawyer, treasurer of Phillips Academy since 1901, will retire the following July 1.

Anent Thanksgiving, we say, editorially, "Well, it's your own fault you knew you shouldn't have eaten so much, anyway." Punched High ends its football season with an 18-0 victory over Johnson High.

Report From The State House

example, the department has been able to assist certain overloaded clinics for emotionally disturbed children resulting in the handling of an increased case load and in a reduction of the waiting time for treatment. In many instances previously, children had to wait for a month before they could be given psychiatric care.

The department also gives regular psychiatric advisory service in four of the major courts which deal with juvenile delinquency cases. In addition, the department provides part time training in new methods for general practitioners in small communities. Plans for next year call for advisory and treatment clinics on a part time basis in several towns in connection with the local nursing services and public school systems, part time advisory service to the Boston juvenile court, and the establishment of public clinics for alcoholics in our large general, non-profit hospitals. In other words the department plans to expand community service at a workable level into every community in the Commonwealth in a most needed and worthy program.

In the second place, the department maintains advanced teaching and training activities and research. For example, advanced training is given to medical students and residents in the hospitals supervised by the department. Also allied nurses, occupational therapists, social service workers, and others are given advance study in these hospitals. In addition many research projects of great potential value are being carried on but suffer, as do the other functions of the Department of Mental Health from a severe shortage of personnel.

As a kind of summing up of the whole situation within the Department of Mental Health, it is felt by the writer of this column that only through an informed and vocal public can we hope for necessary improvements in our handling of the mentally ill, and for essential additions to the various staffs.

Andover Orchestra Presents Fall Concert

The players assembling in groups to perform chamber music either just for fun or to prepare for public performance in concert and over the air.

A trio consisting of Frances Magoon, violin, Mrs. Anthony Lacey, cello, and Mrs. Roger Higgins, piano, will play a half hour of music over WCCM, at 2:05 p. m., next Sunday. And beginning at the same hour Sunday, Dec. 5, the same station will broadcast weekly throughout the winter of music played by the orchestra's own string quartet.

On Wednesday, Nov. 24th, the orchestra's bi-weekly program at 10:30 a. m. was given over WCCM by Mrs. Theodore E. Ward, manager. These alternate Wednesday programs will also continue throughout the winter in a series of broadcasts designed to increase the listener's enjoyment of music.

Early in the spring the full orchestra plans to assemble again in time to prepare and perform a spring concert.

Students Broadcast

On Friday morning at 10:30 "I Thank Thee" a Thanksgiving story will be broadcast over radio station WCCM. This play is based on a poem by John Greenleaf Whittier entitled "The Witch's Daughters." Those taking part are: narrator, Eleanor Goff; Prudence, Dorothy Blasting; Mable, Claire Dumont; Lucy, Lucille Spinella; a woman's voice, Claire Grasse; David, Raymond Skea; Josiah, Robert McCabe; Esek, Arthur Rehe; minister, Calvin Hatch; a man's voice, Murray Abbott. Sound effects and music are in charge of Katherine Anderson. All the members of the cast are students in the ninth grade in the Junior High school. Goldsmith Speaking Contest

Two students have been chosen from each grade to take part in the Goldsmith speaking contest to be held December 9 as school assembly. Those chosen were: seniors, Dorothy Christie and Russel Doyle; juniors, Anne Marie Murray and Donald Mudgett; sophomores, Nancy Adams and Clifford Lawrence.

Notes

Joyce Demers, a senior, was recently chosen to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution good citizenship award.

The annual football game between Punchard and Johnson High schools will be played on the Andover Playstead Thursday, Thanksgiving day. The kick-off will be at 10:15 a. m.

Central PTA Organizes Third Dancing Class

Enrollment for the dancing classes sponsored by the Central PTA has become so large that three classes have been organized. All will be held in the Junior High school music room at 3:15 the days indicated. Registration is now closed.

Class 1, which will meet Dec. 2, is for fifth and sixth grade students, and will include tap, classic, and skate dancing. Mrs. Henry J. Dolan will assist.

Class 2 will meet Dec. 3, and is for girls of the first and second grades and kindergarten. Folk dancing will be taught. Mrs. James Hart, Mrs. Richard Pippit and Mrs. Norman Stein will assist.

Class 3 will be for boys of the first and second grades, and boys and girls of third and fourth grades. It will include tap, classic, and skate dancing. Mrs. Gilbert Cate will assist. Miss Shirley Novack of North Andover will be the dancing instructor.

SPANISH COURSE

At present, the number of questionnaires registering interest in the Beginner's Spanish course is too small to guarantee the offering of such a course in the early part of the new year. Those who mean to register are urged to express their interest as soon as possible, as the classes are now being selected. A large number of returns show that Plato's Republic is to be even more popular than last year's discussion of 'Thucydides' Peloponnesian Wars, also led by Alston Chase.

Andover Girls Enrolled At Simmons' College

Among the students who have recently completed registration for the year at Simmons' college are the following Andover young women:

Edith LeRoy Ambye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony L. Ambye of 12 Fletcher street, a member of the sophomore class in the school of science.

Jane Carol Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Black of 6 Washington avenue, a member of the freshman class, who prepared for college at Punchard High school.

Jane Alma Draper, and Joan Frances Draper, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Draper of 27 Bartlett street, members of the freshman class who prepared at Punchard High school.

Marie Agatha Galvagna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orazio Galvagna of 213 Massachusetts avenue, North Andover, also a freshman and a graduate of Johnson High school.

Maryrose A. Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Jordan of 7 Argyle street, a graduate student in the school of home economics who previously attended Boston University.

Barbara Ruth Shulze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton E. Shulze of Carisbrooke street, a member of the freshman class who prepared at Abbot Academy.

Lois Valpey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. R. Valpey of 21 Chapin road, North Andover, a senior in the school of science.

Carolyn Marguerite White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. White of 33 Washington avenue, a member of the freshman class who prepared at Punchard High school.

Jocelyn Ann White, sister of Carolyn, junior in the school of English.

Marjorie Ann Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weeks of 66 Chestnut street, a sophomore in the school of retailing.

Academy To Present Lecture on Theatre

Gerard Willem Van Loon, lecturer and ardent devotee of stagecraft, will speak on "The Theatre: Showcase of Democracy" at George Washington hall, Phillips Academy, Friday, Dec. 3 at 8:15. The lecture is open to the public.

The son of the late Henrik Willem Van Loon, famed German artist, he combines the talents of actor, playwright and drama critic

PROPOSED STUDY COURSES

Among the courses offered for consideration by the people of Andover and near-by communities, to be given at the Memorial Hall library, one is already drawing interest and questions. This is the course in Personality and Personal Appearance, which could be included in those given in the early part of the new year if enough interest is registered.

Maud Preston, stylist and personality authority, would be the lecturer. Educated in England and America, she has followed an intriguing chain of experiences from the House of Worth, and Harrods in London, from which she visited Mainbocher, Molyneux, Schiaparelli, Boulanger, Patou, etc., to the United States as a woman's buyer and personally consultant in American specialty shops. She reveals to her listeners the personal tricks of dress, voice and carriage that can make each one a woman of greater charm and individual loveliness.

This course is one of several appearing for consideration on the questionnaire now available at the library. Others listed are: Beginner's Spanish, Homemaker's Course, Pencil Sketching, Flower Arranging, Great Issues, How to Use a Library Effectively, Plato's Republic and Music Appreciation. Persons interested in these courses are asked to contact the library as soon as possible to aid in the final selection of courses.

PARENTS' NIGHT

Troop 72 of the Free church held a parents' night Friday evening, Nov. 19. In spite of the rain a good attendance served to inspire and encourage the boys. The program started with the lights out and a spotlight focused on the flag of the United States of America with a fan simulating a breeze to ripple the flag as if actually flying from a flag pole. Star Scout Thomas Burnett recited "The Star-Spangled Banner" during the opening ceremony.

The Rev. Bevering Reynolds, Jr., then played the piano with all the parents and scouts joining in the singing. Star Scout William Hood then led the audience in general singing of Camp Onway songs.

Demonstrations by the Scout troop were next on the program and Star Scout Calvin Hatch announced that the Bear and Arrow patrols would demonstrate the proper technique of tying the knee, head, hand, and arm sling bandages. In judging this contest, Troop Committeeman Merrill Burnett pointed out that speed is not the goal, but that neatness and accuracy are the important factors. The Arrow and Bear patrols also gave a demonstration of knot tying under the direction of Committeeman Howard Johnson. The Schwarzenberg twins then gave an exhibition of Morse signaling and their fine work showed what can be done by boys willing to try under proper leadership.

Scoutmaster David MacCord of Troop 72, requested parents of the following boys to present them with their well-earned badges of advancement: Thomas Merrick and David Lloyd, tenderfoot; Leo Ruel, second class; Allan and Arthur Schwarzenberg, first class; Russell Johnson, William Hood, Calvin Hatch, star scout; cooking merit badge to Thomas Burnett, William Hood, and Russell Johnson; public health merit badge to Thomas Burnett, William Hood, and Calvin Hatch.

A scout film depicting the growth of a boy from infancy to a young man taking his place in the world was shown by George Glennie. This film emphasizes the influence of the Boy Scouts of America on a boy and its aid to his home life. Mr. Glennie also showed a movie of camp life at Camp Onway. The program concluded with Scoutmaster MacCord thanking the Free church and the troop committeemen for their splendid cooperation and efforts in behalf of the boys. Refreshments were served by the scouts.

Give Demonstration On Baby Bathing

An interesting demonstration on baby bathing was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Burke and son, Jimmy, before a class on child care at Marietta college, Marietta, Ohio, last week.

Mrs. Burke, the former Jane West of 98 Chestnut street, a registered nurse, did the bathing. Baby Jimmy submitted with many smiles and gurgles, while Daddy James provided moral support. Two men besides Burke are in the class of 28 members. Burke, a veteran, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Burke of 383 Main street. Mrs. Burke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myles West and trained at the Lawrence General hospital. Both are graduates of Pynchard High school.

MT. HOLOKE CLUB

The Mt. Holyoke club of Andover and Lawrence met Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. James S. Eastham, Bartlett street, with 18 members present. Mrs. George Sanborn presided.

Mrs. Sanborn spoke of the plans for completing the quota to be raised in this district for the two million dollar campaign for the college. Miss Marion Barker, co-chairman, of Lawrence, also spoke. Mrs. Sanborn introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Franklin T. Bigelow of Andover, newly elected trustee of Mt. Holyoke. Mr. Bigelow gave a very clear picture of the work of the financial committee of the trustees.

Tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. Eastham. Miss Harriet Partridge of Lawrence poured.

Christmas Books

The Memorial Hall library radio talk given at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday, November 30 over station WCCM will be on the subject of books for Christmas gifts.

The idea behind the program, which is an interview conducted by Mrs. Lathrop Merrick, asking the questions commonly brought to the library, and Miss Margaret Lane, Young People's librarian, is that books are not necessarily too expensive for Christmas giving, and can be chosen with an eye to illustration, print, binding and the all important literary value.

ASSEMBLY

A Thanksgiving program was presented Wednesday morning which featured singing by a chorus of about 20 girls, under the direction of Mrs. Miriam McArdle. The president, Raeburn Hathaway, read the governor's proclamation. The Rev. John S. Moses was the speaker.

The members of the chorus were:

Grade 7—Betsy Sparks, Isabel Waidie, Norma Howard, Gail Thompson, Ann Sughrue, Maxine Wainwright.

Grade 8—Marilyn Early, Sandra Guertin, Marion Campbell, Sidney Tavern, Lucille Sherry.

Grade 9—Virginia Lees, JoAnn Durling, Betty Stevens, Anita Teller, Ruth Denholm, Eileen Skeirik, Ruth Weamer, Felice Pomerleau.

An interesting assembly was held sixth period, Wednesday, to observe "Book Week." President Raeburn Hathaway introduced Miss Margaret Lane of the Memorial Hall Library who was in charge of the program. Miss Lane, in turn, introduced the chief speaker, Thomas Curtis. Mr. Curtis, known as the "Book Explorer," reviewed some of the outstanding books of the year for children of Junior High school age.

Two movies were shown during Assembly period Friday, with Benjamin Dimlich in charge. One was a cartoon, entitled "Scotty Finds a Home." The second, entitled "Story of the Polar Regions," gave an interesting account of the life in both the North Pole and Antarctica.

Tuesday, Nov. 23, Dr. William Emmons started testing eyes of all the seventh grade pupils. He will be in the Junior High school Tuesday and Friday mornings, second and third periods, until Christmas.

The Junior High collected $26.42 in membership fees for the Junior Red Cross. Of this 50 cents per room were dues to national headquarters and part also was sent to the National Children's fund.

An interesting art exhibit was held Tuesday, Nov. 16, from 8:15 to 1 o'clock. Many students visited the art room to view the work on display.

The clothing drive for needy children ended Wednesday. The Junior High pupils have generously brought in many bundles of clothing.

The regular meeting of the Student Council for Monday was canceled.

Mrs. Anna Walsh met with the financial committee of the dance committee during last period Monday. She is meeting with the individual committees instead of the dance committee as a whole.

Monday the ninth grade college gym classes were shown a film on the Pynchard-Methuen game, played Armistice Day.

Several members of the Junior High faculty, Miss Anni Angelo, Miss Angie Dantos, and Miss Evelyn Parker, are being given driving lessons by Owen Hinckley in the Pynchard High school driving car.

Each week a pickup squad from one of the homerooms is in charge of improving the condition of the school grounds by picking up all pieces of paper that are scattered around.

"With a GE Automatic Dishwasher, it is a real holiday for the whole family, with no dishwashing or drying for anyone! GE has made this the best Thanksgiving we've ever had!"

This Thanksgiving, enjoy your dinner, put your dirty dishes into the GE Dishwasher, and spend the rest of the day relaxing with your friends and family. No mess, no fuss, no dishpan hands—every day can be a holiday with a GE Dishwasher in your kitchen.

Ask the Family That Owns One

Then, ask for a demonstration at your GE retailer's. Inquire about convenient budget terms. You'll be surprised and delighted!

1. SCRAPE THE DISHES. That's all you do to prepare them for the G-E Automatic Dishwasher. Even dishes with age or grease need no special treatment.

2. LOAD THE DISHWASHER. Place the dishes uniformly in the two stationary trays. A special, easily removable basket is provided for the silverware.

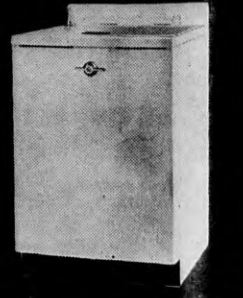

3. ADD DETERGENT. Fill the detergent cup. A waterless detergent—Galginate—is recommended for use in the General Electric Automatic Dishwasher.

4. TURN THE CONTROL. The dishwasher starts automatically. The dishes are washed and rinsed, and then the cover opens to allow them to dry.

DISHES ARE WASHED CLEAN. At the end of the dishwashing cycle, the motor stops, the cover rises automatically, and the dishes dry by evaporation.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F.

One vital issue of affairs that makes little the average citizen is that of aid to China, a confusion highlighted by Madam Kai-shek's self-invitation to the United States. We cannot get a clear picture of States policy towards the for our government prohibiting an off-and-on towards the Chiang regime. If we knew policy is supposed to be really stand for in China we support whatever proposed to support, better arrive at an understanding of the problem. Our seems to resemble a mouth charity aroused sympathy for an uncertainty, based on no real appreciation of the circumstances. We don't know we are merely doomed life or are real the patient back to surround Chiang with vigorous leadership and yet we have strong suspicion he is far from complete he is a thoroughgoing Does China Want China? The picture is made obscure by the present communists. If we support wonder whether we are aring our money down a drain, and we aren't China's people want what he stands for leave him to his own
