White Undecided About Retirement From The B. P. W.

Made Announcement Last Week In Good Faith But Appears About To Be "Drafted" For Re-election

University Of Life Will Open Sunday At South Church

Council Of Churches Sponsors Series Of Six Union Meetings

The arrangements committee for the University of Life, Herbert P. Carter, chairman, announces that all plans are now complete for the first of the 1950 series of meetings to be held at the Free church and the South church. The first three sessions are to be held at the Free church Jan. 29, Feb. 5 and 12; the last three sessions will be in the South church Feb. 19, 26 and Mar. 5. Buffet suppers will be served promptly at 6:15 o'clock.

Events during the next few days will determine for Sidney P. White whether or not he will be a candidate for re-election to the board of public works.

After long consideration he announced last week his decision to retire from the board at the end of his present term. He would still serve the town in the offices of selectman and assessor to which he was elected a year ago.

However, since he announced his intention to retire from the board of public works after 12 years service with that body he has had many appeals to reconsider his action, and a few days ago a group of prominent citizens took out nomination papers and circulated them in his behalf.

Mr. White has felt that some other capable citizens would come forward as candidates for the board but up to the present writing there have been no announcements of anyone seeking the office.

Mr. White told The Townsman:

"I was sincere when I made my public statement last week. It was my choice to retire and relax from the duties involved in the board of public works.

"In forming this decision it was my honest opinion that some capable, public-spirited citizen would come forward and give freely of his time to the good of the town as a whole.

1949 Fire Loss Below Prior Year

Andover's fire loss for 1949 was $15,942, according to the figures contained in the annual report of Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan. This is well below the loss of $21,701 for the previous year.

The department in 1949 answered 58 bell alarms and 192 still alarms as compared to 70 bell alarms and 163 still alarms the year before. The assessed value of buildings whether fires occurred in 1949 was $150,250, while the similar figures for 1948 was $895,775. The department in answering alarms in 1949 laid 52,300 feet of hose.

The number of ambulance calls last year was 469 and the year before it was 551.

Will Canvass Town In Polio Campaign

One long blast of the fire alarm next Sunday at 2 p.m. will announce the opening of a town-wide house to house canvass in behalf of the Andover drive for infantile paralysis.

Only $2145 was raised here last year in the polio campaign and the committee this year wants to double that amount. They have the cooperation of the boys scouts who will participate in the canvass Sunday together with as many interested citizens who wish to volunteer for this work.

Essex county had 217 new cases of polio in 1949 compared to 36 in 1948. Funds ran low on account of this extra demand for service and the committee is urging all residents to be as generous as possible this year.

Make Public Tour Of Central Schools

Tuesday afternoon, Kenneth Sherman, superintendent of schools, conducted a tour of the central schools which was sponsored by the League of Women Voters. Mr. Sherman began by showing the group Punchard High school, where the quiet, well-ventilated and spacious rooms were a startling contrast to the rooms in the much older John Dove, Jackson, and Stowe schools. The three old schools, although brightened by paint and by the teachers' ingenuity at decoration, seemed cramped, noisy, and badly worn. The group was depressed by the washrooms, and by the lunchroom facilities which were gloomy and entirely too small.

Mr. Sherman pointed out that the Punchard cafeteria which was built for 400 pupils is now serving 6-800 daily and cannot handle any more, so the need for an elementary school cafeteria is acute. Surprise was shown at the total lack of indoor play area in all the old schools, a cause of great discomfort to children and teachers, particularly in bad weather.

There was general protest at the continued use of Stowe school, and the group expressed the hope that the proposed new school be an 18-room building instead of a 12-room one.

VIEW OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

One of the best ways to understand what a people intend to do is to listen to what they are thinking. And it is time that we appreciate the fact that Germany hopes one day to hold the balance of power in Europe between the western allies and Russia. If that day comes then we'd better prepare ourselves for the worst. And the sure way to put Germany in that position is to let her build up her war potential. Another effective method is to re-arm her.

Germany Wants Living Room

One way to estimate how a nation will treat her neighbors is to see what she thinks of them. Our excellent Mr. Hauser in his "The German Talks Back" gives us a good clue by stating what he claims is the way the Germans will explain away the two recent wars. Naturally, the punch line is that the Germans are completely misunderstood by the whole world. Something like the way hold-up victims misunderstand the gunman. The world, says Hauser, doesn't understand that Germany is overpopulated, that the nation is full of frictions amongst them.

New Baptist Minister Here Sunday, Feb. 5

The Rev. Roy E. Nelson, Jr., who has accepted a call to become pastor to the Baptist church, will occupy the pulpit for the first time here on Sunday, Feb. 5. Mr. Nelson, who has been pastor of the First Baptist church, Marblehead, for seven years, submitted his resignation to that church effective Jan. 31.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson took up his duties at Marblehead in Nov., 1942, after having served the First Baptist church in Georgetown for three years. He was ordained to the Baptist ministry in the Georgetown church in 1941.

Rollerskating Club Increases At Guild

A considerable increase in the interest of the rollerskating club at the Andover Guild has resulted in the classes being held two periods a week. Each Friday from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. and each Saturday from 7:45 to 8:45 p.m. the gymnasium is used for rollerskating. Any member of the guild may participate in this activity, the only requirement being that they have fiber or wooden rollers on their skates.

Among the townspeople who will be in the race are Loris Stefani and son, Marco; and Bill Hogan of Hidden road. The following are Frostbite enthusiasts: The Miles Malones of Main st., the Byron Smiths of Johnson Acres, the Kingman Websters of Sunset Rock road, the Ernest Wilkinsons of Salem st., the Edwin Bramleys of Appletree lane, the Dino Valzes of Stratford rd., the Walter Partidges of Walnut ave., Mrs. Herbert Farnsworth and son, Jerry, of Porter rd., and Sammy Adriance of School st.

Makes Pledge To Stop Speeding In Andover

"I am determined to stop speeding in the town of Andover," said Trial Justice Richard K. Gordon at Wednesday's local session of court where a list of 10 defendants was brought before him on speeding charges.

"Those who are found to be guilty of that offense in this court," continued Justice Gordon "will suffer the full penalty that the statute provides."

"I commend the police force for their fine job in protecting some 3500 school children of the town. However, I take it upon myself to discourage those who would gamble with human life. No speeder has the moral or legal right to say that a life is worth the few seconds he may gain by traveling at a speed which is greater than reasonable and proper through the town."

"I make this statement, not as a warning, for it has been my experience that warnings are looked upon as something to dare, but as a pledge to make the ponderance of the law felt in the right places." Thomas Maltis of Providence, R. I., pleaded nolo to speeding and failing to slow down at an inter-

Truck Driver Fined In Fatal Accident

tested the brakes of the defendant's truck.

The accident occurred on North Main street about 8:30 a.m. when a group of children were crossing the street on the way to the Shaw-sheen school.

In his testimony Cloogan said he was going toward Andover when he noticed a boy and girl about four or five feet from the west sidewalk. The girl put up her hand and he came to a gradual stop 10 or 15 feet from them. The girl went back to the west walk and the next thing he knew was when he heard a scream and he saw the truck overturning to his right. He said he had been stopped about 12 seconds before the accident.

James Doherty said he saw a small child start across the street from west to east and the girl started after the child. He testified he could not say definitely if the automobile stopped fully but he did see the little girl lift her hand in a stop signal. She then ran back to the sidewalk. He said he then saw the truck rolling over and it seemed to him that the van of the truck on its left side, forward of the rear wheels, hit the youngster a glancing blow in the back of the head.

Mr. MacDonald said he saw two children standing on the west walk and there was a little girl on the east side. He stopped thinking they wanted to cross.

He said he saw the Cloonan car come along and slow down. He stated that he then saw the truck fully 75 feet or more behind the automobile, starting to turn to the right. He said that the little girl then started back to the west sidewalk directly in the path of the truck that was heading for the house over the walk. He estimated the speed of the truck at about 30 miles per hour when he first saw it about 50 feet back of the driveway at that point. He said the children stood about six to eight feet away from the curb for a few seconds before moving into the street.

Inspector Hancock gave the defendant's version of the accident as told in the presence of Chief Dane.

He, the defendant, stated he was following about 25 to 30 feet back of the automobile at 25 to 28 miles per hour. Suddenly, he said, the car in front of his truck stopped without signalling. Coughlin said he swung the truck to the right to avoid a collision and applied his brakes but the truck did not seem to stop. He said he was conscious of a skid as though a front wheel was locked and the next thing he knew the truck overturned. At no time, the defendant had stated, did he see any children and was not aware that he had hit the little girl until he crawled out of the truck.

Inspector Hancock then testified that he observed brake marks 61 feet long in a semi-circle to a point on the curb just north of the driveway, after which it continued 53 feet, making a total 114 feet from the start of the brake marks to the point where the truck stopped. He said the truck hit the house with considerable force.

Judging from the defendant's own estimate of the distance his truck was behind the automobile and the speed he admitted traveling, the inspector told the court, it was impossible to avoid hitting the automobile had he not veered to the right.

Coughlin, who had waived reading of the charge and had pleaded not guilty, told the court the car stopped suddenly and he applied his breaks, veering to the right. He said he went into a skid and seemed to be going broadside before tipping over. He never saw the children in the roadway and did not see the truck hit the child, learning of what happened only when he got out of the truck. He stated his brakes did not seem to grab when he applied them first, although he had tested them before starting out in the morning.

"MR. AND MRS." NIGHT

Roller Skating Club Increases At Guild

The dramatic club is making final preparations for the coming show under the direction of Branton Daveys.

A record changing machine is desired to start a music appreciation group. Morris Williams, 1 Brooke st. has offered his services to the guild as well as his extensive library of records, to assist in the organization of this club.

A group of wide-eyed youngsters gather around Robert Bock of Methuen, a volunteer instructor in boxing on Wednesday evenings. The object of this class is to instruct the boys in the use of the punching bag as a means of exercise.

Under the tutelage of James Butler of Ballardvale a wrestling class still maintains considerable interest. Between the wrestling on the television and the actual experience the boys are getting, wrestling has become one of the most popular sports.

If enough women are interested, a class will be started in rug hooking, by contacting the director of the Andover Guild.

The photography class has advanced to the point where they would like to enlarge prints. If you have an enlarger that is not being used that you would care to lend or donate to the guild, it would be greatly appreciated.

A model bowling alley, the gift of Mr. Billings, 9 Wolcott ave. is greatly appreciated.

Winners of the senior boys ping pong tournament were: L. Sullivan, J. Stack, J. Barry, P. Thompson, C. Dwyer, G. McCafferty, J. Wennik, T. Surrette, and A. Middleton. After the next round of games, the members will enter the final quarter.

SLATTERY CLASS

The Margaret Slattery class will hold its regular business meeting at 7 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 31 at the home of Miss Margaret Laurie, 59 Whittier st. Devotionals will be led by the class leader, Mrs. Lester Reynolds. Mrs. Arthur J. Jowett will conduct the business meeting. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Jowett, Miss Margaret Laurie, Miss Grace Lake, and Mrs. David MacDonald.

Discuss New Parsonage
For The Free Church

Sweet Simplicity

French-inspired, American-made is this Fuller cotton broadcloth dress, one of the Kate Greensway juvenile fashions featured in the February Good Housekeeping. Its sturdy seams won't "give" in the laundry, and its simple design is a friend of the lady who dunks, starches, and irons. Available in desert coral with jade trim, or gray with red, the dress sells for about $5 in sizes 3 to 6, and a dollar more in sizes 7 to 14.

Plans for a new parsonage for the Free Christian Church and plans for a new nursery room at the church were considered at the annual church business meeting held Jan. 18 in the church vestry.

The meeting was preceeded with a delicious home cooked supper served by members of the Women's union of the church. It was opened with prayer by the pastor the Rev. Levering Reynolds, Jr.

As is the usual custom, greetings were exchanged with the South church which was holding its annual meeting at the same time.

To care for the growing nursery class which now has 32 members, a committee was appointed to make plans for a new nursery room which will be financed largely through the generosity of the Women's union. The committee consists of Archie Gunn, Lewis Paine, Alexander Campbell, Mrs. Helen Adams and Mrs. Betty Whitcomb.

It was also voted that the moderator appoint a committee to investigate the possibility of the church having a church parsonage. The church has no had a parsonage for about 40 years.

The annual reports read and accepted at the meeting showed that the church and all church organizations were in good financial condition.

Officers for the year were elected by ballot as follows: Moderator, Rolan, K. Fraser; clerk, Mrs. Annie Angus; assistant clerk, Miss Judith Napier; treasurer, Dr. A. Warren Sanberg; assistant treasurer, Lewis Paine; church school superintendent, the Rev. Levering Reynolds, Jr.; auditor, Carleton E. Shulze; trustees for four years, John C. R. Denholm and Thomas Thin; deacons for four years, Thomas Gorrie, Everett Gorrie and Norman MacLeish; deaconess for four years, Mrs. Arthur Jackson.

Standing Committee, (extra members), Mrs. George Cilley, Mrs. Thomas Gorrie and Stanley F. Swanton; music committee, Mrs. Annie Angus, Mrs. Alfred Harris, James Watt, Leslie Christison and Thomas Thin; choir members, Miss Nancy Adams, Mrs. Lewis Paine, Mrs. Frank Nicoll, Mrs. James Watt, Mrs. Robert Deyermond and Mrs. Peter Markow; missionary committee, Miss Irma Beene, Mrs. Agnes Burdett, Mrs. George Cilley, Mrs. Ina Jowett and Mrs. James Sullivan; religious education, Mrs. Alexander Black, Mrs. Gordon Thompson, Mrs. Floyd Napier, George Keith, Mrs. William Burnham, Mrs. John Petrie and Miss Mary Angus; flower committee, Wendell Kydd; every member canvass committee, Mrs. Alfred R. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paine; delegates to Andover association, Mrs. Joshua Paine, Mrs. Michael Mann, Mrs. Thomas Dea and Mrs. Robert Deyermond.

During a brief meeting following the supper, Archie Gunn was elected chairman of trustees.

Old and new officers of the Ballateeners club of Ballardvale meet to discuss future plans for the organization. Icy Roads Create
Traffic Hazard

Old King Winter returned to the local scene for the past several days with snow, sleet, hail, rain and temperatures that were alternately warm and cold created the worst traffic conditions of the season.

The light snow that fell Saturday and Sunday covered the town with a white mantle hardly more than two inches deep.

To add a winter touch to the scene police closed several streets for coasting, youngsters were out with skis and sleds, crews of the board of public works sanded streets both days, only to have it turn to rain Sunday afternoon.

Rising temperatures and light rains Monday and Tuesday drove Old King Winter from the scene, but Tuesday afternoon and night falling temperatures with light rain glazed the streets and sidewalks with ice that made going extremely hazardous Wednesday morning. The no school signal sounded here for both morning and afternoon sessins.

Tons of sand were scattered over the town streets and sidewalks during these days. Besides the sanding over the weekend town employees were out again Tuesday afternoon and night, early Wednesday morning and were prepared to cover the routes again today in case that lower temperatures again coated the streets with ice.

Despite the bad traffic conditions no serious accidents were reported here.

Only the brown felt service cap will be worn." —Pathfinder

FEED LAWN EARLY

Now's the time to start thinking about feeding your lawn if you want the grass to get full benefit of the food. As soon as the soil dries enough to be walked on without leaving foot prints, you should give the grass its nourishment. House Beautiful magazine explains that late feeding—after March 15—must be shared with the young weed seedlings because weeds don't start to germinate until the soil warms up.

By JOE RAYBALL

Basketball
Punchard's basketball team just hasn't seem to hit their stride yet and if they don't do it soon their chances of attending the Tech tourney in Boston are very slim.

Track
Punchard has a week's rest till the state meet Feb. 4 at the Boston Garden. The meet with the Phillips Varsity 2nds recently showed that the locals are very strong in the running events but weak in the field events this year.

Model Meet
As a fitting close to the two week exhibit of model airplanes and trains at the Memorial Hall library, there will be a model plane and train meet held at the Memorial Hall library at 7 p. m. Friday, Feb. 3.

Chief Sees Danger From Monoxide Fumes
Police Chief George A. Dane in cooperation with the Massachusetts Safety Council is calling attention of all motorists to the great danger of monoxide fumes.

Banker Heads Course On Home Mortgages
Louis S. Finger, treasurer of the Andover Savings Bank, heads the course on home mortgage lending of the 1950 courses of the Boston Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

Service Club
Movies of the last world series will be shown at the meeting of the Andover Service club at the Andover Inn tonight when Jack Onslow, manager of the Chicago White Sox, will be the guest speaker.

Insurance Co. Holds Clinic

The clinic of instruction at the home offices of the Merrimack and Cambridge Mutual Fire Insurance companies closed last week. Those in attendance included special and general agents, managers from the Southern territories, assistant secretaries, examiners, inspectors, accountants as well as loss department managers. The clinic covered three day sessions.

In opening the conference, President, Burton S. Flagg outlined the general policies controlling the institutions in their services which now cover 27 states with several hundred reporting offices.

MODEL MEET

As a fitting close to the two week exhibit of model airplanes and trains at the Memorial Hall library, there will be a model plane and train meet held at the Memorial Hall library at 7 p. m. Friday, Feb. 3. All model builders, young and old, fathers and sons, are cordially invited to attend. There will be ribbons awarded, first, second and third for the smallest and largest airplane, with and without motors; for the smallest and largest locomotive or single car, with and without motors, and for the longest train, with and without motors. There will be an opportunity to examine the various models brought in and to discuss their fine points with other model builders.

A movie will be shown, "Museum And Santa Fe Railroad," which is an account of model railroad exhibits, donated by the Santa Fe Railroad.

All are urged to come to the meet and to bring any favorite models. Those who already have planes or trains on exhibit in the library may bring additional ones from home if they wish. All model builders, whether beginners or experts, are welcome.

Chief Sees Danger From Monoxide Fumes

Police Chief George A. Dane in cooperation with the Massachusetts Safety Council is calling attention of all motorists to the great danger of monoxide fumes. During the cold weather, due to leaky exhausts and other causes, many motorists are killed every year by these poisonous fumes.

Chief Dane says monoxide has no odor, which makes it hard to detect. So be sure your exhaust system is in safe condition. If you have any doubt whatever, have a thorough checkup made by a person skilled in that type of work. It may save not only your own life but the lives of those who might be riding with you.

Andover Toy Drive Proves Successful

The toy drive conducted by the Legion posts and auxiliaries to provide toys for the needy children of Europe proved to be very successful in Andover.

Through the schools the Legion groups in conjunction with the Andover Fire department collected enough toys to fill 15 large cartons. These were packed at the central fire station and sent to Philadelphia where with other toys collected by this national drive on the part of the American Legion, they will be shipped to Europe.

This tide of toys from American children will be distributed through CARE which has an organization in almost all European countries.

P. A. Seconds Win 49-29 Over P. H. S. Track Team

In the 600 Joe Rayball covered the course in 1:23.7, clipping 3.3 seconds off Eric Hallback's record. In the mile Dantos ran the race in 5:01.2, which was 8.8 seconds better than the former indoor record held by John Pingree.

Tickets are selling rapidly but still may be obtained through students at Punchard high and the junior high schools, also at the Jonathan Swift shop, the Andover Bookstore and the Andover Inn.

The following subjects have been selected from the proposed evening educational programs to be held at the Memorial Hall library, in the coming weeks. There will be four evenings set aside for those who enjoy listening to music in the company of others who share their enthusiasm; this year, there will be discussion, under a leader, of how to listen to music. Further information will be published later.

Three lecture evenings will be held in February and March on the subject "A Woman And Her Money." The discussion will be concerned with a woman's use of the bank, a budget system and insurance.

Those who are interested in the formation of an informal discussion group are asked to meet at the library at 7:30 p. m. Feb. 2 to consider the organization of such a group.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

TRAFFIC SAFETY

Andover police last year issued about 400 tags for traffic violations, most of them to Andover residents.

This was one of the sidelights brought out at the conference last week which a delegation from the Shawsheen PTA and the schools had with the board of selectmen on highway safety. The 400 tags, by the way, were apart from those issued for parking violations.

Another observation made at the meeting was that the stop signs at the corner of Poor and William streets are frequently disregarded by operators, almost all of whom are persons who drive through there regularly. This is one intersection which the delegation considers in need of special attention.

In view of the above remarks made during the discussions it is interesting to note the latest figures published in the traffic manual issued by the highway safety division of the Massachusetts Safety council which shows what Andover police are doing about enforcement.

In the towns of 10,000 to 25,000 population Andover's record stands out prominently. For the month of November, the latest issued, the number of traffic arrests here was 13; warning cards sent to the registry of motor vehicles for action, 32; verbal warnings, 8; number of persons injured, 9; property damage, 6.

In another category, that of the number of deathless days from Nov. 30, Andover was listed among the leading communities of the state, being 12th with a total of 333.

As far as traffic enforcement is concerned Andover is regarded among motorists from other parts of the state as being "tough." This seems like another way of saying the police department is on the job.

IF THEY WIN—CURTAINS

During the current session of congress, the drive to socialize the power industry of this country will continue. It is expected that the strongest pressure will be exerted behind the proposed Columbia Valley administration measure which would give a three-man board virtually dictatorial authority over basic resources of the Pacific Northwest. CVA is being pushed for the simple reason that it is planned as the pattern for similar authorities in other sections of the country.

According to most forecasts, it is not likely that CVA will be voted by the 81st congress — opposition from the affected states has been extremely strong, and has come from the governors and other public officials, newspapers, civic groups, and so on. But this fact will not deter CVA's advocates. There is a long-term program. If they are defeated one year, they'll be back the next. For it is an obvious fact that the friends of Socialism in our federal government need to win only once — then they'll be in the saddle permanently. The friends of free enterprise, on the one hand, must win every time to survive.

That is why the electric power fight is of importance to every one of us. The fate of the utilities is only a small part of a national issue. The big thing is that if this industry can be socialized, the precedent will be established for extending the same treatment to other basic industry. The authority and rights of the states will be destroyed. The federal government will call the tune everywhere, and all of us will dance to it. CVA, and kindred proposals, are symbols of a great conflict that will determine whether we are to remain a free people — or whether we are to let the federal government become our unchallenged master.

THE YOUTH CENTER

With a diversified list of activities that appeal to all youngsters of school age, the Youth Center at the Andover Guild is bustling with liveliness every afternoon as a growing membership of boys and girls gather there to participate in its program.

Beginning at 2:30 p. m. every school day and at 9 a. m. Saturdays there is never an idle moment at the center until its doors close at night.

Included in its weekly schedule are numerous leagues and a great number of games in senior, intermediate and junior classes, as well as many clubs that cater to a wide variety of interests.

Besides having so much to entertain "youth," the center also sponsors a mother-daughter, and a father-son bowling league, and every Wednesday has a businessmen's class that is becoming more popular each week. Truly, a community center.

Now the director and his assistants are looking for more equipment as their classes and clubs increase with the growing interests in its activities. Through the kindness of many people in Andover some of it has been obtained. More gym equipment could be used and the camera club that has been active in photography during the past 12 weeks would like to secure an enlarger. The director, Donald D. Dunn, or his assistants would be glad to hear from anybody who could donate games and equipment for the use of the youngsters. This, indeed is a cause which merits support.

WEEK'S QUOTE:

"All the world is a neighborhood, as good or bad as we and our neighbors make it. The one institution that binds us together is the United Nations family." — Norris E. Dodd, director-general of the U.N. food and agriculture organization.

selves and their neighbors because they are rubbing shoulders all the time. So, to live socially among themselves and their neighbors, Germany needs more living space.

Two Wars To Get It

History must therefore understand that the real goal in 1914 was not the defeat of Britain and France in itself, but to smash through them to the ultimate objective of the wide-open spaces of Africa or wherever there are underpopulated regions overseas. The second war? Germany did not want to smash France, Belgium, Britain and the others. She merely wanted to smash through them because they were barriers in Germany's path to the open spaces where Germans should live. And what of the neighbors and the lands the Germans meant to occupy? Had they no rights? Remember that to live socially Germany must have more living space.

A simple philosophy to understand. A rewarding one to follow. Kick from your path anyone who stands between you and your objective. What serves Germany's interests is right. Therefore pick a leader with the right objective, accept Prussianism and its utter belief in authority, and the world is your oyster.

A Third Attempt?

Does that sound rather exaggerated? Perhaps it does. To you. But not to author Hauser. Says he again, the world doesn't understand so long as Germany "gathers steam" through overpopulation then so-called—presumably mis-called—German aggression is bound to recur no matter what the governmental system. It still can't happen again? Will it be for want of trying?

What do young radical Nazis think, according to the author? The Russians are on the march. All the Germans need to do to become acceptable would be to adapt Germany's brand of radicalism to Russia's. Then if Germany helps Russia to defeat the West, Moscow might give back what Germany lost in the war. A simple philosophy—and rewarding.

With Russia's Support?

Do the Germans want communism, do they believe in it? The answer is perhaps found in the answer to another question. What's in it for Germany? And what does Hauser think the Germans see in it? A dream of the future. Everything else has failed Germany. Communism hasn't been tried. The logic of Germany's present position demands that communism become the new national dream.

While the author doesn't so commit himself, it might be deduced that communism like Prussianism demands complete obedience, believes in force, has no scruples so long as the objective is achieved. If the Germans adopt communism then they will be lifted overnight from the status of outcasts to the status of allies of the biggest land power on earth. Then Germany becomes the all-important proletarian front line guarding the workers' paradise against the predatory capitalist west.

Does this too sound exaggerated? That's perhaps because it is hard to wear another's shoes. Why did German youth follow Hitler so blindly? Because he promised them all the rewards of conquest—the administrative positions in the conquered countries, the power of being little Hitlers wherever Germany expanded. The refrain is an old German one with new words. In 1914, Deutschland Uber Alles. In 1939 they were setting out to conquer the world. Perhaps the refrain really hasn't changed. Some of the facts of 1949 are worth looking at.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago—January 1900

The temperature Jan. 20 was 44 degrees at 7 a.m. and 56 degrees at noon.

A curiosity in the canine line was the Eskimo full blooded dog which accompanied H. M. Hayward of Ballardvale to town. It resembles a grey wolf with which the breed is often crossed. Although only six months old, the dog is large and powerful.

Dr. Pauline Root, a returned missionary to India, delivered an interesting address at the Old South church before a large number of church attendants.

H. F. Chase recently sent at a present to Dr. Selah Merrill, U.S. consul at Jerusalem, a new folding pocket Kodak in order that he might secure some pictures of the natives who do not like cameras.

There is a prevalence of fever, resembling scarlet fever, among the children of the town.

Town clerk Marland is looking up the births not reported at the town house during the past year.

Chief Mears has stopped the coasting on principal streets of the town, especially Phillips and Central, where there is the most danger of accidents. The turn at the railroad bridge near H. Abbott's place is always a particularly perilous spot.

Last week's "Harper's Bazar" contained an article on Octave

25 Years Ago—January 1925

Ten degrees below zero is reported from Shawsheen this morning. This is not the coldest morning of the season as the glass has already stood at 14 below, but the high wind made the temperature seen even lower than it was.

There have been an unusually large number of whist parties, installations and jitney socials in town since the first of the year.

Vital statistics for the year just past reveal an increase in the number of births and marriages;—few deaths from communicable diseases and many living to a ripe old age.

Punchard High lost its third straight basketball game of the season Friday, but broke into the winning column the following Monday.

The Harvard Club of Andover has established a Harvard book prize at Punchard. The prize is to be awarded to that student in the junior class, preparing for college, whom the principal, after consultation with the faculty and the boy's classmates, shall deem most worthy by reason of high scholarship and character. The recital given by the Fox-Burgin-Bedetti trio in the chapel of Phillips academy on Monday evening was one of the most interesting musical events of the season.

10 Years Ago—January 1940

All those wishing to try out for the Adventurers' spring play, "Holiday" are invited to attend a reading of the play Feb. 2nd at the home of Mrs. James Eaton on Abbot st.

Bump Hadley, star New York Yankee pitcher, spoke to a large crowd of over 500 at the Memorial auditorium. He also showed the official American League movie, "Touching the Bases." Mrs. Guy Howe of Wolcott ave. was recently elected vice-president of the Merrimack district Ladies auxiliary of the Episcopal church Service league.

The Sacred Heart sodality of St. Augustine's church will hold a whist party this evening at the home of Mrs. George Dentremon of Temple place.

A few articles for acceptance of streets and purchase of privately installed water mains will be included in the warrant for the annual town meeting.

The Rev. Vivian T. Pomeroy of the First Parish church in Milton will be the speaker at the next meeting of the November club.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I am a World War II veteran receiving compensation from VA. How should I go about making certain that I get my compensation checks while I am living in England in 1950?

A—You should give VA your address in England; or, if you don't know what your address will be, you should write VA asking that your account be suspended until you forward your new address. When you send in the address, all checks due you will be mailed as directed.

Q—I want to reinstate my National Service life insurance converted policy that I allowed to lapse about eight months ago. Will I have to pay for the medical examination connected with the reinstatement application?

A—If you desire to reinstate your NSLI you may, upon application, receive a physical examination free of charge at any VA field office having medical facilities.

Q—Is there a provision that allows monthly income payments to disabled National Service life insurance policy holders?

A—A provision may be added to NSLI policies on application of the insured which provides payments of $5 per month for each $1,000 of insurance in force. The insured pays a small additional premium to have this protection.

Q—Are medical treatment and hospitalization available to me for my service-connected disability while I am residing in a foreign country?

A—Hospitalization and medical treatment are available to you only if you are a U. S. citizen, residing temporarily in a foreign country and in need of treatment or care for a war service-connected disability.

Not Enough Talk At Women's Clubs

Emily Kimbrough, co-author of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" and one of the country's most popular lecturers, said today that there's too little talking and too much lecturing at women's clubs.

Acknowledging that "women's clubs have become one of the most important factors in the world today," the author complains that "American women's club audiences have become the best listeners in the world, but they have lost the habit of speaking up."

Miss Kimbrough expresses her views in the February issue of House Beautiful magazine. "In four years of lecturing," she writes, "I have not had questions asked on more than four occasions, and I have never had more than two questions asked on any occasion. . . . It must be, then, that American women's club audiences are cowed."

Emphasizing her esteem for women's clubs in general, the author says: "There is no aspect of government, I venture to say, either local or national, that has not been influenced by these magnificently organized groups."

Farlane as co-hostess, Mrs. Robert Mitchell will lead the devotional program.

All past members are invited to attend this meeting. Miss Doris Shaw will be in charge of the birthday program.

PTA Meeting

A very important meeting will be held by the Ballardvale PTA in the Bradlee school at 8 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 2.

Kenneth L. Sherman, superintendent of schools will be one of the speakers as well as other members of the school committee. The recent survey of the Andover schools will be discussed especially in regard to the Bradlee school. As the population of Ballardvale has increased the necessity of a school in Ballardvale has increased.

It is hoped that all interested residents of Ballardvale whether members of the PTA or not will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the facts regarding the situation.

Founders Day of the PTA will also be observed at this meeting. Mrs. John Wilson will have charge of this part of the program. The annual birthday cake will be a feature. All past presidents and other officers are invited.

Bart Smalley the president, will preside at the business meeting. A social hour will be held and refreshments will be served.

Asks State To Help Cut Traffic Hazards

The board of selectmen Monday night sent a letter to Edgar F. Copell, chief traffic engineer of the state board of public works, calling attention to the fatal accident in Shawsheen Village and enclosing a list of remedies suggested by the Shawsheen PTA.

The letter also stated that chairman Roy E. Hardy would arrange for a conference with Mr. Copell in order to go over the whole traffic safety situation with him in connection with the improvements outlined by the Shawsheen delegation.

Since the accident employees from the state department have been working on the traffic lights at the junction of North Main and Union streets at which it was reported that the red and yellow lights for pedestrians were out of order.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary No. 8 will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 26 in the post rooms. Mrs. Arthur Jowett will preside.

Roy E. Hardy Presides At State Assessors Meeting

Following a meeting of the association of Massachusetts Assessors over which he presided for the first time since being elected president, Roy E. Hardy received a letter from Henry F. Long, commissioner of corporations and taxation, complimenting him upon the splendid way the round table was handled.

In his letter Mr. Long said: "It was a distinct compliment to you and I hope you had the satisfaction out of it to which you are definitely entitled." The organization meets monthly. Mr. Hardy was vice president last year.

Grooming Care Cheers the Convalescent

The prettier a patient looks, the better she feels—and that's true whether she's sixteen or sixty. If you have a bed-ridden convalescent in your care, include a few pampering procedures in her daily routine. It will pep up her spirits.

Daily hair care is advisable. For the woman whose scalp is tender, try a child's soft-type brush. Occasionally, for an especially effective hair cleansing, saturate cheesecloth with witch hazel and draw it down over the hairbrush bristles. Brush in the usual way, renewing the cheesecloth as it becomes soiled.

A daily sponge bath is refreshing, too. After the patient has been patted dry, end the bath session with a soothing baby lotion rub. Use this fragrant white emulsion all over the body, with special attention to heels, elbows and back where pressure is likely to cause bedsores. Hospitals are using this homogenized mixture of pure bland oil and water with lanolin and an antiseptic to help lessen the possibility of such lesions.

The home nurse can also help by cutting circles and rest pads out of foam rubber. These may be wound with clean surgical gauze which can be replaced as it gets soiled. These "doughnuts," as home nurses call them, relieve pressure at various points.

In cleaning the teeth, wind a tongue depressor with surgical gauze moistened with a mouthwash and brush the tongue, as that's often the focal point for unpleasant fuzziness.

Light, air, sun and pleasant surroundings make illness easier to bear, too. Often the patient's room may be brightened with interesting things to watch—a bowl of goldfish, a bird-feeding station outside a window, some growing plants. All these are stimulating diversions for one who's ill.

The Florida Keys, a chain of small islands, extend southwest land.

The growth of coffee accounts for a fifth of the agricultural products of Guatemala.

Selectmen's Budget Increases $38,000

The budgets of departments under the supervision of the board of selectmen have jumped this year from about $408,000 of 1949 to approximately $38,000, it was found when they were brought up for consideration with the finance committee at the board meeting Monday night.

About 80 percent of the $30,000 increase is due to action of the state legislature and the voters of the town. The old age assistance is much higher this year, an additional $2000 is allotted for a state election year, and the police and fire department budgets include the full increases caused by the reduction of hours granted at the last town meeting. About one percent of the budgets is due to the natural growth of all departments.

The selectmen voted permission to the Lawrence Gas & Electric Co., to excavate from an existing pole on the south side of Chestnut street, near Highland avenue, across the street to provide underground service for a dwelling there, subject to the approval of Charles Poor, who has a house under construction on Chestnut street close to the existing pole.

CANINE KERCHOOS
Don't bed your dog down in blankets if he starts to sneeze. Veterinarians believe that dogs and cats probably do not catch colds. According to the "What's Good for Pets" columns of Good Housekeeping magazine, only chimpanzees and humans have colds, although all pets sneeze at times from one cause or another. Both cats and dogs have diseases that closely resemble human colds, but these are enough unlike colds to be distinguishable.

512 ESSEX ST. LAWRENCE TEL. LAW. 32769

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1<sup>15</sup>?

IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?" you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies.

To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today... you don't have gasoline rationing today.

Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $300,000,000 a year —freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel... $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

He received his theological training at Gordon college of Theology and at the Gordon Divinity school, from which he obtained his A.B. degree and bachelor of divinity.

During his Marblehead pastorate Mr. Nelson entered the army and served as a chaplain in World War II. He returned to the pastorate in 1946. Under his guidance many improvements have been made in the church building and its property.

He is a trustee of the Massachusetts Baptist Charitable society and vice president of the Conference of Baptist Ministers of Greater Boston.

Mr. Nelson with his wife and two daughters, Carol, 7, and Sherry, 20 months, will occupy the new parsonage at 24 Central st.

This property was recently purchased and renovated by the real estate committee, Harold Livingstone, chairman, Clinton Stevens and Rayburn Hathaway, in conjunction with the standing committee, of which Kenneth Thompson, moderator, is chairman.

Will Canvass Town In Polio Campaign

As an added attraction as well as a means to provide more revenue the senior class of Punchard High school will repeat its big hit "Life With Father" in the Memorial auditorium at 9 p.m., Feb. 8.

Coin boxes have been placed at many convenient places about town to help swell the March of Dimes contributions to this great cause.

In its fight against the disease the Essex county chapter, of which Andover is a part, maintains Camp Sea Haven at Plum Island, a free vacation land for polio children of the county.

The Andover committee includes George C. Williams, chairman; Chief C. Edward Buchan, co-chairman; Woodrow Crowley, treasurer; the Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., Harold Wennik, the Andover fire department, Kenneth L. Sherman, Charles F. Dalton, Reta Buchan, Vincent Treanor and the Rev. Frederick B. Noss.

White Undecided About Retirement From B.P.W.

"None as yet has been forthcoming. Since last week I have received many visits and calls from townspeople — some of them heavy taxpayers, some of them employees of the board of public works — urging me to run again for re-election.

"There has also been a movement on the part of a group of prominent citizens to "draft" me for this office. They have seen fit to take out and circulate nomination papers in my behalf, and in view of all this I may feel it only fair to reconsider my previous decision."

Only another week remains for candidates to file nomination papers with Town Clerk George H. Winslow.

Up to the present all town officials whose terms expire this year are candidates for re-election except Mr. White, who has not made his final decision.

So far only three new candidates have entered the field, Papers are being circulated for Persis A. Crawford, 9 Hidden rd., for school committee; Atty. William G. Quigley, 502 S. Main st., for the housing authority; and Ernest J. Picard, Lowell rd., for a 3-year term on the school committee.
