AIDS AUTO MANUFACTURE

A development of great value to the manufacturers of automobiles been the perfection of a method by which wood tones and wood designs are pre-printed on a large flat metal sheet before fabrication into instrument boards moldings, and parts for interior motangs, and parts for interior trim. Great simplification, time-savings and avoidance of much handwork are thus achieved. First, the primer and ground coat are ap-plied. Next comes the printing of the graining or wood tone design. Third, the application of the final glaze coat of lacquer. A unique feature of the new method lies in the engineering of the photographed design to allow for distortion of curves and angles of the ear interior, which parts were pre-viously finished by hand.

Marked Variety In Favorite Books

Readers rarely agree in all respects as to which books deserve a place on such lists as "Best Books Of Last Year," or books that win national prizes, or even the ones that appear on best-seller lists. So Readers rarely agree in all respects as to which books deserve a place on such lists as "Best Books of Last Year," or books that win national prizes, or even the ones that appear on best-seller lists. So it seems absurd to suppose that any two young people would choose extended to the playstead between the Andover V.F.W. team the playstead between the Andover Town team. The latter won 8 to 1. two young people would choose exactly the same 12 titles for a home

A little study of the top 15 winners in the recent contest, sponsored by the Memorial Hall library, and open Anderson, Christine Baduvakis, to grades 7-9, and 10-12, proved that several had been chosen by more than one of the contestants well, Maureen Collins, Lois Craig, Alice D'Ambroise, Rosemary "The Robe" by Lloyd C. Douglas, Davidson, Miriam Demers, Ruth Denholm, Margaret Denoncourt, were two votes for a second book Keyin Denovary, Laige Downey, by the author. "The Risk Fisher." by this author, "The Big Fisher-man." Five girls and one boy named "Jane Eyre," and four girls and one boy selected "Arundel," by Kenneth Roberts.

Roberts is usually a man's author four girls all chose the following books: "Little Women," "The Bible" and "Ivanhoe." Two girls and one boy included the Gunther book, "Death Be Not Proud," and the same ratio chose "Gone With The Wind." "Ben Hur," "Friend Of Caesar," "David Copperfield" and "Tale Of Two Cities" all drew three votes, and pairs of girls named "Ethan Frome," "Idylls Of The King," "House Of Seven Gables," Helen Keller's autobiography, d

"Les Miserables."
Shakespeare appeared on seven of the top 15 lists, with one repeat of "The Merchant Of Venice."

All three prize winners had the itle "The Robe" as one of the 12 title "The Robe" as or books named; some chose with an eye to the "ageless ness" of the subjects; some definitely found their present day inter ests so attractive that they didn' plan to change them too much with the passing years; many named books that they had read very re vently, and a surprising number were required reading or book re-port books, which more or less proves that good books are fun if young people can be encouraged to read them.

Troop 72 of the Free church held if final meeting Friday evening, June 17, with Scoutmaster David MacCord and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Roger Dea in charge. A baseball game was enjoyed outdoors and later games were played inside. Final arrangements for camp were made by Merrill Burnett, troop committeeman. David MasCord, scoutmaster, the Rev. Levering Reynolds, Jr., and Merrill Burnett, committeeman, all addressed the troop, complimenting the boys on winning the council commissioners flag at the recent three-day encampment.

The Rev. Mr. Reynolds also an-ers flag at the recent three-day encampment.

The Rev. Mr. Reynolds also announced that Roger Dea had achieved the "God and Country" medal and that a formal presentation was scheduled for the following Sunday morning during services. He urged other boys to work for the three preliminary awards and the ultimate medal award. Walter Caswell, district commissioner, spoke to the scouts nd asked them to work hard to keep the commissioner flag in the Andover district. He pointed out that not only troops from other districts would be trying to capture the flag next year but other Andover troops would be working to keep the flag here.

The meeting ended with a social period, refreshments being served by the troop committee. Lincoln Vaughan, former chairman of the Cub pack 71 committee, has registered as troop committeeman of Troop 72.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

SWIMMING HAZARDS

School vacations and hot weather make a combination that cannot help but drive many a youngster to the nearest swimming hole in search of relief.

While having his fun in the water and enjoying this wholesome form of recreation it is disturbing to realize that drowning accidents increase greatly during the summer months and are usually found to be the cause of most fatal accidents during June, July and August.

Many communities try to take the hazard out of swim ming by providing supervised bathing places, but even with this precaution Young America will frequently find some inviting pond or stream nearer home for a cooling dip. The adventurous youth gives little thought to personal safety under these conditions and frequently invites disaster by not taking some of the common precautions that go with swimming.

Among the several suggestions advanced by safety authorities are one or two that stand out and which should be stressed by parents at this season of the year. One is, never swim alone, which means that some help will always be at hand. Another is, never dive into unfamiliar waters as a rock or submerged log may knock you out.

Andover's only supervised bathing beach will not open at Pomp's pond until next week. Meanwhile, many a lad will Shawsheen or in one of the ponds of the town. If he is your boy, urge him to take more than ordinary precaution in this package of cigarettes. The reader be taking his dip in some favorite spot along the banks of the particular form of summer recreation.

FIRE IN THE FORESTS

Summer and fall constitute two of the most serious fire periods in this country. Forests and fields dry out, awaiting only the touch of a spark to burst into flame. Tourists throng the highways. Thousands of campers go into the woods. Commercial camps and vacation spots of all kinds run at capacity.

Every year sees the destruction of magnificent forests, accompanied by a tragic toll of wildlife. Some forest fires do occur spontaneously, from lightning or other natural causes. But a far greater number can be attributed to human carelessness and ignorance. The motorist who throws burning cigarette butts and matches from his car, and the camper who leaves a fire without dousing it with water and burying it with earth until every spark is out and every ember is cold, are two of the worst offenders. The whole nation is the poorer because

A plain duty confronts everyone who goes into the outdoors for any reason. It is to protect a heritage which, once destroyed, may take centuries to replace. The various public and private bodies which deal with fire are doing a fine job. They are making available to all simple, easy rules for fire safety. They maintain patrols and fire fighting organizations. But they can do little without public cooperation. A forest fire can spread with incredible swiftness, and be completely beyond control in a matter of minutes under certain conditions.

Make the most of the woods — and save them for the

BACK OF MODERN RETAILING

When we go shopping, most of us take it for granted that the stores will have what we want. We may patronize chains, independents, or any other kind of retail outlet. Whatever the kind, we expect to find a wide selection of goods, intelligent salespeople, a courteous welcome, and good service. That expectation is usually justified.

The vanished crossroads emporium didn't have to give much effort to pleasing the customers — it had a monopoly of the local business and people took what it offered and paid the price or went without. Then, as the nation grew and transportation improved, more stores were opened. Real competition appeared. The inefficient merchant, or the merchant who wanted to earn an excessive profit, found that the going was getting tougher. The chains came along and pioneered the idea of mass distribution with a very small profit on each sale. The independents followed suit and met the new competition such the citizen goes to his doctor

We see the result today. The typical small town store carries the same kind of goods that are found in huge metropolitan stores. Prices are about the same. Displays, service, and sanitation are comparable. And the reason for it is competition, which is the staunch protector of the consumer's Stores of the future will be better than those of today, just as those of today are better than those of the past. Merchants will continue to try to outdo the man next door, and to offer more inducements. And that will work to the advantage of everyone.

ance and regards them as tax since they demand compul-contributions. There he's sory contributions. There he's right, because they don't spread insurance risks among only those choosing to be insured. Factually the doctor is correct. But it may be asked whether the factual answer solves the real problem of adequate medical care for all who need it. What of those who feel they can't afford proper medical care? That is really the problem that congress is trying to tackle, whether the means they propose is sound or not. For there's a vast difference between needing medical care and being able to more controversy is the milk control board. Established by the Acts of 1934, it is made up of three persons appointed by the council and serving for three years. Administratively the board triction.

The members are former Representative George Barrus, of Goshen, Mrs. Mary J. Schindler, of Monponsett, and Edward M. medical care and being able to afford it.

so much for twenty cents a day—
if he could find out precisely what he'd get for his money. Sure, he can buy some sort of coverage for that amount, but is it the allinclusive coverage indicated by the industry of the Commonwealth; to prescribe regulations which which do not include the total cost of $15 a day bed, not one cent for surgical costs, and certainly nothing towards medical costs, if that means physician's bills. Now maybe such a cheap package does exist. Dr. Sensenich will certainly be asked where it can be bought. can be bought.

If So, The Government Can't

Compete

And this is where the good doctor can do the country a profound service. If he is quoting facts he can thereby demonstrate the obsachusetts producers in a given vious superiority of private medical insurance over proposed to establish minimum prices — government plans. Under the national health insurance bill the buy the same thing tor us. $32.50 he's got something. And so have we. If this is just a smokescreen to cover up the government proposals, then the technique is ill-advised. If the figures cannot be substantiated then the cause of nationalized medicine may be supported by those who become disillusioned.

The issue is a serious one and not to be laughed off by flip remarks, however humorous they oon enough, at the first sign of trouble, he may never be seriously ill. Replies the AMA president, "Eternal life by government promise?" Witty perhaps, but ill-walth. timed. Actually, not worthy of the good doctor. Such an attitude by an official of the AMA could be disturbing. The informed reader is further troubled by learning from the gentleman that Great Britain first started down the road where such milk is produced. of the Socialist State by adopting compulsory health insurance. The fact is that Britain had gone quite of voluntary medical insurance to nationalized medicine. We naturally wonder whether the doctor's 62 ½ cents a week is fact or exaggeration sentative George Barrus, of Goshen, Mrs. Mary J. Schindler, of Monponsett, and Edward M. Dwyer, of Weymouth. Under this board is a director of milk control, appointed by the board with the approval of the governor and council, an assistant director, and a secretary. The division is sub-divided into the following sections: Inspection of records, inves-tigation, enforcement, butterfat, research, hearings and office, a total of 75 positions. This division is financed not by legislative appropriation, but by license fees charged producers and dealers, although the salaries and expenses doctor? What the gentleman to prescribe regulations which promises and what the contract states may be quite different. But the doctor commits himself even further by categorically claiming among the producers and to enthat 62½ cents per week will purchase "all-inclusive medical, lar supply of fresh milk and, flavorically categories." that 62½ cents per week will purchase "all-inclusive medical, surgical and hospital care." And that 62½ cents weekly is for complete family coverage. This writer is very interested indeed, for the best he can do—and at 80 cents a week—is to buy $7 a day hospital bed and miscellaneous services which do not include the total cost of $15 a day bed, not one the issuance of licenses to producers and dealers and the revoca-tion of the same after public hear-

It is to be noted that the setting of minimum prices on the part of the milk control board applies solely to the producer, with the obvious aim of protecting the milk industry at its source. Under upon the petition of 51% of Mas-sachusetts producers in a given market area requesting the board wholesale or retail — or both — and after public hearing, the board finds that the price to the tional health insurance bill the family earning $2,500 would pay $37.50 a year, the family earning $3,600 would be levied $54.00. And this does not include employer contributions. So, if Dr. Sensenich can show where we could buy the same thing for about $32.50 he's got something. And so it may issue orders fixing officially the minimum wholesale or retail prices, or both, for milk sold within the market affected irrespective of where such milk is produced. Of course, any price fixed shall be fair, just, and reasonable.

At the present moment, the milk control board has been subject to two injunctions brought by the Hotel and Restaurant owners association and have been prevented from enforcing orders declaring an emergency in the mum or maximum or retail or both for milk sold by milk dealers schemes were labelled socialistic leading to revolution. Did not doc-tors believe in any kind of insur-ance, even on their own lives? It aggeration.

The Proof Of The Pudding—

We do not deny the doctor's site. It is up to the AMA to prove arguments about the costs and dangers of socialized medicine medical insurance is cheaper than medical insurance in the medical insurance is cheaper than medical insurance in the medical insurance is cheaper than medical insurance in the medical insurance is cheaper than medical insurance in the medical insurance in the medical insurance in th But we do remember that not so many years ago the AMA sat like it is better, but costs are going to count in this fight. If any of the $3,500,000 "campaign" fund is $3,500,000 "campaign" left it could be better used for positive purposes. The AMA has an argument. But it must be offered in practical form. Positive plans have more chance of succes than mere negative criticism

In Tenth Year

Often it is next to impossible for a person convalescing from an operation or a chronic invalid to be cared for at home. Of course, there is no place like one's own home, but a nursing home, like Mrs. Coles', at 10 Summer st., approaches home care in comfort and attention. Coles' Nursing Home serves home cooked food, and there is cheerful color in the rooms instead of stead-fast, blank monotonous white. A staff of six pleasant nurses cheerfully look to the comforts of the body and mind of each patient and serve special diets, as directed. They are always willing, quick and ready to do anything that will make the day brighter, knowing that time rests heavily upon those who are ill.

Mrs. Pauline Coles, who started the Nursing Home 10 years ago, be-lieves that a nursing home should have the appearance and atmos phere of a person's own home, and for this reason some persons have stayed for six years, enjoying the care they received, with Mrs. Coles' watchful care, each patient is given the special food that he or she requires, and she takes a special de light in making a meal so attractive that no one can resist it.

The Nursing Home is in the profortable home, and receive the in-dulgence so needed by the ill.

Fire Destroys Home On Argilla Road

Fire starting from a kitchen oil tove badly damaged the five-room home of Albert Reed on Argilla ', last Thursday afternoon. Loss to the one and one-half story dwelling charge. and contents was estimated by Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan to be between $3000 and $4000.

The blaze was discovered by Beverly Reed, 6, who with some other members of the family were outside the house at the time. They with driveways. some neighbors succeeded in re moving some of the furnishings be fore being driven out by smoke.

Flames were spreading to the up er rooms of the house when fire responded to an alarm from 251 at 2:18 p.m. Water lines were laid and it was necessary to chop through the roof and into par-titions to get at the blaze. First floor rooms not affected by the blaze suffered heavy water damage. The recall was sounded at 3:30 p.m.

How I love picnics and porch suppers—and my, but they're kind to my budget! And with the A&P full of wonderful picnic or light luncheon foods for open-air-eating, I can have variety as well as economy! Do try these summer taste

Summer calls for sandwiches, and that's where A&P's thin-sliced MARVEL SANDWICH BREAD really shines. Finest ingredients, expertly blended, make Marvel deliciously tender, yet firm and smooth-textured, so it spreads readily. And its tasty "dated" freshness is just what hearty appetites go for.

PICNIC SALAD TRICK

Try this hit-maker salad. ANN PAGE SALAD DREDSING from A&P gives it tempting, distinctive flavor. Cook 8-02. pkg. of Ann Page Elbow Macaroni as package directs. Drain. Add 1 small onion, chopped; ½ green pepper and ½ red pepper or pimiento, sliced; ½ cup Ann Page Salad Dressing, 1 cup diced cheese, salt and pepper. Chill; pack in jars; wrap jars in paper to keep cold. Serves 6.
