and Miss Ruth Whitehill.

On Wednesday evening, a regional meeting was held at the Andover Country club to promote co-ordination of the blood program with other phases of the Red Crossmutual aid plan. Mrs. Miriam Black, blood field representative for eastern area, was in charge. In a recent meeting with work-rs, Dr. Charles H. Hollis, medical advisor for the program, stressed the necessity for community-wide understanding of two facts: first, that blood will be supplied for any Andover person, upon call from the patient's family, physician or hospital to chapter headquarters; secondly, the future success of such a liberal ar-rangement depends upon the continued loyal support given to the blood program by the people able and willing to donate blood.

Pre-Town Meeting Forum Will Discuss New Schools

Town Employees To Ask Increase

Plans are being made to insert an article in the warrant for next month's special town meeting requesting a "cost of living" increase for all town employees.

The continued advance in living costs, the recent boost in federal income taxes and the wave of wage increases being granted in other occupations are cited as some of the reasons for making the request at this time.

A special town meeting will be called in November to vote on the construction of two new elementary buildings and an article requesting the wage increase could properly come before the voters at this time.

Vale PTA Holds Novel Breakfast

The ways and means committee of the Ballardvale PTA conducted a very successful "galloping a very successful "gall breakfast" Tuesday morning.

In this novel event everyone went dressed "as was" when called for at the early morning hour the breakfast was held, and Mildred Gray received the prize for being the most original.

An appetizing breakfast consisting of fruit juices, toast, date and nut breads, jams and jellies, doughnuts, coffee and tea was served in the Congregational church vestry by the committee, Noreen Warner, Florence Reid, Laura Smalley and Edith Lumen-

The forum also provides an opportunity for the people of the town to get complete information on the project to permit voting wisely at the special town meet-ing to be called next month.

Co-sponsors of the pre-town meeting forum are the four other PTA groups in Andover and other civic-minded organizations, according to Mrs. Glenn H. Roundy, Central PTA president. They include Andover post, 8, American Legion and its auxiliary, the All-Legion and its auxiliary, the All-Women's post, Andover Service club, Andover Taxpayers' Assn., British Empire War Veterans and auxiliary, Clan Johnston and auxiliary, Disabled American Veterans, League of Women Voters of Andover, Punchard High School Alumni Assn., and Andover post, 2128 VFW and auxiliary.

Members of the school building committee, the educational consultants and architects will be present to discuss the various phases of the school program and answer questions.

Many Prizes For Costumes On Hallowe'en

Youngsters of the town are all excited about the grand Hallowe'en party planned for their entertainment and are eagerly looking forward to the night of Oct. 31 when they can parade in costume along Main street and enjoy themselves afterward at the Memorial auditor-

The Andover Recreation committee and the other organizations in town sponsoring this second annual community event are prepar-ing to offer the participants a pro-gram that will surpass that of last year when the auditorium was crowded to the doors with hundreds of boys and girls in costume and

There will be numerous prizes There will be numerous prizes for the most grotesque costumes, the most original, the funniest, the prettiest, as well as door prizes to be awarded that night.

A new feature added this year will be the parade at 6:45 p.m. in the square which will move up Main street to Punchard avenue to the additioning.

the auditorium. The program in the earlier part of the evening will be for children up to the sixth grade. After that the high school age group will take over.

The community party for Hallo-we'en has the wholehearted support of the police department. The An-dover Police Relief Assn. has con-tributed $100 as it did last year, and other organizations have al-ready made donations or have voted to do so. They include the Andover Service club, the American Legion post and auxiliary, Andover Guild (Youth Center), the Central, Shawsheen and Ballardvale

Firemen Get Deferrment

The town will not lose part of its fire department to the armed services-at least, not yet.

A few weeks ago three of the permanent members of the depart-ment who are on the reserve lists received notification to report for active service.

Deputy Chief H. Lester Hilton, former marine sergeant, Fireman John T. Cole, navy veteran, and Fireman Joseph F. Gaudette, navy veteran, had been ordered to return to duty.

Just about the same time Deputy

Chief Albert Cole, Jr., was grant-ed a temporary leave of absence from the department to take over the duties of director of civil defense. The absence of four regular men would have seriously crippled e department.
Through the efforts of Chief C.

Edward Buchan a six months' de-ferrment to May 30, has been grant-ed Deputy Chief Hilton, and in-definite deferrments have been granted Firemen Cole and Gau-

Other firemen on the reserve lists are W. Gordon Coutts, navy; Henry L. Pomeroy, navy; J. Wood-row Crowley, army; Francis D. Sparks, navy.

During the two weeks of the community chest campaign from Oct. 16 to 30, neighbor will be calling upon neighbor for a contribution. Miss Miriam Putnam, Andover chairman, notes that if every resident gives as generously as he is able there will be no difficulty in reising the local gueta of sulty in raising the local quota of $18,388, which is $1000 more than last year's quota. Subdivisions of the local organization have the following quotas: Residential solicitation, $4261., employee division, $3314., clubs, $107., special gifts, $10,706.

During the past year 1940 Andover people were served by the chest agencies as follows: 946 by the Andover Youth Center; 390 by the Andover Youth Center; 390 by the boy scouts; 42 by the Catholic Charities center; 108 by the Family Service association; 215 by the girl scouts; 19 by the International Institute; 35 by the Jewish Community center; 39 by the Massachusetts S.P.C.C.; 18 by the Protectory of Mary Immaculate; 1 by St. Anne's orphanage; 6 by the Tuberculosis and Health Association; 104 by the YMCA; 17 by the YWCA. Boosters To Erect Memorial Flagpole

A memorial flagpole at the south end of the playstead to be dedicat-ed Armistice day to the members of our armed forces who made the supreme sacrifice in the present Korean conflict is being planned by the Boosters club.

At a recent meeting the members discussed the ways and means to raise funds for three projects: the memorial flag, four $100 scholarships to be awarded to Punchard students, and 12 pairs of football pants for the junior high team.

Over 25 were present at the session over which Rep. J. Everett Collins presided, Before adjourning letters were prepared for a campaign by mail for funds for these three projects.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 25

LITTLEST LISTENERS

FREE FILMS FOR CLUBS

Leaders of groups or clubs are reminded again that they may borrow without charge two films on the United Nations during United Nations Week, Oct. 16-24, for showing to their groups. The films have been booked by the Memorial Hall library for the week and those wishing to use it may make arrangements for use of the library rangements for use of the library projector, if they wish. Dates should be set as early as possible in order to avoid conflict with other organizations.

"Patterns For Peace," one of the films, was made to bring about an understanding of the structure and purpose of the United Nations. The second film, "This Is The United Nations" shows the UN at work in the earthquake disaster in Ecuador, in which eight minutes of earthquake destroyed enough to require twenty years of reconstruction.

There is no fee for using the films; if the projector is required, the projectionist must be paid by the borrowing group for his time.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

HELP YOUR NEIGHBOR

Once again a general appeal is being made for the support of the Red Feather agencies that give service to the people of Andover, Lawrence, Methuen and North Andover through the community chest.

The campaign now going on is your opportunity to help your neighbor. In pioneer times neighbor helped neighbor directlyperhaps in the raising of a barn or in time of sickness. The modern way is through the agencies supported by the community

This year another agency has been added to the thirteen organizations already in the chest - the Associated Services for the Armed Forces. Among the others is the Andover Guild. Last year 1940 Andover people were served by the different chest agencies, 946 of them by the Andover Youth Center which operates at the auild.

The chest is an excellent idea of Democracy in action. It mobilizes all the constructive forces of a community, it conserves leadership and manpower, and it saves the people of Greater Lawrence thousands of dollars annually by eliminating the necessity of individual campaigns.

Go over the list of agencies now. Consider what you would give to each if approached separately, and then be sure your donation is the total of what these individual contributions would have been.

You can budget your giving over the coming year in any way that is convenient to you.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

We suppose that Russians ger here. But there's something in them you can't help admiring—a kind of bull-headed persistency. After all, Stalin had pretty good reason to expect to put one over reason to expect to put one over on us this summer, in the obvious way, of course. Maybe he still has pulled a fairly slick deal, but we know he expected to do a lot bet-ter. Stalin reads a lot and he cer-tainly must have run into that popular series the Marxist-Leninpopular series the Marxist-Lenin-ist-Stalinist teachings. Every good communist knows that creed, for it's logical and simple. And what is so comforting about it is its

Korea-Symbol Of Class War

Take a simple instance. War broke out in Korea. The causes are clear, the end inevitable. It began because the capitalist-im-perialists, dreading complete economic collapse at home, had to look for news markets where they could unload all their surplus ods and temporarily bolster their failing economies. For years the ruling circles of the United States and Great Britain engaged in feverish preparations for a new war. They had no confidence in their own future, so they hatched their brutal aggressive plans, inflated their military budgets, and waited their chance for world domination.

And they had to take care of the seething discontent in their working classes. These toiling masses, sinking lower and lower in their standard of living, becoming unemployed by the millions, were ready to murder their brutal lords and masters and set up free demo-cracies all over the world. Time was running short, and even the United States and Great Britain were at each other's throats in the mad struggle for markets. Then the opportunity came, and the imperialist United States seized their opportunity. North Korea would be the ideal market for surplus American goods; the country would supply valuable raw mate-

Stalin-Crusading Knight

But this stroke would prove the undoing of that decaying capitalist nation. This would be the chance for which the working classes of the world had been waiting. This brutal attack on North Korea would rally the people of the world to organize and smash their capitalist masters. Russia would be their leader. For in Russia the ideal society had already been created by the will-power of the individuals. Russia would provide the italists, where no man could exploit another, where the roots capitalism have been wrenched it forever. For here was Utopia. All right-wing traitors and stran-gers in the Party had been ex-terminated.

The exploited, down-trodden working classes, fighting for liberalism from capitalist slavery, would rally around Stalin. For all progressive humanity sees in Stalin the banner of struggle for liberty and democracy, for peace among the people. Spontaneously and gloriously the workers of the world would hurl themselves at the warmongers. Every good communist knows this. Stalin is a 13 Chestnut St.

good communist. Or does he really vallow this bunk?
The United States attacked in

The United States attacked in Korea, but the United Nations gave immediate and full support to this illegal intervention, embarrassingly contradictory to the holy word of Marx. Then the inevitable course of history regained its stride to-wards the Utopia. Only United States troops fought on in Korea. No other nation dared even to order its troops to fight. The toiling masses at home were seething with discontent, ready to overthrow the government in their glorious

But then Britain sent troops, then another nation, and another-contradictory to Marx-Leninist-Stalinist teachings. But this was really no contradiction. This, really no contradiction. Inis, of course, could be easily explained. Only under the greatest pressure and by threats of loss of Marshall aid did Britain reluctantly join the Americans, and then only because the Americans were ingloriously retreating.

Utopia-Autumn Version

What is the latest word from Marx, the guardian angel? Send Malik and company back to the security council and work with these capitalist-imperialists. Show them real fearless leadership. The workers of the world will applaud, because they know that only with Russian leadership can the United Nations lead the people towards all over again. This is the season for peace campaigns. Vishinsky is back at his old stand, with the same old line of nonsense that only the capitalist nations don't want international control-of the brand that Russia suggests. Why can't we cooperate as we did dur-ing the war, asks that master of bitter invective. And the toiling masses fall for fake peace petitions passed around by misguided individuals who believe that peace is only a matter of one nation wanting it. In Moscow the annual box of stage properties has been dusted of stage properties has been dusted off. The dove of peace has been given a coat of glossy paint, the olive branch has a few new artificial leaves, and those seasoned troupers Vishinsky, Malik and company are at it again. Do you want peace? Then sign the Peace Petition which labels as war criminal "any government which first uses atomic weapons against any country whatsoever." Whatsoever, notice. No mention of who commits aggression. No statement that the real crime against inhumanity is real crime against inhumanity is aggression. The kind of thing that Korea tasted.

The dangerous season is with us again, and the Russians are ready to spread the good word, the good Marxist-Stalinist line that any method is excusable, no holds are barred, just so long the good communist never loses sight of the main objective. It's about time we asked for one single evidence of good faith, and stopped kidding ourselves about what Russian words weren.

lace with pink accessories. Mrs.
Tacconi wore grey crepe trimmed with cut steel beads.

Samuel Abbott was best man and the ushers were George Henderson, brother of the bride, and George Graichen, brother-in-law of the bride.

After a wedding trip to New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania the couple will reside in Ballardvale.

The bride is a graduate of Punchard high school, Andover and Boston university and is a member of Epsilon Eta Phi. Mr. Tacconi is a graduate of Lowell high school and served as a lieutenant in the naval air force during World War II.

CALDWELL-CARMICHAEL

Evergreens and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of the Free church for the 4 o'clock ceremony, Oct. 15, which united in marriage Helen Isabel Carmichael daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Carmichael, 8 Burnham rd., and Richard Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, 5 Upland rd. The Rev. Levering Reynolds officiated. Donald Amy was the organist.

Entering the church with her father the bride wore a gown of ivory candlelight satin with formal train and trimmed with heirloom lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a helmet of satin and lace and she carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Roger Whitcomb as matron of honor, her cousin, Mrs. Thomas Neil as bridesmaid, and her niece, Jamie Carmichael as flower girl. The honor attendant wore a shrimp faille taffeta gown in off-shoulder effect with bouffant skirt, short white gloves and a matching hat of taffeta and net. She carried a mixed colonial bouquet of turquoise and shrimp poms. The bridesmaid chose a similar ensemble in turquoise and the flower girl wore lilac with a coronet of mixed flowers and carried a basket of rose petals.

SPRING BAZAAR

The faculty members of Junior High and Punchard are making plans for organizing and running a bazaar to increase the funds for all the extra-curricular activities of both schools. This bazaar, which is to be held Friday and Saturday, Apr. 13 and 14, 1951, will enable the school to broaden the scope of extra-activities and to give more students a chance to participate. It will, as well, lighten the finan-cial burdens that fall yearly on the members of the two upper classes.

Model Car Contest

A representative of the General Motors visited Punchard Monday to advertise the yearly model-car contest, and to urge Punchard boys to enter it. The representative showed the boys a very interesting movie on the many ways of designing these cars and also gave a talk on the details of the contest. Many valuable prizes will be a-warded for original designs, in-cluding university scholarships as well as numerous cash awards. They will be worth a try, boys!
