GOP Women's Dollar Drive Progressing

The drive of the Republican women of Andover in their campaign for dollars has grown steadily since its start a few days ago. Enthusiastic precinct leaders report that they have succeeded in getting many workers to carry out the detailed work of the campaign.

It has been pointed out to these workers that the eyes of Massachusetts and in fact the nation are on this endeavor, for its success will probably set a pattern for Republican women everywhere.

A partial list of those working for this cause follows:

Precinct one: Leaders—Mrs. J. Everett Collins, Mrs. George Collins and Miss Mary Bailey. Workers—Mrs. Harry Sellars, Mrs. Philip Cole, Mrs. Winsor Gale, Miss Dickie Thiras, Miss Nickie Thiras, Mrs. Robert Hatton, Mrs. Harold Wennick, Mrs. Richard Douglas, Mrs. Robert Holland, Mrs. Thomas Chadwick, Mrs. Charles Gregory, Mrs. Frederick Butler, Miss Olive Butler, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Miss Caroline Riggs and Mrs. Oliver Boughton.

Precinct two: Leaders—Mrs. William Rich, Mrs. Frank Purdon, Mrs. Paul Weamer, Workers—Mrs. Alex Beedie, Mrs. Russell Penn, Mrs. William Perry, Miss Ruth Saunders, Mrs. Archibald Davidson, Mrs. Shirley Barnard, Mrs. Stanley Hitchings, Mrs. Lewis Wrigley, Mrs. Donald Amy, Mrs. Beverly Arthur, Mrs. John Heyermond, Mrs. Bernard Kellarray, Miss Marion Hill, and Miss Gladys Hill.

Local Group Organizing For Visiting Nurse Assn.

Organization plans of the Visiting Nurse Assn. of Andover, Inc., are progressing rapidly under the direction of the expanding group of local residents who are preparing to take over the service which the Red Cross chapter will cease to sponsor and finance June 30.

The list of charter cooperators is increasing each day and interest in the plan is growing with the knowledge that the service will be continued in Andover under the supervision of a local organization.

Abbot Juniors To Sing Mikado

The junior class of Abbot academy will present The Mikado by Gilbert and Sullivan at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 20 in Davis hall. The presentation will be somewhat briefer than the original but the performance promises to afford a pleasant evening.

Directing the production are Mrs. Reynold A. Currier of Lexington assisted in the choral work by Miss Kate Friskin of Abbot.

The pupils of Miss Hale's speech class will give a recital at 8 p.m. Friday, May 19 in Davis hall. Both programs are open to the public free of charge.

The vesper service will be conducted Sunday by the Rev. Raymond Calkins, D.D., pastor emeritus of the First Church in Cambridge.

The success of the annual Abbot Birthday bazaar was the result of the combined support and effort of both community and campus. In the name of the entire school group Miss Marguerite Hearsey, principal, wishes to express immense gratitude to all who assisted in its success.

Vale Church To Observe Centennial

The board of directors is being enlarged to include a representative body of local people. The executive committee and officers will be elected later and the corporation papers are expected to be signed at a meeting Monday night.

The generous support of all is requested. Solicitation of funds for annual expenses will start soon through letters to be placed in the mail soon.

Has High Praise For Townsman

"Gus" Remington of the Aberdeen apartments in Shawsheen Village has just received a letter from a former Andover resident now living in Clearwater, Fla., which contains a spontaneous and highly complimentary reference to The Townsman.

Herbert L. Treeman, retired, lived here for two or three years until his departure for the Florida resort city last October, and keeps in touch with local activities through The Townsman which he receives regularly as the result of a Christmas gift from Mr. Remington.

Writing to "Gus" recently Mr. Treeman says: "Each time I see an issue of the Andover Townsman I think how fine a job is being done on that little local paper. Rarely, even in the good magazines, does one see better workmanship, materials (paper), illustration, format, and general composition. I would expect the paper to set a standard for other local papers throughout the state and all New England."

Veterans To Honor Departed Comrades

Veteran organizations of the town will honor their departed dead Memorial day with an appropriate program featured by a parade and exercises which will be somewhat briefer than those of past years.

All veteran organizations and their auxiliaries will be joined by a platoon from Ft. Devens, Gold Star Mothers and other civic bodies.

The parade will form at 8:30 a.m. on Park street with the head at Whittier street. The parade will start promptly at 8:45 o'clock and proceed along Whittier street to the Memorial auditorium where it will halt briefly while Andover post, 2128, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will have charge of a short service consisting of placing a wreath, sounding Taps and firing a volley.

The line of march will then be to Bartlett street, Punchard avenue and Main street to the Phillips academy Memorial tower by way of Salem street. The Disabled Veterans chapter will place a wreath there, sound Taps and its squad will fire a volley.

The parade will then proceed down Main street to School and Central streets to the Memorial Hall library where the main service will be held in charge of Andover post, 8, American Legion.

The parade will disband after this service. All organizations will then go to Spring Grove cemetery where services will be conducted at the American Legion lot and the Veterans of Foreign Wars lot.

The V. F. W. contingent will then proceed to the Old South church and Indian Ridge school for appropriate services. The D. A. V. will go to St. Augustine's

Turnabouts Hold First Point Races

The Turnabouts had their first point racing last Sunday at Wakefield in a 30-mile wind and proved themselves stiffer than the Townies or Indians that had topsail with a luffing mainsail to stay on their feet.

Amazing almost to the point of being miraculous is the little Sea Horse of Byron Smith of Johnson Acres, the Turnabout that points better than four points off the wind giving the appearance of marching right along into the eye of the wind. Though behind at the start of the long windward leg she was able in just two tacks to finish second of the six boats.

Kitchen Komment

For a hamburger deluxe, use hot seasoned hamburger, lettuce, and chili sauce. Add a teaspoon of grated onion to each tablespoon of softened margarine to spread on the split hamburger buns.

Long spaghetti, cooked until tender and mixed with margarine and shredded chipped beef, makes a delightful nest for fresh garden peas. Serve this main dish hot with a tossed green salad and crusty water rolls with margarine.

THE NORTON has a combination bedroom-living room which offer interesting possibilities. Built-in twin beds, in this room, are partitioned off by folding doors from the other half of the living room. By day, the beds serve as day beds, thus concealing the dual purpose of the room. However, when divided at night, the sections have access to the hall, without disturbing the other sections. Wardrobes and a dressing table located in the dressing room. The present dressing room will double as a passage to a bedroom in the future when the latter is constructed at a later date.

The Norton's kitchen is equipped to serve the completed house. It has a large dining space. A grade up leads to The Norton's basement. There is a handy coat closet in the front vestibule and a broom closet in the bathroom hall. Plans of The Norton call for fire construction with a siding exterior and a roof covered with asphalt shingles.

The overall dimensions of The Norton are 30 feet by 26 feet with floor area of 758 square feet. The volume is 14,402 cubic feet. For further information about THE NORTON, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

At the conclusion of the very interesting and instructive tour they gathered at one of Newburyport's oldest houses, for a delicious luncheon. They also went through two other old houses one being the Tristram Coffin house, which are preserved by the historical society.

The final meeting of the Preservation of Antiques department will be a picnic at the summer house of Mrs. Jack Barry in Duxbury, Tuesday, June 13.

The meeting date of the Dramatic department has been changed from May 19 to May 26. At that time the group will meet at the home of Mrs. William Edwards, Salem st. and a penny auction will be the order of the day. Each member is requested to bring an article of bakery and a white elephant to be sold.

A portable radio and recorder was presented to the school by the association.

An election of officers resulted in the following officers being elected for 1950-51; Walter Davis, president; Mrs. Allen Flye, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Robert Waters, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. T. Edwin Andrew, recording secretary; Wallace Fiedler, treasurer; and directors, Mrs. John Hewitt, Herbert Ortstein and Miss Eunice O'Donnell. At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. J. ### The Hoover Commission Found That-

The post office department could make greater use of mechanical equipment for handling mail and much of its equipment is obsolete. Average age of post office motor vehicles was 15 1/2 years.

The federal government owned 848,567 typewriters yet had on its payroll only 235,000 persons who could operate a typewriter.

The army asked for money to buy 829,000 tropical uniforms at $129 apiece and for money to modernize 8000 tanks they did not have.

It took more than $10 worth of paper work to complete a government purchase order although half the 3 million items purchased yearly by civilian agencies are for less than $10.

The average time to process a death claim on a V.A. insurance policy was 80 days. Private companies pay from 71 to 82 percent of their death claims within 15 days.

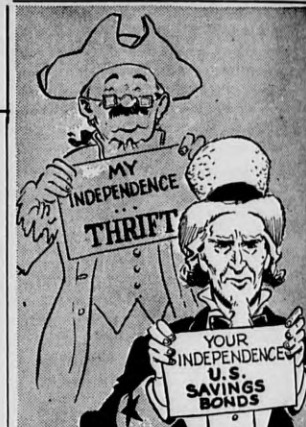

Many government agencies competing with private business invested their idle government surplus funds in government securities; result - the government paid itself interest on its own money.

In a western state there is a highway bordered on one side by a national park operated under the dept. of the interior; across the road a forest under control of the department of agriculture. If a hunter shoots a mountain lion on the national park side of the road there is a fine of $5000 and a possibility of two years in jail; on the other side of the road the department of agriculture will pay $15 for each mountain lion you shoot!

It cost the taxpayer 2 1/2 cents to print and deliver a penny postcard.

STUDENT COUNCIL ASSEMBLY

Members of student council presented an assembly Thursday in which Joe Ratyna gave a brief introduction concerning the purpose of the council, and Jean Dumont delivered a summary of its accomplishments. ## EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

CUT IN POSTAL SERVICE

Andover residents are beginning to feel the first effects of the government's recent economy moves.

Mail deliveries to residential areas of the town have been cut from two to one a day following instructions received from the office of the postmaster general.

This readjustment of mail service means that under the one-trip delivery arrangement many persons will not receive mail at their homes until afternoon. The post office department realizes that all citizens would prefer to have mail deliveries in the morning but as Postmaster Stephen A. Boland points out, the necessity to prescribe but one delivery to all strictly residential areas makes it impossible.

The one-delivery system has been tried out in Shawsheen Village for two weeks and from reports received by postal authorities seems to be working well.

The new arrangement will mean the loss of four or five jobs at the post office. The routes so vacated will be absorbed by other carriers. As these economy moves are being carried out it will be interesting to note what adjustments are made at Washington.

WHITE CANE WEEK

The American public is subjected to many appeals for funds. Some of these are legitimate; others are open to serious question. The appeal made on behalf of the blind during White Cane week (May 15-21) is one which should not be ignored. Here is a minority group which asks only to be allowed to prove that it can become a productive factor in our social and economic system.

The great curse of blindness is enforced idleness and the feeling of not 'belonging.' The money raised during White Cane week is not doled out as charity but is used to provide job training and to promote job opportunity.

50 Years Ago - May 1900

The mercury ran up to 95 degrees in the shade Tuesday.

The long-expected hokey-poke cart has arrived and has been put into service, taking the place of the wheelbarrow which has been effectively used by the street cleaner as a refuse collector.

The town clerk has entered 109 dog licenses on the books as against 37 at the same time last year.

The senior class at Abbot academy gave a representation of Longfellow's dramatic poem 'Pandora.' Between the acts, the Glee club, led by Miss Bacon, entertained the audience with some charming songs.

The three-year-old son of Wilson Knipe was run over by a carriage driven by W. M. Wood's coachman near his home on No. Main st.

Alexander Brown of Essex st. recently exhibited an egg laid by a Leghorn hen, weighing just four ounces.

Flowers seeds will be given by the Village Improvement society to any who applies at the Guild house. These flower seeds are for use in window boxes and gardens and all who wish for them are welcome to them.

Mrs. Kathleen Mears, for years a resident of this town, observed her 87th birthday. She was the recipient of many gifts. On Tuesday afternoon fifteen of her intimate friends and neighbors gave her a surprise in the form of a 'Covered Dish' party. The affair was in charge of Mrs. J. D. Wright who also presented Mrs. Mears with a gift from the friends present.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

BY LEONARD F. JAMES

Has Mr. Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, wasted his fare going to Moscow? He has gone presumably to ask Stalin to call off the cold war. The answer will doubtless be an enigmatic smile. Or more probably a chuckle up Stalin's own sleeve. For whatever Trygve Lie actually proposes to Stalin, he is in effect asking the cold war be called off. And that's one thing that Stalin certainly won't do.

The announced purpose of Lie's visit is to request Russia to stop blocking the activities of the United Nations. Moscow has for some time been refusing to participate in the United Nations while China is represented by Chiang's Nationalist government. Apart from the merits of the argument, the fact is that Russia has a case when it claims that China holds nothing more than Formosa and is in no position to speak for all China. We do not like the Red government of China; we do not like Russian influence in China. But the fact remains that the Reds now run the country. And that unpleasant fact provides Russia with sufficient reason to argue that the Chinese delegation should be changed accordingly.

CALL OFF THE COLD WAR? HOW?

Out of Trygve Lie's visit to Moscow has grown the belief that he hopes to get Russia to call off the cold war. If such is not his purpose he should vigorously deny it. If such is his intention, he deserves criticism. Because millions of people are being deluded into thinking that the cold war can be turned off. Both Russia and the western nations are putting on their own brand of cold war and neither can turn it off. For a cold war is simply polite diplomacy backed up by power. Russia does not talk about an American plane flying over the Baltic. She shoots it down, with pronounced satisfaction. We do not get out of Berlin because Russia wants us to. Instead we make it perfectly clear that we intend to stay there, even at the risk of hostilities. The cold war, as Russia sees it, is risistance and opposition to democracy everywhere. As we apply it, the cold war is resistance and opposition to the encroachments of world communism. The cold war is a means to an end, different applied and with different objectives.

CAN FOREIGN POLICY STOP?

The secretary general of the U.N. ought by this time to be able to interpret history and modern events correctly, to recognize a plain fact when it is pushed at him. Certainly enough hard facts have come our way since 1945 that we have no excuse for pretending not to see them. Does Trygve Lie really believe that the cold war can be called off, that foreign policy can be stopped? Does he think that Russia will forego her hundred-year ambition to control the Dardanelles and the Balkans? Will Russia stop meddling in the Far East, in Germany, in a country where there is the slightest opportunity to spread communism?

WE HAVE OUR COLD WAR

Russia could agree tomorrow to cooperate in the U.N. But has she cooperated during the past five years? Has the U.N. scored any singular success in bringing Moscow and the West any closer?

Russia hasn't been deterred so far by the U.N. but by the balance of power. Or put simply, Russia has confined herself to 'peaceful' methods because she thinks the opposition would be too strong in a war. The cold war could be officially called off. Then where are we? We certainly wouldn't be any safer from Russian ambitions. We could be lulled into a sense of false security. For in our own way we are applying the form of cold war. We are supporting the Truman Doctrine of assistance to Greece and Turkey in order to keep Russia out. We have engineered the Atlantic Alliance as a united front against aggression on any one member. Say Russia did call off the cold war. Would we give up the Truman Doctrine and the Atlantic Alliance? On the contrary, we'd be smart to strengthen both. And there's the way to do so right now.

A UNITED FRONT AGAINST RUSSIA

Have the members of the Atlantic Alliance the real courage of their convictions. Do they really act together? For example, do any other nation but the United States protest when the Russians shot down an American plane? Did the United States protest when the Russians illegally seized Swedish fishing vessels? Does any nation protest about an issue that doesn't immediately concern it? Occasionally it must seem that democracy and peace survive only by the grace of God and not by man's efforts. The Atlantic Alliance members ought to act together whenever Russia violates what are accepted standards of peace-time behavior. That the world keeps quiet instead, must suggest to Russia that quite a few countries are not their gaze and pretend not to see aggressive acts. She naturally concludes that some day no one will object if she commits an act of aggression on some little fee-

low. And another, then another. Like Munich, Austria, Czechoslovakia just before the last war.

Of course, Mr. Lie cannot really do this, because any such protest would be an official utterance of the U.N. And Russia doesn't pay much attention to that. What we need is to have every member of the Atlantic Alliance protest individually and collectively, on every occasion. For we'd better quit fooling ourselves. Russia will never call off the cold war. Consequently, neither can we. Russia will never relinquish her hopes of achieving her ends. She will be constantly probing to find a weak spot, recognize it, and take advantage of it. We must be as quick to see it and remedy it. The moment we relax we are gone. We have no alternative but a united front. We must beware of mistaking formulas for solutions. 'Call off the cold war' is nothing but a formula. Should Russia change the label, the poison is still the same.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

CUT IN POSTAL SERVICE

Andover residents are beginning to feel the first effects of the government's recent economy moves.

Mail deliveries to residential areas of the town have been cut from two to one a day following instructions received from the office of the postmaster general.

This readjustment of mail service means that under the one-trip delivery arrangement many persons will not receive mail at their homes until afternoon. The post office department realizes that all citizens would prefer to have mail deliveries in the morning but as Postmaster Stephen A. Boland points out, the necessity to prescribe but one delivery to all strictly residential areas makes it impossible.

The one-delivery system has been tried out in Shawsheen Village for two weeks and from reports received by postal authorities seems to be working well.

The new arrangement will mean the loss of four or five jobs at the post office. The routes so vacated will be absorbed by other carriers. As these economy moves are being carried out it will be interesting to note what adjustments are made at Washington.

WHITE CANE WEEK

The American public is subjected to many appeals for funds. Some of these are legitimate; others are open to serious question. The appeal made on behalf of the blind during White Cane week (May 15-21) is one which should not be ignored. Here is a minority group which asks only to be allowed to prove that it can become a productive factor in our social and economic system.

The great curse of blindness is enforced idleness and the feeling of not 'belonging.' The money raised during White Cane week is not doled out as charity but is used to provide job training and to promote job opportunity.

Mrs. Kathleen Mears, for years a resident of this town, observed her 87th birthday. She was the recipient of many gifts. On Tuesday afternoon fifteen of her intimate friends and neighbors gave her a surprise in the form of a 'Covered Dish' party. The affair was in charge of Mrs. J. D. Wright who also presented Mrs. Mears with a gift from the friends present.

The second Tuesday of May was the ninetieth anniversary of the day when the Andover Savings bank first opened its doors to depositors who brought to the bank its first business to the amount of $850.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

BY LEONARD F. JAMES

Has Mr. Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, wasted his fare going to Moscow? He has gone presumably to ask Stalin to call off the cold war. The answer will doubtless be an enigmatic smile. Or more probably a chuckle up Stalin's own sleeve. For whatever Trygve Lie actually proposes to Stalin, he is in effect asking the cold war be called off. And that's one thing that Stalin certainly won't do.

The announced purpose of Lie's visit is to request Russia to stop blocking the activities of the United Nations. Moscow has for some time been refusing to participate in the United Nations while China is represented by Chiang's Nationalist government. Apart from the merits of the argument, the fact is that Russia has a case when it claims that China holds nothing more than Formosa and is in no position to speak for all China. We do not like the Red government of China; we do not like Russian influence in China. But the fact remains that the Reds now run the country. And that unpleasant fact provides Russia with sufficient reason to argue that the Chinese delegation should be changed accordingly.

CALL OFF THE COLD WAR? HOW?

Out of Trygve Lie's visit to Moscow has grown the belief that he hopes to get Russia to call off the cold war. If such is not his purpose he should vigorously deny it. If such is his intention, he deserves criticism. Because millions of people are being deluded into thinking that the cold war can be turned off. Both Russia and the western nations are putting on their own brand of cold war and neither can turn it off. For a cold war is simply polite diplomacy backed up by power. Russia does not talk about an American plane flying over the Baltic. She shoots it down, with pronounced satisfaction. We do not get out of Berlin because Russia wants us to. Instead we make it perfectly clear that we intend to stay there, even at the risk of hostilities. The cold war, as Russia sees it, is resistance and opposition to democracy everywhere. As we see it, the cold war is resistance to opposition to the encroachments of world communism. The cold war is a means to an end, different applied and with different objectives.

CAN FOREIGN POLICY STOP?

The secretary general of the U.N. ought by this time to be able to interpret history and modern events correctly, to recognize a plain fact when it is pushed at him. Certainly enough hard facts have come our way since 1945 that we have no excuse for pretending not to see them. Does Trygve Lie really believe that the cold war can be called off, that foreign policy can be stopped? Does he think that Russia will forego her hundred-year ambition to control the Dardanelles and the Balkans? Will Russia stop meddling in the Far East, in Germany, in a country where there is the slightest opportunity to spread communism?

WE HAVE OUR COLD WAR

Russia could agree tomorrow to cooperate in the U.N. But has she cooperated during the past five years? Has the U.N. seen any singular success in bringing Moscow and the West any closer?

Russia hasn't been deterred so far by the U.N. but by the balance of power. Or put simply, Russia has confined herself to 'peaceful' methods because she thinks the opposition would be too strong for a war. The cold war could be officially called off. Then what are we? We certainly wouldn't be any safer from Russian ambitions. We could be lulled into a sense of false security. For our own way we are applying the Truman Doctrine of assistance to Greece and Turkey in order to keep Russia out. We have engineered the Atlantic Alliance as a united front against aggression on any one member. Say Russia did call off the cold war. Would we give up the Truman Doctrine and the Atlantic Alliance? On the contrary, we'd be smart to strengthen both. And there's way to do so right now.

A UNITED FRONT AGAINST RUSSIA

Have the members of the Atlantic Alliance the real courage of their convictions. Do they really act together? For example, do any other nation but the United States protest when the Russians shot down an American plane? Did the United States protest when the Russians illegally seized Swedish fishing vessels? Does any nation protest about an issue that doesn't immediately concern it? Occasionally it must seem that democracy and peace survive only by the grace of God and not by man's efforts. The Atlantic Alliance members ought to act together whenever Russia violates what are accepted standards of peace-time behavior. That the world keeps quiet instead, must suggest to Russia that quite a few countries are not their gaze and pretend not to see aggressive acts. She naturally concludes that some day no one will object if she commits an act of aggression on some little island.

Of course, Mr. Lie cannot really do this, because any such protest would be an official utterance of the U.N. And Russia doesn't pay much attention to that. What we need is to have every member of the Atlantic Alliance protest individually and collectively, on every occasion. For we'd better quit fooling ourselves. Russia will never call off the cold war. Consequently, neither can we. Russia will never relinquish her hopes of achieving her ends. She will be constantly probing to find a weak spot, recognize it, and take advantage of it. We must be as quick to see it and remedy it. The moment we relax we are gone. We have no alternative but a united front. We must beware of mistaking formulas for solutions. 'Call off the cold war' is nothing but a formula. Should Russia change the label, the poison is still the same.

Figures show better marriage prospects

For girls with marriage in mind, statistics show that prospects are better than ever. There have always been more boy babies than girl babies (the ratio is 105 to 100), but now more boys are living into maturity, according to Christine Sadler. Writing in McCall's for May, she gives other interesting facts and figures on marriage rates:

"Girls with marriage in mind can stop worrying about that extra million women in the population and get on with their manhunt. This is why:

"Our country's birth ratio is 105 boy babies to 100 girls. It always has been, but now more boys are living into maturity. Mortality rates of the sexes before middle age are equalizing — so much so that by 1955 the break-even point will be pushed into the 30-to-35 age group.

"The break-even point now is in the 25-to-30 group. Up to age 25 there are more men than women. Between then and 30 they run equal. By 35 the excess of women begins to show.

"Over half the Americans who intend to marry do so before they're 25. Another 28.5 per cent locate spouses by 30. Only 8 per cent make a first marriage after 38.

"Girls cannot rely on numbers alone, of course. Marriage rates also are geared to economics and national upheavals. And the prospects for these are fair and steadier, say the experts."

BASEBALL

The junior high nine opened their season last week in a game against No. Reading. The local team got off to a bad start and the game ended No. Reading 6, An-Ju-Hi 2. Especially commendable was Joe Morgan, pitcher and John Carver, catcher. In a second game with Tewksbury last Monday A. J. S. proved it has a bright future in baseball. The final score was Tewksbury 17, Andover 25. This high score was reached by the fine batting of John Carver, Ray Yancy and pitcher Jim Floyd.

A. J. Delaney, president of the Holy Name Society, presided at the program following the breakfast. He introduced Robert A. Walsh, president of the Andover Catholic club, who in turn, introduced Gov. Dever.

The latter called attention to the present-day attack being made on Christianity and Democracy 'not all of which comes from east of the Iron Curtain.'

He recalled his recent trip to Europe and his visits to several cities in Italy and France where communist mayors are now holding office. He also referred to the efforts being made to keep our

Gov. Dever advised his listeners to be well informed of the issues of today, to make no unthinking attack on politicians or the government and urged them to bolster the forces of Democracy against the forces of darkness.

Pres. Delaney announced that the Holy Name society would adopt a more active program in the future by holding monthly meetings, the first of which will be held tonight.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S UNITS

Andover's newest unit, Explorer post 75, will register May 31 with Edwin G. Zelezny as explorer advisor. Mr. Zelezny comes to the unit as an experienced scout and scouter from New York and much credit is due to him in organizing the post.

Committeemen of troop 75, St. Augustine's church, met Tuesday, May 9. Among those present were John H. Kelly, Francis Kelly, Augustine Sullivan, Louis Gleason and Col. Frank J. Killilea. Included in the business of the evening was the allocation of several committeemen to the new explorer post, post 75.

About 40 scouts met in the lower school hall under the leadership of William Dolan, scoutmaster James Tammany and Daniel Worcester, assistant scoutmasters. A business meeting was held in connection with re-registration. Also in addition to a game period the scouts practised knot tying and bandaging. Scoutmaster Dolan also examined some boys in various tests.

Troop 75 of St. Augustine's church went on a hike recently under the leadership of Daniel Worcester, assistant scoutmaster. The scouts made camp near Foster's pond in Ballardvale after a hike from the center to Rattlesnake hill. During the day the scouts found a dead mother raccoon, a baby raccoon near death, and three other babies that were all right. The baby raccoons are now safe and in the care of Alan Griffin, Paul Duchesne, and Daniel Worcester. The boys contacted two veterinaries and received information on care and feeding. The animals are being fed a formula by a small 'doll' feeding bottle and the food consists of milk, egg yoke and dextrose, an ounce at a time every three hours.

Ballardvale

Troop 76 is meeting every Tuesday with James Butler, scoutmaster in charge. It is hoped that a new unit may be registered in the fall for boys over 14 years in age and Arnold Schofield, assistant district commissioner will work on this project next September. Many Ballardvale boys have been members of Pack 72 of the Free church, but because of the distance there should be a cub pack for boys 8, 9 and 10 in Ballardvale.

Free Church Units

The combined troop and post committee of troop 72 and post 72 met in the pastor's study Wednesday, May 10. The Rev. Levering Reynolds Jr. was in charge of the meeting which was attended by John Souter, scoutmaster; Fred Schaberg, explorer advisor; Howard Johnson, Merrill Burnett, and Arthur Schwarzenberg, committeemen and Walter Caswell, district commissioner.

The main business of the evening was planning for the annual camporee to be held at Camp Onway, Raymond, N.H. It was announced that scout Harold Seiwert of troop 72 would join Roger Dea, assistant scoutmaster of troop 72 and Thomas Burnett, explorer of post 72 in the trip to Valley Forge to the Jamboree at which over 40,000 scouts and leaders will gather June 30 to July 6.

Post 72 Meets

The regular meeting of post 72 was held Wednesday May 10 with Fred Schaberg, advisor. Money was collected for the 'Statue of Liberty' fund, and the trip to Camp Onway for the council camporee was discussed. The weekly navigation course was conducted by Capt Arthur Sherman, USAFR.

annual camporee to be held at Camp Onway. The troop will defend its position of first place in the North Essex Council and will endeavor to hold the council commissioner's flag which it now has the honor of holding.

Pack 72 Meets

The pack met Wednesday May 10 with pack committee chairman Miles Pendleton, and assistant cubmaster, Howard Young in charge. An outing was announced for June 10 to be held at Holly Hill. There will be a cook-out, games and activities of interest to the cubs. There are many new cubs in the pack and the present registration is 84 boys. Kenneth Minard gave an interesting and informative demonstration on film developing. As this is an activity that boys may use as a hobby, photography interest should increase.

The following awards were presented to the cub scouts; wolf badge to Lee Pendleton and Charles Barrett; bear badge to Scott Sanborn and Bruce Valentine; silver arrow to Levering Reynolds Jr., David Simpson, William Simpson and David Smith; wolf arrow to Jon Swenson, and John Butler, lion gold arrow to William Edwards; lion gold and silver arrows to Allan Cate; wolf gold and silver arrows to Philip C. Quhouon and Howard Ensley; year pin to Larry Vasti; webelos (highest cub award) to Miles Pendleton and Charles Dalton. Scout Robert Young of troop 72 was presented with the den chief cord and advisor to a den of cub scouts. The outing June 10 will end meetings until September.

Find Man's Body In Merrimack

A body taken from the Merrimack river near the Shattuck farm Sunday by Andover police was identified later as that of John G. King, 34 of Lowell.

When local police were notified from Methuen, Officers James R. Lynch and William J. Stewart went to the scene and found the body had been caught in the limb of an overhanging tree. They pulled it ashore and Dr. Julius J. Burgiel, medical examiner, was notified. The body was taken to the Lundgren funeral home and remained there until identified.

Andover police contacted Lowell officials and established identification through the dental work. King had been missing from his home since April 19.

Autoist Caught In Police Chase

A New York man driving a car allegedly stolen in Boston and whom Andover police chased up the Lowell road early Sunday morning before he crashed into a Lowell police cruiser was held under bonds of $500 when his case in the up-river court was continued until May 23.

Identified by police as Edward T. Breen, 21, of New York, the speeder pleaded not guilty to charges of drunkenness, operating while under the influence of liquor, leaving the scene after causing injury to property, driving to endanger, and larceny of an automobile.

Meanwhile police of Andover and Boston are prepared to file additional charges against him when the Lowell charges are disposed of.

Andover police report that early Sunday morning officer Henry M. Smith was nearly run down in an attempt to stop the autoist on N. Main street. Officers Calvin Deyermund and William Tammany took up the chase which extended up Lowell street to Lowell where police of that city, notified of the chase, were waiting to intercept the car.

Two officers alighted from the cruiser, tried to flag down the speeder, but one of the policemen had to jump as the car veered and struck the cruiser in which Capt. John P. Clancy of the Lowell police was waiting. The speeder continued into Keaney square and collided with a parked car.
