Cow On Loose Creates Stir In W. Andover

Capture of an all-black cow that treed some of the men who went after her has baffled her owner, Albert Tisbert of Greenwood rd., and some of his relatives and neighbors who tried to help him.

Escaping Monday by leaping from the pen in which it had been confined, the animal charged those who went after it and sent them scurrying into trees for safety.

Since then it has been seen several times, always coming back near the Tisbert home about 5 o'clock in the evening, but each time someone would go after it and the animal would disappear. Although she seemed dangerous to those who first tried to rope her there have been no reports of her doing any damage.

The cow is an Aberdeen A a breed of noted beef cows which Mr. Tisbert had intended to stock his farm. He has had it since last winter and it never before caused any trouble.

Says Hoover Com. Report Aids Veterans

Recommendations of the Hoover report for changes in the Veterans' Administration were made to prevent waste in government funds and the irritating delays in services to veterans, Edward A. Sherman, executive director of the Massachusetts committee for the Hoover report states in commenting on a statement of Commander Richard Wrigley of the local Legion post published recently in The Townsman.

Commander Wrigley had noted the "unity and courage that makes this nation great" and called for veterans to unite in their own interests as "the little men with economy axes are out after the GI Bill of Rights and other vet benefits. . . . The recent report on veterans made by the presidential committee headed by ex-President Hoover gave these 'economy' lobbies a shot in the arm and now they're feeling their oats."

Tyer Rubber Employees Act To Protect Jobs

FINDS LETTER POSTED IN TRAFFIC CONTROL BOX

Imagine the surprise of John E. Wheeler of the Lawrence Gas & Electric Co. when he opened the traffic control box at Main and Chestnut streets to read the meter and found a letter posted there. The box is painted green but there the similarity with a mail box ends. The letter was turned over to the postal authorities.

Ask State To Take Section Of Main St.

In connection with the suggestion made in The Townsman a few months ago to eliminate the traffic hazard created by the grass plot in Main street near Phillips academy, the selectmen Monday night voted to request Commissioner William F. Callahan of the state department of public works to consider the possibility of the state highway department taking over and maintaining part of Route 28 between Wheeler street and the present end of the state highway near the Memorial tower.

This strip of roadway, formerly occupied by electric car tracks, has a wide grass area which juts abruptly into Main street and creates a traffic bottle-neck.

Academy officials have had plans for some years to eliminate the grass plot, widen the highway and put traffic islands in the center. They have conferred with town officials on means to eliminate the traffic hazard there and if the state takes over the strip, will undoubtedly make their plans available for state engineers.

Employees of the Tyer Rubber Co. have organized a plan of action to protect their jobs and the American standard of living against the proposed tariff reduction which threatens to reduce employment in the rubber industry.

Posters explaining the proposed legislation have been placed on bulletin boards and employees, friends and relatives are writing their congressmen to protect the industry from foreign competition which produces rubber and canvas footwear at extremely low prices.

The selectmen have also entered the campaign of the local concern. They have written Senators Leverett Saltonstall and Henry Cabot Lodge, and Cong. Edith Nourse Rogers. Replies have been received from the senators who will watch developments in the proposed legislation.

Local merchants are vitally interested in the possibility of reduction of employment and may soon join in the plan of action taken by the company to protect the local production and payrolls.

The rubber industry, labor and management alike, as well as citizens and public officials in the communities where rubber footwear is manufactured, are all gravely concerned about further tariff reduction on imports of canvass and rubber footwear.

In the event that the reductions become effective the dom-

PUNCHARD 9 — METHUEN 7

Punchard had to come from behind to top Methuen 9 to 7 in a Merrimack Suburban league game here Tuesday. Capt. Jack McCarthy allowed only three hits but was in hot water frequently through the eight passes he issued. His 12 strikeouts helped him out of several holes. The game in doubt right up to the last inning when Methuen staged a rally that resulted in a run and had the tying run on base when the last man fanned.

lighted the students with his humorous comments concerning animal life.

estic industry would have to compete for the American market with imports from the nationalized industries of Czechoslovakia and Japan with their lower standards of living.

In the 30's the threat to the American rubber industry was so great that both Presidents Hoover and Roosevelt issued proclamations making duties on these products applicable on the American selling price basis.

In 1947 the American delegation at the reciprocal trade conference granted concessions to Czechoslovakia on waterproof rubber footwear which, in effect, cut the American duty in half, reducing it to 12½ percent.

The industry is one in which the labor cost in proportion to the whole cost, is high, namely 47 percent. An attack on the price structure becomes, therefore, an attack on the wage structure of the American worker.

P. H. S. SPORTS
by Joe Rayball

Punchard High's track team coached by Coach Donald D. Dunn is considered by many sport writers as a definite threat to capture from Gloucester the North Shore crown in the invitational meet Saturday.

Last year Punchard wasn't even heard of in track circles, that was until the invitational meet when they captured third place beating out such teams as Central Catholic, Methuen, Lawrence, Salem, Peabody and Haverhill. This year at Gloucester the host team is again favored while Beverly, which came in second last year, is expected to give Lawrence and Punchard quite a tussel for that second and third position. The reason for favoring the local boys is their fine indoor showing this year and also they have been the only high school team in the past three years to defeat the academy varsity second's in track. The local team defeated the academy boys 45 to 42 two weeks ago Wednesday. Coach Dunn feels his boys can win the North Shore and it's hoped by all of us that they can and will bring more honor and glory to the school like last year.

The rest of the track schedule is May 3, dual meet at Gloucester; May 6, high school relays at U. of Mass., May 13, Essex County meet at Lawrence; May 14, Winchester; May 17, Newburyport; May 19, Methuen; May 24, Reading; June 1, Lexington.

ANDOVER A. C. READY FOR SEASON OPENER

The Andover A. C. will open their season at 2.30 p.m. Sunday, Apr. 29, on the Andover playground. They will meet the George Michael's club of the Lawrence City League. The following is the lineup of the Andover team:

Dubois 2b, Gordon ss, Campbell lf, Erler cf, Jones rf, Murray 3b, McCafferty 1b, Gerrish c, Craig or Wetterbery p.

The reserve ball players are: Wilson, Wennik, and Burnham Norm Bendroth and Ted Boudreau will be added to the team when the school term ends.

BY WAY OF COMPARISON

At various times, especially when there have been strikes, the riding public has been given the impression that the operators of the street railway bus system have a lot of grievances.

The Eastern Massachusetts System has just released a report showing some interesting figures. Names will be omitted but in the Quincy Division—the highest paid operator on the whole street railway system for 1949. Tax returns made by the company indicate that he was paid $3,912.34 for time spent driving a bus. . . . of the Campello Repair Shop in Brockton, was the highest paid mechanic. He received a total of $4,295.70

In the Chelsea Repair Shop, an electrician was the highest paid with $3,792.40.

The Quincy Division also furnished the highest paid mechanic among the divisional garages in a man who received a total of $4,234.60.

In the Melrose Division (local), the highest paid bus operator received $3,355.18, and the highest paid mechanic drew $3,652.85.

Highest paid mechanics and operators received corresponding wages in other divisions.

It would be interesting to know how many young men just out of college with technical or other skills, or even how many professional men getting established, have comparable incomes.

BASEBALL

Even though the local team dropped its first game to Howe High by a score of 14 to 7, it is believed by many fans that the local team is still in the race for the Lowell Suburban championship crown. The local team's weakness is in the pitching department. Till now not one of the five pitchers on the team has shown any definite ability. The local team has shown though that they are good hitters and good defensive players. But it is believed by this writer and a few of the fans that Coach Walter Roberts needs two good pitchers to keep it in the race.

SAYS HOOVER
COM. REPORT

In his letter dated April 20 Mr. Sherman says; I have read with interest a recent letter published in The Townsman signed by Commander Wrigley in which the Hoover blueprint for better and speedier service to veterans is attacked.

Possibly Townsman readers might appreciate a bit of background in this matter.

A broadside has been issued by the present national commander of the American Legion, broadcasting the statement that the Hoover plan means dismemberment of the Veterans' Administration and chaos and waste, not economy.

Doubtless it will come somewhat as a shock to the draftsmen of the task force reports and to the members of the commission to read of their "betrayal" (three times used) of the veterans. That the veterans are the "targets of a vicious attack," the victims of a "ruthless campaign to sell the veterans 'down the river,'" that the report is "another knife in the backs of the men and women who have honorably served our country in time of war," that the American veteran has been singled out as the "fall guy."

Perhaps further and calmer reflection might convince fair-minded counsellors that such recklessness of statements is ill-advised. Surely such grievous accusations of betrayal, of knife in the back, of selling down the river, cannot in good conscience be leveled at such men as;

Col. Franklin D'Olier, first national commander of the American Legion, who was chairman of the task force on Veterans' affairs; James Forrestal, late secretary of defense, and a commission member;

Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, of the military advisory committee of the task force on medical activities; General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, and Admiral Ernest J. King, all consultants to the task force on the related medical activities; and the following members of the national citizens committee for the Hoover Report;

Robert P. Paterson, former secretary of war and past Kansas state commander of the American Legion; Charles Edison, former secretary of the navy and member of the Navy League of the United States; Hanford McNider, former national commander of the American Legion; Alvin M. Owsley, former national commander of the American Legion, Texas state chairman of the citizens committee for the Hoover Report.

In fiscal 1951, according to budget estimates, the Veterans' Administration will spend over 6 billion dollars.

The Hoover Report concerns itself with how we spend that money—whether or not the veteran receives the maximum service possible for the dollars expended.

The Hoover Report found that altho World War II created 14,900,000 new veterans entitled to the services of the Veterans' Administration, its antiquated organization is not equipped to handle this burden efficiently. The result is a waste of government funds and irritating delays in services to the veterans.

The Veterans' Administration was found to be crippled by conflicting lines of authority between headquarters and field offices, by too many organizational units, by an excessive number of staff officers for major programs, by excessive and over-complicated rules for methods and procedures. All these produce con-

The social center of the afternoon will be the tea room with decorations by the household science class directed by Miss Elaine Dodge, who teaches the course at Abbot.

Birthday cakes and candles will be found on each table and students wearing the styles of the 1820's will add to the gaiety and charm of the already pleasant atmosphere. Miss Hope Coolidge has charge of the menu and the food to be sold will be the product of Abbot kitchens. The Highlanders in full regalia will play their bagpipes at fre-

The annual bazaar provides one of the fund-raising projects for the school's philanthropic aims. Proceeds from the bazaar are divided between such organizations as the World Student service fund, national organizations, local social service work and to the school's scholarship fund.

Abbot takes pride in the co-operation that comes from Andover and Boston merchants and from parents of students who donate merchandise for the booths, as well as from the good friends who attend as generous customers.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's Union to put an additional fireman on diesel locomotives has been CONSIDERED TWICE!

Fact Finding Boards appointed by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman have said these demands were "devoid of merit" and they were REJECTED TWICE!

Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain

FEATHER-BEDDING!

LEADERS OF the Firemen's union have called a nationwide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The union claim that a second fireman is needed on grounds of safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in an unsuccessful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this union, a Presidential Fact Finding Board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an extra fireman on diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the union leaders' demands, a second Board reported to President Truman that: "there presently exists no need for an additional fireman . . . upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency and economy of operation."

Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good

Although the railroads accepted the Board findings, the union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety" reasons. Here's what the Board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good . . .

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding."

The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands.

"The Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good . . ."

PRESIDENTIAL FACT FINDING BOARD REPORT
Read these excerpts from official reports of Presidential Fact Finding Boards:

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-electric locomotives operated under current rules indicate that Diesel-electric operation has been safer than steam locomotive operation . . ."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of the many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's Fact Finding Board which spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.

Tewksbury Aides To Meet May 2

Dr. A. Warren Stearns of Billerica, noted psychiatrist, will speak to the Friends of Tewksbury at the meeting to be held at the Tewksbury state hospital at 3 p. m., Tuesday, May 2. The organization was formed last fall to bring aid, cheer and entertainment to the chronically ill patients at the hospital. Many have been confined so long that they have lost contact with friends and relatives in the outside world.

At present 50 women are working under the leadership of Mrs. E. F. Leland, Jr. of Andover to aid these inmates. However, there is still need for more volunteers to read to patients and for a motor corps from Lowell and surrounding towns to take those back and forth who are willing to do the work but have no means of transportation.

The meeting May 2 will be conducted by Mrs. James Rutherford, president. Reports will be read by Mrs. Edward Stevens, secretary; Mrs. Jonathan Stevens, treasurer; Mrs. Leo Sullivan, chairman of entertainment, and Mrs. Leland chairman of volunteers. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

fusion and division of responsibility.

So much for a very brief resume of the Hoover commission's findings—now let's see just what they recommended.

For the benefit of Andover citizens who are interested in the true facts here are quoted verbatim from the actual Hoover Report the recommendations concerning Veterans' affairs:

Recommendation No. 1—The commission recommends:
 (a) That the administrator of Veterans' affairs reorganize his office in Washington in accordance with the general principles suggested in our first report.

(b) That the title of the executive assistant administrator be changed to deputy administrator, and that there be three or more assistant administrators, whose functions will be assigned by the administrator.

(c) That all management services be consolidated under an assistant administrator for administrative services.

(d) That the coordination service become an office of management research under an assistant administrator, and that it include the present inspection and investigation research service.

(e) That all functions relating to insurance be consolidated and incorporated into a Veterans Life Insurance corporation.

(f) That the administration of pensions, retirement benefits, disability compensation, and guardianships be consolidated in a veterans' benefit service.

(g) That administration of the vocational rehabilitation, education and readjustment allowance programs, as well as the certification of veterans for loan guarantees, be consolidated in a readjustment service.

(h) That the office of legislation be consolidated with that of the general counsel.

Recommendation No. 2—The commission recommends that all directives from the central office be promulgated by the administrator.

Recommendation No. 3—The commission recommends that the insurance operations of the veterans' administration, including the processing of death claims from all other programs of the administration and be organized as a government corporation, under the government corporation act of 1945. The administrator should be president, with authority for day-by-day operations vested in an executive vice-president and general manager, appointed by the administrator. The administrator should also be given authority to appoint a part-time advisory board.

Recommendation No. 4—We recommend that the veterans administration be given authority to establish a system of certification for all educational institutions which are not "accredited institutions" in that they have not been approved by recognized accrediting organizations, or by the appropriate state department of education; and that no payments be made to any institution, or student of it, which has failed to receive this certification.

Recommendation No. 5—It is recommended that the records of pension payments and compensation for individual veterans now kept by the office of contact and administrative services be transferred to the new veterans benefit service; that the active records kept in branch offices be transferred, during the liquidation of those offices, to regional offices; and that these records be kept separately from those of the readjustment and education programs, as well as from insurance accounts.

HOOVER REPORT

Recommendation No. 6—The commission recommends that the veterans' housing loan guaranty program be transferred to the housing and home finance agency, except that the veterans administration should continue to certify the eligibility of a veteran for these guarantees.

In the report on federal medicine activities can be found another Hoover recommendation of interest to veterans. Here is the report quoted directly from the Hoover report on federal medical activities:

Recommendation No. 7—We recommend that the functions, facilities, and the personnel for medical care of the following activities should be transferred to the united medical administration.

(a) The general hospitals of the armed forces in the continental United States (except a medical center for each of the three services) and station hospitals (certain of which the navy calls "dispensaries") in the continental United States except those at outlying posts so located that other hospitals of the united medical administration would not be near enough to provide the care required.

(b) The hospital functions of the Veterans' Administration in toto, including the outpatient services in the field offices of the Veterans' Administration.

(c) The four non-military hospitals in the canal zone;

(d) The hospitals of the public health service.

(e) The functions, facilities and personnel of the public health service.

At this point I want to call attention to the fact that the chairman of the Hoover task force that studied all phases of Veterans' affairs was none other than the distinguished and widely respected Franklin D'Olier, first national commander of the American Legion. If he hasn't the best interests of the veteran close to his heart—who has!

The Hoover commission's recommendations have been endorsed by the leaders of both political parties the leaders of both labor organizations and by most thinking Americans.

To many of our citizens it represents what may be our last clear opportunity to apply ordinary common sense business principles to the business management of our federal government.

Let's be good citizens and become informed of the facts and act accordingly in the interest of the financial integrity of our nation.

As to those of us who believe in being citizens first and veterans second we can well commend the national organization of the Junior chamber of commerce who have designated as their number one project for 1950 "Operation Economy," the adoption of the Hoover recommendations.

Sincerely yours,
EDWARD A. SHERMAN.

TO TEACH IN JAPAN

A year's leave of absence was granted by the school committee Tuesday night to Miss Louise Sherman, kindergarten teacher, who plans to leave to teach in the American dependent's school in Japan. Pupils of the school are children of American soldiers.

At the special session the committee also interviewed Miss Ruth MacAusland of Lowell who has been teaching in Fairlawn, N. J., and appointed her for a year as kindergarten teacher at a salary of $2700. She will teach during the absence of Miss Sherman.

The committee later went into executive session and interviewed three more candidates for the position of headmaster of Punchard.

OPPOSE POSTAL CUT

Opposition to the curtailment of postal service was voiced by the selectmen Monday night when they voted to have the chairman correspond with Cong. Edith Nourse Rogers and Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson to register their dissent.

The ruling issued Apr. 18 will change local service to only one delivery a day in residential areas while other economy moves would reduce other present services at the local post office.

The board also conferred with Antonio Bellia, caretaker of the dump, regarding complaints that have been received about conditions there particularly about papers blowing around, with the view to having them corrected.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

RUBBER INDUSTRY THREATENED

Another Massachusetts industry is facing a situation which is a serious threat to its business with a consequent loss of employment to many workers in Andover and neighboring areas.

Only last week attention was directed from several sources to the loss of employment in this state by the migration of textile plants to the South, and to the efforts being made to protect the plants and the jobs still in the North.

Now it is the rubber industry which is being threatened by a proposal to reduce the tariff on imported canvass and rubber footwear which, Tyer Rubber company officials hasten to point out, would allow foreign-made merchandise to be sold in this country at such low prices that domestic manufacturers could not compete.

Already hit by two mild winters that have severely cut into its production and employment, the local concern and others like it in Massachusetts, have started to do something about it.

Officials of the Tyer Rubber company have written to our representatives at Washington and are consulting with local civic and labor officials to decide upon a plan of action to protect the local industry.

The situation is serious enough to command the attention of everyone in the town as the pending tariff change is without doubt an economic threat to the whole community. Further reduction in employment at the rubber shop, which two years ago had over 1000 workers on production, would be felt by every line of business here.

A representative committee will be formed to direct local action in this matter and whatever steps they take to protect the industry should have the backing of the whole community in order to make them effective.

50 Years Ago—April 1900

Chief of Police Frye believes that another night patrolman is needed and there are many citizens who agree with him.

The clambake, given by Andrew McTernan upon his withdrawal as an engineer of the fire department, was largely attended by the well-known business men of Andover and many of the younger generation. Until a late hour, many of the guests busied themselves in the enjoyment of whist, pitch and sixty-three. The musically inclined enjoyed the piano playing of A. W. Hitchcock and the song by the Christ church quartet composed of Al Kaiser, Arthur Goodrich, Louis Dane and Bert Knight.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

BY LEONARD F. JAMES

There are two main actors at present holding the spotlight on the Washington stage. Their speeches are extremely interesting. But Senator McCarthy and Owen Lattimore are assisted by a supporting cast whose lines add spice to the spectacle. The drama has lasted so long that the audience is apt to forget the sequence of some of the scenes. Perhaps a condensation of what's happened will help.

WHAT'S A COMMUNIST?

Not long ago the principal target of McCarthy's attack was Philip Jessup, United States ambassador-at-large. But Jessup, simultaneously attacked by the Russian magazine Izvestia, parried with the remark, "Anyone who believes in . . . guilt by association might draw some startling conclusions." And when Generals George C. Marshall and Dwight D. Eisenhower publicly deplored such an attack the senator shifted ground. Jessup, he pronounced, was "sincere" but "completely fooled" and dominated by Lattimore.

WHAT IS AN APPEASER?

So then Owen Lattimore took Jessup's place and was accused of being the "top Soviet agent" in the United States, the "architect" of an American policy that "betrayed" the Chinese Nationalists. Echoing the charges along a slightly different line is Senator Wherry of Nebraska who, with Senator Bridges, is out to get Secretary of State Acheson whom he labels "a bad security risk", the "idol of left-wing appease-Russia agitators."

It would be reasonable to conclude that Senator Wherry supports a firm policy towards Russia. Perhaps he does. In April 1947 he voted against the Truman Doctrine to give Greece and Turkey economic and military aid to resist Russian pressure. In December 1947 he opposed the Marshall Plan to aid Europe. He followed that with votes against the Atlantic Alliance and against sending any arms to a nation in the alliance before it is attacked. Then in October 1949, after Russia had reportedly exploded an atomic bomb, he voted against the military assistance program to Western Europe. No one is going to talk about "guilt by association" although it certainly can be argued that opposition to the Truman Doctrine, the Marshall Plan, and the Atlantic alliance are all part of "the communist party line."

GUILT BY ASSOCIATION?

In charging Lattimore as a Soviet agent, McCarthy announced that he would stand or fall on the Lattimore case. Who are the witnesses for McCarthy? A curious trio. First, Alfred Kohlberg, a New York importer, who said that although he had no evidence to show that Lattimore is or was a Soviet agent or a communist, he did give the F.B.I. and McCarthy all the data he had on Lattimore's support of foreign policies in the Far East that he said paralleled the communist party line.

GOODWIN—CHINESE NATIONALIST LOBBYIST

Next, William Goodwin, registered with the government as agent and lobbyist for the Chinese Nationalist government. His job? "To influence leaders of United States thought" with a view to obtaining "larger measures of American support and material aid." Was it worth it? For his efforts for the year ending March 1949 he received $30,000 in salary and another $10,000 in expenses. Not bad, Mr. Goodwin. And what was his contribution to the investigation? He said on April 10 that he "laid the groundwork" for McCarthy's charges, although he "hasn't seen or talked to McCarthy since last year." But the senator says he did not "even know what Goodwin looked like" and that he had "not heard of him at all." What about that, Mr. Goodwin? Oh well, he hadn't been in contact with McCarthy; the senator was merely one of twelve members of the senate he had entertained at dinner last summer at the Mayflower hotel.

BUDENZ—WHO KNEW SOMEONE WHO . . .

The star witness is Louis Budenz, former communist party member, and an editor from 1935 to 1945 of the communist Daily Worker, now a professor of economics. He is apparently prepared to show that Lattimore is a top communist agent. And presumably, despite his former communist affiliations, he is a credible witness. What proof has Budenz that Lattimore is or was a communist? Proof? Well, he wouldn't go that far because it's a well-known trick that communists try to bleed ex-communists with libel suits. Not a matter of self-defense on the part of an indignant citizen. Just a good old communist trick. And Budenz isn't falling for that one. Not proof, just what he's heard. He knows a man whom he knows is a communist who knows that the initials L and XL in secret documents from Moscow meant Lattimore. And Budenz makes it clear that he's not talking unless he does so under congressional immunity. He's taken a cue there from McCarthy.

How long ago did Budenz have this information? For years, he replied—a curious answer, since he left the communist party in 1945. However! Why did he not disclose this information to the F.B.I. earlier? "For the simple reason that there are a number of others that I have also not been able to call attention to yet." Mr. Budenz is a busy man, and he's read only one of the eleven books written by Lattimore on the Orient, and that only "hurriedly." But Budenz is "satisfied that an examination by me of all his books would show me that he has been following the party line."

IS JOHN FOSTER DULLES A COMMUNIST?

He was reminded that former Senator John Foster Dulles, a Republican foreign policy leader, had come out for admitting the Chinese communist regime to the United Nations if it proved its ability to govern without serious domestic resistance. "Would you say he was following the communist party line?" Answer: "It doesn't necessarily make him a communist, but it shows the gentlemen . . . can be mistaken."

DO THE CHINESE REDS THINK SO?

Do the Chinese communists think Mr. Dulles is mistaken? Do they! On April 10 the Communist Radio attacked Dulles and Lattimore as reactionaries who are trying to push United States aggressive design in the Far East. Dulles is labeled "Number One warmonger in the United States" whose appointment as an adviser to the state department showed the "warlike nature" of American policies. As for Lattimore, his state department memorandum on United States policy in the Far East proves that the United States is "planning to"

Report cards will be issued Friday and honor cards will be presented in assembly. This week begins the last and most important term of all in which final exams will be given.

Notes

A ninth grade meeting was held before vacation in which plans for the outing were discussed. As yet nothing definite has been decided. Also in the same meeting it was announced that members of the high school had visited the junior high and asked that next year's officers be elected this year. The election of president and vice president was carried out at that time. James Dolan and Louis Mirisda were elected to these offices respectively. Voting for other officers will take place sometime in the future.
