VIEWS OF THE NEWS

BY LEONARD F. JAMES

Most of the speculation about the meaning of Vishinsky's promotion to Russian foreign secretary was wasted wordage. The breathless hope that the change indicated a lessening in the cold war was doubtless wishful thinking. Why assume that suddenly the Kremlin has a change of heart? Why assume that the personality of any Russian servant would be allowed full play? Orders are orders, and the Kremlin gives them.

Molotov or Vishinsky—No Difference

True enough, there have been foreign ministers such as Litvinov appointed at a time when Russia's foreign policy took the line of "co-operation" with the League of Nations. Russia was merely putting up a "front man" who spoke for a particular policy at a given moment. Vishinsky is another front man, and a tough one at that. If anything, his past record should indicate a calculated policy of vitu-

Punchard Wins Class C Hoop Title

Punchard High's fast stepping basketball team climaxed a great season Saturday by winning the Class C title in the Eastern Massachusetts Schoolboy basketball tournament staged at the Boston Garden.

To do this Coach McKinlry's "Swish Kids" had to rise to inspired heights in two of its three games, winning the first on two free tries after the final whistle had sounded, and clinching victory in the third in a three-minute overtime period. The second game was Punchard all the way after the first few moments of play.

All members of the team shared in the honors that went with capturing the championship crown in their class of the annual Tech. tournament.

The first and third games of the tournament were thrillers all the way with the outcome in doubt right down to the last seconds. In

TOWN MEETING APPROPRIATES $1,042,981

Indicates $3 Or $4 Raise In Tax Rate

Large Gathering Told Financial Condition Of Town Is Good

A town meeting that packed the Memorial auditorium Monday night voted a new high in appropriations when it approved $973,662.99 for departmental budgets and $69,318.01 for items under the special articles, a total of $1,042,981. This is $37,387.43 more than was appropriated a year ago.

To the sum voted Monday night must be added the $40,731.20 appropriated at special town meetings last year which makes a total of $1,083,712.20 directly affecting the tax rates.

This is an increase of $78,118.63 over last year and indicates an increase of $3 to $4 in the tax rate which is now $34.

Some of the larger increases voted at the meeting included sums for welfare work, an increase in the budgets of the police and fire departments to include sums for additional men deemed in the reduction of hours for members of both services, and an appropriation of $316,244 to the school department.

Recommendations of the finance committee and the Andover Taxpayers' association that future water extensions be made under

HOURS OF POLICE, FIREMEN REDUCED

Voters Decide In Favor Of Shorter Week For Both

Requests of the police and firemen for shorter hours were granted Monday night when the town meeting decided that their work-week would be cut.

Reduction of the hours for policemen from 48 to 40 came during a discussion of the police budget when it was voted to give the department an appropriation that included $6750 for three additional men, the number necessary to put the change into effect. This will be made effective soon.

The firemen's hours were shortened from 70 to 56 by adoption of Article 11 to establish the hours so that the average weekly hours of duty "other than the hours during which such members may be summoned and kept on duty because of conflagration" shall not exceed 56.

When this proposal came before the meeting Mr. Hardy said: "I just wish to explain what that will mean in connection with the fire department appropriation which amounts to $63,612.

"If this is passed it will mean an addition of four men to the fire department. It cannot take effect until July 1, 1949. This vote will mean that the pay must be increased $1400 for each additional man or for the last half of this year $5600. For a full year

Sewer Rate Abatement Coming To Abutters

Protests of Pine and Elm streets abutters against the new sewer assessment rate of 100 percent fell upon responsive ears at the town meeting Monday night with the result that some form of abatement will be forthcoming.

Long and vigorous protests against the bills they have received for the new sewers, bills that were topped by one of $5000 and others of $1137.78, $1083.65, $415.38, $210.70, made their impression on other taxpayers at the meeting but an agreement on the proposed action did not come until many had their say on the subject.

As a result of a prolonged debate the meeting voted to accept a motion of Charles C. Kimball of the Andover Taxpayers' association that the question be referred to the committee on water and supply and the town counsel for study, with an amendment by Roland H. Sherman that the com-

Renovations Made At Police Station

The once drab and dreary interior of the three-room Andover police station in the town house has taken on a new appearance in the past few weeks under the combined efforts of painters, carpenters, glaziers, sign painters and cleaners.

The former dark and dingy headquarters of the town constabulary now glitters with its new dress of pastel green, the old iron grating atop the counter has been replaced with glass, new furniture has been added to the public space, the office has been rearranged, the squad room renovated, and the office of the chief equipped with a new steel desk and modernized leather chairs.

The new chairs and desk were furnished by members of the department and Chief Dane. The relief association donated funds for the chairs and half the cost of the desk. Chief Dane furnishing the other half.

In all, the various rearrangements will aid the efficiency of the department and the renovations furnish much more pleasant surroundings for the public and members of the department.

Water Line Breaks In Bed of River

Sections of the town were without water pressure for a short time Wednesday morning when a break occurred in the 16-inch water line in the bed of the Shawshen river at Central street. Normal pressure was restored in an hour.

This is the line that runs down through Reservation road where a break occurred in the 16-inch water line in the bed of the Shawshen river at Central street. Normal pressure was restored in an hour.

The break Wednesday came about 8:50 a. m. As soon as the eruption in the water of the Shawshen was noted by board of public works employees, that section of the system was shut off. This was shortly after 9 o'clock.

As soon as the leakage was stopped the pressure started building up in the system from its other lines.

A coffer dam was thrown about the cracked section and repair work started. Supt. Edward R. Lawson said that a preliminary examination of the damage and surroundings led to the belief that a large stone near there had become loosened and rolled onto the pipe causing the crack.

The line, which crosses the bed of the river at this point, was built in 1946.

See Eve Method Of Resuscitation

A large gathering of Andover Service club members witnessed an interesting demonstration of the Eve method of resuscitation at their meeting in the Andover Inn last Thursday night.

Walter E. Buxton, first vice president, presided at the dinner session and read a message from the president, Frank L. Brigham, who is on a business trip to Ohio. The Rev. Fr. Henry B. Smith of St. Augustine's church offered the blessing. Drawing for the free dinner was won by Granville A. Clark.

The program was in charge of Dr. Nathaniel Stowers, chairman of the community service committee. With a reference to the happy acquaintance between "the Hill, the Till and the Mill," he introduced John M. Kemper, headmaster of Phillips academy.

mittie report to the board of public works within six months and that the board of public works be advised that it is the opinion of this meeting that they grant abatements to bring the assessments in line with the rates of this committee.

The whole matter appeared to be somewhat complicated and brought various expressions of opinion about the way rates should be apportioned.

The question came up under Article 41 "to see if the town will vote to redetermine the assessment rate fixed for sewer assessments in accordance with Chapter 386, Acts of 1895 and determine what charge will be made to the abutters for the construction of sewers as provided by Chapter 52, Acts of 1948, on petition of Frederick P. Fitzgerald and others."

Mr. Kimball made his motion to refer it to a committee for study and to report at the next annual town meeting.

"For the purpose of the meeting," he said, "I find that I will have to go into history."

"For many years the town operated under an act of the legislature which I think was passed sometime in 1898, the gist of which was that in installing sewers the town would pay one-quarter of the cost and the abutter would pay three-quarters.

The one-quarter paid by the town was understood to take care of the cost of installation.

"Payment of cost was assessed on abutters at the actual cost of the sewer by the abutters' rate. For many years the board of public works said the cost of installing the sewer was $1.10 per running foot for each abutter on each side of the street. The cost was established before 1900 when costs were only a fraction, one-quarter or one-third of what they are today, but that rule was held by the town and the boards of public works before the present one, for many years. The board did not recognize that costs had increased."

Mr. Kimball went on to say that the rule was changed. The people did not know of this change and it came to them as a terrible shock that they had to pay the actual cost of the sewer.

"Imagine their surprise when they found they had to pay on the average of $3 per running foot. These people have been negotiating with the board of public works to see what could be done about this situation and the abutters are responsible for bringing in the article that appears in the warrant."

"The problem is for the future. We wish to determine what is the best policy for the town of Andover to pursue and it cannot be done here at this meeting."

He felt that without further study it would be unwise for the meeting to say exactly what the rate should be.

"Even if this motion is turned down," he went on, "there is nothing that can be done here at this meeting. It has turned into a controversy between the abutters and the board of public works. We wish to see done that which is best practically, financially and legally."

Mr. Fitzgerald said that the human aspects of the case should be considered. He felt that it was not a complex problem. He introduced a number of bills for assessments and added the people are given 10 years to pay this money at the rate of four percent. He felt that if Mr. Kimball's motion was carried the abutters would be paying four percent interest for the years waiting for a decision.

"I want the matter settled tonight and I would like to see this motion defeated."

Raymond G. Mowatt said that the board of public works "has had enough time to study the question without us paying another four percent for further study."

During the discussion that followed it was shown that assessments varied from $1.91 to $3.98 and that the assessment on Burnham and Dutton roads would be over $3.

One speaker said he got a bill for $3.98 a foot and he already had sewerage.

A suggestion was made that a sliding scale of $1.50 to $2 be established and question was raised concerning the cost of the sewer on Chestnut street compared with the high cost of one on Dutton Road.

Mr. Mowatt said he was willing to pay a fair price for the sewer but on his end of the street the work was done in two and a half days and it was further up that workmen ran into a ledge.

Mr. O'Connell remarked that the rate should be adjusted as a matter of simple justice to those people.

A suggestion was made that an abatement on the basis of $2 a foot be granted.

Mr. Kimball remarked that the various speakers had shown the difficulties of the problem and that his motion was to act for the best future interests of the town.

Mr. Sherman asked whether the assessments were due and payable when the sewer is put in or upon the abutters entering the sewer, to which Mr. White replied that it was taxable upon installation.

Mr. Lewis said there is another angle, and asked if institutions were also assessed.

Mr. Hardy explained that there are only two cases, as decided by the courts, where assessments were not levied. "Cemeteries cannot be assessed," he said, much to the amusement of the crowd, "and any government body higher than the town (such as county, state, federal government) cannot be assessed."

Mr. Brimer reminded the meeting that the motion proposed by Mr. Kimball is for the future. "For the present," he said, "this meeting cannot change the rate."

Mr. Kimball added that is what we want, a fair rate for the future.

Mr. O'Connell suggested an amendment that it is the sense of this community that an abatement be made for the Pine, Elm street and Burnham road residents.

Mr. Sherman then made his amendment to Mr. Kimball's motion so that the question was referred for further study and the board of public works advised that it is the opinion of the meeting that an abatement be granted in line with the assessment rates determined by the committee making the study.

Hours Of Police, Firemen Reduced By Voters

after the full rate of wages has been adopted it will cost approximately $12,000 a year."

William C. Coutts, member of the fire department and one of the sponsors of the petition, said "We are now working 70 hours a week and we are trying to pull it down in line with other departments."

No other speakers were heard and when the motion was put it was carried.

When the police department budget came up for consideration Mr. Hardy made a motion that $55,213.14 be appropriated, this to include $2800 from parking meter returns made available as of Monday, and $36.16 in unpaid bills.

Roland H. Sherman said that he would like to offer an amendment. The police department is now on a six-day week, and his amendment would be that the sum of $61,963.14 be appropriated to include $6,750 more, the sum needed for three additional men to put a five-day week into effect. This would give the police department an opportunity to have their request for a five-day week acted upon by the town.

The hours of work and the compensation of the police are matters for the selectmen to decide, but they can only make such changes as the budget permits.

When asked from the floor when such a change in hours would go into effect, if the meeting voted the money, Mr. Hardy said that it would go into effect as soon as practicable to put the five-day week in force as the board would follow the instructions of the town meeting.

John F. O'Connell suggested that action be postponed until after discussion of Article 11, which had not come up at that time.

In answer to Andrew Collins whether the selectmen could grant the reduction without vote of the town meeting Mr. Hardy said they can spend only the amount of money the town meeting votes for the police department.

Wallace Brimer said that nothing has been heard of the hours per week and asked that instead of a five-day week of eight hours a day it might be possible to arrange a five-day week at nine hours a day.

Mr. Hardy said that this possibility had been discussed with members of the department but the police were positive it could not be done.

The amendment offered by Mr. Sherman was put to a vote and carried. Later the motion to appropriate $61,963.14 for the police department was made and carried.

Appointments to the police department are expected to be made soon. The selectmen will first obtain an eligible list from the civil service department.

On the reserve list at present are: Alfred Robb, 98 N. Main st., Raymond Collins, Franklin ave., Russell H. Berthel, 172 Elm st., Warren A. Maddox, River rd.

Appointments to the fire department will be made from a list established by a state-wide civil service examination to be held May 28. The last day for filing applications for this examination is May 8.

Mr. Kemper referred to the associations between "the Town and the Gown" which he felt the academy was fostering through various channels such as the adult evening study program, the several concerts and lectures at the academy to which the public is invited. He hoped the pleasant relations would be continued and expressed his pleasure at being in such a fine town as Andover and enjoying the many acquaintances made here.

In introducing the main speaker of the evening Dr. Stowers said that in the early part of the Battle of Britain rescuers were only saving three out of 10 aviators they pulled out of the water. This was under the prone method of resuscitation.

The British government learned of Dr. Eve and the rocking method he used for resuscitation. They adopted the Eve method and found that through it seven out of 10 were saved.

It was then Charles Eaton of Methuen learned about it and is now creating, developing and designing apparatus to carry out the Eve method.

Mr. Eaton said that the method was not new, and that Dr. Eve had been working on it since 1937. Mr. Eaton became interested and saw that what was needed was a light and simple apparatus that a layman could use. He worked on this idea and now has the only patented apparatus for applying the rocking method.

This was shown. When put together it appeared to be a metal frame somewhat like a wooden horse about three feet high to which a stretcher can be attached and rocked like a see-saw.

Two members of the fire department, Woodrow Crowley and George Williams, who had not seen the apparatus before, put it together. With Mr. Williams strapped to the stretcher the speaker started the rocking method to show how it built up circulation in a few minutes.

Later, Dr. Stowers was the "victim" while Donald D. Dunn and the two firemen aided in the demonstration.

Mr. Eaton said that the apparatus could be used for smoke inhalation, gas inhalation, electric shock or drowning. He said it does three things; ventilates the lungs, circulates blood and treats for shock.

Town Meeting Appropriates $1,042,981: Taxes To Rise

a long-range plan rather than voting upon each one separately at the town meeting were adopted.

Special articles in the warrant calling for extensions which would cost about $80,000 were considered under Article 5 for which $20,000 was appropriated. This provides that expenditures for extensions be made under supervision of the board of public works, the board of selectmen and the finance committee. It met with some opposition but persons now seeking such extensions were advised to present their petitions to the board of public works.

The meeting voted to repair the whistle at the central fire station and to install a new one at Ballardvale; it voted to repair the bridge at Ballardvale rather than spend $30,000 for a new one; rejected the recommendation of the Nathan C. Hamblin memorial committee to dedicate a room in Pynchard High school to his memory, and voted instead to raise funds by public subscription for a scholarship to be awarded in his name.

placed and which would last for years.

Mr. Hardy explained increases sought in public welfare were due to increased loads and increased costs, and that similar conditions applied to the infirmity.

School Budget

Discussing the increase in the school department budget Gordon L. Colquhoun, chairman of the school committee, said that the increases were $1930 for books and supplies; $5575 for general repairs; fuel, transportation and tuition $3423; reserve for Boxford expense $3500; salaries, $4575; and annual step-up merit increases and additional teachers, $11,376, a total of $30,380.

Charles C. Kimball of the taxpayers' association said at this point: "It has been my privilege to sit with the school committee on various occasions during the year. They have worked on this budget with two conflicting things in mind; one, to give the town a fine school system; two, to keep the taxes low."

Mr. Kimball said he believed the committee had done a splendid job and added, "I think we should vote this appropriation immediately." The motion was carried.

Moving on to Article 5 a motion was put to consider several water extension articles with it. Kenneth A. Thompson said he did not wish to see these articles taken up collectively because he feared that the individual claims of the petitioners would not be heard. He felt Article 5 should be laid over until further in the meeting to give folks a chance to have discussions on their requests for installations.

He said that in regard to Article 33, (to run 1550 feet of water line on Gould road) there were five houses out there with 18 people living in them and also a poultry business.

A Mr. Lewis opposed taking up the articles collectively on the grounds that $20,000 for extensions was inadequate.

Arthur Lewis asked what the water department had earned last year. Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of public works said the cost to maintain the system was $49,900 and the receipts $64,500. Mr. Lewis said that the figures showed a profit and it would be a good thing if we extended this department which is paying its way and more.

Mr. Hardy called attention to the maintenance of the department and said there were more expenses facing it.

Joseph A. McCarthy said that the town's present water system is practically at its limit right now. Mr. Hardy added that in the past four years $329,000 was spent in expanding and repairing the system.

It was voted to appropriate $20,000 under Article 5 for extensions but no work to be started until approved by a majority of the board, the selectmen and finance committee.

Fire Whistle

When the request for a new whistle at the Ballardvale fire station came up, Mrs. Redding inquired if it would be like the one at the central station and Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan explained that it would not be so loud and would have a different tone.

Mr. Hardy explained that the callmen at Ballardvale complain that they cannot hear the bell, which is the only signal at the station. The appropriation was granted.

Under Article 14 to appropriate $3500 for improvements on Main and North Main streets, Mr. White said that the entire cost of the work would be about $14,000 and that the state or county would pay the difference. The article was adopted on his motion together with a vote to have $10,500 transferred from available funds to go ahead with the work. This will be paid back when the work is completed.

Article 15 called for $7500 to repair and build sidewalks. Mr. White said that some of those in Shawshen were in a deplorable condition. He also said that $3500 is left over from last year's appropriation as work on sidewalks was stopped to go ahead with numerous water installations. Wallace Brimer said the taxpayers' association felt that $4000 was enough to appropriate this year which, with the $3500 would make $7500.

Vote on such an amendment was in doubt and the moderator Arthur Sweeney, called for a standing vote which resulted in a count of 406 in favor and 334 opposed.

Ballardvale Bridge

Request of the board of public works for $1000 to replace old wooden fencing with something more permanent built with concrete posts and steel cable was defeated. Mr. White said the department did not have enough money in its regular budget to do this work.

Taking up the request for $6,250 to repair the Andover street bridge in Ballardvale Mr. White said that he believed a repair job can strengthen the bridge sufficiently so that a new bridge may be forgotten for 10 or 15 years. The sum was voted with a condition that not more than $2750 be spent without approval of the finance committee.

Dale street was accepted as a public way after a Mr. Stone said that the street had been graded and widened at a cost to him of about $2500, and that he had a water system installed there, all of which would be given to the town.

Extension of the sewer line on Chestnut street a distance of 1250 feet up to the top of the hill where a number of new house lots have been purchased, was carried after some discussion.

Winthrop Newcomb, one of the new owners, said he and others intend to build. The land is not suitable for septic tanks as others further down the street had some difficulty with them a short time ago.

Mr. Hardy said he expects to be a neighbor of Mr. Newcomb and would be willing to pay what ever rate is assessed for the sewer.

G. R. Abbott said he felt the installation would be unfair and unjust to other abutters, pointing out that he had a 500 foot frontage on the street. Mr. Hardy said that such an improvement would improve Mr. Abbott's land.

In discussing the acceptance of Dwight street as a public way and the closing of part of Highland road, Atty. Roland H. Sherman said that Phillips academy intends to build a new memorial gymnasium near its old gymnasium and that it would extend to part of Highland road. The academy is to pay all expenses in connection with making Dwight street a public way. There was no opposition and the motion to adopt was carried.

Several articles having to do with the acceptance of streets as public ways were withdrawn as they did not conform to certain regulations regarding a vote of acceptance by the selectmen and the filing of a plan at least seven days before town meeting.

Hamblin Memorial

Selectman Collins, in the absence of four of the five members of the Hamblin memorial committee, read the committee's report which recommended the dedication of room 7 in Pynchard High school to his memory to be known as the Nathan C. Hamblin room. Some changes would be made in desks and chairs and his portrait removed from its present location to a prominent place in the room. The committee also recommended the appropriation of $800 for this work, the appropriation permitting all people of the town to share in the memorial.

Several discussed the resolution. On motion of Mr. Hardy it was voted to amend the committee's recommendation to have the memorial a scholarship in Mr. Hamblin's name and that a sum be raised by public subscription under the memorial committee for this purpose.

Under Article 61 it was voted that $15,000 of the overlay surplus be transferred to the reserve fund and that $65,000 of free

Howell M. Stillman, chairman of the finance committee, read a recommendation of the committee that a planning group be appointed to plan and recommend annually school, water and sewer developments that seem needed and which the town can afford.

On motion of E. L. Wilkinson it was voted to appoint a committee of seven, one from the board of public works, one from the school committee, one from the board of selectmen and four other taxpayers, to carry out the recommendations of the committee.

Mr. O'Connell read a resolution protesting the proposal of the Metropolitan Transit system be paid by taxes imposed upon the entire state, and that a committee be appointed to speak against the legislation.

The resolution was adopted. The committee appointed by the moderator: Charles C. Kimball, John F. O'Connell, Roy E. Hardy and Rep. J. Everett Collins.

George R. Abbott, tree warden, under new business, moved to grant the tree warden use of a barn on the Shaw property on Main street beginning April 1.

Mr. Hardy said that the barn is being used principally for Red Cross purposes and it would be a hardship if they have to move their equipment.

Discussing this question appeal was made to Walter C. Tomlinson, town counsel, regarding such a vote. The latter said the town meeting cannot dictate action of the selectmen.

Mr. Abbott changed his motion so that it would be the sense of the meeting that the barn be given to the use of the tree warden. He said he wanted the meeting to know that the department has no public building. The motion was lost.

The meeting adjourned at 11:10 p. m.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

TOWN MEETING IN REVIEW

Andover's 1949 annual town meeting was keynoted by progressiveness, aggressiveness and lively town interest and foresight. The largest attendance in the history of the town was a healthy manifestation of interest in town affairs and Andover is bound to retain her prestige among the state's communities as long as such interest is sustained. Progressiveness was shown by the action of Andover voters in improving the working condition of the fire and police departments. This action keeps Andover abreast of the trend in other communities toward those entrusted with public safety. Such interest and appreciation is bound to inspire the members of those departments to maintain standards comparable with any in other communities. Aggressiveness was clearly shown by the action taken in opposition to the imposition of taxes throughout the state to underwrite the deficit of the Metropolitan Transit authority. The seeking of an appropriation of $20,000 to extend the water system is another progressive step that should result in great future value to the town. Such town meetings insure a better and brighter future for the Town of Andover.

A FAIR SOLUTION

One of the most controversial articles in the town warrant Monday night, was Article 41, which called for a redetermination of the rate fixed for sewer assessments. The article was inserted because of the big increases in assessments for sewers put in on Elm and Pine streets.

People who were benefited by those sewers expected to be assessed about $1.10 per running foot, but in some instances, because of increased costs, it was far above that. As Charles C. Kimball of the Taxpayers' Association said, "it must have been a staggering blow to the abutters when they got their bills."

It was pointed out that because the assessments had been made, they could not be changed, but it was voted to have a committee study the problem for future assessment purposes. It was also the sense of the meeting, as voted, that when the committee reports in six months, the board of public works should abate the assessments in accordance with the recommendations.

It was the fairest possible move under the circumstances, and, obviously, a large majority of those at the meeting were in sympathy with the abutters who had received the unexpectedly large bills.

IS 55 PERCENT GOOD?

At the last town election 4027, out of a registration of 7330, voted, or about 55 percent. Last year the figures were: 3849 voting out of 6823 eligible. That was about 56.4 percent. That was higher than this year's percentage.

It is not a healthy sign when slightly more than one-half of the registered voters turn out. A far greater number should be interested in going to the polls if the best results are desired.

When a populace has the opportunity to say whom it wants to administer its affairs, and almost half of them refuse to take advantage of it, something is wrong somewhere.

WINTERS COME AND WINTERS GO

Winter does not end officially until next week, but it is near enough over now to say, without any fear of a flareback from the weather man, that it has been a pretty good one. We did not have the severe cold that we experienced last year, and we did not have the tremendous snowfall.

Are we any better off because of the comparative mildness of the current winter? Or, is a mild winter, or a severe one merely one of those things that happen and which, in the long run, make no difference at all?

A few years hence and we shall be hard put to remember, off hand, which of these two winters — that of last year, or that of this year — was the worse. Winters come and winters go, but, luckily, spring always follows. For that we may be thankful.

"AMERICA'S NO. 1 FOOD MAN"

Opportunity is not a thing of the past in this country. Skeptics who don't believe this have but to pick up a newspaper and scan the business and financial section. They can find interesting stories of countless individuals who literally started with nothing and wound up as leaders in their chosen fields. And these stories almost always have one point in common. The achievements are deserved.

The story of John L. Hennessy, "America's No. 1 Food Man" is typical. Mr. Hennessy's career has been the hotel business and feeding people. He landed his first hotel job when 14 years of age, as a freight elevator operator at $20 a month. This was followed by jobs in the storeroom, the wine room and the kitchen. His opportunity came when he joined what is now one of the country's largest hotel systems, the Statler company. In the ensuing years his capabilities received increasing recognition. During the recent war, among other positions, he was special food consultant to the secretary of war, chairman of the war food committee of the American Hotel association; vice chairman of the Restaurant Industry Advisory committee to OPA. He recently retired as chairman of the board of the Statler company.

The story of America's No. 1 Food Man is uniquely American. It is being duplicated constantly by many others in every line of endeavor. It explains why our nation and our people have gone so far in so short a time.

When individual opportunity ceases to exist in this nation progress will cease.

operation and snarling denunciation of the United States. So let's not try to kid ourselves that the Russians are bowing to our dislike of Molotov's past performance, and that the Kremlin is softening towards us. The test of Russia's intentions is the curiously identical and simultaneous pronouncement of policy by Communist parties in Europe and the United States. Those parties apparently offered a future hand of friendship to the Red Army.

"The More Things Change . . ." That move emphasizes the well-known French maxim, "The more a thing changes, the more it is the same." Russian tactics may differ, but over-all strategy remains the same. Keep Western Europe and the United States divided, fight all plans that cement any sort of cooperation, economic or political. Last time, the attack was on the Marshall Plan; this time it is to be against the Atlantic Alliance. If the Russians cannot batter down a point of opposition they'll attempt to encircle and isolate it.

Russia Tries to Scare Europe

The New Years started with a so-called peace offensive, quickly followed by a squeeze on Norway — so far unsuccessful — then a Russian-sphere Mutual Economic Assistance pact to off-set the Marshall Plan, and now by the "united front" of Communist party action. What can Russia gain, it might be asked, from this simultaneous pronouncement by Communist parties? Won't it only serve to arouse more opposition to Russia? The men in the Kremlin are aware of what they are doing. They know that they can't be much more unpopular abroad than they are now. But they hope to scare Europe, especially those countries which have suffered from Quislings in the past. And so they are public declarations from Communists. If the French can be scared, the Atlantic Alliance will be weakened. The French are in effect told to stay out of the Alliance, or else. The Italian Communists are handed the line of public utterance that they will aid a Red Army engaged in chasing an aggressor off Italian soil — an interesting example of how to twist words and meaning. It's a smart move designed to suggest to Europeans that the United States is pursuing imperialist aims that will embroil them with Russia. It is meant also to suggest to the United States congress, soon to debate the terms of the Atlantic Alliance, that France, Italy and other nations cannot be counted on for much, that they'll collapse from internal disorder.

Communists — A Revolutionary Party

Another purpose of Russia's recent stand is cut the dead wood from national Communist parties until they are fit to play the role of a real revolutionary party, headed from Moscow and operating throughout the world. Fellow-travelers will be scared away from the party because it seems to connive at treason. Only hardened, fanatical comrades will remain. They are the ones who can be counted upon to follow any order; they accept membership not as we do in our political parties but with the knowledge that as members they must be continually fighting opponents by sabotage, underground activities, by treason if so ordered.

Retreat to Consolidate

This policy should be regarded as a temporary retreat in order to stabilize and prepare another campaign. Vishinsky's appointment should indicate a more hard-boiled policy, doubtless interspersed with peace "offensives" — always the fighting conception — but with the main objective in view. The Communists are retreating in orderly fashion so as to consolidate. They have slipped since 1946 and recognize the fact. They were the heroes of underground resistance, they were included in post-war governments. Gradually their spots showed through. They lost out in elections, they were kicked out of governments, they did not succeed

MEET—

MISS ANNE HARNEDY

Through her sincere understanding of the problems that beset the young child during the first years in school, Miss Anne Harnedy principal of the Shaw-sheen and West Center schools, has become the friend of many young people and their parents. Concerned not only with the actual teaching of the students, she has an apparently innate capability of comprehending and judging the never-ending situations arising each day.

Born in Andover and educated at Pynchard High school, she continued her studies at Lowell Teachers' college and Boston university, later furthering her academic work at the University of Brussels, Belgium, and the University of Paris. She started her teaching career in the Cohasset schools and then returned to her native Andover to take a position in the Shaw-sheen school. In 1931, she became principal of the Shaw-sheen and West Center schools.

A member and past president of the Andover Teachers' association, she belongs to the Shaw-sheen P.T.A., is on the Andover P.T.A. council, and is active in the Shaw-sheen Woman's club. Director and secretary of the Andover guild, she is also a member of the Elementary Principals' association and of the Lowell Teachers' club of greater Lawrence.

Miss Harnedy is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Harnedy and she resides with her sister at 23 Summer st.

In ditching the Marshall Plan, The American determination to stay in Berlin did not help their cause, and the coup in Czechoslovakia set up warning signals to other nations.

So Russia now embarks upon another tactic. Further squeeze will undoubtedly be applied to Finland, a little country that is sufficiently stiff-necked to refuse to be scared into submission. Finland shrewdly calculates that Russia realizes the inability to keep an attack on Finland a purely local matter. A real threat to her will bring in other nations to her assistance. Orders will probably go out to the faithful to continue attempts to cripple European recovery. And Communism must battle against the alliance as it has found the Marshall Plan. The second round will undoubtedly soon get under way.

More Cold War? Of Course!

Although the wording of the alliance may not appear to oblige the United States to enter into active support of an attacked nation, it serves notice that aggression by any nation had better not be undertaken lightly. Our participation in the negotiations so far means that we recognize our position in world politics, that any move which threatens our security may well bring us into action, that we are planning the defenses of the whole area included in the alliance, that it is a long-range plan. Russia knows that any open move by her is a hazardous gamble, because the United States in her present mood is unpredictable. And why should Russia take that gamble? So let us expect another round in the cold war, and let's recognize it for what it is and not get carried away by "peace offensives." If Finland can take Russia's noise and bluff calmly and with shrewd calculation, we certainly can.

REPORT From the State House

BY PHILIP K. ALLEN

As has been mentioned frequently in previous columns, the number of departments within the structure of State government in Massachusetts has been limited by legislation to twenty.

For this reason, as new divisions and quasi-departments have been created a place within these limitations has had to be found. The most convenient spot—and one used with great frequency for the past few years—is directly under the governor and council. Here then, is a kind of catch-all for those departments which do not fit into the administrative framework of state government.

One such department which has very recently been added, is the youth service board. In this particular case—because of its statewide significance and because of its stated purpose—the board and staff could not administratively come under any of the 20 existing departments.

Before analyzing the structure and duties of the youth service board, however, it might be well to discuss briefly the reasons for its existence.

Juvenile delinquency has long been a problem affecting all strata of society throughout the civilized (and uncivilized) world. And Massachusetts was one of the first states in the Union to recognize that the problem was a state-wide one. Here in the early 1800's the first juvenile court was established and here in 1838 the first industrial school for boys was founded. This was followed shortly afterwards by an industrial school for girls and in 1912 a school for older boys was built.

These three were in their day considered the partial answer to the custody of the young who were "wayward and delinquent."

In the light of modern thought and modern penology, however, the one compelling fault was that they were mass-custody institutions. Lumped together at Lyman school for Boys, the Lancaster school for Girls, and the Shirley school for Boys were the sick with the well, the deformed with the physically healthy, the near-imbecile with the brilliant, the beginner in crime with the crime-hardened.

The board of trustees of these institutions was made up of well-qualified, intelligent and public-spirited citizens but who, because of their positions, could give only part time to the extremely difficult task of overseeing the administration of the three widely-spread schools, sanctioning paroles and interviewing those who were committed by the courts.

When a particularly horrible crime was committed by a recent parolee from the Shirley school in 1946 (and according to the law at that time the trustees had no choice but to parole the boy.) public opinion was aroused to the extent that a legislative commission was established to study the whole problem of juvenile delinquency.

After many months of deliberation and study, this commission reported to the legislature a bill to establish a youth service board (modeled in part or recent legislation in California, Michigan and Wisconsin).

The main differences between the old and the new suggested system were these: that the board would be made up of three highly-skilled and trained persons who would give full time to their jobs; that instead of being committed by the courts to particular institutions, the children would be committed directly to the board; and that instead of being mass-custody institutions the schools would be changed under the direction of the board to units fitted to handle the individual needs of the children.

How this system is working and how it operates administratively will be discussed next week.

We record the season's first thunderstorm as coming on March twelve.

A. R. Ramsdell goes to Whitehall, N. Y., to have charge of the combing and carding department in a silk mill.

J. Newton Cole elected chairman of the school committee.

Selectman Boutwell meets with a mishap. In attempting to step out of the path of an electric car on Main street he steps into the path of a team and is knocked down. However, he reports, he is not badly injured.

Fred S. Boutwell elected president of the Andover Christian Endeavor society.

The Imperial house changes hands again.

"Norman," in a communication, complains about the high price being charged in Andover for BREAD—5 cents a loaf. His letter: "Mr. Editor: This morning I bought a loaf of bread for five cents. It seemed very small. I weighed it and found it weighed just one pound. This would cost, with flour at $5 which I pay for the best, 2 1/2 cents. The water, etc., put in mixing would be ten percent, which would reduce it to 2 1/4 cents. For this we pay 5 cents. Does this not come pretty near extortion? It is not much for one loaf, but a laborer's family, buying every day, would feel it a sad tax."

At a meeting of the directors of Andover guild Ma. C. W. Scott is elected to fill a vacancy by the resignation of Miss Julia Twitchell.

JUNIOR HIGH

By JANET THOMPSON

In assembly last Friday school president Raeburn Hathaway introduced Mrs. Walter E. Mondale who outlined the essay contest on "Old Andover" for eighth and ninth graders. This contest will be sponsored by the Priscilla Abbott chapter of D. A. R., recently established in Andover. Mrs. Mondale introduced Mrs. Guy B. Howe, regent of the local chapter, who spoke briefly about the work of the organization. The talent show, under the direction of Carolyn Erler, was then held. Brad McCormack announced the participants.

The students who participated in last week's program are as follows:

Piano soloists—Mary Elise Waddington played "Valse"; Norma Howard, "Fireflies Frolic"; Louis Hajosy, "Prelude in C sharp minor"; and Marion Washington, "Danse Hongroise."

Singers—Marion Campbell, accompanied at piano by Mary Alice Shea; sang Galway Bay; Elise Skelrik, accompanied by Mary Elise Waddington, sang "Make Believe"; and Richard Lawrence, "The Little Red Schoolhouse."

The dancing team, Lois Craig and Kathleen Doyle, presented its version of "Kokomo, Indiana." Sidney Tavern gave an amusing monologue entitled "Susie." The remaining members of the show will present their talents this Friday.

Addison Art Tour

The eight and ninth students who did not go to the Puncard game in Boston Thursday, were fortunate to be able to attend an interesting, modern art exhibit at the Addison Gallery of Art. Mrs. Dorothy Sanborn and Miss Francis Dalton of the art department, and Miss Ansel Angelo and Miss Evelyn Parker of the school faculty, supervised. The seventh graders followed their regular schedule.

At the P.T.A. meeting Wednesday night open house was not observed.

With the advent of better weather and good walking pupils must be in their homerooms at 8:15 in the morning.

Mrs. Dorothy Sanborn of the art department has resumed her duties after a long illness.

Many students and teachers from the junior high cheered the victorious Puncard team in its three games at Boston Garden.

Plymouth's new special deluxe sedan, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine.

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe.

The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period.

Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion.

The new Plymouth will be on display Friday at the neighboring showrooms of the J. W. Robinson Co., Harry E. Williams, manager, 33 Park Street and the Clark Motor Co., Irving G. Clark, proprietor, 41 Park Street. Both showrooms will be open until 8:30 evening.

THE NEW Plymouth-on display Friday

Now there's more difference than ever in low-priced cars... and the great New Plymouth makes the difference!

New Beauty

There's beauty in every sweeping new low line of it—and throughout its brilliant new interior. And this is beauty that's built on advanced engineering... to give you a great new automobile that handles easier, rides smoother, performs better—the greatest in a long line of great Plymouths!

New Vision

The greatly increased glass area is exactly where you need it—in the windshield and rear window. And the new design of the hood and the entire body gives the driver a clear, undistorted view of the road—in all directions—day or night—rain or shine! Blind spots are practically eliminated.

New Features

You just turn the ignition key and the engine starts! No buttons to push, no choke to pull. You save on oil and get longer engine life with new oil control piston rings and the brand-new chrome compression ring. These are just two of the great new features in the great New Plymouth.

New Comfort

Talk about room for comfort—the New Plymouth has it! Those famous chair-height seats are now even wider, and deeper from front to back. Long legs can stretch out and hats stay put. Diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers reduce sideway. You drive for hours without fatigue.

The Beautiful New Plymouth Special De Luxe 4-Door Sedan with Longer 118" Wheelbase

New Safety

Safety has always been first with Plymouth—and this new car is safer than ever! It has a lower center of gravity. It hugs the road better. A completely new body construction makes it a sturdier automobile. Body and frame are 23% more rigid. You drive with a great new sense of security.

New Convenience

Because of less overhang, the New Plymouth is easy to park, easy to put in the garage. Fenders flow into the body but they're separate and detachable—and it doesn't cost a fortune to repair them! Windows lift and lower easier. Doors open wide—you get in and out of this car with ease!

New Performance

There's greater power in the New Plymouth engine. This comes from a newly designed cylinder head, a higher compression ratio and a new intake manifold. When you step on it, you'll instantly feel this new surge of power. Here's the best performer of all the great performing Plymouths!

Greatest New Value

The only way to discover all of the great new things in the great New Plymouth is to see it—to sit in it—to drive it. Do this and you'll be convinced that—feature for feature—dollar for dollar—here's the greatest value of all! Compare it to any car at any price. See it NOW!

PUNCHARD HIGH

CHEERLEADERS

During the football and basketball seasons, 10 girls at Punchard did a splendid job cheering the teams on to victory. The girls worked hard to achieve perfection in their cheering, practicing from one to two hours a day five days a week. Ethel Hibbert has been captain for the past year and has been a fine leader. The rest of the girls making up the squad are: Beverly Arthurs, Shirley Northam, Phyllis Rapa, Jean Dumont, Margaret Grecoe, Eva Giovino, Barbara Parsons, Susan Markey, Bessie Christie.

Replacements will have to be chosen for the four seniors, who will be graduating, and five substitutes, nine in all. Bessie Christie has been chosen next year's captain.

Volley Ball
Girl's volleyball ball started Wednesday afternoon with about 50 girls out to play. This season will last about four weeks and practice will be held Mondays and Wednesdays. At least two teams, possibly three, will be chosen from each class if enough sign up. Miss Frances Collins will coach it.

Last Thursday, before the basketball game in the Boston Garden which proved so successful, a rally was held in the auditorium. Coach McKinry and Captain Graig said a few words, and then the cheerleaders took over to lead the school in a number of cheers. School was dismissed at noon both Thursday and Friday so that the students could attend the games.

P. H. S. Hoop Team Wins Class C Championship

these contests the Blue and White sharpshooters had to display their championship calibre every moment to wrest the two thrilling victories from equally capable opponents.

Punchard High rooters ably supported the team in all three games, many of them being present to share in the thrill and excitement of seeing their favorites eke out the few points that decided the title for them.

Quarter-Final Round

In an unusual finish of a seesaw battle that saw the score tied at the final whistle, Punchard squeezed out a 39-37 victory over Barnstable Thursday night.

Punchard trailed several times during this contest but finished with a remarkable drive in the last five minutes of the fourth period to close the six-point gap to make the score 37-35 as the game ended. However, Bob Deyermund was fouled as the final whistle sounded and sent P.H.S. rooters into a frenzy as he dropped in two free tries to bring the first state tournament victory to the local team.

The rangy Barnstable five gave the Blue and White one of its most severe tests of the season, edging ahead on several occasions and providing a ding-dong battle all the way to the finish.

Referees, Borgess and Bridey. Time, 4-8's. Semi-Final

Punchard advanced to the final round by running away from Kingston 52-35 in Friday's contest.

Kingston jumped away to a 7-1 lead before Punchard, helped by a flurry of baskets by its main sparkplug, Bob Deyermund, with help from John Craig and Chuck Dwyer, rallied to take a first period lead of 25-18, which it held to the end.

Punchard moved the ball much more rapidly than Kingston and once started proved to its loyal band of followers it had better shooting eyes.

Finals
One of the most exciting games of tournament history was staged Saturday night before a great crowd of 13,909 when Punchard battled into an overtime period to clinch the title by winning 56-48 over Prevest high of Fall River.

Herb Deveaux, who failed to score a basket in the quarter-final and semi-finals game, was the hero of Punchard's overtime victory.

The three-minute overtime period was less than 18 seconds old when he dribbled in to put Punchard ahead, 48-46. Exactly 18 seconds later he went in for another layup to widen the count to 50-46.

He added his sixth point a minute later to make the score 52-48 so that he accounted for five of his team's 10 points in the crucial overtime period, to emerge as one of the outstanding clutch players of the tournament.

Allan Chetson, despite the handicap of a sprained right thumb, led the Punchard scoring with 17 points. Bob Deyermund, president of his class and an honor student, added 13 points to the Punchard total.

Prevest, playing only its fourth season of basketball, and with only one senior, Bill Labrie, in the lineup, turned in a grand performance. Prevest has to practice at the C.Y.O. gym in Fall River, having no gym of its own, so that the Flying Frenchmen did a remarkable job under such conditions.

The game in addition to being one of the fastest and most exciting in the tournament history also was one of the most unusual in that both teams went through the entire 35 minutes without substitution until Clairmont of Prevest went out on fouls in the last few seconds. Punchard converted six out of 12 free throws against 10 out of 17 for Prevest.

Punchard passed the ball around beautifully until it set up
